FOREWORD

The goal of this work is to provide a modern and accurate English translation Bible based on the latest standard texts for the public domain.

The New Heart English Bible (NHEB) is adapted from the World English Bible, public domain. For the Old Testament the Masoretic Leningrad Codex was corrected with Dead Sea Scrolls, Samaritan Pentateuch, Septuagint, Syriac Peshitta, Aramaic Targum, Old Latin and Vulgate manuscripts, along with Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (5th ed.). The United Bible Societies (UBS) Greek New Testament (5th ed.), and Novum Testamentum Graece (28th ed.) were consulted for the New Testament.

It is hoped that this work will reach many, and the Good News of Jesus Christ will expand even further the kingdom of God.

Genesis

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup>Now the earth was formless and empty, and darkness was on the surface of the watery depths. And God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters.

<sup>3</sup>And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>And God saw that the light was good. And God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>And God called the light Day,<sup>b</sup> and the darkness he called Night.<sup>c</sup> There was evening and there was morning, one day.

<sup>6</sup>And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." And it was so.<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>And God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse. <sup>8</sup>And God called the expanse Sky.<sup>e</sup>

And God saw that it was good.<sup>f</sup> There was evening and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>9</sup>And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together in one gathering, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. And the waters under the sky gathered to their gatherings, and the dry land appeared.<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>And God called the dry land Earth,<sup>h</sup> and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas.<sup>i</sup> And God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup>And God said, "Let the earth produce vegetation, plants yielding seed, and<sup>j</sup> fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with its seed in it, on the earth." And it was so. <sup>12</sup>And the earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit, with its seed in it, after their kind. And God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a third day.

<sup>14</sup>And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for

<sup>4</sup>This is the history of the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD<sup>f</sup> God made the earth and the heavens.<sup>5</sup>No plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted; for the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth. There was not a man to till the ground,<sup>6</sup>but a mist went up from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the ground.

<sup>10</sup>A river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it divided and became four branches.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD God commanded the man, saying, “Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; <sup>17</sup>but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.”

<sup>18</sup>The LORD God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him.” <sup>19</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. <sup>20</sup>The man gave names to all the livestock, and to all<sup>b</sup> the birds of the sky, and to every wild animal of the field; but for man there was not found a helper suitable for him.

ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. <sup>22</sup>He made the rib, which the LORD God had taken from the man, into a woman, and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup>The man said, “This at last is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She will be called Woman,<sup>c</sup> because this one was taken out of Man.<sup>d</sup>” <sup>24</sup>Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother, and will join with his wife, and the two<sup>e</sup> will become one flesh.<sup>f</sup> <sup>25</sup>They were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

3 Now the serpent was more subtle than any animal of the field which the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Has God really<sup>g</sup> said, ‘You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?’”

<sup>2</sup>The woman said to the serpent, “Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat, <sup>3</sup>but of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.’”

<sup>5</sup>for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

<sup>6</sup>When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit, and ate; and she gave some to her husband with her, and he ate. <sup>7</sup>The eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. <sup>8</sup>They heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

<sup>10</sup>The man said, “I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.”

<sup>11</sup>God said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?”

<sup>12</sup>The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate.”

<sup>13</sup>The LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?”

The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock, and above every animal of the field. On your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life. <sup>15</sup>I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring. He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel.”

<sup>16</sup>And to the woman he said, “I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth. In pain you will bring forth children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.”

<sup>17</sup>To Adam he said, “Because you have listened to your wife’s voice, and have eaten of the tree, of which I commanded you, saying, ‘You shall not eat of it,’ cursed is the ground for your sake. In toil you will eat of it all the days of your life. <sup>18</sup>Thorns also and thistles will it bring forth to you; and you will eat the plants<sup>a</sup> of the field. <sup>19</sup>By the sweat of your face will you eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”

<sup>22</sup>The LORD God said, "Look, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, lest he put forth his hand, and also take of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever..." <sup>23</sup>Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. <sup>24</sup>So he drove out the man; and he placed Cherubs at the east of the garden of Eden, and the flame of a sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 The man knew Eve his wife. She conceived, and gave birth to Cain, and said, "I have gotten a man with the LORD's help." <sup>2</sup>Again she gave birth, to Cain's brother Abel. Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. <sup>3</sup>As time passed, it happened that Cain brought an offering to the LORD from the fruit of the ground. <sup>4</sup>Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat. The LORD respected Abel and his offering, <sup>5</sup>but he did not respect Cain and his offering. Cain was very angry, and the expression on his face fell. <sup>6</sup>The LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen? <sup>7</sup>If you do well, will it not be lifted up? If you do not do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it." <sup>8</sup>Cain said to Abel, his brother, "Let's go into the field."<sup>b</sup> It happened when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel, his brother, and killed him.

He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

<sup>10</sup>The LORD said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to me from the ground. <sup>11</sup>Now you are cursed because of the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup>From now on, when you till the ground, it won't yield its strength to you. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth."

<sup>13</sup>Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is greater than I can bear. <sup>14</sup>Look, you have driven me out this day from the surface of the ground. I will be hidden from your face, and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth. It will happen that whoever finds me will kill me."

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to him, “Not so.<sup>a</sup> Whoever kills Cain vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold.” The LORD appointed a sign for Cain, lest any finding him should strike him.

“Adah and Zillah, hear my voice.
You wives of Lamech, listen to my speech, for I have slain a man for wounding me, a young man for bruising
me.

<sup>24</sup>If Cain will be avenged seven times,
truly Lamech seventy-seven times.”

<sup>25</sup>Adam knew his wife again. She gave birth to a son, and named him Seth, “for God has appointed me another child instead of Abel, for Cain killed him.” <sup>26</sup>There was also born a son to Seth, and he named him Enosh. This<sup>d</sup> one began to call on the LORD’s name.

5 This is the book of the generations of Adam.

In the day that God created man, he made him in God’s likeness. <sup>2</sup>He created them male and female, and blessed them, and called their name Adam,<sup>e</sup> in the day when they were created. <sup>3</sup>Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth. <sup>4</sup>The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>All the days that Adam the days of Lamech were<sup>a</sup> seven hundred and seventy-seven years, then he died.

6 It happened, when men began to multiply on the surface of the ground, and daughters were born to them,<sup>2</sup> that God's sons saw that men's daughters were beautiful, and they took for themselves wives of all that they chose.<sup>3</sup> The LORD said, "My Spirit will not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; yet will his days be one hundred twenty years."<sup>4</sup> The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when God's sons came in to men's daughters. They bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.<sup>6</sup> The LORD was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him in his heart.<sup>7</sup> The LORD said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the surface of the ground; man, along with animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them."<sup>8</sup> But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>This is the history of the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time. Noah walked with God.<sup>10</sup> Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.<sup>11</sup> The earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.<sup>b</sup><sup>12</sup> God saw the earth, and saw that it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

<sup>13</sup>God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. Look, I will destroy them with the earth.<sup>14</sup> Make a ship of gopher wood. You shall make rooms in the ship, and shall seal it inside and outside with pitch.<sup>15</sup> This is how you shall make it. The length of the ship will be three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.<sup>16</sup> You shall make a roof in the ship, and you shall finish it to a cubit upward. You shall set the door of the ship in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third levels.<sup>17</sup> And as for me, look, I am bringing the flood of waters on this earth, to destroy all flesh having the breath of life from under the sky. Everything that is in the earth will die.<sup>18</sup> But I will establish my covenant with you. You shall come into the ship, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>19</sup>Of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two<sup>a</sup> of every sort into the ship, to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. <sup>20</sup>Of the birds after their kind, of the livestock after their kind, and<sup>b</sup> of every creeping thing of the ground after their<sup>c</sup> kind, two of every sort shall come to you, to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup>Take with you of all food that is eaten, and gather it to yourself; and it will be for food for you, and for them.” <sup>22</sup>Thus Noah did. According to all that God commanded him, so he did.

7 The LORD said to Noah, “Come with all of your household into the ship, for I have seen your righteousness before me in this generation. <sup>2</sup>You shall take seven pairs of every clean animal with you, the male and his female. Of the animals that are not clean, take two, the male and his female. <sup>3</sup>Also of the clean<sup>d</sup> birds of the sky, seven pairs, a male and a female, and of all the unclean birds, one pair, a male and a female,<sup>e</sup> to preserve their offspring on the surface of all the earth. <sup>4</sup>In seven days, I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. Every living thing that I have made, I will destroy from the surface of the ground.”

<sup>13</sup>In the same day Noah, and Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ship; <sup>14</sup>they, and every animal after its kind, all the livestock after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird

The waters increased, and lifted up the ship, and it was lifted up above the earth. <sup>18</sup>The waters prevailed, and increased greatly on the earth; and the ship floated on the surface of the waters. <sup>19</sup>The waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth. All the high mountains that were under the whole sky were covered. <sup>20</sup>The waters prevailed<sup>a</sup> fifteen cubits upward, and the<sup>b</sup> mountains were covered. <sup>21</sup>All flesh died that moved on the earth, including birds, livestock, animals, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. <sup>22</sup>All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, of all that was on the dry land, died. <sup>23</sup>Every living thing was destroyed that was on the surface of the ground, including man, livestock, creeping things, and birds of the sky. 8 God remembered Noah, all the animals, and all the livestock that were with him in the ship; and God made a wind to pass over the earth. The waters subsided. <sup>2</sup>The deep’s fountains and the sky’s windows were also stopped, and the rain from the sky was restrained. <sup>3</sup>The waters receded from the earth continually. After the end of one hundred fifty days the waters decreased. <sup>4</sup>The ship rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month,<sup>c</sup> on the mountains of Ararat.<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>The waters receded continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

<sup>6</sup>It happened at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ship which he had made, <sup>7</sup>and he sent forth a raven. It went back and forth, until the waters were dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup>He sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from the surface of the ground, <sup>9</sup>but the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him into the ship; for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. He put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her to him into the ship. <sup>10</sup>And he waited<sup>a</sup> yet another seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ship. <sup>11</sup>The dove came back to him at evening, and, look, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from the earth. <sup>12</sup>He stayed yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove; and she did not return to him any more.

<sup>13</sup>It happened in the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ship, and looked. He saw that the surface of the ground was dried. <sup>14</sup>In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

9 God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, “Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. <sup>2</sup>The fear of you and the dread of you will be on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the sky. Everything that the ground teems with, and all the fish of the sea are delivered into your hand. <sup>3</sup>Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. Bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply in it."

of all flesh, and the waters will no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup>The rainbow will be in the cloud. I will look at it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth." <sup>17</sup>God said to Noah, "This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

10 Now this is the history of the generations of the sons of Noah and of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.

it is said, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD.” <sup>10</sup>The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>Out of that land he went forth into Assyria, and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, <sup>12</sup>and Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city. <sup>13</sup>Mizraim became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, <sup>14</sup>Pathrusim, Casluhim (which the Philistines descended from), and Caphtorim.

All these were the sons of Joktan.<sup>30</sup> Their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east.<sup>31</sup> These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their languages, in their lands, after their nations.

<sup>32</sup>These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations. Of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

11 The whole earth was of one language and of one speech.

<sup>2</sup>It happened, as they traveled from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they lived there.<sup>3</sup> They said one to another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." They had brick for stone, and they used tar for mortar.<sup>4</sup> They said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top reaches to the sky, and let us make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered abroad on the surface of the whole earth."

<sup>5</sup>The LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men built.<sup>6</sup> The LORD said, "Look, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is what they begin to do. Now nothing will be withheld from them, which they intend to do.<sup>7</sup> Come, let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech."<sup>8</sup> So the LORD scattered them abroad from there on the surface of all the earth. They stopped building the city.<sup>9</sup> Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth. From there, the LORD scattered them abroad on the surface of all the earth.

There Abram called on the name of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. <sup>6</sup>The land was not able to <sup>18</sup>Abram moved his tent, and came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

14 It happened in the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of Goiim, <sup>2</sup>that they made war with Bera, king of Sodom, and with Birsha, king of Gomorrah, Shinab, king of Admah, and Shemeber, king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). <sup>3</sup>All these joined together in the valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea). <sup>4</sup>Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year, they rebelled. <sup>5</sup>In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer came, and the kings who were with him, and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, <sup>6</sup>and the Horite,<sup>c</sup> in the hills of Seir, to Elparan, which is by the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>They returned, and came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that lived in Hazazon Tamar. <sup>8</sup>The king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out; and they set the battle in array against them in the valley of Siddim; <sup>9</sup>against Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings against the five. <sup>10</sup>Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell there, and those who remained fled to the hills. <sup>11</sup>They took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went their way. <sup>12</sup>They took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

<sup>13</sup>One who had escaped came and told Abram, the Hebrew. Now he lived by the oaks of Mamre, the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner; and these were allies of Abram. <sup>14</sup>When Abram heard that his relative was taken captive, he mobilized<sup>d</sup> his trained men, born

<sup>17</sup>The king of Sodom went out to meet him, after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). <sup>18</sup>Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine: and he was priest of God Most High. <sup>19</sup>He blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth: <sup>20</sup>and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

Abram gave him a tenth of all.

<sup>22</sup>Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to the LORD, God Most High,<sup>a</sup> possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup>that I will not take a thread nor a sandal strap nor anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.' <sup>24</sup>I will accept nothing from you except that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their portion."

15 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your exceedingly great reward."

<sup>2</sup>Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will you give me, seeing I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" <sup>3</sup>Abram said, "Look, to me you have given no offspring: and, look, one born in my house is my heir."

<sup>4</sup>Look, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir, but he who will come forth out of your own body will be your heir." <sup>5</sup>The LORD brought him outside, and said, "Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them." He said to him, "So shall your descendants be."<sup>b</sup> <sup>6</sup>And Abram believed God, and it was<sup>c</sup> credited to him as

<sup>12</sup>When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. Now terror and great darkness fell on him. <sup>13</sup>And he said to Abram, “Know for sure that your descendants will live as foreigners in a land that is not theirs; and they will serve them. And they will oppress them four hundred years. <sup>14</sup>But I will also judge that nation whom they will serve. And afterward they will come out<sup>b</sup> with great wealth. <sup>15</sup>But you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried in a good old age. <sup>16</sup>In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full until then.” <sup>17</sup>It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, look, a smoking furnace, and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>18</sup>In that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Perath.<sup>c</sup> <sup>19</sup>the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, <sup>20</sup>the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, <sup>21</sup>the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hivites,<sup>d</sup> the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.”

She had an Egyptian servant whose name was Hagar. <sup>2</sup>Sarai said to Abram, “See now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my servant. It may be that I will obtain children by her.” Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. <sup>3</sup>Sarai, Abram’s wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her servant, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife. <sup>4</sup>He went in to Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. <sup>5</sup>Sarai said to Abram, “This wrong is your fault. <sup>6</sup>But Abram said to Sarai, “Look, your maid is in your hand. Do to her whatever is good in your eyes.” Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her face.

<sup>7</sup>The angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. <sup>8</sup>He said, “Hagar, servant of Sarai, where did you come from? Where are you going?”

She said, “I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai.”

<sup>9</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands.” <sup>10</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, “I will greatly multiply your descendants, that they will not be numbered for multitude.”

<sup>11</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, “Look, you are with child, and will bear a son. You are to name him Ishmael, because the LORD has heard your affliction. <sup>12</sup>He will be like a wild donkey among men. His hand will be against every man, and every man’s hand against him. He will live opposite all of his brothers.”

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, “I am El Shaddai.<sup>b</sup> Walk before me, and be blameless. <sup>2</sup>I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly.”

<sup>3</sup>Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying, <sup>4</sup>“As for me, look, my covenant is with you. between me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your descendants after you. <sup>8</sup>I will give to you, and to your descendants after you, the land where you are traveling, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup>God said to Abraham, “As for you, you will keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup>This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your descendants after you. Every male among you shall be circumcised. <sup>11</sup>You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin. It will be a token of the covenant between me and you. <sup>12</sup>He who is eight days old will be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, he who is born in the house, or bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your descendants. <sup>13</sup>He who is born in your house, and he who is bought with your money, must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>14</sup>The uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant.”

<sup>15</sup>God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name will be Sarah. <sup>16</sup>And I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. And I will bless her, and she will be a mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Abraham fell on his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, “Will a child be born to him who is one hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth?” <sup>18</sup>Abraham said to God, “Oh that Ishmael might live before you.”

<sup>19</sup>And God said, “Truly,<sup>a</sup> Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you are to name him Isaac.<sup>b</sup> I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him. <sup>20</sup>As for Ishmael, I have heard you. He will become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>21</sup>But my covenant I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year.”

<sup>22</sup>When he finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham. <sup>23</sup>Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money; every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the same day, as God had said to him.

18 The LORD appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup>He lifted up his eyes and looked, and saw that three men stood opposite him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the earth, <sup>3</sup>and said, “My lord, if now I have found favor in your sight, please do not go away from your servant. <sup>4</sup>Now let a little water be fetched, wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. <sup>5</sup>I will get a morsel of bread so you can refresh your heart. After that you may go your way, now that you have come to your servant.”

They said, “Very well, do as you have said.”

<sup>6</sup>Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Quickly make ready three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes.”

<sup>7</sup>Abraham ran to the herd, and fetched a tender and good calf, and gave it to the servant. He hurried to dress it. <sup>8</sup>He took butter, milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them. He stood by them under the tree, and they ate.

He said, “See, in the tent.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said, “I will certainly return to you at the time of life. Look, Sarah your wife will have a son.”<sup>a</sup>

Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind him. <sup>11</sup>Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age. It had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. <sup>12</sup>Sarah laughed within herself, saying, “After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my lord being old also?”

<sup>13</sup>The LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Will I really bear a child, yet I am old?’ <sup>14</sup>Is anything too difficult<sup>b</sup> for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, at the time of life, and Sarah will have a son.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid.

He said, “No, but you did laugh.”

And if not, I will know.”

<sup>22</sup>The men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, but Abraham stood yet before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Abraham drew near, and said, “Will you consume the righteous with the wicked? <sup>24</sup>What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it? <sup>25</sup>Be it far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn't the Judge of all the earth do right?”

<sup>26</sup>The LORD said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sake.” <sup>27</sup>Abraham answered, “See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord, who am but dust and ashes. <sup>28</sup>What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous? Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?”

He said, “I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there.”

<sup>29</sup>He spoke to him yet again, and said, “What if there are forty found there?”

He said, “I will not do it for the forty's sake.”

<sup>30</sup>He said, “Oh do not let the Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if there are thirty found there?”

He said, “I will not do it, if I find thirty there.”

<sup>33</sup>The LORD went his way, as soon as he had finished communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

19 The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them. He bowed himself with his face to the earth, <sup>2</sup>and he said, “See now, my lords, please turn aside into your servant’s house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you will rise up early, and go on your way.”

They said, “No, but we will stay in the street all night.”

<sup>3</sup>He urged them greatly, and they came in with him, and entered into his house. He made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. <sup>4</sup>But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter. <sup>5</sup>They called to Lot, and said to him, “Where are the men who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them.”

<sup>6</sup>Lot went out to them to the door, and shut the door after him. <sup>7</sup>He said, “Please, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. <sup>8</sup>See now, I have two virgin daughters. Please let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them what seems good to you. Only do not do anything to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof.”

<sup>9</sup>They said, “Stand back.” They said, “This one fellow came in to live as a foreigner, and he appoints himself a judge. Now will we deal worse with you, than with them.” They pressed hard on the man Lot, and drew near to break the door. <sup>10</sup>But the men put forth their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. <sup>11</sup>They struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

<sup>12</sup>The men said to Lot, “Do you have anybody else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whoever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: <sup>13</sup>for we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

<sup>14</sup>Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry his daughters, and said, “Get up. Get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy the city.”

But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking. <sup>15</sup>When the morning came, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, “Get up. Take your wife, and your two daughters who are here, and get out,<sup>a</sup> lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city.”<sup>16</sup>But he lingered; and the men grabbed his hand, his wife’s hand, and his two daughters’ hands, the LORD being merciful to him; and they took him out, and set him outside of the city.<sup>17</sup>It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that he said, “Escape for your life. Do not look behind you, and do not stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed.”

<sup>18</sup>Lot said to them, “Oh, not so, my lord.<sup>19</sup>See now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your loving kindness, which you have shown to me in saving my life. I can’t escape to the mountain, lest the disaster overtake me, and I die.<sup>20</sup>See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (isn’t it a little one?), and my soul will live.”

<sup>21</sup>He said to him, “Look, I have granted your request concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.<sup>22</sup>Hurry, escape there, for I can’t do anything until you get there.” Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>23</sup>The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.<sup>24</sup>Then the LORD rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of the sky.<sup>25</sup>He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground.<sup>26</sup>But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

<sup>27</sup>Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD.<sup>28</sup>He looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and looked, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace.

<sup>29</sup>It happened, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

<sup>30</sup>Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his two daughters.<sup>31</sup>The firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth.<sup>32</sup>Come, let’s make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our father’s family.”<sup>33</sup>They made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. He did not know when she lay down, nor when she arose.

<sup>34</sup>It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, "Look, I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine again, tonight. You go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve our father's family."

<sup>35</sup>They made their father drink wine that night also. The younger went and lay with him. He did not know when she lay down, nor when she got up. <sup>36</sup>Thus both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father. <sup>37</sup>The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>38</sup>The younger also bore a son, and called his name Ben Ammi. He is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

20 Abraham traveled from there toward the land of the Negev, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He lived as a foreigner in Gerar. <sup>2</sup>Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. <sup>3</sup>But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Look, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken. For she is a man's wife."

<sup>4</sup>Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation? <sup>5</sup>Did not he tell me, 'She is my sister?'" She, even she herself, said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands have I done this."

<sup>6</sup>God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I did not allow you to touch her. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. If you do not restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours."

<sup>8</sup>Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men were very scared. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done." <sup>10</sup>Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?"

<sup>11</sup>Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my wife's sake.' <sup>12</sup>Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup>It happened, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, 'He is my brother.''"

21 The LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did to Sarah as he had spoken. <sup>2</sup>Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. <sup>3</sup>Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. <sup>5</sup>Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him. <sup>6</sup>Sarah said, “God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me.” <sup>7</sup>She said, “Who would have said to Abraham, that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age.”

<sup>8</sup>The child grew, and was weaned. Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. <sup>9</sup>Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking. <sup>10</sup>Therefore she said to Abraham, “Cast out this slave woman and her son. For the son of this slave woman will not be heir with my son, Isaac.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>11</sup>The thing was very grievous in Abraham’s sight on account of his son. <sup>12</sup>God said to Abraham, “Do not let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your slave woman. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For from Isaac will your descendants be called.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>13</sup>And I will also make a great<sup>d</sup> nation of the son of the slave woman, because he is your offspring.” <sup>14</sup>Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder; and gave her the child, and sent her away. She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. <sup>15</sup>The water in the bottle was spent, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. <sup>16</sup>She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, “Do not let me see the death of the child.” She sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.<sup>17</sup> God heard the voice of the boy.

The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to her, “What ails you, Hagar? Do not be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.<sup>18</sup> Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him in your hand. For I will make him a great nation.”

<sup>19</sup>God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, filled the bottle with water, and gave the boy drink. <sup>20</sup>God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness, and became, as he grew up, an archer.<sup>21</sup> He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>It happened at that time, that Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his army spoke to Abraham, saying, “God is with you in all that you do. <sup>23</sup>Now, therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son’s son. But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner.”

who has done this thing. Neither did you tell me, neither did I hear of it, until today.”

<sup>27</sup>Abraham took sheep and cattle, and gave them to Abimelech. Those two made a covenant. <sup>28</sup>Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. <sup>29</sup>Abimelech said to Abraham, “What do these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves mean?”

<sup>30</sup>He said, “You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well.”<sup>31</sup> Therefore he called that place Beersheba,<sup>a</sup> because they both swore there. <sup>32</sup>So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of his army, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup>And Abraham<sup>b</sup> planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. <sup>34</sup>Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

Abraham, and said to him, “Abraham, Abraham.”<sup>a</sup> He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup>He said, “Now take your son, your only son, whom you love, even Isaac, and go into the land of Moriah. Offer him there for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of.”

<sup>3</sup>Abraham rose early in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place far off. <sup>5</sup>Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go yonder. We will worship, and come back to you.” <sup>6</sup>Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son.<sup>b</sup> He took in his hand the fire and the knife. They both went together. <sup>7</sup>Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, “My father?” He said, “Here I am, my son.” He said, “Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”

<sup>8</sup>Abraham said, “God will provide himself the lamb<sup>c</sup> for a burnt offering, my son.” So they both went together. <sup>9</sup>They came to the place which God had told him of. Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on the wood. <sup>10</sup>Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to kill his son.

He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>12</sup>He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy, neither do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”

<sup>13</sup>And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and look, behind him was a ram caught in the thicket by his horns. Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup>Abraham called the name of that place the LORD Will Provide.<sup>d</sup> As it is said to this day, “On the LORD’s mountain, it will be provided.”

<sup>7</sup>Abraham rose up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth. <sup>8</sup>He talked with them, saying, “If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and approach Ephron the son of Zohar for me, <sup>9</sup>that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is in the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me among you for a possession of a burying-place.”

people I give it to you. Bury your dead.”

<sup>12</sup>Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup>He spoke to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, “But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there.”

<sup>16</sup>Abraham listened to Ephron. Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the audience of the children of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the current merchants’ standard.

<sup>17</sup>So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all of its borders, were deeded <sup>18</sup>to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city. <sup>19</sup>After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>The field, and the cave that is in it, were deeded to Abraham for a possession of a burying place by the children of Heth.

24 Abraham was old, and well stricken in age. The LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. <sup>2</sup>Abraham said to his servant, the elder of his house, who ruled over all that he had, “Please put your hand under my thigh. <sup>3</sup>I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live. <sup>4</sup>But you shall go to my country, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac.”

<sup>5</sup>The servant said to him, “What if the woman isn’t willing to follow me to this land? Must I bring your son again to the land you came from?”

<sup>6</sup>Abraham said to him, “Beware that you do not bring my son there again. <sup>7</sup>The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, ‘I will give this land to your offspring<sup>a</sup>.’ He will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup>If the woman isn’t willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this my oath. Only you shall not bring my son there again.”

concerning this matter. <sup>10</sup>The servant took ten camels, of his master's camels, and departed, having a variety of good things of his master's with him. He arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. <sup>11</sup>He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time that women go out to draw water. <sup>12</sup>He said, "O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Look, I am standing by the spring of water. The daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup>Let it happen, that the young lady to whom I will say, 'Please let down your pitcher, that I may drink,' and she will say, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink,'—let her be the one you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

<sup>18</sup>She said, "Drink, my lord." She hurried, and let down her pitcher on her hand, and gave him drink. <sup>19</sup>When she had done giving him drink, she said, "I will also draw for your camels, until they have done drinking." <sup>20</sup>She hurried, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels.

<sup>24</sup>She said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor." <sup>25</sup>She said moreover to him, "We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in."

<sup>26</sup>The man bowed his head, and worshiped the LORD. <sup>27</sup>He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his loving kindness and his truth toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me in the way to the house of my master's relatives."

<sup>28</sup>The young lady ran, and told her mother's house about these words. <sup>29</sup>Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban. Laban ran out to the man, to the spring. <sup>30</sup>It happened, when he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "This is what the man said to me," that he came to the man. Look, he was standing by the camels at the spring. <sup>31</sup>He said, "Come in, you blessed of the LORD. Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and room for the camels."

<sup>32</sup>The man came into the house, and he unloaded the camels. He gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. <sup>33</sup>Food was set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told my message."

He said, "Speak on."

<sup>34</sup>He said, "I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup>The LORD has blessed my master greatly. He has become great. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male servants and female servants, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup>Sarah, my master's wife, bore a son to my master when she was old. He has given all that he has to him. <sup>37</sup>My master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live, <sup>38</sup>but you shall go to my father's house, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.' <sup>39</sup>I said to my master, 'What if the woman will not follow me?' <sup>40</sup>He said to me, 'The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you, and prosper your way. You shall take a wife for my son of my relatives, and of my father's house. <sup>41</sup>Then will you be clear from my oath, when you come to my relatives. If they do not give her to you, you shall be clear from my oath.' <sup>42</sup>I came this day to the spring, and said, 'The LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now you do prosper my way which I go—<sup>43</sup>look, I am standing by this spring of water. Let it happen, that the maiden who comes forth to draw, to whom I will say, "Give me, I pray you, a little water from your pitcher to drink," <sup>44</sup>and she will tell me, "Drink, and I will also draw for your camels,"—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.' <sup>45</sup>Before I had done speaking in my heart, look, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder. She went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, 'Please let me drink.' <sup>46</sup>She hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink.' So I drank, and she made the camels drink also. <sup>47</sup>I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milchah bore to him.' I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands. <sup>48</sup>I bowed my head, and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter for his son. <sup>49</sup>Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. If not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left."

<sup>56</sup>He said to them, "Do not hinder me, seeing the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master."

She said, "I will go."

<sup>60</sup>They blessed Rebekah, and said to her, "Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands, and let your descendants possess the gate of those who hate them."

The servant said, "It is my master."

She took her veil, and covered herself. <sup>66</sup>The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. <sup>67</sup>Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. He loved her. Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

The one people will be stronger

The elder will serve the younger.<sup>a</sup>

He swore to him. He sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils. He ate and drank, rose up, and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

26 There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar. <sup>2</sup>The LORD appeared to him, and said, "Do not go down into Egypt. Live in the land I will tell you about. <sup>3</sup>Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you. For to you, and to your descendants, I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. <sup>4</sup>I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the sky, and will give to your descendants all these lands. In your descendants will all the nations of the earth be blessed, <sup>5</sup>because Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my requirements, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

<sup>6</sup>Isaac lived in Gerar. <sup>7</sup>The men of the place asked him about his wife. He said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "My wife," lest, he thought, "the men of the place might kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to look at." <sup>8</sup>It happened, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, look, Isaac was caressing Rebekah, his wife. <sup>9</sup>Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Look, surely she is your wife. Why did you say, 'She is my sister?'"

Isaac said to him, “Because I said, ‘Lest I die because of her.’”

<sup>10</sup>Abimelech said, “What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us.”

<sup>18</sup>Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father. For the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. He called their names after the names by which his father had called them. <sup>19</sup>Isaac’s servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. <sup>20</sup>The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaac’s herdsmen, saying, “The water is ours.” He called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him. <sup>21</sup>They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. He called its name Sitnah. <sup>22</sup>He left that place, and dug another well. They did not argue over that one. He called it Rehoboth. He said, “For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land.”

<sup>23</sup>He went up from there to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup>The LORD appeared to him the same night, and said, “I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your descendants for my servant Abraham’s sake.”

<sup>25</sup>He built an altar there, and called on the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. There Isaac’s servants dug a well.

<sup>26</sup>Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the captain of his army. <sup>27</sup>Isaac said to them, “Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?”

<sup>28</sup>They said, “We saw plainly that the LORD was with you. We said, ‘Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you, <sup>29</sup>that you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you, and as we have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace.<sup>7</sup> You are now the blessed of the LORD.”

<sup>30</sup>He made them a feast, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup>They rose up some time in the morning, and swore one to another. Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. <sup>32</sup>It happened the same day, that Isaac’s servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.” <sup>33</sup>He called it Shibah.<sup>a</sup> Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba<sup>b</sup> to this day.

27 It happened, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, “My son?”

He said to him, “Here I am.”

<sup>2</sup>He said, “See now, I am old. I do not know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup>Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and take me venison. <sup>4</sup>Make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die.”

<sup>5</sup>Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. <sup>6</sup>Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, “Look, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, <sup>7</sup>‘Bring me venison, and make me savory food, that I may eat, and bless you before the LORD before my death.’ <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you. <sup>9</sup>Go now to the flock, and get me from there two good kids of the goats. I will make them savory food for your father, such as he loves. <sup>10</sup>You shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death.”

<sup>11</sup>Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “Look, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. <sup>12</sup>What if my father touches me? I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing.”

<sup>13</sup>His mother said to him, “Let your curse be on me, my son. Only obey my voice, and go get them for me.”

such as his father loved. <sup>15</sup>Rebekah took the good clothes of Esau, her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son. <sup>16</sup>She put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck. <sup>17</sup>She gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

He said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

<sup>19</sup>Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done what you asked me to do. Please arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me."

<sup>20</sup>Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?"

He said, "Because the LORD your God gave me success."

<sup>21</sup>Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."

<sup>22</sup>Jacob went near to Isaac his father. He felt him, and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." <sup>23</sup>He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy, like his brother, Esau's hands. So he blessed him. <sup>24</sup>He said, "Are you really my son Esau?"

He said, "I am."

<sup>25</sup>He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless you."

He brought it near to him, and he ate. He brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>26</sup>His father Isaac said to him, "Come near now, and kiss me, my son." <sup>27</sup>He came near, and kissed him. He smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said,

"Look, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup>God give you of the dew of the sky,
of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.

and nations bow down to you.

Be lord over your brothers.

Let your mother's sons bow down to you.

Cursed be everyone who curses
you.

Blessed be everyone who blesses you."

<sup>30</sup>It happened, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob had just gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>He also made savory food, and brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that your soul may bless me."

<sup>32</sup>Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?"

He said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

<sup>33</sup>Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who, then, is he who has taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, he will be blessed."

<sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, my father."

<sup>35</sup>He said, "Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing."

<sup>36</sup>He said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright. See, now he has taken away my blessing." He said, "Haven't you reserved a blessing for me?"

<sup>37</sup>Isaac answered Esau, "Look, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers have I given to him for servants. With grain and new wine have I sustained him. What then will I do for you, my son?"

<sup>38</sup>Esau said to his father, "Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, my father." Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

"Look, of the fatness of the earth will be your dwelling, and of the dew of the sky from above.

<sup>40</sup>By your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother.

It will happen, when you will break loose, that you shall shake his yoke from off your neck."

<sup>41</sup>Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob."

<sup>42</sup>The words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebekah. She sent and called Jacob, her younger son, and said to him, "Look, your brother Esau comforts himself about you by planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran. <sup>44</sup>Stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury turns away; <sup>45</sup>until your brother's anger turn away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send, and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?"

<sup>46</sup>Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, of the daughters of the land, what good will my life do me?”

28 Isaac called Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him, “You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>Arise, go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father. Take a wife from there from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother. <sup>3</sup>May El Shaddai bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, that you may be a company of peoples, <sup>4</sup>and give you the blessing of Abraham, to you, and to your descendants with you, that you may inherit the land where you travel, which God gave to Abraham.”

<sup>5</sup>Isaac sent Jacob away. He went to Paddan Aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, Rebekah’s brother, Jacob’s and Esau’s mother.

<sup>6</sup>Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan Aram, to take him a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, “You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,” <sup>7</sup>and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan Aram. <sup>8</sup>Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac, his father. <sup>9</sup>Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath<sup>a</sup> the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

<sup>10</sup>Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. <sup>11</sup>He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. <sup>12</sup>He dreamed. Look, a stairway set upon the earth, and its top reached to heaven. Look, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. <sup>13</sup>Look, the LORD stood above it, and said, “I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land whereon you lie, to you will I give it, and to your descendants. <sup>14</sup>Your descendants will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. In you and in your descendants will all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>15</sup>Look, I am with you, and will keep you, wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken of to you.”

This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven."

<sup>18</sup>And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, and set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it. <sup>19</sup>He called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz at the first. <sup>20</sup>Jacob vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and clothing to put on, <sup>21</sup>so that I come again to my father's house in peace, and the LORD will be my God, <sup>22</sup>then this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, will be God's house. Of all that you will give me I will surely give the tenth to you."

29 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the children of the east. <sup>2</sup>He looked, and look, a well in the field, and, look, three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large. <sup>3</sup>There all the flocks were gathered. They rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again on the well's mouth in its place. <sup>4</sup>Jacob said to them, "My relatives, where are you from?"

They said, "We are from Haran."

<sup>5</sup>He said to them, "Do you know Laban, the son of Nahor?"

They said, "We know him."

They said, "It is well. See, Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep."

<sup>8</sup>They said, "We can't, until all the flocks are gathered together, and they roll the stone from the well's mouth. Then we water the sheep."

Jacob, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things. <sup>14</sup>Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. He lived with him for a month. <sup>15</sup>Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my brother, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?”

<sup>16</sup>Laban had two daughters. The name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>17</sup>Leah’s eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and attractive. <sup>18</sup>Jacob loved Rachel. He said, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter.”

<sup>19</sup>Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me.”

He said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?”

<sup>26</sup>Laban said, “It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup>Fulfill the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me yet seven other years.”

<sup>28</sup>Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. He gave him Rachel his daughter as wife. <sup>29</sup>Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah, his handmaid, to be her handmaid. <sup>30</sup>He went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

<sup>31</sup>The LORD saw that Leah was hated, and he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. <sup>32</sup>Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she named him Reuben. For she said, “Because the LORD has looked at my affliction. For now my husband will love me.” <sup>33</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has therefore given me this son also.” She named him Simeon. <sup>34</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son. Said, “Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore was his name called Levi. <sup>35</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son. She said, “This time will I praise the LORD.” Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

30 When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister. She said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I will die.”

<sup>2</sup>Jacob’s anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, “Am I in God’s place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”

<sup>3</sup>She said, “Look, my maid Bilhah. Go in to her, that she may bear on my knees, and I also may obtain children by her.” <sup>4</sup>She gave him Bilhah her handmaid as wife, and Jacob went in to her. <sup>5</sup>Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacob a son. <sup>6</sup>Rachel said, “God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son.” Therefore called she his name Dan. <sup>7</sup>Bilhah, Rachel’s handmaid, conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son. <sup>8</sup>Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed.” She named him Naphtali.

<sup>14</sup>Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother, Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>15</sup>She said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes, also?”

Rachel said, “Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>16</sup>Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, “You must come in to me; for I have surely hired you with my son’s mandrakes.”

He lay with her that night. <sup>17</sup>God listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>18</sup>Leah said, “God has given me my hire, because I gave my handmaid to my husband.” She named him Issachar. <sup>19</sup>Leah conceived again, and bore a sixth son to Jacob. <sup>20</sup>Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good dowry. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons.” She named him Zebulun. <sup>21</sup>Afterwards, she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

“God has taken away my reproach.”<sup>24</sup> She named him Joseph,<sup>a</sup> saying, “May the LORD add another son to me.”

<sup>25</sup>It happened, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service with which I have served you.”

<sup>27</sup>Laban said to him, “If now I have found favor in your eyes, stay here, for I have divined that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.” <sup>28</sup>He said, “Appoint me your wages, and I will give it.”

<sup>29</sup>He said to him, “You know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me. <sup>30</sup>For it was little which you had before I came, and it has increased to a multitude. The LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. Now when will I provide for my own house also?”

Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it. <sup>32</sup>I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted one, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. This will be my hire. <sup>33</sup>So my righteousness will answer for me hereafter, when you come concerning my hire that is before you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, that might be with me, will be counted stolen.”

<sup>35</sup>That day, he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>36</sup>He set three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban’s flocks.

into Laban's flock. <sup>41</sup>It happened, whenever the stronger of the flock conceived, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the flock in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods; <sup>42</sup>but when the flock were feeble, he did not put them in. So the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. <sup>43</sup>The man increased exceedingly, and had large flocks, female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

31 He heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's. From that which was our father's, has he gotten all this wealth." <sup>2</sup>Jacob saw the expression on Laban's face, and, look, it was not toward him as before. <sup>3</sup>The LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers, and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup>Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock, <sup>5</sup>and said to them, "I see the expression on your father's face, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>You know that I have served your father with all of my strength. <sup>7</sup>Your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me. <sup>8</sup>If he said this, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled. If he said this, 'The streaked will be your wages,' then all the flock bore streaked. <sup>9</sup>Thus God has taken away your father's livestock, and given them to me. <sup>10</sup>It happened at the time when the flocks conceived that I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream, and look, the male goats which leaped on the flock were streaked, speckled, and grizzled. <sup>11</sup>The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.' <sup>12</sup>He said, 'Now lift up your eyes, and look, all the male goats which leap on the flock are streaked, speckled, and grizzled, for I have seen all that Laban does to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God that appeared to you<sup>a</sup> in Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your birth.'"

<sup>14</sup>Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? <sup>15</sup>Aren't we accounted by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also quite devoured our money. <sup>16</sup>For all the riches which God has taken away from our father, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do."

<sup>17</sup>Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives on the camels, <sup>18</sup>and he took away all his livestock, and all his possessions which he had gathered, including the livestock which he had gained in Paddan Aram, to go to Isaac his father, to the land of Canaan.

<sup>20</sup>Jacob deceived Laban the Syrian, in that he did not tell him that he was running away. <sup>21</sup>So he fled with all that he had. He rose up, passed over the River,<sup>b</sup> and set his face toward the mountain of Gilead.

Now have you done foolishly. <sup>29</sup>It is in the power of my hand to hurt you, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed to yourself that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad.' <sup>30</sup>Now, you want to be gone, because you greatly longed for your father's house, but why have you stolen my gods?"

<sup>31</sup>Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I said, 'Lest you should take your daughters from me by force.' <sup>32</sup>Anyone you find your gods with shall not live. Before our relatives, discern what is yours with me, and take it." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>33</sup>Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants; but he did not find them. He went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup>Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt about all the tent, but did not find them. <sup>35</sup>She said to her father, "Do not let my lord be angry that I can't rise up before you; for the manner of women is on me." He searched, but did not find the teraphim.

<sup>36</sup>Jacob was angry, and argued with Laban. Jacob answered Laban, "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me? <sup>37</sup>Now that you have felt around in all my stuff, what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my relatives and your relatives, that they may judge between us two. <sup>38</sup>These twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not cast their young, and I haven't eaten the rams of your flocks. <sup>39</sup>That which was torn of animals, I did not bring to you. I bore its loss. Of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup>This was my situation: in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup>These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup>Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

<sup>43</sup>Laban answered Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine: and what can I do this day to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne? <sup>44</sup>Now come, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be a witness between me and you." And he said to him, "Look, there is no one with us; see, God is witness between me and you."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup>When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's army." He called the name of that place Mahanaim.

of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he come and strike me, and the mothers with the children. <sup>12</sup>You said, 'I will surely do you good, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which can't be numbered because there are so many.'"

Jacob said, "I won't let you go, unless you bless me."

<sup>27</sup>He said to him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Jacob." <sup>28</sup>He said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have fought with God and with men, and have prevailed."

<sup>29</sup>Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name."

He said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" He blessed him there.

<sup>30</sup>Jacob called the name of the place Peniel<sup>a</sup>: for, he said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved." <sup>31</sup>The sun rose on him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh. <sup>32</sup>Therefore the sons of Israel do not eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the hollow of the thigh, to this day, because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

33 Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and look, Esau was coming, and with him four hundred men. He divided the children between Leah, Rachel, and the two handmaids. <sup>2</sup>He put the handmaids and their children in front, Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph at the rear. <sup>3</sup>He himself passed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

<sup>4</sup>Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, fell on his neck, kissed him, and they wept. <sup>5</sup>He lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, "Who are these with you?"

He said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant." <sup>6</sup>Then the handmaids came near with their children, and they bowed themselves. <sup>7</sup>Leah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves. After them, Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

Jacob said, “To find favor in the sight of my lord.”

<sup>10</sup>Jacob said, “Please, no, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, because I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you were pleased with me. <sup>11</sup>Please take the gift that I brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.” He urged him, and he took it.

<sup>13</sup>Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are tender, and that the flocks and herds with me have their young, and if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die. <sup>14</sup>Please let my lord pass over before his servant, and I will lead on gently, according to the pace of the livestock that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir.”

He said, “Why? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.”

<sup>11</sup>Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you will tell me I will give. <sup>12</sup>Ask me a great amount for a dowry, and I will give whatever you ask of me, but give me the young lady as a wife."

will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will be gone."

<sup>24</sup>All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor, and to Shechem his son; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city. <sup>25</sup>It happened on the third day, when they were sore, that two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, came upon the unsuspecting city, and killed all the males. <sup>26</sup>They killed Hamor and Shechem, his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away. <sup>27</sup>Jacob's sons came on the dead, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. <sup>28</sup>They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, that which was in the city, that which was in the field, <sup>29</sup>and all their wealth. They took captive all their little ones and their wives, and took as plunder everything that was in the house. <sup>30</sup>Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have troubled me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house."

35 God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. Make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother."

<sup>2</sup>Then Jacob said to his household, and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, change your garments. <sup>3</sup>Let us arise, and go up to Bethel. I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went."

<sup>4</sup>They gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. <sup>5</sup>They traveled, and a terror of God was on the cities that were around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob. <sup>6</sup>So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. <sup>7</sup>He built an altar there, and called the place El Beth El; because there God was revealed to him, when he fled from the face of his brother. <sup>8</sup>Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; and its name was called Allon Bacuth.

<sup>9</sup>God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Paddan Aram, and blessed him. <sup>10</sup>God said to him, "Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be Jacob any more, but your name will be Israel." He named him Israel. <sup>11</sup>God said to him, "I am El Shaddai. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will be from you, and kings will come out of your body. <sup>12</sup>The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, and to your descendants after you will I give the land."

place where he spoke with him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it. <sup>15</sup>Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him “Bethel.”

<sup>16</sup>They traveled from Bethel. There was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and Rachel travailed. She had hard labor. <sup>17</sup>When she was in hard labor, the midwife said to her, “Do not be afraid, for now you will have another son.”

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. <sup>23</sup>The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob’s firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>25</sup>The sons of Bilhah (Rachel’s handmaid):

Dan and Naphtali. <sup>26</sup>The sons of Zilpah (Leah’s handmaid): Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram. <sup>27</sup>Jacob came to Isaac his father, to Mamre, to Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac lived as foreigners.

substance was too great for them to dwell together, and the land of their travels couldn't bear them because of their livestock. <sup>8</sup>Esau lived in the hill country of Seir. Esau is Edom.

Esau's wife: chief Jeush, chief Jalam, chief Korah: these are the chiefs who came of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife. <sup>19</sup>These are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their chiefs.

Beor, reigned in Edom. The name of his city was Dinhabah.<sup>33</sup>Bela died, and Jobab, the son of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in his place.<sup>34</sup>Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.<sup>35</sup>Husham died, and Hadad, the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith.<sup>36</sup>Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.<sup>37</sup>Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth-ha-Nahar, reigned in his place.<sup>38</sup>Shaul died, and Baal Hanan, the son of Achbor reigned in his place.<sup>39</sup>Baal Hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadad<sup>a</sup> reigned in his place. The name of his city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

37 Jacob lived in the land of his father's travels, in the land of Canaan.<sup>2</sup>This is the history of the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. He was a boy with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought an evil report of them to their father.<sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a coat of many colors.<sup>4</sup>His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, and they hated him, and couldn't speak peaceably to him.

<sup>5</sup>Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him all the more.<sup>6</sup>He said to them, "Please hear this dream which I have dreamed:<sup>7</sup>for look, we were binding sheaves in the field, and look, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and look, your sheaves came around, and bowed down to my sheaf."

<sup>8</sup>His brothers said to him, "Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?" They hated him all the more for his dreams and for his words.<sup>9</sup>He dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his father and<sup>b</sup> to his brothers, and said, "Look, I have dreamed yet another dream: and look, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me.”<sup>10</sup> When he told it to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him, and said to him, “What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow ourselves down to you to the earth?”<sup>11</sup> His brothers envied him, but his father kept this saying in mind.

<sup>12</sup>His brothers went to feed their father’s flock in Shechem. <sup>13</sup>Israel said to Joseph, “Aren’t your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them.” He said to him, “Here I am.”

<sup>14</sup>He said to him, “Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers, and well with the flock; and bring me word again.” So he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. <sup>15</sup>A certain man found him, and look, he was wandering in the field. The man asked him, “What are you looking for?”

<sup>16</sup>He said, “I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are feeding the flock.”

Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan. <sup>18</sup>They saw him afar off, and before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him. <sup>19</sup>They said one to another, “Look, this dreamer comes.

<sup>20</sup>Come now therefore, and let’s kill him, and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, ‘An evil animal has devoured him.’ We will see what will become of his dreams.”

<sup>25</sup>They sat down to eat bread, and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? <sup>27</sup>Come, and let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not let our hand be on him; for he is our brother, our flesh.” His brothers listened to him. <sup>28</sup>Midianites who were merchants passed by, and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. They brought Joseph into Egypt.

38 It happened at that time, that Judah went down from his brothers, and visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. <sup>2</sup>Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua. He took her, and went in to her. <sup>3</sup>She conceived, and bore a son; and he named him Er. <sup>4</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son; and she named him Onan. <sup>5</sup>She yet again bore a son, and named him Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bore him. <sup>6</sup>Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. <sup>7</sup>Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD. The LORD killed him. <sup>8</sup>Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her, and raise up offspring to your brother." <sup>9</sup>Onan knew that the offspring wouldn't be his; and it happened, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest he should give offspring to his brother. <sup>10</sup>The thing which he did was evil in the sight of the LORD, and he killed him also. <sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house, until Shelah, my son, is grown up;" for he said, "Lest he also die, like his brothers." Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown up, and she wasn't given to him as a wife.<sup>15</sup> When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face.<sup>16</sup> He turned to her by the way, and said, "Please come, let me come in to you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.

She said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"

<sup>17</sup>He said, "I will send you a kid of the goats from the flock."

She said, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?"

<sup>18</sup>He said, "What pledge will I give you?"

She said, "Your signet and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand."

He gave them to her, and came in to her, and she conceived by him.<sup>19</sup> She arose, and went away, and put off her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.<sup>20</sup> Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand, but he did not find her.<sup>21</sup> Then he asked the men of her place, saying, "Where is the prostitute, that was at Enaim by the road?"

They said, "There has been no prostitute here."

<sup>22</sup>He returned to Judah, and said, "I haven't found her; and also the men of the place said, 'There has been no prostitute here.'" <sup>23</sup>Judah said, "Let her keep it, lest we be shamed. Look, I sent this kid, and you haven't found her."

<sup>24</sup>It happened about three months later, that it was told Judah, saying, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the prostitute; and moreover, look, she is with child by prostitution."

Judah said, "Bring her forth, and let her be burnt."<sup>25</sup> When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man, whose these are, I am with child." She also said, "Please discern whose are these—the signet, and the cords, and the staff."

<sup>26</sup>Judah acknowledged them, and said, "She is more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah, my son."

He knew her again no more.<sup>27</sup> It happened in the time of her travail, that look, twins were in her womb.<sup>28</sup> When she travailed, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, "This came out first."<sup>29</sup> It happened, as he drew back his hand, that look, his brother came out, and she said, "What a breach you have made for yourself!” Therefore his name was called Perez.<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>Afterward his brother came out, that had the scarlet thread on his hand, and his name was called Zerah.<sup>b</sup>

39 Joseph was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh’s, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites that had brought him down there. <sup>2</sup>The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. He was in the house of his master the Egyptian. <sup>3</sup>His master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did prosper in his hand. <sup>4</sup>So Joseph found favor in the sight of his master,<sup>c</sup> and served him, and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. <sup>5</sup>It happened from the time that he made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s house for Joseph’s sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had, in the house and in the field. <sup>6</sup>He left all that he had in Joseph’s hand. He did not concern himself with anything, except for the food which he ate.

Joseph was well-built and handsome. <sup>7</sup>It happened after these things, that his master’s wife cast her eyes on Joseph; and she said, “Lie with me.”

<sup>8</sup>But he refused, and said to his master’s wife, “Look, my master doesn’t know what is with me in the house, and he has put all that he has into my hand. <sup>9</sup>He isn’t greater in this house than I, neither has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?”

<sup>10</sup>As she spoke to Joseph day by day, he did not listen to her, to lie by her, or to be with her. <sup>11</sup>About this time, he went into the house to do his work, and there were none of the men of the house inside. <sup>12</sup>She caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me.”

He left his garment in her hand, and ran outside. <sup>13</sup>When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and had run outside, <sup>14</sup>she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them, saying, “Look, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. <sup>15</sup>It happened, when he heard that I raised my voice and cried out, that he left his garment by me and ran outside.” <sup>16</sup>She left his garment by her, until his master came home. <sup>17</sup>She spoke to him according to these words, saying, “The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me, and said to me, “Let me lie with you.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>But when I raised my voice and cried out, he left his garment by me, and ran outside.”

<sup>19</sup>It happened, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, “This is what your servant did to me,” that his anger burned. <sup>20</sup>Joseph’s master took him, and put him into the prison, the place where the king’s prisoners were bound, and he was there in custody. <sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph, and showed kindness to him, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. <sup>22</sup>The keeper of the prison committed to Joseph’s hand all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever they did there, he was responsible for it. <sup>23</sup>The keeper of the prison did not look after anything that was under his hand, because the LORD was with him; and that which he did, the LORD made it prosper.

bound. <sup>4</sup>The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he took care of them. They stayed in prison many days. <sup>5</sup>They both dreamed a dream, each man his dream, in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison. <sup>6</sup>Joseph came in to them in the morning, and saw them, and saw that they were sad. <sup>7</sup>He asked Pharaoh’s officers who were with him in custody in his master’s house, saying, “Why do you look so sad today?”

Joseph said to them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me.”

<sup>9</sup>The chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “In my dream, look, a vine was in front of me, <sup>10</sup>and in the vine were three branches. It was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. <sup>11</sup>Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.”

<sup>12</sup>Joseph said to him, “This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup>Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head, and restore you to your office. You will give Pharaoh's cup into his hand, the way you did when you were his cupbearer. <sup>14</sup>But remember me when it will be well with you, and show kindness, please, to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. <sup>15</sup>For indeed, I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon."

<sup>16</sup>When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and look, three baskets of white bread were on my head. <sup>17</sup>In the uppermost basket there was all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup>Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation. The three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup>Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from off you." <sup>20</sup>It happened the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants. <sup>21</sup>He restored the chief cupbearer to his position again, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand; <sup>22</sup>but he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. <sup>23</sup>Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

41 It happened at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and look, he stood by the river. <sup>2</sup>Look, there came up out of the river seven cattle, sleek and fat, and they fed in the marsh grass. <sup>3</sup>Look, seven other cattle came up after them out of the river, ugly and thin, and stood by the other cattle on the brink of the river. <sup>4</sup>The ugly and thin cattle ate up the seven sleek and fat cattle. So Pharaoh awoke. <sup>5</sup>He slept and dreamed a second time: and look, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, healthy and good. <sup>6</sup>Look, seven heads of grain, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. <sup>7</sup>The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy and full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and look, it was a dream. <sup>8</sup>It happened in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all of Egypt's magicians and wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my faults today. <sup>10</sup>Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker. <sup>11</sup>We dreamed a dream in one night, I and he. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. <sup>12</sup>There was with us there a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams. To each man according to his dream he interpreted. <sup>13</sup>It happened, as he interpreted to us, so it was: he restored me to my office, and he hanged him.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothing, and came in to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

up on one stalk, full and good: <sup>23</sup>and look, seven heads of grain, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. <sup>24</sup>And the seven<sup>b</sup> thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me.”

<sup>37</sup>The thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup>Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?” <sup>39</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Because God has shown you all of this, there is none so discreet and wise as you. <sup>40</sup>You shall be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne I will be greater than you.” <sup>41</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Look, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.” <sup>42</sup>Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph’s hand, and arrayed him in robes of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck, <sup>43</sup>and he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had. They cried before him, “Bow the knee.” He set him over all the land of Egypt. <sup>44</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.” <sup>45</sup>Pharaoh called Joseph’s name Zaphenath-Paneah;<sup>a</sup> and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra priest of On as a wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

<sup>46</sup>Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>In the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth abundantly. <sup>48</sup>He gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and placed the food in the cities. He placed in every city the food from the fields around it. <sup>49</sup>Joseph stored up grain in great abundance, like the sand of the sea, until he stopped counting, for it was beyond measure. <sup>50</sup>To Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra priest of On, bore to him. <sup>51</sup>Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh,<sup>b</sup> “For,” he said, “God has made me forget all my toil, and all my father’s house.” <sup>52</sup>The name of the second, he called Ephraim<sup>c</sup>: “For God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.”

<sup>53</sup>The seven years of plenty, that were in the land of Egypt, came to an end. <sup>54</sup>The seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>55</sup>When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph. What he says to you, do.” <sup>56</sup>The famine was over all the surface of the earth. Joseph opened all the store houses, and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup>All countries came into Egypt, to Joseph, to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

42 Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, “Why do you look at one another?” <sup>2</sup>He said, “Look, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy for us from there, so that we may live, and not die.” <sup>3</sup>Joseph’s ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, with his brothers; for he said, “Lest perhaps harm happen to him.” <sup>5</sup>The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Joseph was the governor over the land. It was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph’s brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth. <sup>7</sup>Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognized them, but acted like a stranger to them, and spoke roughly with them. He said to them, “Where did you come from?”

They said, “From the land of Canaan to buy food.”

<sup>8</sup>Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. <sup>9</sup>Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed about them, and said to them, “You are spies. You have come to see the nakedness of the land.”

<sup>10</sup>They said to him, “No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. <sup>11</sup>We are all one man’s sons; we are honest men. Your servants are not spies.”

you, or else by the life of Pharaoh surely you are spies.”<sup>17</sup> He put them all together into custody for three days.

<sup>18</sup>Joseph said to them the third day, “Do this, and live, for I fear God. <sup>19</sup>If you are honest men, then let one of your brothers be bound in your prison; but you go, carry grain for the famine of your houses. <sup>20</sup>Bring your youngest brother to me; so will your words be verified, and you won’t die.”

They did so. <sup>21</sup>They said one to another, “We are certainly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul, when he begged us, and we wouldn’t listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us.”

<sup>22</sup>Reuben answered them, saying, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘Do not sin against the child,’ and you wouldn’t listen? Therefore also, look, his blood is required.”

<sup>23</sup>They did not know that Joseph understood them; for there was an interpreter between them. <sup>24</sup>He turned himself away from them, and wept. Then he returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph gave a command to fill their bags with grain, and to restore every man’s money into his sack, and to give them food for the way. So it was done to them.

lodging place, he saw his money. Look, it was in the mouth of his sack. <sup>28</sup>He said to his brothers, “My money is restored. Look, it is in my sack.” Their hearts failed them, and they turned trembling one to another, saying, “What is this that God has done to us?”

<sup>29</sup>They came to Jacob their father, to the land of Canaan, and told him all that had happened to them, saying, <sup>30</sup>“The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly with us, and took us for spies of the country.

<sup>31</sup>We said to him, ‘We are honest men. We are no spies. <sup>32</sup>We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.’ <sup>33</sup>The man, the lord of the land, said to us, ‘By this I will know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain<sup>a</sup> for the famine of your houses, and go your way. <sup>34</sup>Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. So I will deliver your brother to you, and you shall trade in the land.’”

<sup>35</sup>It happened as they emptied their sacks, that look, every man’s bundle of money was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Jacob, their father, said to them, “You have bereaved me of my children. Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.”

<sup>37</sup>Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “Kill my two sons, if I do not bring him to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him to you again.”

<sup>38</sup>He said, “My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he only is left. If harm happens to him along the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.”

43 The famine was severe in the land. <sup>2</sup>It happened, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, “Go again, buy us a little more food.”

<sup>3</sup>Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.’ <sup>4</sup>If you’ll send our brother with us, we’ll go down and buy you food, <sup>5</sup>but if you’ll not send him, we’ll not go down, for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.’”

<sup>7</sup>They said, “The man asked directly concerning ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ We just answered his questions. Is there any way we could know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

<sup>8</sup>Judah said to Israel, his father, “Send the boy with me, and we’ll get up and go, so that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I’ll be collateral for him. From my hand will you require him. If I do not bring him to you, and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever, <sup>10</sup>for if we hadn’t delayed, surely we would have returned a second time by now.”

<sup>15</sup>The men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and got up, went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. <sup>16</sup>When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Bring the men into the house, and butcher an animal, and make ready; for the men will dine with me at noon.”

<sup>17</sup>The man did as Joseph commanded, and the man brought the men to Joseph’s house. <sup>18</sup>The men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph’s house; and they said, “Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, we’re brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, attack us, and seize us as slaves, along with our donkeys.” <sup>19</sup>They came near to the steward of Joseph’s house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house, <sup>20</sup>and said, “Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. <sup>21</sup>When we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and look, every man’s money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hand. <sup>22</sup>We have brought down other money in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.”

<sup>23</sup>He said, “Peace be to you. Do not be afraid. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money.” He brought Simeon out to them. <sup>24</sup>The man brought the men into Joseph’s house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave their donkeys fodder. <sup>25</sup>They made ready the present for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.

<sup>26</sup>When Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves down to him with their face<sup>a</sup> to the ground. <sup>27</sup>He asked them of their welfare, and said, “Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?”

firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth, and the men marveled one with another.<sup>34</sup> He sent portions to them from before him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. They drank, and were merry with him.

44 He commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth. <sup>2</sup>Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, with his grain money." He did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. <sup>3</sup>As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. <sup>4</sup>When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men. When you overtake them, ask them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good? <sup>5</sup>Isn't this that from which my lord drinks, and by which he indeed divines? You have done evil in so doing.'" <sup>6</sup>He overtook them, and he spoke these words to them.

<sup>7</sup>They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing. <sup>8</sup>Look, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal silver or gold out of your lord's house? <sup>9</sup>With whoever of your servants it be found, let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondservants."

<sup>10</sup>He said, "Now also let it be according to your words: he with whom it is found will be my bondservant; and you will be blameless."

<sup>14</sup>Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. They fell on the ground before him. <sup>15</sup>Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can indeed divine?"

<sup>16</sup>Judah said, "What will we tell my lord? What will we speak? Or how will we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Look, we are my lord's bondservants, both we, and he also in whose hand the cup is found."

<sup>17</sup>He said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he will be my bondservant; but as for you, go up in peace to your father.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Judah came near to him, and said, “Oh, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord’s ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, ‘Have you a father, or a brother?’ <sup>20</sup>We said to my lord, ‘We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.’ <sup>21</sup>You said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.’ <sup>22</sup>We said to my lord, ‘The boy can’t leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’ <sup>23</sup>You said to your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will see my face no more.’ <sup>24</sup>It happened when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. <sup>25</sup>Our father said, ‘Go again, buy us a little food.’ <sup>26</sup>We said, ‘We can’t go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down: for we may not see the man’s face, unless our youngest brother is with us.’ <sup>27</sup>Your servant, my father, said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons: <sup>28</sup>and the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn in pieces;” and I haven’t seen him since. <sup>29</sup>If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol.’ <sup>30</sup>Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the boy’s life; <sup>31</sup>it will happen, when he sees that the boy is no more, that he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our father, with sorrow to Sheol. <sup>32</sup>For your servant became collateral for the boy to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him to you, then I will bear the blame to my father forever.’ <sup>33</sup>Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy, a bondservant to my lord; and let the boy go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how will I go up to my father, if the boy isn’t with me?—lest I see the evil that will come on my father.”

45 Then Joseph couldn’t control himself before all those who stood before him, and he cried, “Cause every man to go out from me.” No one else stood with him, while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. <sup>2</sup>He wept aloud. The Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard. <sup>3</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph. Does my father still live?”

His brothers couldn’t answer him; for they were terrified at his presence. <sup>4</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, “Come near to me, please.”

They came near. “He said, I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Now do not be grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life. <sup>6</sup>For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are yet five years, in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. <sup>7</sup>God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup>So now it wasn't you who sent me here, but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>Hurry, and go up to my father, and tell him, 'This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me. Do not wait. <sup>10</sup>You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you, your children, your children's children, your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. <sup>11</sup>There I will nourish you; for there are yet five years of famine; lest you come to poverty, you, and your household, and all that you have.'" <sup>12</sup>Look, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. <sup>13</sup>You shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You shall hurry and bring my father down here." <sup>14</sup>He fell on his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. <sup>15</sup>He kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. After that his brothers talked with him.

<sup>16</sup>The report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." It pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants. <sup>17</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Do this. Load your animals, and go, travel to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup>Take your father and your households, and come to me, and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.' <sup>19</sup>Now you are commanded: do this. Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. <sup>20</sup>Also, do not concern yourselves about your belongings, for the good of all of the land of Egypt is yours."

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. <sup>22</sup>He gave each one of them changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing. <sup>23</sup>To his father, he sent after this manner: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provision for his father by the way. <sup>24</sup>So he sent his brothers away, and they departed. He said to them, "See that you do not quarrel on the way."

to Jacob their father. <sup>26</sup>They told him, saying, “Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt.” His heart fainted, for he did not believe them. <sup>27</sup>They told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. When he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob, their father, revived. <sup>28</sup>Israel said, “It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

46 Israel traveled with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac. <sup>2</sup>God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, “Jacob, Jacob.”

He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup>He said, “I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down into Egypt, for there I will make of you a great nation. <sup>4</sup>I will go down with you into Egypt. I will also surely bring you up again. Joseph will close your eyes.”

<sup>5</sup>Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob, their father, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. <sup>6</sup>They took their livestock, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt—Jacob, and all his descendants with him, <sup>7</sup>his sons, and his sons’ sons with him, his daughters, and his sons’ daughters, and he brought all his descendants with him into Egypt.

<sup>28</sup>He sent Judah before him to Joseph, to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup>Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. He presented himself to him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. <sup>30</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, and to his father's house, "I will go up, and speak with Pharaoh, and will tell him, 'My brothers, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>32</sup>These men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.'

47 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, “My father and my brothers, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come out of the land of Canaan; and look, they are in the land of Goshen.”<sup>2</sup> From among his brothers he took five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup>Pharaoh said to his brothers, “What is your occupation?” They said to Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, both we, and our fathers.”

<sup>4</sup>They said to Pharaoh, “We have come to live as foreigners in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants’ flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.”

<sup>5</sup>And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, “Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>The land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land. Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. If you know any able men among them, then put them in charge of my livestock.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Joseph brought in Jacob, his father, and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How many are the days of the years of your life?”

<sup>9</sup>Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.” <sup>10</sup>Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.

<sup>11</sup>Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses,<sup>a</sup> as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup>Joseph nourished his father, his brothers, and all of his father’s household, with bread, according to their families.

<sup>13</sup>There was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. <sup>14</sup>Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s house. <sup>15</sup>When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, “Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For our money fails.”

food<sup>a</sup> for your livestock, if your money is gone.”

<sup>17</sup>They brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys: and he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock for that year. <sup>18</sup>When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him, “We will not hide from my lord how our money is all spent, and the herds of livestock are my lord’s. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands. <sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land won’t be desolate.”

<sup>20</sup>So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine was severe on them, and the land became Pharaoh’s. <sup>21</sup>As for the people, he subjugated them as slaves<sup>b</sup> from one end of the border of Egypt even to the other end of it. <sup>22</sup>Only he did not buy the land of the priests, for the priests had a portion from Pharaoh, and ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land. <sup>23</sup>Then Joseph said to the people, “Look, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. <sup>24</sup>It will happen at the harvests, that you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field, for your food, for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.”

<sup>25</sup>They said, “You have saved our lives. Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh’s servants.”

<sup>26</sup>Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. Only the land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh’s.

<sup>27</sup>Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they got themselves possessions in it, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly. <sup>28</sup>Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years. <sup>29</sup>The time drew near that Israel must die, and he called his son Joseph, and said to him, “If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt, <sup>30</sup>but when I sleep with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying place.”

He said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them." <sup>10</sup>Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he couldn't see. He brought them near to him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "I did not think I would see your face, and look, God has let me see your offspring also." <sup>12</sup>Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. <sup>13</sup>Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near to him. <sup>14</sup>Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, guiding his hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn. <sup>15</sup>He blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God who has fed me all my life long to this day, <sup>16</sup>the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys, and let my name be named on them,

<sup>20</sup>He blessed them that day, saying, “In you will Israel bless, saying, ‘God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh’” He set Ephraim before Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, “Look, I am dying, but God will be with you, and God will bring you back from this land<sup>a</sup> to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup>Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.”

they said, “This is a grievous
mourning by the Egyptians.”

Therefore, its name was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>His sons did to him just as he commanded them, <sup>13</sup>for his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field, for a possession of a burial site, from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. <sup>14</sup>Joseph returned into Egypt—he, and his brothers, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

<sup>15</sup>When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all of the evil which we did to him." <sup>16</sup>They sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded before he died, saying, <sup>17</sup>'You shall tell Joseph, "Now please forgive the disobedience of your brothers, and their sin, because they did evil to you.'" Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>18</sup>His brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, "Look, we are your servants." <sup>19</sup>Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup>As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save many people alive. <sup>21</sup>Now therefore do not be afraid. I will nourish you and your little ones." He comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

<sup>22</sup>Joseph lived in Egypt, he, and his father's house. Joseph lived one hundred ten years. <sup>23</sup>Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph's knees. <sup>24</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, "I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." <sup>25</sup>Joseph took an oath of the sons of Israel, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here." <sup>26</sup>So Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

five,<sup>a</sup> and Joseph was in Egypt already.<sup>6</sup> Joseph died, as did all his brothers, and all that generation.<sup>7</sup> The sons of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and grew exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.

<sup>8</sup>Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.<sup>9</sup> He said to his people, “Look, the people of the sons of Israel are more and mightier than we.”<sup>10</sup> Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it happen that when any war breaks out, they also join themselves to our enemies, and fight against us, and escape out of the land.”<sup>11</sup> Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. They built storage cities for Pharaoh: Pithom and Raamses.<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out. And the Egyptians<sup>c</sup> were in dread of the children of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And the Egyptians ruthlessly made the children of Israel labor,<sup>14</sup> and they made their lives bitter with hard labor, in mortar and in brick, and in all manner of labor in the field, all their labors which they ruthlessly made them do.

<sup>15</sup>The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah,<sup>16</sup> and he said, “When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birth stool; if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.”<sup>17</sup> But the midwives feared God, and did not do what the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby boys alive.<sup>18</sup> The king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, “Why have you done this thing, and have saved the boys alive?”

<sup>20</sup>God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very mighty.<sup>21</sup> It happened, because the midwives feared God, that he gave them families.<sup>22</sup> Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, “You are to cast every son who is born to the Hebrews<sup>d</sup> into the river, but every daughter you are to keep alive.”

2 A man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as his wife. <sup>2</sup>The woman conceived, and bore a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup>When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket for him, and coated it with tar and with pitch. She put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank. <sup>4</sup>His sister stood far off, to see what would be done to him. <sup>5</sup>Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river. Her maidens walked along by the riverside. She saw the basket among the reeds, and sent her handmaid to get it. <sup>6</sup>She opened it, and saw the child, and look, the baby cried. And she had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

<sup>7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"

The maiden went and called the child's mother. <sup>9</sup>Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages."

The woman took the child, and nursed it. <sup>10</sup>The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's

<sup>11</sup>It happened in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brothers, and looked at their burdens. <sup>20</sup>He said to his daughters, "Where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread."

<sup>23</sup>It happened in the course of those many days, that the king of Egypt died, and the sons of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. <sup>24</sup>God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. <sup>25</sup>God saw the sons of Israel, and God was concerned about them.

He looked, and look, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. <sup>3</sup>Moses said, "I will turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."

<sup>4</sup>When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, "Moses. Moses."

He said, "Here I am."

river, and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>Moses said to the LORD, “Please, Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before now, nor since you have spoken to your servant; for I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.”

<sup>14</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, “What about Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Also, look, he comes forth to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. <sup>15</sup>You shall speak to him, and put the words in his mouth. I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. <sup>16</sup>He will be your spokesman to the people; and it will happen, that he will be to you a mouth, and you will be to him as God. <sup>17</sup>You shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

<sup>18</sup>Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.”

Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>20</sup>Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took God’s rod in his hand. <sup>21</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “When you go back into Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart and he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>You shall tell Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD, Israel is my son, my firstborn, <sup>23</sup>and I have said to you, ‘Let my son go, that he may serve me;’ and you have refused to let him go. Look, I will kill your son, your firstborn.’”

<sup>24</sup>It happened on the way at a lodging place, that the LORD met him and wanted to kill him. <sup>25</sup>Then Zipporah took a flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet; and she said, “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me.”

<sup>26</sup>So he let him alone. Then she said, “You are a bridegroom of blood,” because of the circumcision.

He went, and met him on God’s mountain, and kissed him. <sup>28</sup>Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had instructed him. <sup>29</sup>Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the sons of Israel. <sup>30</sup>Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>31</sup>The people believed, and when they heard that the LORD had visited the sons of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

5 Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, “This is what the LORD, God of Israel, says, ‘Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.’”

<sup>2</sup>Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and moreover I will not let Israel go.”

<sup>3</sup>They said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD, our God, lest he fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword.”

<sup>16</sup>No straw is given to your servants, and they tell us, ‘Make brick.’ and look, your servants are beaten; but the fault is in your own people.”

<sup>17</sup>But he said, “You are idle. You are idle. Therefore you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’”
<sup>18</sup>Go therefore now, and work, for no straw shall be given to you, yet you shall deliver the same number of bricks.”

<sup>20</sup>They met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh: <sup>21</sup>and they said to them, “May the LORD look at you, and judge, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

<sup>22</sup>Moses returned to the LORD, and said, “Lord, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me?”
<sup>23</sup>For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble on this people; neither have you delivered your people at all.”

6 The LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand he shall let them go, and by a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land.”

<sup>2</sup>God spoke to Moses, and said to him, “I am the LORD; <sup>3</sup>and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as El Shaddai<sup>a</sup>; but by my name the LORD<sup>b</sup> I was not known to them. <sup>4</sup>I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they lived as foreigners. <sup>5</sup>Moreover I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant. <sup>6</sup>Therefore tell the sons of Israel, ‘I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments: <sup>7</sup>and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup>I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you as a possession. These are the heads of ancestral houses of the Levites according to their families. <sup>26</sup>These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, “Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.” <sup>27</sup>These are those who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt. These are that Moses and Aaron.

<sup>28</sup>It happened on the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup>that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, “I am the LORD. Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I speak to you.”

<sup>30</sup>Moses said before the LORD, “Look, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?”

7 The LORD said to Moses, “Look, I have made you as God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. <sup>2</sup>You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he let the sons of Israel go out of his land. <sup>3</sup>I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I will lay my hand on Egypt, and bring forth my armies, my people the sons of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. <sup>5</sup>The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth my hand on Egypt, and bring out the sons of Israel from among them.”

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron did so. As the LORD commanded them, so they did. <sup>7</sup>Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>9</sup>“When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Perform a miracle.’ then you shall tell Aaron, ‘Take your rod, and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it become a serpent.’”

<sup>10</sup>Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. <sup>11</sup>Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers. They also, the magicians of Egypt, did in like manner with their secret arts. <sup>12</sup>For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron’s rod swallowed up their rods.<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them; as the LORD had spoken.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Look, he goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river’s bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand. <sup>16</sup>You shall tell him, ‘The LORD, God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, ‘Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:’” and look, until now you haven’t listened. <sup>17</sup>Thus says the LORD, “In this you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>The fish that were in the river died; and the river became foul, and the Egyptians couldn't drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>The magicians of Egypt did in like manner with their secret arts; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them; as the LORD had spoken. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he lay even this to heart. <sup>24</sup>All the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink; for they couldn't drink of the water of the river. <sup>25</sup>Seven days were fulfilled, after the LORD had struck the river.

<sup>8</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Pray to the LORD, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup>Moses said to Pharaoh, “I give you the honor of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, and remain in the river only.”

He said, “Be it according to your word, that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God. <sup>11</sup>The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only.”

<sup>12</sup>Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to the LORD concerning the frogs which he had brought on Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>The LORD did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields. <sup>14</sup>They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and did not listen to them, as the LORD had spoken.

all the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup>The magicians tried with their secret arts to bring forth lice, but they couldn’t. There were lice on man, and on animal. <sup>19</sup>Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” and Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them; as the LORD had spoken.

<sup>26</sup>Moses said, “It isn’t appropriate to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. Look, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and won’t they stone us? <sup>27</sup>We will go three days’ journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.”

<sup>28</sup>Pharaoh said, “I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses said, “Look, I go out from you, and I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.” <sup>30</sup>Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>The LORD did according to the word of Moses, and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one. <sup>32</sup>Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go.

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>2</sup>For if you refuse to let them go, and hold them still, <sup>3</sup>look, the hand of the LORD is on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks with a very grievous pestilence.<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>The LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt; and there shall nothing die of all that belongs to the sons of Israel.”’” <sup>5</sup>The LORD appointed a set time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.” <sup>6</sup>The LORD did that thing on the next day; and all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock of the sons of Israel, not one died. <sup>7</sup>Pharaoh sent, and, look, there was not so much as one of the livestock of Israel dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and he did not let the people go.

and let Moses sprinkle it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>It shall become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with boils<sup>a</sup> on man and on animal, throughout all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>13</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>14</sup>For this time I will send all my plagues against your heart, against your officials, and against your people; that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>For now I would have put forth my hand, and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth; <sup>16</sup>but indeed for this purpose I have raised you up, to show you my power, and that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth;<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>as you still exalt yourself against my people, that you won't let them go. <sup>18</sup>Look, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail,<sup>c</sup> such as has not been in Egypt since the day it was founded even until now. <sup>19</sup>Now therefore command that all of your livestock and all that you have in the field be brought into shelter. Every man and animal that is found in the field, and isn't brought home, the hail shall come down on them, and they shall die.””

<sup>22</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Stretch forth your hand toward the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on animal, and on every plant of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.”

<sup>23</sup>Moses stretched forth his rod toward the heavens, and the LORD sent thunder, and hail, and fire fell to the earth. The LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.

<sup>24</sup>So there was very severe hail, and fire mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

<sup>25</sup>The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and animal; and the hail struck every plant of the field, and broke every tree of the field. <sup>26</sup>Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup>Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. <sup>28</sup>Pray to the LORD; for there has been enough of God’s thunder and hail and fire.<sup>a</sup> I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to the LORD. The thunders shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s. <sup>30</sup>But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.”

Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to the LORD; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured on the land.

<sup>34</sup>When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup>The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the sons of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

10 The LORD said to Moses, “Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I may show these my signs in the midst of them, <sup>2</sup>and that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your son’s son, what things I have done to Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, “This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>4</sup>Or else, if you refuse to let my people go, look, tomorrow I will bring locusts<sup>b</sup> into your country, <sup>5</sup>and they shall cover the surface of the earth, so that one won’t be able to see the earth. <sup>7</sup>Pharaoh's servants said to him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD, their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?”

<sup>8</sup>Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God; but who are those who will go?”

<sup>9</sup>Moses said, “We will go with our young and with our old; with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>He said to them, “The LORD be with you if I will let you go with your little ones. See, evil is clearly before your faces. <sup>11</sup>Not so. Go now you who are men, and serve the LORD; for that is what you desire.” They were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt and eat every plant of the land,<sup>a</sup> even all that the hail has left.” <sup>13</sup>Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup>The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. <sup>15</sup>For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every plant of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or plant of the field, through all the land of Egypt. <sup>16</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to the LORD your God, that he may also take away from me this death.”

one locust in all the borders of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness<sup>a</sup> over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt." <sup>22</sup>Moses stretched forth his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days. <sup>23</sup>They did not see one another, neither did anyone rise from his place for three days; but all the sons of Israel had light in their dwellings.

<sup>24</sup>Then Pharaoh called to Moses and to Aaron<sup>b</sup> and said, "Go, serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds stay behind. Let your little ones also go with you."

<sup>25</sup>Moses said, "You must also give into our hand sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. <sup>26</sup>Our livestock must also go with us; not a hoof is<sup>c</sup> left behind, for of it we must take to serve the LORD our God; and we do not know with what we must serve the LORD, until we come there."

<sup>27</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he wouldn't let them go. <sup>28</sup>Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me. Be careful to see my face no more; for in the day you see my face you shall die."

<sup>29</sup>Moses said, "You have spoken well. I will see your face again no more."

11 The LORD said to Moses, "Yet one plague more will I bring on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether. <sup>2</sup>Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let them ask every man of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing.<sup>d</sup>" <sup>3</sup>The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. He went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." <sup>10</sup>Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

on the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be on you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>This day shall be to you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to the LORD: throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.

<sup>15</sup>“Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; even the first day you shall put away yeast out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. <sup>16</sup>In the first day there shall be to you a holy convocation, and in the seventh day a holy convocation; no manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you. <sup>17</sup>You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this same day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever. <sup>18</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening. <sup>19</sup>Seven days shall there be no yeast found in your houses, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a foreigner, or one who is born in the land. <sup>20</sup>You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread.”

<sup>21</sup>Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said to them, “Draw out, and take lambs according to your families, and kill the Passover. <sup>22</sup>You shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning. <sup>23</sup>For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel, and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your houses to strike you. <sup>24</sup>You shall observe this thing for an ordinance to you and to your sons forever. <sup>25</sup>It shall happen when you have come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he has promised, that you shall keep this service. <sup>26</sup>It will happen, when your children ask you, ‘What do you mean by this service?’ <sup>27</sup>that you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD’s Passover, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians, and spared our houses.’”

The people bowed their heads and worshipped. <sup>28</sup>The sons of Israel went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

<sup>29</sup>It happened at midnight, that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of livestock. <sup>30</sup>Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead. <sup>31</sup>He called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the sons of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said. <sup>32</sup>Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also."

Egypt; for it wasn't leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt, and couldn't wait, neither had they prepared for themselves any food. <sup>40</sup>Now the time of the dwelling of the sons of Israel who dwelt in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years. <sup>41</sup>It happened at the end of four hundred thirty years, even the same day it happened, that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup>It is a night to be much observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, to be much observed of all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.

eat of it.<sup>49</sup> One law shall be to him who is born at home, and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you.”<sup>50</sup> All the sons of Israel did so. As the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.<sup>51</sup> It happened the same day, that the LORD brought the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

<sup>2</sup>“Sanctify to me all of the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the sons of Israel, both of man and of animal. It is mine.”

seen with you, neither shall there be yeast seen with you, in all your borders.<sup>8</sup> You shall tell your son in that day, saying, ‘It is because of that which the LORD did for me when I came forth out of Egypt.’<sup>9</sup> It shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt.<sup>10</sup> You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

<sup>11</sup>“It shall be, when the LORD your God<sup>b</sup> shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it to you,<sup>12</sup> that you shall set apart to the LORD all that opens the womb, and every firstborn which you have that comes from an animal. The males shall be the LORD’s.<sup>13</sup> Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and you shall redeem all the firstborn of man among your sons.<sup>14</sup> It shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ that you shall tell him, ‘By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage;’<sup>15</sup> and it happened, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both

Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.’<sup>16</sup>It shall be for a sign on your hand, and for symbols between your eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.”

<sup>17</sup>It happened, when Pharaoh had led the people go, that God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, “Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt;”<sup>18</sup>but God led the people around by the way of the wilderness by the Sea of Suf;<sup>a</sup>; and the sons of Israel went up in five<sup>b</sup> [divisions] out of the land of Egypt. <sup>19</sup>Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the sons of Israel swear, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you.”<sup>20</sup>They took their journey from Succoth, and camped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup>The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night: <sup>22</sup>the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, did not depart from before the people.

<sup>5</sup>It was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was changed towards the people, and they said, “What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?”<sup>6</sup>He made ready his chariot, and took his army with him; <sup>7</sup>and he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over all of them.<sup>8</sup>And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup>When Pharaoh drew near, the sons of Israel lifted up their eyes, and look, the Egyptians were marching<sup>a</sup> after them; and they were very afraid. The sons of Israel cried out to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>They said to Moses, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you treated us this way, to bring us forth out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Isn't this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Leave us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians?' For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness."

<sup>13</sup>Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today: for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never, ever see again. <sup>14</sup>The LORD will fight for you, and you shall be still."

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Speak to the sons of Israel, that they go forward. <sup>16</sup>Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it: and the sons of Israel shall go into the midst of the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup>And look, I myself will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them: and I will get myself honor over Pharaoh, and over all his armies, over his chariots, and over his horsemen. <sup>18</sup>The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten myself honor over Pharaoh, over his chariots, and over his horsemen." <sup>19</sup>The angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>It came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud and the darkness, yet it gave light by night. So the one did not come near the other all night.

<sup>21</sup>Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. <sup>23</sup>The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea: all of Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>24</sup>It happened in the morning watch, that the LORD looked out on the Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and confused the Egyptian army. <sup>25</sup>He bound<sup>a</sup> their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty. And the Egyptians said, “Let’s flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.”

<sup>26</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come again on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.”

<sup>27</sup>Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it. The LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. <sup>28</sup>The waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all Pharaoh’s army that went in after them into the sea. There remained not so much as one of them. <sup>29</sup>But the sons of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left.

<sup>30</sup>Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

<sup>31</sup>Israel saw the great work which the LORD did to the Egyptians, and the people feared the LORD; and they believed in the LORD, and in his servant Moses.

<sup>22</sup>Moses led Israel onward from the Sea of Suf,<sup>a</sup> and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. <sup>23</sup>When they came to Marah, they couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore its name was called Marah.<sup>b</sup> <sup>24</sup>The people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?" <sup>25</sup>Then he cried to the LORD. The LORD showed him a tree, and he threw it into the waters, and the waters were made sweet. There he made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there he tested them; <sup>26</sup>and he said, "If you will diligently listen to the voice of the LORD your God, and will do that which is right in his eyes, and will pay attention to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you, which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am the LORD<sup>c</sup> who heals you."<sup>d</sup>

16 They took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel

came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai,<sup>e</sup> on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>The whole congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness; <sup>3</sup>and the sons of Israel said to them, "We wish that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots, when we ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

morning bread to satisfy you; because the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against him. And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.”<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Aaron, “Tell all the congregation of the sons of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for he has heard your murmurings.’”<sup>10</sup> It happened, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and look, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.<sup>11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>“I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread: and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

more, some less.<sup>18</sup> When they measured it with an omer, he who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack.<sup>19</sup> They gathered every man according to his eating.<sup>19</sup> Moses said to them, “Let no one leave of it until the morning.”<sup>20</sup> Notwithstanding they did not listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and became foul: and Moses was angry with them.<sup>21</sup> They gathered it morning by morning, everyone according to his eating. When the sun grew hot, it melted.<sup>22</sup> It happened that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one, and all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses.<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “This is that which the LORD has spoken, ‘Tomorrow is a solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake that which you want to bake, and boil that which you want to boil; and all that remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning.’”<sup>24</sup> They laid it up until the morning, as Moses asked, and it did not become foul, neither was there any worm in it.<sup>25</sup> Moses said, “Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD. Today you shall not find it in the field.”<sup>26</sup> Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath. In it there shall be none.”<sup>27</sup> It happened on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.<sup>28</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws? <sup>29</sup>Look, because the LORD has given you the Sabbath, therefore he gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Everyone stay in his place. Let no one go out of his place on the seventh day.” <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup>The house of Israel called its name Manna,<sup>a</sup> and it was like coriander seed, white; and its taste was like wafers with honey. <sup>32</sup>Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, ‘Let an omer-full of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.’” <sup>33</sup>Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot, and put an omer-full of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations.” <sup>34</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept. <sup>35</sup>The sons of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup>Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

17 All the congregation of the sons of Israel traveled from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys, according to the LORD’s commandment, and camped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>Therefore the people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.”

Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?”

<sup>3</sup>The people were thirsty for water there; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?”

<sup>5</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Walk on before the people, and take the elders of Israel with you, and take the rod in your hand with which you struck the Nile, and go. <sup>6</sup>Look, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink.” Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup>He called the name of the place Massah,<sup>b</sup> and Meribah,<sup>c</sup> because the sons of Israel quarreled, and because they tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us, or not?”

<sup>8</sup>Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. <sup>9</sup>Moses said to Joshua, “Choose men for us, and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with God’s rod in my hand.” <sup>10</sup>So Joshua did as Moses had told him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup>It happened, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. <sup>12</sup>But Moses’ hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. His hands were steady until sunset. <sup>13</sup>Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. <sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Write this for a memorial on a scroll, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky.” <sup>15</sup>Moses built an altar, and called its name the LORD our Banner.<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>He said, “A hand upon the throne of the LORD.<sup>b</sup> The LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

18 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses’ father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, how that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, received Zipporah, Moses’ wife, after he had sent her away, <sup>3</sup>and her two sons. The name of one son was Gershom,<sup>c</sup> for Moses said, “I have lived as a foreigner in a foreign land”. <sup>4</sup>The name of the other was Eliezer,<sup>d</sup> for he said, “My father’s God was my help and delivered me from Pharaoh’s sword.” <sup>5</sup>Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses into the wilderness where he was camped, at the Mountain of God. <sup>6</sup>And one said to Moses, “Look,<sup>e</sup> Jethro, your father-in-law,<sup>f</sup> has come to you, with your wife and her two sons with her.” <sup>7</sup>Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed and kissed him. They asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent. <sup>8</sup>Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel’s sake, all the hardships that had come on them on the way, and how the LORD delivered them. <sup>9</sup>Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, in that he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup>Jethro said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup>Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods because of the thing in which they dealt arrogantly against them.”

<sup>12</sup>Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. Aaron came with all of the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

<sup>13</sup>It happened on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening. <sup>14</sup>When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, “What is this thing that you do for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?”

<sup>15</sup>Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup>When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.”

<sup>17</sup>Moses' father-in-law said to him, “The thing that you do is not good.

<sup>18</sup>You will surely wear away, both you, and this people that is with you; for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to perform it yourself alone. <sup>19</sup>Listen now to my voice. I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You represent the people before God, and bring the causes to God. <sup>20</sup>You shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do.

<sup>21</sup>Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God: men of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>22</sup>Let them judge the people at all times. It shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load with you. <sup>23</sup>If you will do this thing, and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all of these people also will go to their place in peace.”

<sup>24</sup>So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said. <sup>25</sup>Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>26</sup>They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard causes to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. <sup>27</sup>Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way into his own land.

19 In the third month after the sons of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on that same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup>When they had departed from Rephidim, and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they camped in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mountain. <sup>3</sup>Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, “This is what you shall tell the house of Jacob, and tell the sons of Israel: <sup>4</sup>‘You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings, and brought you to myself. <sup>5</sup>Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice, and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from among all peoples; for all the earth is mine; <sup>6</sup>and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests,<sup>a</sup> and a holy nation.’ These are the words which you shall speak to the sons of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which the LORD commanded him. <sup>8</sup>All the people answered together, and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do.”

Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Look, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever.” Moses told the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments, <sup>11</sup>and be ready against the third day; for on the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai. <sup>12</sup>You shall set bounds to the people all around, saying, ‘Be careful that you do not go up onto the mountain, or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. <sup>13</sup>No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through,<sup>b</sup> whether it is animal or man, he shall not live.’ When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain.”

<sup>14</sup>Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup>He said to the people, “Be ready by the third day. Do not have sexual relations with a woman.”

<sup>16</sup>It happened on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet; and all the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup>Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>And Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke because the LORD descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. <sup>19</sup>When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. The LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Go down, warn the people, lest they break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.
<sup>22</sup>Let the priests also, who come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth on them.”

<sup>23</sup>Moses said to the LORD, “The people can’t come up to Mount Sinai, for you warned us, saying, ‘Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.’”

<sup>24</sup>The LORD said to him, “Go down and you shall bring Aaron up with you, but do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest he break forth on them.”

20 God spoke all these words, saying, <sup>2a</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>3</sup>Do not have other gods before me.

<sup>18</sup>All the people perceived the thunderings, the lightnings, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled, and stayed at a distance. <sup>19</sup>They said to Moses, “Speak with us yourself, and we will listen; but do not let God speak with us, lest we die.”

<sup>20</sup>Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid, for God has come to test you, and that his fear may be before you, that you won’t sin.” <sup>21</sup>The people stayed at a distance, and Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

<sup>2</sup>“If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years and in the seventh he shall go out free without paying anything. <sup>3</sup>If he comes in by himself, he shall go out by himself. If he is married, then his wife shall go out with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master’s, and he shall go out by himself. <sup>5</sup>But if the servant shall plainly say, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children. I will not go out free;’ <sup>6</sup>then his master shall bring him to God, and shall bring him to the door or to the doorpost, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him for ever.

<sup>7</sup>“If a man sells his daughter to be a female servant, she shall not go out as the male servants do. <sup>8</sup>If she doesn’t please her master, who has married her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, seeing he has dealt deceitfully with her. <sup>9</sup>If he marries her to his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. <sup>10</sup>If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marital rights. <sup>11</sup>If he doesn’t do these three things for her, she may go free without paying any money.

<sup>12</sup>“One who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death, <sup>13</sup>but not if it is unintentional, but God allows it to happen: then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee. <sup>14</sup>If a man schemes and comes presumptuously on his neighbor to kill him, you shall take him from my altar, that he may die.

<sup>18</sup>“If men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone, or with his fist, and he doesn’t die, but is confined to bed; <sup>19</sup>if he rises again and walks around with his staff, then he who struck him shall be cleared: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for his healing until he is thoroughly healed.

<sup>28a</sup>If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the bull shall not be held responsible. <sup>29</sup>But if the bull had a habit of goring in the past, and it has been testified to its owner, and he has not kept it in, but it has killed a man or a woman, the bull shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death. <sup>30</sup>If a ransom is laid on him, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is laid on him. <sup>31</sup>Whether it has gored a son or has gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. <sup>32</sup>If the bull gores a male servant or a female servant, thirty shekels of silver shall be given to their master, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>35c</sup>If one man's bull injures another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live bull, and divide its price; and they shall also divide the dead animal. <sup>36</sup>Or if it is known that the bull was in the habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, he shall surely pay bull for bull, and the dead animal shall be his own.

22 <sup>1</sup>If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it, or sells it; he shall pay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. <sup>2</sup>If the thief is found breaking in, and is struck so that he dies, there shall be no guilt of bloodshed for him. <sup>3</sup>If the sun has risen on him, there shall be guilt of bloodshed for him; he shall make restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. <sup>4</sup>If the stolen property is found in his hand alive, whether it is ox, donkey, or sheep, he shall pay double.

<sup>5c</sup>If a man causes a field or vineyard to be eaten, and lets his animal loose, and it grazes in another man's field, he shall make restitution from his own field according to his produce; and if he shall have grazed over the whole

<sup>6</sup>“If fire breaks out, and catches in thorns so that the shocks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field are consumed; he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

<sup>7</sup>“If a man delivers to his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the man’s house; if the thief is found, he shall pay double. <sup>8</sup>If the thief isn’t found, then the master of the house shall come near to God, to find out if he hasn’t put his hand to his neighbor’s goods. <sup>9</sup>For every matter of trespass, whether it be for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, or for any kind of lost thing, about which one says, ‘This is mine,’ the cause of both parties shall come before God. He whom God condemns shall pay double to his neighbor.

restitution to its owner. <sup>13</sup>If it is torn in pieces, let him bring it for evidence. He shall not make good that which was torn.

<sup>14</sup>“If a man borrows anything of his neighbor’s, and it is injured, or dies, its owner not being with it, he shall surely make restitution. <sup>15</sup>If its owner is with it, he shall not make it good. If it is a leased thing, it came for its lease.

<sup>13</sup>Moses rose up with Joshua, his servant, and Moses went up onto God’s Mountain. <sup>14</sup>He said to the elders, “Wait here for us, until we come again to you. Look, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever is involved in a dispute can go to them.”

<sup>15</sup>Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup>The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. The seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. <sup>17</sup>The appearance of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>Moses entered into the midst of the cloud, and went up on the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, that they take an offering for me. Two cubits shall be its length, and a cubit its breadth, and one and a half cubits its height. <sup>24</sup>You shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it. <sup>25</sup>You shall make a rim of a handbreadth around it. You shall make a golden molding on its rim around it. <sup>26</sup>You shall make four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that are on its four legs. <sup>27</sup>The rings shall be close to the rim, for places for the poles to carry the table. <sup>28</sup>You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them. <sup>29</sup>You shall make its dishes, its spoons, its ladles, and its bowls to pour out offerings with. You shall make them of pure gold. <sup>30</sup>You shall set bread of the presence on the table before me always.

seat on the ark of the testimony in the most holy place. <sup>35</sup>You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and you shall put the table on the north side.

<sup>36</sup>“You shall make a screen for the door of the Tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer. <sup>37</sup>You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold: their hooks shall be of gold: and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

27 “You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and its height shall be three cubits. <sup>2</sup>You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it; and you shall overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>You shall make its pots to take away its ashes, its shovels, its basins, its flesh hooks, and its fire pans: all its vessels you shall make of bronze. <sup>4</sup>You shall make a grating for it of network of bronze: and on the net you shall make four bronze rings in its four corners. <sup>5</sup>You shall put it under the ledge around the altar beneath, that the net may reach halfway up the altar. <sup>6</sup>You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>Its poles shall be put into the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar, when carrying it.

<sup>9</sup>“You shall make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen one hundred cubits long for one side: <sup>10</sup>and its pillars shall be twenty, and their sockets twenty, of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver. <sup>11</sup>Likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, and its pillars twenty, and their sockets twenty, of bronze; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver. <sup>12</sup>For the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their sockets ten. <sup>13</sup>The breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits. <sup>14</sup>The hangings for the one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>15</sup>For the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. <sup>16</sup>For the gate of the court shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer; their pillars four, and their sockets four. <sup>17</sup>All the pillars of the court around shall be filleted with silver; their hooks of silver, and their sockets of bronze. <sup>18</sup>The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits, of fine twined linen, and their sockets of bronze.

<sup>20</sup>“You shall command the sons of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually. <sup>21</sup>In the Tent of Meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a statute forever throughout their generations on the behalf of the sons of Israel.

28 “Bring Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, near to you from among the sons of Israel, that he may minister to me in the priest’s office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s sons. <sup>2</sup>You shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty. <sup>3</sup>You shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron’s garments to sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest’s office. <sup>4</sup>These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a coat of checker work, a turban, and a sash: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, that he may minister to me in the priest’s office. <sup>5</sup>They shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen.

shall make it. <sup>16</sup>It shall be square and folded double; a span<sup>a</sup> shall be its length of it, and a span its breadth. <sup>17</sup>You shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and beryl shall be the first row; <sup>18</sup>and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire<sup>b</sup>, and an emerald; <sup>19</sup>and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>20</sup>and the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be enclosed in gold in their settings. <sup>21</sup>The stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, they shall be for the twelve tribes. <sup>22</sup>You shall make on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>24</sup>You shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. <sup>25</sup>The other two ends of the two braided chains you shall put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in its forepart. <sup>26</sup>You shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is toward the side of the ephod inward. <sup>27</sup>You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its forepart, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. <sup>28</sup>They shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod. <sup>29</sup>Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually. <sup>30</sup>You shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the sons of Israel on his heart before the LORD continually.

<sup>40</sup>“You shall make coats for Aaron's sons, and you shall make sashes for them and you shall make headbands for them, for glory and for beauty. <sup>41</sup>You shall put them on Aaron your brother, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>42</sup>You shall make them linen breeches to cover the flesh of their nakedness; from the waist even to the thighs they shall reach: <sup>43</sup>They shall be on Aaron, and on his sons, when they go in to the Tent of Meeting, or when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place; that they do not bear iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute forever to him and to his descendants after him.

29 “This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priest's office: take one young bull and two rams without blemish, <sup>2</sup>unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil: you shall make them of fine wheat flour. <sup>3</sup>You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup>You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and dress him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod; <sup>6</sup>and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban. <sup>7</sup>Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head, and anoint him. <sup>8</sup>You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them. <sup>9</sup>You shall dress them with belts, Aaron and his sons, and bind headbands on them: and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute: and you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

liver, the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar. <sup>14</sup>But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside of the camp: it is a sin offering.

fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration), <sup>23</sup>and one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>You shall put all of this in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup>You shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>“The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. <sup>30</sup>Seven days shall the son who is priest in his place put them on, when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place.

<sup>35</sup>“You shall do so to Aaron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them seven days. <sup>36</sup>Every day you shall offer the bull of sin offering for atonement: and you shall cleanse the altar, when you make atonement for it; and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it. <sup>37</sup>Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering.<sup>41</sup>The other lamb you shall offer at evening, and shall do to it according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to its drink offering, for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.<sup>42</sup>It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak there to you.<sup>43</sup>There I will meet with the sons of Israel; and the place shall be sanctified by my glory.<sup>44</sup>I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar: Aaron also and his sons I will sanctify, to minister to me in the priest's office.<sup>45</sup>I will dwell among the sons of Israel, and will be their God.<sup>46</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

30 “You shall make an altar to burn incense on. You shall make it of acacia wood.<sup>2</sup>Its length shall be a cubit, and its breadth a cubit. It shall be square, and its height shall be two cubits. Its horns shall be of one piece with it.<sup>3</sup>You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns; and you shall make a gold molding around it.<sup>4</sup>You shall make two golden rings for it under its molding; on its two ribs, on its two sides you shall make them; and they shall be for places for poles with which to bear it.<sup>5</sup>You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.<sup>6</sup>You shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.<sup>7</sup>Aaron shall burn incense of sweet spices on it every morning. When he tends the lamps, he shall burn it.<sup>8</sup>When Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.<sup>9</sup>You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; and you shall pour no drink offering on it.<sup>10</sup>Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year he shall make atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

<sup>11</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>12</sup>“When you take a census of the sons of Israel, according to those who are numbered among them, then each man shall give a ransom for his soul to the LORD, when you number them; that there be no plague among them when you number them.<sup>13</sup>They shall give this, everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary; (the shekel is twenty gerahs;) half a shekel for an offering to the LORD.<sup>14</sup>Everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when they give the offering of the LORD, to make atonement for your souls. <sup>16</sup>You shall take the atonement money from the sons of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; that it may be a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for your souls.”

compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil. <sup>26</sup>You shall use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, <sup>27</sup>the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense, <sup>28</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its base. <sup>29</sup>You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. <sup>30</sup>You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest’s office. <sup>31</sup>You shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, “This shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations. <sup>32</sup>It shall not be poured on man’s flesh, neither shall you make any like it, according to its composition: it is holy. It shall be holy to you. <sup>33</sup>Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people.”” you holy for the LORD. <sup>38</sup>Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, he shall be cut off from his people.”

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Look, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah: <sup>3</sup>and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in manner of workmanship, <sup>4</sup>to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, <sup>5</sup>and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of workmanship. <sup>6</sup>I, look, I have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup>the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent, <sup>8</sup>the table and its vessels, the pure lampstand with all its vessels, the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base, <sup>10</sup>the finely worked garments—the holy garments for Aaron the priest—the garments of his sons to minister in the priest’s office, <sup>11</sup>the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded you they shall do.”

of Israel, saying, ‘Most certainly you shall keep my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you.’<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>15</sup>Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>Therefore the sons of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. <sup>17</sup>It is a sign between me and the sons of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.”

32 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Aaron said to them, “Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup>All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup>He received what they handed him, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a molten calf; and they said, “These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”

for your people whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup>They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.’”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen these people, and look, they are a stiff-necked people. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup>Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said, “O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, ‘He brought them forth for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth?’ Turn from your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against your people. <sup>13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’”

<sup>15</sup>Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand; tablets that were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. <sup>16</sup>The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tables.

<sup>18</sup>He said, “It isn’t the voice of those who shout for victory, neither is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear.” <sup>19</sup>It happened, as soon as he came near to the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses’ anger grew hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mountain. <sup>20</sup>He took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the sons of Israel drink of it.

<sup>22</sup>Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. <sup>23</sup>For they said to me, ‘Make us gods, which shall go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’ <sup>24</sup>I said to them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let them take it off:’ so they gave it to me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”

<sup>25</sup>When Moses saw that the people had broken loose, (for Aaron had let them loose for a derision among their enemies), <sup>26</sup>then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Whoever is on the LORD’s side, come to me.”

All the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. <sup>27</sup>He said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Every man put his sword on his thigh, and<sup>a</sup> go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.’” <sup>28</sup>The sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. <sup>29</sup>Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, for every man was against his son, and against his brother; that he may bestow on you a blessing this day.”

“You have sinned a great sin. Now I will go up to the LORD. Perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin.”

<sup>31</sup>Moses returned to the LORD, and said, “Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold. <sup>32</sup>Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written.”

<sup>33</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. <sup>34</sup>Now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Look, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin.” <sup>35</sup>The LORD struck the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

33 The LORD spoke to Moses, “Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ <sup>2</sup>I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: <sup>3</sup>to a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way.”

<sup>5</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Tell the sons of Israel, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up into your midst for one moment, I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewelry from you, that I may know what to do to you.’”

<sup>7</sup>Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it “The Tent of Meeting.” It happened that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. <sup>8</sup>It happened that when Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until he had gone into the Tent. <sup>9</sup>It happened, when Moses entered into the Tent, that the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and spoke with Moses. <sup>10</sup>All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshiped, everyone at their tent door. <sup>11</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. He turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart out of the Tent.

<sup>12</sup>Moses said to the LORD, “Look, you tell me, ‘Bring up this people:’ and you haven’t let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’ <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you, so that I may find favor in your sight: and consider that this nation is your people.”

<sup>15</sup>He said to him, “If your presence doesn’t go with me, do not carry us up from here. <sup>16</sup>For how would people know that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Isn’t it in that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.”

<sup>19</sup>He said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>20</sup>He said, “You cannot see my face, for man may not see me and live.” <sup>21</sup>The LORD also said, “Look, there is a place by me, and you are to station yourself on the rock. <sup>22</sup>It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; <sup>23</sup>then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen.”

34 The LORD said to Moses, “Chisel two stone tablets like the first: and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. <sup>2</sup>Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and station yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>No one shall come up with you; neither let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain.”

<sup>4</sup>He chiseled two tablets of stone like the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand two stone tablets. <sup>5</sup>The LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>The LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth, <sup>7</sup>keeping loving kindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin; and that will by no means clear [the guilty], visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, upon the third and on the fourth [generation].”

<sup>8</sup>Moses hurried and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>He said, “If now I have found favor in your sight, Lord, please let the Lord go in the midst of us; although this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance.”

<sup>10</sup>He said, “Look, I make a covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which you are shall see the work of the LORD; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you.

<sup>11</sup>Observe that which I command you this day. Look, I drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. <sup>12</sup>Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you: <sup>13</sup>but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherim; <sup>14</sup>for you shall worship no other god:

for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God. <sup>15</sup>Do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, lest they play the prostitute after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and one call you and you eat of his sacrifice; <sup>16</sup>and you take of their daughters to your sons, and their daughters play the prostitute after their gods, and make your sons play the prostitute after their gods. <sup>17</sup>You shall make no cast idols for yourselves.

<sup>18</sup>“You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt. <sup>19</sup>All that opens the womb is mine; and all your livestock that is male, the firstborn of cow and sheep. <sup>20</sup>The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb: and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. No one shall appear before me empty.

<sup>21</sup>“Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest: in plowing time and in harvest you shall rest. <sup>22</sup>You shall observe the feast of weeks with the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of harvest at the year’s end. <sup>23</sup>Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders; neither shall any man desire your land when you go up to appear before the LORD, your God, three times in the year.

<sup>28</sup>He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread, nor drank water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

<sup>29</sup>It happened, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in Moses’ hand, when he came down from the mountain, that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone by reason of his speaking with him. <sup>30</sup>When Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, look, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup>Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them. <sup>32</sup>Afterward all the sons of Israel came near, and he gave them all of the commandments that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>33</sup>When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. <sup>34</sup>But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and he came out, and spoke to the sons of Israel that which he was commanded. <sup>35</sup>The sons of Israel saw Moses’ face, that the skin of Moses’ face shone; and Moses put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

35 Moses assembled

all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and said to them, “These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them. <sup>2</sup>“Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD: whoever does any work in it shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup>You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>4</sup>Moses spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, the LORD’s offering: gold, silver, bronze, <sup>6</sup>blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats’ hair, <sup>7</sup>rams’ skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood, <sup>8</sup>oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense, <sup>9</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

<sup>10</sup>“Let every wise-hearted man among you come, and make all that the LORD has commanded: <sup>11</sup>the tabernacle, its outer covering, its roof, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; <sup>12</sup>the ark, and its poles, the mercy seat, the curtain to screen it; <sup>13</sup>the table with its poles and all its vessels, and the show bread; <sup>14</sup>the lampstand also for the light, with its vessels, its lamps, and the oil for the light; <sup>15</sup>and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door, at the door of the tabernacle; <sup>16</sup>the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its vessels, the basin and its base; <sup>17</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court; <sup>18</sup>the pins of the tabernacle, the pins of the court, and their cords; <sup>19</sup>the finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest’s office.”

<sup>20</sup>All the congregation of the sons of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. <sup>21</sup>They came, everyone whose heart stirred him up, and everyone whom his spirit made willing, and brought the LORD’s offering, for the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all of its service, and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup>They came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought brooches, earrings, signet rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every man who offered an offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Everyone, with whom was found blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats’ hair, rams’ skins dyed red, and sea cow hides, brought them. <sup>24</sup>Everyone who did offer an offering of silver and bronze brought the LORD’s offering; and everyone, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. <sup>25</sup>All the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. <sup>26</sup>All the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats’ hair. <sup>27</sup>And the leaders brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastplate; <sup>28</sup>and the spice, and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. <sup>29</sup>The sons of Israel brought a freewill offering to the LORD; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by Moses.

<sup>30</sup>Moses said to the sons of Israel, “Look, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>31</sup>He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship; <sup>32</sup>and to make skillful works, to work in gold, in silver, in bronze,

<sup>34</sup>He has put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup>He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skillful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any workmanship, and of those who make skillful works.

36 “Bezalel and Oholiab shall work with every wise-hearted man, in whom the LORD has put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all the work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD has commanded.”

<sup>2</sup>Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him up to come to the work to do it: <sup>3</sup>and they received from Moses all the offering which the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, with which to make it. They brought yet to him freewill offerings every morning. <sup>4</sup>All the wise men, who performed all the work of the sanctuary, each came from his work which they did. <sup>5</sup>They spoke to Moses, saying, “The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make.”

<sup>6</sup>Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman make anything else for the offering for the sanctuary.” So the people were restrained from bringing. <sup>7</sup>For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

<sup>8</sup>All the wise-hearted men among those who did the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, blue, purple, and scarlet, with cherubim, the work of the skillful workman, they made them. <sup>9</sup>The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits. All the curtains had one measure. <sup>10</sup>He coupled five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he coupled one to another. <sup>11</sup>He made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise he made in the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the second coupling. <sup>12</sup>He made fifty loops in the one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that was in the second coupling. The loops were opposite one to another. <sup>13</sup>He made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains one to another with the clasps: so the tabernacle was a unit.

tabernacle. He made them eleven curtains. <sup>15</sup>The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the breadth of each curtain. The eleven curtains had one measure. <sup>16</sup>He coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. <sup>17</sup>He made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outmost in the coupling, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which was outmost in the second coupling. <sup>18</sup>He made fifty clasps of bronze to couple the tent together, that it might be a unit. <sup>19</sup>He made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above.

<sup>20</sup>He made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. <sup>21</sup>Ten cubits was the length of a board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each board. <sup>22</sup>Each board had two tenons, joined one to another. He made all the boards of the tabernacle this way. <sup>23</sup>He made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side southward. <sup>24</sup>He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. <sup>25</sup>For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards, <sup>26</sup>and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. <sup>27</sup>For the far part of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. <sup>28</sup>He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. <sup>29</sup>They were double beneath, and in like manner they were all the way to its top to one ring. He did thus to both of them in the two corners. <sup>30</sup>There were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; under every board two sockets.

37 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits, and its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>2</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold for it around it. <sup>3</sup>He cast four rings of gold for it, in its four feet; even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side. <sup>4</sup>He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>5</sup>He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. <sup>6</sup>He made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was two and a half cubits, and a cubit and a half its breadth. <sup>7</sup>He made two cherubim of gold. He made them of beaten work, at the two ends of the mercy seat; <sup>8</sup>one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends. <sup>9</sup>The cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

them with gold, to carry the table. <sup>16</sup>He made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold.

<sup>17</sup>He made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it. <sup>18</sup>There were six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of its one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side: <sup>19</sup>three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower: so for the six branches going out of the lampstand. <sup>20</sup>In the lampstand were four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers; <sup>21</sup>and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it. <sup>22</sup>Their buds and their branches were of one piece with it. The whole thing was one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>He made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, of pure gold. <sup>24</sup>He made it of a talent of pure gold, with all its vessels.

<sup>25</sup>He made the altar of incense of acacia wood. It was square: its length was a cubit, and its breadth a cubit. Its height was two cubits. Its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns. He made a gold molding around it. <sup>27</sup>He made two golden rings for it under its molding crown, on its two ribs, on its two sides, for places for poles with which to carry it. <sup>28</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>29</sup>He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.

38 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was five cubits, its breadth was five cubits, and its height was three cubits. <sup>2</sup>He made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>He made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the fire pans. He made all its vessels of bronze. <sup>4</sup>He made for the altar a grating of a network of bronze, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up. <sup>5</sup>He cast four rings for the four ends of bronze grating, to be places for the poles. <sup>6</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made fillets for them. <sup>29</sup>The bronze of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels. <sup>30</sup>With this he made the sockets to the door of the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, all the vessels of the altar, <sup>31</sup>the sockets around the court, the sockets of the gate of the court, all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins around the court.

39 Of the blue, purple, and scarlet, they made finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses.

to the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup>He put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the sons of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>8</sup>He made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. <sup>9</sup>It was square. They made the breastplate double. Its length was a span, and its breadth a span, being double. <sup>10</sup>They set in it four rows of stones. A row of ruby, topaz, and beryl was the first row; <sup>11</sup>and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire<sup>a</sup>, and an emerald; <sup>12</sup>and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>13</sup>and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold settings. <sup>14</sup>The stones were according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, for the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup>They made on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. <sup>16</sup>They made two settings of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>17</sup>They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. <sup>18</sup>The other two ends of the two braided chains they put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, in its front. <sup>19</sup>They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which was toward the side of the ephod inward. <sup>20</sup>They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its front, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. <sup>21</sup>They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>27</sup>They made the coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, <sup>28</sup>and the turban of fine linen, and the linen headbands of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twined linen, <sup>29</sup>and the sash of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of the embroiderer, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup>They made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it a writing, like the engravings of a signet: "HOLY TO THE LORD."<sup>31</sup>They tied to it a lace of blue, to fasten it on the turban above, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup>Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished. The sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; so they did.<sup>33</sup>They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent, with all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets,<sup>34</sup>the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of sea cow hides, the veil of the screen,<sup>35</sup>the ark of the testimony with its poles, the mercy seat,<sup>36</sup>the table, all its vessels, the show bread,<sup>37</sup>the pure lampstand, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, all its vessels, the oil for the light,<sup>38</sup>the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door of the Tent,<sup>39</sup>the bronze altar, its grating of bronze, its poles, all of its vessels, the basin and its base,<sup>40</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars, its sockets, the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, its pins, all the instruments of the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting,<sup>41</sup>the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.<sup>42</sup>According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did all the work.<sup>43</sup>Moses saw all the work, and look, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

the first month you shall raise up the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.<sup>3</sup>You shall put the ark of the testimony in it, and you shall veil the ark with the curtain.<sup>4</sup>You shall bring in the table, and set in order the things that are on it. You shall bring in the lampstand, and light its lamps.<sup>5</sup>You shall set the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the screen of the door to the tabernacle.<sup>6</sup>You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.<sup>7</sup>You shall set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and shall put water in it.<sup>8</sup>You shall set up the court around it, and hang up the screen of the gate of the court.<sup>9</sup>You shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shall make it holy, and all its furniture: and it will be holy.<sup>10</sup>You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and the altar will be most holy.<sup>11</sup>You shall anoint the basin and its base, and sanctify it.<sup>12</sup>You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. <sup>13</sup>You shall put on Aaron the holy garments; and you shall anoint him, and sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>14</sup>You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them. <sup>15</sup>You shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. Their anointing shall be to them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations." <sup>16</sup>Moses did so. According to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>17</sup>It happened in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was set up. <sup>18</sup>And Moses erected the tabernacle, and put its sockets in place, and set up its hooks and<sup>a</sup> its boards, and put in its bars, and he erected its pillars. <sup>19</sup>He spread the covering over the tent, and put the roof of the tabernacle above on it, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>20</sup>He took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the mercy seat above on the ark. <sup>21</sup>He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the curtain as the screen, and concealed the ark of the testimony, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup>He put the table in the Tent of Meeting, on the side of the tabernacle northward, outside of the veil. <sup>23</sup>He set the bread in order on it before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>24</sup>He put the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. <sup>25</sup>He lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>26</sup>He put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil; <sup>27</sup>and he burnt incense of sweet spices on it, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>28</sup>He put up the screen of the door to the tabernacle. <sup>29</sup>He set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup>He set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it, with which to wash. <sup>31</sup>Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. <sup>32</sup>When they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup>He raised up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

<sup>34</sup>Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. <sup>35</sup>Moses wasn't able to enter into the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud stayed on it, and the LORD's glory filled the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>When the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the sons of Israel went onward, throughout all their journeys; <sup>37</sup>but if the cloud wasn't taken up, then they did not travel until the day that it was taken up.

<sup>38</sup>For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

1 The LORD called to Moses, and spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When anyone of you offers an offering to the LORD, you shall offer your offering of the livestock, from the herd and from the flock.

<sup>3</sup>“If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish. He shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD. <sup>4</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. <sup>5</sup>And he shall kill the bull before the LORD. Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>6</sup>And he shall skin the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire; <sup>8</sup>and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar; <sup>9</sup>but its entrails and its legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall burn the whole on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>“If his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall offer his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head, and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar; <sup>16</sup>and he shall take away its crop with its filth, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, in the place of the ashes. <sup>17</sup>He shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

2 “When anyone offers a grain offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>He shall bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests; and he shall take his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priest shall burn its memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. It is a most holy thing of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

<sup>4</sup>“When you offer an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. <sup>5</sup>If your offering is a meal offering of the griddle, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup>You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal offering. <sup>7</sup>If your offering is a meal offering of the pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup>And you shall bring the meal offering that is made of these things to the LORD, and it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup>The priest shall take from the meal offering its memorial, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. It is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

<sup>11</sup>“No meal offering, which you shall offer to the LORD, shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>As an offering of firstfruits you shall offer them to the LORD: but they shall not ascend for a pleasant aroma on the altar. <sup>13</sup>Every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt; neither shall you allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your meal offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

<sup>14</sup>“If you offer a meal offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the meal offering of your first fruits grain in the ear parched with fire, bruised grain of the fresh ear. <sup>15</sup>You shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it: it is a meal offering. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall burn as its memorial, part of its bruised grain, and part of its oil, along with all its frankincense: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

3 “If his offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings; if he offers it from the herd, whether male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. <sup>2</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the Tent of Meeting; and

Aaron's sons, the priests shall sprinkle the blood around on the altar. <sup>3</sup>He shall offer of the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering made by fire to the LORD; the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails, <sup>4</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away. <sup>5</sup>Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar on the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>“If his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD is from the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. <sup>7</sup>If he offers a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD; <sup>8</sup>and he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it before the Tent of Meeting; and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. <sup>9</sup>He shall offer from the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering made by fire to the LORD; its fat, the entire tail fat, he shall take away close to the backbone; and the fat that covers the inwards, and all the fat that is on the inwards, <sup>10</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away. <sup>11</sup>And the priest shall offer it up in smoke on the altar; it is food, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

4 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If anyone sins unintentionally, in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them: <sup>3</sup>if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bull without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall bring the bull to the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull and kill the bull before the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“If the whole congregation of Israel sins, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and are guilty, <sup>14</sup>when the sin in which they have sinned is known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting. <sup>15</sup>The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD; and the bull shall be killed before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>The anointed priest shall bring of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting; <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, before the veil. <sup>18</sup>He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the Tent of Meeting; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>19</sup>All its fat he shall take from it, and burn it on the altar. <sup>20</sup>Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven. <sup>21</sup>He shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>22</sup>“When a ruler sins, and unwittingly does any one of all the things which the LORD his God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; <sup>23</sup>if his sin, in which he has sinned, is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish. <sup>24</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>26</sup>All its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>27</sup>“If anyone of the common people sins unwittingly, in doing any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; <sup>28</sup>if his sin, which he has sinned, is made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. <sup>29</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering. <sup>30</sup>The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup>All its fat he shall take away, like the fat is taken away from off of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup>“If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. <sup>33</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. <sup>34</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup>All its fat he shall take away, like the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them on the altar, on the offerings of the LORD made by fire; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned, and he will be forgiven.

5 “If anyone sins, in that he hears the voice of adjuration, he being a witness, whether he has seen or known, if he doesn’t report it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

<sup>2</sup>“Or if anyone touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and it is hidden from him, and he is unclean, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>3</sup>“Or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever his uncleanness is with which he is unclean, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>4</sup>“Or if anyone swears rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it is that a man might utter rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty of one of these. <sup>5</sup>It shall be, when he is guilty of one of these, he shall confess that in which he has sinned: <sup>6</sup>and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

<sup>7</sup>“If he can’t afford a lamb, then he shall bring his trespass offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>8</sup>He shall bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one which is for the sin offering, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not sever it completely. <sup>9</sup>He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>He shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he has sinned, and he shall be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>“But if he can’t afford two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he shall bring his offering for that in which he has sinned, the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, neither shall he put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as the memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, on the offerings of the LORD made by fire. It is a sin offering. <sup>13</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned in any of these things, and he will be forgiven; and the rest shall be the priest’s, as the meal offering.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>15</sup>“If anyone commits a trespass, and sins unwittingly, in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation in silver by shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering. <sup>16</sup>He shall make restitution for that which he has done wrong in the holy thing, and shall add a fifth part to it, and give it to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>17</sup>“If anyone sins, and does any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done; though he did not know it, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. <sup>18</sup>He shall bring a ram without blemish from of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning the thing in which he sinned and did not know it, and he will be forgiven. <sup>19</sup>It is a trespass offering. He is certainly guilty before the LORD.”

6 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“If anyone sins, and commits a trespass against the LORD, and deals falsely with his neighbor in a matter of deposit, or of bargain, or of robbery, or has oppressed his neighbor, <sup>3</sup>or has found what was lost and lies about it and swears falsely concerning any of the sinful things that a man may do; <sup>4</sup>then it shall be, if he has sinned, and is guilty, he shall restore that which he took by robbery, or the thing which he has gotten by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost thing which he found, <sup>5</sup>or any thing about which he has sworn falsely; he shall restore it even in full, and shall add a fifth part more to it. To him to whom it belongs he shall give it, in the day of his being found guilty. <sup>6</sup>He shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest. <sup>7</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven concerning whatever he does to become guilty.”

<sup>8</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Command Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning; and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it. <sup>10</sup>The priest shall put on his linen garment, and he shall put on his linen breeches upon his body; and he shall remove the ashes from where the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>He shall take off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. <sup>12</sup>The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it, it shall not go out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning: and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>13</sup>Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.

<sup>14</sup>“This is the law of the meal offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar. <sup>15</sup>He shall take from there his handful of the fine flour of the meal offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the meal offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma, as its memorial, to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>That which is left of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten without yeast in a holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>17</sup>It shall not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>Every male among the children of Aaron shall eat of it, as their portion forever throughout your generations, from the offerings of the LORD made by fire. Whoever touches them shall be holy.”

<sup>19</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>20</sup>“This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer to the LORD in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering perpetually, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening. <sup>21</sup>It shall be made with oil in a griddle. When it is soaked, you shall bring it in. You shall offer the meal offering in baked pieces for a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>The anointed priest that will be in his place from among his sons shall offer it. By a statute forever, it shall be wholly burnt to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Every meal offering of a priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.”

<sup>24</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>25</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. <sup>26</sup>The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>27</sup>Whatever shall touch its flesh shall be holy. When there is any of its blood sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place. <sup>28</sup>But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured, and rinsed in water. <sup>29</sup>Every male among the priests shall eat of it: it is most holy. <sup>30</sup>No sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burned with fire.

7 “This is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>2</sup>In the place where they kill the burnt offering, he shall kill the trespass offering; and its blood he shall sprinkle around on the altar. <sup>3</sup>He shall offer all of its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails, <sup>4</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away; <sup>5</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar for an offering made by fire to the LORD: it is a trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>Every male among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.

<sup>7</sup>“As is the sin offering, so is the trespass offering; there is one law for them. The priest who makes atonement with them shall have it. <sup>8</sup>The priest who offers any man’s burnt offering, even the priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. <sup>9</sup>Every meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the pan, and on the griddle, shall be the priest’s who offers it. <sup>10</sup>Every meal offering, mixed with oil or dry, belongs to all the sons of Aaron, one as well as another.

<sup>11</sup>“This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which one shall offer to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mixed with oil. <sup>13</sup>With cakes of leavened bread he shall offer his offering with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving. <sup>14</sup>Of it he shall offer one out of each offering for a heave offering to the LORD. It shall be the priest’s who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. <sup>15</sup>The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering. He shall not leave any of it until the morning.

<sup>16</sup>“But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice; and on the next day what remains of it shall be eaten: <sup>17</sup>but what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire. <sup>18</sup>If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him who offers it. It will be an abomination, and the soul who eats any of it will bear his iniquity.

As for the flesh, everyone who is clean may eat it; <sup>20</sup>but the soul who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that belongs to the LORD, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from his people. <sup>21</sup>When anyone touches any unclean thing, the uncleanness of man, or an unclean animal, or any unclean abomination, and eats some of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which belong to the LORD, that soul shall be cut off from his people.”

<sup>22</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>23</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘You shall eat no fat, of bull, or sheep, or goat. <sup>24</sup>The fat of that which dies of itself, and the fat of that which is torn of animals, may be used for any other service, but you shall in no way eat of it. <sup>25</sup>For whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which men offer an offering made by fire to the LORD, even the soul who eats it shall be cut off from his people. <sup>26</sup>You shall not eat any blood, whether it is of bird or of animal, in any of your dwellings. <sup>27</sup>Whoever it is who eats any blood, that soul shall be cut off from his people.”

<sup>28</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>29</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his offering to the LORD out of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. <sup>30</sup>With his own hands he shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire. He shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>31</sup>The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. <sup>32</sup>The right thigh you shall give to the priest for a heave offering out of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. <sup>33</sup>He among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right thigh for a portion. <sup>34</sup>For the waved breast and the heaved thigh I have taken from the sons of Israel out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as their portion forever from the sons of Israel.'"

<sup>35</sup>This is the anointing portion of Aaron, and the anointing portion of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister to the LORD in the priest's office; <sup>36</sup>which the LORD commanded to be given them of the sons of Israel, in the day that he anointed them. It is their portion forever throughout their generations. <sup>37</sup>This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of peace offerings; <sup>38</sup>which the LORD commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the sons of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

8 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread; <sup>3</sup>and assemble all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Meeting."

<sup>14</sup>He brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering. <sup>15</sup>He killed it; and Moses took the blood, and put it around on the horns of the altar with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement for it. <sup>16</sup>He took all the fat that was on the entrails, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat; and Moses burned it on the altar. <sup>17</sup>But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>18</sup>He presented the ram of the burnt offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>19</sup>He killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. <sup>20</sup>He cut the ram into its pieces; and Moses burned the head, and the pieces, and the fat. <sup>21</sup>He washed the entrails and the legs with water; and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma. It was an offering made by fire to the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup>He presented the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>23</sup>He killed it; and Moses took some of its blood, and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup>He brought Aaron's sons; and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. <sup>25</sup>He took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right thigh; <sup>26</sup>and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat, and on the right thigh. <sup>27</sup>He put all these in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Moses took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar on the burnt offering. They were a consecration for a pleasant aroma. It was an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' portion of the ram of consecration, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup>Moses took some of the anointing oil, and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him, and sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

<sup>31</sup>Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it.’ <sup>32</sup>What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire. <sup>33</sup>You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled: for he shall consecrate you seven days. <sup>34</sup>What has been done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make atonement for you. <sup>35</sup>You shall stay at the door of the Tent of Meeting day and night seven days, and keep the LORD’s command, that you do not die: for so I am commanded.” <sup>36</sup>Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by Moses.

9 It happened on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel; <sup>2</sup>and he said to Aaron, “Take a calf from the herd for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>You shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both a year old, without blemish, for a burnt offering; <sup>4</sup>and a bull and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meal offering mixed with oil: for today the LORD appears to you.’”

thing which the LORD commanded that you should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear to you.” <sup>7</sup>Moses said to Aaron, “Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.”

<sup>8</sup>So Aaron drew near to the altar, and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar: <sup>10</sup>but the fat, and the kidneys, and the cover from the liver of the sin offering, he burned upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup>The flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>He killed the burnt offering; and Aaron’s sons delivered the blood to him, and he sprinkled it around on the altar. <sup>13</sup>They delivered the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head: and he burned them upon the altar. <sup>14</sup>He washed the entrails and the legs, and burned them on the burnt offering on the altar. <sup>15</sup>He presented the people’s offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first. <sup>16</sup>He presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance. <sup>17</sup>He presented the meal offering, and filled his hand from there, and burned it upon the altar,

besides the burnt offering of the morning.<sup>18</sup> He also killed the bull and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he sprinkled around on the altar,<sup>19</sup> and the fat of the bull and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the entrails, and the kidneys, and the cover of the liver:<sup>20</sup> and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar:<sup>21</sup> and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses commanded.<sup>22</sup> Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

<sup>23</sup>Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.<sup>24</sup> There came forth fire from before the LORD, and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar: and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

10 And the two<sup>a</sup> sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, each took his censer and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them.<sup>2</sup> And fire came forth from before the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke of, saying, 'I will show myself holy to those who come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified.'" "

Aaron held his peace.<sup>4</sup> Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp."<sup>5</sup> So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>6</sup>Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons, "Do not let the hair of your heads go loose, neither tear your clothes; that you do not die, and that he not be angry with all the congregation: but let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled.<sup>7</sup> You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of the LORD is on you." They did according to the word of Moses.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD spoke to Aaron, saying,<sup>9</sup> "Drink no wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tent of Meeting, that you do not die: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations: <sup>10</sup>and that you are to make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean; <sup>11</sup>and that you are to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by Moses.”

<sup>16</sup>Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, and, look, it was burned: and he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying, <sup>17</sup>“Why haven’t you eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, seeing it is most holy, and he has given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? <sup>18</sup>Look, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary: you certainly should have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.”

<sup>19</sup>Aaron spoke to Moses, “Look, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things as these have happened to me: and if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the sight of the LORD?”

11 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘These are the living things which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth. <sup>3</sup>Whatever parts the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and chews the cud among the animals, that you may eat.

<sup>4</sup>“Nevertheless these you shall not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those who part the hoof: the camel, because he chews the cud but doesn’t have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you. <sup>5</sup>The coney, because he chews the cud but doesn’t have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you. <sup>6</sup>The hare, because she chews the cud but doesn't part the hoof, she is unclean to you. <sup>7</sup>The pig, because he has a split hoof, and is cloven-footed, but doesn't chew the cud, he is unclean to you. <sup>8</sup>Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.

<sup>9</sup>“These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, that you may eat. <sup>10</sup>All that do not have fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are an abomination to you, <sup>11</sup>and you detest them. You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses. <sup>12</sup>Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that is an abomination to you.

<sup>20</sup>“All flying insects that walk on all fours are an abomination to you. <sup>21</sup>Yet you may eat these: of all winged creeping things that go on all fours, which have legs above their feet, with which to hop on the earth. <sup>22</sup>Even of these you may eat: any kind of locust, any kind of katydid, any kind of cricket, and any kind of grasshopper. <sup>23</sup>But all winged creeping things which have four feet, are an abomination to you.

<sup>24</sup>“By these you will become unclean: whoever touches the carcass of them shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>25</sup>Whoever carries any part of their carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>26</sup>“Every animal which parts the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor chews the cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches them shall be unclean. <sup>27</sup>Whatever goes on its paws, among all animals that go on all fours, they are unclean to you. Whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>28</sup>He who carries their carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. They are unclean to you.

when they are dead, it shall be unclean; whether it is any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sack, whatever vessel it is, with which any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it will be clean. <sup>33</sup>Every earthen vessel, into which any of them falls, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it. <sup>34</sup>All food which may be eaten, that on which water comes, shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. <sup>35</sup>Everything whereupon part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether oven, or range for pots, it shall be broken in pieces: they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you. <sup>36</sup>Nevertheless a spring or a cistern in which water is a gathered shall be clean: but that which touches their carcass shall be unclean. <sup>37</sup>If part of their carcass falls on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean. <sup>38</sup>But if water is put on the seed, and part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

<sup>39</sup>“If any animal, of which you may eat, dies; he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>40</sup>He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, even all creeping things that creep on the earth, them you shall not eat; for they are an abomination. <sup>43</sup>You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps, neither shall you make yourselves unclean with them, that you should be defiled thereby. <sup>44</sup>For I am the LORD your God. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am holy:<sup>a</sup> neither shall you defile yourselves with any kind of creeping thing that moves on the earth. <sup>45</sup>For I am the LORD who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>46</sup>“This is the law of the animal, and of the bird, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,<sup>47</sup>to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.”

12 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘If a woman conceives, and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her monthly period she shall be unclean. <sup>3</sup>In the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>She shall continue in the blood of purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed. <sup>5</sup>But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her period; and she shall continue in the blood of purification sixty-six days.

<sup>6</sup>“When the days of her purification are completed, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the door of the Tent of Meeting, a year old lamb for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering: <sup>7</sup>and he shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the fountain of her blood.

“This is the law for her who bears, whether a male or a female. <sup>8</sup>If she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons;<sup>a</sup> the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.”

<sup>2</sup>“When a man shall have a rising in his body’s skin, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes in the skin of his body the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons, the priests: <sup>3</sup>and the priest shall examine the plague in the skin of the body: and if the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague is deeper than the body’s skin, it is the plague of leprosy; and the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean. <sup>4</sup>If the bright spot is white in the skin of his body, and its appearance isn’t deeper than the skin, and its hair hasn’t turned white, then the priest shall isolate the infected person for seven days. <sup>5</sup>The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and, look, if in his eyes the plague is arrested, and the plague hasn’t spread in the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days. <sup>6</sup>The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and look, if the plague has faded, and the plague hasn’t spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>7</sup>But if the scab spreads on the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall show himself to the priest again. <sup>8</sup>The priest shall examine him; and look, if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

<sup>9</sup>“When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest; <sup>10</sup>and the priest shall examine him. Look, if there is a white rising in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the rising, <sup>11</sup>it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

<sup>12</sup>“If the leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the infected person from his head even to his feet, as far as it appears to the priest; <sup>13</sup>then the priest shall examine him; and, look, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean of the plague. It has all turned white: he is clean. <sup>14</sup>But whenever raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall examine the raw flesh, and pronounce him unclean: the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy. <sup>16</sup>Or if the raw flesh turns again, and is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest; <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall examine him; and, look, if the plague has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean of the plague. He is clean.

<sup>18</sup>“When the body has a boil on its skin, and it has healed, <sup>19</sup>and in the place of the boil there is a white rising, or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be shown to the priest; <sup>20</sup>and the priest shall examine it; and look, if its appearance is lower than the skin, and its hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. It has broken out in the boil. <sup>21</sup>But if the priest examines it, and look, there are no white hairs in it, and it isn't deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall isolate him seven days. <sup>22</sup>If it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a plague. <sup>23</sup>But if the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread, it is the scar from the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>24</sup>“Or when the body has a burn from fire on its skin, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white, <sup>25</sup>then the priest shall examine it; and look, if the hair in the bright spot has turned white, and its appearance is deeper than the skin; it is leprosy. It has broken out in the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. <sup>26</sup>But if the priest examines it, and look, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it isn't lower than the skin, but is faded; then the priest shall isolate him seven days. <sup>27</sup>The priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. <sup>28</sup>If the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn't spread in the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar from the burn.

<sup>29</sup>“When a man or woman has a plague on the head or on the beard, <sup>30</sup>then the priest shall examine the plague; and look, if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is an itch, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard. <sup>31</sup>If the priest examines the plague of itching, and look, its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate him the person infected with itching seven days. <sup>32</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the plague; and look, if the itch hasn't spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the appearance of the itch isn't deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>then he shall be shaved, but he shall not shave the itch; and the priest shall shut him up who has the itch seven more days. <sup>34</sup>On the seventh day, the priest shall examine the itch; and look, if the itch hasn't spread in the skin, and its appearance isn't deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>35</sup>But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing, <sup>36</sup>then the priest shall examine him; and look, if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for the yellow hair; he is unclean. <sup>37</sup>But if in his eyes the itch is arrested, and black hair has grown in it; the itch is healed, he is clean. The priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>38</sup>“When a man or a woman has bright spots in the skin of the body, even white bright spots; <sup>39</sup>then the priest shall examine them; and look, if the bright spots on the skin of their body are a dull white, it is a harmless rash, it has broken out in the skin; he is clean.

<sup>47</sup>“The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it is a woolen garment, or a linen garment; <sup>48</sup>whether it is in warp, or woof; of linen, or of wool; whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin; <sup>49</sup>if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin; it is the plague of leprosy,

<sup>50</sup>The priest shall examine the plague, and isolate the plague seven days. <sup>51</sup>He shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever use the skin is used for, the plague is a destructive mildew. It is unclean. <sup>52</sup>He shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin, in which the plague is: for it is a destructive mildew. It shall be burned in the fire.

<sup>53</sup>“If the priest examines it, and look, the plague hasn’t spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin; <sup>54</sup>then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is, and he shall isolate it seven more days. <sup>55</sup>Then the priest shall examine it, after the plague is washed; and look, if the plague hasn’t changed its color, and the plague hasn’t spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire. It is a mildewed spot, whether the bareness is inside or outside. <sup>56</sup>If the priest looks, and look, the plague has faded after it is washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: <sup>57</sup>and if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn with fire that in which the plague is. <sup>58</sup>The garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin it is, which you shall wash, if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and it will be clean.”

<sup>59</sup>This is the law of the plague of mildew in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp, or the woof, or in anything of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

<sup>2</sup>“This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest, <sup>3</sup>and the priest shall go forth out of the camp. The priest shall examine him, and look, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, <sup>4</sup>then the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>5</sup>The priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>6</sup>As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. <sup>7</sup>He shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird go into the open field.

in water; and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days. <sup>9</sup>It shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his body in water, then he shall be clean.

<sup>10</sup>“On the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish, and three tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. <sup>11</sup>The priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>12</sup>“The priest shall take one of the male lambs, and offer him for a trespass offering, with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He shall kill the male lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary; for as the sin offering is the priest’s, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>14</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>“The priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness: and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering; <sup>20</sup>and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering on the altar. The priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

<sup>21</sup>“If he is poor, and can’t afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil; <sup>22</sup>and two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.

Meeting, before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>The priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup>He shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering. The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>26</sup>The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand; <sup>27</sup>and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Then the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>29</sup>The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD. <sup>30</sup>He shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to afford, <sup>31</sup>the<sup>a</sup> one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering. The priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.”

who is not able to afford the sacrifice for his cleansing.

<sup>33</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>34</sup>“When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in the land of your possession, <sup>35</sup>then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, ‘There seems to me to be some sort of plague in the house.’ <sup>36</sup>The priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes in to examine the plague, that all that is in the house not be made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house. <sup>37</sup>He shall examine the plague; and look, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and it appears to be deeper than the wall; <sup>38</sup>then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. <sup>39</sup>The priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look. If the plague has spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup>then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the plague, and cast them into an unclean place outside of the city: <sup>41</sup>and he shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped all over, and they shall pour out the mortar, that they scraped off, outside of the city into an unclean place. <sup>42</sup>They shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup>“If the plague comes again, and breaks out in the house, after he has taken out the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it was plastered; <sup>44</sup>then the priest shall come in and look; and look, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew in the house. It is unclean. <sup>45</sup>And he shall break down the house, its stones, and its timber, and all the house’s mortar. He shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place.

<sup>48</sup>“If the priest shall come in, and examine it, and look, the plague hasn’t spread in the house, after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. <sup>49</sup>To cleanse the house he shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>50</sup>He shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>51</sup>He shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>He shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, with the living bird, with the cedar wood, with the hyssop, and with the scarlet; <sup>53</sup>but he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field. So shall he make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean.”

This is the law of leprosy.

15 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, because of his discharge he is unclean. <sup>3</sup>This shall be his uncleanness in his discharge: whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body has stopped from his discharge, it is his uncleanness. All the days of the discharge of his body, even if his body obstructs his discharge,<sup>a</sup> it is his uncleanness.

clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>6</sup>He who sits on anything whereon the man who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>7</sup>He who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>8</sup>If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>9</sup>Whatever saddle he who has the discharge rides on shall be unclean. <sup>10</sup>Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. He who carries those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>11</sup>Whoever he who has the discharge touches, without having rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>12</sup>The earthen vessel, which he who has the discharge touches, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>13</sup>When he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

<sup>14</sup>On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest: <sup>15</sup>and the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. The priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD for his discharge.

<sup>16</sup>If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>17</sup>Every garment, and every skin, whereon the semen is, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>18</sup>If a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.

wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>22</sup>Whoever touches anything that she sits on shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>23</sup>If it is on the bed, or on anything whereon she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>25</sup>“If a woman has a discharge of her blood many days not in the time of her period, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her period; all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness shall be as in the days of her period: she is unclean. <sup>26</sup>Every bed whereon she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her period: and everything whereon she sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her period. <sup>27</sup>Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>28</sup>“But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. <sup>29</sup>On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>30</sup>The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the uncleanness of her discharge.

<sup>32</sup>This is the law of him who has a discharge, and of him who has an emission of semen, so that he is unclean thereby; <sup>33</sup>and of her who has her period, and of a man or woman who has a discharge, and of him who lies with her who is unclean.

16 The LORD spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD, and died; <sup>2</sup>and the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron your brother, not to come at all times into the Most Holy Place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark; lest he die: for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat.

<sup>3</sup>“Herewith shall Aaron come into the sanctuary: with a young bull for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches on his body, and shall put on the linen sash, and he shall be dressed with the linen turban. They are the holy garments. He shall bathe his body in water, and put them on. <sup>5</sup>He shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

<sup>6</sup>“Aaron shall offer the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house. <sup>7</sup>He shall take the two goats, and set them before the LORD at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>8</sup>Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD, and offer him for a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>But the goat, on which the lot fell for the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make atonement for him, to send him away for the scapegoat into the wilderness.

mercy seat that is on the testimony, so that he will not die. <sup>14</sup>He shall take some of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the east; and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

<sup>15</sup>“Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the veil, and do with his blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: <sup>16</sup>and he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions, even all their sins; and so he shall do for the Tent of Meeting, that dwells with them in the midst of their uncleanness. <sup>17</sup>There shall be no one in the Tent of Meeting when he enters to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, and has made atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>“If a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burned with fire, both he and they; that there may be no wickedness among you.

<sup>16</sup>“If a woman approaches any animal, and lies down with it, you shall kill the woman, and the animal: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

<sup>18</sup>“If a man lies with a woman having her monthly period, and uncovers her nakedness; he has made naked her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

uncle’s nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

<sup>22</sup>“You shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land, where I am bringing you to dwell, may not vomit you out. <sup>23</sup>You shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I am casting out before you: for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. <sup>24</sup>But I have said to you, “You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

<sup>25</sup>“You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean: and you shall not make yourselves abominable by animal, or by bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have separated from you as unclean for you. <sup>26</sup>You shall be holy to me: for I, the LORD, am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, that you should be mine.

<sup>5</sup>“They shall not shave their heads, neither shall they shave off the corners of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. <sup>6</sup>They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

<sup>7</sup>“They shall not marry a woman who is a prostitute, or profane; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband: for he is holy to his God. <sup>8</sup>You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of your God: he shall be holy to you: for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.

<sup>13</sup>“He shall take a wife in her virginity. <sup>14</sup>A widow, or one divorced, or a woman who has been defiled, or a prostitute, these he shall not marry: but a virgin of his own people shall he take as a wife. <sup>15</sup>He shall not profane his offspring among his people: for I am the LORD who sanctifies him.”

<sup>16</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>17</sup>“Say to Aaron, ‘None of your descendants throughout their generations who has a blemish, may approach to offer the bread of his God. <sup>18</sup>For whatever man he is that has a blemish, he shall not draw near: a blind man, or a lame, or he who has a flat nose, or any deformity, <sup>19</sup>or a man who has an injured foot, or an injured hand, <sup>20</sup>or hunchbacked, or a dwarf, or one who has a defect in his eye, or an itching disease, or scabs, or who has damaged testicles; <sup>21</sup>no man of the descendants of Aaron the priest, who has a blemish, shall come near to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire. Since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. <sup>22</sup>He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. <sup>23</sup>He shall not come near to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; that he may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.”

his sons to separate themselves from the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they make holy to me, and that they not profane my holy name. I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“Tell them, ‘If anyone of all your descendants throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the sons of Israel make holy to the LORD, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from before me. I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“No man of the descendants of Aaron is a leper or has an issue, may eat of the holy things, until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, a man who has had a seminal emission; <sup>5</sup>or whoever touches any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has; <sup>6</sup>the person that touches any such shall be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he bathe his body in water. <sup>7</sup>When the sun is down, he shall be clean; and afterward he shall eat of the holy things, because it is his bread. <sup>8</sup>That which dies of itself, or is torn by animals, he shall not eat, defiling himself by it. I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“They shall therefore follow my requirements, lest they bear sin for it, and die because of it, if they profane it. I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>10</sup>“No stranger shall eat of the holy thing: a foreigner living with the priests, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. <sup>11</sup>But if a priest buys a slave, purchased by his money, he shall eat of it; and such as are born in his house, they shall eat of his bread. <sup>12</sup>If a priest’s daughter is married to an outsider, she shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things. <sup>13</sup>But if a priest’s daughter is a widow, or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father’s house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father’s bread: but no stranger shall eat any of it.

<sup>14</sup>“If a man eats something holy unwittingly, then he shall add the fifth part of its value to it, and shall give the holy thing to the priest. <sup>15</sup>The priests shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they offer to the LORD, <sup>16</sup>and so cause them to bear the iniquity that brings guilt, when they eat their holy things: for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and say to them, ‘Any man of the house of Israel or the foreigners who sojourn<sup>a</sup> in Israel, who offers his offering, whether it be any of their vows, or any of their freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD for a burnt offering; <sup>19</sup>that you may be accepted, you shall offer a male without blemish, of the bulls, of the sheep, or of the goats. <sup>20</sup>But whatever has a blemish, that you shall not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. <sup>21</sup>Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to accomplish a vow, or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish in it. <sup>22</sup>Blind, injured, maimed, having a wart, festering, or having a running sore, you shall not offer these to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Either a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in his parts, that you may offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. <sup>24</sup>That which has its testicles bruised, crushed, broken, or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD; neither shall you do thus in your land. <sup>25</sup>Neither shall you offer the bread of your God from the hand of a foreigner of any of these; because their corruption is in them. There is a blemish in them. They shall not be accepted for you.”

<sup>26</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>27</sup>“When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is born, then it shall remain seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for the offering of an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Whether it is a cow or ewe, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day.

<sup>29</sup>“When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. <sup>30</sup>It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until the morning. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>“Therefore you shall keep my commandments, and do them. I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup>You shall not profane my holy name, but I will be made holy among the sons of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy, <sup>33</sup>who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD.”

23 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘The set feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.

<sup>39</sup>“So on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruits of the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest. <sup>40</sup>You shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. <sup>41</sup>You shall keep it a feast to the LORD seven days in the year: it is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup>You shall dwell in booths seven days. All who are native-born in Israel shall dwell in booths, <sup>43</sup>that your generations may know that I made the sons of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.”

24 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel, that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually. <sup>3</sup>Outside of the veil of the Testimony, in the Tent of Meeting, shall Aaron keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations. <sup>4</sup>He shall keep in order the lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

<sup>10</sup>The son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the sons of Israel; and the son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp.

<sup>11</sup>The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name, and cursed; and they brought him to Moses. His mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>12</sup>They put him in custody, until the will of the LORD should be declared to them.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>14</sup>“Bring out of the camp him who cursed; and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the congregation stone him. <sup>15</sup>You shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ‘Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin. <sup>16</sup>He who blasphemes the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him: the foreigner as well as the native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

<sup>23</sup>Moses spoke to the sons of Israel; and they brought forth him who had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. The sons of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

25 The LORD said to Moses in Mount Sinai, <sup>2c</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits; <sup>4</sup>but in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to the LORD. You shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. <sup>5</sup>What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather. It shall be a year of solemn rest for the land. <sup>6</sup>The Sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for yourself, for your servant, for your maid, for your hired servant, and for your stranger, who lives as a foreigner with you. <sup>7</sup>For your livestock also, and for the animals that are in your land, shall all its increase be for food.

<sup>8c</sup>“You shall count off seven Sabbaths of years, seven times seven years; and there shall be to you the days of seven Sabbaths of years, even forty-nine years. <sup>9</sup>Then you shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land. <sup>10</sup>You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee to you; and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family. <sup>11</sup>That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. In it you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from the undressed vines. <sup>12</sup>For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat of its increase out of the field.

<sup>14</sup>“If you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another. <sup>15</sup>According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor. According to the number of years of the crops he shall sell to you. <sup>16</sup>According to the length of the years you shall increase its price, and according to the shortness of the years you shall diminish its price; for he is selling the number of the crops to you. <sup>17</sup>You shall not wrong one another; but you are to fear your God: for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18</sup>“Therefore you shall do my statutes, and keep my ordinances and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety. <sup>19</sup>The land shall yield its fruit, and you shall eat your fill, and dwell in it in safety. <sup>20</sup>If you said, “What shall we eat the seventh year? Look, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase;” <sup>21</sup>then I will command my blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for the three years. <sup>22</sup>You shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the fruits, the old store; until the ninth year, until its fruits come in, you shall eat the old store.

<sup>23</sup>“The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; for you are strangers and live as foreigners with me. <sup>24</sup>In all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.

<sup>25</sup>“If your brother becomes poor, and sells some of his possessions, then his kinsman who is next to him shall come, and redeem that which his brother has sold. <sup>26</sup>If a man has no one to redeem it, and he becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it; <sup>27</sup>then let him reckon the years since its sale, and restore the surplus to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his property. <sup>28</sup>But if he isn’t able to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.

<sup>29</sup>“If a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it has been sold. For a full year he shall have the right of redemption. <sup>30</sup>If it isn’t redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee. <sup>31</sup>But the houses of the villages which have no wall around them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country; they may be redeemed; and they shall be released in the Jubilee.

of their possession, the Levites may redeem forever. <sup>33</sup>The Levites may redeem the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, and it shall be released in the Jubilee; for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the sons of Israel. <sup>34</sup>But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

<sup>35</sup>“If your brother has become poor, and his hand can’t support him among you; then you shall uphold him. As a stranger and a sojourner he shall live with you. <sup>36</sup>Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God; that your brother may live among you. <sup>37</sup>You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit. <sup>38</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

<sup>39</sup>“If your brother has grown poor among you, and sells himself to you; you shall not make him to serve as a slave. <sup>40</sup>As a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with you; he shall serve with you until the Year of Jubilee: <sup>41</sup>then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers. <sup>42</sup>For they are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as slaves. <sup>43</sup>You shall not rule over him with harshness, but shall fear your God.

<sup>44</sup>“As for your male and your female slaves, whom you may have; of the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup>Moreover of the children of the strangers who sojourn among you, of them you may buy, and of their families who are with you, which they have conceived in your land; and they will be your property. <sup>46</sup>You may make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them may you take your slaves forever: but over your brothers the sons of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

<sup>47</sup>“If a stranger or sojourner with you becomes rich, and your brother beside him has grown poor, and sells himself to the stranger or foreigner living among you, or to a member of the stranger’s family; <sup>48</sup>after he is sold he may be redeemed. One of his brothers may redeem him; <sup>49</sup>or his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or any who is a close relative to him of his family may redeem him; or if he has grown rich, he may redeem himself. <sup>50</sup>He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he sold himself to him to the Year of Jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years; according to the time of a hired servant shall he be with him. <sup>51</sup>If there are yet many years, according to them he shall give back the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. <sup>52</sup>If there remain but a few years to the year of jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; according to his years of service he shall give back the price of his redemption. <sup>53</sup>As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him: he shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight. <sup>54</sup>If he isn't redeemed by these means, then he shall be released in the Year of Jubilee, he, and his children with him. <sup>55</sup>For to me the sons of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

26 <sup>1</sup>“You shall make for yourselves no idols, neither shall you raise up an engraved image or a pillar, neither shall you place any figured stone in your land, to bow down to it: for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup>“You shall keep my Sabbaths, and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>“If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; <sup>4</sup>then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. <sup>5</sup>Your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

<sup>6</sup>“I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one will make you afraid; and I will remove evil animals out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. <sup>7</sup>You shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. <sup>8</sup>Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

<sup>9</sup>“I will have respect for you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and will establish my covenant with you. <sup>10</sup>You shall eat old store long kept, and you shall move out the old because of the new. <sup>11</sup>And I will set my tabernacle among you, and my soul will not abhor you. <sup>12</sup>I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you will be my people.<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.

<sup>14</sup>“But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments; <sup>15</sup>and if you shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant; <sup>16</sup>I also will do this to you: I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away; and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it. <sup>17</sup>I will set my face against you, and you will be struck before your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee when no one pursues you.

<sup>18</sup>“If you in spite of these things will not listen to me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins. <sup>19</sup>I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your sky like iron, and your soil like bronze; <sup>20</sup>and your strength will be spent in vain; for your land won’t yield its increase, neither will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

<sup>21</sup>“If you walk contrary to me, and won’t listen to me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins. <sup>22</sup>I will send the wild animals among you, which will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and your roads will become desolate.

<sup>23</sup>“If by these things you won’t be reformed to me, but will walk contrary to me; <sup>24</sup>then I will also walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, even I, seven times for your sins. <sup>25</sup>I will bring a sword upon you, that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; and you will be gathered together within your cities: and I will send the pestilence among you; and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy. <sup>26</sup>When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight: and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup>“If you in spite of this won’t listen to me, but walk contrary to me; <sup>28</sup>then I will walk contrary to you in wrath; and I also will chastise you seven times for your sins. <sup>29</sup>You will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters. <sup>30</sup>I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you. <sup>31</sup>I will lay your cities waste, and will bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not take delight in the sweet fragrance of your offerings. <sup>32</sup>I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell in it will be astonished at it. <sup>33</sup>I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you: and your land will be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste. <sup>34</sup>Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies’ land. Even then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths. <sup>35</sup>As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, even the rest which it did not have in your sabbaths, when you lived on it.

<sup>36</sup>“As for those of you who are left, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies: and the sound of a driven leaf will put them to flight; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they will fall when no one pursues. <sup>37</sup>They will stumble over one another, as it were before the sword, when no one pursues: and you will have no power to stand before your enemies. <sup>38</sup>You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will eat you up. <sup>39</sup>Those of you who are left will rot away in their iniquity in the lands of their enemies;<sup>a</sup> and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they rot away with them.

<sup>40</sup>“If they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that, because they walked contrary to me, <sup>41</sup>I also walked contrary to them, and brought them into the land of their enemies: if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity; <sup>42</sup>then I will remember my covenant with Jacob; and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham; and I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup>The land also will be left by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them: and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they rejected my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes. <sup>44</sup>Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God; <sup>45</sup>but I will for their sake remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am the LORD.”

<sup>46</sup>These are the statutes, ordinances and laws, which the LORD made between him and the sons of Israel in Mount Sinai by Moses.

27 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, ‘When a man makes a vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by your valuation. <sup>3</sup>Your valuation shall be of a male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, even your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup>If it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels. <sup>5</sup>If the person is from five years old even to twenty years old, then your valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels. <sup>6</sup>If the person is from a month old even to five years old, then your valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver. <sup>7</sup>If the person is from sixty years old and upward; if it is a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels. <sup>8</sup>But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be set before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him who vowed shall the priest value him.

<sup>9</sup>“If it is an animal, of which men offer an offering to the LORD, all that any man gives of such to the LORD becomes holy. <sup>10</sup>He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. <sup>11</sup>If it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer as an offering to the LORD, then he shall set the animal before the priest; <sup>12</sup>and the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you the priest values it, so shall it be. <sup>13</sup>But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of it to its valuation.

<sup>14</sup>“When a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall evaluate it, whether it is good or bad: as the priest shall evaluate it, so shall it stand. <sup>15</sup>If he who dedicates it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

<sup>16</sup>“If a man dedicates to the LORD part of the field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the seed for it: the sowing of a homer of barley shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. <sup>17</sup>If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand. <sup>18</sup>But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain to the Year of Jubilee; and an abatement shall be made from your valuation. <sup>19</sup>If he who dedicated the field will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall remain his. <sup>20</sup>If he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more; <sup>21</sup>but the field, when it goes out in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a field devoted; it shall be owned by the priests.

<sup>22</sup>“If he dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not of the field of his possession, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and he shall give your valuation on that day, as a holy thing to the LORD. <sup>24</sup>In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongs. <sup>25</sup>All your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.

<sup>26</sup>“Only the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to the LORD, no man may dedicate it; whether an ox or sheep, it is the LORD’s. <sup>27</sup>If it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back according to your valuation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it: or if it isn't redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

<sup>28</sup>“Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote to the LORD of all that he has, whether of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>All the tithe of the herds or the flocks, whatever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>He shall not search whether it is good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he changes it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. It shall not be redeemed.”

Numbers

1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, every male, one by one; <sup>3</sup>from twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go out to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their divisions. <sup>4</sup>With you there shall be a man of every tribe; everyone head of his fathers' house. <sup>5</sup>These are the names of the men who shall stand with you: Of Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur. <sup>6</sup>Of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. <sup>7</sup>Of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab. <sup>8</sup>Of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar. <sup>9</sup>Of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon. <sup>10</sup>Of the children of Joseph: Of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud. Of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. <sup>11</sup>Of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideon. <sup>12</sup>Of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. <sup>13</sup>Of Asher: Pagiël the son of Ocran.

one, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; <sup>23</sup>those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

them, of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

<sup>34</sup>Of the children of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; <sup>35</sup>those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

<sup>44</sup>These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the leaders of Israel, being twelve men;<sup>a</sup> each representing his fathers' house. <sup>45</sup>So all those who were numbered of the sons of Israel by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war in Israel; <sup>46</sup>even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. <sup>47</sup>But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them. <sup>48</sup>For the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>49</sup>“Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, neither shall you take a census of them among the sons of Israel; <sup>50</sup>but appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle, and all its furnishings; and they shall take care of it, and shall camp around it. <sup>51</sup>When the tabernacle is to move, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The unauthorized person who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>52</sup>The sons of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, according to their divisions. <sup>53</sup>But the Levites shall camp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel: and the Levites shall be responsible for the Tabernacle of the Testimony.”

<sup>54</sup>Thus the sons of Israel did. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did.

2 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>2</sup>“The sons of Israel shall camp every man by his own standard, with the banners of their fathers’ houses: at a distance from the Tent of Meeting shall they camp around it.”

<sup>3</sup>Those who camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their divisions: and the prince of the children of Judah shall be Nahshon the son of Amminadab. <sup>4</sup>His division, and those who were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

<sup>5</sup>Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and the prince of the children of Issachar shall be Nethanel the son of Zuar. <sup>6</sup>His division, and those who were numbered of it, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

<sup>9</sup>All who were numbered of the camp of Judah were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their divisions. They shall set out first.

<sup>10</sup>“On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their divisions. The prince of the children of Reuben shall be Elizur the son of Shedeur. <sup>11</sup>His division, and those who were numbered of it, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

<sup>12</sup>“Those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon. The prince of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. <sup>13</sup>His division, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

<sup>34</sup> Thus the sons of Israel did. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they camped by their standards, and so they set out, everyone by their families, according to their fathers' houses.

3 Now this is the history of the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai.<sup>2</sup> These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>6</sup> "Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him.<sup>7</sup> They shall keep his requirements, and the requirements of the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle.<sup>8</sup> They shall keep all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, and the obligations of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.<sup>9</sup> You shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons. They are wholly given to him on the behalf of the sons of Israel.<sup>10</sup> And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they attend to their priesthood; but the unauthorized person who comes near shall be put to death."

<sup>22</sup>Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.

<sup>24</sup>The prince of the fathers' house of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael. <sup>25</sup>The duty of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>26</sup>and the curtaining of the court, and the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and around the altar, and its cords for all of its service.

<sup>27</sup>Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. <sup>28</sup>According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary.

<sup>33</sup>Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. <sup>34</sup>Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.

was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They shall camp on the north side of the tabernacle.<sup>36</sup>The appointed duty of the sons of Merari shall be the tabernacle's boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its instruments, all its service,<sup>37</sup>the pillars of the court around it, their sockets, their pins, and their cords.<sup>38</sup>Those who camp before the tabernacle eastward, in front of the Tent of Meeting toward the sunrise, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary for the duty of the sons of Israel. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death.<sup>39</sup>All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.

<sup>40</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Number all the firstborn males of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.<sup>41</sup>You shall take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel; and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the sons of Israel."

<sup>42</sup>Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the sons of Israel.<sup>43</sup>All the firstborn males according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

<sup>44</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>45</sup>"Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock; and the Levites shall be mine. I am the LORD.<sup>46</sup>For the redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the sons of Israel, who exceed the number of the Levites,<sup>47</sup>you shall take five shekels apiece for each one; after the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs):<sup>48</sup>and you shall give the money, with which the remainder of them is redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons."

4 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,<sup>2</sup>"Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' houses,<sup>3</sup>from thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all who enter into the service, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4</sup>This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting, the most holy things. <sup>5</sup>When the camp moves forward, Aaron shall go in, and his sons, and they shall take down the veil of the screen, and cover the ark of the Testimony with it, <sup>6</sup>and shall put a covering of sealskin on it, and shall spread over it a cloth all of blue, and shall put in its poles. <sup>7</sup>On the table of show bread they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the pitchers for pouring with them;<sup>a</sup> and the continual bread shall be on it. <sup>8</sup>They shall spread on them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of sealskin, and shall put it on its poles. <sup>9</sup>They shall take a blue cloth, and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, and all its oil vessels, with which they minister to it. <sup>10</sup>They shall put it and all its vessels within a covering of sealskin, and shall put it on the frame. <sup>11</sup>On the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of sealskin, and shall put in its poles. <sup>12</sup>They shall take all the vessels of ministry, with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, and cover them with a covering of sealskin, and shall put them on the frame. <sup>13</sup>They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it. <sup>14</sup>They shall put on it all its vessels, with which they minister about it, the fire pans, the flesh hooks, the shovels, and the basins; all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of sealskin, and put in its poles.

<sup>15</sup>“When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp moves forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it: but they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>16</sup>“The duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil, the requirements of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, the sanctuary, and its furnishings.”

years old and upward until fifty years old; all who enter in to wait on the service, to do the work in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>24</sup>This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in bearing burdens: <sup>25</sup>they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the Tent of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of sealskin that is above on it, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>26</sup>and the tapestries of the court, and the screen for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and around the altar, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and whatever shall be done with them. So they are to serve. <sup>27</sup>At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burden, and in all their service; and you shall appoint their duty to them in all their responsibilities. <sup>28</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting: and their duty shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup>“As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers’ houses; <sup>30</sup>you shall count them from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who enters on the service, to do the work of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>31</sup>This is the duty of their burden, according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the tabernacle’s boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, <sup>32</sup>and the pillars of the court around it, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service. And you shall assign by name all<sup>18</sup> the items he must carry. <sup>33</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the Tent of Meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.”

<sup>38</sup>Those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, their families, and by their fathers’ houses, <sup>39</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>40</sup>even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their fathers’ houses, were two thousand six hundred thirty.<sup>41</sup> These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.<sup>42</sup> Those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers' houses,<sup>43</sup> from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting,<sup>44</sup> even those who were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand two hundred.<sup>45</sup> These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.<sup>46</sup> All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families, and by their fathers' houses,<sup>47</sup> from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered in to do the work of service, and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Meeting,<sup>48</sup> even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty.<sup>49</sup> According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by Moses, everyone according to his service, and according to his burden. Thus were they numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and everyone who has an issue, and whoever is unclean by the dead.<sup>3</sup> Both you shall put male and female outside of the camp; that they not defile their camp, in the midst of which I dwell.”

<sup>4</sup>The sons of Israel did so, and put them out outside of the camp; as the LORD spoke to Moses, so did the sons of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>6</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel: When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit, so as to trespass against the LORD, and that soul is guilty;<sup>7</sup> then he shall confess his sin which he has done, and he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add to it the fifth part of it, and give it to him in respect of whom he has been guilty.<sup>8</sup> But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made to the LORD shall be the priest's; besides the ram of the atonement, by which atonement shall be made for him.<sup>9</sup> Every heave offering of all the holy things of the sons of Israel, which they present to the priest, shall be his.<sup>10</sup> Every man's holy things shall be his: whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.”

carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and is kept close, and she is defiled, and there is no witness against her, and she isn't taken in the act; <sup>14</sup>and the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she is defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she isn't defiled: <sup>15</sup>then the man shall bring his wife to the priest, and shall bring her offering for her: the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal. He shall pour no oil on it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is a meal offering of jealousy, a meal offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to memory. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD; <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water. <sup>18</sup>The priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and put the meal offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy. The priest shall have in his hand the water of bitterness that brings a curse. <sup>19</sup>The priest shall cause her to swear, and shall tell the woman, 'If no man has lain with you, and if you haven't gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, be free from this water of bitterness that brings a curse. <sup>20</sup>But if you have gone astray, being under your husband, and if you are defiled, and some man has lain with you besides your husband: <sup>21</sup>then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall tell the woman, 'The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD allows your thigh to fall away, and your body to swell; <sup>22</sup>and this water that brings a curse will go into your bowels, and make your body swell, and your thigh fall away.' The woman shall say, 'Amen, Amen.'

her husband, goes astray, and is defiled; <sup>30</sup>or when the spirit of jealousy comes on a man, and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute on her all this law. <sup>31</sup>The man shall be free from iniquity, and that woman shall bear her iniquity.”

6 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them: When either man or woman shall make a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD, <sup>3</sup>he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink. He shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of fermented drink, neither shall he drink any juice of grapes, nor eat fresh grapes or dried. <sup>4</sup>All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is made of the grapevine, from the seeds even to the skins.

<sup>5</sup>“All the days of his vow of separation there shall no razor come on his head, until the days are fulfilled, in which he separates himself to the LORD. He shall be holy. He shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow long.

<sup>6</sup>“All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body. <sup>7</sup>He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because his separation to God is on his head. <sup>8</sup>All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“If any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing. On the seventh day he shall shave it. <sup>10</sup>On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>11</sup>The priest shall offer one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day. <sup>12</sup>He shall separate to the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a trespass offering; but the former days shall be void, because his separation was defiled.

offering, and his burnt offering.
<sup>17</sup>He shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also its meal offering, and its drink offering. <sup>18</sup>The Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>19</sup>The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaved the head of his separation; <sup>20</sup>and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. This is holy for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.

<sup>21</sup>“This is the law of the Nazirite who vows, and of his offering to the LORD for his separation, besides that which he is able to get. According to his vow which he vows, so he must do after the law of his separation.”

<sup>25</sup>The LORD make his face to shine on you, and be gracious to you.

<sup>26</sup>The LORD lift up his face toward you, and give you peace.’

<sup>27</sup>“So they shall put my name on the sons of Israel; and I will bless them.”

7 It happened on the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed it and sanctified it, with all its furniture, and the altar with all its vessels, and had anointed and sanctified them; <sup>2</sup>that the leaders of Israel, the heads of their ancestral houses, offered. These were the leaders of the tribes. These are they who were over those who were numbered: <sup>3</sup>and they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox: and they presented them before the tabernacle. <sup>4</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the Tent of Meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service.”

<sup>6</sup>Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service: <sup>8</sup>and he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup>But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the service of the sanctuary belonged to them; they carried it on their shoulders.

<sup>12</sup>He who offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah, <sup>13</sup>and his offering was: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering; <sup>14</sup>one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>15</sup>one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>16</sup>one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>17</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

meal offering; <sup>44</sup>one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense; <sup>45</sup>one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering; <sup>46</sup>one male goat for a sin offering; <sup>47</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Reuel.<sup>b</sup>

This was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

offering; <sup>83</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>84</sup>This was the dedication of the altar, on the day when it was anointed, by the leaders of Israel: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden ladles; <sup>85</sup>each silver platter weighing one hundred thirty shekels, and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; <sup>86</sup>the twelve golden ladles, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the ladles weighed one hundred twenty shekels; <sup>87</sup>all the cattle for the burnt offering twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs a year old twelve, and their meal offering; and the male goats for a sin offering twelve; <sup>88</sup>and all the cattle for the sacrifice of peace offerings twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup>When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard his voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spoke to him.

to Aaron, and tell him, ‘When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.’”

<sup>3</sup>Aaron did so. He lit its lamps to light the area in front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>4</sup>This was the workmanship of the lampstand, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6</sup>“Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and cleanse them. <sup>7</sup>You shall do this to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of cleansing on them, let them shave their whole bodies with a razor, and let them wash their clothes, and cleanse themselves. <sup>8</sup>Then let them take a young bull, and its meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and another young bull you shall take for a sin offering. <sup>9</sup>You shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting. You shall assemble the whole congregation of the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>You shall present the Levites before the LORD. The sons of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites, <sup>11</sup>and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for a wave offering, on the behalf of the sons of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.<sup>13</sup>You shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.<sup>14</sup>Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.

<sup>15</sup>“After that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting: and you shall cleanse them, and offer them as a wave offering.<sup>16</sup>For they are wholly given to me from among the sons of Israel; instead of all who open the womb, even the firstborn of all the sons of Israel, I have taken them to me.<sup>17</sup>For all the firstborn among the sons of Israel are mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself.<sup>18</sup>I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel.<sup>19</sup>I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to do the service of the sons of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for the sons of Israel; that there be no plague among the sons of Israel, when the sons of Israel come near to the sanctuary.”

<sup>20</sup>Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel did so to the Levites. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them.<sup>21</sup>The Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them for a wave offering before the LORD; and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.<sup>22</sup>After that, the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

9 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,<sup>2</sup>“Moreover let the sons of Israel keep the Passover in its appointed season.<sup>3</sup>On the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed season—according to all its statutes, and according to all its ordinances, you shall keep it.”

Passover. <sup>5</sup>They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did. <sup>6</sup>There were certain men, who were unclean because of the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. <sup>7</sup>Those men said to him, "We are unclean because of the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back, that we may not offer the offering of the LORD in its appointed season among the sons of Israel?"

<sup>9</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>"Say to the sons of Israel, 'If any man of you or of your generations is unclean by reason of a dead body, or is on a journey far away, he shall still keep the Passover to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>In the second month, on the fourteenth day at evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>12</sup>They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it. <sup>a</sup>According to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it. <sup>13</sup>But the man who is clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from his people. Because he did not offer the offering of the LORD in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. <sup>14</sup>If a foreigner lives among you, and desires to keep the Passover to the LORD; according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its ordinance, so shall he do. You shall have one statute, both for the foreigner, and for him who is born in the land.'"

<sup>15</sup>On the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the Tent of the Testimony: and at evening it was over the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until morning. <sup>16</sup>So it was continually. The cloud covered it by day,<sup>b</sup> and the appearance of fire by night. <sup>17</sup>Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tent, then after that the sons of Israel traveled; and in the place where the cloud remained, there the sons of Israel camped. <sup>18</sup>At the commandment of the LORD, the sons of Israel traveled, and at the commandment of the LORD they camped. As long as the cloud remained on the tabernacle they remained camped.

<sup>19</sup>When the cloud stayed on the tabernacle many days, then the sons of Israel kept the LORD's command, and did not travel. <sup>20</sup>Sometimes the cloud was a few days on the tabernacle; then according to the commandment of the LORD they remained camped, and according to the commandment of the LORD they traveled. <sup>21</sup>Sometimes the cloud was from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled: or by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, they traveled. <sup>22</sup>Whether it was two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud stayed on the tabernacle, remaining on it, the sons of Israel remained camped, and did not travel; but when it was taken up, they traveled. <sup>23</sup>At the commandment of the LORD they camped, and at the commandment of the LORD they traveled. They kept the LORD's command, at the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

10 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Make two trumpets of silver. You shall make them of beaten work. You shall use them for the calling of the congregation, and for the journeying of the camps. <sup>3</sup>When they blow them, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4</sup>But if they blow just one, then the leaders, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you. <sup>5</sup>When you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall go forward. <sup>6</sup>When you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall go forward. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. <sup>7</sup>But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. This shall be to you for a statute forever throughout your generations. <sup>9</sup>When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets. Then you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

<sup>10</sup>“Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God. I am the LORD your God.”

armies. Nahshon the son of Amminadab was over his army. <sup>15</sup>Nethanel the son of Zuar was over the army of the tribe of the children of Issachar. <sup>16</sup>Eliab the son of Helon was over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun. <sup>17</sup>The tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who bore the tabernacle, went forward. <sup>18</sup>The standard of the camp of Reuben went forward according to their armies. Elizur the son of Shedeur was over his army. <sup>19</sup>Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai was over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon. <sup>20</sup>Eliasaph the son of Reuel<sup>a</sup> was over the army of the tribe of the children of Gad.

the rearward of all the camps, set forward according to their armies. Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai was over his army. <sup>26</sup>Pagiel the son of Ochran was over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher. <sup>27</sup>Ahira the son of Enan was over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali. <sup>28</sup>Thus were the travels of the sons of Israel according to their armies; and they went forward.

<sup>29</sup>Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' brother-in-law,<sup>b</sup> "We are journeying to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has spoken good concerning Israel."

<sup>30</sup>He said to him, "I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my relatives."

<sup>31</sup>He said, "Do not leave us, please; because you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes. <sup>32</sup>And it shall be, if you go with us, that it shall be that whatever good the LORD does to us, we will do the same to you."

<sup>33</sup>They set forward from the Mount of the LORD three days' journey. The ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them. <sup>34</sup>The cloud of the LORD was over them by day, when they set forward from the camp. <sup>35</sup>It happened, when the ark went forward, that Moses said, "Rise up, LORD, and let your enemies be scattered. Let those who hate you flee before you." <sup>36</sup>When it rested, he said, "Return, LORD, to the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel."

11 The people were complaining in the ears of the LORD. When the LORD heard it, his anger was kindled; and the LORD's fire burnt among them, and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp. <sup>2</sup>The people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated. <sup>3</sup>The name of that place was called Taberah<sup>a</sup>, because the LORD's fire burnt among them.

<sup>4</sup>The mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly; and the sons of Israel also wept again, and said, "Who will give us flesh to eat? <sup>5</sup>We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic; <sup>6</sup>but now we have lost our appetite. There is nothing at all except this manna to look at." <sup>7</sup>The manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like the appearance of bdellium. <sup>8</sup>The people went around, gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it. Its taste was like the taste of fresh oil. <sup>9</sup>When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.

<sup>10</sup>Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man at the door of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; and Moses was displeased. <sup>11</sup>Moses said to the LORD, "Why have you treated with your servant so badly? Why haven't I found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? <sup>12</sup>Have I conceived all this people? Have I brought them forth, that you should tell me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which you swore to their fathers?' <sup>13</sup>Where could I get meat to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.' <sup>14</sup>I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. <sup>15</sup>If you treat me this way, please kill me right now, if I have found favor in your sight; and do not let me see my wretchedness."

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit which is on you, and will put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you not bear it yourself alone.

<sup>18</sup>“Say to the people, ‘Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you will eat flesh; for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, “Who will give us flesh to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt.” Therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and you will eat. <sup>19</sup>You will not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days, <sup>20</sup>but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it is loathsome to you; because that you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, “Why did we come out of Egypt?””

<sup>21</sup>Moses said, “The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand men on foot; and you have said, ‘I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.’ <sup>22</sup>Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?”

<sup>23</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Has the LORD’s hand grown short? Now you will see whether my word will happen to you or not.”

<sup>24</sup>Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them around the Tent. <sup>25</sup>The LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was on him, and put it on the seventy elders: and it happened that when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did so no more. <sup>26</sup>But two men remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the Spirit rested on them; and they were of those who were written, but had not gone out to the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup>A young man ran, and told Moses, and said, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

<sup>29</sup>Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets, that the LORD would put his Spirit on them.”

<sup>30</sup>Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of Israel. <sup>31</sup>A wind from the LORD went out and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, about a day’s journey on this side, and a day’s journey on the other side, around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth. <sup>32</sup>The people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails.

He who gathered least gathered ten homers,<sup>a</sup> and they spread them all abroad for themselves around the camp.<sup>33</sup> While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.<sup>34</sup> The name of that place was called Kibroth Hattaavah,<sup>b</sup> because there they buried the people who lusted.

12 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married; for he had married a Cushite woman.<sup>2</sup> They said, “Has the LORD indeed spoken only with Moses? Hasn’t he spoken also with us?” And the LORD heard it.

<sup>3</sup>Now the man Moses was very humble, above all the men who were on the surface of the earth.<sup>4</sup> The LORD spoke suddenly to Moses, to Aaron, and to Miriam, “You three come out to the Tent of Meeting.”

The three of them came out.<sup>5</sup> The LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward.<sup>6</sup> He said, “Hear now my words. If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known to him in a vision. I will speak with him in a dream.<sup>7</sup> My servant Moses is not so. He is faithful in all my house.<sup>8</sup> With him I will speak mouth to mouth, openly,<sup>c</sup> and not in riddles; and he shall see the LORD’s form. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?”<sup>9</sup> The anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.<sup>10</sup> The cloud departed from over the Tent; and look, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. Aaron looked at Miriam, and look, she was leprous.

<sup>11</sup>Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, please do not count this sin against us, in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned.<sup>12</sup> Let her not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother’s womb.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, shouldn’t she be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut up outside of the camp seven days, and after that she shall be brought in again.”

<sup>15</sup>Miriam was shut up outside of the camp seven days, and the people did not travel until Miriam was brought in again. <sup>16</sup>Afterward the people traveled from Hazeroth, and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

13 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Send men, that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I give to the sons of Israel. Of every tribe of their fathers, you shall send a man, every one a prince among them.”

<sup>3</sup>Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the commandment of the LORD: all of them men who were heads of the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>These were their names: Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur. <sup>5</sup>Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori. <sup>6</sup>Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>7</sup>Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph. <sup>8</sup>Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun. <sup>9</sup>Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu. <sup>10</sup>Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi. <sup>11</sup>Of the tribe of Joseph, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi. <sup>12</sup>Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli. <sup>13</sup>Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael. <sup>14</sup>Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi. <sup>15</sup>Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. <sup>16</sup>These are the names of the men who Moses sent to spy out the land. Moses called Hoshea the son of

Nun Joshua. <sup>17</sup>Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up this way by the Negev, and go up into the hill country: <sup>18</sup>and see the land, what it is; and the people who dwell in it, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; <sup>19</sup>and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in strongholds; <sup>20</sup>and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood in it, or not. Be courageous, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.” <sup>21</sup>So they went up, and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, to Lebo Hamath. <sup>22</sup>They went up by the Negev, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the children of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) <sup>23</sup>They came to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes on it,<sup>a</sup> and they bore it on a staff between two. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs. <sup>24</sup>That place was called the valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut down from there. <sup>25</sup>They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days. <sup>26</sup>They went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup>They told him, and said, "We came to the land where you sent us; and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is its fruit. <sup>28</sup>However the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the children of Anak there. <sup>29</sup>Amalek dwells in the land of the Negev; and the Hittites, and the Hivites,<sup>a</sup> and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along by the side of the Jordan." <sup>30</sup>Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." <sup>31</sup>But the men who went up with him said, "We aren't able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we." <sup>32</sup>They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the sons of Israel, saying, "The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people who we saw in it are men of great stature. <sup>33</sup>There we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come of the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight."

up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night. <sup>2</sup>All the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt. or would that we had died in this wilderness. <sup>3</sup>Why does the LORD bring us to this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will be a prey: wouldn't it be better for us to return into Egypt?" <sup>4</sup>They said one to another, "Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt." <sup>5</sup>Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel. <sup>6</sup>Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of those who spied out the land, tore their clothes: <sup>7</sup>and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceeding good land. <sup>8</sup>If the LORD delights in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it to us; a land which flows with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup>Only do not rebel against the LORD, neither fear the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is removed from over them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them." <sup>10</sup>But all the congregation threatened to stone them with stones. The glory of the LORD appeared in the Tent of Meeting to all the sons of Israel. <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, for all the signs which I have worked among them? <sup>12</sup>I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and I will make of you and your father's house<sup>a</sup> a nation greater and mightier than they." <sup>13</sup>Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear it; for you brought up this people in your might from among them; <sup>14</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you LORD are in the midst of this people; for you LORD are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>15</sup>Now if you killed this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of you will speak, saying, <sup>16</sup>Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.' <sup>17</sup>Now please let the power of the Lord be great, according as you have spoken, saying, <sup>18</sup>The LORD is slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, forgiving iniquity and disobedience; and that will by no means clear [the guilty], visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth [generation].' <sup>19</sup>Please pardon the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your loving kindness, and according as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now." <sup>20</sup>The LORD said, "I have pardoned according to your word. <sup>21</sup>But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD; <sup>22</sup>because all those men who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I worked in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tempted me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice; <sup>23</sup>surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of those who despised me see it: <sup>24</sup>but my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed me fully, him will I bring into the land into which he went; and his descendants shall possess it.

concerning which I swore that I would make you dwell in it, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>31</sup>But your little ones, that you said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.

<sup>32</sup>But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>Your children shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your prostitution, until your dead bodies be consumed in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup>After the number of the days in which you spied out the land, even forty days, for every day a year, you will bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you will know my alienation. <sup>35</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken, surely this will I do to all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.” <sup>36</sup>The men, whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report against the land, <sup>37</sup>even those men who brought up an evil report of the land, died by the plague before the LORD. <sup>38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive of those men who went to spy out the land. <sup>39</sup>Moses told these words to all the sons of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. <sup>40</sup>They rose up early in the morning, and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Look, we are here, and will go up to the place which the LORD has promised: for we have sinned.” <sup>41</sup>Moses said, “Why now do you disobey the commandment of the LORD, since it shall not prosper? <sup>42</sup>Do not go up, for the LORD isn’t among you; that you not be struck down before your enemies. <sup>43</sup>For there the Amalekite and the Canaanite are before you, and you shall fall by the sword: because you are turned back from following the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.”

<sup>44</sup>But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, did not depart out of the camp. <sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekite came down, and the Canaanite who lived in that mountain, and struck them and beat them down, even to Hormah.

15 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you have come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you, <sup>3</sup>and will make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your set feasts, to make a pleasant aroma to the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock; <sup>4</sup>then he who offers his offering shall offer to the LORD a meal offering of a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil: <sup>5</sup>and wine for the drink offering, the fourth part of a hin, you shall prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

<sup>6</sup>“Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a meal offering two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the third part of a hin of oil: <sup>7</sup>and for the drink offering you shall offer the third part of a hin of wine, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>When you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or for peace offerings to the LORD; <sup>9</sup>then shall he offer with the bull a meal offering of three tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil: <sup>10</sup>and you shall offer for the drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Thus shall it be done for each bull, or for each ram, or for each of the male lambs, or of the young goats. <sup>12</sup>According to the number that you shall prepare, so you shall do to everyone according to their number.

<sup>13</sup>“All who are native-born shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD; as you do, so he shall do. <sup>15</sup>For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you, and for the stranger who lives among you, a statute forever throughout your generations: as you are, so shall the foreigner be before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner with you.”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you come into the land where I bring you, <sup>19</sup>then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a wave offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Of the first of your dough you shall offer up a cake for a wave offering: as the wave offering of the threshing floor, so you shall heave it. <sup>21</sup>Of the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD a wave offering throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup>“When you shall err, and not observe all these commandments, which the LORD has spoken to Moses, <sup>23</sup>even all that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day that the LORD gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations; <sup>24</sup>then it shall be, if it be done unwittingly, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma to the LORD, with the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error: <sup>26</sup>and all the congregation of the sons of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them; for in respect of all the people it was done unwittingly.

<sup>27</sup>“If one person sins unwittingly, then he shall offer a female goat a year old for a sin offering. <sup>28</sup>The priest shall make atonement for the soul who errs, when he sins unwittingly, before the LORD, to make atonement for him; and he shall be forgiven. <sup>29</sup>You shall have one law for him who does anything unwittingly, for him who is native-born among the sons of Israel, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them.

<sup>30</sup>“But the soul who does anything with a high hand, whether he is native-born or a foreigner, the same blasphemes the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>31</sup>Because he has despised the word of the LORD, and has broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.”

<sup>32</sup>While the sons of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day. <sup>33</sup>Those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation. <sup>34</sup>They put him in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done to him.

Peleth, son<sup>a</sup> of Reuben, <sup>2</sup>and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the sons of Israel, two hundred fifty leaders of the congregation, called to the assembly, men of renown; <sup>3</sup>and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, “You take too much on yourself, since all the congregation are holy, everyone of them, and the LORD is among them: why then lift yourselves up above the assembly of the LORD?”

<sup>4</sup>When Moses heard it, he fell on his face: <sup>5</sup>and he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, “In the morning the LORD<sup>b</sup> will show who are his, and who is holy, and will bring him near to him. The one whom he has chosen<sup>c</sup> he will bring near to him. <sup>6</sup>Do this: take censers, Korah, and all his company; <sup>7</sup>and put fire in them, and put incense on them before the LORD tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses, he shall be holy. You have gone too far, you sons of Levi.”

<sup>8</sup>Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you sons of Levi. <sup>9</sup>Is it a small thing to you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them; <sup>10</sup>and that he has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you? and do you seek the priesthood also? <sup>11</sup>Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD: and Aaron, what is he that you murmur against him?”

<sup>12</sup>Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, “We won’t come up: <sup>13</sup>is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but you must also make yourself a prince over us? <sup>14</sup>Moreover you haven’t brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you put out the eyes of these men? We won’t come up.” <sup>15</sup>Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, “Do not respect their offering: I have not taken one donkey from them, neither have I hurt one of them.” <sup>16</sup>Moses said to Korah, “You and all your company go before the LORD, you, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow: <sup>17</sup>and each man take his censer, and put incense on them, and each man bring before the LORD his censer, two hundred fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer.” <sup>18</sup>They each took his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood at the door of the Tent of Meeting with Moses and Aaron. <sup>19</sup>Korah assembled all the congregation against them to the door of the Tent of Meeting; and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation. <sup>20</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>21</sup>“Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.” <sup>22</sup>They fell on their faces, and said, “God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will you be angry with all the congregation?”

<sup>27</sup> So they went away from the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood at the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little ones. <sup>28</sup>Moses said, “Hereby you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; for they are not from my own mind. <sup>29</sup>If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hasn’t sent me. <sup>30</sup>But if the LORD make a new thing, and the ground open its mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain to them, and they go down alive into Sheol; then you shall understand that these men have despised the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup>It happened, as he made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground split apart that was under them; <sup>32</sup>and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men who appertained to Korah, and all their goods. <sup>33</sup>So they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into Sheol: and the earth closed on them, and they perished from among the assembly. <sup>34</sup>All Israel that were around them fled at their cry; for they said, “Lest the earth swallow us up.” <sup>35</sup>Fire came forth from the LORD, and devoured the two hundred fifty men who offered the incense.

<sup>36</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>37</sup>“Speak to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire yonder; for they are holy, <sup>38</sup>even the censers of these sinners against their own lives; and let them be made beaten plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD; therefore they are holy; and they shall be a sign to the sons of Israel.” <sup>39</sup>Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burnt had offered; and they beat them out for a covering of the altar, <sup>40</sup>to be a memorial to the sons of Israel, to the end that no stranger, who isn’t of the descendants of Aaron, comes near to burn incense before the LORD;

that he not be as Korah, and as his company; as the LORD spoke to him by Moses. <sup>41</sup>But on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "You have killed the LORD's people." <sup>42</sup>It happened, when the congregation was assembled against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the Tent of Meeting: and look, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. <sup>43</sup>Moses and Aaron came to the front of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>44</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>45</sup>"Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment." They fell on their faces.

<sup>46</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, and put fire from off the altar in it, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun."

<sup>47</sup>Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and look, the plague has begun among the people: and he put on the incense, and made atonement for the people. <sup>48</sup>He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. <sup>49</sup>Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah. <sup>50</sup>Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the Tent of Meeting: and the plague was stayed.

<sup>6</sup>Moses spoke to the sons of Israel; and all their leaders gave him rods, one for each leader, according to their ancestral houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. <sup>7</sup>Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the children of rebellion; that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, that they not die.” <sup>11</sup>Moses did so. As the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, “Look, we perish. We are undone. We are all undone. <sup>13</sup>Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, dies. Will we all perish?”

18 The LORD said to Aaron, “You and your sons and your fathers’ house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood. <sup>2</sup>Your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring near with you, that they may be joined to you, and minister to you: but you and your sons with you shall be before the tent of the testimony. <sup>3</sup>They shall keep your commands, and the duty of all the Tent: only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they not die, neither they, nor you. <sup>4</sup>They shall be joined to you, and keep the responsibility of the Tent of Meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not come near to you.

the altar; that there be no more wrath on the sons of Israel. <sup>6</sup>And look, I myself have taken your brothers the Levites from among the sons of Israel; they are a gift to you,<sup>a</sup> given to the LORD, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>7</sup>You and your sons with you shall keep your priesthood for everything concerning the altar, and for that inside the veil; and you shall serve: I give you the priesthood as a service of gift: and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.”

<sup>8</sup>The LORD spoke to Aaron, “I, look, I have given you the command of my wave offerings, even all the holy things of the sons of Israel; to you have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to your sons, as a portion forever. <sup>9</sup>This shall be yours of the most holy things from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons. <sup>10</sup>You shall eat of it like the most holy things. Every male shall eat of it. It shall be holy to you.

<sup>11</sup>“This is yours, too: the wave offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel. I have given them to you, and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as a portion forever. Everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

<sup>12</sup>“All the best of the oil, and all the best of the vintage, and of the grain, the first fruits of them which they give to the LORD, to you have I given them. <sup>13</sup>The first-ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

<sup>14</sup>“Everything devoted in Israel shall be yours. <sup>15</sup>Everything that opens the womb, of all flesh which they offer to the LORD, both of man and animal shall be yours: nevertheless you shall surely redeem the firstborn of man, and you shall redeem the firstborn of unclean animals. <sup>16</sup>You shall redeem those who are to be redeemed of them from a month old, according to your estimation, for five shekels of money, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs).

<sup>17</sup>“But you shall not redeem the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat. They are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and shall burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Their flesh shall be yours, as the wave offering breast and as the right thigh, it shall be yours. <sup>19</sup>All the wave offerings of the holy things, which the sons of Israel offer to the LORD, have I given you, and your sons and your daughters with you, as a portion forever: it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD to you and to your descendants with you.”

<sup>20</sup>The LORD said to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them. I am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>“To the children of Levi, look, I have given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, even the service of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>22</sup>Hereafter the children of Israel shall not come near the Tent of Meeting, lest they bear sin, and die. <sup>23</sup>But the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations; and among the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance. <sup>24</sup>For the tithe of the sons of Israel, which they offer as a wave offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I have said to them, ‘Among the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance.’”

<sup>25</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>26</sup>“Moreover you shall speak to the Levites, and tell them, ‘When you take of the sons of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a wave offering of it for the LORD, a tithe of the tithe. <sup>27</sup>Your wave offering shall be reckoned to you, as though it were the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fullness of the winepress. <sup>28</sup>Thus you also shall offer a wave offering to the LORD of all your tithes, which you receive of the sons of Israel; and of it you shall give the LORD's wave offering to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>Out of all your gifts you shall offer every wave offering of the LORD, of all its best, even the holy part of it out of it.'

<sup>30</sup>“Therefore you shall tell them, ‘When you heave its best from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the winepress. <sup>31</sup>You shall eat it in every place, you and your households<sup>a</sup>: for it is your reward in return for your service in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>32</sup>You shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it its best: and you shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel, that you not die.’”

19 The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded: Speak to the sons of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer without spot, in which is no blemish, and which was never yoked. <sup>3</sup>And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and they shall bring it outside of the camp, and they shall slaughter<sup>b</sup> it in his presence. <sup>4</sup>And Eleazar the priest shall take of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle this blood toward the front of the Tent of Meeting seven times. <sup>5</sup>Then he shall burn the heifer in his sight; its skin, and its flesh, and its blood, with its dung, he shall burn. <sup>6</sup>And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. <sup>7</sup>Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>8</sup>He who burns her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>9</sup>“A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up outside of the camp in a clean place; and it shall be kept for the congregation of the sons of Israel for a water for impurity: it is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>He who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening: and it shall be to the sons of Israel, and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them, for a statute forever.

himself with water on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he doesn't purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. <sup>13</sup>Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a man who has died, and doesn't purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet on him.

<sup>16</sup>“Whoever in the open field touches one who is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening. <sup>20</sup>But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup>It shall be a perpetual statute to them: and he who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

20 The sons of Israel, even the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month: and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there. <sup>2</sup>There was no water for the congregation: and they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. <sup>3</sup>The people strove with Moses, and spoke, saying, “We wish that we had died when our brothers died before the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we should die there, we and our animals? <sup>5</sup>Why have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in to this evil place? It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.”

<sup>9</sup>Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. <sup>10</sup>Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, “Hear now, you rebels; shall we bring you water out of this rock for you?” <sup>11</sup>Moses lifted up his hand, and struck the rock with his rod twice: and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their livestock.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

“Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the travail that has happened to us: <sup>15</sup>how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and our fathers: <sup>16</sup>and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us forth out of Egypt: and look, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of your border.

<sup>17</sup>“Please let us pass through your land: we will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along the king’s highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border.”

<sup>18</sup>Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you.”

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Israel said to him, “We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my livestock, then will I give its price: let me only, without doing anything else, pass through on my feet.”

<sup>20</sup>He said, “You shall not pass through.” Edom came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand. <sup>21</sup>Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border, so Israel turned away from him.

<sup>27</sup>Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. <sup>28</sup>Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>29</sup>When all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they wept for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

21 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard tell that Israel came by the way of Atharim; and he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive. <sup>2</sup>Israel vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, “If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.” <sup>3</sup>The LORD listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and the name of the place was called Hormah.

<sup>4</sup>They traveled from Mount Hor by the way to the Sea of Suf,<sup>a</sup> to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. <sup>5</sup>The people spoke against God, and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul loathes this light bread.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many people of Israel died. <sup>7</sup>The people came to Moses, and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD, and against you. Pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us.” Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard: and it shall happen, that everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.” <sup>9</sup>Moses made a serpent of bronze, and set it on the standard: and it happened, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the serpent of bronze, he lived. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Israel traveled, and camped in Oboth. <sup>11</sup>They traveled from Oboth, and camped at Iyeabarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrise. <sup>12</sup>From there they traveled, and camped in the valley of Zered. <sup>13</sup>From there they traveled, and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that comes out of the border of the Amorites: for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup>Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, “Waheb in Suphah, the valleys of the Arnon, <sup>15</sup>the slope of the valleys that incline toward the dwelling of Ar, leans on the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup>From there they traveled to Beer: that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, “Gather the people together, and I will give them water.”

<sup>18</sup>the well, which the princes dug,
which the nobles of the people dug,
with the scepter, and with their staffs.”

From the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah; <sup>19</sup>and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; <sup>20</sup>and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert.

<sup>21</sup>Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, <sup>22</sup>“Let me pass through your land: we will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard; we will not drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king’s highway, until we have passed your border.”

<sup>23</sup>Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz; and he fought against Israel. <sup>24</sup>Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. <sup>25</sup>Israel took all these cities: and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its towns. <sup>26</sup>For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even to the Arnon. <sup>27</sup>Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, “Come to Heshbon.

Let the city of Sihon be built and established;

<sup>28</sup>for a fire has gone out of Heshbon,
a flame from the city of Sihon.

It has devoured Ar of Moab, swallowed up<sup>a</sup> the high places of the Arnon.

You are undone, people of Chemosh.
 He has given his sons as fugitives, and his daughters into captivity, to Sihon king of the Amorites.
<sup>30</sup>And we shot at them.
 Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon.
 And we have laid waste as far as Nophah,
 which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>31</sup>Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites. <sup>32</sup>Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they took its towns, and drove out the Amorites who were there. <sup>33</sup>They turned and went up by the way of Bashan:
 and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

<sup>34</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him: for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.”

<sup>35</sup>So they struck him, and his sons and all his people, until there was none left him remaining: and they possessed his land.

22 The sons of Israel traveled, and camped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>2</sup>Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. <sup>3</sup>Moab was very afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>Moab said to the elders of Midian, “Now this multitude will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field.”

 Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. <sup>5</sup>He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River,<sup>a</sup> to the land of the children of his people,<sup>b</sup> to call him, saying, “Look, there is a people who came out from Egypt. Look, they cover the surface of the earth, and they are staying opposite me. <sup>6</sup>And now please come, curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive them out of the land; for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed.”

<sup>7</sup>The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and spoke to him the words of Balak.
<sup>8</sup>And he said to them, “Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak to me.” The princes of Moab stayed with Balaam. <sup>9</sup>And God came to Balaam, and said,<sup>c</sup>
 “Who are these men with you?”
<sup>10</sup>And Balaam said to God, “Balak
 the son of Zippor, king of Moab,

<sup>12</sup>And God said to Balaam, “You are not to go with them, and you are not to curse the people, for they are blessed.”

<sup>14</sup>The princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak, and said, “Balaam refuses to come with us.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Balak again sent princes, more in number and more honorable than these. <sup>16</sup>They came to Balaam, and said to him, “Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, ‘Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me: <sup>17</sup>for I will greatly honor you, and whatever you say to me I will do for you.<sup>f</sup> Please come therefore, and curse this people for me.”<sup>g</sup>”

<sup>18</sup>Balaam answered the servants of Balak, “If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can’t go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more.<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>Now therefore, you also stay here tonight, that I may know what else the LORD will say to me.”

<sup>20</sup>God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, “If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them; but only the word which I speak to you, that you shall do.”

<sup>21</sup>Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. <sup>22</sup>God’s anger was kindled because he went; and the angel of the LORD placed himself in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and the donkey turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the way. <sup>24</sup>Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. <sup>25</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the LORD, and she thrust herself to the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he struck her again.

<sup>26</sup>The angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. <sup>27</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the LORD, and she lay down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

<sup>28</sup>The LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

<sup>29</sup>Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have mocked me, I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would have killed you."

<sup>30</sup>The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever in the habit of doing so to you?"

He said, "No."

<sup>31</sup>Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face. <sup>32</sup>The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Look, I have come forth as an adversary, because your way is perverse before me: <sup>33</sup>and the donkey saw me, and turned aside before me these three times. Unless she had turned aside from me, surely now I would have killed you, and saved her alive."

<sup>34</sup>Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned; for I did not know that you stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases you, I will go back again."

<sup>35</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak."

So Balaam went with the princes of Balak. <sup>36</sup>When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him to the City of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, which is in the utmost part of the border. <sup>37</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able indeed to promote you to honor?"

<sup>38</sup>Balaam said to Balak, "Look, I have come to you: have I now any power at all to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak."

<sup>39</sup>Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath Huzoth. <sup>40</sup>Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes who were with him. <sup>41</sup>It happened in the morning, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal; and he saw from there the utmost part of the people.

23 Balaam said to Balak, "Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bulls and seven rams."

<sup>2</sup>Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. <sup>3</sup>Balaam said to Balak, "Station yourself by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps God<sup>a</sup> will come to meet me, and whatever he shows me I will tell you." And Balak went off and stationed himself by his offering, and Balaam called to God<sup>b</sup> and went off to a barren height. <sup>4</sup>And God met Balaam, and he said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar."

<sup>6</sup>He returned to him, and look, he was standing by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab. <sup>7</sup>He took up his parable, and said,

"From Aram has Balak brought me, the king of Moab from the mountains of the East.

'Come, curse Jacob for me.
Come, defy Israel.'

<sup>8</sup>How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?

How shall I defy whom the LORD has not defied?

and not counting itself among the nations.

<sup>11</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed them altogether."

<sup>17</sup>He came to him, and look, he was standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. Balak said to him, “What has the LORD spoken?”

<sup>18</sup>He took up his parable, and said, “Rise up, Balak, and hear.
Listen to me, you son of Zippor.

<sup>19</sup>God is not a man, that he should lie, nor the son of man, that he should repent.

<sup>26</sup>But Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘All that the LORD speaks, that I must do?’”

<sup>27</sup>Balak said to Balaam, “Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.”

<sup>30</sup>Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar.

24 When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go, as at the other times, to meet with omens, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

<sup>2</sup>Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on him. <sup>3</sup>He took up his parable, and said,

“Balaam the son of Beor says,
the man whose eye was closed says;

<sup>4</sup>he says, who hears the words of God,

who sees the vision of Shaddai,
falling down, and having his eyes open:

and your tents, Israel.

<sup>6</sup>As valleys they are spread forth, as gardens by the riverside, as aloes which the LORD has planted, as cedar trees beside the waters.

<sup>7</sup>Water shall flow from his buckets.

His seed shall be in many waters.

His king shall be higher than Agag.

His kingdom shall be exalted.

<sup>8</sup>God brings him out of Egypt.
He has as it were the strength of the wild ox.

He shall eat up the nations his adversaries, shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them with his arrows.

<sup>9</sup>He couched, he lay down as a lion,
as a lioness; who shall rouse him up?

Everyone who blesses you is blessed.

Everyone who curses you is cursed.”

<sup>10</sup>Balak’s anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and, look, you have altogether blessed them these three times. <sup>11</sup>Therefore now flee you to your place. I thought to promote you to great honor; but, look, the LORD has kept you back from honor.”

<sup>12</sup>Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not also tell your messengers who you sent to me, saying, <sup>13</sup>‘If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can’t go beyond the command of the LORD, to do either good or bad in my heart. I will say what the LORD says?’” <sup>14</sup>Now, look, I go to my people: come, I will inform you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days.”

<sup>15</sup>He took up his parable, and
said, “Balaam the son of Beor says,
the man whose eye was
closed says;

<sup>16</sup>he says, who hears the words of God, knows the knowledge of the Most High,
and who sees the vision of Shaddai,
Falling down, and having his

I see him, but not near.
A star will come out of Jacob.
A scepter will rise out of Israel,

and shall strike through the corners of Moab, and break down all the sons of Sheth.

Seir, his enemies, also shall be a possession,
while Israel does valiantly.

<sup>19</sup>Out of Jacob shall one have dominion, and shall destroy the remnant from the city.”

<sup>20</sup>He looked at Amalek, and took up his parable, and said, “Amalek was the first of the nations,
But his latter end shall come to destruction.”

and took up his parable, and said,
“Your dwelling place is strong.

Your nest is set in the rock.

wasted, until Asshur carries you away captive.”

said,

“Alas, who shall live when God does this?”

<sup>24</sup>But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim.
They shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber.
He also shall come to destruction.”

<sup>25</sup>Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

25 Israel stayed in Shittim; and the people began to play the prostitute with the daughters of Moab: <sup>2</sup>for they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods; and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods.
<sup>3</sup>Israel joined himself to Baal Peor:
and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. <sup>4</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to the LORD before the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.”

<sup>5</sup>Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Everyone kill his men who have joined themselves to Baal Peor.”

<sup>6</sup>Look, one of the sons of Israel came and brought to his brothers a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, while they were weeping at the door of the Tent of Meeting.
<sup>7</sup>When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand; <sup>8</sup>and he went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stayed from the sons of Israel. <sup>9</sup>Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand. <sup>10</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>11</sup>“Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the sons of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the sons of Israel in my jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Therefore say, ‘Look, I give to him my covenant of peace: <sup>13</sup>and it shall be to him, and to his descendants after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the sons of Israel.’”

<sup>14</sup>Now the name of the man of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers’ house among the Simeonites. <sup>15</sup>The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a fathers’ house in Midian.

<sup>17</sup>Harass the Midianites, and strike them; <sup>18</sup>for they harassed you with their tricks, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor.”

26 It happened after the plague, that the LORD spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers’ houses, all who are able to go forth to war in Israel.” <sup>3</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Take a census, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the sons of Israel.”

<sup>42</sup>These are the sons of Dan after their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families. <sup>43</sup>All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand four hundred. <sup>44</sup>The sons of Asher after their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Berites. <sup>45</sup>Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. <sup>46</sup>The name of the daughter of Asher was Serah. <sup>47</sup>These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them, fifty-three thousand and four hundred. <sup>48</sup>The sons of Naphtali after their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites; <sup>49</sup>of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. <sup>50</sup>These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred. <sup>51</sup>These are those who were numbered of the sons of Israel, six hundred one thousand seven hundred thirty. <sup>52</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>53</sup>“To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. <sup>54</sup>To the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: to everyone according to those who were numbered of him shall his inheritance be given. <sup>55</sup>Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. <sup>56</sup>According to the lot shall their inheritance be divided between the more and the fewer.”

<sup>57</sup>These are those who were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites. <sup>58</sup>These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath became the father of Amram. <sup>59</sup>The name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt: and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. <sup>60</sup>To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup>Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD. <sup>62</sup>Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the sons of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the sons of Israel. <sup>63</sup>These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>64</sup>But among these there was not a man of them who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup>For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. There was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

27 Then drew near the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup>They stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, at the door of the Tent of Meeting, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah: but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons. <sup>4</sup>Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among the brothers of our father.”

son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.<sup>9</sup> If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.<sup>10</sup> If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.<sup>11</sup> If his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman who is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be to the sons of Israel a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses.”

<sup>18</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;<sup>19</sup> and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and commission him in their sight.<sup>20</sup> You shall put of your honor on him, that all the congregation of the sons of Israel may obey.<sup>21</sup> He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the sons of Israel with him, even all the congregation.”

<sup>22</sup>Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation:<sup>23</sup> and he laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as the LORD spoke by Moses.

28 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>24</sup> “Command the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘My offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to me, you shall observe to offer to me in their due season.’<sup>3</sup> You shall tell them, ‘This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD: male lambs a year old without blemish, two day by day, for a continual burnt offering.<sup>4</sup> You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and you shall offer the other lamb at evening;<sup>5</sup> with the tenth part of an ephah<sup>a</sup> of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. <sup>6</sup>It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Its drink offering shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. You shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD in the holy place. <sup>8</sup>The other lamb you shall offer at evening: as the meal offering of the morning, and as the drink offering of it, you shall offer it, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>“On the Sabbath day two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, and the drink offering of it: <sup>10</sup>this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it.

bull, and the third part of a hin for the ram, and the fourth part of a hin for a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. <sup>15</sup>One male goat for a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it.

<sup>26</sup>“Also in the day of the first fruits, when you offer a new meal offering to the LORD in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work; <sup>27</sup>but you shall offer a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; <sup>28</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for each bull, two tenth parts for the one ram, <sup>29</sup>a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; <sup>30</sup>one male goat, to make atonement for you. <sup>31</sup>Besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, you shall offer them (they shall be to you without blemish), and their drink offerings.

29 “In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work: it is a day of blowing of trumpets to you. <sup>2</sup>You shall offer a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish; <sup>3</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the ram, <sup>4</sup>and one tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; <sup>5</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you; <sup>6</sup>besides the burnt offering of the new moon, and the meal offering of it, and the continual burnt offering and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; and you shall afflict your souls: you shall do no kind of work; <sup>8</sup>but you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD for a pleasant aroma: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish; <sup>9</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the one ram, <sup>10</sup>a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs: <sup>11</sup>one male goat for a sin offering; besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.

<sup>12</sup>“On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days: <sup>13</sup>and you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD; thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish; <sup>14</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenth parts for each ram of the two rams, <sup>15</sup>and a tenth part for every lamb of the fourteen lambs; <sup>16</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; <sup>28</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

their number, after the ordinance:
<sup>38</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

<sup>39</sup>“You shall offer these to the LORD in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.”

<sup>40</sup>Moses told the sons of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

30 Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded. <sup>2</sup>When a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

<sup>3</sup>“Also when a woman vows a vow to the LORD, and binds herself by a bond, being in her father’s house, in her youth, <sup>4</sup>and her father hears her vow, and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and her father holds his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. <sup>5</sup>But if her father disallow her in the day that he hears, none of her vows, or of her bonds with which she has bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD will forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

<sup>14</sup>But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows, or all her bonds, which are on her: he has established them, because he says nothing to her on the day that he heard them. <sup>15</sup>But if he shall make them null and void after that he has heard them, then he shall bear her iniquity.”

31 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Avenge the sons of Israel for the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people.”

<sup>3</sup>Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD’s vengeance on Midian. <sup>4</sup>Of every tribe one thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, you shall send to the war.” <sup>5</sup>So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. <sup>6</sup>Moses sent them, one thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand. <sup>7</sup>They warred against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they killed every male.

<sup>8</sup>They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they killed with the sword. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones; and all their livestock, and all their flocks, and all their goods, they took for a prey. <sup>10</sup>All their cities in the places in which they lived, and all their encampments, they burnt with fire. <sup>11</sup>They took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of man and of animal. <sup>12</sup>They brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>13</sup>Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside of the camp. <sup>14</sup>Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war. <sup>15</sup>Moses said to them, “Have you saved all the women alive?” <sup>16</sup>Look, these caused the sons of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and so the plague was among the congregation of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him. <sup>18</sup>But all the girls, who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

<sup>19</sup>“Encamp outside of the camp seven days: whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. <sup>20</sup>As to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats’ hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify yourselves.”

<sup>21</sup>Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who went to the battle, “This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses: <sup>22</sup>however the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, <sup>23</sup>everything that may withstand the fire, you shall make to go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified with the water for impurity: and all that doesn’t withstand the fire you shall make to go through the water. <sup>24</sup>You shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; and afterward you shall come into the camp.”

persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the flocks. <sup>29</sup>Take it of their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest, for the LORD’s wave offering. <sup>30</sup>Of the sons of Israel’s half, you shall take one drawn out of every fifty, of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, of all the livestock, and give them to the Levites, who perform the duty of the tabernacle of the LORD.”

of Israel's half, which Moses divided off from the men who warred<sup>43</sup>(now the congregation's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,<sup>44</sup>and thirty-six thousand head of cattle,<sup>45</sup>and thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,<sup>46</sup>and sixteen thousand persons),<sup>47</sup>even of the sons of Israel's half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, who performed the duty of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup>The officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses;<sup>49</sup>and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our command, and there lacks not one man of us."<sup>50</sup>We have brought the LORD's offering, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, armlets, and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for our souls before the LORD."

hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting, for a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD.

32 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that look, the place was a place for livestock;<sup>2</sup>the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,<sup>3</sup>"Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon,<sup>4</sup>the land which the LORD struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock; and your servants have livestock."<sup>5</sup>They said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not bring us over the Jordan."

<sup>6</sup>Moses said to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, "Shall your brothers go to the war, and shall you sit here?<sup>7</sup>Why do you discourage the heart of the sons of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given them?<sup>8</sup>Your fathers did so when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.<sup>9</sup>For when they went up to the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the sons of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them."<sup>10</sup>The LORD's anger was kindled in that day, and he swore, saying, <sup>11</sup>‘Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me: <sup>12</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun; because they have followed the LORD completely.’ <sup>13</sup>The LORD’s anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander back and forth in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, who had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.

<sup>14</sup>‘Look, you have risen up in your fathers’ place, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel. <sup>15</sup>For if you turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people.’

<sup>16</sup>They came near to him, and said, ‘We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones: <sup>17</sup>but we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>18</sup>We will not return to our houses, until the sons of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. <sup>19</sup>For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward.’

<sup>20</sup>Moses said to them, ‘If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves to go before the LORD to the war, <sup>21</sup>and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him, <sup>22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD; then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless towards the LORD, and towards Israel; and this land shall be to you for a possession before the LORD.

<sup>23</sup>‘But if you will not do so, look, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out. <sup>24</sup>Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth.’

<sup>25</sup>The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, ‘Your servants will do as my lord commands. <sup>26</sup>Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock, shall be there in the cities of Gilead; <sup>27</sup>but your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord says.’

<sup>28</sup>So Moses commanded concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the ancestral houses of the tribes of the sons of Israel. <sup>29</sup>Moses said to them, ‘If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every man who is armed to battle before the LORD, and the land is subdued before you; then you are to give them the land of Gilead for a possession. <sup>30</sup>But if they will not pass over with you armed to battle before the LORD, then you are to bring over their children and their wives and their flocks before you into the land of Canaan,<sup>a</sup> and they are to have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”

<sup>31</sup>The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, “As the LORD has said to your servants, so will we do. <sup>32</sup>We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan.”

<sup>33</sup>Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, according to its cities and borders, even the cities of the surrounding land. <sup>34</sup>The children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, <sup>35</sup>and Atrothshophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup>and Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran: fortified cities, and folds for sheep. <sup>37</sup>The children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, <sup>38</sup>and

Nebo, and Baal Meon, (their names being changed), and Sibmah: and they gave other names to the cities which they built. <sup>39</sup>The children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it. <sup>40</sup>Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he lived in it. <sup>41</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its towns, and called them Havvoth Jair. <sup>42</sup>Nobah went and took Kenath, and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

33 These are the journeys of the sons of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. <sup>2</sup>Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out. <sup>3</sup>They traveled from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the next day after the Passover the sons of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, <sup>4</sup>while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck among them: on their gods also the LORD executed judgments. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Israel traveled from Rameses, and camped in Succoth. <sup>6</sup>They traveled from Succoth, and camped in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>They traveled from Etham, and turned back to Pihahiroth, which is before Baal

Zephon: and they camped before Migdol. <sup>8</sup>They traveled from before Hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness: and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and camped in Marah. <sup>9</sup>They traveled from Marah, and came to Elim: and in Elim were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees; and they camped there. <sup>10</sup>They traveled from Elim, and camped by the Sea of Suf.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>They traveled from the Sea of Suf, and camped in the wilderness of Sin. <sup>12</sup>They traveled from the wilderness of Sin, and camped in Dophkah. <sup>13</sup>They traveled from Dophkah, and camped in Alush. <sup>14</sup>They traveled from Alush, and camped in Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>15</sup>They traveled from Rephidim, and camped in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>16</sup>They traveled from the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in Kibroth Hattaavah. <sup>17</sup>They traveled from Kibroth Hattaavah, and camped in Hazeroth. <sup>18</sup>They traveled from Hazeroth, and camped in Rithmah. <sup>19</sup>They traveled from Rithmah, and camped in Rimmon Perez. <sup>20</sup>They traveled from Rimmon Perez, and camped in Libnah. <sup>21</sup>They traveled from Libnah, and camped in Rissah. <sup>22</sup>They traveled from Rissah, and camped in Kehelathah. <sup>23</sup>They traveled from Kehelathah,

let remain of them will be as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will harass you in the land in which you dwell. <sup>56</sup>It shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you.”

34 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you come into the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan according to its borders), <sup>3</sup>then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the side of Edom, and your south border shall be from the end of the Salt Sea eastward; <sup>4</sup>and your border shall turn about southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass along to Zin; and the goings out of it shall be southward of Kadesh Barnea; and it shall go forth to Hazar Addar, and pass along to Azmon; <sup>5</sup>and the border shall turn about from Azmon to the Wadi of Egypt,<sup>a</sup> and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Command the sons of Israel that they give to the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and you shall give suburbs for the cities around them to the Levites. <sup>3</sup>The cities shall they have to dwell in; and their suburbs shall be for their livestock, and for their substance, and for all their animals.

<sup>6</sup>“The cities which you shall give to the Levites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to: and besides them you shall give forty-two cities. <sup>7</sup>All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities together with their suburbs. <sup>8</sup>Concerning the cities which you shall give of the possession of the sons of Israel, from the many you shall take many; and from the few you shall take few: everyone according to his inheritance which he inherits shall give of his cities to the Levites.” <sup>9</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Speak to the sons of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup>then you shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. <sup>12</sup>The cities shall be to you for refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer not die, until he stands before the congregation for judgment. <sup>13</sup>The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge. <sup>14</sup>You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup>For the sons of Israel, and for the stranger and for the foreigner living among them, shall these six cities be for refuge; that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there.

<sup>16</sup>“But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>17</sup>If he struck him with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>18</sup>Or if he struck him with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>19</sup>The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death: when he meets him, he shall put him to death. <sup>20</sup>If he thrust him of hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died, <sup>21</sup>or in enmity struck him with his hand, so that he died; he who struck him shall surely be put to death. He is a murderer, the murderer must surely be put to death; <sup>a</sup>the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meets him.

<sup>22</sup>“But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or hurled on him anything without lying in wait, <sup>23</sup>or with any stone, by which a man may die, not seeing him, and cast it on him, so that he died, and he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm; <sup>24</sup>then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances; <sup>25</sup>and the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, where he was fled: and he shall dwell in it until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

<sup>31</sup>“Moreover you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death; but he shall surely be put to death.

<sup>32</sup>“You shall take no ransom for him who is fled to his city of refuge, that he may come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

<sup>33</sup>“So you shall not pollute the land in which you are: for blood, it pollutes the land; and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed in it, but by the blood of him who shed it. <sup>34</sup>You shall not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell: for I, the LORD, dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel.”

36 The heads of the ancestral houses of the family of the children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before Eleazar the priest<sup>a</sup> and before the leaders, the heads of the ancestral houses of the sons of Israel. <sup>2</sup>And they said, “The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. <sup>3</sup>If they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel, then will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance. <sup>4</sup>When the jubilee of the sons of Israel shall be, then will their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

<sup>5</sup>Moses commanded the sons of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, “The tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks right. <sup>6</sup>This is the thing which the LORD does command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be married to whom they think best; only into the family of the tribe of their father shall they be married. <sup>7</sup>So shall no inheritance of the sons of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for the sons of Israel shall all keep the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. <sup>8</sup>Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the sons of Israel shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the sons of Israel may possess every man the inheritance of his fathers. <sup>9</sup>So shall no inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; for the tribes of the sons of Israel shall each keep his own inheritance.”

<sup>10</sup>The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD commanded Moses: <sup>11</sup>for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father’s brothers’ sons. <sup>12</sup>They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. <sup>13</sup>These are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded by Moses to the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah over against Suph, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazereth, and Dizahab. <sup>2</sup>It is eleven days’ journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>3</sup>It happened in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment to them; <sup>4</sup>after he had struck Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and<sup>a</sup> in Edrei. <sup>5</sup>Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying, <sup>6</sup>“The LORD our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have lived long enough in this mountain: <sup>7</sup>turn, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all the places near there, in the Arabah, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Negev, and by the sea coast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Perath. <sup>8</sup>Look, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which I<sup>b</sup> swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.”

<sup>9</sup>I spoke to you at that time, saying, “I am not able to bear you myself alone: <sup>10</sup>The LORD your God has multiplied you, and look, you are this day as the stars of the sky for multitude. <sup>11</sup>The LORD, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you. <sup>12</sup>How can I myself alone bear your encumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? <sup>13</sup>Take wise men of understanding and well known according to your tribes, and I will make them heads over you.”

<sup>14</sup>You answered me, and said, “The thing which you have spoken is good to do.” <sup>15</sup>So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes. <sup>16</sup>I commanded your judges at that time, saying, “Hear cases between your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is living with him. <sup>17</sup>You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God’s. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it.” <sup>18</sup>I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do. <sup>19</sup>We traveled from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup>I said to you, “You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God gives to us. <sup>21</sup>Look, the LORD your God has set the land before you: go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you; do not be afraid, neither be dismayed.”

<sup>22</sup>You came near to me everyone of you, and said, “Let us send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come.”

<sup>23</sup>The thing pleased me well; and I took twelve men of you, one man for every tribe: <sup>24</sup>and they turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the valley of Eshcol, and spied it out. <sup>25</sup>They took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, “It is a good land which the LORD our God gives to us.”

<sup>26</sup>Yet you wouldn’t go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God: <sup>27</sup>and you murmured in your tents, and said, “Because the LORD hated us, he has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our heart to melt, saying, ‘The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are great and fortified up to the sky; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.’”

<sup>29</sup>Then I said to you, “Do not dread, neither be afraid of them. <sup>30</sup>The LORD your God who goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the wilderness, where you have seen how that the LORD your God bore you, as a man does bear his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place.”

<sup>32</sup>Yet in this thing you did not believe the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who went before you in the way, to seek you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in the cloud by day. <sup>34</sup>The LORD heard the voice of your words, and was angry, and swore, saying, <sup>35</sup>“Surely not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land, which I swore to give to your fathers, <sup>36</sup>except Caleb the son of Jephunneh: he shall see it; and to him will I give the land that he has trodden on, and to his children, because he has wholly followed the LORD.”

<sup>37</sup>Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, “You also shall not go in there: <sup>38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Encourage him, because he will cause Israel to inherit it. <sup>39</sup>Moreover your little ones, whom you said should be a prey, and your children, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it. <sup>40</sup>But as for you, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Sea of Suf.”<sup>39</sup> against the LORD our God,<sup>a</sup> we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us.” Every man of you put on his weapons of war, and presumed to go up into the hill country.

<sup>41</sup>Then you answered and said to me, “We have sinned

<sup>42</sup>The LORD said to me, “Tell them, ‘Do not go up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be struck before your enemies.’”

<sup>43</sup>So I spoke to you, and you did not listen; but you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and were presumptuous, and went up into the hill country.

<sup>44</sup>The Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>You returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD did not listen to your voice, nor gave ear to you. <sup>46</sup>So you stayed in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you remained.

2 Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the Sea of Suf, as the LORD spoke to me; and we encircled Mount Seir many days.

northward. <sup>4</sup>Command the people, saying, ‘You are to pass through the border of your brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you: take good heed to yourselves therefore; <sup>5</sup>do not contend with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as for the sole of the foot to tread on; because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession. <sup>6</sup>You shall purchase food of them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink.’”

<sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand; he has known your walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.

<sup>8</sup>So we passed by from our brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion Geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

<sup>10</sup>(The Emim lived there before, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim: <sup>11</sup>these also are accounted Rephaim, as the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emin. <sup>12</sup>The Horites also lived in Seir before, but the children of Esau succeeded them; and they destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place; as Israel did to the land of his possession, which the LORD gave to them.)

who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me; until I shall pass over the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gives us.”<sup>30</sup>But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for the LORD your God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into your hand, as at this day.

<sup>31</sup>The LORD said to me, “Look, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you: begin to possess, that you may inherit his land.”<sup>32</sup>Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz.<sup>33</sup>The LORD our God delivered him up before us; and we struck him, and his sons, and all his people.<sup>34</sup>We took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones; we left none remaining:<sup>35</sup>only the livestock we took for a prey to ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we had taken.<sup>36</sup>From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us; the LORD our God delivered up all before us:<sup>37</sup>only to the land of the children of Ammon you did not come near; all the side of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill country, and wherever the LORD our God forbade us.

3 Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.<sup>2</sup>The LORD said to me, “Do not fear him; for I have delivered him, and all his people, and his land, into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.”

<sup>3</sup>So the LORD our God delivered into our hand Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we struck him until none was left to him remaining.<sup>4</sup>We took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them; sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.<sup>5</sup>All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides the unwallied towns a great many.<sup>6</sup>We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones.<sup>7</sup>But all the livestock, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.<sup>8</sup>We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon.<sup>9</sup>(The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.)<sup>10</sup>We took all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.<sup>11</sup>(For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim; look, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; isn't it in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its breadth, after the cubit of a man.)<sup>12</sup>This land we took in possession at that time: from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead, and its cities, gave I to the Reubenites and to the Gadites:<sup>13</sup>and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half-tribe of Manasseh. All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of Rephaim.<sup>14</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.)<sup>15</sup>I gave Gilead to Machir.<sup>16</sup>To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead<sup>a</sup> to the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and its border, even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;<sup>17</sup>the Arabah also, and the Jordan and its border, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

<sup>18</sup>I commanded you at that time, saying, "The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it: you shall pass over armed before your brothers the sons of Israel, all the men of valor.<sup>19</sup>But your wives, and your little ones, and your livestock, (I know that you have much livestock), shall live in your cities which I have given you,<sup>20</sup>until the LORD gives rest to your brothers, as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God gives them beyond the Jordan: then you shall return every man to his possession, which I have given you."

<sup>21</sup>I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, "Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings: so shall the LORD do to all the kingdoms where you go over."<sup>22</sup>Do not fear them, for the LORD your God himself will fight for you."

<sup>23</sup>I begged the LORD at that time, saying,<sup>24c</sup>Lord GOD, you have begun to show your servant your greatness, and your strong hand: for what god is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to your works, and according to your mighty acts?<sup>25</sup>Please let me go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country, and Lebanon."

<sup>26</sup>But the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and did not listen to me; and the LORD said to me, "Enough from you; speak no more to me of this matter."<sup>27</sup>Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan.<sup>28</sup>But commission Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see.”<sup>29</sup> So we stayed in the valley over against Beth Peor.

4 Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances, which I teach you,<sup>a</sup> to do them; that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, gives you.<sup>2</sup> You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.<sup>3</sup> Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal Peor; for all the men who followed Baal Peor, the LORD your God has destroyed them from the midst of you.<sup>4</sup> But you who were faithful to the LORD your God are all alive this day.<sup>5</sup> Look, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land where you go in to possess it.<sup>6</sup> Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.”<sup>7</sup> For what great nation is there, that has a god so near to them, as the LORD our God is whenever we call on him?<sup>8</sup> What great nation is there, that has statutes and ordinances so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

<sup>9</sup> Only take heed to yourself, and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes saw, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; but make them known to your children and your children’s children;<sup>10</sup> the day that you stood before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said to me, “Assemble me the people, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.”<sup>11</sup> You came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.<sup>12</sup> The LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; you only heard a voice.<sup>13</sup> He declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even the ten commandments; and he wrote them on two tablets of stone.<sup>14</sup> The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it.<sup>15</sup> Therefore watch yourselves carefully; for you saw no kind of form on the day that the LORD spoke to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire.<sup>16</sup> Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make shall have been long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make an engraved image in the form of anything, and shall do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke him to anger; <sup>26</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed. <sup>27</sup>The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations, where the LORD will drive you. <sup>28</sup>There you shall serve other<sup>b</sup> gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. <sup>29</sup>But from there you shall seek the LORD your God, and you shall find him, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>30</sup>When you are in oppression, and all these things have come on you, in the latter days you shall return to the LORD your God, and listen to his voice: <sup>31</sup>for the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not fail you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore to them. <sup>32</sup>For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the other,

whether there has been anything as this great thing is, or has been heard like it? <sup>33</sup>Did a people ever hear the voice of the living<sup>a</sup> God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live? <sup>34</sup>Or has God tried to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? <sup>35</sup>It was shown to you so that you might know that the LORD is God. There is no one else besides him. <sup>36</sup>Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you: and on earth he made you to see his great fire; and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire. <sup>37</sup>Because he loved your fathers, therefore he chose their descendants after them, and brought you out with his presence, with his great power, out of Egypt; <sup>38</sup>to drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as at this day. <sup>39</sup>Know therefore this day, and lay it to your heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other. <sup>40</sup>You shall keep his statutes, and his commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD your God gives you, forever. <sup>41</sup>Then Moses set apart three cities beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; <sup>42</sup>that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unawares, and did not hate him in time past; and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live: <sup>43</sup>Bezer in the wilderness, on the plateau, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites. <sup>44</sup>This is the law which Moses set before the sons of Israel: <sup>45</sup>these are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, when they came forth out of Egypt, <sup>46</sup>beyond the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the sons of Israel struck, when they came forth out of Egypt. <sup>47</sup>They took his land in possession, and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; <sup>48</sup>from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, even to Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), <sup>49</sup>and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>7</sup>Remember, do not forget, how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you went forth out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. <sup>8</sup>Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was angry with you to destroy you. <sup>9</sup>When I was gone up onto the mountain to receive the tables of stone, even the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water. <sup>10</sup>The LORD delivered to me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of God; and on them were all the words which the LORD spoke with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

<sup>11</sup>It came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, even the tablets of the covenant. <sup>12</sup>The LORD said to me, "Arise, get down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image."

<sup>13</sup>Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, "I have seen this people, and look, it is a stiff-necked people: <sup>14</sup>let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they."

<sup>15</sup>So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire: and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup>I looked, and look, you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made yourselves a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup>I took hold of the two tablets, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup>I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water; because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>19</sup>For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also. <sup>20</sup>The LORD was very angry with Aaron to destroy him: and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. <sup>21</sup>I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust: and I cast its dust into the brook that descended out of the mountain. <sup>22</sup>At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath. <sup>23</sup>When the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, "Go up and possess the land which I have given you"; then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe him, nor listen to his voice. <sup>24</sup>You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. <sup>25</sup>So I fell down before the LORD the forty days and forty nights that I fell down, because the LORD had said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>I prayed to the LORD, and said, “Lord GOD, do not destroy your people and your inheritance, that you have redeemed through your greatness, that you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup>Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin, <sup>28</sup>lest the land you brought us out from say, ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.’ <sup>29</sup>Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.”

10 At that time the LORD said to me, “Cut two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood. <sup>2</sup>I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.” <sup>3</sup>So I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut two tablets of stone like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. <sup>4</sup>He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spoke to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are as the LORD commanded me. <sup>6</sup>(The sons of Israel traveled from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest’s office in his place. <sup>7</sup>From there they traveled to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. <sup>8</sup>At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. <sup>9</sup>Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD your God spoke to him.) <sup>10</sup>I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights: and the LORD listened to me that time also, and <sup>a</sup>the LORD would not destroy you. <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to me, “Arise, take your journey before the people; and they shall go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them.”

<sup>12</sup>If you shall hear tell concerning one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell there, saying, <sup>13</sup>Certain base fellows are gone out from the midst of you, and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying, “Let us go and serve other gods,” which you have not known; <sup>14</sup>then you shall inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, look, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in the midst of you, <sup>15</sup>you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is in it and its livestock, with the edge of the sword. <sup>16</sup>You shall gather all its plunder into the midst of its street, and shall burn with fire the city, and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God: and it shall be a ruin forever; it shall not be built again. <sup>17</sup>Nothing of the devoted thing shall cling to your hand; that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as he has sworn to your fathers; <sup>18</sup>when you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all his commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right<sup>a</sup> in the eyes of the LORD your God.

16 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God; for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>You shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. <sup>3</sup>You shall eat no leavened bread with it. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days, even the bread of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that you may remember the day when you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>4</sup>No yeast shall be seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which you sacrifice the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning. <sup>5</sup>You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which the LORD your God gives you; <sup>6</sup>but at the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came forth out of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>You shall roast and eat it in the place which keep a feast to the LORD your God seven days in the place which the LORD shall choose; because the LORD your God will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful. <sup>16</sup>Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which he shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents; and they shall not appear before the LORD empty: <sup>17</sup>every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which he has given you. <sup>18</sup>You shall make judges and officers in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. <sup>19</sup>You shall not wrest justice: you shall not respect persons; neither shall you take a bribe; for a bribe does blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. <sup>20</sup>You shall follow that which is altogether just, that you may live, and inherit the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>21</sup>You shall not plant for yourselves an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of the LORD your God, which you shall make for yourselves. <sup>22</sup>Neither shall you set yourself up a pillar; which the LORD your God hates.

17 You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox, or a sheep, in which is a blemish, or anything evil; for that is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>2</sup>If there is found in the midst of you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, man or woman, who does that which is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, <sup>3</sup>in transgressing his covenant, <sup>3</sup>and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded; <sup>4</sup>and it be told you, and you have heard of it, then you shall inquire diligently; and look, if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in Israel, <sup>5</sup>then you shall bring forth that man or that woman, who has done this evil thing, to your gates, even the man or the woman; and you shall stone them to death with stones. <sup>6</sup>At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is to die be put to death; at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. <sup>7</sup>The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>8</sup>If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates; then you shall arise, and go up to the place which the LORD your God shall choose; <sup>9</sup>and you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge who shall be in those days: and you shall inquire; and they shall show you the sentence of judgment. <sup>10</sup>You shall do according to the tenor of the sentence which they shall show you from that place which the LORD shall choose; and you shall observe to do according to all that they shall teach you: <sup>11</sup>according to the tenor of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left. <sup>12</sup>The man who does presumptuously, in not listening to the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die: and you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>13</sup>All the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

<sup>14</sup>When you have come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, and shall possess it, and shall dwell in it, and shall say, "I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me"; <sup>15</sup>you shall surely set him king over yourselves, whom the LORD your God shall choose: one from among your brothers you shall set king over you; you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. <sup>16</sup>Only he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he may multiply horses; because the LORD has said to you, "You shall not go back that way again." <sup>17</sup>Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart not turn away:

neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup>It shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law on a scroll, out of that which is before the priests the Levites: <sup>19</sup>and it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them; <sup>20</sup>that his heart not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

18 The priests the Levites, all the tribe of Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance. <sup>2</sup>They shall have no inheritance among their brothers: the LORD is their inheritance, as he has spoken to them. <sup>3</sup>This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. <sup>4</sup>The first fruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him. <sup>5</sup>For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever. <sup>6</sup>If a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he lives as a foreigner, and comes with all the desire of his soul to the place which the LORD shall choose; <sup>7</sup>then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. <sup>8</sup>They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which comes of the sale of his patrimony. <sup>9</sup>When you have come into the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. <sup>10</sup>There shall not be found with you anyone who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices sorcery, or an enchanter, or a sorcerer, <sup>11</sup>or a charmer, or a consulter with a familiar spirit, or a wizard, or a necromancer. <sup>12</sup>For whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD your God does drive them out from before you. <sup>13</sup>You shall be blameless before the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup>For these nations, that you shall dispossess, listen to those who practice sorcery, and to diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you so to do. <sup>15</sup>The LORD your God will raise up to you a prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, like me. <sup>a</sup>You shall listen to him. <sup>16</sup>This is according to all that you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying,

“Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I not die.”

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to me, “They have well said that which they have spoken. <sup>18</sup>I will raise them up a prophet from among their brothers, like you; and I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. <sup>19</sup>It shall happen, that whoever will not listen to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will call him to account. <sup>b</sup><sup>20</sup>But the prophet, who shall speak a word presumptuously in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die.”

<sup>21</sup>If you say in your heart, “How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?” <sup>22</sup>When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing doesn’t follow, nor happen, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken: the prophet has spoken it presumptuously, you shall not be afraid of him.

19 When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations, whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses; <sup>2</sup>you shall set apart three cities for you in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it. <sup>3</sup>You shall prepare you the way, and divide the borders of your land, which the LORD your God causes you to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee there. <sup>4</sup>This is the case of the manslayer, that shall flee there and live: whoever kills his neighbor unawares, and did not hate him in time past; <sup>5</sup>as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to chop wood, and his hand fetches a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and lights on his neighbor, so that he dies; he shall flee to one of these cities and live: <sup>6</sup>lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and strike him mortally; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he did not hate him in time past. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I command you, saying, You shall set apart three cities for yourselves. <sup>8</sup>If the LORD your God enlarges your border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which he promised to give to your fathers; <sup>9</sup>if you keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to walk ever in his ways; then you shall add three cities more for yourselves, besides these three: <sup>10</sup>that innocent blood not be shed in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and so blood be on you. <sup>11</sup>But if any man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and strikes him mortally so that he dies, and he flees into one of these cities; <sup>12</sup>then the elders of his city shall send and bring him there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. <sup>13</sup>Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. <sup>14</sup>You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set, in your inheritance which you shall inherit, in the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess it. <sup>15</sup>One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall every<sup>a</sup> word be established.<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>If an unrighteous witness rise up against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, <sup>17</sup>then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days; <sup>18</sup>and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, look, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother; <sup>19</sup>then you shall do to him as he had thought to do to his brother: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>20</sup>Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall hereafter commit no more any such evil in the midst of you. <sup>21</sup>Your eyes shall

20 When you go forth to battle against your enemies, and see horses, chariots, and<sup>b</sup> a people more than you, you shall not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>It shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the priest shall approach and speak to the people, <sup>3</sup>and shall tell them, “Hear, Israel, you draw near this day to battle against your enemies: do not let your heart faint; do not be afraid, nor tremble, neither be scared of them; <sup>4</sup>for the LORD your God is he who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.”

<sup>5</sup>The officers shall speak to the people, saying, “What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. <sup>6</sup>What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man use its fruit. <sup>7</sup>What man is there who has pledged to be married a wife, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.” <sup>8</sup>The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, “What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brother’s heart melt as his heart.” <sup>9</sup>It shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people.

<sup>10</sup>When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it. <sup>11</sup>It shall be, if it makes you answer of peace, and opens to you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found in it shall become tributary to you, and shall serve you. <sup>12</sup>If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it: <sup>13</sup>and when the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword: <sup>14</sup>but the women, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, even all its spoil, you shall take for a prey to yourself; and you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>15</sup>Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. <sup>16</sup>But of the cities of these peoples, that the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes; <sup>17</sup>but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and<sup>a</sup> the Hivite, and the Jebusite; as the LORD your God has commanded you; <sup>18</sup>that they not teach you to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so would you sin against the LORD your God. <sup>19</sup>When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them; for you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down; for is the tree of the field man, that it should be besieged of you? <sup>20</sup>Only the trees of which you know that they are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down; and you shall build siege works against the city that makes war with you, until it fall.

21 If one be found slain in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it, lying in the field, and it isn't known who has struck him; <sup>2</sup>then your elders and your judges shall come forth, and they shall measure to the cities which are around him who is slain: <sup>3</sup>and it shall be, that the city which is nearest to the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer of the herd, which hasn't been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke; <sup>4</sup>and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. <sup>5</sup>The priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD your God has chosen to minister to him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and according to their word shall every controversy and every stroke be. <sup>6</sup>All the elders of that city, who are nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley; <sup>7</sup>and they shall answer and say, "Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. <sup>8</sup>Forgive, LORD, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and do not allow innocent blood in the midst of your people Israel." The blood shall be forgiven them. <sup>9</sup>So you shall put away the innocent blood from the midst of you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD.

her go<sup>a</sup> where she wants; but you may not sell her for money or treat her as a commodity,<sup>b</sup> since you have had relations<sup>c</sup> with her. <sup>15</sup>If a man has two wives, the one loved, and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved; and if the firstborn son is hers who was unloved; <sup>16</sup>then it shall be, in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not make the son of the loved the firstborn before the son of the unloved, who is the firstborn: <sup>17</sup>but he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. <sup>18</sup>If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and, though they chasten him, will not listen to them; <sup>19</sup>then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place; <sup>20</sup>and they shall tell the elders of his city, "This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard." <sup>21</sup>All the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

22 You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely bring them again to your brother. <sup>2</sup>If your brother isn't near to you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother seek after it, and you shall restore it to him. <sup>3</sup>So you shall do with his donkey; and so you shall do with his garment; and so you shall do with every lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost, and you have found: you may not hide yourself. <sup>4</sup>You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely help him to lift them up again. <sup>5</sup>A woman shall not wear men's clothing, neither shall a man put on women's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>6</sup>If a bird's nest chance to be

before you in the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young: <sup>7</sup>you shall surely let the mother go, but the young you may take to yourself; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days. <sup>8</sup>When you build a new house, then you shall make a battlement for your roof, that you do not bring blood on your house, if any man fall from there. <sup>9</sup>You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole fruit be forfeited, the seed which you have sown, and the increase of the vineyard. <sup>10</sup>You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together. <sup>11</sup>You shall not wear a mixed stuff, wool and linen together. <sup>12</sup>You shall make yourselves fringes<sup>a</sup> on the four borders of your cloak, with which you cover yourself.

<sup>13</sup>If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and hates her, <sup>14</sup>and accuses her of shameful things, and brings up an evil name on her, and says, "I took this woman, and when I came near to her, I did not find in her the tokens of virginity"; <sup>15</sup>then shall the father of the young lady, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the young lady's virginity to the elders of the city in the gate; <sup>16</sup>and the young lady's father shall tell the elders, "I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he hates her; <sup>17</sup>and look, he has accused her of shameful things, saying, 'I did not find in your daughter the tokens of virginity;' and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity." They shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. <sup>18</sup>The elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him; <sup>19</sup>and they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the young lady, because he has brought up an evil name on a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.

<sup>20</sup>But if this thing be true, that the tokens of virginity were not found in the young lady; <sup>21</sup>then they shall bring out the young lady to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done folly in Israel, to play the prostitute in her father's house: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>22</sup>If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman: so you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>23</sup>If there is a young lady who is a virgin pledged to be married to a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; <sup>24</sup>then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the lady, because she did not cry, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>25</sup>But if the man find the lady who is pledged to be married in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only who lay with her shall die: <sup>26</sup>but to the lady you shall do nothing; there is in the lady no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbor, and kills him, even so is this matter; <sup>27</sup>for he found her in the field, the pledged to be married lady cried, and there was none to save her. <sup>28</sup>If a man find a lady who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; <sup>29</sup>then the man who lay with her shall give to the lady's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has humbled her; he may not put her away all his days. <sup>30</sup>A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt.

23 No one whose testicles are crushed or whose male organ is cut off may enter the assembly of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>No one of illegitimate birth shall enter into the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation shall none of his enter into the assembly of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the assembly of the LORD; even to the tenth generation shall none belonging to them enter into the assembly of the LORD forever: <sup>4</sup>because they did not meet you with bread and with water in the way, when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. <sup>5</sup>Nevertheless the LORD your God wouldn't listen to Balaam; but the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing to you, because the LORD your God loved you. <sup>6</sup>You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever. <sup>7</sup>You shall not abhor an Edomite; for he is your brother: you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in his land. <sup>8</sup>The children of the third generation who are born to them shall enter into the assembly of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>When you go forth in camp against your enemies, then you shall keep yourselves from every evil thing. <sup>10</sup>If there is among you any man who is not clean by reason of that which happens him by night, then shall he go outside of the camp. He shall not come within the camp: <sup>11</sup>but it shall be, when evening comes on, he shall bathe himself in water; and when the sun is down, he shall come within the camp. <sup>12</sup>You shall have a place also outside of the camp, where you shall go outside there; <sup>13</sup>and you shall have a spade among your tools; and it shall be, when you sit down outside, you shall dig therewith, and shall turn and cover that which comes from you: <sup>14</sup>for the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that he may not see an unclean thing in you, and turn away from you. <sup>15</sup>You shall not deliver to his master a servant who is escaped from his master to you:

<sup>16</sup>he shall dwell with you, in the midst of you, in the place which he shall choose within one of your gates, where it pleases him best: you shall not oppress him. <sup>17</sup>There shall be no prostitute of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a sacred male prostitute of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the wages of a dog, into the house of the LORD your God for any vow: for even both these are an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>19</sup>You shall not lend on interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is lent on interest: <sup>20</sup>to a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your brother you shall not lend on interest, that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>21</sup>When you shall vow a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not be slack to pay it: for the LORD your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you. <sup>22</sup>But if you shall forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in you. <sup>23</sup>That which is gone out of your lips you shall observe and do; according as you have vowed to the LORD your God, a freewill offering, which you have promised with your mouth. <sup>24</sup>When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat of grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel. <sup>25</sup>When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

24 When a man takes a wife, and marries her, then it shall be,

if she find no favor in his eyes, because he has found some unseemly thing in her, that he shall write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house. <sup>2</sup>When she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife. <sup>3</sup>If the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorce, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, who took her to be his wife; <sup>4</sup>her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and you shall not cause the land to sin, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance. <sup>5</sup>When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out in the army, neither shall he be assigned any business: he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer his wife whom he has taken. <sup>6</sup>No man shall take the mill or the upper millstone to pledge; for he takes a life in pledge. <sup>7</sup>If a man be found stealing any of his brothers of the sons of Israel, and he deal with him as a slave, or sell him; then that thief shall die: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>8</sup>Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that you observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall observe to do.

<sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam, by the way as you came forth out of Egypt.
<sup>10</sup>When you do lend your neighbor any kind of loan, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge.
<sup>11</sup>You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you do lend shall bring forth the pledge outside to you.
<sup>12</sup>If he be a poor man, you shall not sleep with his pledge;
<sup>13</sup>you shall surely restore to him the pledge when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his garment, and bless you: and it shall be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.
<sup>14</sup>You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he be of your brothers, or of your foreigners who are in your land within your gates: <sup>15</sup>in his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down on it; for he is poor, and sets his heart on it: lest he cry against you to the LORD, and it be sin to you.
<sup>17</sup>You shall not deprive the foreigner, or the fatherless of justice, nor take a widow's clothing in pledge;
<sup>18</sup>but you shall remember that you were a bondservant in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you there: therefore I command you to do this thing.
<sup>19</sup>When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgot a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

<sup>20</sup>When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.
<sup>21</sup>When you harvest your vineyard, you shall not glean it after yourselves: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.
<sup>22</sup>You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command you to do this thing.

25 If there is a controversy between men, and they come to judgment, and the judges judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked; <sup>2</sup>and it shall be if the wicked man deserves to be beaten, that the judge shall make him lie down and be beaten in his presence with a number of stripes, according to his guilt. <sup>3</sup>He may give him forty stripes and no more. Otherwise, if he should go on and beat him with more stripes than these, your brother will be humiliated in your eyes. <sup>4</sup>You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain. <sup>5</sup>If brothers dwell together, and one of them die, and have no son, the wife of the dead shall not be married outside to a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in to her, and take her to him as wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. <sup>6</sup>It shall be, that the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name not be blotted out of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>If the man doesn't want to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, "My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me." <sup>8</sup>Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him: and if he stand, and say, "I do not want to take her"; <sup>9</sup>then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face; and she shall answer and say, "So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house." <sup>10</sup>His name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe untied.

are an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>17</sup>Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came forth out of Egypt; <sup>18</sup>how he met you by the way, and struck the hindmost of you, all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he did not fear God. <sup>19</sup>Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky; you shall not forget.

26 It shall be, when you have come in to the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and dwell in it, <sup>2</sup>that you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring in from your land that the LORD your God gives you; and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. <sup>3</sup>You shall come to the priest who shall be in those days, and tell him, "I profess this day to the LORD your God, that I am come to the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us." <sup>4</sup>The priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>You shall answer and say before the LORD your God, "A wandering Aramean was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and lived there, few in number, and there he became a nation, great, mighty, and numerous. <sup>6</sup>The Egyptians mistreated us, and afflicted us, and laid on us hard bondage: <sup>7</sup>and we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our toil, and our oppression; <sup>8</sup>and the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs, and with wonders; <sup>9</sup>and he has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>Now, look, I have brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, LORD, have given me.” You shall set it down before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God. <sup>11</sup>And you shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given to you and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the foreigner who is among you.

<sup>12</sup>When you have made an end of tithing all the tithing of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled. <sup>13</sup>You shall say before the LORD your God, “I have put away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandment which you have commanded me: I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them: <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I put away of it, being unclean, nor given of it for the dead: I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have done according to all that you have commanded me. <sup>15</sup>Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the ground which you have given us, as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.”

<sup>16</sup>This day the LORD your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances: you shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>You have declared the LORD this day to be your God, and that you would walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and listen to his voice: <sup>18</sup>and the LORD has declared you this day to be a people for his own possession, as he has promised you, and that you should keep all his commandments; <sup>19</sup>and to make you high above all nations that he has made, for fame, and for praise,<sup>a</sup> and for honor; and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, as he has spoken.

27 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, “Keep all the commandment which I command you this day. <sup>2</sup>It shall be on the day when you shall pass over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, that you shall set yourself up great stones, and plaster them with plaster: <sup>3</sup>and you shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have passed over; that you may go in to the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you. <sup>4</sup>It shall be, when you have passed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster. <sup>5</sup>There you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones: you shall lift up no iron on them. <sup>6</sup>You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of uncut stones; and you shall offer burnt offerings thereon to the LORD your God: <sup>7</sup>and you shall sacrifice peace offerings, and shall eat there; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly.”

<sup>9</sup>Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying, “Keep silence, and listen, Israel: this day you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>You shall therefore obey the voice of the LORD your God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command you this day.”

<sup>11</sup>Moses commanded the people the same day, saying, <sup>12</sup>“These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have passed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>13</sup>These shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>The Levites shall answer, and tell all the men of Israel with a loud voice, <sup>15</sup>‘Cursed is the man who makes an engraved or molten image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.’ All the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>16</sup>‘Cursed is he who sets light by his father or his mother.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>17</sup>‘Cursed is he who removes his neighbor’s landmark.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>18</sup>‘Cursed is he who makes the blind to wander out of the way.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>19</sup>‘Cursed is he who wrests the justice due the foreigner, fatherless, and widow.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>20</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s skirt.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>21</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>22</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>23</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>24</sup>‘Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.<sup>7</sup> All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’<sup>25</sup> ‘Cursed is he who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’<sup>26</sup> ‘Cursed is he who doesn’t confirm all<sup>a</sup> the words<sup>b</sup> of this law to do them.’<sup>c</sup> All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’”

28 It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe to do all his commandments which I command you this day, that the LORD your God will set you on high above all the nations of the earth: <sup>2</sup>and all these blessings shall come on you, and overtake you, if you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God. <sup>3</sup>You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field. <sup>4</sup>You shall be blessed in the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the fruit of your animals, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock. <sup>5</sup>Your basket and your kneading trough shall be blessed. <sup>6</sup>You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out. <sup>7</sup>The LORD will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck before you. They will come out against you one way, and will flee before you seven ways. <sup>8</sup>The LORD will command the blessing on you in your storehouses, and in all that you put your hand to; and he will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>9</sup>The LORD will establish you for a holy people to himself, as he has sworn to you; if you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and walk in his ways. <sup>10</sup>All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of you. <sup>11</sup>The LORD will make you plenteous for good, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will open to you his good treasure in the sky, to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend to many nations, and you shall not borrow. <sup>13</sup>The LORD will make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if you shall listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do, <sup>14</sup>and shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them. <sup>15</sup>But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you this day, that all these curses shall come on you, and overtake you. <sup>16</sup>You shall be cursed in the city, and you shall be cursed in the field. <sup>17</sup>Your basket and your kneading trough shall be cursed. <sup>18</sup>The fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock shall be cursed. <sup>19</sup>You shall be cursed when you come in, and you shall be cursed when you go out. <sup>20</sup>The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all that you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the evil of your doings, by which you have forsaken me. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you, until he has consumed you from off the land, where you go in to possess it. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will strike you with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with fiery heat, and with the sword, and with blight, and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup>Your sky that is over your head shall be bronze, and the earth that is under you shall be iron. <sup>24</sup>The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust: from the sky shall it come down on you, until you are destroyed. <sup>25</sup>The LORD will cause you to be struck before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them, and shall flee seven ways before them: and you shall be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup>Your dead body shall be food to all birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth; and there shall be none to frighten them away. <sup>27</sup>The LORD will strike you with the boil of Egypt, and with the tumors, and with the scurvy, and with the itch, of which you can not be healed. <sup>28</sup>The LORD will strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart; <sup>29</sup>and you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways: and you shall be only oppressed and robbed always, and there shall be none to save you. <sup>30</sup>You shall betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: you shall build a house, and you shall not dwell in it: you shall plant a vineyard, and shall not use its fruit. <sup>31</sup>Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it: your donkey shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have none to save you. <sup>32</sup>Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day: and there shall be nothing in the power of your hand. <sup>33</sup>The fruit of your ground, and all your labors, shall a nation which you do not know eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always; <sup>34</sup>so that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. <sup>35</sup>The LORD will strike you in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil, of which you can not be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. <sup>36</sup>The LORD will bring you, and your king whom you shall set over you, to a nation that you have not known, you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone. <sup>37</sup>You shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where the LORD shall lead you away. <sup>38</sup>You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it. <sup>39</sup>You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink of the wine, nor harvest; for the worm shall eat them. <sup>40</sup>You shall have olive trees throughout all your borders, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives shall drop off. <sup>41</sup>You shall father sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity. <sup>42</sup>All your trees and the fruit of your ground shall the locust possess. <sup>43</sup>The foreigner who is in the midst of you shall mount up above you higher and higher; and you shall come down lower and lower. <sup>44</sup>He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him: he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. <sup>45</sup>All these curses shall come on you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, until you are destroyed; because you did not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded you: <sup>46</sup>and they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your descendants forever. <sup>47</sup>Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things; <sup>48</sup>therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron on your neck, until he has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup>The LORD will bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose language you shall not understand; <sup>50</sup>a nation of fierce facial expressions, that shall not respect the person of the old, nor show favor to the young, <sup>51</sup>and shall eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed; that also shall not leave you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your livestock, or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish. <sup>52</sup>They shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>53</sup>You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you. <sup>54</sup>The man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children whom he has remaining; <sup>55</sup>so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, because he has nothing left him, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your gates. <sup>56</sup>The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not adventure to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,<sup>57</sup> and toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children whom she shall bear; for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your gates.<sup>58</sup> If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, The LORD your God;<sup>59</sup> then the LORD will make your plagues extraordinary, and the plagues of your descendants, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and severe sicknesses, and of long continuance.<sup>60</sup> He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cling to you.<sup>61</sup> Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, the LORD will bring them on you, until you are destroyed.<sup>62</sup> You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the sky for multitude; because you did not listen to the voice of the LORD your God.<sup>63</sup> It shall happen that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you; and you shall be plucked from off the land where you go in to possess it.<sup>64</sup> The LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, which you have not known, you nor your fathers, even wood and stone.<sup>65</sup> Among these nations you shall find no ease, and there shall be no rest for the sole of your foot: but the LORD will give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and pining of soul;<sup>66</sup> and your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life.<sup>67</sup> In the morning you shall say, "I wish it were evening," and at evening you shall say, "I wish it were morning," for the fear of your heart which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.<sup>68</sup> The LORD will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again: and there you shall sell yourselves to your enemies for bondservants and for bondmaids, and no man shall buy you.

29 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.<sup>2</sup> Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land;<sup>3</sup> the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders:<sup>4</sup> but the LORD has not given you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, to this day. <sup>45</sup>I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes have not grown old on you, and your shoes have not grown old on your feet. <sup>6</sup>You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>When you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them: <sup>8</sup>and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites. <sup>9</sup>Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do. <sup>10</sup>You stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your heads, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, even all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup>your little ones, your wives, and your foreigner who is in the midst of your camps, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water; <sup>12</sup>that you may enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, and into his oath, which the LORD your God makes with you this day; <sup>13</sup>that he may establish you this day to himself for a people, and that he may be to you a God, as he spoke to you, and as he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>14</sup>Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath, <sup>15</sup>but with him who stands here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him who is not here with us this day <sup>16</sup>(for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed; <sup>17</sup>and you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them); <sup>18</sup>lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from the LORD our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood; <sup>19</sup>and it happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, "I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to destroy the moist with the dry." <sup>20</sup>The LORD will not pardon him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy will smoke against that man, and all the curse that is written in this book shall lie on him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under the sky. <sup>21</sup>The LORD will set him apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in this book of the law.

<sup>22</sup>The generation to come, your children who shall rise up after you, and the foreigner who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses with which the LORD has made it sick; <sup>23</sup>and that the whole land of it is sulfur, salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: <sup>24</sup>even all the nations shall say, “Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?”

<sup>25</sup>Then men shall say, “Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, <sup>26</sup>and went and served other gods, and worshiped them, gods that they did not know, and that he had not given to them: <sup>27</sup>therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curse that is written in this book; <sup>28</sup>and the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as at this day.”

<sup>29</sup>The secret things belong to the LORD our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

30 It shall happen, when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where the LORD your God has driven you, <sup>2</sup>and shall return to the LORD your God, and shall obey his voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul; <sup>3</sup>that then the LORD your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the peoples, where the LORD your God has scattered you. <sup>4</sup>If your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of the heavens, from there will the LORD your God gather you, and from there he will bring you back: <sup>5</sup>and the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and he will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers. <sup>6</sup>The LORD your God will circumsise your heart, and the heart of your descendants, to love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live. <sup>7</sup>The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>8</sup>You shall return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command you this day. <sup>9</sup>The LORD your God will make you plenteous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your womb, and in the fruit of your ground, and in the fruit of your livestock,<sup>a</sup> for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your fathers; <sup>10</sup>if you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law; if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.

<sup>11</sup>For this commandment which I command you this day is not too difficult for you, nor is it far off.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>It is not in heaven, that you should say, “Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?”<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup>Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, “Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?” <sup>14</sup>But the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart<sup>c</sup> and in your hand,<sup>d</sup> so that you can do it. <sup>15</sup>Look, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil. <sup>16</sup>If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God<sup>e</sup> that I command you this day to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, then you will live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land where you are going to possess it. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; <sup>18</sup>I denounce to you this day, that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land, where you pass over the Jordan to go in to possess it. <sup>19</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your descendants; <sup>20</sup>to love the LORD your God, to obey his voice, and to cling to him; for he is your life, and the length of your days; that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, and to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.”

all Israel. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, “I am one hundred twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: and the LORD has said to me, ‘You shall not go over this Jordan.’” <sup>3</sup>The LORD your God, he will go over before you; he will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua shall go over before you, as the LORD has spoken. <sup>4</sup>The LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land; whom he destroyed. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid, nor be scared of them: for the LORD your God is he who is going with you; he will not leave you nor forsake you.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous: for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it. <sup>8</sup>The LORD, he it is who does go before you; he will be with you, he will not fail you, neither forsake you: do not be afraid, neither be dismayed.”

<sup>9</sup>Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Moses commanded them, saying, “At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tents, <sup>11</sup>when all Israel has come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which he shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>12</sup>Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and your foreigner who is within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; <sup>13</sup>and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it.”

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Look, your days approach that you must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may commission him.” Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud: and the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the Tent. <sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Look, you shall sleep with your fathers; and this people will rise up, and play the prostitute after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. <sup>17</sup>Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, ‘Haven’t these evils come on us because<sup>b</sup> our God is not among us?’ <sup>18</sup>I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they shall have worked, in that they are turned to other gods.

<sup>19</sup>“Now therefore write the words of<sup>f</sup> this song for yourselves, and teach it to the sons of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the sons of Israel. <sup>20</sup>For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat; then will they turn to other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my covenant. <sup>21</sup>It shall happen, when many evils and troubles have come on them, that this song shall testify before them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their descendants: for I know their imagination which they frame this day, before I have brought them into the land which I swore.” <sup>22</sup>So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it the sons of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, “Be strong and courageous; for you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them: and I will be with you.”

<sup>24</sup>It happened, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law on a scroll, until they were finished, <sup>25</sup>that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, <sup>26</sup>“Take this book of the law, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against you. <sup>27</sup>For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck: look, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death? <sup>28</sup>Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your elders and your judges<sup>b</sup> and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will happen to you in the latter days; because you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.”

<sup>30</sup>Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

34 Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. The LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, to Dan, <sup>2</sup>and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the hinder sea, <sup>3</sup>and the Negev, and the Plain of the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, to Zoar. <sup>4</sup>The LORD said to him, “This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’ I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.”

son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him: and the sons of Israel listened to him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>10</sup>There has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, <sup>11</sup>in all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, <sup>12</sup>and in all the mighty hand, and in all the great terror, which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

1 Now it happened after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses’ servant, saying, <sup>2</sup>Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, to the land which I give to them, even to the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>I have given you every place that the sole of your foot will tread on, as I told Moses. <sup>4</sup>From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Perath, all the land of the Hittites, and to the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. <sup>5</sup>No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and of good courage; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. <sup>7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous, to observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go. <sup>8</sup>This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it: for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success. <sup>9</sup>Haven't I commanded you? Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed: for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Pass through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, 'Prepare food; for within three days you are to pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it.'"

<sup>12</sup>Joshua spoke to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, saying, <sup>13</sup>"Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God gives you rest, and will give you this land. <sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock, shall live in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan; but you shall pass over before your brothers armed, all the mighty men of valor, and shall help them <sup>15</sup>until the LORD has given your brothers rest, as he has given you, and they have also possessed the land which the LORD your God gives them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise.'"

<sup>16</sup>They answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>17</sup>Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we listen to you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Whoever rebels against your commandment, and doesn't listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage."

2 And Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two young men out of Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, and Jericho." And the two young men went and came to Jericho and entered<sup>a</sup> into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and slept there.

<sup>3</sup>The king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered into your house tonight,<sup>a</sup> for they have come to spy out all the land.”

<sup>4</sup>The woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from. <sup>5</sup>It happened about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went, I do not know. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them.” <sup>6</sup>But she had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof. <sup>7</sup>The men pursued them the way to the Jordan to the fords: and as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate. <sup>8</sup>Before they had lain down, she came up to them on the roof; <sup>9</sup>and she said to the men, “I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Sea of Suf<sup>b</sup> before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup>As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, neither did there remain any more spirit in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven<sup>c</sup> above, and on earth beneath. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father’s house, and give me a true token; <sup>13</sup>and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death.”

<sup>14</sup>The men said to her, “Our life for yours, even to death, if you do not talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when the LORD gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you.”

<sup>15</sup>Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was on the side of the wall, and she lived on the wall. <sup>16</sup>She said to them, “Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers find you; and hide yourselves there three days, until

<sup>17</sup>The men said to her, “We will be guiltless of this your oath which you have made us to swear.

<sup>18</sup>Look, when we come into the land, you shall bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which you did let us down by. You shall gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father’s household. <sup>19</sup>It shall be that whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his head, and we will be guiltless. Whoever is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on him. <sup>20</sup>But if you talk about this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless of your oath which you have made us to swear.”

<sup>21</sup>She said, “According to your words, so be it.” She sent them away, and they departed. She tied the scarlet line in the window.

<sup>22</sup>They went, and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but did not find them. <sup>23</sup>Then the two men returned, descended from the mountain, passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun; and they told him all that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup>They said to Joshua, “Truly the LORD has delivered into our hands all the land. Moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt away before us.”

3 Joshua rose up early in the morning; and they moved from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel. They lodged there before they passed over. <sup>2</sup>It happened after three days, that the officers went through the midst of the camp; <sup>3</sup>and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall move from your place, and follow it. <sup>4</sup>Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near to it, that you may know the way by which you must go; for you have not passed this way before.”

<sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. <sup>8</sup>You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’”

<sup>9</sup>Joshua said to the sons of Israel, “Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God.”

<sup>10</sup>Joshua said, “Hereby you shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite out from before you. <sup>11</sup>Look, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passes over before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore take twelve men from the sons<sup>a</sup> of Israel, one man for each tribe. <sup>13</sup>It shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, even the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand in one heap.”

<sup>14</sup>It happened, when the people moved from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant being before the people, <sup>15</sup>and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark had dipped in the edge of the water

(for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest), <sup>16</sup>that the waters which came down from above stood, and rose up in one heap, a great way off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that went down toward the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people passed over right against Jericho. <sup>17</sup>The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan; and all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the nation had passed completely over the Jordan.

4 It happened, when all the nation had completely passed over the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man, <sup>3</sup>and command them, saying, ‘Take from out of the middle of the Jordan, out of the place where the priests’ feet stood firm, twelve stones, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the lodging place, where you will lodge tonight.’”

<sup>4</sup>Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the sons of Israel, out of every tribe a man. <sup>5</sup>Joshua said to them, “Pass over before me in the presence of<sup>b</sup> the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you pick up a stone and put it on your shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; <sup>6</sup>that this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask in time to come, saying, ‘What do you mean by these stones?’ <sup>7</sup>then you shall tell them, ‘Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones shall be for a memorial to the sons of Israel forever.’”

<sup>8</sup>The sons of Israel did as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. <sup>9</sup>Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day. <sup>10</sup>For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and passed over. <sup>11</sup>It happened, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, with the priests, in the presence of the people.

saying, ‘Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. <sup>23</sup>For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before you, until you had passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Sea of Suf<sup>a</sup> which he dried up from before us, until we had passed over; <sup>24</sup>that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty; that you may fear the LORD your God forever.’”

5 And it happened, when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard how that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the sons of Israel, until they<sup>b</sup> had passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the sons of Israel. <sup>2</sup>At that time, the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives, and sit<sup>c</sup> and circumcise<sup>d</sup> the sons of Israel.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>So Joshua made himself flint knives, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the Hill of the Foreskins. <sup>4</sup>And this is the reason Joshua circumcised the sons of Israel:<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>as many as<sup>g</sup> were born<sup>h</sup> on the way and as many as were uncircumcised after they had come out of Egypt,<sup>i</sup> all these Joshua circumcised.<sup>j</sup> <sup>6</sup>For<sup>k</sup> Israel walked forty years in the wilderness.<sup>l</sup> Therefore many of them were uncircumcised, even the men of war who came out of Egypt,<sup>m</sup> who did not listen to the voice of the LORD. The LORD swore to them that he wouldn’t let them see the land which the LORD swore to their fathers that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup>And their children, whom he raised up in their place, were circumcised by Joshua; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way. <sup>8</sup>And it happened, when they were done circumcising all the nation, that they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you.” Therefore the name of that place was called Gilgal,<sup>a</sup> to this day. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Israel camped in Gilgal. They kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup>They ate unleavened cakes and parched grain of the produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, in the same day. <sup>12</sup>The manna ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the produce of the land. The sons of Israel did not have manna any more; but they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

<sup>13</sup>It happened, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and look, a man stood in front of him with his sword drawn in his hand. Joshua went to him, and said to him, “Are you for us, or for our adversaries?”

<sup>14</sup>And he said to him,<sup>b</sup> “Truly I am the commander of the army of the LORD. Now I have come.” Joshua fell facedown to the ground and worshipped, and said to him, “What does my lord say to his servant?”

<sup>15</sup>The commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, “Take your shoes off of your feet; for the place on which you stand is holy.” Joshua did so.

6 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the sons of Israel. No one went out, and no one came in. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “Look, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and the mighty men of valor. <sup>3</sup>All your men of war shall march around the city, going around the city once. You shall do this six days. <sup>4</sup>Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark. On the seventh day, you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. <sup>5</sup>It shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him.”

seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD advanced, and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. <sup>9</sup>The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the ark went after them. The trumpets sounded as they went.

<sup>10</sup>Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout." <sup>11</sup>So he caused the ark of the LORD to go around the city, going about it once. Then they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp. <sup>12</sup>Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew the trumpets: and the armed men went before them. The rear guard came after the ark of the LORD. The trumpets sounded as they went. <sup>14</sup>The second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. They did this six days.

<sup>15</sup>It happened on the seventh day, that they rose early at the dawning of the day, and marched around the city in the same way seven times. Only on this day they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>It happened at the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city. <sup>17</sup>The city shall be devoted, even it and all that is in it, to the LORD. Only Rahab the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. <sup>18</sup>But as for you, only keep yourselves from the devoted thing, so as not to covet<sup>a</sup> and take of the devoted thing and make the camp of Israel accursed, and bring trouble on it. <sup>19</sup>But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are holy to the LORD. They shall come into the LORD's treasury."

<sup>20</sup>So the people shouted, and the priests blew the trumpets. It happened, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. <sup>21</sup>They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, and sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword. <sup>22</sup>Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring out from there the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her." <sup>23</sup>The young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. They also brought out all her relatives, and they set them outside of the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup>They burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they put the silver, the gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron into the treasury of the LORD's house. <sup>25</sup>But Rahab the prostitute, her father's household, and all that she had, Joshua saved alive. She lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

7 But the sons of Israel committed a trespass in the devoted things; for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things. Therefore the LORD's anger burned against the sons of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the land."

The men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>3</sup>They returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Do not make all the people to toil there, for there are only a few of them." <sup>4</sup>So about three thousand men of the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup>The men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them, and they chased them from before the gate even to Shebarim, and struck them at the descent. The hearts of the people melted, and became like water. <sup>6</sup>Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup>Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have you brought this people over the Jordan at all, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? I wish that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>Oh, Lord, what shall I say, after that Israel has turned their backs before their enemies. <sup>9</sup>For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. What will you do for your great name?"

<sup>10</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up. Why are you fallen on your face like that? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned, and they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken of the devoted things, and have also stolen, and also deceived. They have even put it among their own stuff.<sup>12</sup>Therefore the sons of Israel can't stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction. I will not be with you any more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.<sup>13</sup>Get up. Sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for the LORD, the God of Israel, says, "There is a devoted thing in the midst of you, Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted thing from among you."<sup>14</sup>In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes. It shall be that the tribe which the LORD selects shall come near by families. The family which the LORD selects shall come near by households. The household which the LORD selects shall come near man by man.<sup>15</sup>It shall be, that he who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.'"

<sup>16</sup>So Joshua rose up early in the morning and brought Israel near by their tribes. The tribe of Judah was selected.<sup>17</sup>He brought near the families<sup>a</sup> of Judah; and he selected the family of the Zerahites. He brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was selected.<sup>18</sup>He brought near his household man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected.<sup>19</sup>Joshua said to Achan, "My son, please give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me."

<sup>20</sup>Achan answered Joshua, and said, "I have truly sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and this is what I have done.<sup>21</sup>When I saw among the spoil a beautiful garment from Shinar, two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them and took them. Look, they are hidden in the ground in the middle of my tent, with the silver under it."

<sup>22</sup>So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. Look, it was hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.<sup>23</sup>They took them from the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel. They laid them down before the LORD.<sup>24</sup>Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up to the valley of Achor.<sup>25</sup>Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day." All Israel stoned him with stones, and they burned them with fire and stoned them with stones. <sup>26</sup>They raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. The LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called “The valley of Achor” to this day.

8 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. Look, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, with his people, his city, and his land. <sup>2</sup>You shall do to Ai and her king as you did to Jericho and her king, except its spoil and its livestock, you shall take for a plunder for yourselves. Set an ambush for the city behind it.”

<sup>3</sup>So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand men, the mighty men of valor, and sent them out by night. <sup>4</sup>He commanded them, saying, “Look, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. <sup>5</sup>I, and all the people who are with me, will approach to the city. It shall happen, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them. <sup>6</sup>They will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, ‘They flee before us, like the first time.’ So we will flee before them, <sup>7</sup>and you shall rise up from the ambush, and take possession of the city; for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8</sup>It shall be, when you have seized on the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do this according to the word of the LORD. Look, I have commanded you.”

<sup>9</sup>Joshua sent them out; and they went to set up the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua stayed among the people that night. <sup>10</sup>Joshua rose up early in the morning, mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders,<sup>a</sup> before the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup>All the people, even the men of war who were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and camped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him and Ai. <sup>12</sup>He took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>13</sup>So they set the people, even all the army who was on the north of the city, and their ambush on the west of the city; and Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. <sup>14</sup>And it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that he<sup>b</sup> hurried and rose up early, and the men of the city went out to engage them<sup>c</sup> directly<sup>d</sup> in battle, he and all his people, to the meeting place in front of the Arabah; but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

<sup>15</sup>Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

<sup>16</sup>All the people who were in the city were called together to pursue after them. They pursued Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup>There was not a man left in Ai or Beth El who did not go out after Israel. They left the city open, and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand.”

Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup>The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered into the city, and took it. They hurried and set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup>When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and look, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. The people who fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers. <sup>21</sup>When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and killed the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup>The others came out of the city against them, so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. They struck them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. <sup>23</sup>They captured the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup>And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the plains, and on the mountain<sup>a</sup> on the slope,<sup>b</sup> where they pursued them, and they had all fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. <sup>25</sup>All that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai. <sup>26</sup>For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup>Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took for prey to themselves, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua. <sup>28</sup>So Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap forever, even a desolation, to this day. <sup>29</sup>He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until the evening, and at the sundown Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and threw it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised a great heap of stones on it that remains to this day.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup>as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, “an altar of uncut stones, on which no man has touched with an iron tool.” They offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup>He wrote there on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the sons of Israel. <sup>33</sup>All Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, who carried the ark of the LORD’s covenant, the foreigner as well as the native; half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel. <sup>34</sup>Afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law. <sup>35</sup>There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the foreigners who were among them.

9 It happened, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and on all the shore of the great sea in front of Lebanon, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it <sup>2</sup>that they gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord. <sup>3</sup>But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>4</sup>they also resorted to a ruse, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins, old and torn and bound up, <sup>5</sup>and old and patched shoes on their feet, and wore old garments. All the bread of their provision was dry and moldy. <sup>6</sup>They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Israel, “We have come from a far country. Now therefore make a covenant with us.”

<sup>7</sup>The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “What if you live among us. How could we make a covenant with you?”

Joshua said to them, “Who are you? Where do you come from?”

<sup>9</sup>They said to him, “Your servants have come from a very far country because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of his fame, all that he did in Egypt, <sup>10</sup>and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

<sup>11</sup>Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, “Take provision in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and tell them, “We are your servants. Now make a covenant with us.”” <sup>12</sup>This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we went out to go to you; but now, look, it is dry, and has become moldy. <sup>13</sup>These wineskins, which we filled, were new; and look, they are torn. These our garments and our shoes have become old because of the very long journey.”

<sup>14</sup>The men sampled their provisions, and did not ask counsel from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live. The leaders of the congregation swore to them. <sup>16</sup>It happened at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors, and that they lived among them. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Israel traveled and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim. <sup>18</sup>The sons of Israel did not strike them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. And the whole congregation murmured against the leaders. <sup>19</sup>But all the leaders said to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel; and now therefore we may not touch them. <sup>20</sup>This we will do to them, and let them live; lest wrath be on us, because of the oath which we swore to them.” <sup>21</sup>And the leaders said to them, “Let them live.” So they became wood cutters and drawers of water for all the congregation, and all the congregation did<sup>a</sup> as the leaders had spoken to them.

<sup>22</sup>Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, “Why have you deceived us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ when you live among us? <sup>23</sup>Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you will never fail to be bondservants, both wood cutters and drawers of water for the house of my God.”

<sup>24</sup>They answered Joshua, and said, “Because your servants were certainly told how the LORD your God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. Therefore we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>25</sup>Now, look, we are in your hand. Do to us as it seems good and right to you to do.”

<sup>26</sup>He did so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the sons of Israel, so that they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup>That day Joshua made them wood cutters and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which he should choose.

10 Now it happened when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Joshua and with<sup>a</sup> Israel, and were among them; <sup>2</sup>that they were very afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. <sup>3</sup>Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Come up to me, and help me, and let us strike Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel.” <sup>5</sup>Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their armies, and camped against Gibeon, and made war against it. <sup>6</sup>The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, “Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us.”

<sup>7</sup>So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. <sup>8</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. Not a man of them will stand before you.”

<sup>9</sup>Joshua therefore came on them suddenly. He went up from Gilgal all night. <sup>10</sup>The LORD confused them before Israel, and he killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and struck them to Azekah and to Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, as they fled from before the sons<sup>b</sup> of Israel while they were at the descent of Beth Horon, that the LORD cast down<sup>c</sup> stones from the sky on them as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than who the children of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites into the hand of Israel, when he struck them down at Gibeon, and they were struck down<sup>a</sup> before the children of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel, “Sun, stand still on Gibeon. You, moon, stop in the valley of Aijalon.”

<sup>13</sup>The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation had avenged themselves of their enemies. Isn’t this written in the book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the midst of the sky, and did not hurry to go down about a whole day. <sup>14</sup>There was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

<sup>18</sup>Joshua said, “Roll large stones to the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them; <sup>19</sup>but do not stay. Pursue your enemies, and attack them from the rear. Do not allow them to enter into their cities; for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand.”

<sup>20</sup>It happened, when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished killing them with a very great slaughter until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities, <sup>21</sup>that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. None moved his tongue against any of the sons of Israel. <sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me.”

<sup>23</sup>They did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup>It happened, when they brought those kings out to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the king of war who went with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.”

They came near, and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>25</sup>Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. Be strong and of good courage, for the LORD will do this to all your enemies against whom you fight.”

<sup>26</sup>Afterward Joshua struck them, put them to death, and hanged them on five trees. They were hanging on the trees until the evening. <sup>27</sup>It happened at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

<sup>28</sup>Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king. He utterly destroyed them and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining. He did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup>Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup>The LORD delivered it also, with its king, into the hand of Israel. He struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining in it. He did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup>Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and camped against it, and fought against it. <sup>32</sup>The LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. He took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with all the souls who were in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

<sup>34</sup>Joshua passed from Lachish, and all Israel with him, to Eglon; and they camped against it fought against it. <sup>35</sup>They took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup>Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, to Hebron; and they fought against it. <sup>37</sup>They took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king and all its cities, and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it, and all the souls who were in it.

<sup>38</sup>Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. <sup>39</sup>He took it, with its king and all its cities. They struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; as he had done also to Libnah, and to its king. <sup>40</sup>So Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, and the Negev, and the lowland, and the slopes, and all their kings. He left none remaining, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded. <sup>41</sup>Joshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea even to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup>Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal.

heard of it, that he sent to Jobab king of Maron,<sup>a</sup> to the king of Shim'on,<sup>b</sup> to the king of Achshaph,<sup>2</sup> and to the kings who were on the north, in the hill country, in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west,<sup>3</sup> to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.<sup>4</sup> They went out, they and all their armies with them, many people, even as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots.<sup>5</sup> All these kings met together; and they came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid because of them; for tomorrow at this time, I will deliver them up all slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."

them, and chased them to great Sidon, and to Misrephoth Maim, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward. They struck them until they left them none remaining.<sup>9</sup> Joshua did to them as the LORD told him. He hamstringed their horses and burnt their chariots with fire.<sup>10</sup> Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword: for Hazor used to be the head of all those kingdoms.<sup>11</sup> They struck all the souls who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them. There was no one left who breathed. He burnt Hazor with fire.<sup>12</sup> Joshua captured all the cities of those kings, with their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.<sup>13</sup> But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only. Joshua burned that.<sup>14</sup> The sons of Israel took all the spoil of these cities, with the livestock, as spoils for themselves; but every man they struck with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They did not leave any who breathed.

He took all their kings, struck them, and put them to death. <sup>18</sup>Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. <sup>19</sup>There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. They took all in battle. <sup>20</sup>For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>21</sup>Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities. <sup>22</sup>There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the sons of Israel. The offerings of the LORD, the God of Israel, made by fire are his inheritance, as he spoke to him. <sup>15</sup>Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families. <sup>16</sup>Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba; <sup>17</sup>Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, <sup>18</sup>Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup>Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar in the mount of the valley, <sup>20</sup>Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth, <sup>21</sup>all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Israel also killed Balaam, the son of Beor, the soothsayer, with the sword, among the rest of their slain.

<sup>23</sup>The border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and its villages.

the border of Debir; <sup>27</sup>and in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan's bank, to the uttermost part of the sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan eastward. <sup>28</sup>This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and its villages.

<sup>32</sup>These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward. <sup>33</sup>But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance. The LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he spoke to them.

14 These are the inheritances which the sons of Israel took in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of the sons of Israel, distributed to them, <sup>2</sup>by the lot of their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, to give<sup>a</sup> to the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe. <sup>3</sup>For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. <sup>4</sup>For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: and they gave no portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their livestock and for their property. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

<sup>6</sup>Then the children of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal. Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the thing that the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh Barnea. <sup>7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. I brought him word again as it was in my heart. <sup>8</sup>Nevertheless, my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed the LORD my God. <sup>9</sup>Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land where you walked shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.’ <sup>10</sup>Now, look, the LORD has kept me alive, as he spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. Now, look, I am eighty-five years old, today. <sup>11</sup>I am still as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now for war, to go out and to come in. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore give me this hill country, of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and great and fortified cities. It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as the LORD spoke.”

<sup>13</sup>Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. <sup>14</sup>Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day; because he wholly followed the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>Now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba, after the greatest man among the Anakim. The land had rest from war.

This shall be your south border. <sup>5</sup>The east border was the Salt Sea, even to the end of the Jordan. The border of the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>The border went up to Beth Hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup>The border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is over against the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the river. The border passed along to the waters of En Shemesh, and ended at En Rogel. <sup>8</sup>The border went up by the Valley of Ben Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite southward (that is, Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the farthest part of the valley of Rephaim northward. <sup>9</sup>The border extended from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities<sup>b</sup> of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to Baalah

Now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath Sepher.<sup>16</sup> Caleb said, "He who strikes Kiriath Sepher, and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife."<sup>17</sup> Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.<sup>18</sup> It happened, when she came, that she had him ask her father for a field. She got off of inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; three regions. <sup>12</sup>Yet the children of Manasseh couldn't drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

<sup>13</sup>It happened, when the sons of Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out. <sup>14</sup>The children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me just one lot and one part for an inheritance, since I am a great people, because the LORD has blessed me so far?"

<sup>15</sup>Joshua said to them, "If you are a great people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you."

<sup>16</sup>The children of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us. All the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth Shean and its towns, and those who are in the valley of Jezreel."

<sup>17</sup>Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, "You are a great people, and have great power. You shall not have one lot only; <sup>18</sup>but the hill country shall be yours. Although it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and it's farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong."

18 The whole congregation of the sons of Israel assembled themselves together at Shiloh, and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The land was subdued before them. <sup>2</sup>Seven tribes remained among the sons of Israel, which had not yet divided their inheritance. <sup>3</sup>Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "How long will you neglect to go in to possess the land, which the LORD, the God of your fathers,<sup>a</sup> has given you? <sup>4</sup>Appoint for you three men of each tribe. I will send them, and they shall arise, walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance; and they shall come to me. <sup>5</sup>They shall divide it into seven portions. Judah shall live in his borders on the south, and the house of Joseph shall live in their borders on the north. <sup>6</sup>You shall survey the land into seven parts, and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. <sup>7</sup>For the Levites have no portion among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."

<sup>8</sup>The men arose and went. Joshua commanded those who went to survey the land, saying, “Go walk through the land, survey it, and come again to me. I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

<sup>9</sup>The men went and passed through the land, and surveyed it by cities into seven portions on a scroll. They came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. There Joshua divided the land to the sons of Israel according to their divisions.

<sup>11</sup>The lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families. The border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. <sup>12</sup>Their border on the north quarter was from the Jordan. The border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward. It ended at the wilderness of Beth Aven. <sup>13</sup>The border passed along from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (that is, Bethel), southward. The border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Lower Beth Horon. <sup>14</sup>The border extended, and turned around on the west quarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth Horon southward; and ended at Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west quarter. <sup>15</sup>The south quarter was from the farthest part of Kiriath Jearim. The border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. <sup>16</sup>The border went down to the farthest part of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward. It went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En Rogel. <sup>17</sup>It extended northward, went out at En Shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which is over against the ascent of Adummim. It went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>18</sup>And it passed on to the north to the shoulder of Beth Arabah,<sup>a</sup> and went down to the Arabah. <sup>19</sup>The border passed along to the side of Beth Hoglah northward; and the border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south border. <sup>20</sup>The Jordan was its border on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders around it, according to their families. <sup>21</sup>Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth Hoglah, and Emek Keziz, <sup>22</sup>and Beth Arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel, <sup>23</sup>and Avvim, and Parah, and Ophrah, <sup>24</sup>and Chephar Ammoni, and Ophni, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages. <sup>25</sup>Gibeon, and

This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

The second lot came out for 19 Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. Their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah. <sup>2</sup>They had for their inheritance Beersheba (or Sheba<sup>g</sup>), Moladah, <sup>3</sup>Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup>Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup>Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah, <sup>6</sup>Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhin; thirteen cities with their villages; <sup>7</sup>En Rimmon,<sup>h</sup> and Tochen,<sup>i</sup> and Ether,

This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. <sup>9</sup>Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.

<sup>10</sup>And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families, and the border of their inheritance was to Sadud.<sup>j</sup> <sup>11</sup>Their border went up westward, and to Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth, and it reached to the wadi that is before Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>And it turned from Sadud<sup>k</sup> eastward toward the sunrise to the border of Chisloth Tabor, and it went out to Daberath, and went up to Japhia. <sup>13</sup>From there it passed along eastward to Gath Hopher, to Eth Kazin; and it went out to Rimmon which bends toward Neah. <sup>14</sup>The border turned around it on the north to Hannathon; and it ended at the valley of Iphtah El; <sup>15</sup>Kattath,

<sup>49</sup>So they made an end of distributing the land for inheritance by its borders. The sons of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>50</sup> According to the commandment of the LORD, they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and lived there.<sup>51</sup> These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of the sons of Israel distributed by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. So they made an end of dividing the land.

<sup>7</sup>They set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. <sup>8</sup>Beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer on the wilderness plateau out of the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whoever kills any person unintentionally might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stands before the congregation.

the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of the sons of Israel. <sup>2</sup>They spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for our livestock.”

Levites. Their lot was twelve cities.

<sup>43</sup>So the LORD gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give to their fathers. They possessed it, and lived in it. <sup>44</sup>The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that he swore to their fathers. Not a man of all their enemies stood before them. diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their tents. <sup>7</sup>Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half gave Joshua among their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. Moreover when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, <sup>8</sup>and spoke to them, saying, “Return with much wealth to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with bronze, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.”

<sup>9</sup>The children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the sons of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they owned, according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses. <sup>10</sup>When they came to the region about the Jordan, that is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, a great altar to look at. <sup>11</sup>The sons of Israel

heard this, “Look, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that pertains to the sons of Israel.” <sup>12</sup>When the sons of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the sons of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up against them to war. <sup>13</sup>The sons of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, <sup>14</sup>and with him ten princes, one prince of a fathers’ house for each of the tribes of Israel; and every one of them heads of ancestral houses among the thousands of Israel. <sup>15</sup>They came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, ‘What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built you an altar, to rebel this day against the LORD?’ <sup>17</sup>Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although there came a plague on the congregation of the LORD, <sup>18</sup>that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? It will be, seeing that you rebel today against the LORD, that tomorrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. <sup>19</sup>However, if the land of your possession is unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of the LORD, in which the LORD's tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us; but do not rebel against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God. <sup>20</sup>Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the devoted thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? That man did not perish alone in his iniquity.”

<sup>21</sup>Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasse answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel, <sup>22</sup>“El, God, the LORD. El, God, the LORD. He knows; and Israel shall know. If it was in rebellion, or if in trespass against the LORD, do not save us this day, <sup>23</sup>that we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if to offer burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings, let the LORD himself require it. <sup>24</sup>If we have not out of concern done this, and for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, “What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? <sup>25</sup>For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no portion in the LORD.”’ So your children might make our children cease from fearing the LORD. <sup>26</sup>Therefore we said, ‘Let’s now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; <sup>27</sup>but it will be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings;’ that your children may not tell our children in time to come, ‘You have no portion in the LORD.’ <sup>28</sup>Therefore we said, ‘It shall be, when they tell us or our generations this in time to come, that we shall say, “Look the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you.”’ <sup>29</sup>Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.”

<sup>30</sup>When Phinehas the priest, and the leaders of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasse spoke, it pleased them well. <sup>31</sup>Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben, to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasse, “Today we know that the LORD is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this trespass against the LORD. Now you have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.”<sup>32</sup> And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the leaders, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought them word again.<sup>33</sup> The thing pleased the sons of Israel; and the sons of Israel blessed God, and spoke no more of going up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad lived.<sup>34</sup> The children of Reuben and the children of Gad proclaimed regarding the altar, that it was a witness between us that the LORD is God.

23 It happened after many days, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from their enemies all around, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years,<sup>2</sup> that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, “I am old and well advanced in years.<sup>3</sup> You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you; for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you.<sup>4</sup> Look, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea toward the going down of the sun.

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD your God will himself thrust them out from before you, and drive them out of your sight, and he will send wild animals against them until he utterly destroys them and their kings from before you;<sup>a</sup> and you will inherit their land, as the LORD your God spoke to you.<sup>6</sup> Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that you not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left;<sup>7</sup> that you not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them;<sup>8</sup> but hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.<sup>9</sup> For the LORD has driven great and strong nations out from before you. But as for you, no man has stood before you to this day.<sup>10</sup> One man of you shall chase a thousand; for the LORD your God is he who fights for you, as he spoke to you.<sup>11</sup> And be very watchful of yourselves to love the LORD your God.<sup>12</sup> Else if you do at all go back, and hold fast to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you;<sup>13</sup> know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no longer drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>14</sup>Look, today I am going the way of all the earth. You know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have happened to you. Not one thing has failed of it. <sup>15</sup>It shall happen that as all the good things have come on you of which the LORD your God spoke to you, so the LORD will bring on you all the evil things, until he has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you, <sup>16</sup>when you disobey the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down yourselves to them. Then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you.”

24 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup>Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Your fathers lived of old

And I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it. And Jacob and his children went down into Egypt, and became there a great and numerous and mighty nation, and the Egyptians afflicted them.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>5</sup>And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did in its midst: and afterward I brought you out. <sup>6</sup>I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea. fought with you; and I gave them into your hand. You possessed their land; and I destroyed them from before you. <sup>9</sup>Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel. He sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you; <sup>10</sup>but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still. So I delivered you out of his hand. <sup>11</sup>You went over the Jordan, and came to Jericho. The men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I delivered them into your hand. <sup>12</sup>I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; not with your sword, nor with your bow. <sup>13</sup>I gave you a land whereon you had not labored, and cities which you did not build, and you live in them. You eat of vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.’ <sup>14</sup>Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth. Put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River,<sup>a</sup> in Egypt; and serve the LORD. <sup>15</sup>If it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup>The people answered, “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup>for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples through the midst of whom we passed. <sup>18</sup>The LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD; for he is our God.”

<sup>19</sup>Joshua said to the people, “You can’t serve the LORD; for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins. <sup>20</sup>If you forsake the LORD, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after he has done you good.”

<sup>21</sup>The people said to Joshua, “No; but we will serve the LORD.” <sup>22</sup>Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen you the LORD, to serve him.”

They said, “We are witnesses.”

<sup>23</sup>“Now therefore put away the foreign gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel.”

<sup>24</sup>The people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God, and we will listen to his voice.”

<sup>25</sup>So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. <sup>26</sup>Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>27</sup>Joshua said to all the people, “Look, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD which he spoke to us. It shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.” <sup>28</sup>So Joshua sent the people away, every man to his inheritance.

Shechem for a hundred kesitahs.<sup>a</sup> They became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. <sup>33</sup>Eleazar the son of Aaron died. They buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1 It happened after the death of Joshua, the sons of Israel asked of the LORD, saying, “Who should go up for us first against the Canaanites, to fight against them?”

<sup>3</sup>Judah said to Simeon his brother, “Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot.” So Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup>Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they struck of them in Bezek ten thousand men. <sup>5</sup>They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup>But Adoni-Bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes. <sup>7</sup>Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, scavenged under my table: as I have done, so God has requited me.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there. <sup>8</sup>The children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire. <sup>9</sup>Afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, and in the Negev, and in the lowland. <sup>10</sup>And Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron, and Hebron came out in opposition<sup>a</sup> (now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba), and they struck Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

<sup>14</sup>It happened, when she came to him, that she got him to ask her father for a field. And she got off from her donkey, and

<sup>15</sup>She said to him, “Give me a blessing; since you have given me the land in the Negev, give me also springs of water.” So Caleb gave her according to her heart<sup>b</sup> the upper springs and the lower springs. <sup>16</sup>And the descendants of<sup>c</sup> the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law,<sup>d</sup> went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the Negev of Arad; and they went and lived with the people. <sup>17</sup>Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>18</sup>Also Judah took Gaza with its territory, and Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory, and Ashdod with its surrounding lands.<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>The LORD was with Judah; and drove out the inhabitants of the hill country; for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>20</sup>They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had spoken;<sup>f</sup> and he drove out dwell in that land. <sup>28</sup>It happened, when Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out. <sup>29</sup>Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them. <sup>30</sup>Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor. <sup>31</sup>Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob; <sup>32</sup>but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out. <sup>33</sup>Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but he lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and of Beth Anath became subject to forced labor. <sup>34</sup>The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country; for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; <sup>35</sup>but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbin: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became subject to forced labor. <sup>36</sup>The border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akkrabbim, from Sela and upward.

2 The angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim. He said, "I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you: <sup>2</sup>and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars.' <sup>7</sup>But you have not listened to my voice: why have you done this? <sup>3</sup>Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you, but they will become your adversaries,<sup>a</sup> and their gods shall be a snare to you."

<sup>4</sup>It happened, when the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. <sup>5</sup>They called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the sons of Israel went every man to his inheritance to possess the land. <sup>7</sup>The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD that he had worked for Israel. <sup>8</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred ten years old. <sup>9</sup>They buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash. <sup>10</sup>Also all that generation were gathered to their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, who didn't know the LORD, nor yet the work which he had worked for Israel. <sup>11</sup>The sons of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals; <sup>12</sup>and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them: and they provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup>They forsook the LORD, and served Baal and the Ashtaroath. <sup>14</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of marauders who plundered them; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. <sup>15</sup>Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for harm, as the LORD had spoken, and as the LORD had sworn to them: and they were in great distress. <sup>16</sup>The LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them. <sup>17</sup>Yet they did not listen to their judges; for they played the prostitute after other gods, and bowed themselves down to them: they turned aside quickly out of the way in which their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not do so. <sup>18</sup>When the LORD raised up judges for them, then the LORD was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it grieved the LORD because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and troubled them. <sup>19</sup>But it happened, when the judge was dead, that they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them; they did not cease from their doings, and they did not turn aside<sup>a</sup> from their stubborn way. <sup>20</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he said, “Because this nation has transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not obeyed my voice; <sup>21</sup>I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua<sup>b</sup> left when he died; <sup>22</sup>that by them I may test Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it, as their fathers kept it, or not.” <sup>23</sup>So the LORD left those nations, without driving them out quickly; nor did he deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. <sup>4</sup>They were left, to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites: <sup>6</sup>and they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served the Baals and the Asheroth. <sup>8</sup>Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim; and the sons of Israel served Cushan Rishathaim eight years. <sup>9</sup>When the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a savior to the sons of Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother; and he obeyed him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came on him, and he judged Israel; and he went out to war, and the LORD delivered Cushan Rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand: and his hand prevailed against Cushan Rishathaim. <sup>11</sup>The land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He gathered to him the children of Ammon and Amalek; and he went and struck Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees. <sup>14</sup>The sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years. <sup>15</sup>But when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised them up a savior, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a man left-handed. The sons of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab. <sup>16</sup>Ehud made him a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length; and he girded it under his clothing on his right thigh. <sup>17</sup>He offered the tribute to Eglon king of Moab: now Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>18</sup>When he had made an end of offering the tribute, he sent away the people who bore the tribute. <sup>19</sup>But he himself turned back from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

The king said, "Keep silence." All who stood by him went out from him.

<sup>20</sup>Ehud came to him; and he was sitting by himself alone in the cool upper room. Ehud said, "I have a message from God to you,

O king.<sup>a</sup>" He arose out of his seat.<sup>b</sup> <sup>21</sup>And it happened as he rose up that Ehud<sup>c</sup> put forth his left hand and took the sword from his right thigh and thrust it into his belly.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>And the handle also went in after the blade; and the fat closed on the blade, for he didn't draw the sword out of his belly; and it came out behind. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went forth into the porch, and shut the doors of the upper room on him, and locked them.

<sup>24</sup>Now when he was gone out, his servants came; and they saw, and look, the doors of the upper room were locked; and they said, "Surely he is covering his feet in the upper room." <sup>25</sup>They waited until they were ashamed; and look, he did not open the doors of the upper room: therefore they took the key, and opened them, and look, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth. <sup>26</sup>Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>It happened, when he had come, that he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he before them. <sup>28</sup>He said to them,

“Follow after me; for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand.” They went down after him, and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and did not allow a man to pass over.<sup>29</sup> They struck of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, every lusty man, and every man of valor; and there escaped not a man.<sup>30</sup> So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. Then the land had rest eighty years. And Ehud judged them until he died.<sup>a</sup> <sup>31</sup> And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who alone<sup>b</sup> struck down six hundred men of the Philistines with an oxgoad. And he also saved Israel.

4 The sons of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.<sup>2</sup> The LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin<sup>c</sup> king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth of the Gentiles.<sup>3</sup> The sons of Israel cried to the LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the sons of Israel.<sup>4</sup> Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time.<sup>5</sup> She lived under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim: and the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment.<sup>6</sup> She sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh Naphtali, and said to him, “Hasn’t the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded, ‘Go and draw to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?’ I will draw to you, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand.”

and Deborah went up with him. <sup>11</sup>Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, even from the children of Hobab the brother-in-law<sup>a</sup> of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far as the oak in Zaanannim,<sup>b</sup> which is by Kedesh. <sup>12</sup>And it was reported to Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, to the river Kishon. <sup>14</sup>Deborah said to Barak, “Arise, for this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Hasn’t the LORD gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. <sup>15</sup>The LORD confused Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera got off from his chariot, and fled away on his feet. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the army, to Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a man left. <sup>17</sup>However Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup>Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; do not be

She opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

<sup>20</sup>He said to her, “Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man comes and inquires of you, and says, ‘Is there any man here?’ that you shall say, ‘No.’”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jael Heber’s wife took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the pin into his temples, and it pierced through into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep; so he died. <sup>22</sup>Look, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek.” He came to her; and look, Sisera lay dead, and the tent peg was in his temples. <sup>23</sup>So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup>The hand of the sons of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>14</sup>And the LORD looked at him, and said, “Go in this strength of yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Look,<sup>c</sup> haven’t I sent you?” <sup>15</sup>He said to him, “O Lord, how shall I save Israel? Look, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”

<sup>19</sup>Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of meal: the meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and presented it.

<sup>20</sup>The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.”

And he did so. <sup>21</sup>Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there went up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

<sup>24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it “The LORD is Peace.”<sup>a</sup> To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup>It happened the same night, that the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s bull, even the second bull seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it; <sup>26</sup>and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold, in the orderly manner, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down.”

<sup>27</sup>Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had spoken to him: and it came about, because he feared his father’s household and the men of the city, so that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

<sup>28</sup>When the men of the city arose early in the morning, look, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built. <sup>29</sup>They said one to another, “Who has done this thing?”

When they inquired and asked, they said, “Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.”

<sup>30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was by it.” <sup>31</sup>Joash said to all who stood against him, “Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? He who will contend for him, let him be put to death while it is yet morning: if he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has broken down his altar.” <sup>32</sup>Therefore on that day he named him Jerubbaal, saying, “Let Baal

<sup>33</sup>Then all Midian and Amalek and the Kedemites<sup>a</sup> assembled themselves together; and they crossed over, and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup>But the Spirit of the LORD came on Gideon; and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered together after him. <sup>35</sup>He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; and they also were gathered together after him: and he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

<sup>36</sup>Gideon said to God, “If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken, <sup>37</sup>behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken.”

<sup>38</sup>It was so; for he rose up early on the next day, and pressed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

<sup>39</sup>Gideon said to God, “Do not let your anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once. Please let me make one more test with the fleece; let it now be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.”

<sup>40</sup>God did so that night, for it was dry on the fleece only, and there was dew all over the ground.

7 Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and camped beside the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, “The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, ‘My own hand has saved me.’ <sup>3</sup>Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, ‘Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.’ There returned of the people twenty-two thousand; but ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, “The people are yet too many; bring them down to the water, and I will try them for you there: and it shall be, that of whom I tell you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you; and of whoever I tell you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go. <sup>5</sup>So he brought down the people to the water: and the LORD said to Gideon, “Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall put to one side; likewise everyone who kneels down on his knees to drink shall be on the other side.<sup>a</sup>” <sup>6</sup>The number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people kneeled down on their knees to drink water. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, “By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand; and let all the people go every man to his home.”

<sup>8</sup>So the people took food in their hand, and their trumpets; and he sent all the men of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley. <sup>9</sup>It happened the same night, that the LORD said to him, “Arise, get down into the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. <sup>10</sup>But if you fear to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp: <sup>11</sup>and you shall hear what they say; and afterward will your hands be strengthened to go down into the camp.” Then he went down with Purah his servant to the outermost part of the armed men who were in the camp.

<sup>12</sup>And Midian, Amalek, and all the Kedemites lay along in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand which is on the seashore. <sup>13</sup>When Gideon had come, look, there was a man telling a dream to his friend; and he said, “Look, I had a dream, and look, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent collapsed.”

<sup>15</sup>It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, that he worshiped, and he returned into the camp of Israel, and said, “Get up, for the LORD has delivered into your hand the army of Midian.”

<sup>16</sup>He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put into the hands of all of them trumpets, and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers.

<sup>17</sup>He said to them, “Look at me, and do likewise. And look, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so you shall do. <sup>18</sup>When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, “For the LORD and for Gideon.”

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands.<sup>20</sup>The three companies blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands with which to blow; and they called out, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon.”<sup>21</sup>They each stood in his place every man around the camp; and all the army ran; and they shouted, and put them to flight.<sup>22</sup>They blew the three hundred trumpets, and the LORD set every man’s sword against his fellow, and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah,<sup>a</sup> as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath.<sup>23</sup>The men of Israel were gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after Midian.<sup>24</sup>Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against Midian, and capture the waters, as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan.” So all the men of Ephraim were gathered together, and seized the waters as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan.<sup>25</sup>They took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian.<sup>b</sup> Then they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

8 The men of Ephraim said to him, “Why have you done such a thing to us, not calling us when you went to fight with Midian?” And they argued with him fiercely.<sup>2</sup>He said to them, “What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn’t the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?<sup>3</sup> God has delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what was I able to do in comparison with you?” Then their anger subsided toward him, when he had said that.

<sup>4</sup>Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, exhausted and famished.<sup>c</sup><sup>5</sup>He said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.

<sup>10</sup>Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the Kedemites; for there fell one hundred twenty thousand men who drew sword. <sup>11</sup>And Gideon went up by the way of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, opposite Zebah,<sup>a</sup> and struck the army, when the army was unsuspecting. <sup>12</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued after them, and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the entire army. <sup>13</sup>Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres. <sup>14</sup>He caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described for him the officials of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-

<sup>23</sup>Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you." <sup>24</sup>Gideon said to them, "I would make a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings from his plunder." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

<sup>26</sup>The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand and seven hundred pieces of gold,<sup>a</sup> besides the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks. <sup>27</sup>Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel prostituted themselves after it there; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to his house. <sup>28</sup>So Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and did not become a threat again. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. <sup>29</sup>Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

<sup>30</sup>Gideon had seventy sons conceived from his body; for he had many wives. <sup>31</sup>His concubine who was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. <sup>33</sup>It happened, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the sons of Israel turned again, and played the prostitute after the Baals, and made Baal Berith their god. <sup>34</sup>The sons of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side; <sup>35</sup>neither did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Israel.

9 Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Please speak in the ears of all the lords of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy persons, rule over you, or that one rule over you?' But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.<sup>6</sup> And all the lords of Shechem assembled themselves together, and all Beth Millo, and went and made Abimelech king by the oak which is found<sup>a</sup> at the pillar<sup>b</sup> in Shechem.<sup>7</sup> And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said to them, "Listen to me, you lords of Shechem, that God may listen to you."<sup>8</sup> The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign you over us.'

<sup>22</sup>Abimelech was prince over Israel three years. <sup>23</sup>And God sent a spirit of hostility between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem; and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech: <sup>24</sup>that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and that their blood might be laid on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the men of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers. <sup>25</sup>And the lords of Shechem set an ambush for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who came along that way by them. And it was told to Abimelech. <sup>26</sup>And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers, and went over to Shechem; and the lords of Shechem put their trust in him. <sup>27</sup>They went out into the field, and gathered their vineyards, and trod the grapes, and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup>Gaal the son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? <sup>30</sup>When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled. <sup>31</sup>He sent messengers to Abimelech in (Arumah),<sup>b</sup> saying, “Look, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and look, they constrain the city to take part against you. <sup>32</sup>Now therefore, rise up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. <sup>33</sup>And it shall be that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and rush on the city. <sup>36</sup>When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, “Look, there are people coming down from the tops of the mountains.”

Zebul said to him, “You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.”

<sup>37</sup>Gaal spoke again and said, “Look, there are people coming down by the central part of the land, and one company comes by the way of the Diviners’ Oak.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>38</sup>Then Zebul said to him, “Where is now your mouth, that you said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Is not this the people that you have despised? Please go out now and fight with them.”

that they could not dwell in Shechem. <sup>42</sup>It happened on the next day, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. <sup>43</sup>He took the people, and divided them into three companies, and waited in ambush in the field; and he looked, and look, the people came forth out of the city. He rose up against them, and struck them. <sup>44</sup>Abimelech, and the companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and the two companies rushed against all who were in the field, and struck them. <sup>45</sup>Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and killed the people who were in it. And he destroyed the city, and sowed it with salt.

Tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.<sup>50</sup> Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and camped against Thebez, and took it.<sup>51</sup> But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women fled, and all the lords of the city, and shut themselves in, and got them up to the roof of the tower.<sup>52</sup> Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and drew near to the door of the tower to burn it with fire.<sup>53</sup> A certain woman threw down an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, and broke his skull.

<sup>54</sup>Then he called quickly to the young man his armor bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword, and kill me, that men not say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" So the young man thrust him through, and he died.

<sup>55</sup>When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his place.<sup>56</sup> Thus God requited the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father, in killing his seventy brothers;<sup>57</sup> and all the wickedness of the men of Shechem did God return on their heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

10 After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.<sup>2</sup> He judged Israel twenty-three years,

<sup>6</sup>The sons of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals, and the Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD, and did not serve him.<sup>7</sup> The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon.<sup>8</sup> And they shattered and oppressed the children of Israel that year. Eighteen years they oppressed all the sons of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.<sup>9</sup> The children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was very distressed.<sup>10</sup> The sons of Israel cried to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals."

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said to the sons of Israel, “Did I not save you<sup>a</sup> from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?<sup>12</sup> Also the Sidonians, and Amalek, and Midian<sup>b</sup> oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand. <sup>13</sup>Yet you have forsaken me, and served other gods. Therefore I will save you no more. <sup>14</sup>Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.”

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Israel said to the LORD, “We have sinned. Do to us whatever seems good to you; only deliver us, please, this day.”

<sup>16</sup>They put away the foreign gods from among them, and served the LORD; and his soul was grieved with the misery of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and camped in Gilead. The sons of Israel assembled themselves together, and camped at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to each other, “What man is he who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a prostitute. And Gilead became the father of Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>Gilead’s wife bore him sons; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove out Jephthah, and said to him, “You shall not inherit in our father’s house; for you are the son of another woman.” <sup>3</sup>Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain fellows to Jephthah, and they went out with him. <sup>4</sup>It happened after a while, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup>It was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob; <sup>6</sup>and they said to Jephthah, “Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them. And Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah. <sup>12</sup>Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, “What have you to do with me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?” <sup>13</sup>And the king of the children of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel took away my land, when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. Now therefore restore it peaceably, and I will depart.” <sup>14</sup>And the messengers returned to Jephthah,<sup>b</sup> and Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of

Ammon; <sup>15</sup>and he said to him, “Thus says Jephthah: ‘Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon, <sup>16</sup>but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Sea of Suf,<sup>c</sup> and came to Kadesh; <sup>17</sup>then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, ‘Please let me pass through your land.’ But the king of Edom did not listen. In the same way, he sent to the king of Moab; but he would not. So Israel stayed in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup>Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they camped on the other side of the Arnon; but they did not come within the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab. <sup>19</sup>Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, ‘Please let me<sup>d</sup> pass through your land to our land.’ <sup>20</sup>But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and camped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup>The LORD, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. inhabitants of that country. <sup>22</sup>They possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to the Jordan. <sup>23</sup>So now the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven out the Amorites from before his people Israel, and should you possess them? <sup>24</sup>Won't you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever the LORD our God has driven out from before us, we will possess. <sup>25</sup>And now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever contend against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? <sup>26</sup>While Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the side of the Arnon, three hundred years; why did you not liberate<sup>a</sup> them within that time? <sup>27</sup>I therefore have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong by making war against me. The LORD, the Judge, be judge this day between the sons of Israel and the children of Ammon."

<sup>28</sup>However the king of the children of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent him. <sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon. <sup>30</sup>Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will indeed deliver the children of Ammon into my hand, <sup>31</sup>then it shall be that whatever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup>So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hand. <sup>33</sup>He struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abel Keramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

<sup>38</sup>He said, “Go.” He sent her away for two months: and she departed, she and her companions, and wept because of her virginity on the mountains.<sup>39</sup> It happened at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, who did with her according to what he had vowed. And she was a virgin. It became a custom in Israel,<sup>40</sup> that the daughters of Israel went yearly four days in a year to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

12 The men of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, “Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house on you with fire.”

<sup>2</sup>And Jephthah said to them, “I and my people had a great dispute, and the children of Ammon were oppressing me greatly;<sup>a</sup> and when I called you, you did not save me out of their hand.

<sup>3</sup>When I saw that you did not save me, I put my life in my own hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?”<sup>4</sup> Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, “You are fugitives of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim, and in the midst of Manasseh.”<sup>5</sup> The Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. It was so, that when any of the fugitives of Ephraim said, “Let me go over,” the men of Gilead said to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No”;<sup>6</sup> then they said to him, “Now say ‘Shibboleth,’” and he said “Sibboleth”; for he couldn’t manage to pronounce it right: then they seized him, and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup>Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup>After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup>Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. <sup>13</sup>After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

13 The sons of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. <sup>2</sup>There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and did not bear. <sup>3</sup>The angel of the LORD appeared to the woman, and said to her, “See now, you are barren, and do not bear; but you shall conceive, and bear a son. <sup>4</sup>Now therefore please be careful and drink no wine nor strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing. <sup>5</sup>For look, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and no razor will come on his head; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb. And he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, “A man of God came to me, and his face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome; and I didn’t ask him where he was from, neither did he tell me his name, <sup>7</sup>but he said to me, ‘Look, you shall conceive, and bear a son. And now drink no wine nor strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb until the day of his death.’”

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah pleaded with the LORD, and said, “Oh, Lord, please let the man of God whom you did send come again to us, and teach us what we shall do to the child who shall be born.”

<sup>9</sup>God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah, her husband, wasn’t with her. <sup>10</sup>The woman ran quickly, and told her husband, and said to him, “Look, the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me.”

<sup>11</sup>Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to the woman?” He said, “I am.” <sup>12</sup>Manoah said, “Now let your word<sup>a</sup> happen. How

<sup>13</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. <sup>14</sup>She may not eat of anything that comes of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. All that I have commanded her she is to observe."

<sup>15</sup>Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Please, stay a bit longer that we may prepare a young goat for you."

<sup>16</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Though you detain me, I won't eat of your bread. And if you prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD." For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, that when your words come true we may honor you?"

<sup>18</sup>And the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask for my name? It is incomprehensible."

<sup>19</sup>So Manoah took the young goat and a grain offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD, to the LORD who works wonders.<sup>a</sup>

And Manoah and his wife looked on. <sup>20</sup>For it happened, when the flame went up toward the sky from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on, and they fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>21</sup>But the angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah or to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, because we have seen God."

<sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, "If the LORD meant to kill us, he wouldn't have received a burnt offering and a grain offering from us, neither would he have shown us all these things, nor would he have spoken to us now like this." <sup>24</sup>The woman bore a son, and named him Samson. And the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD began to direct him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

<sup>3</sup>Then his father and his mother said to him, “Is there not a woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?” And Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, for she is right in my eyes.” <sup>4</sup>But his father and his mother did not know that it was of the LORD, for he sought for an opportunity against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines had rule over Israel. <sup>5</sup>Then Samson went down with his father and his mother to Timnah. And he turned aside<sup>a</sup> and went<sup>b</sup> into the vineyards of Timnah, and look, a young lion roared against him. <sup>6</sup>And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, and he tore him as he would have torn a young goat. And he had nothing in his hand, but he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup>He went down and talked with the woman, and she was right in Samson’s eyes. <sup>8</sup>After a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and look, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. <sup>9</sup>He took it into his hands, and went on, eating as he went. They couldn’t in three days declare the riddle. <sup>15</sup>And it happened on the fourth<sup>c</sup> day, that they said to Samson’s wife, “Entice your husband, that he may tell us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father’s house with fire. the time of wheat

young goat; and he said, "I will go in to my wife into the room."

But her father wouldn't allow him to go in. <sup>2</sup>Her father said, "I most certainly thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Isn't her younger sister more beautiful than she is? Please take her, instead."

<sup>3</sup>Samson said to him,<sup>a</sup> "This time I will be blameless in regard of the Philistines, when I harm them." <sup>4</sup>Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the midst between every two tails. <sup>5</sup>And when he had set fire to the torches, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and<sup>b</sup> olive groves. <sup>6</sup>Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" They said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife, and given her to his companion." The Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father's house<sup>c</sup> with fire. <sup>7</sup>Samson said to them, "Because you did this, I will surely take revenge on you, and after that I will cease." <sup>8</sup>He struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam. <sup>9</sup>Then the Philistines went up, and camped in Judah, and spread out in Lehi. <sup>10</sup> The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us."

<sup>11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?"

He said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

<sup>12</sup>They said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines."

Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves."

<sup>13</sup>They spoke to him, saying, "No; but we will bind you fast, and deliver you into their hand; but surely we will not kill you." They bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him: and the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands dropped from off his hands. <sup>15</sup>And he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and reached down and took it, and struck a thousand men with it. <sup>16</sup>Samson said, "With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps; with the jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand men." <sup>17</sup>It happened, when he had finished speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ramath Lehi. <sup>18</sup>He was very thirsty, and called on the LORD, and said, "You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"

<sup>19</sup>And God split the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came out of it. When he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: therefore its name was called En Hakkore,<sup>a</sup> which is in Lehi, to this day. <sup>20</sup>He judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

16 Samson went from there<sup>b</sup> to Gaza, and saw a prostitute there, and went in to her. <sup>2</sup>The Gazites were told, "Samson is here." They surrounded him, and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city, and were quiet all night, saying, "Wait until morning light, then we will kill him." <sup>3</sup>Now Samson rested until midnight, but got up at midnight and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and pulled them

<sup>6</sup>Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me where your great strength lies, and how you can be bound and subdued.”

<sup>7</sup>Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.” <sup>8</sup>Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup>Now she had an ambush waiting in the inner room. She said to him, “The Philistines are on you, Samson.” He broke the cords, as a string of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.

<sup>10</sup>Delilah said to Samson, “Look, you have mocked me, and told me lies: now please tell me with which you might be bound.”

<sup>11</sup>He said to her, “If they only bind me with new ropes with which no work has been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.”

<sup>12</sup>So Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said to him, “The Philistines are on you, Samson.” The ambush was waiting in the inner room. He broke them off his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup>Delilah said to Samson, “Until now, you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me with what you might be bound.” He said to her, “If you weave the seven braids on my head with the web and fasten them with the pin to the wall, then I will be weak as another man.” <sup>14</sup>And it came to pass when he was asleep, that Delilah took the seven braids on his head, and wove them with the web,<sup>b</sup> and she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, “The Philistines are on you, Samson.” He awakened out of his sleep, and plucked away the pin of the beam, and the web. <sup>15</sup>She said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? <sup>16</sup>It happened, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, that his soul was troubled to death. <sup>17</sup>He told her all his heart, and said to her, “No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak, and be like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup>When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, “Come up this once, for he has told me all his heart.” Then the lords of the Philistines went<sup>a</sup> up to her, and brought the money in their hands. <sup>19</sup>She made him sleep on her knees; and she called for a man, and shaved off the seven locks of his head; and he began to weaken,<sup>b</sup> and his strength went from him. <sup>20</sup>She said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson.”

He awoke out of his sleep, and said, “I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free.” But he didn’t know that the LORD had departed from him. <sup>21</sup>The Philistines seized him, and gouged out his eyes. And they brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with bronze shackles, and he ground at the mill in the prison. <sup>22</sup>However the hair of his head began to grow again after he was

So the dead that he killed at his death were more than those who he killed in his life.<sup>31</sup> Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burial site of Manoah his father. His mother said, “Blessed be my son of the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>He restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, “I most certainly dedicate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make an engraved image and a molten image. Now therefore I will restore it to you.”

<sup>4</sup>When he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made of it an engraved image and a molten image: and it was in the house of Micah.

<sup>5</sup>The man Micah had a house of God, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.<sup>6</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.<sup>7</sup> There was a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he lived there.<sup>8</sup> The man departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem Judah, to live where he could find a place, and he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he traveled.<sup>9</sup> Micah said to him, “Where did you come from?”

He said to him, “I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I am going to settle wherever I may find a place.”<sup>10</sup> Micah said to him, “Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver by the year, and a suit of clothing, and your food.” So the Levite went in.<sup>11</sup> The Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of his sons.<sup>12</sup> Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.<sup>13</sup> Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will do good

18 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was looking for an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day, their inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup>The children of Dan sent of their family five men from their whole number, men of valor, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, “Go, explore the land.” They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and stayed there. <sup>3</sup>When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in that direction, and said to him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? And what is your business here?”

<sup>4</sup>He said to them, “Thus and so has Micah dealt with me, and he has hired me, and I have become his priest.” <sup>5</sup>They said to him, “Please ask counsel of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.”

<sup>7</sup>Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were there, and how they lived in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no one in the land possessing authority that might trouble them in anyway, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with Aram.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>They came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brothers said to them, “What do you say?”

<sup>26</sup>The children of Dan went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. <sup>27</sup>They took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burnt the city with fire. <sup>28</sup>There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley that lies by Beth Rehob. They built the city, and lived there. <sup>29</sup>They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor, who was born to Israel. However the name of the city was originally Laish. <sup>30</sup>The children of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image. And Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses,<sup>a</sup> and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the exile from the land. <sup>31</sup>So they set up for themselves Micah's engraved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

And there were with him a couple of saddled donkeys, and his concubine and his servant<sup>a</sup> were with him.

<sup>11</sup>When they were by Jebus, the day was almost gone, and the servant said to his master, "Please come and let us stop at this city of the Jebusites, and spend the night in it."

<sup>12</sup>His master said to him, "We won't go into the city of a foreigner that is not of the sons of Israel, but we will pass over to Gibeah."<sup>13</sup>He said to his servant, "Come and let us try to reach one of those places and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."<sup>14</sup>So they passed on and went their way; and the sun set on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.<sup>15</sup>They turned that way to go in to spend the night in Gibeah. The LORD said, "Go up against him."

<sup>24</sup>The sons of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.<sup>25</sup> Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the sons of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

<sup>26</sup>Then all the sons of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Bethel, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.<sup>27</sup> The sons of Israel asked of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days,<sup>28</sup> and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?"

The LORD said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver him into your hand."

<sup>29</sup>Israel set ambushes all around Gibeah.<sup>30</sup> The sons of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.<sup>31</sup> The children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to strike and kill some of the people, as at other times, on the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and the other to Gibeah, in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>The children of Benjamin said, "They are defeated before us, as previously." But the sons of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways."<sup>33</sup> All the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baal Tamar.

And the men of Israel in ambush rushed out of their place west<sup>a</sup> of Geba. <sup>34</sup>There came over against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was severe; but they didn't know that disaster was close upon them.

<sup>35</sup>The LORD struck Benjamin before Israel; and the sons of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men: all armed with swords. <sup>36</sup>So the children of Benjamin saw that they were defeated; for the men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted the ambushers whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup>The ambushers hurried, and rushed on Gibeah; and the ambushers drew themselves along, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword. <sup>38</sup>Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ambushers was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city. <sup>39</sup>The men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle."

turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified; for they saw that disaster had come on them. <sup>42</sup>Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in its midst. <sup>43</sup>They surrounded Benjamin, and they pursued them from Nohah<sup>b</sup> and overtook them near Gibeah toward the east. <sup>44</sup>There fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valor.

<sup>45</sup>They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon: and they killed on the highways five thousand men, and followed hard after them to Gidom, and struck down two thousand men. <sup>46</sup>So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand swordsmen; all these were valiant fighters. <sup>47</sup>But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and stayed in the rock of Rimmon four months. <sup>48</sup>The men of Israel turned again on the children of Benjamin, and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city, and the livestock, and all that they found: moreover all the cities which they found they set on fire.

“There shall not any of us give his daughter to Benjamin as wife.”<sup>2</sup>The people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept severely.<sup>3</sup>They said, “LORD God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel?”

<sup>4</sup>It happened on the next day that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.<sup>5</sup>The sons of Israel said, “Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?” For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, “He shall surely be put to death.”<sup>6</sup>The sons of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, “There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.<sup>7</sup>How shall we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?”<sup>8</sup>They said, “What one is there of the tribes of Israel who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah?” Look, no one came to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly.<sup>9</sup>For when the people were numbered, look, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead there.<sup>10</sup>The congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, “Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones.<sup>11</sup>This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has slept with a man, but the virgins you are to keep alive.” And they did so.<sup>a</sup><sup>12</sup>They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.<sup>13</sup>The whole congregation sent and spoke to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.<sup>14</sup>Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead: and yet so they weren’t enough for them.<sup>15</sup>The people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel.<sup>16</sup>Then the elders of the congregation said, “How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?”<sup>17</sup>They said, “How will an inheritance remain<sup>b</sup> for the survivors of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out from Israel.<sup>18</sup>However we may not give them wives of our daughters, for the sons of Israel had sworn, saying, ‘Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.’”<sup>19</sup>They said, “Look, there is a feast of the LORD from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.”<sup>20</sup> They commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, “Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,<sup>21</sup> and watch. If the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each man catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.”<sup>22</sup> It shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, ‘Grant them graciously to us, because we didn’t take wives for each man in battle, neither did you give them to them, otherwise you would now be guilty.’”

<sup>23</sup>The children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off. They went and returned to their inheritance, built the cities, and lived in them.<sup>24</sup> The sons of Israel departed there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.<sup>25</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

1 It happened in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Bethlehem Judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.<sup>2</sup> The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Kilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah. They came into the country of Moab, and continued there.<sup>3</sup> Elimelech, Naomi’s husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.<sup>4</sup> And they took for themselves wives from the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they lived there about ten years.<sup>5</sup> Mahlon and Kilion both died, and the woman was bereaved of her two children and of her husband.<sup>6</sup> Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread.<sup>7</sup> She went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.<sup>8</sup> Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go, return each of you to her mother’s house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me.”<sup>9</sup> The LORD grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband.”

Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice, and wept. <sup>10</sup>They said to her, “No, but we will return with you to your people.”

<sup>11</sup>Naomi said, “Go back, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? <sup>12</sup>Go back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, ‘I have hope,’ if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons; <sup>13</sup>would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from having husbands? No, my daughters, for it grieves me much for your sakes, for the hand of the LORD has gone out against me.”

<sup>14</sup>They lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law and returned to her people,<sup>a</sup> but Ruth clung to her. <sup>15</sup>She said, “Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, and to her god. Follow your sister-in-law.

<sup>16</sup>Ruth said, “Do not urge me to leave you, and to return from following after you, for where you go, I will go; and where you stay, I will stay; your people shall be my people, and your God my God; <sup>17</sup>where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried. The LORD do so to me, and more also, if anything but death part you and me.”

<sup>18</sup>When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left off speaking to her. <sup>19</sup>So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. It happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they asked, “Is this Naomi?”

<sup>20</sup>She said to them, “Do not call me Naomi.<sup>b</sup> Call me Marah;<sup>c</sup> for Shaddai has dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup>I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and Shaddai has afflicted me?” <sup>22</sup>So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

Moabitess said to Naomi, “Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor.”

She said to her, “Go, my daughter.”<sup>3</sup> She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.<sup>4</sup> Look, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, “The LORD be with you.” They answered him, “The LORD bless you.”<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, “Whose young lady is this?”<sup>6</sup> The servant who was set over the reapers answered, “It is the Moabite lady who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab.”<sup>7</sup> She said, ‘Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.’ So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she stayed a little in the house.”

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field, and do not go from here, but stay here close to my maidens.”<sup>9</sup> Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Haven’t I commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink from that which the young men have drawn.”

<sup>10</sup>Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, since I am a foreigner?”

<sup>11</sup>Boaz answered her, “It has fully been shown to me, all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband; and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn’t know before.”<sup>12</sup> May the LORD repay your work, and a full reward be given you from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.”

<sup>13</sup>Then she said, “Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not as one of your handmaidens.”

which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah<sup>a</sup> of barley. <sup>18</sup>She took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought out and gave to her that which she had left after she was sufficed. <sup>19</sup>Her mother-in-law said to her, “Where have you gleaned today? And where have you worked? Blessed be he who noticed you.” She showed her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, “The man’s name with whom I worked today is Boaz.” <sup>20</sup>Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead.” Naomi said to her, “The man is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen.”

<sup>21</sup>And Ruth the Moabite said, “He even said to me, ‘You shall stay close to my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.’”

<sup>22</sup>Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field.” <sup>23</sup>So she stayed close to the maidens of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

3 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? <sup>2</sup>Now isn’t Boaz our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? Look, he winnows barley tonight at the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup>Therefore wash yourself, anoint yourself, and put on your clothes,<sup>b</sup> and go down to the threshing floor, but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>It shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies, and you shall go in, and uncover his feet, and lie down; then he will tell you what you shall do.” <sup>5</sup>She said to her, “All that you say I will do.” <sup>6</sup>She went down to the threshing floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law told her. <sup>7</sup>When Boaz had eaten and drank, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. She came quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. <sup>8</sup>It happened at midnight, that the man was startled and turned over; and look, a woman lay at his feet. <sup>9</sup>He said, “Who are you?”

She answered, “I am Ruth your handmaid. Therefore spread the corner of your garment<sup>c</sup> over your handmaid; for you are a redeeming kinsman.”

<sup>10</sup>He said, “Blessed are you by the LORD, my daughter. You

<sup>11</sup>Now, my daughter, do not be afraid; I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people does know that you are a worthy woman. <sup>12</sup>Now it is true that I am a redeeming kinsman; however there is a redeemer closer than I am. <sup>13</sup>Stay this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform for you the part of a redeemer, well; let him do the redeemer's part. But if he will not do the part of a redeemer for you, then I will do the part of a redeemer for you, as the LORD lives. Lie down until the morning." <sup>14</sup>She lay at his feet until the morning. She rose up before one could discern another. For he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." <sup>15</sup>He said, "Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it." She held it; and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her; and he went into the city.

<sup>16</sup>When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "How did it go, my daughter?"

She told her all that the man had done to her. <sup>17</sup>She said, "He gave me these six measures of barley; for he said to me,<sup>a</sup> 'Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then she said, "Wait, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest, until he has finished the thing this day."

4 Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. Look, the near kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by; to whom he said, "Come over here, friend, and sit down." He turned aside, and sat down. <sup>2</sup>He took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here." They sat down. <sup>3</sup>He said to the near kinsman, "Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's. <sup>4</sup>I thought to disclose it to you, saying, 'Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know. For there is no one to redeem it besides you; and I am after you." He said, "I will redeem it."

<sup>6</sup>The near kinsman said, “I can’t redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption for yourself; for I can’t redeem it.” <sup>7</sup>Now this was the custom in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man took off his sandal, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the way of attestation in Israel. <sup>8</sup>So the near kinsman said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself.” And he took off his sandal and gave it to him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, “You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s, and all that was Kilion’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Naomi. <sup>10</sup>Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day.” <sup>11</sup>All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two built the house of Israel; and treat you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem. <sup>12</sup>Let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring which the LORD shall give you of this young woman.”

<sup>13</sup>So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. <sup>14</sup>The women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a redeemer; and let his name be famous in Israel. <sup>15</sup>He shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.” <sup>16</sup>Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and looked after him. <sup>17</sup>The women, her neighbors, gave him a name, saying, “There is a son born to Naomi.” And they named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

The First Book of Samuel

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim, a Zuphite<sup>a</sup> of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham,<sup>b</sup> the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite: <sup>2</sup>And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of other Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup>This man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts<sup>c</sup> in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests of the LORD, were there. <sup>4</sup>When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: <sup>5</sup>but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>6</sup>Her rival taunted her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>7</sup>As he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she taunted her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. <sup>8</sup>Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

<sup>15</sup>And Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Do not count your handmaid as a worthless woman; for I have been speaking out of the abundance of my distress and my anguish.”

4 And Samuel's words came to all Israel. And Eli grew very old, and his sons kept advancing in their wicked behavior before the LORD. And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines gathered themselves together against Israel.<sup>b</sup> And Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and camped beside Ebenezer, and the Philistines camped in Aphek.

<sup>2</sup>The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was struck before the Philistines; and they killed of the army in the field about four thousand men. <sup>3</sup>When the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD struck us today before the Philistines? Let us get the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh to us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies."

<sup>4</sup>So the people sent to Shiloh; and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who sits above the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>5</sup>When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. <sup>6</sup>When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" They understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. <sup>7</sup>The Philistines were afraid, for they said, "Gods have come into the camp." They said, "Woe to us. For there has not been such a thing before. <sup>8</sup>Woe to us. Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup>Be strong, and behave like men, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain. <sup>12</sup>There ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn, and with earth on his head. <sup>13</sup>When he came, look, Eli was sitting on his seat by the side<sup>a</sup> of the gate<sup>b</sup> watching the road, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. <sup>14</sup>When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, “What does the noise of this tumult mean?”

The man hurried, and came and told Eli. <sup>15</sup>Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were set, so that he could not see. <sup>16</sup>The man said to Eli, “I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army.”

He said, “How did the matter go, my son?”

<sup>17</sup>He who brought the news answered, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured.”

<sup>18</sup>It happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck broke, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty<sup>c</sup> years.

<sup>19</sup>His daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered. When she heard the news that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her pains came on her. <sup>20</sup>About the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, “Do not be afraid; for you have given birth to a son.” But she did not answer, neither did she regard it. <sup>21</sup>She named the child Ichabod,<sup>d</sup> saying, “The glory has departed from Israel”; because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup>She said, “The glory has departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.”

5 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. <sup>3</sup>When the Ashdodites arose early on the next day,<sup>e</sup> look, Dagon was fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. Only Dagon's torso<sup>a</sup> was intact. <sup>5</sup>Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, to this day.

<sup>6</sup>But the hand of the LORD was heavy on the Ashdodites, and he ravaged them and afflicted them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territory. And he brought up against them mice, and they burst out in their ships, and mice sprang up in the midst of their land, and there was a great terror of death in the city.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us; for his hand is severe on us, and on Dagon our god." <sup>8</sup>They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?"

They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried over to Gath." So they brought the ark of the God of Israel to Gath.<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>And it happened after they had brought it to Gath,<sup>d</sup> the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great confusion: and he struck the men of the city, both small and great; and tumors broke out on them. <sup>10</sup>So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. It happened, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "Why have you<sup>e</sup> brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people?"

<sup>11</sup>And they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, so that it will not kill us and our people." For there was a very heavy terror of death<sup>f</sup> throughout all the city when the ark of God<sup>g</sup> arrived<sup>h</sup> there. <sup>12</sup>The men who did not die were struck with the tumors; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

That stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.<sup>19</sup> He struck of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer,<sup>a</sup> saying, “The LORD helped us until now.” <sup>13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within the territory of Israel. The hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

<sup>14</sup>The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel recovered its territory out of the hand of the Philistines. There was peace between Israel and the Amorites. <sup>15</sup>Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>16</sup>He went from year to year in circuit to Bethel and Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places. <sup>17</sup>His return was to Ramah, for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and he built there an altar to the LORD.

8 It happened, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel. <sup>2</sup>Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>His sons did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted justice. <sup>4</sup>Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel to Ramah; <sup>5</sup>and they said to him, “Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. So<sup>b</sup> now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.” <sup>6</sup>But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.”

Samuel prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not be king over them. <sup>8</sup>According to all the works which they have done to me<sup>c</sup> since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also to you. <sup>9</sup>Now therefore listen to their voice: however you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the way of the king who shall reign over them.”

<sup>10</sup>Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked of him a king. <sup>11</sup>He said, “This will be the way of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them to him, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and they shall run before his chariots. <sup>12</sup>And he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands, and commanders of fifties; and he will assign some to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and gather his vintage,<sup>a</sup> and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of his chariots. <sup>13</sup>He will take your daughters to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. <sup>14</sup>He will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive groves, even their best, and give them to his servants. <sup>15</sup>He will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants. <sup>16</sup>He will take your male servants, and your female servants, and your best cattle,<sup>b</sup> and your donkeys, and put them to his work. <sup>17</sup>He will take the tenth of your flocks: and you shall be his servants. <sup>18</sup>You shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you shall have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

<sup>19</sup>But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, “No; but we will have a king over us, <sup>20</sup>that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.”

<sup>21</sup>Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice, and make them a king.” Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Every man go to his city.”

9 Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor. <sup>2</sup>He had a son, whose name was Saul, an impressive young man; and there was not among the sons of Israel a better person than he. From his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

<sup>3</sup>Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul’s father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, “Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go and look for the donkeys.” So Saul got up and took one of the servants of his father with him and went to look for the donkeys of his father Kish.<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they weren't there. Then he passed through the land of the Jaminites,<sup>b</sup> but they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup>When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, lest my father stop caring about the donkeys, and be anxious for us."

<sup>6</sup>He said to him, "See now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is a man who is held in honor. All that he says surely comes to pass. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can tell us concerning our journey on which we have set out."

<sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is gone in our vessels, and there is no gift to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

<sup>8</sup>The servant answered Saul again, and said, "Look, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way."<sup>9</sup>(In earlier times in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he would say, "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

<sup>10</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said. Come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was. <sup>11</sup>As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

<sup>12</sup>They answered them, and said, "He is. Look, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place. <sup>13</sup>As soon as you have come into the city, you shall immediately find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he comes, because he blesses the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited eat. Now therefore go up; for at this time you shall find him."

<sup>14</sup>They went up to the city. As they came within the city, look, Samuel came out toward them, to go up to the high place.

<sup>17</sup>When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, “Look, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall have authority over my people.”

<sup>18</sup>Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, “Please tell me where the seer’s house is.”

<sup>19</sup>And Samuel answered Saul, and said, “I am he.<sup>b</sup> Go up before me to the high place, for you will eat with me today. In the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>20</sup>As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them; for they have been found. And for whom does all Israel desire? Is it not for you, and for all your father’s house?”

<sup>21</sup>Saul answered, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe<sup>c</sup> of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me like this?”

<sup>22</sup>Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest room, and made them sit in the best place among those who were invited, who were about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup>And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I told you to set aside.” <sup>24</sup>The cook took up the thigh, and that which was on it, and set it before Saul. And he said, “Look, that which has been reserved. Set it before yourself and eat; because for the appointed time has it been kept for you, for I said, ‘I have invited the people.’” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>13</sup>When he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

He said, "To seek the donkeys. When we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel."

<sup>15</sup>Saul's uncle said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to you."

<sup>16</sup>Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys were found." But concerning the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel spoke, he did not tell him.

<sup>18</sup>and he said to the sons of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you:'

'No.<sup>a</sup> Set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands."

<sup>21</sup>He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families, and the family of the Matrites was taken. And he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man,<sup>b</sup> and Saul the son of Kish was taken. But when they looked for him, he could not be found.
<sup>22</sup>Therefore they asked of the LORD further, "Is there a man yet to come here?"

The LORD answered, "Look, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

<sup>23</sup>They ran and fetched him there; and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.
<sup>24</sup>Samuel said to all the people, "You see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people?"

day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and his son Jonathan had them. <sup>23</sup>The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

14 Now it fell on a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side." But he did not tell his father. <sup>2</sup>Saul stayed in the uttermost part of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people who were with him were about six hundred men; <sup>3</sup>and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. The people did not know that Jonathan was gone. <sup>4</sup>Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup>The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba. <sup>6</sup>Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. Saul was speaking<sup>a</sup> to the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

<sup>20</sup>Saul and all the people who were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle: and look, every man’s sword was against his fellow: a very great confusion. <sup>21</sup>Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines as before, and who went up with them into the camp, they too turned<sup>b</sup> to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup>Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed closely after them in the battle. <sup>23</sup>So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by Beth Aven. And all the people with Saul were about ten thousand men. And the battle extended itself into every city in the hill country of Ephraim.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>24</sup>And Saul committed a great blunder that day,<sup>d</sup> for he had placed the people under an oath, saying, “Cursed is the man who eats any food until it is evening, and I am avenged of my enemies.” So none of the people tasted food.

<sup>25</sup>All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup>When the people had come to the forest, look, a flow of honey, but no man would raise<sup>e</sup> his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. <sup>27</sup>But Jonathan did not hear when his father commanded the people with the oath, so he put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. <sup>28</sup>Then one of the people answered, and said, “Your father directly commanded the people with an oath, saying, ‘Cursed is the man who eats food this day.’” The people were faint. <sup>29</sup>Then Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land. The people were very faint; <sup>32</sup>and the people pounced<sup>c</sup> upon the spoil, and took sheep, and cattle, and calves, and killed them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood. <sup>33</sup>Then they told Saul, saying, “Look, the people are sinning against the LORD, in that they eat meat with the blood.”

He said, “You have dealt treacherously. Roll a large stone here<sup>d</sup> to me.” <sup>34</sup>Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them, ‘Bring me here every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD in eating meat with the blood.’” All the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and killed them there.

<sup>35</sup>Saul built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD. <sup>36</sup>Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them.”

They said, “Do whatever seems good to you.”

Then the priest said, “Let us draw near here to God.”

<sup>37</sup>Saul asked counsel of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel?” But he did not answer him that day. <sup>38</sup>And Saul said, “Come here, all you leaders of the people; and investigate and see how this sin has arisen today. <sup>39</sup>For, as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But there was not a man among all the people who answered him. <sup>40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, “You be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side.”

The people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

<sup>42</sup>And Saul said, “Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. Whomever the LORD shall indicate to be taken by lot, let him die.” And the people said to Saul, “This thing is not to be.” And Saul prevailed over the people, and they cast lots between him and Jonathan his son.<sup>a</sup> And Jonathan was selected.

And Jonathan told him, and said, “I certainly did taste a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand; and look, I must die.”

<sup>45</sup>The people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it. As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has worked with God this day.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.

<sup>26</sup>David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

<sup>48</sup>It happened, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.<sup>49</sup> David put his hand in his bag, took a stone, and slung it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.<sup>50</sup> So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.<sup>51</sup> Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head therewith. Jonathan loved him as his own soul. <sup>2</sup>Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house. <sup>3</sup>Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>4</sup>Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him, and gave it to David, and his clothing, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his sash. <sup>5</sup>Then Saul set him over the men of war, and David went out, succeeding wherever Saul sent him.<sup>a</sup> And it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. <sup>6</sup>It happened as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music. <sup>7</sup>The women sang one to another as they played, and said, "Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands."

<sup>8</sup>Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands. What can he have more but the kingdom?" <sup>9</sup>Saul eyed David from that day and forward. <sup>10</sup>It happened on the next day, that an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. David played with his hand, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; <sup>11</sup>and Saul threw the spear; for he said, "I will pin David even to the wall." David escaped from his presence twice. <sup>12</sup>Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup>Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

<sup>14</sup>David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him. <sup>15</sup>When Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him. <sup>16</sup>But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them. <sup>17</sup>Saul said to David, "Look, my elder daughter Merob,<sup>b</sup> I will give her to you as wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul said, "Do not let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him." <sup>18</sup>David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

Saul's daughter, loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup>Saul said, I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Therefore Saul said to David, "You shall this day be my son-in-law a second time." <sup>22</sup>Saul commanded his servants, "Talk with David secretly, and say, 'Look, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you: now therefore be the king's son-in-law.'"

<sup>23</sup>Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to be the king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

the Philistines one hundred<sup>b</sup> men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife. <sup>28</sup>Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David; and Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>29</sup>Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul was David's enemy continually. <sup>30</sup>Then the leaders of the Philistines went forth: and it happened, as often as they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was highly esteemed.

19 Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David. <sup>2</sup>Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father seeks to kill you. Now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, and live in a secret place, and hide yourself. <sup>3</sup>I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk with my father about you; and if I see anything, I will tell you."

You saw it, and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

<sup>7</sup>Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as before. <sup>8</sup>There was war again. David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him.

<sup>9</sup>An evil spirit from God<sup>a</sup> was on Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing with his harp. <sup>10</sup>Saul sought to pin David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he stuck the spear into the wall. David fled, and escaped that night. <sup>11</sup>Saul sent messengers to David's house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." <sup>12</sup>So Michal let David down through the window. He went, fled, and escaped. <sup>13</sup>Michal took the teraphim, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with the clothes. <sup>14</sup>When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

<sup>15</sup>Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him." <sup>16</sup>When the messengers came in, look, the teraphim was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.

<sup>17</sup>Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he is escaped?"

Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go. Why should I kill you?'"

<sup>18</sup>Now David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and lived in the dwellings.<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>And it was told to Saul, saying, "Look, David is in the dwellings at Ramah."

But when they<sup>a</sup> saw a company<sup>b</sup> of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. <sup>21</sup>When it was told to Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied. <sup>22</sup>And Saul became very angry,<sup>c</sup> and he himself also went to Ramah, and came to the cistern of the threshing floor that is on the bare hill.<sup>d</sup> And he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Look, they are in the dwellings<sup>e</sup> at Ramah."

<sup>23</sup>So he went there to the dwellings at Ramah. Then the Spirit of God came on him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to the dwellings at Ramah. <sup>24</sup>He also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and lay down

<sup>7</sup>Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the best of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul. <sup>8</sup>David said to Ahimelech, "Isn't there here under your control spear or sword? all the while that David was in the stronghold. <sup>5</sup>The prophet Gad said to David, “Do not stay in the stronghold. Depart, and go into the land of Judah.”

Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth. <sup>6</sup>Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him. <sup>7</sup>Saul said to his servants who stood about him, “Hear now, you Benjamites. Will the son of Jesse give everyone of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, <sup>8</sup>that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who discloses to me when my son makes a covenant<sup>a</sup> with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me, or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?”

<sup>9</sup>Then Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, answered and said, “I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. <sup>10</sup>He inquired of God<sup>b</sup> for him, gave him food, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

He answered, “Here I am, my lord.”

<sup>13</sup>Saul said to him, “Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?”

<sup>14</sup>Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, “Who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king’s son-in-law, and is taken into your council, and is honorable in your house? <sup>15</sup>Have I today begun to inquire of God for him? Be it far from me. Do not let the king impute anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father; for your servant knows nothing of all this, less or more.”

<sup>16</sup>The king said, “You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you, and all your father’s house.” <sup>17</sup>The king said to the guard who stood about him, “Turn, and kill the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me.” But the servants of the king wouldn’t put forth their hand to fall on the priests of the

Doeg the Edomite turned, and he attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five people who wore a linen ephod. <sup>19</sup>He struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing babies, and cattle and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword. <sup>20</sup>One of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. <sup>21</sup>Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the LORD’s priests. <sup>22</sup>David said to Abiathar, “I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible<sup>a</sup> for all the lives of your father’s house. <sup>23</sup>Stay with me, do not be afraid; for he who seeks my life seeks your life. For with me you shall be in safeguard.”

The LORD said to David, “Go strike the Philistines, and save Keilah.”

<sup>3</sup>David’s men said to him, “Look, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?”

<sup>4</sup>Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. The LORD answered him, and said, “Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand.”

<sup>5</sup>David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their livestock, and killed them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. <sup>6</sup>It happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David, that he went down with David to Keilah,<sup>b</sup> having an ephod in his hand.

<sup>7</sup>Now it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. So Saul said, “God has sold<sup>c</sup> him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering into a town that has gates and bars.” <sup>8</sup>Then Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. <sup>9</sup>David knew

24 It happened, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, “Look, David is in the wilderness of En Gedi.” <sup>2</sup>Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the rocks of the wild goats. <sup>3</sup>He came to the sheep pens by the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were abiding in the innermost parts of the cave. <sup>4</sup>The men of David said to him, “Look, the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘Look, I will deliver your enemy<sup>b</sup> into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.’” Then David arose, and cut off an edge of Saul’s robe secretly. <sup>5</sup>It happened afterward, that David’s heart struck him, because he had cut off an edge of Saul’s robe.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>He said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD’s anointed, to put forth my hand against him, since he is the LORD’s anointed.” <sup>7</sup>So David restrained his men with these words and did not allow them to rise against Saul. And Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. <sup>8</sup>Afterward David also arose and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, saying, “My lord the king.”

When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and showed respect. <sup>9</sup>David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to men’s words, saying, ‘Look, David seeks your harm?’

And the woman was intelligent and beautiful, but the man was harsh and evil in his dealings; and the man<sup>a</sup> was a Calebite. <sup>4</sup>David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. <sup>5</sup>David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>6</sup>You shall tell him, 'Long life to you. <sup>35</sup>So David received of her hand that which she had brought him; and he said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. Look, I have listened to your voice, and have granted your request.”

<sup>36</sup>Abigail came to Nabal; and look, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal’s heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. Therefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. <sup>37</sup>It happened in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died

Ziph. <sup>3</sup>Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert, near the road. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had certainly come. <sup>5</sup>David arose, and came to the place where Saul had camped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army: and Saul lay within the place of the wagons, and the people were camped around him. <sup>6</sup>Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?"

Abishai said, "I will go down with you." <sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, look, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay around him. <sup>8</sup>Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered up your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore please let me strike him with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time."

<sup>9</sup>David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can put forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?" <sup>10</sup>David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish. <sup>11</sup>The LORD forbid that I should put forth my hand against the LORD's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go."

<sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they went away: and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen on them. <sup>13</sup>Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them; <sup>14</sup>and David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Do you not answer, Abner?"

Then Abner answered, "Who are you who cries to the king?"

<sup>15</sup>David said to Abner, "Aren't you a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord, the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord. <sup>16</sup>This thing isn't good that you have done. As the LORD lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD's anointed. Now see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was at his head."

David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."<sup>18</sup> He said, "Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?"<sup>19</sup> Now therefore, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is so that God<sup>a</sup> has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, they are cursed before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day that I shouldn't cling to the LORD's inheritance, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'<sup>20</sup> Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

<sup>21</sup>Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Look, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

wouldn't put forth my hand against the LORD's anointed.<sup>24</sup> Look, as your life was respected this day in my eyes, so let my life be respected in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all oppression."

<sup>25</sup>Then Saul said to David, "You are blessed, my son David. You shall both do mightily, and shall surely prevail." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 David said in his heart, "I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. <sup>a</sup>27:10 So DSS LXX. MT lacks "whom"

28 It happened in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. Achish said to David, "Know assuredly that you shall go out with me in the army, you and your men."

Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you my bodyguard for ever."

<sup>3</sup>Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. Saul had removed the mediums and spiritists from the land. <sup>4</sup>The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and camped in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they camped in Gilboa. <sup>5</sup>When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. <sup>6</sup>When Saul inquired of the LORD, The LORD did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. <sup>7</sup>Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her."

His servants said to him, "Look, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at Endor."

<sup>8</sup>Saul disguised himself, and put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Please divine for me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up whomever I shall name to you."

<sup>9</sup>The woman said to him, "Look, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and spiritists out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?"

<sup>10</sup>Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall happen to you for this thing."

<sup>11</sup>Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up to you?"

He said, "Bring Samuel up for me."

<sup>12</sup>When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul."

<sup>13</sup>The king said to her, "Do not be afraid. For what do you see?"

The woman said to Saul, "I see a god coming up out of the earth."

<sup>14</sup>He said to her, "What does he look like?"

She said, "An old man comes up. He is covered with a robe." Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and showed respect.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up?"

Saul answered, "I am very distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do."

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said, "Why then do you ask of me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary? <sup>17</sup>The LORD has done to you<sup>a</sup> as he spoke by me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to David. <sup>18</sup>Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, and did not execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day. <sup>19</sup>Moreover the LORD will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will deliver the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul fell immediately his full length on the earth, and was terrified, because of the words of Samuel. There was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. <sup>21</sup>The woman came to Saul, and saw that he was very troubled, and said to him, “Look, your handmaid has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. <sup>22</sup>Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.”

<sup>23</sup>But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, pressed him;<sup>a</sup> and he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup>The woman had a fattened calf in the house. She hurried and killed it; and she took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread of it. <sup>25</sup>She brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they ate. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

29 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites camped by the spring which is in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup>The lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish. <sup>3</sup>Then the leaders of the Philistines said,

“What about these Hebrews?” And Achish said to the leaders of the Philistines, “Isn’t this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault in him since he defected<sup>b</sup> to me<sup>c</sup> until this day?”

<sup>4</sup>But the leaders of the Philistines were angry with him; and the leaders of the Philistines said to him, “Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For with what should this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Should it not be with the heads of these men? <sup>5</sup>Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?’”

<sup>6</sup>Then Achish called David, and said to him, “As the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the lords do not favor you. <sup>7</sup>Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the lords of the Philistines.”

<sup>8</sup>David said to Achish, “But what have I done? What have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?”

<sup>9</sup>Achish answered David, “I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God. Nevertheless the leaders of the Philistines have said, ‘He shall not go up with us to the battle.’<sup>10</sup>Therefore now rise up early in the morning, you<sup>a</sup> and the servants of your lord who have come with you, and go to the place which I allotted to you. As for evil remarks,<sup>b</sup> take none to heart; for you are good in my sight.<sup>c</sup> And as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart.”

<sup>11</sup>So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. The Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 It happened, when David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negev, and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire,<sup>2</sup> and had taken captive the women who were in it, both small and great. They did not kill any, but carried them off, and went their way.<sup>3</sup>When David and his men came to the city, look, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captive.<sup>4</sup>Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.<sup>5</sup>David’s two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.<sup>6</sup>David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.<sup>7</sup>David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, “Please bring me here the ephod.”

Abiathar brought the ephod to David.<sup>8</sup>David inquired of the LORD, saying, “If I pursue after this troop, shall I overtake them?”

He answered him, “Pursue; for you shall surely overtake them, and shall without fail recover all.”

<sup>9</sup>So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the Wadi Besor, where those who were left behind stayed.<sup>10</sup>But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they couldn’t cross the Wadi Besor.<sup>11</sup>They found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink. <sup>12</sup>They gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup>David asked him, "To whom do you belong? Where are you from?"

He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago<sup>a</sup> I fell sick. <sup>14</sup>We made a raid on<sup>b</sup> the Negev of the Kerethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

<sup>15</sup>David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this troop?"

He said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop." And he swore to him.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>16</sup>When he had brought him down, look, they<sup>d</sup> were spread around over all the ground, eating, drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup>David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day and he put them to death.<sup>e</sup> Not a man of them escaped from there, except four hundred young men, who rode on camels and fled. <sup>18</sup>David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup>There was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor anything that they had taken to them. David brought back all. <sup>20</sup>David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other livestock, and said, "This is David's spoil."

<sup>21</sup>David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom he<sup>f</sup> also had made to stay at the Wadi Besor; and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him. When David came near to the people, he greeted them. <sup>22</sup>Then all the wicked men and base fellows, of those who went with David, answered and said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that he may lead them away, and depart."

<sup>23</sup>Then David said, “You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which the LORD has given to us, who has preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand. <sup>24</sup>Who will listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who taries by the baggage: they shall share alike.” <sup>25</sup>It was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. <sup>26</sup>When David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, “Look, a present for you o the spoil of the enemies of the LORD.” <sup>27</sup>He sent it to those who were in Bethel, and to those who were in Ramoth of the Negev, and to those who were in Jattir, <sup>28</sup>and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup>and to those who were in Racal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were in the cities of the Kenites, <sup>30</sup>and to those who were in Hormah, and to those who were in Borashan, and to those who were in Athach, <sup>31</sup>and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men used to stay.

31 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines followed hard on Saul and on his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup>The battle went hard against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was greatly distressed by reason of the archers. <sup>4</sup>Then Saul said to his armor bearer, “Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me.” But his armor bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died with him. <sup>6</sup>So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor bearer, and all his men, that same day together. <sup>7</sup>When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>8</sup>It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>They cut off his head, and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to the house of their idols, and to the people. <sup>10</sup>They put his armor in the house of the Ashtaroth; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan. <sup>11</sup>When the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard concerning him that which the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh, and burnt them there. <sup>13</sup>They took their bones, and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

The Second Book of Samuel

1 It happened after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag; <sup>2</sup>it happened on the third day, that look, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn, and earth on his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and showed respect. <sup>3</sup>David said to him, “Where do you come from?”

He said to him, “I have escaped out of the camp of Israel.” <sup>4</sup>David said to him, “How did it go? Please tell me.”

He answered, “The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.”

<sup>5</sup>David said to the young man who told him, “How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?”

<sup>6</sup>The young man who told him said, “As I happened by chance on Mount Gilboa, look, Saul was leaning on his spear; and look, the chariots and the horsemen followed hard after him. <sup>7</sup>When he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. I answered, ‘Here I am.’ <sup>8</sup>He said to me, ‘Who are you?’ I<sup>a</sup> answered him, ‘I am an Amalekite.’ <sup>9</sup>He said to me, ‘Please stand beside me, and kill me; for anguish has taken hold of me, because my life is yet whole in me.’ <sup>10</sup>So I stood beside him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord.”

<sup>11</sup>Then David took hold on his clothes, and tore them; and likewise all the men who were with him. <sup>12</sup>They mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. <sup>13</sup>David said to the young man who told him, “Where are you from?”

He answered, “I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite.”

<sup>14</sup>David said to him, “How were you not afraid to put forth

your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"<sup>15</sup> David called one of the young men, and said, "Go near, and fall on him." He struck him, so that he died.<sup>16</sup> David said to him, "Your blood be on your head; for your mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have slain the LORD's anointed.'"

How the mighty have fallen.

Do not publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

let there be no dew nor rain on you, nor fields of offerings.

For there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away.

The shield of Saul was not anointed with oil.

<sup>22</sup>From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, Jonathan's bow did not turn back.

Saul's sword did not return empty.

Lovely<sup>a</sup> in their life, and in their death they were not separated. They were swifter than eagles. They were stronger than lions.

You have been very pleasant to me.

Your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

2 It happened after this, that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?"

The LORD said to him, "Go up."

David said, "Where shall I go up?"

He said, "To Hebron."

Mahanaim; <sup>9</sup>and he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites,<sup>b</sup> and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. <sup>10</sup>Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup>The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months. <sup>12</sup>Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. <sup>14</sup>Abner said to Joab, "Please let the young men arise and play before us." Joab said, "Let them arise."

<sup>15</sup>Then they arose and went over by number: twelve of the sons<sup>c</sup> of Benjamin of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. <sup>16</sup>They each caught his opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: therefore that place was called Helkath Hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>The battle was very severe that day: and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David. <sup>18</sup>The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild gazelle. <sup>19</sup>Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he did not turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. <sup>20</sup>Then Abner looked behind him, and said, "Is it you, Asahel?"

He answered, "It is I."

<sup>21</sup>Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and grab one of the young men, and take his armor." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. <sup>22</sup>Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother?" <sup>23</sup>However he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner with the back end of the spear struck him in the body, so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place. It happened, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still. <sup>24</sup>But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they had come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. <sup>25</sup>The sons of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of a hill. <sup>26</sup>Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it be then, before you ask the people to return from following their brothers?"

<sup>27</sup>Joab said, "As the LORD<sup>a</sup> lives, if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone away, and not each followed his brother." <sup>28</sup>So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. <sup>29</sup>Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim. <sup>30</sup>Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. <sup>31</sup>But the servants of David had struck of the children of<sup>b</sup> Benjamin, from<sup>c</sup> the men of Abner, three hundred and sixty men who died. <sup>32</sup>They took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and his men went all night, and the day broke on them at Hebron.

These were born to David in Hebron. <sup>6</sup>It happened, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong in the house of Saul. <sup>7</sup>Now Saul had a concubine, named<sup>c</sup> Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth<sup>d</sup> said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?" <sup>8</sup>Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah<sup>e</sup>? Until today, is it for myself that I have been doing all these things,<sup>f</sup> showing loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David? And yet you charge me this day with a fault concerning this woman. <sup>9</sup>God do so to Abner, and more also, if, as the LORD has sworn to David, I do not do even so to him; <sup>10</sup>to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba."

<sup>11</sup>And Ishbosheth<sup>g</sup> could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him. <sup>12</sup>Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, "Whose is the land?" and saying, "Make your alliance with me, and look, my hand shall be with you, to bring all Israel around to you."

<sup>13</sup>He said, "Good; I will make a treaty with you; but one thing I require of you. That is, you shall not see my face, unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast. <sup>21</sup>Abner said to David, “I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires.” David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. <sup>23</sup>When Joab and all the army who was with him had come, they told Joab, saying, “Abner the son of Ner came to David,<sup>d</sup> and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace.” <sup>24</sup>Then Joab came to the king, and said, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why is it that you have sent him away, so that he is gone? <sup>25</sup>You know the evil ways<sup>e</sup> of Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do.”

<sup>26</sup>When Joab had come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know it. <sup>27</sup>When Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him quietly, and struck him there<sup>f</sup> in the abdomen, so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. <sup>28</sup>Afterward, when David heard it, he said, “I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD now<sup>g</sup> and forever of the blood of Abner

Let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread." <sup>30</sup>So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. <sup>31</sup>David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, Tear your clothes, and clothe yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. King David followed the bier. <sup>32</sup>They buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. <sup>33</sup>The king lamented for Abner, and said, "Should Abner die as a fool dies? <sup>34</sup>Your hands were not bound in chains,<sup>b</sup> your feet were not put into fetters. As a man falls before the ruthless, so you fell." All the people wept again over him.

<sup>35</sup>All the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or anything else, until the sun goes down." <sup>36</sup>All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatever the king did pleased all the people. <sup>37</sup>So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner

May the LORD reward the evildoer according to his wickedness."

<sup>9</sup>David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity,<sup>10</sup> when someone told me, ‘Look, Saul is dead,’ thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him, and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news. <sup>11</sup>How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?” <sup>12</sup>David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

5 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron,<sup>e</sup> saying, “Look, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. All that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. <sup>13</sup>So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem; for he ate continually at the king's table. He was lame in both his feet.

10 It happened after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup>David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by his servants to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

<sup>3</sup>But the leaders of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Hasn't David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?" <sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup>When they told it to David, he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

<sup>6</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that they were become odious to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah with one thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand men. <sup>7</sup>When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>8</sup>The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate: and the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. <sup>9</sup>Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: <sup>10</sup>The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and he put them in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>11</sup>He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. <sup>12</sup>Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God; and the LORD do that which seems good to him." <sup>13</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together. <sup>16</sup>Hadadezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. <sup>17</sup>It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. <sup>18</sup>The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians seven hundred charioteers, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their army, so that he died there. <sup>19</sup>When all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

after the woman. One said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

<sup>4</sup>David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house. <sup>5</sup>The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

<sup>6</sup>David sent to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup>When Uriah had come to him, David asked of him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war was going. And he said, "Well."<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." Uriah departed out of the king's house, and a gift from the king was sent after him. <sup>9</sup>But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. <sup>10</sup>When they had told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

<sup>11</sup>Uriah said to David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah, are staying in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are camped in the open field. Shall I then go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.”

<sup>12</sup>David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day, and the next day. <sup>13</sup>When David had called him, he ate and drink before him; and he made him drunk. At evening, he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but did not go down to his house. <sup>14</sup>It happened in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup>He wrote in the letter, saying, “Send Uriah to the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck, and die.”

<sup>16</sup>It happened, when Joab kept watch on the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were. <sup>17</sup>The men of the city went out, and fought with Joab. Some of the people fell, even of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also. <sup>18</sup>Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; <sup>19</sup>and he commanded the messenger, saying, “When you have finished telling all the things concerning the war to the king, <sup>20</sup>it shall be that, if the king’s wrath arise, and he asks you, ‘Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall. <sup>21</sup>Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth?<sup>a</sup> Did a woman not cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?’ Then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.’”

<sup>22</sup>And the messenger of Joab went to the king in Jerusalem<sup>b</sup> and came and reported to David all that Joab had told him. <sup>23</sup>The messenger said to David, “The men prevailed against us, and came out to us into the field, and we were on them even to the entrance of the gate. <sup>24</sup>And the archers shot at your servants from off the wall; and some of the king’s servants are dead.<sup>c</sup> And your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.”

<sup>25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall tell Joab, ‘Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it.’ Encourage him.”

<sup>26</sup>When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband. <sup>27</sup>When the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

12 The LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, “There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich man had very many flocks and herds, <sup>3</sup>but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and raised. It grew up together with him, and with his children. It ate of his own food, drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him like a daughter. <sup>4</sup>A traveler came to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but took the poor man’s lamb, and dressed it for the man who had come to him.”

<sup>5</sup>David’s anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, “As the LORD lives, the man who has done this is worthy to die. <sup>6</sup>He shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.”

<sup>7</sup>Nathan said to David, “You are the man. This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup>I gave you your master’s house, and your master’s wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would have added to you many more such things. <sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do that which is evil in his sight? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.’

<sup>11</sup>“This is what the LORD says: ‘Look, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. <sup>12</sup>For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.’”

Nathan said to David, “The LORD also has put away your sin. You will not die. <sup>14</sup>However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the LORD’s enemies to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die.” <sup>15</sup>Nathan departed to his house.

The LORD struck the child that Uriah’s wife bore to David, and it was very sick. <sup>16</sup>David therefore begged God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night on the ground. <sup>17</sup>The elders of his house arose beside him, to raise him up from the ground: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. <sup>18</sup>It happened on the seventh day, that the child died. The servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, “Look, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice. How will he then harm himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?”

<sup>19</sup>But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?”

They said, “He is dead.”

<sup>20</sup>Then David arose from the ground, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing; and he came into the house of the LORD, and worshiped. Then he went to his own house, and he asked for bread to eat.<sup>a</sup> And they set bread before him, and he ate. <sup>21</sup>Then his servants said to him, “What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept and kept vigil<sup>b</sup> for the child while he was alive; but when the child was dead, you rose up and ate bread.”

<sup>22</sup>He said, “While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who knows whether the LORD will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?’ <sup>23</sup>But now he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me.”

<sup>29</sup>David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. <sup>30</sup>He took the crown of their king from off his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and in it were precious stones; and it was set on David's head. He brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount. <sup>31</sup>He brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, and iron picks, and iron axes, and to labor at the brick kiln. And he did the same to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

13 It happened after this, that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. <sup>2</sup>Amnon was so troubled that he fell sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her. <sup>3</sup>But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very subtle man. <sup>4</sup>He said to him, "Why, son of the king, are you so sad from day to day? Won't you tell me?"

Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

<sup>5</sup>Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, tell him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.'"

<sup>6</sup>So Amnon lay down and faked being sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand." <sup>7</sup>Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him." <sup>8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. She took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. <sup>9</sup>She took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Have all men leave me." Every man went out from him. <sup>10</sup>Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the room, that I may eat from your hand." Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. <sup>11</sup>When she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

<sup>12</sup>She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me. For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Do not do this folly. <sup>13</sup>I, where would I carry my shame? And as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

<sup>14</sup>However he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her. <sup>15</sup>Then Amnon hated her with exceeding great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. Amnon said to her, “Arise, be gone.”

<sup>16</sup>She said to him, “No, my brother,<sup>a</sup> for this wrong in sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me.” But he would not listen to her.

<sup>17</sup>Then he called his servant who ministered to him, and said, “Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.” <sup>18</sup>She had a garment of various colors on her; for with such robes were the king’s daughters who were virgins dressed. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. <sup>19</sup>Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her garment of various colors that was on her; and she laid her hand on her head, and went her way, crying aloud as she went. <sup>20</sup>Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother. Do not take this thing to heart.”

So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom’s house.

<sup>21</sup>But when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry. But he did not inflict pain on the spirit of his son Amnon, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn.<sup>b</sup> <sup>22</sup>Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. <sup>23</sup>It happened after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king’s sons. <sup>24</sup>Absalom came to the king, and said, “See now, your servant has sheepshearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant.”

<sup>25</sup>The king said to Absalom, “No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you.” He pressed him; however he would not go, but blessed him. <sup>26</sup>Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.”

The king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

<sup>27</sup>But Absalom pressed him, and he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him. And Absalom prepared a feast like a king’s feast.<sup>c</sup> <sup>28</sup>And Absalom commanded his servants, saying, “Mark now, when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine; and when I tell

<sup>29</sup>The servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons arose, and every man got up on his mule, and fled. <sup>30</sup>It happened, while they were in the way, that the news came to David, saying, “Absalom has slain all the king’s sons, and there is not one of them left.”

She answered, “Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead. <sup>6</sup>Your handmaid had two sons, and they both fought together in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed him. <sup>7</sup>Look, the whole family has risen against your handmaid, and they say, ‘Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and so destroy the heir also.’ Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and would leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>Then she said, “Please let the king remember the LORD your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son.”

He said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the woman said, “Please let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king.”

He said, “Say on.”

<sup>13</sup>The woman said, “Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring home again his banished one. <sup>14</sup>For we must die, and are as water split on the ground, which can’t be gathered up again; neither does God take away life, but devises means, that he who is banished not be an outcast from him. <sup>15</sup>Now therefore seeing that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and your handmaid said, ‘I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.’ <sup>16</sup>For the

May the LORD, your God, be with you.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then the king answered the woman, “Please do not hide anything from me that I ask you.”

The woman said, “Let my lord the king now speak.”

<sup>19</sup>The king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?”

The woman answered, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab, he urged me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid; <sup>20</sup>to change the face of the matter has your servant Joab done this thing. My lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know that which is<sup>b</sup> on earth.”

Go therefore, bring the young man Absalom back.”

<sup>22</sup>Joab fell to the ground on his face, showed respect, and blessed the king. Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant.” <sup>23</sup>So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>The king said, “Let him return to his own house, but let him not see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house, and did not see the king’s face. <sup>25</sup>Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. <sup>26</sup>When he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year’s end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it); he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, after the king’s weight. <sup>27</sup>To Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar. She was a beautiful woman. <sup>28</sup>Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem; and he did not see the king’s face. <sup>29</sup>Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him: and he sent again a second time, but he would not come. <sup>30</sup>Therefore he said to his servants, “Look, Joab’s field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire.” Absalom’s servants set the field on fire. And the servants of Joab came to him with their clothes rent, and they said to him, “The servants of Absalom have set the field on fire.<sup>a</sup>”

<sup>31</sup>Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

<sup>32</sup>Absalom answered Joab, “Look, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king’s face; and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me.”’”

<sup>33</sup>So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

15 And after this Absalom began to<sup>b</sup> furnish himself with a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>2</sup>Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate. It was so, that when any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him, and said, “What city are you from?”

He said, “Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>Absalom said to him, “Look, your matters are good and right; but there is no man deputized by the king to hear you.” <sup>4</sup>Absalom said moreover, “Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice.” <sup>5</sup>It was so, that when any man came near to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. <sup>6</sup>Absalom did this sort of thing to all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. <sup>7</sup>It happened at the end of four<sup>c</sup> years, that Absalom said to the king, “Please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron. <sup>8</sup>For your servant vowed a vow while I stayed at Geshur in Syria, saying, ‘If the LORD shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.’”

went with Absalom out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they did not know anything. <sup>12</sup>And he sent and invited<sup>a</sup> Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom. <sup>13</sup>A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom."

<sup>14</sup>David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom. Make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

Go back, and take your brothers with you, and may the LORD show you<sup>b</sup> kindness and truth."

<sup>21</sup>Ittai answered the king, and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, even there also will your servant be."

<sup>22</sup>David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. <sup>23</sup>And all the land wept aloud as all the people went by. And the king also passed over the Kidron Valley, and all the people passed by on the Olive road<sup>c</sup> into the wilderness. <sup>24</sup>Look, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people finished passing out of the city.

Let him do to me as seems good to him." <sup>27</sup>The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. <sup>28</sup>Look, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me." <sup>29</sup>Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they stayed there. <sup>30</sup>David went up by the Ascent of the Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. <sup>31</sup>Someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom."

David said, "LORD, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."

<sup>32</sup>It happened that when David had come to the top, where God was worshiped, look, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn, and earth on his head. <sup>33</sup>David said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me; <sup>34</sup>but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom,

'Your brothers have left, O king, after your father left, and now<sup>a</sup> I will be your servant, O king. As I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,' then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel. <sup>35</sup>Do you not have Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? Therefore it shall be, that whatever thing you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup>Look, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send to me everything that you shall hear."

Ziba said, “I do obeisance. Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, O king.”

<sup>5</sup>When king David came to Bahurim, look, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and cursed still as he came. <sup>6</sup>He cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. <sup>7</sup>Shimei said when he cursed, “Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, and base fellow. <sup>8</sup>The LORD has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. The LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. Look, you are caught by your own mischief, because you are a man of blood.”

<sup>9</sup>Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head.” <sup>10</sup>The king said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because the LORD has said to him, ‘Curse David;’ who then shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’”

<sup>11</sup>David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, “Look, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life. How much more this Benjamite, now? Leave him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has invited him. <sup>12</sup>It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction<sup>a</sup> and return good to me for his cursing today.” <sup>13</sup>So David and his men went by the way, and Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him, and cursed as he went, threw stones at him, and threw dust. <sup>14</sup>The king, and all the people who were with him, arrived weary at the Jordan,<sup>b</sup> and he refreshed himself there. <sup>15</sup>Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. <sup>16</sup>It happened, when Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, had come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king. Shouldn’t I serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father’s presence, so will I be in your presence.”

<sup>21</sup>Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father’s concubines, that he has left to keep the house. Then all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong.”

<sup>22</sup>So they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house; and Absalom went in to his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel. <sup>23</sup>The counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Let me now choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight. <sup>2</sup>I will come on him while he is weary and exhausted, and will make him afraid. All the people who are with him shall flee. I will strike the king only;

<sup>8</sup>Hushai said moreover, “You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are fierce in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. <sup>9</sup>Look, he is now hidden in some pit, or in some other place. It will happen, when some of them have fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, ‘There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.’ <sup>10</sup>Even he who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men.

<sup>14</sup>Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil on Absalom. <sup>15</sup>Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel that way; and I have counseled this way. <sup>16</sup>Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, 'Do not lodge this night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him.'"

<sup>32</sup>Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even eighty years old: and he had provided the king with sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. <sup>33</sup>The king said to Barzillai, “Come over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem.”

<sup>34</sup>Barzillai said to the king, “How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? <sup>35</sup>I am this day eighty years old. Can I discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be yet a burden to my lord the king? <sup>36</sup>Your servant would but just go over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward? <sup>37</sup>Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But look, your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king, and do to him what shall seem good to you.”

<sup>38</sup>The king answered, “Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you. Whatever you require of me, that I will do for you.”

<sup>39</sup>All the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over. Then the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place. <sup>40</sup>So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him. All the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel. <sup>41</sup>Look, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, “Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king, and his household, over the Jordan, and all David’s men with him?”

<sup>42</sup>All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “Because the king is a close relative to us. Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any gift?"

<sup>43</sup>The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more claim to David than you. Why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?" The words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 There happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew the trumpet, and said, "We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, Israel."

<sup>5</sup>So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together; but he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. <sup>6</sup>David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and escape out of our sight."

<sup>7</sup>There went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>8</sup>When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was clothed in his apparel of war that he had put on, and on it was a sash with a sword fastened on his waist in its sheath; and as he went forth it fell out. <sup>9</sup>Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. <sup>10</sup>But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand. So he struck him with it in the body, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and did not strike him again; and he died. Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>11</sup>There stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, "He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab."

<sup>12</sup>Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried

Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. <sup>13</sup>When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>14</sup>He went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth Maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. <sup>15</sup>They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. <sup>16</sup>Then a wise woman cried out of the city, "Hear, hear. Please say to Joab, 'Come near here, that I may speak with you.'" <sup>17</sup>He came near to her; and the woman said, "Are you Joab?"

He answered, "I am."

Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your handmaid."

He answered, "I do hear."

<sup>18</sup>Then she spoke, saying, "They were used to say in old times, 'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel;' and so they settled it. <sup>19</sup>I am among those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

<sup>20</sup>Joab answered, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. <sup>21</sup>The matter is not so. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city."

The woman said to Joab, "Look, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall."

<sup>22</sup>Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. He blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. <sup>23</sup>Now Joab was over all the army of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites; <sup>24</sup>and Adoram was over the men subject to forced labor; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder; <sup>25</sup>and Sheva was scribe; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>26</sup>and also Ira the Jairite was chief minister to David.

21 There was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put to death the Gibeonites."

the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the sons of Israel had sworn to them: and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah); <sup>3</sup>and David said to the Gibeonites, “What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?”

<sup>4</sup>The Gibeonites said to him, “It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul, or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel.”

He said, “Whatever you say, that will I do for you.”

<sup>5</sup>They said to the king, “The man who consumed us, and who devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel, <sup>6</sup>let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD.”

The king said, “I will give them.”

<sup>7</sup>But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD’s oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. <sup>8</sup>But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth,<sup>a</sup> and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite. <sup>9</sup>He delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mountain before the LORD, and all seven of them fell together. They were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of barley harvest. <sup>10</sup>Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured on them from the sky. She allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night. <sup>11</sup>It was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. <sup>12</sup>David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa; <sup>13</sup>and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son: and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged. <sup>14</sup>They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. After that

<sup>a</sup>21:8 This Mephibosheth, son of Saul and Rizpah, is not the Mephibosheth (aka Meribaal) named elsewhere, who is the grandson of Saul through Jonathan

God was entreated for the land.

<sup>18</sup>It came to pass after this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, a descendant of the Raphah. <sup>19</sup>There was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jair<sup>b</sup> the Bethlehemite killed [the brother of]<sup>c</sup> Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam. <sup>20</sup>There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. <sup>21</sup>When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David’s brother, killed him. <sup>22</sup>These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

22 David spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul: <sup>2</sup>and he said,

“The LORD is my Rock, my fortress,
 and my deliverer, even mine;
<sup>3</sup>God, my Rock, in him I will take refuge;
 my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my
 refuge.
 My savior, you save me
 from violence.
<sup>4</sup>I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised:
 So shall I be saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup>For the waves of death surrounded me.
 The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
<sup>6</sup>The cords of Sheol<sup>d</sup> were around me.
 The snares of death caught me.

<sup>7</sup>In my distress I called on the LORD.

Yes, I called to my God.
He heard my voice out of his temple.

My cry came into his ears.

<sup>8</sup>Then the earth shook and trembled.

The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken,

because he was angry.

<sup>9</sup>Smoke went up out of his nostrils.
Fire out of his mouth
devoured.

Coals were kindled by it.

<sup>10</sup>He bowed the heavens also, and came down.

Thick darkness was under his feet.

<sup>11</sup>He rode on a cherub, and flew;
and he glided<sup>a</sup> on the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup>He made darkness pavilions around himself:
gathering of waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

<sup>13</sup>At the brightness before him,
coals of fire were kindled.

heaven.

The Most High uttered his voice.

<sup>15</sup>He sent out arrows, and scattered them;

lightning, and confused
them.

<sup>16</sup>Then the channels of the sea appeared.

The foundations of the world were laid bare by the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

<sup>17</sup>He sent from on high and he took me.

He drew me out of many waters.

<sup>18</sup>He delivered me from my strong enemy,

from those who hated me,
for they were too mighty for me.

<sup>19</sup>They came on me in the day of my calamity,
but the LORD was my support.

<sup>20</sup>He also brought me out into a large place.

He delivered me, because he delighted in me.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD rewarded me
according to my righteousness.

He rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands.

<sup>22</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD,

and have not wickedly departed from my God.

<sup>23</sup>For all his ordinances were before me.

As for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

<sup>24</sup>I was also perfect toward him.
I kept myself from my iniquity.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore the LORD has rewarded me
according to my
righteousness,

According to my cleanness
in his eyesight.

the sweet psalmist of Israel:

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of the mighty men whom David had:
Josheb Basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the officers.<sup>a</sup> He wielded his spear<sup>b</sup> against eight hundred slain at one time. <sup>9</sup>After him was Eleazar son of Dodo,<sup>c</sup> the son of Ahohi, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel had retreated. <sup>10</sup>He arose, and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and the LORD worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take spoil. <sup>11</sup>After him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. The Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where there was a plot of ground

full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines. <sup>12</sup>But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD worked a great victory. <sup>13</sup>Three of the thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was camped in the valley of Rephaim.
<sup>14</sup>David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
<sup>15</sup>David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate."

<sup>16</sup>The three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but he would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>He said, "Be it far from me, LORD, that I should do this.
Isn't it the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?"
Therefore he would not drink it.
The three mighty men did these things. <sup>18</sup>Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the three. He lifted up his spear

Israel. <sup>5</sup>They passed over the Jordan, and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and to Jazer: <sup>6</sup>then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi;<sup>a</sup> and they came to Dan Jaan,<sup>b</sup> and around to Sidon, <sup>7</sup>and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beersheba. <sup>8</sup>So when they had gone back and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup>Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men. <sup>10</sup>David's heart struck him after that he had numbered the people. David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. But now, LORD, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

The First Book of Kings

1 Now king David was old and advanced in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he couldn't keep warm. <sup>2</sup>Therefore his servants said to him, "Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin. And let her attend the king, and care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm." <sup>3</sup>So they sought for a beautiful young lady throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup>The young lady was very beautiful; and she became the king's attendant and served him; but the king did not know her intimately. <sup>5</sup>Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." So he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>6</sup>His father had never scolded him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" And he was also a very handsome man; and he was born after Absalom. <sup>7</sup>And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest. And they followed Adonijah and helped him. <sup>8</sup>But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. <sup>9</sup>And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is near En Rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants: <sup>10</sup>but He did not invite Nathan the prophet, or Benaiah, or the mighty men, or his brother Solomon. <sup>11</sup>Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Haven't you heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord doesn't know it?" <sup>12</sup>Now therefore come, please let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life, and the life of your son Solomon. <sup>13</sup>Go in to king David, and tell him, 'Did you not, my lord, king, swear to your handmaid, saying, "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne"?' Why then does Adonijah reign?" <sup>14</sup>And<sup>a</sup> look, while you are still there speaking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

<sup>30</sup>most certainly as I vowed to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, ‘Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place;’ so I certainly will do this day.”

<sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, paying homage to the king, and said, “Let my lord king David live forever.”

<sup>32</sup>And King David said, “Summon to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” They came before the king. <sup>33</sup>The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. <sup>34</sup>And have Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel. Blow the trumpet, and say, ‘Long live king Solomon.’” <sup>35</sup>Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; for he shall be king in my place. I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah.”

<sup>36</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, “Amen. May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so. <sup>37</sup>As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.”

the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride on king David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon. <sup>39</sup>Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and anointed Solomon. They blew the trumpet; and all the people said, “Long live king Solomon.”

<sup>40</sup>All the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth split open at their sound. <sup>41</sup>Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, “Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar?”

<sup>42</sup>While he yet spoke, look, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, “Come in; for you are a worthy man, and bring good news.”

<sup>43</sup>Jonathan answered Adonijah, “Most certainly our lord king David has made Solomon king. <sup>44</sup>The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king’s mule. <sup>45</sup>Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon. They have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard. <sup>46</sup>Also, Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>47</sup>Moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, 'May your God<sup>a</sup> make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne;' and the king bowed himself on the bed. <sup>48</sup>Also thus said the king, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has given one<sup>b</sup> to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it.'"

<sup>53</sup>So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and bowed down to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

She said to him, “Say on.”<sup>17</sup> He said, “Please speak to Solomon the king (for he will not tell you ‘no’), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife.”

<sup>19</sup>Bathsheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king’s mother; and she sat on his right hand.<sup>20</sup> Then she said, “I ask one small petition of you; do not deny me.”

The king said to her, “Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you.”

<sup>22</sup>King Solomon answered his mother, “Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruah.” <sup>23</sup>Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, “God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. <sup>24</sup>Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day.”

<sup>25</sup>King Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died. <sup>26</sup>To Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted.” <sup>27</sup>So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might fulfill the word of the LORD, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

<sup>28</sup>The news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he did not turn after Absalom. Joab fled to the Tent of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup>It was told king Solomon, “Joab has fled to the Tent of the LORD, and look, he is by the altar.” And Solomon sent to Joab, saying, “What happened to you, that you have fled to the altar?” And Joab said, “Because I was afraid of you, so I fled to the LORD.” And Solomon sent to<sup>a</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, fall on him.”

<sup>30</sup>Benaiah came to the Tent of the LORD, and said to him, “Thus says the king, ‘Come forth.’” He said, “No; but I will die here.” Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, “Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.”

<sup>31</sup>The king said to him, “Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father’s house. <sup>32</sup>The LORD will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David did not know it: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup>So shall their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his descendants forever. in his own house in the wilderness.

<sup>36</sup>The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere. <sup>37</sup>For on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die: your blood shall be on your own head."

<sup>38</sup>Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

<sup>39</sup>It happened at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. They told Shimei, saying, "Look, your servants are in Gath."

<sup>40</sup>Shimei arose, and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. <sup>41</sup>It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again.

<sup>42</sup>The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not adjure you by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad any where, you shall surely die?' You said to me, 'The saying that I have heard is good.' <sup>43</sup>Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have instructed you with?" <sup>44</sup>The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to David my father. Therefore the LORD shall return your wickedness on your own head. <sup>45</sup>But king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever." <sup>46</sup>So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the City of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem all around. <sup>2</sup>Only the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days. <sup>3</sup>Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup>The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup>In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you."

<sup>6</sup>Solomon said, “You have shown to your servant David my father great loving kindness, according as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you. You have kept for him this great loving kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. <sup>7</sup>Now, LORD my God, you have made your servant king instead of David my father. I am but a little child. I do not know how to go out or come in. <sup>8</sup>Your servant is in the midst of your people which you have chosen, a great people, that can’t be numbered nor counted for multitude. <sup>9</sup>Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this your great people?”

<sup>10</sup>The speech pleased the LORD,<sup>a</sup> that Solomon had asked this thing. <sup>11</sup>God said to him, “Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; <sup>12</sup>behold, I have done according to your word. Look, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you. <sup>13</sup>I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like you, all your days. <sup>14</sup>If you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days.”

<sup>15</sup>Solomon awoke; and look, it was a dream. Then he arose<sup>b</sup> and came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD,<sup>c</sup> and offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

<sup>16</sup>Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king, and stood before him. <sup>17</sup>The one woman said, “Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house. But the other said, “It shall be neither mine nor yours. Divide it.”

5 Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David. <sup>2</sup>Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, <sup>3</sup>“You know how that David my father could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side. There is neither adversary, nor evil occurrence. <sup>5</sup>Look, I purpose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, ‘Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for my name.’ <sup>6</sup>Now therefore command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon. My servants shall be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you shall say. For you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.”

home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to forced labor. <sup>15</sup>Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains; <sup>16</sup>besides Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work. <sup>17</sup>The king commanded, and they cut out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone. <sup>18</sup>Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 It happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>The house which king Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits,<sup>a</sup> and its height thirty cubits. <sup>3</sup>The porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was its length, according to the breadth of the house. Ten cubits was its breadth before the house. <sup>4</sup>For the house he made windows of fixed lattice work. <sup>5</sup>Against the wall of the house he built stories all around, against the walls of the house all around, both of the temple and of the oracle; and he made side rooms all around. <sup>6</sup>The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around, that the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house. <sup>7</sup>The house, when it was in building, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor axe nor<sup>b</sup> any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. <sup>8</sup>The door for the lowest<sup>c</sup> side rooms was in the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. <sup>10</sup>He built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

<sup>11</sup>The word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, <sup>12</sup>“Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your

he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. <sup>24</sup>Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. <sup>25</sup>The other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. <sup>26</sup>The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. <sup>27</sup>He set the cherubim within the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. <sup>28</sup>He overlaid the cherubim with gold. <sup>29</sup>He carved all the walls of the house around with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and outside. <sup>30</sup>The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. <sup>31</sup>For the entrance of the oracle he made doors of olive wood: the lintel and door posts were a fifth part of the wall. <sup>32</sup>So he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim, and on the palm trees. <sup>33</sup>So also made he for the entrance of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall; <sup>34</sup>and two doors of fir wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. <sup>35</sup>He carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work.<sup>36</sup> He built the inner court with three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams.<sup>37</sup> In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Ziv.<sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all its parts, and according to all its fashion. So was he seven years in building it.

7 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.<sup>2</sup> For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.<sup>3</sup> It was covered with cedar above atop the beams which were on the pillars, and the pillars numbered<sup>a</sup> forty-five; fifteen in a row.<sup>4</sup> There were beams in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks.<sup>5</sup> All the doors and posts were made square with beams: and window was over against window in three ranks.<sup>6</sup> He made the porch of pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them.<sup>7</sup> He made the porch of the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to rafters.<sup>b</sup> <sup>8</sup> His house where he was to dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. He made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom Solomon had taken as wife), like this porch.<sup>9</sup> All these were of costly stones, even of cut stone, according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court.<sup>10</sup> The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.<sup>11</sup> Above were costly stones, even cut stone, according to measure, and cedar wood.<sup>12</sup> The great court around had three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams; like as the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the porch of the house.<sup>13</sup> King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.<sup>14</sup> He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in bronze. He came to king Solomon, and performed all his work.<sup>15</sup> For he cast<sup>c</sup> the two pillars of bronze, eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar; and a line of twelve cubits could encompass the one pillar, and its thickness hollowed out was four fingers; and so was<sup>a</sup> the second pillar. <sup>16</sup>He made two capitals of molten bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. <sup>17</sup>There were nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. <sup>18</sup>So he made the pillars; and there were two rows around on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars: and he did so for the other capital. <sup>19</sup>The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily work, four cubits. <sup>20</sup>And the capitals were on the two pillars, even above and close to the rounded projection which was beside the network. And there were two hundred pomegranates in rows all around on the capital, and the same around the other capital.<sup>b</sup> <sup>21</sup>He set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. <sup>22</sup>On the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.<sup>c</sup> <sup>23</sup>He made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it. <sup>24</sup>Under its brim around there were buds which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea: the buds were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>25</sup>It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>26</sup>It was a handbreadth thick: and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths. <sup>27</sup>He made the ten bases of bronze; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits its height. <sup>28</sup>The work of the bases was like this: they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges; <sup>29</sup>and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. <sup>30</sup>Every base had four bronze wheels, and axles of bronze; and the four feet of it had supports: beneath the basin were the supports molten, with wreaths at the side of each. <sup>31</sup>The mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit: and its mouth was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its mouth were engravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round.<sup>32</sup>The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.<sup>33</sup>The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their navies, were all molten.<sup>34</sup>There were four supports at the four corners of each base: its supports were of the base itself.<sup>35</sup>In the top of the base was there a round compass half a cubit high; and on the top of the base its stays and its panels were of the same.<sup>36</sup>On the plates of its stays, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths all around.<sup>37</sup>In this way, he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.<sup>38</sup>He made ten basins of bronze: one basin contained forty baths; and every basin was four cubits; and on every one of the ten bases one basin.<sup>39</sup>He set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.<sup>40</sup>Hiram made the pots,<sup>a</sup> and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he worked for king Solomon in the house of the LORD: <sup>41</sup>the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; <sup>42</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; <sup>43</sup>and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases; <sup>44</sup>and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; <sup>45</sup>and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of the LORD, were of burnished bronze.<sup>46</sup>The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.<sup>47</sup>Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the bronze could not be found out.<sup>48</sup>Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the show bread was, of gold;<sup>49</sup>and the lampstands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;<sup>50</sup>and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, of the temple, of gold.<sup>51</sup>Thus all the work that king Solomon worked in the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had

8 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the ancestral leaders of the sons of Israel, to king Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the City of David, which is Zion. <sup>2</sup>All the men of Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. <sup>3</sup>All the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. <sup>4</sup>They brought up the ark of the LORD, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; and the priests and the Levites brought them up. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>6</sup>The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>7</sup>For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>8</sup>The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside. And there they are to this day. <sup>9</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone<sup>a</sup> which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant<sup>b</sup> with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>It came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD, <sup>11</sup>so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Then Solomon said,<sup>c</sup> “The LORD has said that he would dwell in the thick cloud. <sup>13</sup>I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever.”

<sup>14</sup>The king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>15</sup>He said, “Blessed is the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David your father, and has with his hand fulfilled it, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a leader over my people Israel; but I chose Jerusalem that my

of David to her house which Solomon had built for her: then he built Millo. <sup>25</sup>Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to the LORD three times a year, burning incense with them, on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house. <sup>26</sup>King Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Sea of Su<sup>b</sup> in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup>Hiram sent in the navy his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup>They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cup bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. <sup>6</sup>She said to the king, “It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. <sup>7</sup>However I did not believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it. Because of the LORD’s everlasting love for Israel, therefore he made you king, to do justice and righteousness.” <sup>10</sup>She gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

came no such almug trees, nor were seen, to this day. <sup>13</sup>King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants. <sup>14</sup>Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>15</sup>besides that which the traders brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mixed people, and of the governors of the country. <sup>16</sup>King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to one buckler. <sup>17</sup>He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>18</sup>Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold. <sup>19</sup>There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. <sup>20</sup>Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. <sup>21</sup>All king Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold,<sup>b</sup> and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>23</sup>So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. <sup>24</sup>All the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>25</sup>They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. <sup>26</sup>Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>28</sup>The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and Que; and the king's merchants received them from Que at a price. <sup>29</sup>A chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

and for Milcom<sup>a</sup> the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>8</sup>So he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods. <sup>9</sup>The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>10</sup>and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods. But he did not obey that which the LORD commanded. <sup>11</sup>Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because this is done by you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup>Notwithstanding I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. <sup>13</sup>However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen."

he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child. <sup>18</sup>They arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him food, and gave him land. <sup>19</sup>Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. <sup>20</sup>The sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup>When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

<sup>22</sup>Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that look, you seek to go to your own country?"

He answered, "Nothing, however only let me depart."

<sup>12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, “Come to me again the third day.” <sup>13</sup>The king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, <sup>14</sup>and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, “My father made<sup>a</sup> your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. people, saying, <sup>24</sup>Thus says the LORD, “You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers, the sons of Israel. Everyone return to his house; for this thing is of me.”” So they listened to the word of the LORD, and returned and went their way, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived in it; and he went out from there, and built Penuel. <sup>26</sup>Jeroboam said in his heart, “Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. <sup>27</sup>If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.” <sup>28</sup>Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and he said to them, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look and see your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.” <sup>29</sup>He set the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. <sup>30</sup>Then this thing became a sin, for the people went before the one at Bethel and before the one<sup>a</sup> as far as Dan. <sup>31</sup>And he made houses<sup>b</sup> on high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. <sup>32</sup>Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; he did so in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. <sup>33</sup>He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and he ordained a feast for the sons of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

13 Look, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD to Beth El: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. <sup>2</sup>He cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, “Altar, altar, thus says the LORD: ‘Look, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name. On you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and they will burn men’s bones on you.’” <sup>3</sup>He gave a sign the same day, saying, “This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Look, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out.”

<sup>4</sup>It happened, when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him.” His hand, which he put out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to himself. <sup>5</sup>The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>The king answered the man of God, “Now plead for the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again.”

The man of God entreated the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

<sup>7</sup>The king said to the man of God, “Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.”

<sup>8</sup>The man of God said to the king, “Even if you gave me half of your house, I would not go in with you, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place; <sup>9</sup>for so was it commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came.’” <sup>10</sup>So he went another way, and did not return by the way that he came to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup>Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel; and one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

<sup>12</sup>Their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” Now his sons showed him<sup>a</sup> the way the man of God went, who came from Judah. <sup>13</sup>He said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it. <sup>14</sup>He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. He said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

He said, “I am.” <sup>15</sup>Then he said to him, “Come home with me, and eat bread.”

<sup>16</sup>He said, “I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place. <sup>17</sup>For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.’”

<sup>18</sup>He said to him, “I also am a prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.’” He lied to him.

<sup>19</sup>So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water. <sup>20</sup>It happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who brought him back; <sup>21</sup>and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have been disobedient to the mouth of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, <sup>22</sup>but came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, “Eat no bread, and drink no water”; your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.””

<sup>23</sup>It happened, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>24</sup>When he had gone, a lion met him by the way, and killed him. His body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the body. <sup>25</sup>Look, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. <sup>26</sup>When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who was disobedient to the mouth of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has mauled him and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke to him.” <sup>27</sup>He spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” They saddled it. <sup>28</sup>He went and found his body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body, nor mauled the donkey.

<sup>29</sup>The prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. And he came to the city of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him. <sup>30</sup>He laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother.”

<sup>31</sup>It happened, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, “When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones. <sup>32</sup>For the saying which he proclaimed by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely happen.”

<sup>33</sup>After this thing Jeroboam did not return from his evil way, but again made priests of the high places from among all the people. He consecrated anyone who wanted to be a priest<sup>a</sup> at the high places. <sup>34</sup>This thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. <sup>2</sup>Jeroboam said to his wife, “Please get up and disguise yourself, that you won’t be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam. Go to Shiloh. Look, there is Ahijah the prophet, who spoke concerning me that I should be king over this people. <sup>3</sup>Take with you ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the child.”

<sup>4</sup>Jeroboam’s wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. <sup>5</sup>The LORD said to Ahijah, “Look, the wife of Jeroboam comes to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall tell her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman.”

<sup>6</sup>It was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, “Come in, you wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another? For I am sent to you with heavy news. <sup>7</sup>Go, tell Jeroboam, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: “Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over my people Israel, <sup>8</sup>and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes, <sup>9</sup>but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made you other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back: <sup>10</sup>therefore, look, I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who urinates on a wall,<sup>a</sup> he who is shut up and he who is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it is all gone. <sup>11</sup>He who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and he who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat: for the LORD has spoken it.” <sup>12</sup>Arise therefore, and go to your house. When your feet enter into the city, the child shall die. <sup>13</sup>All Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. <sup>14</sup>Moreover the LORD will raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam. This is day. What? Even now. <sup>15</sup>For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger. <sup>16</sup>He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin.”

<sup>17</sup>Jeroboam’s wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. <sup>18</sup>All Israel buried him, and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet. <sup>19</sup>The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>The days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place. <sup>21</sup>Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>22</sup>Judah did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. <sup>23</sup>For they also built them high places, and pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree; <sup>24</sup>and there were also male shrine prostitutes in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD drove out before the sons of Israel. <sup>25</sup>It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak<sup>a</sup> king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; <sup>26</sup>and he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>27</sup>King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. <sup>28</sup>It was so, that as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. <sup>29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>30</sup>There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>31</sup>Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

15 Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup>He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup>He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless for David's sake, the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup>because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup>Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. <sup>7</sup>The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup>Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the City of David: and Asa his son reigned in his place. <sup>9</sup>In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah. <sup>10</sup>He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>11</sup>Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. <sup>12</sup>And he banished the male temple prostitutes out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. <sup>13</sup>Also Maacah his mother he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. <sup>14</sup>But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with the LORD all his days. <sup>15</sup>He brought into the house of the LORD the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. <sup>16</sup>There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>17</sup>Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>18</sup>Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>19</sup>“There is a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.”

Israel two years. <sup>26</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>27</sup>Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. <sup>28</sup>Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup>It happened that, as soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam: he did not leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; <sup>30</sup>for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger. <sup>31</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>32</sup>There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>33</sup>In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, <sup>24</sup>Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you ruler over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; <sup>3</sup>behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>The dogs will eat Baasha's descendants who die in the city; and he who dies of his in the field the birds of the sky will eat."

<sup>8</sup>In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years. <sup>9</sup>His servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah <sup>10</sup>And Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup>It happened, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha. He did not leave him a single one who urinates on a wall,<sup>a</sup> neither of his relatives, nor of his friends. <sup>12</sup>Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup>for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>14</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>15</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were camped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup>The people who were camped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king." Therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. <sup>17</sup>Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup>It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, <sup>19</sup>for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. <sup>20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he committed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>21</sup>Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. <sup>22</sup>But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Joram his brother at that time,<sup>b</sup> and Omri became king in the place of Tibni.<sup>c</sup> <sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah. <sup>24</sup>He bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria. <sup>25</sup>Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him. <sup>26</sup>For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>27</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?<sup>28</sup> So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his place.<sup>29</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.<sup>30</sup> Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.<sup>31</sup> It happened, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him.<sup>32</sup> He reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.<sup>33</sup> Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.<sup>34</sup> In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho: he laid its foundation with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the inhabitants<sup>a</sup> of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except by my word."<sup>2</sup> And the word of the LORD came to him, saying,<sup>3</sup> "Go away from here, turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Wadi Cherith, that is near the Jordan."<sup>4</sup> And it shall be that you will drink from the wadi. I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."<sup>5</sup> So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; for he went and lived by the Wadi Cherith, that is near the Jordan.<sup>6</sup> And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening. And he drank from the wadi.<sup>7</sup> And it happened after a while that the wadi dried up, because there was no rain in the land.<sup>8</sup> The word of the LORD came to him, saying,<sup>9</sup> "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there. Look, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

<sup>10</sup> So he got up and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, look, a widow was there gathering wood. And he called to her, and said, "Please bring me a little water in a pitcher, that I may drink."

<sup>11</sup> And as she was going to get it, he called to her, and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand."

<sup>12</sup> She said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have anything baked, except a handful of flour in a jar, and a little oil in a jug. Look, I am gathering a couple of sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.”

<sup>13</sup>And Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid. Go and do as you have said. But make me of it a little cake first, and bring it out to me, and afterward make some for yourself and for your son. <sup>14</sup>For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘The jar of flour shall not empty, neither shall the jug of oil be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain on the surface of the land.’”

<sup>15</sup>And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah. And she, and he, and her household, ate for a long time. <sup>16</sup>The jar of flour did not empty, neither did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Elijah. <sup>17</sup>It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick. And his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. <sup>18</sup>And she said to Elijah, “What do we have in common, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son.”

<sup>19</sup>And he said to her, “Give me your son.” And he took him out of her lap and carried him up into the room where he stayed, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup>He cried to the LORD, and said, “LORD my God, have you also brought disaster on the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?”

<sup>21</sup>And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called out to the LORD, and said, “LORD my God, please let this child’s soul come into him again.”

<sup>22</sup>The LORD listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. <sup>23</sup>And Elijah took the child and brought him down out of the room into the house and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, “See, your son lives.”

<sup>24</sup>And the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth.”

18 And it happened after many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, “Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.”

<sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. And the famine was severe in Samaria. <sup>3</sup>And Ahab summoned Obadiah, the steward of the house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly. <sup>4</sup>For so it was, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took one hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) <sup>5</sup>And Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the wadis. Perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we not lose all the animals.”

<sup>6</sup>So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way alone, and Obadiah went another way alone. <sup>7</sup>And as Obadiah was on the way, look, Elijah met him; and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, “Is it you, my lord Elijah?”

<sup>9</sup>And he said, “How have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me? <sup>10</sup>As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my lord has not sent to seek you. When they said, ‘He is not here,’ he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they did not find you. <sup>11</sup>Now you say, ‘Go, tell your lord, “Look, Elijah is here.”’ <sup>12</sup>It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you I do not know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can’t find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth. <sup>13</sup>Wasn’t it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD’s prophets with fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water? <sup>14</sup>Now you say, ‘Go, tell your lord,

<sup>15</sup>Elijah said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today.” <sup>16</sup>So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah. <sup>17</sup>It happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, “Is that you, you troubler of Israel?”

<sup>18</sup>He answered, “I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father’s house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and you have followed the Baals. <sup>19</sup>Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and four hundred fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

<sup>20</sup>So Ahab sent to all the sons of Israel, and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup>Elijah came near to all the people, and said, “How long will you keep limping between two positions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him.”

But the people did not answer him a word.

<sup>22</sup>Then Elijah said to the people, “I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD; but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men, and the prophets of Asherah four hundred.<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under. And I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it. <sup>24</sup>You call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD, and the god who answers by fire, he is God.”

All the people answered, “It is well said.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one bull for yourselves, and prepare it first, for you are the majority, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it.”

<sup>26</sup>And they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, “Baal, answer us.” But there was no voice, nor any who answered. And they limped about the altar they<sup>b</sup> had made. <sup>27</sup>And it came about, at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, “Cry aloud, for he is a god. Maybe he is thinking about it, or he is busy, or he is on a trip, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened.”

<sup>28</sup>And they cried aloud, and cut themselves, as was their custom, with swords and spears, until the blood gushed out on them. <sup>29</sup>And when midday was past, they prophesied until the offering up of the offering; but there was no voice, no answer, and no response.

<sup>30</sup>Elijah said to all the people, “Come near to me”; and all the people came near to him. He repaired the altar of the LORD that had been torn down. <sup>31</sup>Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, “Israel shall be your name.” <sup>32</sup>And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two seahs of seed. <sup>33</sup>And he arranged the wood, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. And he said, “Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood.” <sup>34</sup>And he said, “Do it a second time”; and they did it the second time. And he said, “Do it a third time”; and they did it the third time. <sup>35</sup>And the water ran around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

<sup>36</sup>It happened at the time of the offering up of the offering, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, “LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. <sup>37</sup>Hear me, LORD, hear me, that this people may know that you, LORD, are God, and that you have turned their heart back again.”

<sup>38</sup>Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup>And when all the people saw it, they fell facedown and said, “The LORD, he is God. The LORD, he is God.”

And they seized them. And Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon, and killed them there.

<sup>41</sup>And Elijah said to Ahab, “Get up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of a heavy rain.”

<sup>42</sup>So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down toward the ground, and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup>And he said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” So he went up, and looked, and said, “There is nothing.” Then he said, “Go again” seven times. And the servant went again seven times.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>44</sup>It happened at the seventh time, that he said, “Look, a small cloud, like a man’s hand, is rising out of the sea.”

He said, “Go up, tell Ahab, ‘Get ready and go down, so that the rain doesn’t stop you.’”

<sup>45</sup>It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup>The hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup>Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.”

journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree. And he requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough. Now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers."

<sup>5</sup>He lay down and slept under a broom tree. And look, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat."

<sup>6</sup>He looked, and look, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. <sup>7</sup>The angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."

<sup>8</sup>And he got up and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God. <sup>9</sup>And there he came to a cave and lodged there; and look, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Look, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup>After the earthquake a fire passed; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. <sup>13</sup>It was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Look, a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way, and you will come to the way of<sup>b</sup> the wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria. <sup>16</sup>You shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; and you shall

<sup>19</sup>So he departed there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to him, and cast his mantle on him.<sup>20</sup> He left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, “Let me please kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you.”

He said to him, “Go back again; for what have I done to you?”

<sup>21</sup>He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and served him.

20 Ben Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together;

and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.<sup>2</sup> He sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said to him, “Thus says Ben Hadad,<sup>3</sup> Your silver and your gold is mine. Your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine.”

<sup>4</sup>The king of Israel answered, “It is according to your saying, my lord, O king. I am yours, and all that I have.”

<sup>5</sup>The messengers came again, and said, “Ben Hadad says, ‘I sent indeed to you, saying, “You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children;’<sup>6</sup> but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in their<sup>b</sup> eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.””

<sup>7</sup>Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, “Please notice how this man seeks mischief; for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I did not deny him.”

<sup>8</sup>All the elders and all the people said to him, “Do not listen, neither consent.”

<sup>9</sup>Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do.'"

The messengers departed, and brought him back the message. <sup>10</sup>Ben Hadad sent to him, and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

<sup>11</sup>The king of Israel answered, "Tell him, 'Do not let him who puts on his armor brag like he who takes it off.'"

<sup>12</sup>It happened, when Ben Hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants, "Prepare to attack." They prepared to attack the city.

<sup>13</sup>Look, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>14</sup>Ahab said, "By whom?"

He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'By the young men of the governors of the districts.'"

Then he said, "Who shall begin the battle?"

He answered, "You."

<sup>15</sup>Then he mustered the young men of the governors of the districts, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. After them, he mustered all the people, even all the sons of Israel, being seven thousand. <sup>16</sup>They went out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him. <sup>17</sup>The young men of the governors of the districts went out first; and Ben Hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out from Samaria."

<sup>18</sup>He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

<sup>23</sup>The servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.<sup>24</sup> Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place.<sup>25</sup> Muster an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. We will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than them.”

He listened to their voice, and did so.<sup>26</sup> It happened at the return of the year, that Ben Hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.<sup>27</sup> The sons of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them. The sons of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of young goats; but the Syrians filled the country.<sup>28</sup> A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because the Syrians have said, “The LORD is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys”; therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>29</sup>They camped one over against the other seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the sons of Israel killed one hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day.<sup>30</sup> But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room.<sup>31</sup> His servants said to him, “See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our bodies, and ropes on our heads,<sup>a</sup> and go out to the king of Israel. Maybe he will save your life.”

<sup>32</sup>So they put sackcloth on their bodies and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, “Your servant Ben Hadad says, ‘Please let me live.’”

He said, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

<sup>33</sup>Now the men were looking for an omen, and they seized upon it from him,<sup>b</sup> and they said, “Ben Hadad is your brother.” Then he said, “Go, bring him.” Then Ben Hadad came out to him, and he had him come up into the chariot.<sup>34</sup> Ben Hadad said to him, “The cities which my father took from your father I will restore. You shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria.”

“I,” said Ahab, “will let you go with this covenant.” So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

<sup>35</sup>A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow

by the word of the LORD, "Please strike me."

The man refused to strike him. <sup>36</sup>Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, look, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you." As soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him.

<sup>37</sup>Then he found another man, and said, "Please strike me."

The man struck him, smiting and wounding him. <sup>38</sup>So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes. <sup>39</sup>As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and look, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man. If by any means he be missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'" <sup>40</sup>As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

The king of Israel said to him, "So your judgment shall be; you yourself have decided it."

<sup>41</sup>He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized that he was of the prophets. <sup>42</sup>He said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

21 It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, near the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup>Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

<sup>3</sup>Naboth said to Ahab, "May the LORD forbid me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you."

<sup>4</sup>Ahab came into his house sullen and angry because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He laid himself down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. <sup>5</sup>But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?"

<sup>6</sup>He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' He answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

<sup>7</sup>Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."<sup>8</sup> So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who lived with Naboth. <sup>9</sup>She wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>10</sup>Set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed God and the king.' Then carry him out, and stone him to death."

<sup>11</sup>The men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. <sup>12</sup>They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>13</sup>The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him. The base fellows testified against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." Then they carried him out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones. <sup>14</sup>Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned, and is dead."

was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

<sup>16</sup>It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. <sup>17</sup>The word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>18</sup>"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria. Look, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. <sup>19</sup>You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "Have you killed and also taken possession?"' You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your blood, even yours."'"

<sup>20</sup>And Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?" <sup>25</sup>But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. <sup>26</sup>He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>27</sup>It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

<sup>28</sup>The word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>29</sup>“See how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days; but in his son’s days will I bring the disaster on his house.”

22 They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. <sup>2</sup>It happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>The king of Israel said to his servants, “You know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we are still, and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?” <sup>4</sup>He said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead?”

Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please inquire first for the word of the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, “Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?” They said, “Go up; for the LORD<sup>b</sup> will deliver it into the hand of the king.”

<sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, “Isn’t there here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of him?”

man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil.”

Jehoshaphat said, “Do not let the king say so.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, “Quickly get Micaiah the son of Imlah.”

<sup>10</sup>Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

<sup>11</sup>Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, “Thus says the LORD, ‘With these you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed.’” <sup>12</sup>All the prophets prophesied so, saying, “Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king.”

<sup>14</sup>Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I will speak.”

<sup>15</sup>When he had come to the king, the king said to him,

“Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?”

He answered him, “Go up and prosper; and the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king.” <sup>16</sup>The king said to him, “How many times do I have to adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

<sup>17</sup>He said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. The LORD said, ‘These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace.’”

<sup>18</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

<sup>19</sup>Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. <sup>20</sup>The LORD said, ‘Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ One said one thing; and another said another. <sup>21</sup>A spirit came out and stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will entice him.’ <sup>22</sup>The LORD said to him, ‘How?’ He said, ‘I will go out and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ He said, ‘You will entice him, and will also prevail. Go out and do so.’ <sup>23</sup>Now therefore, look, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the LORD has pronounced disaster against you.”

<sup>25</sup>Micaiah said, “Look, you will see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself.”

<sup>26</sup>The king of Israel said, “Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son. <sup>27</sup>Say, ‘Thus says the king, “Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.”’”

<sup>28</sup>Micaiah said, “If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me.” He said, “Listen, all you people.”

<sup>29</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>30</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes.” The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

<sup>31</sup>Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. <sup>32</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, “Surely that is the king of Israel.” and they turned aside to fight against him. Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>34</sup>A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn your hand, and carry me out of the battle; for I am severely wounded.” <sup>35</sup>The battle increased that day. The king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. <sup>36</sup>A cry went throughout the army about the going down of the sun, saying, “Every man to his city, and every man to his country.”

<sup>37</sup>So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. <sup>38</sup>They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood where the prostitutes washed themselves; according to the word of the LORD which he spoke.

<sup>39</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>40</sup>So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. <sup>41</sup>Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup>He walked in all the way of Asa his father; He did not turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: however the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>44</sup>Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. <sup>45</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>46</sup>The remnant of the male temple prostitutes, that remained in the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land. <sup>47</sup>There was no king in Edom: a deputy was king. <sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they did not go; for the ships were broken at Ezion Geber. <sup>49</sup>Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not. <sup>50</sup>Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father; Jehoram his son reigned in his place. <sup>51</sup>Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. <sup>52</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup>He served Baal, and worshiped him, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

The Second Book of Kings

1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. <sup>2</sup>Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. So he sent messengers, and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness."

<sup>3</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron?' <sup>4</sup>Now therefore thus says the LORD, "You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.'"" Elijah departed.

The Second Book of Kings 1

<sup>5</sup>The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, "Why is it that you have returned?"

<sup>6</sup>They said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and tell him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.'"""

<sup>7</sup>He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?"

<sup>8</sup>They answered him, "He was a hairy man, and wearing a leather belt around his waist."

He said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

<sup>9</sup>Then the king sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. He went up to him; and look, he was sitting on the top of the hill. He said to him, "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down.'"

<sup>10</sup>Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty." Fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>11</sup>Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. He answered him, "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down quickly.'"

<sup>12</sup>And Elijah answered and said to him,<sup>a</sup> "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty." The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>13</sup>Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, "Man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight. <sup>14</sup>Look, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties. But now let my life be precious in your sight."

He arose, and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup>He said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore you shall not come down from the <sup>17</sup>So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And his brother<sup>a</sup> Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. <sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 It happened, when the LORD would take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, “Please wait here, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.”

Elisha said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup>The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from your head today?”

He said, “Yes, I know it; hold your peace.”

<sup>4</sup>Elijah said to him, “Elisha, please wait here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.”

He said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup>The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from your head today?”

He answered, “Yes, I know it. Hold your peace.”

<sup>6</sup>Elijah said to him, “Please wait here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.”

He said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” They both went on. <sup>7</sup>Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood opposite them at a distance; and they both stood by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they two went over on dry ground. <sup>9</sup>It happened, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you.”

Elisha said, “Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me.”

<sup>10</sup>He said, “You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so.”

<sup>11</sup>It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that look, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. <sup>12</sup>Elisha saw it, and he cried, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen.”

He saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and tore them in two pieces. <sup>13</sup>And he picked up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup>And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the water, and it did not divide.<sup>a</sup> And he said, “Where is the LORD,<sup>b</sup> the God of Elijah, even he?” And he struck the water a second time,<sup>d</sup> and they divided to the one side and to the other; and Elisha crossed over. <sup>15</sup>When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha.” They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup>And they said to him, “See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and thrown him into the Jordan, or<sup>e</sup> on some mountain, or into some valley.” And he said, “Do not send them.”

They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched for three days, but did not find him. <sup>18</sup>They came back to him, while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, “Did I not tell you, ‘Do not go?’”

<sup>19</sup>The men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, please, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land miscarries.”

<sup>20</sup>He said, “Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it.” They brought it to him. <sup>21</sup>He went out to the spring of the waters, and threw salt into it, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'I have healed these waters. There shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying.'" <sup>22</sup>So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

<sup>23</sup>He went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up by the way, some youths came out of the city and mocked<sup>a</sup> him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldy. Go up, you baldhead." <sup>24</sup>He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Two female bears came out of the woods, and mauled forty-two of those youths. <sup>25</sup>He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

3 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. <sup>3</sup>Nevertheless he held to the sins<sup>b</sup> of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams. <sup>5</sup>But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup>King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. <sup>7</sup>He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?"

He said, "I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." <sup>8</sup>He said, "Which way shall we go up?"

He answered, "The way of the wilderness of Edom." <sup>9</sup>So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey. There was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them. <sup>10</sup>The king of Israel said, "Alas. For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

<sup>11</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?"

One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

<sup>12</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah<sup>a</sup> and the king of Edom went down to him.

<sup>13</sup>Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother."

The king of Israel said to him, "No; for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab." <sup>14</sup>Elisha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I respect the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. <sup>15</sup>But now bring me a minstrel." It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came on him. <sup>16</sup>He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Make this valley full of trenches.' <sup>17</sup>For thus says the LORD, 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you will drink, both you and your livestock and your animals. <sup>18</sup>This is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. <sup>19</sup>You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.'"

<sup>20</sup>It happened in the morning, about the time of offering the offering, that look, water came by the way of Edom,<sup>b</sup> and the country was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup>Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border. <sup>22</sup>They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood. <sup>23</sup>They said, "This is blood. The<sup>c</sup> kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each other. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil."

<sup>24</sup>When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites. <sup>25</sup>They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth only they left its stones; however the men armed with slings went about it, and struck it. <sup>26</sup>When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with<sup>a</sup> him seven hundred men who drew sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not. <sup>27</sup>Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

4 Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead. You know that your servant feared the LORD. Now the creditor has come to take for himself my two children to be slaves."

<sup>2</sup>Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me: what do you have in the house?"

She said, "Your handmaid has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil."

<sup>3</sup>Then he said, "Go, borrow containers from of all your neighbors, even empty containers. Do not borrow just a few. <sup>4</sup>You shall go in, and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour out into all those containers; and you shall set aside that which is full."

<sup>5</sup>So she went from him, and shut the door on her and on her sons; they brought the containers to her, and she poured out. <sup>6</sup>It happened, when the containers were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another container."

He said to her, "There isn't another container." The oil stopped flowing.

<sup>7</sup>Then she came and told the man of God. He said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

<sup>8</sup>It fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman; and she persuaded him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. <sup>9</sup>She said to her husband, "See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, that passes by us continually. <sup>10</sup>Please let us make a little room on the wall. Let us set for him there a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp stand. It shall be, when he comes to us, that he shall turn in there."

<sup>11</sup>One day he came there, and he turned into the room and lay there. <sup>12</sup>He said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her, she stood before him. <sup>13</sup>He said to him, "Say now to her, ‘Look, you have cared for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you like to be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the army?’”

She answered, “I dwell among my own people.”

<sup>14</sup>He said, “What then is to be done for her?”

Gehazi answered, “Most certainly she has no son, and her husband is old.”

<sup>15</sup>He said, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood in the door. <sup>16</sup>He said, “At this season, when the time comes around, you will embrace a son.”

She said, “No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your handmaid.”

<sup>17</sup>The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came around, as Elisha had said to her. <sup>18</sup>When the child was grown, it happened one day that he went out to his father to the reapers. <sup>19</sup>He said to his father, “My head. My head.”

He said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

<sup>20</sup>When he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. <sup>21</sup>She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door on him, and went out. <sup>22</sup>She called to her husband, and said, “Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.”

<sup>23</sup>He said, “Why would you want to go to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath.”

She said, “It’s alright.”

<sup>24</sup>Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, “Drive, and go forward. Do not slow down for me, unless I ask you to.”

<sup>25</sup>So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. It happened, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, “Look, there is the Shunammite. <sup>26</sup>Please run now to meet her, and ask her, ‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?’”

She answered, “It is well.”

<sup>27</sup>When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, “Leave her alone; for her soul is troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me.”

<sup>28</sup>Then she said, “Did I ask a son from my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?”

<sup>29</sup>Then he said to Gehazi, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand, and go your way. If you meet any man, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him again. Then lay my staff on the face of the child.”

<sup>30</sup>The mother of the child said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.”

He arose, and followed her.

<sup>31</sup>Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, “The child has not awakened.”

<sup>32</sup>When Elisha had come into the house, look, the child was dead, and lay on his bed. <sup>33</sup>He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>34</sup>He went up, and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. He stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child grew warm. <sup>35</sup>Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and stretched himself on him. Then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup>He called Gehazi, and said, “Call this Shunammite.” So he called her.

When she had come in to him, he said, “Take up your son.”

<sup>37</sup>Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.

<sup>38</sup>Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, “Set on the great pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.”

<sup>39</sup>One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of stew; for they did not recognize them. <sup>40</sup>So they poured out for the men to eat. It happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, “Man of God, there is death in the pot.” They could not eat of it.

<sup>41</sup>But he said, “Bring some flour.”<sup>a</sup> And he threw it into the pot; and he said, “Pour it out for the people, that they may eat.” And there was no harm in the pot.

<sup>42</sup>A man from Baal Shalishah came, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. He said, "Give to the people, that they may eat."

<sup>43</sup>His servant said, "What, should I set this before a hundred men?"

But he said, "Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD, 'They will eat, and will have some left over.'"

<sup>44</sup>So he set it before them, and they ate, and left some of it, according to the word of the LORD.

5 Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria: he was also a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. <sup>2</sup>The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup>She said to her mistress, "I wish that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria. Then he would heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>4</sup>Someone went in, and told his lord, saying, "The maiden who is from the land of Israel said this."

<sup>5</sup>The king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel."

He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. <sup>6</sup>He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "Now when this letter has come to you, look, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>7</sup>It happened, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he tore his clothes, and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to heal a man of his leprosy? But please consider and see how he seeks a quarrel against me."

<sup>8</sup>It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

<sup>9</sup>So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. <sup>10</sup>Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean."

<sup>11</sup>But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, "Look, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leper.' <sup>12</sup>Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I go<sup>a</sup> wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>13</sup>His servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, "My father,<sup>b</sup> if<sup>c</sup> the prophet had asked you to do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

<sup>14</sup>Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. <sup>15</sup>He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, "See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now therefore, please take a gift from your servant."

<sup>16</sup>But he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none."

He urged him to take it; but he refused. <sup>17</sup>Naaman said, "If not, then, please let two mules' burden of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>In this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this thing."

So he departed from him a little way. <sup>20</sup>But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him, and take something from him."

<sup>21</sup>So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

<sup>22</sup>He said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Look, even now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.'"

<sup>23</sup>Naaman said, "Be pleased to take two talents." He urged him,

He said, "Your servant went nowhere."

<sup>26</sup>He said to him, "Did not my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and cattle, and male servants and female servants? <sup>27</sup>Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your descendants forever."

He went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

6 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell before you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup>Please let us go to the Jordan, and every man take a beam from there, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell."

He answered, "Go."

He answered, "I will go." <sup>4</sup>So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. <sup>5</sup>But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water. Then he cried, and said, "Alas, my master. For it was borrowed."

<sup>6</sup>The man of God asked, "Where did it fall?" He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. <sup>7</sup>He said, "Take it." So he put out his hand and took it.

<sup>8</sup>Now the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place."

<sup>9</sup>The man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you not pass such a place; for the Syrians are coming down there." <sup>10</sup>The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice. <sup>11</sup>The heart of the king of Syria was very troubled about this. He called his servants, and said to them, "Won't you show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

<sup>12</sup>One of his servants said, "No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

<sup>13</sup>He said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him."

It was told him, saying, "Look, he is in Dothan."

<sup>14</sup>Therefore he sent horses, chariots, and a great army there. They came by night, and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup>When the servant of the man of God had risen early, and gone out, look, an army with horses and chariots was around the city. His servant said to him, "Alas, my master. What shall we do?"

<sup>16</sup>He answered, "Do not be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." <sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed and said, "LORD, please open his eyes, that he may see." The LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and look, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha. <sup>18</sup>When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Please strike this people with blindness."

He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. <sup>19</sup>Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." He led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup>It happened, when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see."

The LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and look, they were in the midst of Samaria. <sup>21</sup>The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, "My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them?"

<sup>22</sup>He answered, "You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master."

<sup>23</sup>He prepared great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Syria stopped raiding the land of Israel.

<sup>27</sup>He said, "If the LORD doesn't help you, from where could I help you? From of the threshing floor, or from the winepress?" <sup>28</sup>The king said to her, "What ails you?"

She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'<sup>29</sup> So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him;' and she has hidden her son."

<sup>30</sup>It happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes (now he was passing by on the wall); and the people looked, and look, he had sackcloth underneath on his flesh. <sup>31</sup>Then he said, "God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stay on him this day."

<sup>32</sup>But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Then the king sent a man from before him; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door shut against him. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

<sup>33</sup>While he was still talking with them, look, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, "Look, this disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

7 Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD.

Thus says the LORD, "Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria."

<sup>2</sup>Then the captain on whose hand the<sup>a</sup> king leaned answered the man of God, and said, "Look, if the LORD made windows in heaven, could this thing be?"

He said, "Look, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it."

<sup>3</sup>Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. They said one to another, "Why do we sit here until we die?" <sup>4</sup>If we say, 'We will enter into the city,' then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we sit still here, we also die. Now therefore come, and let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die."

<sup>5</sup>They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians. When they had come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, look, there was no man there. <sup>6</sup>For the LORD<sup>b</sup> had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great army: and they said one to another, Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come on us. <sup>7</sup>Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. <sup>8</sup>When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it. Then they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried there also, and went and hid it. <sup>9</sup>Then they said one to another, "We aren't doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we keep silent. If we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household."

<sup>10</sup>So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city; and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, look, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were."

<sup>11</sup>The gatekeepers called out, and it was reported to the king's household within. <sup>12</sup>The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.'"

<sup>15</sup>They went after them to the Jordan; and look, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the king. <sup>16</sup>The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate: and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. <sup>18</sup>It happened, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria"; <sup>19</sup>and that captain answered the man of God, and said, "Now, look, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be?" and he said, "Look, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it."<sup>20</sup> It happened like that to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.<sup>a</sup>

8 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise, and go, you and your household, and stay for a while wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine. It shall also come on the land seven years."

<sup>2</sup>The woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God. She went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. <sup>3</sup>It happened at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. Then she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land. <sup>4</sup>Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of<sup>b</sup> the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done."<sup>5</sup> It happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that look, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

<sup>7</sup>Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick. It was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

<sup>8</sup>The king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>9</sup>So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>11</sup>He settled his gaze steadfastly on him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.

<sup>12</sup>Hazeal said, “Why do you weep, my lord?”

He answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child.”

<sup>13</sup>Hazeal said, “But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing?”

Elisha answered, “The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Syria.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, “What did Elisha say to you?”

He answered, “He told me that you would surely recover.”

<sup>15</sup>It happened on the next day, that he took a thick cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died. Then Hazeal reigned in his place.

<sup>16</sup>In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat then being king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. <sup>17</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife. He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

<sup>21</sup>Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him; and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents.

<sup>23</sup>The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>24</sup>Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup>In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

<sup>26</sup>Twenty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>27</sup>He walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. <sup>28</sup>He went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazeal king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup>King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

9 Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Put your belt on your waist, take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>2</sup>When you come there, find Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brothers, and carry him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup>Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD, "I have anointed you king over Israel.'" Then open the door, flee, and do not wait."

<sup>4</sup>So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>5</sup>When he came, look, the captains of the army were sitting. Then he said, "I have a message for you, captain."

Jehu said, "To which of us all?"

He said, "To you, O captain." <sup>6</sup>He arose, and went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. <sup>7</sup>You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. <sup>8</sup>For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. I will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall,<sup>a</sup> both him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. <sup>9</sup>I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup>The dogs will eat Jezebel on the plot of ground of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.'" He opened the door, and fled.

<sup>11</sup>Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?"

He said to them, "You know the man and what his talk was." <sup>12</sup>They said, "That is a lie. Tell us now."

He said, "He said to me, 'Thus says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel.'"

<sup>14</sup>So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria;<sup>15</sup> but king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) Jehu said, "If this is your thinking, then let no one escape and go out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel."<sup>16</sup> So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.<sup>17</sup> Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company."

Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

<sup>18</sup>So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

The watchman said, "The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back."

<sup>19</sup>Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me."

<sup>20</sup>The watchman said, "He came to them, and isn't coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously."

They got his chariot ready. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.<sup>22</sup> It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

He answered, "What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?"

<sup>23</sup>Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treason, Ahaziah."

<sup>24</sup>Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and shot Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.<sup>25</sup> Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for I<sup>a</sup> remember how when you and I rode together behind Ahab his father, the LORD pronounced this judgment on him:<sup>26</sup> Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD; 'and I will repay you in this plot of ground,' says the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him onto the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

<sup>27</sup>But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu followed after him, and said, "Shoot him also." And they shot him<sup>a</sup> in the chariot at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there. <sup>28</sup>His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David. <sup>29</sup>In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. <sup>30</sup>When Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window. <sup>31</sup>As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, "Do you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?"

<sup>32</sup>He lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?"

Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses. Then he trampled her under foot. <sup>34</sup>When he had come in, he ate and drink; and he said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter."

<sup>35</sup>They went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup>Therefore they came back, and told him.

He said, "This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel on the plot of Jezreel, <sup>37</sup>and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, "This is Jezebel."'"

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of the city,<sup>b</sup> even the elders, and to the guardians of the sons<sup>c</sup> of Ahab, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, fortified cities<sup>d</sup> also, and weapons. <sup>3</sup>Select the best and fittest of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

<sup>4</sup>But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Look, the two kings did not stand before him. How then shall we stand?" <sup>5</sup>He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who raised the children, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and will do all that you ask us. We will not make any man king. You do that which is good in your eyes."

<sup>6</sup>Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time."

Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up. <sup>7</sup>It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and killed them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel. <sup>8</sup>A messenger came, and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons."

He said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning." <sup>9</sup>It happened in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Look, I conspired against my master, and killed him; but who struck all these? <sup>10</sup>Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For the LORD has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah."

<sup>11</sup>So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, with all his great men, his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

<sup>12</sup>He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at Beth Eked of the Shepherds on the way, <sup>13</sup>Jehu met with the brothers<sup>a</sup> of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?"

They answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah. We are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen."

<sup>14</sup>He said, "Take them alive."

They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even forty-two men. He did not leave any of them. <sup>15</sup>When he had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him, and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?"

---

Jehonadab answered, "It is." And he said,<sup>a</sup> "If it is, give me your hand." He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

<sup>16</sup>He said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So he<sup>b</sup> made him ride in his chariot. <sup>17</sup>When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke to Elijah. <sup>18</sup>Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. <sup>19</sup>Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all of his worshippers, and all of his priests. Let none be absent; for I have a great sacrifice to Baal. Whoever is absent, he shall not live." But Jehu did it in subtlety, intending that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

They proclaimed it. <sup>21</sup>Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that did not come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. <sup>22</sup>He said to him who was over the vestry, "Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Baal."

He brought robes out to them. <sup>23</sup>Jehu went with Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal. Then he said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search, and look that there are here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only."

<sup>24</sup>They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him eighty men outside, and said, "If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he who lets him go, his life shall be for the life of him."

<sup>25</sup>It happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in, and kill them. Let none escape." They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. <sup>26</sup>They brought out the pillar<sup>c</sup> that was in the house of Baal, and burned them. <sup>27</sup>They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine, to this day. <sup>28</sup>Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

did not depart from after them, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan. <sup>30</sup>The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.”

<sup>31</sup>But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>32</sup>In those days the LORD began to cut off from Israel; and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel; <sup>33</sup>from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. <sup>34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup>Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. <sup>36</sup>The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

11 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family. <sup>2</sup>But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king’s sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, and put them in the bedroom. So she<sup>3</sup> hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. <sup>3</sup>He was with her hidden in the house of the LORD six years. Athaliah reigned over the land. <sup>4</sup>In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD; and he made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king’s son. <sup>5</sup>He commanded them, saying, “This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king’s house; <sup>6</sup>A third part shall be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard. So you shall keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier. <sup>7</sup>The two companies of you, even all who go out on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD around the king. <sup>8</sup>You shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain. Be with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in.”

<sup>9</sup>The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup>The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David's, which were in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>12</sup>Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "Long live the king."

<sup>13</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: <sup>14</sup>and she looked, and look, the king stood by the pillar, as the tradition was, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, "Treason. Treason."

<sup>15</sup>Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks. Kill him who follows her with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not let her be slain in the house of the LORD." <sup>16</sup>So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house. She was slain there.

<sup>17</sup>Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; between the king also and the people. <sup>18</sup>All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the king's house. <sup>21</sup>Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

12 In the seventh year of Jehu began Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup>However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup>Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, the money of the persons for whom each man is rated, and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD, <sup>5</sup>let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found."

<sup>6</sup>But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. <sup>7</sup>Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests, and said to them, "Why do you not repair the breaches of the house? Now therefore take no more money from your treasurers, but deliver it for the breaches of the house."

<sup>8</sup>The priests consented that they should take no more money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house. <sup>9</sup>But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD: and the priests who kept the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the

LORD: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of the LORD, <sup>12</sup>and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. <sup>13</sup>But there were not made for the house of the LORD cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD; <sup>14</sup>for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Moreover they did not demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully. <sup>16</sup>The money for the trespass offerings, and the money for the sin offerings, was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'. <sup>17</sup>Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup>His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck

Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla.<sup>21</sup> For Jozabad<sup>a</sup> the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria for seventeen years.<sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he did not depart from it.<sup>3</sup> The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually.<sup>4</sup> Jehoahaz begged the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them.<sup>5</sup> (The LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as before.<sup>6</sup> Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin; they<sup>b</sup> walked in them. And the Asherah also remained in Samaria.)<sup>7</sup> For he did not leave to Jehoahaz of the people any more than fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing.<sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?<sup>9</sup> Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his place.<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria for sixteen years.<sup>11</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked in it.<sup>12</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?<sup>13</sup> Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.<sup>14</sup> Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness of which he died: and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen.”

<sup>15</sup>Elisha said to him, “Take bow and arrows”; and he took to him bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup>He said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow”; and he put his hand on it. Elisha laid his hands on the king’s hands. <sup>17</sup>He said, “Open the window eastward”; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, “Shoot.” and he shot. He said, “The LORD’s arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them.”

<sup>18</sup>He said, “Take the arrows”; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, “Strike the ground”; and he struck three times, and stopped. <sup>19</sup>The man of God was angry with him, and said, “You should have struck five or six times. Then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Syria just three times.”

<sup>20</sup>Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. <sup>21</sup>It happened, as they were burying a man, that look, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha: and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet. <sup>22</sup>Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup>But the LORD was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet. <sup>24</sup>Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup>Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Joash struck him three times, and recovered the cities of Israel.

14 In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign. <sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done. <sup>4</sup>However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>5</sup>It happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he killed his servants who had slain the king his father: <sup>6</sup>but the children of the murderers he did not put to death; according to that which is written in the scroll of the law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, “The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.” <sup>7</sup>He killed of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel, to this day. <sup>8</sup>Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us look one another in the face.”

<sup>9</sup>Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>10</sup>You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy the glory of it, and stay at home; for why should you meddle to your harm, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?’” <sup>11</sup>But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>12</sup>Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. <sup>13</sup>Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. <sup>14</sup>He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king’s house, the hostages also, and returned to

Samaria. <sup>15</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>16</sup>Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his place. <sup>17</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. <sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>19</sup>They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. <sup>20</sup>They brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David. <sup>21</sup>All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. <sup>22</sup>He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. <sup>23</sup>In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years. <sup>24</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>He restored the border of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath Hopher.

<sup>26</sup>For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel. <sup>27</sup>The LORD did not say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. <sup>28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>29</sup>Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>2</sup>Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>4</sup>However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>5</sup>The LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land. <sup>6</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>7</sup>Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his place. <sup>8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. <sup>9</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>10</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup>This was the word of the LORD which he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." So it came to pass.

<sup>13</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned for a month in Samaria. <sup>14</sup>Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>16</sup>Then Menahem struck Tiphshah, and all who were in it, and its borders, from Tirzah:

because they did not open to him, therefore he struck it; and all the women in it who were with child he ripped up. <sup>17</sup>In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel for ten years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>19</sup>There came against the land Pul the king of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. <sup>20</sup>Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land. <sup>21</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>22</sup>Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place. <sup>23</sup>In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. <sup>24</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and struck him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, with Argob and Arie; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>27</sup>In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. <sup>28</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>29</sup>In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel Beth Maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria. <sup>30</sup>Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. <sup>31</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, look, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>32</sup>In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. <sup>35</sup>However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.<sup>36</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?<sup>37</sup> In those days the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah.<sup>38</sup> Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.<sup>2</sup> Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not do that which was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, like David his father.<sup>3</sup> But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the sons of Israel.<sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.<sup>5</sup> Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.<sup>6</sup> At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there, to this day.<sup>7</sup> So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me."<sup>8</sup> Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.<sup>9</sup> The king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.<sup>10</sup> King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and its pattern, according to all its workmanship.<sup>11</sup> Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Urijah the priest made it for the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus.<sup>12</sup> When the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered on it.<sup>13</sup> He burnt his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, on the altar.<sup>14</sup> The bronze altar, which was before the LORD, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of his altar.<sup>15</sup> King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by.”<sup>16</sup>Urijah the priest did so, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.<sup>17</sup>King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone.<sup>18</sup>The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king’s entry outside, turned he to the house of the LORD, because of the king of Assyria.<sup>19</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?<sup>20</sup>Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years.<sup>2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him.<sup>3</sup>Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute.<sup>4</sup>The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.<sup>6</sup>In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.<sup>7</sup>It was so, because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,<sup>8</sup>and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made.<sup>9</sup>The sons of Israel did secretly things that were not right against the LORD their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city;<sup>10</sup>and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree;<sup>11</sup>and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom the LORD carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger;<sup>12</sup>and they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”<sup>13</sup>Yet the LORD testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.”<sup>14</sup>Notwithstanding, they would not listen, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.<sup>15</sup>They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do like them.<sup>16</sup>They forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.<sup>17</sup>They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, practiced divination and sorcery, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.<sup>18</sup>Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.<sup>19</sup>Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.<sup>20</sup>The LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them out of his sight.<sup>21</sup>For he tore Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin.<sup>22</sup>The sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them;<sup>23</sup>until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he spoke by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.<sup>24</sup>The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the sons of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it.<sup>25</sup>So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them.<sup>26</sup>Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, “The nations which you have carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, do not know the law of the god of the land. Therefore he has sent lions among them, and look, they kill them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land.”

<sup>27</sup>Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, “Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land.”

<sup>28</sup>So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.<sup>29</sup>However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.<sup>30</sup>The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,<sup>31</sup>and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.<sup>32</sup>And they worshiped the LORD, yet they established their abominations in the houses of the high places which they made in Samaria, each nation in the city in which they dwelt.<sup>a</sup> And they worshiped the LORD, yet appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

<sup>33</sup>And they worshiped the LORD, yet served their own gods, after the ways of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.<sup>34</sup>To this day they do what they did before: they do not fear the LORD, neither do they follow their statutes, or their ordinances, or the law or the commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;<sup>35</sup>with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and commanded them, saying, “You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; <sup>36</sup>but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, and you shall bow yourselves to him, and you shall sacrifice to him.<sup>37</sup>The statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do forevermore. You shall not fear other gods.<sup>38</sup>You shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you; neither shall you fear other gods.<sup>39</sup>But you shall fear the LORD your God; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.”<sup>40</sup>However they did not listen, but they did what they did before.<sup>41</sup>So these nations feared the LORD, and served their engraved images. Their children likewise, and their children’s children, as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

18 Now it happened in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.<sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.<sup>3</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.<sup>4</sup>He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for in those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. <sup>5</sup>He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. <sup>6</sup>For he joined with the LORD; he did not depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>7</sup>The LORD was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him. <sup>8</sup>He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city. <sup>9</sup>It happened in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. <sup>10</sup>At the end of three years they took it: in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. <sup>11</sup>The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>12</sup>because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it. <sup>13</sup>Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. <sup>14</sup>Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, "I have offended; return from me. That which you put on me, I will bear." The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. <sup>15</sup>Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. <sup>16</sup>At that time, Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the LORD's temple, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. <sup>17</sup>The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabсарis and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem<sup>a</sup> and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway of the Launderers' Field. <sup>18</sup>When they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. <sup>19</sup>Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? <sup>20</sup>Do you think that empty words are strategy and power for war? Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>21</sup>Now, look, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt. If a man leans on it, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. <sup>22</sup>But if you tell me, ‘We trust in the LORD our God,’ isn’t that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?’ <sup>23</sup>Now therefore, please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. <sup>24</sup>How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master’s servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>25</sup>Have I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, ‘Go up against this land, and destroy it.’”

<sup>26</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, “Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language; for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the Judean language, in the hearing of the people who are on the wall.”

<sup>27</sup>But Rabshakeh said to them, “Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn’t he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?” <sup>28</sup>Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Judean language, and spoke, saying, “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. <sup>29</sup>Thus says the king, ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of my<sup>a</sup> hand. <sup>30</sup>Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, “The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” <sup>31</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah.’ For thus says the king of Assyria, ‘Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and everyone of you eat of his vine, and everyone of his fig tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern; <sup>32</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, “The LORD will deliver us.”’ <sup>33</sup>Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>35</sup>Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?”

<sup>36</sup>But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king’s commandment was, “Do not answer him.” <sup>37</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, came with Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

19 It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup>They said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah, ‘This day is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them. <sup>4</sup>It may be the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.’”

<sup>5</sup>So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. <sup>6</sup>Isaiah said to them, “Thus you shall tell your master, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. <sup>7</sup>Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.’”

<sup>8</sup>So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish. <sup>9</sup>When he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, “Look, he has come out to fight against you,” he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, “Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup>Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Will you be delivered? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar? <sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?””

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, “The LORD, the God of Israel, who sit above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. <sup>16</sup>Incline your ear, LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, LORD, and see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent to defy the living God. <sup>17</sup>Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, <sup>18</sup>and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup>Now therefore, the LORD our God, save us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are God alone.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard you. <sup>21</sup>This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: “The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>22</sup>Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>23</sup>By your messengers you have defied the LORD,<sup>a</sup> and have said, ‘With the multitude of my chariots, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir trees; and I will enter into his farthest lodging place, the forest of his fruitful field. <sup>24</sup>I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt.’ <sup>25</sup>Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. <sup>26</sup>Therefore their inhabitants were of small power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like grain blasted before it has grown up. <sup>27</sup>But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me. <sup>28</sup>Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.”

<sup>29</sup>“This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat its fruit. <sup>30</sup>The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. <sup>31</sup>For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape. The zeal of the LORD will perform this.’

<sup>32</sup>“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, ‘He shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. <sup>33</sup>By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come to this city,’ says the LORD. <sup>34</sup>‘For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.’”

<sup>35</sup>It happened that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and struck one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, look, these were all dead bodies. <sup>36</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. <sup>37</sup>It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

20 In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Set your house in order; for you shall die, and not live.’”

<sup>2</sup>Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Remember now, LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight.” Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup>It happened, before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court,<sup>a</sup> that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the prince of my people, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, ‘I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Look, I will heal you. On the third day, you shall go up to the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.’”

They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. <sup>8</sup>Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?”

<sup>9</sup>Isaiah said, “This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?”

<sup>12</sup>At that time Merodach-Baladan<sup>a</sup> the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah was delighted at this,<sup>b</sup> and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, “What did these men say? From where did they come to you?”

Hezekiah said, “They have come from a far country, even from Babylon.”

<sup>15</sup>He said, “What have they seen in your house?”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.”

<sup>16</sup>Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Look, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left,” says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you shall father, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good.” He said moreover, “Isn’t it so, if peace and truth shall be in my days?”

<sup>20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup>Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. <sup>4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, "I will put my name in Jerusalem." <sup>5</sup>He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>He made his son to pass through the fire, and practiced sorcery, and practiced divination, and consulted mediums, and spiritists: he worked much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>7</sup>He set the engraved image of Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever; <sup>8</sup>neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." <sup>9</sup>But they did not listen: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than the nations did whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel. <sup>10</sup>The LORD spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols; <sup>12</sup>therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Look, I bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle. <sup>13</sup>I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. <sup>14</sup>I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies. They will become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; <sup>15</sup>because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even to this day.'"

<sup>16</sup>Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>18</sup>Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his place. <sup>19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>20</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father did. <sup>21</sup>He walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them: <sup>22</sup>and he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. <sup>23</sup>The servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house. <sup>24</sup>But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place. <sup>25</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup>He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>3</sup>It happened in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the money which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people. <sup>5</sup>Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house, <sup>6</sup>to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. <sup>7</sup>However there was no accounting made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully.”

<sup>8</sup>Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the scroll of the law in the house of the LORD.” Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. <sup>9</sup>Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, “Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD.” <sup>10</sup>Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, “Hilkiah the priest has delivered a scroll to me.” Shaphan read it before the king. <sup>11</sup>It happened, when the king had heard the words of the scroll of the law, that he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup>The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Go inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this scroll that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this scroll, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.”

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her. <sup>15</sup>She said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>16</sup>“Thus says the LORD, ‘Look, I will bring disaster on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the scroll which the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup>Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched.’” <sup>18</sup>But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you shall tell him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Concerning the words which you have heard, <sup>19</sup>because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you,’ says the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Therefore look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the disaster which I will bring on this place.’”” They brought back this message to the king.

23 The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the scroll of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>The king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this scroll; and all the people stood to the covenant. <sup>4</sup>The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of the LORD’s temple all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of heaven, and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. <sup>5</sup>He put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. <sup>6</sup>He brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD, outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust on the graves of the common people. <sup>7</sup>He broke down the living quarters of the temple prostitutes, that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove coverings for the Asherah. <sup>8</sup>He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. <sup>9</sup>Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. <sup>10</sup>He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch. <sup>11</sup>He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the room of Nathan Melech the officer, who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. <sup>12</sup>The king broke down the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, and beat them down from there, and cast their dust into the brook Kidron. <sup>13</sup>The king defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>14</sup>He broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men. <sup>15</sup>Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah. <sup>16</sup>And as Josiah turned himself, he saw the tombs that were there in the mountain. And he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, when Jeroboam stood by the altar at the feast. And he turned and raised his eyes to the tomb of the man of God<sup>a</sup> who proclaimed these things. <sup>17</sup>Then he said, "What monument is that which I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel.”

<sup>18</sup>He said, “Let him be. Let no man move his bones.” So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. <sup>19</sup>All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD<sup>a</sup> to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. <sup>20</sup>He killed all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned men’s bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>The king commanded all the people, saying, “Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this scroll of the covenant.” <sup>22</sup>Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; <sup>23</sup>but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was this Passover kept to the LORD in Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>Moreover Josiah removed the mediums, and spiritists, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the scroll that Hilkiyah the priest found in the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>Like him was there no king before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. <sup>26</sup>Notwithstanding, the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked him. <sup>27</sup>The LORD said, “I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, ‘My name shall be there.’”

<sup>28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>29</sup>In his days Pharaoh Necoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Perath: and king Josiah went against him; and Pharaoh Necoh killed him at Megiddo, when he had seen him. <sup>30</sup>His servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father’s place. <sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>32</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

<sup>33</sup>Pharaoh Necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. <sup>34</sup>Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim: but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there. <sup>35</sup>Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of everyone according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh Necho. <sup>36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. <sup>37</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

24 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. <sup>2</sup>The LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servants the prophets. <sup>3</sup>Surely at the commandment of the LORD

this came on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did, <sup>4</sup>and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and the LORD would not pardon. <sup>5</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>6</sup>So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. <sup>7</sup>The king of Egypt did not come again out of his land any more; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the Wadi of Egypt<sup>a</sup> to the river Perath, all that pertained to the king of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months: and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done. <sup>10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. <sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it; <sup>12</sup>and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his officers, and his officers. And the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup>He carried out there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in the LORD's temple, as the LORD had said. <sup>14</sup>He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the officials, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, except the poorest sort of the people of the land. <sup>15</sup>He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup>All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. <sup>17</sup>The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. <sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>19</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup>For through the anger of the LORD, it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and camped against it; and they built forts against it around it. <sup>2</sup>So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>3</sup>On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>4</sup>Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city around it); and they<sup>a</sup> went by the way of the Arabah. <sup>5</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup>Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him. <sup>7</sup>They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon. <sup>8</sup>Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>He burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire. <sup>10</sup>All the army of the Chaldeans,

who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. <sup>12</sup>But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields. <sup>13</sup>The Chaldeans broke up the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, and carried the bronze pieces to Babylon. <sup>14</sup>They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. <sup>15</sup>The captain of the guard took away the fire pans, the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. <sup>16</sup>The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was without weight. <sup>17</sup>The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital around it, all of bronze: and like to these had the second pillar with network. <sup>18</sup>The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: <sup>19</sup>and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. <sup>20</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>21</sup>The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>22</sup>As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor. <sup>23</sup>Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. <sup>24</sup>Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid because of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

<sup>25</sup>But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family came, and ten men with him, and struck Gedaliah, so that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup>All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans. <sup>27</sup>It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; <sup>28</sup>and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>29</sup>and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: <sup>30</sup>and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

9 So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel: and Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their disobedience. <sup>2</sup>Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim. <sup>3</sup>In Jerusalem lived of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh: <sup>4</sup>Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Judah. <sup>5</sup>Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons. <sup>6</sup>Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brothers, six hundred ninety. <sup>7</sup>Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah,<sup>b</sup> the son of Hassenuah,<sup>8</sup> and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son were previously stationed at the king's gate on the east: they were the gatekeepers for the camp of the children of Levi. <sup>19</sup>Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent: and their fathers had been over the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entry. <sup>20</sup>Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him. <sup>21</sup>Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>22</sup>All these who were chosen to be gatekeepers in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their office of trust. <sup>23</sup>So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, even the house of the tent, by wards. <sup>24</sup>On the four sides were the gatekeepers, toward the east, west, north, and south. <sup>25</sup>Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them: <sup>26</sup>for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God. <sup>27</sup>They lodged around the house of God, because that duty was on them; and to them pertained its opening morning by morning. <sup>28</sup>Certain of them were in charge of the vessels of service; for by count were these brought in and by count were these taken out. <sup>29</sup>Some of them also

10 Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup>The battle grew fierce against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was distressed by reason of the archers. <sup>4</sup>Then said Saul to his armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armor bearer would not; for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. <sup>5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died. <sup>6</sup>So Saul died, and his three sons; and all his house died together. <sup>7</sup>When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>8</sup>It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>They stripped him, and took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. <sup>10</sup>They put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. <sup>11</sup>When all the inhabitants<sup>c</sup> of Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. <sup>13</sup>So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD, which he did not keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire thereby, <sup>14</sup>and did not inquire of the LORD: therefore he

11 Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, “Look, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. The LORD your God said to you, ‘You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over my people Israel.’”

<sup>3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel. <sup>4</sup>David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. <sup>5</sup>The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You shall not come in here.” Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, that is, the City of David. <sup>6</sup>David said, “Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain.” Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief. <sup>7</sup>David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David. <sup>8</sup>He built the city all around, from the Millo even around; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup>David grew greater and greater; for the LORD of hosts was with him. <sup>10</sup>Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. <sup>11</sup>This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam,<sup>a</sup> the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the three;<sup>b</sup> he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time. <sup>12</sup>After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. <sup>13</sup>He was with David at Pas Dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>And he<sup>c</sup> took his stand in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory. <sup>15</sup>Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were camped in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup>David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup>David longed, and said, “Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate.”

David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD,<sup>19</sup> and said, “My God forbid it me, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy?” For they risked their lives to bring it. Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

<sup>20</sup>And Abishai,<sup>a</sup> the brother of Joab, he was chief of the thirty;<sup>b</sup> for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>21</sup>Of the thirty,<sup>c</sup> he was more renowned than the two, and was made their commander: however he did not attain to the three. <sup>22</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds. He killed the two of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. <sup>23</sup>He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian’s hand was a spear like a weaver’s beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>24</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. <sup>25</sup>Look, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he did not attain to the three: and David set him over his guard.

12 Now these are those who came to David to Ziklag, while he was still kept from the presence of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. <sup>2</sup>They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Saul's brothers of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer; then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite, <sup>4</sup>and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite, <sup>5</sup>Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Hariphite,<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, <sup>7</sup>and Joelah,<sup>b</sup> and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. <sup>8</sup>Of the Gadites there separated themselves to David to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains; <sup>9</sup>Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

<sup>20</sup>As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah,<sup>a</sup> and Jozabad, and Jediahel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>They helped David against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army. <sup>22</sup>For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like the army of God. <sup>23</sup>These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>24</sup>The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. <sup>25</sup>Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. <sup>26</sup>Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred. <sup>27</sup>Jehoiada was the leader of the household of Aaron; and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, <sup>28</sup>and Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains. <sup>29</sup>Of the children of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. <sup>30</sup>Of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses. <sup>31</sup>Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king. <sup>32</sup>Of the children of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their commandment. <sup>33</sup>Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all kinds of instruments of war, fifty thousand, to help David<sup>b</sup> and were not of double heart. <sup>34</sup>Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. <sup>35</sup>Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. <sup>36</sup>Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. <sup>37</sup>On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand. <sup>38</sup>All these being men of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. <sup>39</sup>They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had made preparation for them. <sup>40</sup>Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and

Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, food of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and cattle, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

13 David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. <sup>2</sup>David said to all the assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us; <sup>3</sup>and let us bring again the ark of our God to us. For we did not seek it in the days of Saul.”

<sup>4</sup>All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. <sup>5</sup>So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt even to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. <sup>6</sup>David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD that sits above the cherubim, that is called by the Name. <sup>7</sup>They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. <sup>8</sup>David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets. <sup>9</sup>When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon,<sup>a</sup> Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. <sup>10</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God. <sup>11</sup>David was displeased, because the LORD had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez Uzza, to this day. <sup>12</sup>David was afraid of God that day, saying, “How can I bring the ark of God to me?” <sup>13</sup>So David did not move the ark to him into the City of David, but diverted it to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. <sup>14</sup>The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months: and the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

14 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. <sup>2</sup>And David knew that the LORD had established him king over Israel; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for his people Israel’s sake. <sup>3</sup>David took more wives at Jerusalem; and David became the father of more sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup>These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, <sup>5</sup>and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Eliphelet,<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, <sup>7</sup>and Elishama, and Beeliada,<sup>b</sup> and Eliphelet. <sup>8</sup>When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. <sup>9</sup>Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup>David inquired of God, saying, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?”

The LORD said to him, “Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand.”

<sup>11</sup>So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like a breakthrough of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>They left their gods there; and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire. <sup>13</sup>The Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley. <sup>14</sup>David inquired again of God; and God said to him, “You shall not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come on them over against the mulberry trees. <sup>15</sup>It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.”

<sup>16</sup>David did as God commanded him, and he<sup>d</sup> struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. <sup>17</sup>The fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him on all nations.

15 David made him houses in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. <sup>2</sup>Then David said, “No one ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites. For the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to him forever.”

hundred; <sup>9</sup>of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; <sup>10</sup>of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve. <sup>11</sup>David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, <sup>12</sup>and said to them, “You are the heads of the ancestral houses of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup>For because you did not carry it at first, the LORD our God made an outbreak against us, because we did not seek him according to the ordinance.”

<sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>The children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of music, stringed instruments and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. <sup>17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; <sup>18</sup>and with them their brothers of the second degree, Zechariah,<sup>a</sup> and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup>So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were given cymbals of bronze to sound aloud; <sup>20</sup>and Zechariah, and Aziel,<sup>b</sup> and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; <sup>21</sup>and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. <sup>22</sup>Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful. <sup>23</sup>Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>24</sup>Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>25</sup>So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. <sup>26</sup>It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup>David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: and David had on him an ephod of linen. <sup>28</sup>Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. <sup>29</sup>It happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

16 They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had set up for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. <sup>2</sup>When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>He dealt to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. <sup>4</sup>He appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD, the God of Israel: <sup>5</sup>Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; <sup>6</sup>and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

Call on his name.

Make his deeds known among the peoples.

Sing praises to him.

Tell of all his marvelous works.

<sup>10</sup>Glory in his holy name.

Let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

that he has done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth, <sup>13</sup>you offspring of Israel his servant, you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

<sup>14</sup>He is the LORD our God.

His judgments are in all the earth.

<sup>15</sup>Remember his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations,

<sup>16</sup>the covenant which he made with Abraham, his oath to Isaac.

<sup>17</sup>He confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant, <sup>18</sup>saying, "I will give you the land of Canaan,

 The lot of your inheritance," <sup>19</sup>when you were but a few men in number,
 yes, very few, and foreigners were in it.
<sup>20</sup>They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.
<sup>21</sup>He allowed no man to do them wrong.
 Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes, <sup>22</sup>"Do not touch my anointed ones.
 Do my prophets no harm."
<sup>23</sup>Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
 Display his salvation from day to day.
<sup>24</sup>Declare his glory among the nations,
 and his marvelous works
 among all the peoples.
<sup>25</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised.
 He also is to be feared above all gods.
<sup>26</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
<sup>27</sup>Honor and majesty are before him.
 Strength and gladness are in his place.
<sup>28</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you relatives of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
<sup>29</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory
 due to his name.

Bring an offering, and come before him.
 Worship the LORD in holy array.
<sup>30</sup>Tremble before him, all the earth.
 The world also is established that it can't be moved.
<sup>31</sup>Let the heavens be glad,
 and let the earth rejoice.
 Let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
<sup>32</sup>Let the sea roar, and its fullness.
 Let the field exult, and all that is in it.
<sup>33</sup>Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD,
 for he comes to judge the
 earth.
<sup>34</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his loving kindness
 endures forever.
<sup>35</sup>Say, "Save us, God of our salvation.
 Gather us together and deliver us from the nations,
 to give thanks to your holy name,
 to triumph in your praise."
<sup>36</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
 from everlasting to everlasting.
 And all the people said,
 "Amen," and praised the LORD.
<sup>37</sup>So he left there, before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, Asaph and his brothers, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; <sup>38</sup>and Obed-Edom with their brothers, sixty-eight; Obed-Edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers; <sup>39</sup>and Zadok the priest, and his brothers the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon, <sup>40</sup>to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded to Israel; <sup>41</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his loving kindness endures forever; <sup>42</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and with instruments for the songs of God; and the sons of Jeduthun to be at the gate. <sup>43</sup>All the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

17 It happened, when David lived in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains."

<sup>2</sup>Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you."

<sup>3</sup>It happened the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Go and tell David my servant, 'Thus says the

LORD, "You shall not build me a house to dwell in; <sup>5</sup>for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but have gone about<sup>8</sup> from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. <sup>6</sup>In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"

<sup>7</sup>"Now therefore, you shall tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel. <sup>8</sup>I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>9</sup>I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first, <sup>10</sup>and from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that the LORD will build you a house. <sup>11</sup>It shall happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will raise up your descendant after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>12</sup>He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>13</sup>I will be his father, and he shall be my son. I will not take my loving kindness away from him, as I took it from him that was before you; <sup>14</sup>but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever. His throne shall be established forever.””<sup>15</sup>According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>16</sup>Then David the king went in, and sat before the LORD; and he said, “Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? <sup>17</sup>This was a small thing in your eyes, God; but you have spoken of your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have respected me according to the estate of a man of high degree, LORD God. <sup>18</sup>What can David say yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your servant? For you know your servant. <sup>19</sup>LORD, for your servant’s sake, and according to your own heart, you have worked all this greatness, to make known to your servant<sup>a</sup> all these great things. <sup>20</sup>LORD, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>21</sup>What one nation in the earth is like your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for himself as a people, to make you a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed out of Egypt? <sup>22</sup>For your people Israel you made your own people forever; and you, LORD, became their God. <sup>23</sup>Now, LORD, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken. <sup>24</sup>Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel. The house of David your servant is established before you.’ <sup>25</sup>For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house. Therefore your servant has found courage to pray before you. <sup>26</sup>Now, LORD, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant. <sup>27</sup>Now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.”

18 After this it happened, that David struck the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>He struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. <sup>3</sup>David struck Hadadezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Perath. <sup>4</sup>David took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. <sup>5</sup>When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Syrians twenty-two thousand men. <sup>6</sup>Then David put garrisons<sup>a</sup> in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory<sup>b</sup> to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup>And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of bronze. <sup>9</sup>When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup>he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to Greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou;) and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and bronze. <sup>11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he took from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

<sup>12</sup>Moreover Abishai<sup>c</sup> the son of Zeruiah struck of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand. <sup>13</sup>He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>14</sup>David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people. <sup>15</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>16</sup>and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech<sup>d</sup> the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was scribe; <sup>17</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

19 It happened after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup>David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me."

So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. <sup>3</sup>But the leaders of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you?"

Haven't his servants come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land?" <sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup>Then there went certain persons, and told David how the men were served. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

<sup>6</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Aram Maacah, and out of Zobah. <sup>7</sup>So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. <sup>8</sup>When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>9</sup>The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. <sup>10</sup>Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. <sup>11</sup>The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>12</sup>He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you are to help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. <sup>13</sup>Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God. May the LORD do that which seems good to him."

<sup>14</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before him. <sup>15</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. <sup>17</sup>It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. <sup>18</sup>The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians the men of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the army. <sup>19</sup>When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

20 It happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, that Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. <sup>2</sup>David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount. <sup>3</sup>He brought forth the people who were in it, and cut them with saws, and with iron picks, and with axes.<sup>a</sup> David did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>It happened after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, a descendant of the Rephaim; and they were subdued. <sup>5</sup>There was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair<sup>b</sup> [the Bethlehemite]<sup>c</sup> killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>6</sup>There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was descended from the Raphah. <sup>7</sup>When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him. <sup>8</sup>These were the descendants of the Raphah in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

21 Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel. <sup>2</sup>And David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them."

<sup>3</sup>Joab said, "May the LORD make his people a hundred times as many as they are. But, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

<sup>4</sup>Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew sword: and in Judah were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew sword. <sup>6</sup>But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab. <sup>7</sup>God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel. <sup>8</sup>David said to God, “I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.”

<sup>9</sup>The LORD spoke to Gad, David’s seer, saying, <sup>10</sup>“Go and speak to David, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you.”’”

<sup>11</sup>So Gad came to David, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Take your choice: <sup>12</sup>either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.’”

<sup>13</sup>David said to Gad, “I am in distress. Let me fall, I pray, into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are very great. Let me not fall into the hand of man.”

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel; and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. <sup>15</sup>God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, the LORD saw, and he relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, “It is enough; now stay your hand.” The angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan<sup>a</sup> the Jebusite. <sup>16</sup>David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem.

Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. <sup>17</sup>David said to God, “Isn’t it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O LORD my God, be against me, and against my father’s house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up, and raise an altar to the LORD in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup>David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Ornan turned back, and saw the angel;<sup>b</sup> and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. <sup>21</sup>As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. <sup>22</sup>Then David said to Ornan, “Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build thereon an altar to the LORD. You shall sell it to me for the full price, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people.”

<sup>23</sup>Ornan said to David, “Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes. Look, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all.”

<sup>24</sup>King David said to Ornan, “No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that which is yours for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering without cost.”

<sup>25</sup>So David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. <sup>26</sup>David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire on the altar of burnt offering, and it consumed the burnt offering.<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>The LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath. <sup>28</sup>At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. <sup>29</sup>For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. <sup>30</sup>But David couldn’t go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

22 Then David said, “This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel.” <sup>2</sup>David gave orders to gather together the foreigners who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to cut worked stones to build God’s house. <sup>3</sup>David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and bronze in abundance without weight; <sup>4</sup>and cedar trees without number: for the Sidonians and they of Tyre brought cedar trees in abundance to David. <sup>5</sup>David said, “Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries. I will therefore make preparation for it.” So David prepared abundantly before his death. <sup>6</sup>Then he called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup>David said to Solomon, “My son,<sup>b</sup> as for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of the LORD my God. <sup>8</sup>But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars. You shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight. <sup>9</sup>Look, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies all around; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. <sup>10</sup>He shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.' <sup>11</sup>Now, my son, may the LORD be with you and prosper you, and build the house of the LORD your God, as he has spoken concerning you. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Israel; that so you may keep the law of the LORD your God. <sup>13</sup>Then you will prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which the LORD gave Moses concerning Israel. Be strong, and courageous. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed. <sup>14</sup>Now, look, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron without weight; for it is in abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone; and you may add to them. <sup>15</sup>There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who are skillful in every kind of work: <sup>16</sup>of the gold, the silver, and the bronze, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may the LORD be with you."

<sup>17</sup>And David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, <sup>18</sup>"Isn't the LORD your God with you? Hasn't he given you rest on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people. <sup>19</sup>Now set your heart and your soul to seek after the LORD your God. Arise therefore, and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD."

23 Now David was old and full of days; and he made

Solomon his son king over Israel. <sup>2</sup>And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. <sup>3</sup>The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. <sup>4</sup>David said, "Of these, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of the LORD; six thousand were officers and judges; <sup>5</sup>four thousand were doorkeepers; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which I made, for giving praise."

Merari. <sup>7</sup>Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, and Zetham, and Joel, three. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth,<sup>a</sup> and Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the ancestral houses of Ladan. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zizah,<sup>b</sup> and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. <sup>11</sup>Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they became a fathers' house in one reckoning. <sup>12</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. <sup>13</sup>The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to him, and to bless in his name, forever. <sup>14</sup>But as for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. <sup>16</sup>The sons of Gershom: Shubael<sup>c</sup> the chief. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. <sup>18</sup>The sons of Izhar: Shelomoth<sup>d</sup> the chief. <sup>19</sup>The sons of Hebron: Jeriah

the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. <sup>20</sup>The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup>Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only: and their brothers the sons of Kish took them as wives. <sup>23</sup>The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. <sup>24</sup>These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of ancestral houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward. <sup>25</sup>For David said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem forever. <sup>26</sup>Also the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its vessels for its service." <sup>27</sup>For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward. <sup>28</sup>For their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the rooms, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of God's house; <sup>29</sup>for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all kinds of measure and size; <sup>30</sup>and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise in the evening; <sup>31</sup>and to offer all burnt offerings to the

24 These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup>But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. <sup>3</sup>David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service. <sup>4</sup>There were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and they were divided like this: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of ancestral houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight. <sup>5</sup>And thus were they divided impartially by drawing lots; for there were officers of the sanctuary, and officers of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. <sup>6</sup>And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, and the officers, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the ancestral houses of the priests and of the Levites; one fathers' house being taken for Eleazar and one<sup>a</sup> being taken for Ithamar. <sup>7</sup>Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, <sup>8</sup>the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, <sup>9</sup>the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, <sup>10</sup>the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, <sup>11</sup>the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, <sup>12</sup>the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, <sup>13</sup>the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, <sup>14</sup>the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, <sup>15</sup>the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizez, <sup>16</sup>the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, <sup>17</sup>the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, <sup>18</sup>the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. <sup>19</sup>This was their ordering in their service, to come into the house of the LORD according to the ordinance given to them by Aaron their father, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him. <sup>20</sup>Of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. <sup>21</sup>Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief. <sup>22</sup>Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. <sup>23</sup>The sons of

27 Now the sons of Israel after their number, the heads of ancestral houses and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king, in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year—of every division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>2</sup>Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>3</sup>He was of the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. <sup>4</sup>Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and his division; and Mikloth the ruler: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>5</sup>The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, chief: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>6</sup>This is that Benaiah, who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty: and of his division was Ammizabad his son. <sup>7</sup>The fourth for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>8</sup>The fifth captain for this fifth month was Shambhuth the Izrahite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>9</sup>The sixth for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>10</sup>The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>11</sup>The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>12</sup>The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>13</sup>The tenth for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>14</sup>The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>15</sup>The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>16</sup>Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri the ruler: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah: <sup>17</sup>of Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: of Aaron, Zadok: <sup>18</sup>of Judah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael: <sup>19</sup>of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel: <sup>20</sup>of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of

Azaziah: of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah: <sup>21</sup>of the half-tribe<sup>a</sup> of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner: <sup>22</sup>of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>But David did not take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like the stars of the sky. <sup>24</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but did not finish; and there came wrath for this on Israel; neither was the number entered in the scroll<sup>b</sup> of the chronicles of King David. <sup>25</sup>Over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jonathan the son of Uzziah: <sup>26</sup>Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub: <sup>27</sup>and over the vineyard workers<sup>c</sup> was Shimei the Ramathite: and over the increase of the vineyards for the winecellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite: <sup>28</sup>and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal Hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash: <sup>29</sup>and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai<sup>d</sup> the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai: <sup>30</sup>and over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite: and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. <sup>31</sup>All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's. <sup>32</sup>Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons: <sup>33</sup>Ahithophel was the king's counselor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend: <sup>34</sup>and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the captain of the king's army was Joab.

28 And David assembled all the officials of Israel, the officials of the tribes, and the officers of the companies who served the king by division, and the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers, and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valor, to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, "Hear me, my brothers, and my people. of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, the cherubim, that spread out, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>“All this,” said David, “I have been made to understand in writing from the hand of the LORD, even all the works of this pattern.”

<sup>20</sup>David said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and courageous, and do it. Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; for the LORD God, even my God, is with you. He will not leave you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.

<sup>21</sup>Look, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of God’s house. There shall be with you in all kinds of work every willing man who has skill, for any kind of service. Also the captains and all the people will be entirely at your command.”

29 David the king said to all the assembly,

“Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

<sup>2</sup>Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. <sup>3</sup>In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, <sup>4</sup>even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; <sup>5</sup>of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?” <sup>6</sup>Then the leaders of ancestral houses, and the leaders of the tribes of Israel, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with the officers over the king’s work, offered willingly; <sup>7</sup>and they gave for the service of God’s house of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of bronze eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents. <sup>8</sup>They with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. <sup>9</sup>Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. <sup>10</sup>Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said, “You are blessed, LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. <sup>11</sup>Yours, LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. <sup>12</sup>Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and it is in your hand to make great, and to give strength to all. <sup>13</sup>Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name. <sup>14</sup>But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. <sup>15</sup>For we are strangers before you, and foreigners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining. <sup>16</sup>The LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes from your hand, and is all your own. <sup>17</sup>I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. assembly, “Now bless the LORD your God.”

All the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king. <sup>21</sup>They sacrificed sacrifices to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings to the LORD, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel, <sup>22</sup>and ate and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and they anointed him<sup>a</sup> to the LORD to be prince, and Zadok to be priest. <sup>23</sup>Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup>And all the leaders, the mighty men, and also all of the sons of king David submitted themselves to Solomon the king. <sup>25</sup>The LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. <sup>26</sup>Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. <sup>27</sup>The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years<sup>b</sup> in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>He died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor: and Solomon his son reigned in his place.<sup>29</sup> Now the acts of David the king, first and last, look, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer,<sup>30</sup> with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

The Second Book of Chronicles

1 Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.<sup>2</sup> Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the ancestral houses.<sup>3</sup> So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tent of Meeting of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.<sup>4</sup> But David had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath Jearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.<sup>5</sup> Moreover the bronze altar, that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there<sup>a</sup> before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the assembly were seeking counsel there.<sup>6</sup> Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it.<sup>7</sup> In that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you."<sup>8</sup> Solomon said to God, "You have shown great loving kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his place.<sup>9</sup> Now, LORD God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.<sup>10</sup> Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this your people, that is so great?"

<sup>11</sup> God said to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king:<sup>12</sup> wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you; neither shall there any after you have the like."

<sup>13</sup>So Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. <sup>14</sup>Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>16</sup>The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and from Kue; the king's merchants purchased them from Kue. <sup>17</sup>They brought up and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

2 Now Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. <sup>2</sup>Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand men who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. <sup>3</sup>Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, "As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house in which to dwell, so deal with me. <sup>4</sup>Look, I am about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual show bread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.

<sup>5</sup>"The house which I build is great; for our God is great above all gods. <sup>6</sup>But who is able to build him a house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain him? Who am I then, that I should build him a house, except just to burn incense before him?

<sup>7</sup>"Now therefore send me a man skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

<sup>8</sup>"Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon: and look, my servants shall be with your servants, <sup>9</sup>even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. <sup>10</sup>Look, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you king over them."

<sup>12</sup>Hiram continued, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. <sup>13</sup>Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, of Hiram my father's, <sup>14</sup>the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any kind of engraving, and to execute any design; that there may be a place appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

<sup>15</sup>"Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants: <sup>16</sup>and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup>Solomon numbered all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred. <sup>18</sup>He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people at work.

3 Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where he<sup>a</sup> appeared to David his father, at the place that David had designated, on the threshing floor of Ornan<sup>b</sup> the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup>And he began to build in the<sup>c</sup> second month, in the fourth year of his reign. <sup>3</sup>Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of God's house. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits,<sup>d</sup> and the breadth twenty cubits. <sup>4</sup>The porch that was in front,<sup>e</sup> its length, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold. <sup>5</sup>The greater house he made a ceiling with fir wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains. <sup>6</sup>He garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. <sup>7</sup>He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors, with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls. <sup>8</sup>He made the most holy house: its length, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. <sup>9</sup>The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper rooms with gold. <sup>10</sup>In the most holy house he made two cherubim of sculptured work; and he<sup>a</sup> overlaid them with gold. <sup>11</sup>The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>12</sup>The wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, joining to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>13</sup>The wings of these cherubim were extended<sup>b</sup> twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house. <sup>14</sup>He made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and ornamented it with cherubim. <sup>15</sup>Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. <sup>16</sup>He made chains in the oracle, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. <sup>17</sup>He set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

4 Then he made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits its length, and twenty cubits its breadth, and ten cubits its height. <sup>2</sup>Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it. <sup>3</sup>Under it was the likeness of oxen,<sup>c</sup> which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>4</sup>It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>5</sup>It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths. <sup>6</sup>He made also ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in. <sup>7</sup>He made the ten lampstands of gold

according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.<sup>8</sup> He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold.<sup>9</sup> Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with bronze.<sup>10</sup> He set the sea on the right side of the house<sup>a</sup> eastward, toward the south.<sup>11</sup> Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing the work that he did for king Solomon in God's house:<sup>12</sup> the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars,<sup>13</sup> and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars.<sup>14</sup> He made also the bases, and the basins made he on the bases;<sup>15</sup> one sea, and the twelve oxen under it.<sup>16</sup> Hiram his father also made the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all its vessels for king Solomon for the house of the LORD of bright bronze.<sup>17</sup> The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.<sup>18</sup> Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the bronze could not be found out.<sup>19</sup> Solomon made all the vessels that were in God's house, the golden altar also, and the tables with the show bread on them;<sup>20</sup> and the lampstands with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold;<sup>21</sup> and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold;<sup>22</sup> and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

5 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.<sup>2</sup> Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the ancestral leaders of the sons of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the City of David, which is Zion.<sup>3</sup> And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month.<sup>4</sup> All the elders of Israel came: and the Levites took up the ark;<sup>5</sup> and they brought up the ark, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these the priests the Levites brought up.<sup>6</sup> King

Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>7</sup>The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>8</sup>For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>9</sup>The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place<sup>a</sup> before the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside. And they<sup>b</sup> are there to this day. <sup>10</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses put at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. <sup>11</sup>It happened, when the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, regardless of the divisions; <sup>12</sup>also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets;) <sup>13</sup>it happened, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, "For he is good; for his loving kindness endures forever," then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD, <sup>14</sup>so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD filled God's house.

6 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in the thick cloud. <sup>2</sup>But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever."

<sup>3</sup>The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>4</sup>He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, <sup>5</sup>Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; nor did I choose any man to be a leader over my people Israel: <sup>6</sup>but I chose Jerusalem, that my name may be there; and I chose David to be over my people Israel." <sup>7</sup>Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>But the LORD said to David my father,

‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: <sup>9</sup>nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.’

<sup>10</sup>“The LORD has performed his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>11</sup>There I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with the sons of Israel.”

<sup>12</sup>He stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands <sup>13</sup>(for Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and kneeled down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;) <sup>14</sup>and he said, “LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; you who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; <sup>15</sup>who have kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>16</sup>“Now therefore, LORD, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, ‘There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.’ <sup>17</sup>Now therefore, LORD, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David.

<sup>18</sup>“But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Look, heaven and the highest heaven can’t contain you; how much less this house which I have built. <sup>19</sup>Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and to his petition, LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you; <sup>20</sup>that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where you have said that you would put your name; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place. <sup>21</sup>Listen to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>22</sup>”If a man sins against his neighbor and obliges him to take an oath, and he comes to take an oath before your altar in this house; <sup>23</sup>then hear from heaven, and do, and judge your servants, bringing retribution to the wicked, to bring his way on his own head;

and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24</sup>“If your people Israel be struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you, and shall turn again and confess your name, and pray and make petition before you in this house; <sup>25</sup>then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.

<sup>26</sup>“When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them: <sup>27</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup>“If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is; <sup>29</sup>whatever prayer and petition be made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house: <sup>30</sup>then hear from heaven, your dwelling place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of men;) <sup>31</sup>that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup>“Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for your great name’s sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house: <sup>33</sup>then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

<sup>34</sup>“If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; <sup>35</sup>then hear from heaven their prayer and their petition, and maintain their cause.

<sup>36</sup>“If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn’t sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near; <sup>37</sup>yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and repent and make petition to you in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly;’<sup>38</sup> if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name:<sup>39</sup> then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>40</sup>“Now, my God, let, I beg you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.

<sup>41</sup>“Now therefore arise, LORD God, into your resting place, you, and the ark of your strength: let your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let your faithful ones rejoice in what is good.

7 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.<sup>2</sup> The priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD’s house.<sup>3</sup> All the sons of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped, and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “For he is good; for his loving kindness endures for ever.”

<sup>5</sup>King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated God’s house.<sup>6</sup> The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to give thanks to the LORD, when David praised by their ministry, saying “For his loving kindness endures for ever.” The priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood.

<sup>7</sup>Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat.

<sup>8</sup>So Solomon held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. <sup>10</sup>On the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. <sup>11</sup>Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and he successfully completed all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.

<sup>13</sup>"If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; <sup>14</sup>if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. <sup>15</sup>Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. <sup>16</sup>For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

<sup>17</sup>"As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; <sup>18</sup>then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel.' <sup>19</sup>But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>20</sup>then I will pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>21</sup>This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land, and to this house?' <sup>22</sup>They shall answer, 'Because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and took other gods, worshipped them, and served them. Therefore he has brought all these disasters on them.'"

8 It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house, <sup>2</sup>that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the sons of Israel to dwell there. <sup>3</sup>Solomon went to Hamath Zobah, and prevailed against it. <sup>4</sup>He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities, which he built in Hamath. <sup>5</sup>Also he built Upper Beth Horon, and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; <sup>6</sup>and Baalath, and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. <sup>7</sup>As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel; <sup>8</sup>of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel did not consume, of them Solomon conscripted forced labor to this day. <sup>9</sup>But of the sons of Israel, Solomon made no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and commanders of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>10</sup>These were the chief officers of king Solomon, even two-hundred fifty, who ruled over the people.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the City of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

<sup>12</sup>Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, <sup>13</sup>even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents. <sup>14</sup>He appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. <sup>15</sup>They did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. <sup>16</sup>Now all the work of Solomon was carried out from<sup>a</sup> the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed. <sup>17</sup>Then went Solomon to Ezion Geber, and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. <sup>18</sup>Huram sent him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of his servants; and they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

9 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great train, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. <sup>2</sup>Solomon told her all her questions; and there was not anything hidden from Solomon which he did not tell her. <sup>3</sup>When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, <sup>4</sup>and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, his cup bearers also, and their clothing, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

<sup>5</sup>She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. <sup>6</sup>However I did not believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and look, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: you exceed the fame that I heard. <sup>7</sup>Happy are your wives,<sup>a</sup> and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. <sup>8</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for the LORD your God:

because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore he made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

<sup>9</sup>She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. <sup>10</sup>The servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum<sup>b</sup> trees and precious stones. <sup>11</sup>The king made of the algum trees terraces for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers: and there were none like these seen before in the land of Judah. <sup>12</sup>King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants. <sup>13</sup>Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>14</sup>besides that which the traders and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>15</sup>King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one buckler. <sup>16</sup>He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>17</sup>Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. <sup>19</sup>Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. <sup>20</sup>All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. <sup>21</sup>For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>22</sup>So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. <sup>23</sup>All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>24</sup>They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. <sup>25</sup>Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>28</sup>They brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all lands. <sup>29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? <sup>30</sup>Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. <sup>31</sup>Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

10 Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup>It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon), that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup>They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you.”

The people departed. <sup>6</sup>King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me to return answer to this people?"

<sup>7</sup>They spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

<sup>8</sup>But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup>He said to them, "What counsel do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?'"

<sup>10</sup>The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter on us;' thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. <sup>11</sup>Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

<sup>12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again the third day." <sup>13</sup>The king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, <sup>14</sup>and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

<sup>15</sup>So the king did not listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that the LORD might establish his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>16</sup>When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, Israel. Now see to your own house, David." So all Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>17</sup>But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup>Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the sons of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

11 When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. <sup>2</sup>But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Thus says the LORD, “You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers. Return every man to his house; for this thing is of me.””” So they listened to the word<sup>a</sup> of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

<sup>13</sup>The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their border. <sup>14</sup>For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest’s office to the LORD;

<sup>15</sup>and he appointed him priests for the high places, and for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made. <sup>16</sup>After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>17</sup>So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon. <sup>18</sup>Rehoboam took him a wife, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and<sup>b</sup> of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse; <sup>19</sup>and she bore him sons: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. <sup>20</sup>After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.) <sup>22</sup>Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, the prince among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. <sup>23</sup>He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all<sup>d</sup> his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them food in abundance. He sought for them many wives.

12 It happened, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him. <sup>2</sup>It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak<sup>a</sup> king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against the LORD, <sup>3</sup>with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. <sup>4</sup>He took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, ‘You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.’”

<sup>6</sup>Then the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, “The LORD is righteous.”

<sup>7</sup>When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, “They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. <sup>8</sup>Nevertheless they shall be his servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.”

<sup>9</sup>So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king’s house. He took it all away. He also took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup>King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king’s house. <sup>11</sup>It was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. <sup>12</sup>When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah there were good things found. <sup>13</sup>So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>14</sup>He did that which was evil, because he did not set his heart to seek the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last,<sup>a</sup> aren't they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, after the way of genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>16</sup>And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers, and he was buried<sup>b</sup> in the City of David. And Abijah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup>He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup>Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor. <sup>4</sup>Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel: <sup>5</sup>Ought you not to know that the LORD, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? <sup>6</sup>Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. <sup>7</sup>There were gathered to him worthless men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

<sup>8</sup>"Now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. <sup>9</sup>Haven't you driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves after the ways of the peoples of other lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priest of those who are no gods.

alarm to sound an alarm against you. Sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.”

<sup>13</sup>But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. <sup>14</sup>When Judah looked back, look, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. <sup>15</sup>Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. <sup>16</sup>The sons of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. <sup>17</sup>Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. <sup>18</sup>Thus the sons of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>19</sup>Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with its towns, and Jeshanah with its towns, and Ephron with its towns. <sup>20</sup>Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah. The LORD struck him, and he died. <sup>21</sup>But Abijah grew mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. <sup>22</sup>The rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. <sup>2</sup>Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: <sup>3</sup>for he took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, <sup>4</sup>and commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. <sup>5</sup>Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. <sup>6</sup>He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest. <sup>7</sup>For he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities, and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. The land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered. <sup>8</sup>Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred eighty thousand: all these were mighty men of valor. <sup>9</sup>There came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah. <sup>10</sup>Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. <sup>11</sup>Asa cried to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and those who have no strength. Help us, LORD our God; for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. LORD, you are our God. Do not let man prevail against you."

<sup>12</sup>So the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. <sup>13</sup>Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his army; and they carried away very much booty. <sup>14</sup>They struck all the cities around Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came on them: and they plundered all the cities; for there was a great amount of plunder in them. <sup>15</sup>They struck also the tents of livestock, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

15 The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded:

<sup>2</sup>and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you, while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. <sup>3</sup>Now for a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. <sup>4</sup>But when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. <sup>5</sup>In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. <sup>6</sup>They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God troubled them with all adversity. <sup>7</sup>But you be strong, and do not let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded."

<sup>8</sup>When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. <sup>10</sup>So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. <sup>11</sup>They sacrificed to the LORD in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep. <sup>12</sup>They entered into the covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; <sup>13</sup>and that whoever would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. <sup>14</sup>They swore to the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. <sup>15</sup>All Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest all around. <sup>16</sup>Also Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup>But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. <sup>18</sup>He brought into God's house the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. <sup>19</sup>There was no more war to the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

16 In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. <sup>11</sup>Look, the acts of Asa, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup>In the thirtieth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he did not seek the LORD, but to the physicians. <sup>13</sup>Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. <sup>14</sup>They buried him in his own tomb<sup>a</sup> that he had dug out in the City of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various kinds of sweet-scented herbs<sup>b</sup> prepared by the perfumers' art, and they made a very great fire for him.

17 Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. <sup>2</sup>He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. <sup>3</sup>The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David,<sup>c</sup> and did not seek the Baals, <sup>4</sup>but sought to the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat tribute; and he had riches and honor in abundance. <sup>6</sup>His heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: and furthermore he took away the high places and the Asherim out of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Also in the third year of his reign he sent his officials, even Ben Hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; <sup>8</sup>and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. <sup>9</sup>They taught in Judah, having the scroll of the law of the LORD with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people. <sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup>Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred male goats. <sup>12</sup>Jehoshaphat grew great exceedingly; and he built in Judah fortresses and cities of store. <sup>13</sup>He had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>This was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valor three hundred thousand; <sup>15</sup>and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand; <sup>16</sup>and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. <sup>17</sup>Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; <sup>18</sup>and next to him Jehozabad and with him one hundred eighty thousand ready prepared for war. <sup>19</sup>These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18 Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab. <sup>2</sup>After certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>3</sup>Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead?"

He answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people. We will be with you in the war." <sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of the LORD."

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

They said, "Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>6</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we may inquire of him?"

<sup>7</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla."

Jehoshaphat said, "Do not let the king say so."

<sup>8</sup>Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Get Micaiah the son of Imla quickly."

<sup>9</sup>Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>10</sup>Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed.'"

<sup>11</sup>All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>12</sup>The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, “Look, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Let your word therefore, please be like one of theirs, and speak good.”

<sup>13</sup>Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, whatever my God says to me,<sup>a</sup> that I will speak.”

<sup>14</sup>When he had come to the king, the king said to him, “Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?”

He said, “Go up, and prosper. They shall be delivered into your hand.”

<sup>15</sup>The king said to him, “How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

<sup>16</sup>He said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. The LORD said, ‘These have no master. Let them return every man to his house in peace.’”

<sup>17</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

<sup>18</sup>Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. <sup>19</sup>The LORD said, ‘Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ One spoke saying in this way, and another saying in that way. <sup>20</sup>A spirit came out, stood before the LORD, and said, ‘I will entice him.’”

“The LORD said to him, ‘How?’”

<sup>21</sup>“He said, ‘I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’”

“He said, ‘You will entice him, and will prevail also. Go forth, and do so.’”

<sup>22</sup>“Now therefore, look, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and the LORD has pronounced disaster concerning you.”

<sup>23</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you?”

<sup>24</sup>Micaiah said, “Look, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself.”

<sup>25</sup>The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; <sup>26</sup>and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.'""

<sup>27</sup>Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, you peoples, all of you."

<sup>28</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>29</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. <sup>30</sup>Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight neither with small nor<sup>a</sup> great, except only with the king of Israel."

<sup>31</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel." Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. <sup>32</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>33</sup>A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded."

<sup>34</sup>The battle increased that day. However the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening; and about the time of the going down of the sun, he died.

19 Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath is on you from before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God."

<sup>4</sup>Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>5</sup>He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, <sup>6</sup>and said to the judges, "Consider what you do: for you do not judge for man, but for the LORD; and he is with you in the judgment. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore let the fear of the LORD be on you. Take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes.”

<sup>8</sup>Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed Levites and priests, and of the heads of the ancestral houses of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>He commanded them, saying, “Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. <sup>10</sup>Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards the LORD, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you shall not be guilty. <sup>11</sup>Look, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king’s matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the good.”

multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea from Edom.<sup>b</sup> Look, they are in Hazazon Tamar” (that is, En Gedi). <sup>3</sup>Jehoshaphat was alarmed, and set himself to seek to the LORD. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. <sup>4</sup>Judah gathered themselves together, to seek help from the LORD. They came out of all the cities of Judah to seek the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court; <sup>6</sup>and he said, “O LORD, the God of our fathers, aren’t you God in heaven? Aren’t you ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in your hand, so that no one is able to withstand you. <sup>7</sup>Did you not, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend? <sup>8</sup>They lived in it, and have built you a sanctuary in it for your name, saying, <sup>9</sup>‘If evil comes on us—the sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this house, and before you, (for your name is in this house), and cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save.’ <sup>10</sup>Now, look, the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and did not destroy them; <sup>11</sup>behold, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of your possession, which you have given us to inherit. <sup>12</sup>Our God, will you not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do, but our eyes are on you.”

<sup>13</sup>All Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children. <sup>14</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly; <sup>15</sup>and he said, “Listen, all Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you king Jehoshaphat. Thus says the LORD to you, ‘Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God’s. <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow go down against them. Look, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz. You shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup>You will not need to fight this battle. Set yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed. Go out against them tomorrow, for the LORD is with you.’”

of the Korahites, stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with an exceeding loud voice. <sup>20</sup>They rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, so you shall be established. Believe his prophets,<sup>a</sup> and prosper.”

<sup>21</sup>When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to the LORD; for his loving kindness endures forever. <sup>22</sup>When they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushers against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck. <sup>23</sup>For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to kill and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another. <sup>24</sup>When Judah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and look, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. <sup>25</sup>When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much. <sup>26</sup>On the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Beracah to this day. <sup>27</sup>Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in their forefront, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies. <sup>28</sup>They came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets to the house of the LORD. <sup>29</sup>The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. <sup>30</sup>So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest all around. <sup>31</sup>Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>32</sup>He walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD. <sup>33</sup>However the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts to the God of their fathers. <sup>34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, look, they are written in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is inserted in the book of the kings of Israel. <sup>35</sup>After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. The same did very wickedly: <sup>36</sup>and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion Geber. <sup>37</sup>Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." The ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup>He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephathiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. <sup>4</sup>Now when Jehoram was risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and various also of the princes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>7</sup>However the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always.<sup>8</sup> In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots.<sup>10</sup> So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day: then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.<sup>11</sup> Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, and led Judah astray.<sup>12</sup> A letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,<sup>13</sup> but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, like the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself:<sup>14</sup> behold, the LORD will strike with a great plague your people, and your children, and your wives, and all your substance;<sup>15</sup> and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.'"

<sup>16</sup>The LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians:<sup>17</sup> and they came up against Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.<sup>18</sup> After all this the LORD struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease.<sup>19</sup> It happened, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.<sup>20</sup> Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place; for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.<sup>2</sup> Ahaziah was twenty-two<sup>a</sup> years old when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri.<sup>3</sup>He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.<sup>4</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.<sup>5</sup>He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram.<sup>6</sup>He returned to be healed in Jezreel from<sup>a</sup> the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah<sup>b</sup> the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.<sup>7</sup>Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram: for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.<sup>8</sup>It happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons<sup>c</sup> of the brothers of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and killed them.<sup>9</sup>He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom.<sup>10</sup>Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal family of the house of Judah.<sup>11</sup>But Jehosheba,<sup>d</sup> the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehosheba, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she did not kill him.<sup>12</sup>He was with them hidden in God's house six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

he showed them the king's son.<sup>a</sup> And he said to them, "Look, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has spoken concerning the sons of David. <sup>4</sup>This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be gatekeepers of the thresholds. <sup>5</sup>A third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the LORD's house. <sup>6</sup>But let no one come into the house of the LORD, except the priests, and those who minister of the Levites. They shall come in, for they are holy, but all the people shall follow the LORD's instructions. <sup>7</sup>The Levites shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the house, let him be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out."

<sup>8</sup>So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the shift. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in God's house. <sup>10</sup>He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>11</sup>Then he<sup>b</sup> brought out the king's son, and put<sup>c</sup> the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, "Long live the king."

<sup>12</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: <sup>13</sup>and she looked, and, look, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets; the singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, "Treason. Treason."

<sup>14</sup>Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not kill her in the LORD's house." <sup>15</sup>So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house; and they killed her there. <sup>16</sup>Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people.<sup>17</sup>All the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.<sup>18</sup>Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the LORD under the hand of the priests and<sup>a</sup> the Levites, and he appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites,<sup>b</sup> whom David had assigned over the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David.<sup>19</sup>He set the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in.<sup>20</sup>He took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.<sup>21</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword.

began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba.<sup>2</sup>Joash did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.<sup>3</sup>Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he became the father of sons and daughters.<sup>4</sup>It happened after this, that Joash intended to restore the house of the LORD.<sup>5</sup>He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money to repair the house of your God from all Israel from year to year. See that you expedite this matter." However the Levites did not do it right away.<sup>6</sup>The king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, "Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in the tax of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the assembly of Israel, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, for the tent of the testimony?"<sup>7</sup>For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up God's house; and they also gave all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.<sup>8</sup>So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD.<sup>9</sup>They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness.<sup>10</sup>And all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and threw it into the chest, until it was full.<sup>11</sup>It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. <sup>12</sup>The king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also such as worked iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up God's house in its state, and strengthened it. <sup>14</sup>When they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, of which were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada. <sup>15</sup>But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; one hundred thirty years old was he when he died. <sup>16</sup>They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house. <sup>17</sup>Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and paid homage to the king. And the king listened to them. <sup>18</sup>They forsook the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness. <sup>19</sup>Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. <sup>20</sup>The Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you disobey the commandments of the LORD, so that you can't prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has also forsaken you.'"

<sup>21</sup>They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, "May the LORD look at it, and repay it." <sup>23</sup>It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him. And they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king in<sup>a</sup> Damascus. <sup>24</sup>For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; and the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash. <sup>25</sup>When they were departed for him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the son<sup>b</sup> of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. <sup>26</sup>These are those who conspired against him: Zabab the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess. <sup>27</sup>Now concerning his sons, and the many<sup>a</sup> oracles against him, and the rebuilding of God's house, look, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. <sup>3</sup>Now it happened, when the kingdom was firmly in his grasp,<sup>b</sup> that he killed his servants who had killed his father the king. <sup>4</sup>But he did not put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the scroll of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin." <sup>5</sup>Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield. <sup>6</sup>He hired also one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver. <sup>7</sup>A man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you; for the LORD is not with Israel, with all the children of Ephraim. <sup>8</sup>But if you will go, take action, be strong for the battle. God will overthrow you before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to overthrow."

<sup>9</sup>Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel?"

The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. <sup>11</sup>Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the children of Seir. <sup>12</sup>The children of Judah carry away ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. <sup>13</sup>But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil. <sup>14</sup>Now it happened, after that Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. <sup>15</sup>Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, “Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?”

<sup>16</sup>It happened, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, “Have we made you one of the king’s counselors? Stop. Why should you be struck down?”

Then the prophet stopped, and said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel.”

<sup>17</sup>Then Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us look one another in the face.”

<sup>18</sup>Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as his wife; then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>19</sup>You say to yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?’”

<sup>20</sup>But Amaziah would not listen; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup>So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>22</sup>Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. <sup>23</sup>Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate,<sup>a</sup> four hundred cubits. <sup>24</sup>He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in God’s house with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king’s house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. <sup>25</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. <sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, look, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? <sup>27</sup>Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. <sup>28</sup>They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of David.<sup>a</sup>

26 All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. <sup>2</sup>He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. <sup>3</sup>Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecoliah,<sup>b</sup> of Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup>He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the fear<sup>c</sup> of God, and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper. <sup>6</sup>He went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup>God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal,<sup>d</sup> and<sup>e</sup> the Meunim. <sup>8</sup>The Meunim<sup>f</sup> gave tribute to Uzziah, and his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt; for he grew exceeding strong. <sup>9</sup>Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. <sup>10</sup>He built towers in the wilderness, and dug out many cisterns, for he had many cattle;<sup>g</sup> in the Shephelah and in the plain he had farmers, and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile fields, for he loved the land. <sup>11</sup>Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. <sup>12</sup>The whole number of the heads of ancestral houses, even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand and six hundred. <sup>13</sup>Under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup>Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging. <sup>15</sup>He made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong. <sup>16</sup>But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against the LORD his God; for he went into the LORD's temple to burn incense on the altar of incense. <sup>17</sup>Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, who were valiant men: <sup>18</sup>and they resisted Uzziah the king, and said to him, "It isn't for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honor from the LORD God."

<sup>19</sup>Then Uzziah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense. <sup>20</sup>Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him, and look, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; yes, himself hurried also to go out, because the LORD had struck him. <sup>21</sup>Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. <sup>22</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. <sup>23</sup>So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, "He is a leper." Jotham his son reigned in his place.

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: however he did not enter into the LORD's temple. The people still did corruptly. <sup>3</sup>He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he carried out considerable work on the wall of Ophel. <sup>4</sup>Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers. <sup>5</sup>He fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The children of Ammon gave that much to him in the second year also, and in the third. <sup>6</sup>So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God. <sup>7</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup>He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he did not do that which was right in the eyes of the LORD,<sup>a</sup> like David his father; <sup>2</sup>but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for the Baals. <sup>3</sup>Moreover he burnt incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, and made his sons pass through<sup>b</sup> the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>4</sup>He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup>Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they struck him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to

Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. <sup>6</sup>For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>7</sup>Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. <sup>9</sup>But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, "Look, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. <sup>10</sup>Now you purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondservants and bondmaids for yourselves. Aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against the LORD your God? <sup>11</sup>Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive from your brothers; for the fierce wrath of the LORD is on you." <sup>12</sup>Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,<sup>13</sup> and said to them, “You shall not bring in the captives here: for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against the LORD, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.”

<sup>14</sup>So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly. <sup>15</sup>The men who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them, gave them sandals, and gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria. <sup>16</sup>At that time king Ahaz sent to the king<sup>a</sup> of Assyria to help him. <sup>17</sup>For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives. <sup>18</sup>The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the Negev of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with its towns, and Timnah with its towns, Gimzo also and its towns: and they lived there. <sup>19</sup>For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed severely against the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and distressed him, but did not strengthen him. <sup>21</sup>For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but it did not help him. <sup>22</sup>In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against the LORD, this same king Ahaz. <sup>23</sup>For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which struck him; and he said, “Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, so I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me.” But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. <sup>24</sup>Ahaz gathered together the vessels of God’s house, and cut in pieces the vessels of God’s house, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD; and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup>In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers. <sup>26</sup>Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup>Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

29 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>3</sup>He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. <sup>4</sup>He brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, <sup>5</sup>and said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites. Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry out the filthiness out of the holy place. <sup>6</sup>For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. <sup>7</sup>Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup>Therefore the wrath of the LORD was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. <sup>9</sup>For, look, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. <sup>10</sup>Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. <sup>11</sup>My sons, do not be negligent now; for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; <sup>13</sup>and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; <sup>14</sup>and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup>They gathered their brothers, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>The priests went in to the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the LORD's temple into the court of the house of the LORD. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup>Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD; and they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. <sup>18</sup>Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace, and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the table of show bread, with all its vessels. <sup>19</sup>Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign threw away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified;

<sup>20</sup>Then Hezekiah the king arose early and gathered the officials of the city and went up to the house of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>They brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. <sup>22</sup>So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>23</sup>They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them: <sup>24</sup>and the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. <sup>25</sup>He set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king’s seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of the LORD by his prophets. <sup>26</sup>The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. <sup>27</sup>Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. <sup>28</sup>All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all<sup>a</sup> this continued until the burnt offering was finished. <sup>29</sup>When they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped. <sup>30</sup>Moreover Hezekiah the king and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped. <sup>31</sup>Then Hezekiah answered, “Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD.” The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup>The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>33</sup>The consecrated things were six hundred head of cattle and three thousand sheep. <sup>34</sup>But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. <sup>35</sup>Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. <sup>36</sup>Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

30 Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>For the king had taken counsel, and his officials, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup>For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. <sup>5</sup>So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written. <sup>6</sup>So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his officers throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, "Sons of Israel, turn again to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant of you who have escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. <sup>7</sup>Do not be like your fathers, and like your brothers, who trespassed against the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see. <sup>8</sup>Now do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves to the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. <sup>9</sup>For if you turn again to the LORD, your brothers and your children shall find<sup>a</sup> compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him."

<sup>10</sup>So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun: but they ridiculed them, and mocked them. <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless some from Asher and from<sup>b</sup> Manasseh and from Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>Also in Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the leaders by the word of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Many people assembled at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly.<sup>14</sup>They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.<sup>15</sup>Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.<sup>16</sup>They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites.<sup>17</sup>For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD.<sup>18</sup>For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon everyone<sup>19</sup> who sets his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, even if they aren't clean according to the purification of the sanctuary."

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of the LORD. So they completed<sup>a</sup> the seven days of the feast, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD, the God of their fathers.<sup>23</sup>The whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept another seven days with gladness.<sup>24</sup>For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And a great number of priests sanctified themselves.<sup>25</sup>All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced.<sup>26</sup>So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.<sup>27</sup>Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even to heaven.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the sons of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of the LORD. <sup>5</sup>As soon as the commandment came abroad, the sons of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. <sup>6</sup>The sons of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things<sup>a</sup> which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps.

<sup>7</sup>In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup>And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel. <sup>9</sup>Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. <sup>10</sup>Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for the LORD has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store." <sup>11</sup>Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them. <sup>12</sup>They brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second. <sup>13</sup>Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of God's house. <sup>14</sup>Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD, and the most holy things. <sup>15</sup>Under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, alongside<sup>a</sup> the priests, to faithfully make disbursements to their brothers by divisions, as well to the great as to the small: <sup>16</sup>besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of the LORD, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions. <sup>17</sup>This is<sup>b</sup> the enrollment of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; <sup>18</sup>and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. <sup>19</sup>Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites. <sup>20</sup>Hezekiah did so throughout all Judah; and he worked that which was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God. <sup>21</sup>In every work that he began in the service of God's house, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

32 After these things, and this faithfulness,

Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and camped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself. <sup>2</sup>When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he intended to fight against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup>he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city; and they helped him. <sup>4</sup>So many people gathered together, and they stopped all the springs, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?"
