<sup>5</sup>He took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised towers upon it,<sup>c</sup> and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. <sup>6</sup>He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, <sup>7</sup>"Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater

with us than with him. <sup>8</sup>With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles.” The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. <sup>9</sup>After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, <sup>10</sup>Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, “In whom do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? <sup>11</sup>Doesn’t Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, ‘The LORD our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?’ <sup>12</sup>Hasn’t the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense?’ <sup>13</sup> Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any way able to deliver their land out of my hand? <sup>14</sup>Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? <sup>15</sup>Now therefore do not let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way, neither believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers.

How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand?”

<sup>16</sup>His servants spoke yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. <sup>17</sup>He also wrote letters insulting the LORD, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, “As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand.” <sup>18</sup>They cried with a loud voice in the Judean language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. <sup>19</sup>They spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men’s hands. <sup>20</sup>Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. <sup>21</sup>The LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his god, some of his own offspring killed him there with the sword. <sup>22</sup>Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and gave them rest<sup>a</sup> on every side. <sup>23</sup>Many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth. <sup>24</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death: and he prayed to the LORD; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign. <sup>25</sup>But Hezekiah did not render again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come on them in the days of Hezekiah. <sup>27</sup>Hezekiah had a very great amount of riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all kinds of goodly vessels; <sup>28</sup>storehouses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in folds. <sup>29</sup>Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance. <sup>30</sup>This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works. <sup>31</sup>However concerning the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. <sup>32</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, look, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>33</sup>Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Baals, and made Asheroth, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them. <sup>4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever." <sup>5</sup>He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>He also made his children to pass through the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom; and he practiced sorcery, and divination, and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and spiritists: he worked much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>7</sup>He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in God's house, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever: <sup>8</sup>neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given by Moses.” <sup>9</sup>Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel did. <sup>10</sup>The LORD spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they gave no heed. <sup>11</sup>Therefore the LORD brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. <sup>12</sup>When he was in distress, he begged the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. <sup>13</sup>He prayed to him; and he was entreated by him, and heard his petition, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God. <sup>14</sup>Now after this he built an outer wall to the City of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate; and he encircled Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height: and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. <sup>15</sup>He took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. <sup>16</sup>He built up the altar of the LORD, and offered thereon sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup>Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to the LORD their God. <sup>18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, look, they are written among the acts of the kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup>His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before he humbled himself, look, they are written in the Record of the Seers.<sup>a</sup> <sup>20</sup>So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the garden<sup>b</sup> of his own house. And Amon his son reigned in his place. <sup>21</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. <sup>23</sup>He did not humble himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. <sup>24</sup>His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. <sup>25</sup>But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>3</sup>For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images. <sup>4</sup>They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; and the incense altars that were on high above them he cut down; and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. <sup>5</sup>He burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>He did this in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, around in their ruins. <sup>7</sup>He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to

Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had<sup>a</sup> purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. <sup>9</sup>They came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into God's house, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They delivered it into the hand of the workers<sup>b</sup> who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and the workmen who labored in the house of the LORD gave it to mend and repair the house; <sup>11</sup>even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy cut stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. <sup>12</sup>The men did the work faithfully; and their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and others of the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music. <sup>13</sup>Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every kind of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and gatekeepers. <sup>14</sup>When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses. <sup>15</sup>Hilkiah answered Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the scroll of the law in the house of the LORD." Hilkiah delivered the scroll to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup>Shaphan carried the scroll to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, "All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. <sup>17</sup>They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen."<sup>18</sup>Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a scroll." Shaphan read it before the king.

kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this scroll."<sup>22</sup>So Hilkiah, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter;) and they spoke to her to that effect. <sup>23</sup>She said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>24</sup>'Thus says the LORD, 'Look, I will bring disaster on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the scroll which they have read before the king of Judah. <sup>25</sup>Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched.'"<sup>26</sup>But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you shall tell him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "As touching the words which you have heard, <sup>27</sup>because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you," says the LORD. <sup>28</sup>"Look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the disaster that I will bring on this place, and on its inhabitants.'"<sup>29</sup>

They brought back word to the king.<sup>29</sup>Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.<sup>30</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the scroll of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.<sup>31</sup>The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this scroll.<sup>32</sup>He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.<sup>33</sup>Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the sons of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

35 Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.<sup>2</sup>He set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.<sup>3</sup>He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD, “Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. There shall no more be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God, and his people Israel.<sup>4</sup>Prepare yourselves after your fathers’ houses and<sup>a</sup> by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.<sup>5</sup>Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers’ houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers’ house of the Levites.<sup>6</sup>Kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses.”

his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock, and five hundred head of cattle.<sup>10</sup> So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's commandment.<sup>11</sup> They killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood<sup>a</sup> from their hand, and the Levites flayed them.<sup>12</sup> They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the scroll of Moses. So they did with the cattle.<sup>13</sup> They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people.<sup>14</sup> Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.<sup>15</sup> The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers were at every gate: they did not need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.<sup>16</sup> So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.<sup>17</sup> The sons of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.<sup>18</sup> There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.<sup>19</sup> In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept.<sup>20</sup> After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Perath: and Josiah went out against him.<sup>21</sup> But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I come not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war. God has commanded me to make haste. Beware that it is God who is with me, that he not destroy you."

<sup>22</sup>Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.<sup>23</sup> The archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me

<sup>24</sup>So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. <sup>25</sup>Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and look, they are written in the lamentations. <sup>26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of the LORD, <sup>27</sup>and his acts, first and last, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and they anointed him<sup>a</sup> and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>The king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. <sup>4</sup>The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim.

Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. <sup>6</sup>Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup>Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. <sup>8</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, look, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. <sup>9</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen<sup>b</sup> years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>At the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: <sup>12</sup>and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup>Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had made holy in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending, because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: <sup>16</sup>but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, until there was no remedy. <sup>17</sup>Therefore he brought on them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed: he gave them all into his hand. <sup>18</sup>All the vessels of God's house, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his officials, all these he brought to Babylon. <sup>19</sup>They burnt God's house, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it. <sup>20</sup>He carried those who had escaped from the sword away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: <sup>21</sup>to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. As long as it lay desolate it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years. <sup>22</sup>Now in the first year of Cyrus<sup>a</sup> king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, <sup>23</sup>“Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. <sup>5</sup>Then the heads of ancestral houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up rose up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>All those who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. <sup>7</sup>Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of his gods; <sup>8</sup>even those, Cyrus king of Persia brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. <sup>9</sup>This is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, one thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, <sup>10</sup>thirty bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels one thousand. <sup>11</sup>All the vessels of gold and of silver were five

Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not show whether their fathers' house, and their descent, were from Israel: <sup>60</sup>the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two. <sup>61</sup>Of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. <sup>62</sup>These sought their place among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. <sup>63</sup>The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim. <sup>64</sup>The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, <sup>65</sup>besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred singing men and singing women. <sup>66</sup>Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; <sup>67</sup>their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. <sup>68</sup>Some of the heads of ancestral houses, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for God's house to set it up in its place: <sup>69</sup>they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. <sup>70</sup>So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 When the seventh month had come, and the sons of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up with his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. <sup>3</sup>In spite of their fear because of the peoples of the surrounding lands, they set the altar on its base; and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening. <sup>4</sup>They kept the feast of tents, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; <sup>5</sup>and afterward the continual burnt offering, the offerings of the new moons, of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD; but the foundation of the LORD's temple was not yet laid. <sup>7</sup>They also gave money to the masons, and to the carpenters. They also gave food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had from Cyrus King of Persia.

<sup>8</sup>Now in the second year of their coming to God's house at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began the work and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the LORD's house. <sup>9</sup>Then Jeshua stood with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to have the oversight of the workmen in God's house: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. <sup>10</sup>When the builders laid the foundation of the LORD's temple, they set the priests in their clothing with trumpets, with the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the directions of David king of Israel. <sup>11</sup>They sang to one another in praising and giving thanks to the LORD, "For he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever toward Israel." All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD had been laid.

foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice. Many also shouted aloud for joy, <sup>13</sup>so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard far away.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel; <sup>2</sup>then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of ancestral houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to him since the days of Esar Haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here."

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of ancestral houses of Israel, said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>In the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his companions, to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in Aramaic, and set forth in the Aramaic language. <sup>8</sup>Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort: <sup>9</sup>then Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites, <sup>10</sup>and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over, and set in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River, and so forth, wrote. <sup>11</sup>This is the copy of the letter that they sent to Artaxerxes the king: Your servants the men beyond the River, and so forth. <sup>12</sup>Be it known to the king, that the Jews who came up from you have come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. <sup>13</sup>Be it known now to the king that if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. <sup>14</sup>Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and informed the king; <sup>15</sup>that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so you shall find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time; for which cause was this city laid waste. <sup>16</sup>We inform the king that, if this city be built, and the walls finished, by this means you shall have no portion beyond the River. <sup>17</sup>Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River: Peace, and so forth. <sup>18</sup>The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. <sup>19</sup>I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it. <sup>20</sup>There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them. <sup>21</sup>Make a decree now to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me. <sup>22</sup>Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? <sup>23</sup>Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. <sup>24</sup>Then ceased the work of God's house which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel they prophesied to them. <sup>2</sup>Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build God's house which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. <sup>3</sup>At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" <sup>4</sup>Then they<sup>a</sup> asked them, "What are the names of the men were who are constructing this building?" <sup>5</sup>But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it. <sup>6</sup>The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king; <sup>7</sup>they sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darius the king, all peace. <sup>8</sup>Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prosper in their hands. <sup>9</sup>Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" <sup>10</sup>We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. <sup>11</sup>Thus they returned us answer, saying, "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. <sup>12</sup>But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. <sup>13</sup>But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God. <sup>14</sup>The gold and silver vessels also of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; <sup>15</sup>and he said to him, 'Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let God's house be built in its place.' <sup>16</sup>Then the same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundations of God's house which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.”

6 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. <sup>2</sup>There was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll, and in it was thus written for a record: <sup>3</sup>In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning God’s house at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height sixty cubits, and its breadth sixty cubits; <sup>4</sup>with three courses of great stones, and a course of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king’s house. <sup>5</sup>Also let the gold and silver vessels of God’s house, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, everyone to its place; and you shall put them in God’s house. <sup>6</sup>Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, you must stay far from there. <sup>7</sup>Leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. <sup>8</sup>Moreover I make a decree what you shall do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king’s goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses be given with all diligence to these men, that they be not hindered. <sup>9</sup>That which they have need of, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail; <sup>10</sup>that they may offer sacrifices of pleasant aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. <sup>11</sup>Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: <sup>12</sup>and the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence. <sup>13</sup>Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their companions, because Darius the king had sent a decree, did accordingly with all diligence. <sup>14</sup>The elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. <sup>15</sup>This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. <sup>16</sup>The sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. <sup>17</sup>They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup>They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. <sup>19</sup>The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>20</sup>For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Israel who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, ate, <sup>22</sup>and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of God's house, the God of Israel.

7 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, <sup>2</sup>the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, <sup>3</sup>the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, <sup>4</sup>the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, <sup>5</sup>the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest; <sup>6</sup>this Ezra went up from Babylon: and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God on him. <sup>7</sup>There went up some of the sons of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. <sup>8</sup>He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. <sup>9</sup>For on the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon; and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him. <sup>10</sup>For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and ordinances. <sup>11</sup>Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel: <sup>12</sup>Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect and so forth. <sup>13</sup>I make a decree, that all those of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you. <sup>14</sup>Because you are sent of the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand, <sup>15</sup>and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup>and all the silver and gold that you shall find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem; <sup>17</sup>therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>Whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. <sup>19</sup>The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. <sup>21</sup>I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence, <sup>22</sup>to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred measures of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. <sup>23</sup>Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? <sup>24</sup>Also we inform you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, the singers, doorkeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on them. <sup>25</sup>You, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God who is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach him who doesn't know them. <sup>26</sup>Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. <sup>27</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem; <sup>28</sup>and has extended loving kindness to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's powerful officers. I was strengthened according to the hand of the LORD my God on me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8 Now these are the heads of their ancestral houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king: <sup>2</sup>Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush. <sup>3</sup>Of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males one hundred fifty. <sup>4</sup>Of the sons of Pahathmoab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah; and with him two hundred males. <sup>5</sup>Of the sons of Zattu,<sup>a</sup> Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. <sup>6</sup>Of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males. <sup>7</sup>Of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah; and with him seventy males. <sup>8</sup>Of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael; and with him eighty males. <sup>9</sup>Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males. <sup>10</sup>Of the sons of Bani,<sup>b</sup> Shelomith the son of Josiphiah, and with him one hundred sixty males. <sup>11</sup>Of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males. <sup>12</sup>Of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him one hundred ten males. <sup>13</sup>Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males. <sup>14</sup>Of the sons of Bigvai,

Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males. <sup>15</sup>I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we camped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. <sup>16</sup>Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers. <sup>17</sup>I sent them forth to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, and his brothers the temple servants, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. <sup>18</sup>According to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; <sup>19</sup>and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; <sup>20</sup>and from the temple servants, whom David and the officials had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple servants. All of them were mentioned by name. <sup>21</sup>Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. <sup>22</sup>For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying,

“The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him.”<sup>23</sup> So we fasted and begged our God for this: and he was entreated of us.<sup>24</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them,<sup>25</sup> and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his officials, and all Israel there present, had offered:<sup>26</sup> I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents;<sup>27</sup> and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright bronze, precious as gold.<sup>28</sup> I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers.<sup>29</sup> Watch, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the leaders of ancestral houses of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of the LORD.”<sup>30</sup> So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.<sup>31</sup> Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way.<sup>32</sup> We came to

Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.<sup>33</sup> On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levite;<sup>34</sup> the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time.<sup>35</sup> The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering to the LORD.<sup>36</sup> They delivered the king’s commissions to the king’s satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and God’s house.

9 Now when these things were completed, the leaders approached me and said, “The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, following their abominations, even those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.<sup>2</sup> For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the hand of the officials and leaders has been foremost in this trespass.”

<sup>3</sup>When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. <sup>4</sup>Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of their trespass of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. <sup>5</sup>At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to the LORD my God; <sup>6</sup>and I said, “My God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup>Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. <sup>8</sup>Now for a little moment grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. <sup>9</sup>For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our

God, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments, <sup>11</sup>which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. <sup>12</sup>Now therefore do not give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.’

<sup>13</sup>“After all that has come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, since you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant, <sup>14</sup>shall we again break your commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? Wouldn’t you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? <sup>15</sup>The LORD, the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is this day. Look, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this.”

10 Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before God's house, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very bitterly. <sup>2</sup>Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, "We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing. <sup>3</sup>Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let it be done according to the law. <sup>4</sup>Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you. Be courageous, and do it."

<sup>5</sup>Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. <sup>6</sup>Then Ezra rose up from before God's house, and went into the room of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of their trespass of the captivity. <sup>7</sup>They made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; <sup>8</sup>and that whoever did not come within three days, according to the counsel of the officials and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity. <sup>9</sup>Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before God's house, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

<sup>12</sup>Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "As you have said concerning us, so must we do. <sup>13</sup>But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside; neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. <sup>14</sup>Let now our leaders represent the whole assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter is resolved."

Malchijah, and Benaiah. <sup>26</sup>Of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah. <sup>27</sup>Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. <sup>28</sup>Of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. <sup>29</sup>Of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth. <sup>30</sup>Of the sons of Pahathmoab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. <sup>31</sup>Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, <sup>32</sup>Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah. <sup>33</sup>Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei. <sup>34</sup>Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel, <sup>35</sup>Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi, <sup>36</sup>Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, <sup>37</sup>Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu. <sup>38</sup>Of the sons<sup>b</sup> of Binnui: Shimei, <sup>39</sup>and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, <sup>40</sup>Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, <sup>41</sup>Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, <sup>42</sup>Shallum, Amariah, Joseph. <sup>43</sup>Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iddo, and Joel, Benaiah. <sup>44</sup>All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemiah

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, <sup>2</sup>that Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>They said to me, “The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.” <sup>4</sup>It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, <sup>5</sup>and said, “I beg you, LORD, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments: <sup>6</sup>Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the sons of Israel your servants while I confess the sins of the sons of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father’s house have sinned. <sup>7</sup>We have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup>“Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples; <sup>9</sup>but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there.’”

<sup>10</sup>“Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. <sup>11</sup>Lord, I beg you, let your ear be attentive now to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.”

Now I was cup bearer to the king.

2 It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when<sup>a</sup> wine was before me,<sup>b</sup> that I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad before in his presence. <sup>2</sup>The king said to me, “Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart.”

Then I was very much afraid. <sup>3</sup>I said to the king, “Let the king live forever. Why shouldn’t my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been consumed with fire?”

So I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup>I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may build it.”

<sup>6</sup>The king said to me (the queen was also sitting by him), “For how long shall your journey be? And when will you return?”

So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. <sup>7</sup>Moreover I said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; <sup>8</sup>and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into.”

The king granted my requests, because of the good hand of my God on me. <sup>9</sup>Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. <sup>10</sup>When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the sons of Israel. <sup>11</sup>So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. <sup>12</sup>I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem; neither was there any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. <sup>13</sup>I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal’s well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. <sup>14</sup>Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king’s pool: but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. <sup>15</sup>Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. <sup>16</sup>The rulers did not know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work. <sup>17</sup>Then I said to them, “You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we won’t be disgraced.” <sup>18</sup>I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the king’s words that he had spoken to me.

They said, “Let’s rise up and build.” So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

<sup>19</sup>But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, “What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?”

<sup>20</sup>Then answered I them, and said to them, “The God of heaven will prosper us. Therefore we, his servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.”

3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up its doors; even to the tower of Hammeah they sanctified it, to the tower of Hananel. <sup>2</sup>Next to him built the men of Jericho. Next to them built Zaccur the son of Imri. <sup>3</sup>The sons of Hassenaah built the fish gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>4</sup>Next to them, Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to them, Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. <sup>5</sup>Next to them, the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their lord. <sup>6</sup>Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the old gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. <sup>7</sup>Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor beyond the River. <sup>8</sup>Next to him, Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him, Hananiah one of the perfumers made repairs, and they fortified Jerusalem even to the broad wall. <sup>9</sup>Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. <sup>10</sup>Next to them, Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs<sup>a</sup> across from his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs. <sup>11</sup>Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. <sup>12</sup>Next to him, Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters, made repairs. <sup>13</sup>Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the valley gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and one thousand cubits of the wall to the dung gate. <sup>14</sup>Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth Haccherem repaired the dung gate. He built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>15</sup>Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah repaired the spring gate. He built it, and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of Shelah by the king's garden, even to the stairs that go down from the City of David.

<sup>16</sup>After him, Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs to the place opposite the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men.

<sup>21</sup>After him, Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

<sup>23</sup>After them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs across from their house. After them, Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house. <sup>24</sup>After him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another portion, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner. <sup>25</sup>Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.

<sup>29</sup>After them, Zadok the son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. After him, Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east gate made repairs.

4 But it happened that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. <sup>2</sup>And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, “What are these<sup>a</sup> feeble Jews doing? Will they restore it for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, which are burned?” <sup>3</sup>Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, “What they are building, if a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall.”

<sup>6</sup>So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height: for the people had a mind to work. <sup>7</sup>But it happened that when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be filled, then they were very angry; <sup>8</sup>and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause

confusion in it. <sup>9</sup>But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. <sup>10</sup>Judah said, “The strength of the bearers of burdens is fading, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.” <sup>11</sup>Our adversaries said, “They shall not know, neither see, until we come into their midst, and kill them, and cause the work to cease.”

<sup>12</sup>It happened that when the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us.” <sup>13</sup>Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup>I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.”

<sup>15</sup>It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work. <sup>16</sup>It happened from that time forth, that half of my servants worked in the work, and half of them held<sup>b</sup> the spears, and<sup>a</sup> the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. <sup>17</sup>They all built the wall and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of his hands worked in the work, and with the other held his weapon; <sup>18</sup>and the builders, everyone wore his sword at his side, and so built. He who sounded the trumpet was by me. <sup>19</sup>I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another. <sup>20</sup>Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally there to us. Our God will fight for us."

<sup>21</sup>So we worked in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. <sup>22</sup>Likewise at the same time said I to the people, "Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day." <sup>23</sup>So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes. Everyone took his weapon to the water.

5 Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. <sup>2</sup>For there were that said, "We, our sons and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain, that we may eat and live." <sup>3</sup>Some also there were that said, "We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses. Let us get grain, because of the famine." <sup>4</sup>There were also some who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute using our fields and our vineyards as collateral. <sup>5</sup>Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children. Look, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters have been brought into bondage. Neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards."

<sup>6</sup>I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. <sup>7</sup>Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, "You exact usury, everyone of his brother." I held a great assembly against them. <sup>8</sup>I said to them, "We, after our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Jews that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us?" Then they held their peace, and found never a word. <sup>9</sup>Also I said, "The thing that you do is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? <sup>10</sup>I likewise, my brothers and my servants, lend them money and grain. Please let us stop this usury. <sup>11</sup>Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you are charging them.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they said, “We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say.”

Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise. <sup>13</sup>Also I shook out my lap, and said, “So may God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that doesn’t perform this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied.”

All the assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD. The people did according to this promise.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor<sup>a</sup> in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor. <sup>15</sup>But the former governors who were before me were supported by the people, and took bread and wine from them, besides<sup>b</sup> forty

shekels of silver; yes, even their servants ruled over the people: but I did not do so, because of the fear of God. <sup>16</sup>Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered there to the work. <sup>17</sup>Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were around us. <sup>18</sup>Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I did not demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people. <sup>19</sup>Remember to me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

6 Now it happened, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it; (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates;) <sup>2</sup>that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together at Hakephirim<sup>c</sup> in the plain of Ono.” But they intended to harm me.

with the loss of לַיּוֹם, cf. v.18. Vg reads cotidie “daily” here in v.15, and dies singulos “each day” in v.18 for לַיּוֹם אֶחָד

<sup>3</sup>I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, so that I can’t come down. Why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?”
<sup>4</sup>They sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them the same way. <sup>5</sup>Then Sanballat sent his servant to me the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, <sup>6</sup>in which was written, “It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to these words. <sup>7</sup>You have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah.’ Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.”

<sup>8</sup>Then I sent to him, saying, “There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart.” <sup>9</sup>For they all would have made us afraid, saying, “Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, strengthen my hands.”

<sup>10</sup>I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home; and he said, “Let us meet together in God’s house, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple; for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you.”

<sup>11</sup>I said, “Should such a man as I flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.”
<sup>12</sup>I discerned, and look, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup>He hired so that I would be afraid, do so, and sin, and that they might have material for an unfavorable report, that they might taunt me.
<sup>14</sup>“Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.”

<sup>15</sup>So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. <sup>16</sup>And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the surrounding nations saw it, that they lost their confidence; for they recognized that this work was done by our God. <sup>17</sup>Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah’s letters came to them. <sup>18</sup>For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanah had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife. <sup>19</sup>Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

7 Now it happened, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed, <sup>2</sup>that I put my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the commander of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. <sup>3</sup>I said to them, "Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house."

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few in it, and the houses were not built. <sup>5</sup>My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written in it: <sup>6</sup>These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, everyone to his city; <sup>7</sup>who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>8</sup>The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two. <sup>9</sup>The children of Shephathiah, three hundred seventy-two. <sup>10</sup>The children of Arah, six hundred fifty-two. <sup>11</sup>The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred eighteen. <sup>12</sup>The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. <sup>13</sup>The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty-five. <sup>14</sup>The children of Zaccai, seven hundred sixty. <sup>15</sup>The children of Binnui, six hundred forty-eight. <sup>16</sup>The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty-eight. <sup>17</sup>The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty-two. <sup>18</sup>The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-seven. <sup>19</sup>The children of Bigvai, two thousand sixty-seven. <sup>20</sup>The children of Adin, six hundred fifty-five. <sup>21</sup>The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight. <sup>22</sup>The children of Hashum, three hundred Twenty-eight. <sup>23</sup>The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty-four. <sup>24</sup>The children of Hariph, one hundred twelve. <sup>25</sup>The children of Gibeon, ninety-five. <sup>26</sup>The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred eighty-eight. <sup>27</sup>The men of Anathoth, one hundred twenty-eight. <sup>28</sup>The men of Beth Azmaveth, forty-two. <sup>29</sup>The men of Kiriath Jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty-three. <sup>30</sup>The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one. <sup>31</sup>The men of Michmas, one hundred and twenty-two. <sup>32</sup>The men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred twenty-three. <sup>33</sup>The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two. <sup>34</sup>The children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. <sup>35</sup>The children of Harim, three hundred twenty. <sup>36</sup>The children of Jericho, three hundred forty-five.

forty-five; <sup>69</sup>their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred twenty. <sup>70</sup>Some from among the heads of ancestral houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty priests' garments. <sup>71</sup>Some of the heads of ancestral houses gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. <sup>72</sup>That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. <sup>73</sup>So the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, lived in their cities. When the seventh month had come, the sons of Israel were in their cities.

8 All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the square that was before the Water Gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the scroll of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. <sup>2</sup>Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup>And he read it before the square that was before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the scroll of the law. <sup>4</sup>Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkihah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. <sup>5</sup>Ezra opened the scroll in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: <sup>6</sup>and Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. All the people answered, "Amen, Amen," with the lifting up of their hands. They bowed their heads, and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stayed in their place. <sup>8</sup>They read in the scroll, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading. <sup>9</sup>Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn, nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. <sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be grieved; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

<sup>12</sup>All the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them. <sup>13</sup>On the second day were gathered together the heads of ancestral houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law. <sup>14</sup>They found written in the law, how that the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; <sup>15</sup>and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, “Go out to the mountain, and get olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.”

<sup>16</sup>So the people went out, and brought them, and made themselves booths, everyone on the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of God’s house, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim. <sup>17</sup>All the assembly of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun to that day the sons of Israel had not done so. There was very great gladness. <sup>18</sup>Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the scroll of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

9 Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month the sons of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth on them. <sup>2</sup>The descendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. <sup>3</sup>They stood up in their place, and read in the scroll of the law of the LORD their God a fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed, and worshiped the LORD their God. <sup>4</sup>Then Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani of the Levites stood up on the stairs, and cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God. <sup>5</sup>Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, “Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. <sup>6</sup>You are the LORD, even you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all. The army of heaven worships you. <sup>7</sup>You are the LORD, the God who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans, and gave him the name of Abraham, <sup>8</sup>and found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, to give it to his descendants, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.

<sup>13</sup>“You came down also on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments, <sup>14</sup>and made known to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses your servant, <sup>15</sup>and gave them bread from the sky for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commanded them that they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.

<sup>16</sup>“But they and our fathers dealt proudly and hardened their neck, did not listen to your commandments, <sup>17</sup>and refused to obey, neither were they mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and appointed a leader to return to their slavery in Egypt.<sup>b</sup> But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and did not forsake them. <sup>18</sup>Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,’ and had committed awful blasphemies; <sup>19</sup>yet you in your manifold mercies did not forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud did not depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. <sup>20</sup>You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and did not withhold your manna from their

mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.

<sup>24</sup>“So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they pleased. <sup>25</sup>They took fortified cities, and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies. <sup>27</sup>Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them. In the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries. <sup>28</sup>But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore left you them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times you delivered them according to your mercies, <sup>29</sup>and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and did not listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances, (which if a man does, he shall live in them), turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear. <sup>30</sup>Yet many years you put up with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets. Yet would they not give ear. Therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

seem little before you, that has come on us, on our kings, on our leaders, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. <sup>33</sup>However you are just in all that has come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly; <sup>34</sup>neither have our kings, our leaders, our priests, nor our fathers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you testified against them. <sup>35</sup>For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and rich land which you gave before them, neither did they turn from their wicked works.

daughters for our sons; <sup>31</sup>and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. <sup>32</sup>Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; <sup>33</sup>for the show bread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. <sup>34</sup>We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law; <sup>35</sup>and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all kinds of trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD; <sup>36</sup>also the firstborn of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; <sup>37</sup>and that we should bring the first fruits of our coarse meal, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine and the oil to the priests to the storerooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites take the tithes in all the cities where we work. <sup>38</sup>The priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure house. <sup>39</sup>For the sons of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the rooms, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the gatekeepers, and the singers. We will not forsake the house of our God.

11 And the princes of the people lived in Jerusalem. And the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities. <sup>2</sup>The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem; but in the cities of Judah everyone lived in his possession in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants. <sup>4</sup>In Jerusalem lived certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of Perez; <sup>5</sup>and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite. <sup>6</sup>All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred sixty-eight valiant men. <sup>7</sup>These are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah. <sup>8</sup>After him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty-eight. <sup>9</sup>Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city. <sup>10</sup>Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup>Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of God's house, <sup>12</sup>and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two; and Adaiyah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, <sup>13</sup>and his brothers, chiefs of ancestral houses, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, <sup>14</sup>and their brothers, mighty men of valor, one hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggadolim. <sup>15</sup>Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; <sup>16</sup>and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of God's house; <sup>17</sup>and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakkukiah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. <sup>18</sup>All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty-four. <sup>19</sup>Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred seventy-two. <sup>20</sup>The residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance. <sup>21</sup>But the temple servants lived on Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the temple servants. <sup>22</sup>The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of God's house. <sup>23</sup>For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. <sup>24</sup>Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. <sup>25</sup>As for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its towns, and in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages, <sup>26</sup>and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, and Beth Pelet, <sup>27</sup>and in Hazar Shual, and in Beersheba and its towns, <sup>28</sup>and in Ziklag, and in Meconah and in its towns, <sup>29</sup>and in En Rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth, <sup>30</sup>Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they

Jonathan; of Shecaniah,<sup>a</sup> Joseph; <sup>15</sup>of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; <sup>16</sup>of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; <sup>17</sup>of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; <sup>18</sup>of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; <sup>19</sup>and of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; <sup>20</sup>of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; <sup>21</sup>of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethanel. <sup>22</sup>As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of ancestral houses; also the priests, in the reign of Darius the Persian. <sup>23</sup>The sons of Levi, heads of ancestral houses, were written in the scroll of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. <sup>24</sup>The chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, watch next to watch. <sup>25</sup>Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storehouses of the gates. <sup>26</sup>These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe. <sup>27</sup>At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and with harps.<sup>28</sup>The sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites;<sup>29</sup>also from Beth Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages around Jerusalem.<sup>30</sup>The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.<sup>31</sup>Then I brought up the leaders of Judah onto the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate;<sup>32</sup>and after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the leaders of Judah,<sup>33</sup>and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,<sup>34</sup>Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,<sup>35</sup>and certain of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph;<sup>36</sup>and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them.<sup>37</sup>By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the City of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water gate eastward.<sup>38</sup>The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I

after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the broad wall,<sup>39</sup>and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard.<sup>40</sup>So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in God's house, and I, and the half of the rulers with me;<sup>41</sup>and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;<sup>42</sup>and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.<sup>43</sup>They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.<sup>44</sup>On that day were men appointed over the rooms for the treasures, for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited.<sup>45</sup>They performed the duty of their God, and the duty of the purification, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.<sup>46</sup>For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>47</sup>All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, as every day required: and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day they read in the scroll of Moses in the audience of the people; and in it was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, <sup>2</sup>because they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: however our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3</sup>It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. <sup>4</sup>Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, <sup>5</sup>had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers; and the wave offerings for the priests. <sup>6</sup>But in all this, I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king: and after certain days asked I leave of the king, <sup>7</sup>and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a room in the courts of God's house. <sup>8</sup>It grieved me severely: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the room. <sup>9</sup>Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms: and there brought I again the vessels of God's house, with the meal offerings and the frankincense. <sup>10</sup>I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled everyone to his field. <sup>11</sup>Then I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is God's house forsaken?" I gathered them together, and set them in their place. <sup>12</sup>Then brought all Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. <sup>13</sup>I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers. <sup>14</sup>Remember me, my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances. <sup>15</sup>In those days I saw in Judah some men treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. <sup>16</sup>There lived men of Tyre also in it, who brought in fish, and all kinds of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day? <sup>18</sup>Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us, and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

<sup>19</sup>It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, that no burden should be brought in on the Sabbath day. <sup>20</sup>So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>21</sup>Then I testified against them, and said to them, "Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on, they did not come on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup>I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember to me, my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness. <sup>23</sup>In those days also saw I the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: <sup>24</sup>and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Judean language, but according to the language of each people. <sup>25</sup>I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. <sup>26</sup>Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. <sup>27</sup>Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?"

<sup>28</sup>One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. <sup>29</sup>Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. <sup>30</sup>Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work; <sup>31</sup>and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

Esther

1 Now it happened in the days of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over one hundred twenty-seven provinces), <sup>2</sup>that in those days, when the King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, <sup>3</sup>in the third year of his reign, he made a feast for all his officials and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him. <sup>4</sup>He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred eighty days. <sup>5</sup>When these days were fulfilled, the king made a seven day feast for all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. <sup>6</sup>There were hangings of white, green, and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble. <sup>7</sup>They gave them drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, including royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king. <sup>8</sup>In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had instructed all the officials of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. <sup>9</sup>Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

<sup>10</sup>On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, <sup>11</sup>to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the people and the officials her beauty; for she was beautiful. <sup>12</sup>But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the eunuchs. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for it was the king's custom to consult those who knew law and judgment; <sup>14</sup>and the next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven officials of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom), <sup>15</sup>“What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the King Ahasuerus by the eunuchs?”

<sup>16</sup>Memucan answered before the king and the officials, “Vashti the queen has not done wrong to just the king, but also to all the officials, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the King

Ahasuerus. <sup>17</sup>For this deed of the queen will become known to all women, causing them to show contempt for their husbands, when it is reported, ‘King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she did not come.’ <sup>18</sup>Today, the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen’s deed will tell all the king’s officials. This will cause much contempt and wrath. <sup>19</sup>If it please the king, let a royal commandment go from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. <sup>20</sup>When the king’s decree which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honor, both great and small.”

<sup>21</sup>And this advice pleased the king and the officials, and the king did according to the word of Memucan: <sup>22</sup>for he sent letters into all the king’s provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every man should rule his own house, speaking in the language of his own people.

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. <sup>2</sup>Then the king’s servants who served him said, “Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. <sup>3</sup>Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the women’s house, to the custody of Hegai the king’s eunuch, keeper of the women. Let cosmetics be given them; <sup>4</sup>and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.” The thing pleased the king, and he did so.

<sup>5</sup>There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, <sup>6</sup>who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. He brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle’s daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter. <sup>8</sup>So it happened, when the king’s commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to the citadel of Susa, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king’s house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. <sup>9</sup>The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him. He quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens to the best place in the women's house. <sup>10</sup>Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives, because Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make it known. <sup>11</sup>Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house, to find out how Esther did, and what would become of her.

<sup>12</sup>Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after her purification for twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women). <sup>13</sup>The young woman then came to the king like this: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the women's house to the king's house. <sup>14</sup>In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second women's house, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who kept the concubines. She came in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. <sup>15</sup>Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women, advised. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at her.

<sup>18</sup>Then the king made a great feast for all his officials and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces, and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

3 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the officials who were with him. <sup>2</sup>All the king's servants who were in the king's gate bowed down, and paid homage to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai did not bow down or pay him homage. <sup>3</sup>Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's commandment?" <sup>4</sup>Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he did not listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. <sup>5</sup>When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow down, nor pay him homage, Haman was full of wrath. <sup>6</sup>But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had made known to him Mordecai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even Mordecai's people.

your kingdom, and their laws are different than other people's. They do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them to remain. <sup>9</sup>If it pleases the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

<sup>10</sup>The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. <sup>11</sup>The king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you." <sup>12</sup>Then the king's scribes were called in on the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman commanded was written to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the officials of every people, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, and it was sealed with the king's ring. <sup>13</sup>Letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to plunder their possessions. <sup>14</sup>A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. <sup>15</sup>The couriers went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

4 Now when Mordecai found out all that was done, Mordecai tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and wailed loudly and a bitterly. <sup>2</sup>He came even before the king's gate, for no one is allowed inside the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. <sup>3</sup>In every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4</sup>Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her this, and the queen was exceedingly grieved. She sent clothing to Mordecai, to replace his sackcloth; but he did not receive it. <sup>5</sup>Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai, to find out what this was, and why it was. <sup>6</sup>So Hathach went out to Mordecai, to city square which was before the king's gate. <sup>7</sup>Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. <sup>8</sup>He also gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king, to make petition to him, and to make request before him, for her people.

<sup>9</sup>Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. <sup>10</sup>Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a message to Mordecai: <sup>11</sup>"All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, know, that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king into the inner court without being called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom the king might hold out the golden scepter, that he may live. I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days."

<sup>12</sup>They told to Mordecai Esther's words. <sup>13</sup>Then Mordecai asked them return answer to Esther, "Do not think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the Jews. <sup>14</sup>For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

<sup>15</sup>Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai, <sup>16</sup>"Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish.”<sup>17</sup> So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

5 Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king’s house, next to the king’s house. The king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house.<sup>2</sup> When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther came near, and touched the top of the scepter.<sup>3</sup> Then the king asked her, “What would you like, queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom.”

<sup>5</sup> Then the king said, “Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said.” So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

<sup>6</sup> The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, “What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Esther answered and said, “My petition and my request is this.<sup>8</sup> If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, that he did not stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai.<sup>10</sup> Nevertheless Haman restrained himself, and went home. There, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife.<sup>11</sup> Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the multitude of his children, all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the officials and servants of the king.<sup>12</sup> Haman also said, “Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king.<sup>13</sup> Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, “Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet.” This pleased

Haman, so he had the gallows made.

6 On that night, the king couldn't sleep. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king. <sup>2</sup>It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus. <sup>3</sup>The king said, "What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?"

Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

<sup>4</sup>The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

The king said, "Let him come in." <sup>6</sup>So Haman came in. The king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman said in his heart, "Who would the king delight to honor more than myself?" <sup>7</sup>Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, <sup>8</sup>let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set. <sup>9</sup>And let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble officials, and let him<sup>a</sup> clothe the man whom the king delights to honor with them, and have him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.'"

<sup>10</sup>Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken."

<sup>11</sup>Then Haman took the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and had him ride through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor."

<sup>12</sup>Mordecai came back to the king's gate, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. <sup>13</sup>Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before him.” <sup>14</sup>While they were yet talking with him, the king’s eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. <sup>2</sup>The king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, “What is your petition, queen Esther? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Esther the queen answered, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. <sup>4</sup>For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondservants and bondmaids, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king’s loss.”

<sup>5</sup>Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, “Who is he, and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do so?”

Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. <sup>7</sup>The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. <sup>8</sup>Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, “Will he even assault the queen in front of me in the house?” As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

<sup>9</sup>Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the king said, “Look, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at Haman’s house.”

The king said, “Hang him on it.”

<sup>10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king’s wrath pacified.

8 On that day, King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews’ enemy, to Esther the queen. Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her. <sup>2</sup>The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. <sup>3</sup>Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his plot that he had devised against the Jews.<sup>4</sup> Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.<sup>5</sup> She said, “If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seem right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king’s provinces.<sup>6</sup> For how can I endure to see the disaster that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?”

<sup>7</sup>Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, “See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged on the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews.<sup>8</sup> Write also to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the king’s name, and seal it with the king’s ring; for the writing which is written in the king’s name, and sealed with the king’s ring, may not be reversed by any man.”

<sup>9</sup>Then the king’s scribes were called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and officials of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing, and in their language.<sup>10</sup> He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king’s ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift steeds.<sup>11</sup> In those letters, the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to defend their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to plunder their possessions,<sup>12</sup> on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.<sup>13</sup> A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that the Jews should be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.<sup>14</sup> So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king’s commandment. The decree was given out in the citadel of Susa.

a feast, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen on them.

9 Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to conquer them, (but it was turned out the opposite happened, that the Jews conquered those who hated them), <sup>2</sup>the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people. <sup>3</sup>And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. <sup>4</sup>For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater. <sup>5</sup>The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they wanted to those who hated them. <sup>6</sup>In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. <sup>7</sup>They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>8</sup>Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9</sup>Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha, <sup>10</sup>the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jew's enemy, but they did not lay their hand on the plunder. <sup>11</sup>On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Susa was brought before the king. <sup>12</sup>The king said to Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Susa, including the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces. Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done."

<sup>13</sup>Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

Jews who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>19</sup>Therefore the Jews of the villages, who live in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another. <sup>20</sup>Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far, <sup>21</sup>to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly, <sup>22</sup>as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy. <sup>23</sup>The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them; <sup>24</sup>because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast "Pur," that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; <sup>25</sup>but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. <sup>26</sup>Therefore they called these days "Purim,"<sup>a</sup> from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, <sup>27</sup>the Jews established, and imposed on themselves, and on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year; <sup>28</sup>and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memory of them perish among their descendants.

confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land, and on the islands of the sea. <sup>2</sup>All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup>For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his descendants.

Job

1 There was a man in the land of Uz,<sup>a</sup> whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil. <sup>2</sup>There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. <sup>4</sup>His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. <sup>5</sup>It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Job did so continually.

<sup>6</sup>Now it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, that Satan also came among them. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."

<sup>9</sup>Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? <sup>10</sup>Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. <sup>11</sup>But put forth your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face.”

So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, <sup>14</sup>that there came a messenger to Job, and said, “The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them, <sup>15</sup>and Sheba attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>16</sup>While he was still speaking, there also came another, and said, “The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>17</sup>While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, “The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you.”

and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, <sup>19</sup>and look, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped. <sup>21</sup>He said, “Naked I came out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD.” <sup>22</sup>In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

2 Again it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, that Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan answered the LORD, and said, “From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause.”

<sup>7</sup>So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head. <sup>8</sup>He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat among the ashes. <sup>9</sup>Then his wife said to him, “Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die.”

In all this Job did not sin with his lips. <sup>11</sup>Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him. <sup>12</sup>When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and did not recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky. <sup>13</sup>So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

the night which said, ‘There is a boy conceived.’”

<sup>4</sup>Let that day be darkness.
Do not let God from above seek for it,
neither let the light shine on it.

<sup>5</sup>Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own.

Let a cloud dwell on it.
Let all that makes black the day terrify it.

<sup>6</sup>As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it.
Let it not rejoice among the days of the year.
Let it not come into the number of the months.

Let no joyful voice come in it.

<sup>8</sup>Let them curse it who curse the day,
who are ready to rouse up leviathan.

<sup>9</sup>Let the stars of its twilight be dark.
Let it look for light, but have none,
neither let it see the eyelids of the morning,

<sup>10</sup>because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's
womb,
nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

<sup>11</sup>“Why did I not die from the
womb?
Why did I not give up the spirit when my mother bore me?

<sup>12</sup>Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breast, that I should suck?

<sup>13</sup>For now should I have lain down
and been quiet.
I should have slept, then I would have been at rest,

<sup>14</sup>with kings and counselors of the
earth,
who built up waste places
for themselves;

<sup>15</sup>or with princes who had gold,
who filled their houses with silver:

<sup>16</sup>or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been,
as infants who never saw
light.

<sup>17</sup>There the wicked cease from troubling.
There the weary are at rest.

<sup>18</sup>There the prisoners are at ease
together.
They do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.

The servant is free from his master.

<sup>20</sup>“Why is light given to him who is in misery,
life to the bitter in soul,

<sup>21</sup>Who long for death, but it doesn't come;

and dig for it more than for
hidden treasures,

<sup>22</sup>who rejoice exceedingly,
and are glad, when they can find the grave?

<sup>23</sup>Why is light given to a man whose way is hid,
whom God has hedged in?

<sup>24</sup>For my sighing comes before I eat.

My groanings are poured out
like water.

<sup>25</sup>For the thing which I fear comes
on me,

That which I am afraid of comes to me.

<sup>26</sup>I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I
rest;

but trouble comes.”

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,

<sup>2</sup>“If someone ventures
to talk with you, will you be grieved?

But who can withhold himself from speaking?

<sup>3</sup>Look, you have instructed many,
you have strengthened the weak hands.

<sup>4</sup>Your words have supported him
who was falling,
You have made firm the feeble knees.

<sup>5</sup>But now it is come to you, and you faint.

It touches you, and you are troubled.

<sup>6</sup>Isn't your piety your confidence?
Isn't the integrity of your ways your hope?

<sup>7</sup>Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent?
 Or where were the upright
 cut off?
<sup>8</sup>According to what I have seen,
 those who plow
 iniquity,
 and sow trouble,
 reap the same.
<sup>9</sup>By the breath of God they perish.
 By the blast of his anger are they consumed.
<sup>10</sup>The roaring of the lion,
 and the voice of the fierce
 lion,
 the teeth of the young lions,
 are broken.
<sup>11</sup>The old lion perishes for lack of prey.
 The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad.
<sup>12</sup>Now a thing was secretly brought to me.
 My ear received a whisper
 of it.
<sup>13</sup>In thoughts from the visions of
 the night,
 when deep sleep falls on
 men, <sup>14</sup>fear came on me, and trembling,
 which made all my bones
 shake.
<sup>15</sup>Then a spirit passed before my face.
 The hair of my flesh stood
 up.
<sup>16</sup>It stood still, but I couldn't discern its appearance.
 A form was before my eyes.
 Silence, then I heard a voice,
 saying,
<sup>17</sup>Shall mortal man be more just
 than God?

Shall a man be more pure
 than his Maker?
<sup>18</sup>Look, he puts no trust in his
 servants.
 He charges his angels with error.
<sup>19</sup>How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay,
 whose foundation is in the
 dust,
 who are crushed before the moth.
<sup>20</sup>Between morning and evening
 they are destroyed.
 They perish forever without any regarding it.
<sup>21</sup>Isn't their tent cord plucked up within them?
 They die, and that without
 wisdom.'

5 "Call now; is there any who will answer you?
 To which of the holy ones will you turn?
<sup>2</sup>For resentment kills the foolish
 man,
 and jealousy kills the simple.
<sup>3</sup>I have seen the foolish taking root,
 but suddenly I cursed his habitation.
<sup>4</sup>His children are far from safety.
 They are crushed in the gate.
 Neither is there any to deliver them, <sup>5</sup>whose harvest the hungry eats up,
 and take it even out of the thorns.
 The snare gapes for their
 substance.
<sup>6</sup>For affliction doesn't come forth
 from the dust,

neither does trouble spring
 out of the ground;
<sup>7</sup>but man is born to trouble,
 as the sparks fly upward.

<sup>8</sup>“But as for me, I would seek God.
 I would commit my cause to
 God,
<sup>9</sup>who does great things that can’t be fathomed,
 marvelous things without number;
<sup>10</sup>who gives rain on the earth,
 and sends waters on the fields;
<sup>11</sup>so that he sets up on high those who are low,
 those who mourn are exalted
 to safety.
<sup>12</sup>He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
 So that their hands can’t perform their enterprise.
<sup>13</sup>He traps the wise in their own craftiness;
 the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.
<sup>14</sup>They meet with darkness in the day time,
 and grope at noonday as in
 the night.
<sup>15</sup>But he saves from the sword of
 their mouth,
 even the needy from the hand of the mighty.
<sup>16</sup>So the poor has hope,
 and injustice shuts her
 mouth.

<sup>17</sup>“Look, blessed is the man whom God corrects.
 Therefore do not despise the chastening of Shaddai.
<sup>18</sup>For he wounds, and binds up.

He injures, and his hands
 make whole.
<sup>19</sup>He will deliver you in six troubles;
 yes, in seven there shall no
 evil touch you.
<sup>20</sup>In famine he will redeem you
 from death;
 in war, from the power of
 the sword.
<sup>21</sup>You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,
 neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes.
<sup>22</sup>At destruction and famine you shall laugh,
 neither shall you be afraid of
 the animals of the
 earth.
<sup>23</sup>For you shall be in league with the stones of the field.
 The animals of the field
 shall be at peace with
 you.
<sup>24</sup>You shall know that your tent is in peace.
 You shall visit your fold,
 and shall miss nothing.
<sup>25</sup>You shall know also that your descendants shall be great,
 and your offspring as the grass of the earth.
<sup>26</sup>You shall come to your grave in a full age,
 like a shock of grain comes in its season.
<sup>27</sup>Look this, we have searched it,
 so it is.
 Hear it, and know it for your
 good.”

6 Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup>“Oh that my anguish

were weighed,
 and all my calamity laid in the balances.
<sup>3</sup>For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, therefore have my words
 been rash.
<sup>4</sup>For the arrows of Shaddai are
 within me.
 My spirit drinks up their poison.
 The terrors of God set themselves
 in array against me.
<sup>5</sup>Does the wild donkey bray
 when he has grass?
 Or does the ox low over his fodder?
<sup>6</sup>Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt?
 Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
<sup>7</sup>My soul refuses to touch
 them.
 They are as loathsome food to me.
<sup>8</sup>“Oh that I might have my request, that God would grant the thing that I long for, <sup>9</sup>even that it would please God to crush me;
 that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off.
<sup>10</sup>Be it still my consolation,
 yes, let me exult in pain that doesn’t spare,
 that I have not denied the words of the Holy
 One.
<sup>11</sup>What is my strength, that I should wait?
 What is my end, that I should be patient?
<sup>12</sup>Is my strength the strength of stones?
 Or is my flesh of bronze?

<sup>13</sup>Isn’t it that I have no help in me,
 That wisdom is driven quite
 from me?
<sup>14</sup>“To him who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from his friend;
 even to him who forsakes
 the fear of Shaddai.
<sup>15</sup>My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook,
 as the channel of brooks that
 pass away;
<sup>16</sup>Which are black by reason of the ice,
 in which the snow hides
 itself.
<sup>17</sup>In the dry season, they vanish.
 When it is hot, they are consumed out of their
 place.
<sup>18</sup>The caravans that travel beside them turn aside.
 They go up into the waste,
 and perish.
 The companies of Sheba waited for them.
<sup>20</sup>They were distressed because they were confident.
 They came there, and were confounded.
 You see a terror, and are afraid.
<sup>22</sup>Did I say, ‘Give to me?’
 or, ‘Offer a present for me
 from your substance?’
<sup>23</sup>or, ‘Deliver me from the adversary’s hand?’
 or, ‘Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?’
<sup>24</sup>“Teach me, and I will hold my peace.

Cause me to understand
 wherein I have erred.
<sup>25</sup>How forcible are words of uprightness.
 But your reproof, what does it reprove?
<sup>26</sup>Do you intend to reprove words, seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind?
<sup>27</sup>Yes, you would even cast lots for
 the fatherless,
 and make merchandise of
 your friend.
<sup>28</sup>Now therefore be pleased to look at me,
 for surely I shall not lie to your face.
<sup>29</sup>Please return.
 Let there be no injustice.
 Yes, return again.
 My cause is righteous.
<sup>30</sup>Is there injustice on my tongue?
 Can't my taste discern mischievous things?

7 “Isn't a man forced to labor on earth?
 Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand?
<sup>2</sup>As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow,
 as a hireling who looks for
 his wages,
<sup>3</sup>so am I made to possess months
 of misery,
 wearisome nights are appointed to me.
<sup>4</sup>When I lie down, I say,
 ‘When shall I arise, and the night be gone?’
 I toss and turn until the dawning of the day.
<sup>5</sup>My flesh is clothed with worms
 and clods of dust.

My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh.
<sup>6</sup>My days are swifter than a
 weaver's shuttle,
 and are spent without hope.
<sup>7</sup>Oh remember that my life is a breath.
 My eye shall no more see
 good.
<sup>8</sup>The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more.
 Your eyes shall be on me,
 but I shall not be.
<sup>9</sup>As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away,
 so he who goes down to Sheol shall come up
 no more.
<sup>10</sup>He shall return no more to his
 house,
 neither shall his place know
 him any more.
<sup>11</sup>“Therefore I will not keep silent.
 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit.
 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
<sup>12</sup>Am I a sea, or a sea monster,
 that you put a guard over
 me?
<sup>13</sup>When I say, ‘My bed shall comfort me.
 My couch shall ease my complaint;’
<sup>14</sup>then you scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions:
<sup>15</sup>so that my soul chooses strangling,
 death rather than my bones.
<sup>16</sup>I loathe my life.
 I do not want to live forever.
 Leave me alone, for my days
 are but a breath.

<sup>17</sup>What is man, that you should magnify him,
 that you should set your mind on him, <sup>18</sup>that you should visit him every morning,
 and test him every moment?
<sup>19</sup>How long will you not look away from me,
 nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle?
<sup>20</sup>If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of men?
 Why have you set me as a mark for you,
 so that I am a burden to myself?
<sup>21</sup>Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity?
 For now shall I lie down in the dust.
 You will seek me diligently,
 but I shall not be.”

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
<sup>2</sup>“How long will you speak these things?
 Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?

 Or does Shaddai pervert righteousness?
<sup>4</sup>If your children have sinned against him,
 He has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience.
<sup>5</sup>If you want to seek God diligently,

make your petition to Shaddai.
<sup>6</sup>If you were pure and upright,
 surely now he would awaken for you,
 and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.
<sup>7</sup>Though your beginning was small,
 yet your latter end would greatly increase.

<sup>8</sup>“Please inquire of past generations.
 Find out about the learning of their fathers.
<sup>9</sup>(For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow.)
<sup>10</sup>Shall they not teach you, tell you,
 and utter words out of their heart?

 Can the rushes grow without water?

<sup>12</sup>While it is yet in its greenness,
 not cut down,
 it withers before any other reed.

<sup>13</sup>So are the paths of all who forget God.

The hope of the godless man shall perish,

 Whose trust is a spider’s web.

 He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure.

 His shoots go forth over his garden.
<sup>17</sup>His roots are wrapped around the rock pile.
 He sees the place of stones.
<sup>18</sup>If he is destroyed from his place,
 then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'
<sup>19</sup>Look, this is the joy of his way:
 out of the earth, others shall spring.
<sup>20</sup>Look, God will not cast away a blameless man,
 neither will he uphold the
 evildoers.
<sup>21</sup>He will still fill your mouth with laughter,
 your lips with shouting.
<sup>22</sup>Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame.
 The tent of the wicked shall be no more."

9 Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup>Truly I know that it is so,
 but how can man be just
 with God?

<sup>3</sup>If he is pleased to contend with
 him,
 he can't answer him one
 time in a thousand.
<sup>4</sup>God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
 who has hardened himself against him, and prospered?
<sup>5</sup>He removes the mountains, and they do not know it,
 when he overturns them in his anger.

<sup>6</sup>He shakes the earth out of its
 place.
 Its pillars tremble.
<sup>7</sup>He commands the sun, and it doesn't rise,
 and seals up the stars.
<sup>8</sup>He alone stretches out the
 heavens,
 and treads on the waves of the sea.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>He makes Osh, Kesil, and Kimah,<sup>b</sup>
 and the chambers of the south.
<sup>10</sup>He does great things past finding out;
 yes, marvelous things
 without number.
<sup>11</sup>Look, he goes by me, and I do not see him.
 He passes on also, but I do not perceive him.
<sup>12</sup>Look, he snatches away.
 Who can hinder him?
 Who will ask him, 'What are you doing?'

<sup>13</sup>God will not withdraw his
 anger.
 The helpers of Rahab stoop
 under him.
<sup>14</sup>How much less shall I answer
 him,
 And choose my words to argue with him?
<sup>15</sup>Though I were righteous, yet I wouldn't answer him.
 I would make petition to my judge.

<sup>b</sup>9:9 Or, "He makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades"

<sup>16</sup>If I had called, and he had answered me,
 yet I wouldn't believe that he listened to my
 voice.
<sup>17</sup>For he breaks me with a storm,
 and multiplies my wounds
 without cause.
<sup>18</sup>He will not allow me to catch my breath,
 but fills me with bitterness.
<sup>19</sup>If it is a matter of strength, look,
 he is mighty.
 And if of justice, who will summon him<sup>a</sup>?
<sup>20</sup>Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn
 me.
 Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse.
<sup>21</sup>I am blameless.
 I do not regard myself.
 I despise my life.
 Therefore I say he destroys the blameless and the wicked.
<sup>23</sup>If the scourge kills suddenly,
 he will mock at the trial of the innocent.
<sup>24</sup>The earth is given into the hand
 of the wicked.
 He covers the faces of its judges.
 If not he, then who is it?
<sup>25</sup>“Now my days are swifter than a runner.
 They flee away, they see no

<sup>26</sup>They have passed away as the swift ships,
 as the eagle that swoops on

<sup>27</sup>If I say, ‘I will forget my
 complaint,
 I will put off my sad face,
 and cheer up;’
<sup>28</sup>I am afraid of all my sorrows,
 I know that you will not hold
 me innocent.
<sup>29</sup>I shall be condemned.
 Why then do I labor in vain?
<sup>30</sup>If I wash myself with snow,
 and cleanse my hands with

<sup>31</sup>yet you will plunge me in the

 My own clothes shall abhor

<sup>32</sup>For he is not a man, as I am, that

 that might lay his hand on us

<sup>34</sup>Let him take his rod away from
 me.
 Let his terror not make me

10 “My soul is weary

<sup>a</sup>9:19 Cf. LXX. MT reads “me”

Show me why you contend
with me.
<sup>3</sup>Is it good to you that you should oppress,
that you should despise the work of your hands,
and smile on the counsel of
the wicked?
<sup>4</sup>Do you have eyes of flesh?
Or do you see as man sees?
<sup>5</sup>Are your days as the days of mortals,
or your years as man's years, <sup>6</sup>that you inquire after my iniquity,
and search after my sin?
<sup>7</sup>Although you know that I am not
wicked,
there is no one who can deliver out of your
hand.
<sup>8</sup>“Your hands have framed me
and fashioned me
altogether,
yet you destroy me.
<sup>9</sup>Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay.
Will you bring me into dust
again?
<sup>10</sup>Haven't you poured me out like milk,
and curdled me like cheese?
<sup>11</sup>You have clothed me with skin
and flesh,
and knit me together with bones and sinews.
<sup>12</sup>You have granted me life and
loving kindness.
Your visitation has preserved my spirit.
<sup>13</sup>Yet you hid these things in your
heart.
I know that this is with you:
<sup>14</sup>if I sin, then you mark me.

You will not acquit me from my iniquity.
<sup>15</sup>If I am wicked, woe to me.
If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head,
being filled with disgrace,
and conscious of my
affliction.
<sup>16</sup>If my head is held high, you hunt
me like a lion.
Again you show yourself
powerful to me.
<sup>17</sup>You renew your witnesses
against me,
and increase your indignation on me.
Changes and warfare are
with me.
<sup>18</sup>“Why, then, have you brought me forth out of the
womb?
I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me.
<sup>19</sup>I should have been as though I
had not been.
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
<sup>20</sup>Aren't my days few?
Cease then.
Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort, <sup>21</sup>before I go where I shall not return from,
to the land of darkness and
of the shadow of
death;
<sup>22</sup>the land dark as midnight,
of the shadow of death,
without any order,
where the light is as midnight.”

11 Then Zophar, the Naamathite, answered, <sup>2</sup>“Shouldn’t the multitude of words be answered?
 Should a man full of talk be justified?
<sup>3</sup>Should your boastings make men hold their peace?
 When you mock, shall no man make you ashamed?
<sup>4</sup>For you say, ‘My doctrine is pure. I am clean in your eyes.’
<sup>5</sup>But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against you, <sup>6</sup>that he would show you the secrets of wisdom.
 For true wisdom has two sides.
 Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.
<sup>7</sup>“Can you fathom the mystery of God?
 Or can you probe the limits of Shaddai?
<sup>8</sup>They are high as heaven. What can you do?
 They are deeper than Sheol. What can you know?
<sup>9</sup>Its measure is longer than the earth,
 and broader than the sea.
<sup>10</sup>If he passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose him?
<sup>11</sup>For he knows false men. He sees iniquity also, even though he doesn’t consider it.
<sup>12</sup>An empty-headed man becomes wise

when a man is born as a wild donkey’s colt.

<sup>13</sup>“If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands toward him.
<sup>14</sup>If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away.
 Do not let unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
<sup>15</sup>Surely then you shall lift up your face without spot;
 Yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear:
<sup>16</sup>for you shall forget your misery. You shall remember it as waters that are passed away.
<sup>17</sup>Life shall be clearer than the noonday.
 Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning.
<sup>18</sup>You shall be secure, because there is hope.
 Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety.
<sup>19</sup>Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid.
 Yes, many shall court your favor.
<sup>20</sup>But the eyes of the wicked shall fail.
 They shall have no way to flee.
 Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit.”

12 Then Job answered,
<sup>2</sup>“No doubt, but you are the people,

- and wisdom shall die with
you.
- <sup>3</sup>But I have understanding as well
as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Yes, who doesn't know such things as these?
- <sup>4</sup>I am like one who is a joke to his
neighbor,
I, who called on God, and he
answered.
The just, the blameless man
is a joke.
- <sup>5</sup>In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune.
It is ready for them whose foot slips.
- <sup>6</sup>The tents of robbers prosper.
Those who provoke God are secure,
who carry their god in their
hands.
- <sup>7</sup>“But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you;
the birds of the sky, and they shall tell you.
- <sup>8</sup>Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you.
The fish of the sea shall declare to you.
- <sup>9</sup>Who doesn't know that in all these,
the hand of the LORD has done this,
- <sup>10</sup>in whose hand is the life of every living thing,
and the breath of all mankind?
- <sup>11</sup>Doesn't the ear try words,
even as the palate tastes its food?
- <sup>12</sup>With aged men is wisdom,
in length of days
understanding.
- <sup>13</sup>“With him is wisdom and might.
He has counsel and
understanding.
- <sup>14</sup>Look, he breaks down, and it can't be built again.
He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.
- <sup>15</sup>Look, he withholds the waters,
and they dry up.
Again, he sends them out,
and they overturn the
earth.
- <sup>16</sup>With him is strength and
wisdom.
The deceived and the
deceiver are his.
- <sup>17</sup>He leads counselors away
stripped.
He makes judges fools.
- <sup>18</sup>He loosens the bond of kings.
He binds their waist with a belt.
- <sup>19</sup>He leads priests away stripped,
and overthrows the mighty.
- <sup>20</sup>He removes the speech of those who are trusted,
and takes away the understanding of the elders.
- <sup>21</sup>He pours contempt on princes,
and loosens the belt of the strong.
- <sup>22</sup>He uncovers deep things out of
darkness,
and brings out to light the shadow of death.
- <sup>23</sup>He increases the nations, and he destroys them.
He enlarges the nations, and he leads them captive.
- <sup>24</sup>He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth,

and causes them to wander
in a wilderness where there is no way.

<sup>25</sup>They grope in the dark without
light.

He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

13 “Look, my eye has seen all this.
My ear has heard
and understood it.

<sup>2</sup>What you know, I know also.
I am not inferior to you.

<sup>3</sup>“Surely I would speak to Shaddai.
I desire to reason with God.

<sup>4</sup>But you are forgers of lies.
You are all physicians of no value.

<sup>5</sup>Oh that you would be completely silent.

Then you would be wise.

<sup>6</sup>Hear now my reasoning.
Listen to the pleadings of my lips.

<sup>7</sup>Will you speak unrighteously for God,
and talk deceitfully for him?

<sup>8</sup>Will you show partiality to him?
Will you contend for God?

<sup>9</sup>Is it good that he should search
you out?

Or as one deceives a man,
will you deceive him?

<sup>10</sup>He will surely reprove you if you secretly show partiality.

<sup>11</sup>Shall not his majesty make you
afraid,

And his dread fall on you?

<sup>12</sup>Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
Your defenses are defenses
of clay.

<sup>13</sup>“Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak.

Let come on me what will.

<sup>14</sup>Why should I take my flesh in
my teeth,

and put my life in my hand?

<sup>15</sup>Look, though he should kill me,
I will hope in him.<sup>a</sup>

Nevertheless, I will argue
my ways before him.

<sup>16</sup>This also shall be my salvation,
that a godless man shall not come before him.

<sup>17</sup>Hear diligently my speech.

Let my declaration be in your ears.

<sup>18</sup>See now, I have set my cause in order.

I know that I am righteous.

<sup>19</sup>Who is he who will contend with
me?

For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit.

<sup>20</sup>“Only do not do two things to
me;

then I will not hide myself
from your face:

<sup>21</sup>withdraw your hand far from me;
and do not let your terror
make me afraid.

<sup>22</sup>Then call, and I will answer;
or let me speak, and you
answer me.

<sup>23</sup>How many are my iniquities and sins?

Make me know my disobedience and my
sin.

<sup>3</sup>Do you open your eyes on such a
one,
and bring me into judgment
with you?
<sup>4</sup>Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
Not one.
<sup>5</sup>Seeing his days are determined,
the number of his months is
with you,
and you have appointed his bounds that he can't pass;
<sup>6</sup>Look away from him, that he may
rest,

until he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

<sup>7</sup>“For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
that the tender branch of it will not cease.
<sup>8</sup>Though its root grows old in the
earth,
and its stock dies in the
ground,
<sup>9</sup>yet through the scent of water it will bud,
and put forth boughs like a plant.
<sup>10</sup>But man dies, and is laid low.
Yes, man gives up the spirit,
and where is he?
<sup>11</sup>As the waters fail from the sea,
and the river wastes and dries up,
<sup>12</sup>so man lies down and doesn't rise.
Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake,
nor be roused out of their
sleep.
<sup>13</sup>“Oh that you would hide me in Sheol,
that you would keep me
secret, until your wrath
is past,
that you would appoint me a set time, and remember me.
<sup>14</sup>If a man dies, shall he live again?
All the days of my warfare
would I wait,
until my release should
come.
<sup>15</sup>You would call, and I would answer you.

You would have a desire to
the work of your
hands.
<sup>16</sup>But now you number my steps.
Do you not watch over my
sin?
<sup>17</sup>My disobedience is sealed up in a bag.
You fasten up my iniquity.
<sup>18</sup>“But the mountain falling comes to nothing.
The rock is removed out of
its place;
<sup>19</sup>The waters wear the stones.
The torrents of it wash away
the dust of the earth.
So you destroy the hope of
man.
<sup>20</sup>You forever prevail against him,
and he departs.
You change his face, and
send him away.
<sup>21</sup>His sons come to honor, and he doesn’t know it.
They are brought low, but he doesn’t perceive it of
them.
<sup>22</sup>But his flesh on him has pain,
and his soul within him mourns.”

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
<sup>2</sup>“Should a wise man answer with vain
knowledge,
and fill himself with the east
wind?
<sup>3</sup>Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
or with speeches with which he can do no good?
<sup>4</sup>Yes, you do away with fear,

and hinder devotion before
God.
<sup>5</sup>For your iniquity teaches your
mouth,
and you choose the language of the crafty.
<sup>6</sup>Your own mouth condemns you,
and not I.
Yes, your own lips testify
against you.
<sup>7</sup>“Are you the first man who was born?
Or were you brought forth
before the hills?
<sup>8</sup>Have you heard the secret counsel
of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
<sup>9</sup>What do you know, that we do not know?
What do you understand,
which is not in us?
<sup>10</sup>With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged
men,
much elder than your father.
<sup>11</sup>Are the consolations of God too small for you,
even the word that is gentle toward you?
<sup>12</sup>Why does your heart carry you
away?
Why do your eyes flash,
<sup>13</sup>That you turn your spirit against
God,
and let such words go out of
your mouth?
<sup>14</sup>What is man, that he should be clean?
What is he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
<sup>15</sup>Look, he puts no trust in his holy ones.

Yes, the heavens are not clean in his sight; <sup>16</sup>how much less one who is abominable and corrupt,
 a man who drinks iniquity
 like water.

<sup>17</sup>“I will show you, listen to me;
 that which I have seen I will declare: <sup>18</sup>(Which wise men have told by their fathers,
 and have not hidden it; <sup>19</sup>to whom alone the land was given,
 and no stranger passed
 among them):
<sup>20</sup>the wicked man writhes in pain
 all his days,
 even the number of years
 that are laid up for the oppressor.

<sup>21</sup>A sound of terrors is in his ears.
 In prosperity the destroyer
 shall come on him.

<sup>22</sup>He doesn’t believe that he shall return out of darkness.
 He is waited for by the
 sword.

<sup>23</sup>He wanders abroad for bread, saying, ‘Where is it?’
 He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his
 hand.

<sup>24</sup>Distress and anguish make him
 afraid.
 They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

<sup>25</sup>Because he has stretched out his hand against God,
 and behaves himself proudly
 against Shaddai; <sup>26</sup>he runs at him with a stiff neck,

with the thick shields of his bucklers;
<sup>27</sup>because he has covered his face
 with his fatness,
 and gathered fat on his thighs.

<sup>28</sup>He has lived in desolate cities,
 in houses which no one
 inhabited,
 which were ready to become heaps.

<sup>29</sup>He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue,
 neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth.

<sup>30</sup>He shall not depart out of
 darkness.
 The flame shall dry up his branches.
 By the breath of God’s mouth shall he go
 away.

<sup>31</sup>Let him not trust in emptiness,
 deceiving himself;
 for emptiness shall be his reward.

<sup>32</sup>It shall be accomplished before his time.
 His branch shall not be green.

<sup>33</sup>He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine,
 and shall cast off his flower
 as the olive tree.

<sup>34</sup>For the company of the godless
 shall be barren,
 and fire shall consume the tents of bribery.

<sup>35</sup>They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
 Their heart prepares deceit.”

16 Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup>“I have heard many such things.

 You are all miserable
 comforters.
<sup>3</sup>Shall vain words have an end?
 Or what provokes you that you answer?
<sup>4</sup>I also could speak as you do.
 If your soul were in my soul's place,
 I could join words together
 against you,
 and shake my head at you,
<sup>5</sup>but I would strengthen you with my mouth.
 The solace of my lips would relieve you.
<sup>6</sup>“Though I speak, my grief is not subsided.
 Though I forbear, what am I eased?
<sup>7</sup>But now he has worn me out.
 You have laid waste all my company.
<sup>8</sup>You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me.
 My leanness rises up against
 me.
 It testifies to my face.
<sup>9</sup>He has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me.
 He has gnashed on me with
 his teeth.
 My adversary sharpens his eyes on me.
<sup>10</sup>They have gaped on me with
 their mouth.
 They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully.
 They gather themselves
 together against me.
<sup>11</sup>God delivers me to the ungodly,
 and casts me into the hands
 of the wicked.
<sup>12</sup>I was at ease, and he broke me apart.

Yes, he has taken me by the neck, and dashed me
 to pieces.
 He has also set me up for his target.
<sup>13</sup>His archers surround me.
 He splits my kidneys apart,
 and does not spare.
 He pours out my gall on the
 ground.
<sup>14</sup>He breaks me with breach on breach.
 He runs on me like a giant.
<sup>15</sup>I have sewed sackcloth on my skin,
 and have thrust my horn in
 the dust.
<sup>16</sup>My face is red with weeping.
 Deep darkness is on my eyelids.
<sup>17</sup>Although there is no violence in my hands,
 and my prayer is pure.
<sup>18</sup>“Earth, do not cover my blood.
 Let my cry have no place to
 rest.
<sup>19</sup>Even now, look, my witness is in heaven.
 He who vouches for me is
 on high.
<sup>20</sup>My friends scoff at me.
 My eyes pour out tears to
 God,
<sup>21</sup>that he would maintain the right
 of a man with God,
 of a son of man with his
 neighbor.
<sup>22</sup>For when a few years have
 come,
 I shall go the way from where I shall not return.

17 “My spirit is consumed.
My days are extinct,
And the grave is ready for
me.
2Surely there are mockers with me.
My eye dwells on their provocation.
3“Now give a pledge, be collateral
for me with yourself.
Who is there who will strike
hands with me?
4For you have hidden their heart
from understanding,
Therefore you shall not exalt
them.
5He who denounces his friends for a prey,
Even the eyes of his children
shall fail.
6“But he has made me a byword of
the people.
They spit in my face.
7My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow.
All my members are as a shadow.
8Upright men shall be astonished at this.
The innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.
9Yet shall the righteous hold on his way.
He who has clean hands
shall grow stronger
and stronger.
10But as for you all, come on now
again;
I shall not find a wise man
among you.
11My days are past, my plans are broken off,

as are the thoughts of my
heart.
12They change the night into day,
saying ‘The light is near’ in the presence of
darkness.
13If I look for Sheol as my house,
if I have spread my couch in
the darkness,
14If I have said to corruption, ‘You are my father;’
to the worm, ‘My mother,’
and ‘my sister;’
15where then is my hope?
As for my hope, who shall see it?
16Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol,
or descend together into the
dust?”

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
2“How long will
you hunt for words?
Consider, and afterwards we
will speak.
3Why are we counted as animals,
which have become unclean
in your sight?
4You who tear yourself in your
anger,
shall the earth be forsaken
for you?
Or shall the rock be removed
out of its place?
5“Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out,
The spark of his fire shall not shine.
6The light shall be dark in his tent.
His lamp above him shall be put out.

<sup>7</sup>The steps of his strength shall be shortened.
 His own counsel shall cast him down.
<sup>8</sup>For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
 and he wanders into its mesh.
<sup>9</sup>A snare will take him by the heel.
 A trap will catch him.
<sup>10</sup>A noose is hidden for him in the ground,
 a trap for him in the way.
<sup>11</sup>Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
 and shall chase him at his heels.
<sup>12</sup>His strength shall be famished.
 Calamity shall be ready at his side.
<sup>13</sup>The members of his body shall be devoured.
 The firstborn of death shall devour his members.
<sup>14</sup>He shall be rooted out of his tent where he trusts.
 He shall be brought to the king of terrors.
<sup>15</sup>There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his.
 Sulfur shall be scattered on his habitation.
 He shall have no name in the street.
<sup>18</sup>He shall be driven from light into darkness,
 and chased out of the world.
<sup>19</sup>He shall have neither son nor grandson among his people,

nor any remaining where he sojourned.

<sup>20</sup>Those who come after shall be astonished at his day,
 as those who went before were frightened.
 This is the place of him who doesn't know God."

19 Then Job answered,
<sup>2a</sup>How long will you torment me,
 and crush me with words?

<sup>3</sup>You have reproached me ten times.
 You aren't ashamed that you attack me.

<sup>4</sup>If it is true that I have erred,
 my error remains with myself.

<sup>5</sup>If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me,
 and plead against me my reproach;

<sup>6</sup>know now that God has subverted me,
 and has surrounded me with his net.

<sup>8</sup>He has walled up my way so that I can't pass,
 and has set darkness in my paths.

<sup>9</sup>He has stripped me of my glory,
 and taken the crown from my head.

<sup>10</sup>He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone.

My hope he has plucked up like a tree.

<sup>11</sup>He has also kindled his wrath
against me.
He counts me among his
adversaries.

<sup>12</sup>His troops come on together,
build a siege ramp against
me,
and camp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup>“He has put my brothers far from
me.
My acquaintances are wholly estranged from
me.

<sup>14</sup>My relatives have gone away.
My familiar friends have forgotten me.

<sup>15</sup>Those who dwell in my house,
and my maids, count
me for a stranger.
I am a foreigner in their sight.

<sup>16</sup>I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer.
I beg him with my mouth.

<sup>17</sup>My breath is offensive to my wife.
I am loathsome to the children of my own
mother.

<sup>18</sup>Even young children despise me.
If I arise, they speak against
me.

<sup>19</sup>All my familiar friends abhor
me.
They whom I loved have turned against me.

<sup>20</sup>My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh.
I have escaped by the skin of
my teeth.

<sup>21</sup>“Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends;
for the hand of God has touched me.

<sup>22</sup>Why do you persecute me as
God,
and are not satisfied with my
flesh?

<sup>23</sup>“Oh that my words were now
written.
Oh that they were inscribed
in a scroll.

<sup>24</sup>That with an iron pen and lead
they were engraved in the rock forever.

<sup>25</sup>But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives.
In the end, he will stand
upon the earth.

<sup>26</sup>After my skin is destroyed,
then in my flesh shall I see
God,

<sup>27</sup>Whom I, even I, shall see on my side.
My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger.

“My heart is consumed within me.
<sup>28</sup>If you say, ‘How we will persecute him.’
because the root of the matter is found in me, <sup>29</sup>be afraid of the sword,
for wrath brings the punishments of the
sword,
that you may know there is a
judgment.”

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite
answered,

<sup>2</sup>“Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me,
even by reason of my haste
that is in me.
<sup>3</sup>I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame.

- The spirit of my understanding answers me.
- <sup>4</sup>Do you not know this from old time, since man was placed on earth, <sup>5</sup>that the triumphing of the wicked is short,
the joy of the godless but for a moment?
<sup>6</sup>Though his height mount up to the heavens,
and his head reach to the clouds,
<sup>7</sup>yet he shall perish forever like his own dung.
Those who have seen him shall say, 'Where is he?'
- <sup>8</sup>He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found.
Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night.
- <sup>9</sup>The eye which saw him shall see him no more,
neither shall his place any more see him.
- <sup>10</sup>His children shall seek the favor of the poor.
His hands shall give back his wealth.
- <sup>11</sup>His bones are full of his youth,
but youth shall lie down with him in the dust.
- <sup>12</sup>“Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth,
though he hide it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup>though he spare it, and will not let it go,
but keep it still within his mouth;
- <sup>14</sup>yet his food in his bowels is turned.
It is cobra venom within him.
- <sup>15</sup>He has swallowed down riches,
and he shall vomit them up again.
God will cast them out of his belly.
- <sup>16</sup>He shall suck cobra venom.
The viper's tongue shall kill him.
- <sup>17</sup>He shall not look at the rivers,
the flowing streams of honey and butter.
- <sup>18</sup>That for which he labored he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down.
According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice.
- <sup>19</sup>For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor.
He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up.
- <sup>20</sup>“Because he knew no quietness within him,
he shall not save anything of that in which he delights.
- <sup>21</sup>There was nothing left that he did not devour, therefore his prosperity shall not endure.
- <sup>22</sup>In the fullness of his sufficiency,
distress shall overtake him.
The hand of everyone who is in misery shall come on him.
- <sup>23</sup>When he is about to fill his belly,
he will cast the fierceness of his wrath on him.

It will rain on him while he is eating.
<sup>24</sup>He shall flee from the iron weapon.
 The bronze arrow shall strike him through.
<sup>25</sup>He draws it forth, and it comes out of his body.
 Yes, the glittering point
comes out of his liver.
 Terrors are on him.
<sup>26</sup>All darkness is laid up for his treasures.
 An unfanned fire shall devour him.
 It shall consume that which is left in his tent.
<sup>27</sup>The heavens shall reveal his
iniquity.
 The earth shall rise up
against him.
<sup>28</sup>The increase of his house shall depart.
 They shall rush away in the day of his wrath.
<sup>29</sup>This is the portion of a wicked
man from God,
 the heritage appointed to him by God.”

21 Then Job answered, <sup>2a</sup>“Listen diligently to my speech.

Let this be your consolation.
<sup>3</sup>Allow me, and I also will speak;
 After I have spoken, mock on.
<sup>4</sup>As for me, is my complaint to
man?
 Why shouldn't I be impatient?
<sup>5</sup>Look at me, and be astonished.
 Lay your hand on your
mouth.
<sup>6</sup>When I remember, I am troubled.

Horror takes hold of my flesh.

<sup>7</sup>“Why do the wicked live, become old, yes, and grow
mighty in power?
<sup>8</sup>Their child is established with them in their sight,
 their offspring before their
eyes.
<sup>9</sup>Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God
upon them.
<sup>10</sup>Their bulls breed without fail.
 Their cows calve, and do not miscarry.
<sup>11</sup>They send forth their little ones
like a flock.
 Their children dance.
<sup>12</sup>They sing to the tambourine and
harp,
 and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
<sup>13</sup>They spend their days in prosperity.
 In an instant they go down to Sheol.
<sup>14</sup>They tell God, ‘Depart from us,
 for we do not want to know about your ways.
<sup>15</sup>What is Shaddai, that we should serve him?
 What profit should we have,
 if we pray to him?’
<sup>16</sup>Look, their prosperity is not in their hand.
 The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
<sup>17</sup>“How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out,
 that their calamity comes on
them,
 that he distributes sorrows in
his anger?

<sup>18</sup>How often is it that they are as stubble before the wind,
 as chaff that the storm
 carries away?
<sup>19</sup>You say, 'God lays up his iniquity for his children.'
 Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it.
<sup>20</sup>Let his own eyes see his
 destruction.
 Let him drink of the wrath of Shaddai.
<sup>21</sup>For what does he care for his house after him,
 when the number of his
 months is cut off?
<sup>22</sup>'Shall any teach God
 knowledge,
 seeing he judges those who are high?
<sup>23</sup>One dies in his full strength,
 being wholly at ease and quiet.
<sup>24</sup>His pails are full of milk.
 The marrow of his bones is moistened.
<sup>25</sup>Another dies in bitterness of
 soul,
 and never tastes of good.
<sup>26</sup>They lie down alike in the dust.
 The worm covers them.
<sup>27</sup>'Look, I know your thoughts,
 the devices with which you would wrong me.
<sup>28</sup>For you say, 'Where is the house
 of the prince?
 Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?'
<sup>29</sup>Haven't you asked wayfaring
 men?

Do you not know their evidences,
<sup>30</sup>that the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity,
 That they are led forth to the day of wrath?
<sup>31</sup>Who shall declare his way to his face?
 Who shall repay him what
 he has done?
<sup>32</sup>Yet he will be borne to the grave.
 Men shall keep watch over the tomb.
<sup>33</sup>The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him.
 All men shall draw after
 him,
 as there were innumerable
 before him.
<sup>34</sup>So how can you comfort me with nonsense,
 seeing that in your answers
 there remains only falsehood?"

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
<sup>2</sup>'Can a man be profitable to God?
 Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.
<sup>3</sup>Is it any pleasure to Shaddai, that you are righteous?
 Or does it benefit him, that you make your ways
 perfect?
<sup>4</sup>Is it for your piety that he reproves you,
 that he enters with you into
 judgment?
<sup>5</sup>Isn't your wickedness great?
 Neither is there any end to your iniquities.

<sup>6</sup>For you have taken pledges from your brother for
nothing,
and stripped the naked of their clothing.
<sup>7</sup>You haven't given water to the weary to drink,
and you have withheld bread
from the hungry.
<sup>8</sup>But as for the mighty man, he had
the earth.
The honorable man, he lived
in it.
<sup>9</sup>You have sent widows away
empty,
and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
<sup>10</sup>Therefore snares are around you.
Sudden fear troubles you,
<sup>11</sup>or darkness, so that you can not see,
and floods of waters cover
you.
<sup>12</sup>Isn't God in the heights of
heaven?
See the height of the stars,
how high they are.
<sup>13</sup>You say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?'
<sup>14</sup>Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he doesn't
see.
He walks on the vault of the sky.'
<sup>15</sup>Will you keep the old way, which wicked men have trodden,
<sup>16</sup>who were snatched away before their time,
whose foundation was
poured out as a stream, <sup>17</sup>who said to God, 'Depart from us;'

and, 'What can Shaddai do
for us?'
<sup>18</sup>Yet he filled their houses with
good things,
but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
<sup>19</sup>The righteous see it, and are glad.
The innocent ridicule them,
<sup>20</sup>saying, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off.
The fire has consumed the remnant of them.'
<sup>21</sup>'Acquaint yourself with him,
now, and be at peace.
Thereby good shall come to
you.
<sup>22</sup>Please receive instruction from
his mouth,
and lay up his words in your
heart.
<sup>23</sup>If you return to Shaddai, you shall be built up,
if you put away
unrighteousness far
from your tents.
<sup>24</sup>Lay your treasure in the dust,
the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
<sup>25</sup>Shaddai will be your treasure,
and precious silver to you.
<sup>26</sup>For then you will delight
yourself in Shaddai,
and shall lift up your face to
God.
<sup>27</sup>You shall make your prayer to him, and he will hear
you.
You shall pay your vows.
<sup>28</sup>And you will also decree a thing,
and it will be established for you,
and

light will shine on your
ways.

<sup>29</sup>When they cast down, you shall say, 'be lifted up.'
And he will save the humble.

<sup>30</sup>He will even deliver him who is not innocent.
Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness
of your hands."

23 Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup>"Even today my complaint is rebellious.

His hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.

<sup>3</sup>Oh that I knew where I might find
him.

That I might come even to his seat.

<sup>4</sup>I would set my cause in order
before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup>I would know the words which he would answer me,
and understand what he would tell me.

<sup>6</sup>Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?

No, but he would listen to
me.

<sup>7</sup>There the upright might reason
with him,
so I should be delivered forever from my judge.

<sup>8</sup>"If I go east, he is not there;
if west, I can't find him;

<sup>9</sup>He works to the north, but I can't see him.

He turns south, but I can't catch a glimpse of
him.

<sup>10</sup>But he knows the way that I take.
When he has tried me, I shall come forth like
gold.

<sup>11</sup>My foot has held fast to his steps.
I have kept his way, and not turned aside.

<sup>12</sup>I haven't gone back from the commandment of his lips.

I have treasured up the words of his mouth
more than my necessary food.

<sup>13</sup>But he stands alone, and who can oppose him?

What his soul desires, even that he does.

<sup>14</sup>For he performs that which is appointed for me.
Many such things are with
him.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore I am terrified at his presence.
When I consider, I am afraid
of him.

<sup>16</sup>For God has made my heart
faint.

Shaddai has terrified me.

<sup>17</sup>Because I was not cut off before
the darkness,
neither did he cover the thick darkness from
my face.

24 "Why aren't times made known by Shaddai?

Why do not those who know him see his days?

<sup>2</sup>There are people who remove the landmarks.

They violently take away flocks, and feed them.

The poor of the earth all hide themselves.

The wilderness yields them bread for their children.

They glean the vineyard of the wicked.

<sup>7</sup>They lie all night naked without clothing,

and have no covering in the cold.

<sup>8</sup>They are wet with the showers of the mountains,

and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.

<sup>9</sup>There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast,

and take a pledge of the poor,

<sup>10</sup>So that they go around naked without clothing.

Being hungry, they carry the sheaves.

They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst.

The soul of the wounded cries out, yet God doesn't regard the folly.

They do not know its ways, nor abide in its paths.

<sup>14</sup>The murderer rises with the light. He kills the poor and needy. In the night he is like a thief.

He disguises his face.

They shut themselves up in the daytime.

They do not know the light.

Their portion is cursed in the earth.

They do not turn into the way of the vineyards.

The worm shall feed sweetly on him.

He shall be no more remembered.

Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree.

He shows no kindness to the widow.

He rises up who has no assurance of life.

His eyes are on their ways.

Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.

<sup>25</sup>If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?"

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
<sup>2c</sup>"Dominion and fear are with him.

He makes peace in his high places.

<sup>3</sup>Can his armies be counted?
On whom does his light not arise?

<sup>4</sup>How then can man be just with God?

Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?

<sup>5</sup>Look, even the moon has no brightness,
and the stars are not pure in his sight;

<sup>6</sup>How much less man, who is a worm,
the son of man, who is a worm."

26 Then Job answered,
<sup>2c</sup>"How have you helped him who is without power.

How have you saved the arm that has no strength.

<sup>3</sup>How have you counseled him who has no wisdom,
and plentifully declared sound knowledge.

<sup>4</sup>To whom have you uttered words?
Whose spirit came forth from you?

<sup>5c</sup>"Those who are deceased tremble,
those beneath the waters and all that live in them.

<sup>6</sup>Sheol<sup>a</sup> is naked before him,
and Abaddon<sup>b</sup> has no covering.

<sup>7</sup>He stretches out the north over empty space,
and hangs the earth on nothing.

<sup>8</sup>He binds up the waters in his thick clouds,
and the cloud is not burst under them.

<sup>9</sup>He encloses the face of his throne,
and spreads his cloud on it.

<sup>10</sup>He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters,
and to the confines of light and darkness.

<sup>11</sup>The pillars of heaven tremble
and are astonished at his rebuke.

power,
and by his understanding he strikes through Rahab.
<sup>13</sup>By his Spirit the heavens are garnished.
His hand has pierced the swift serpent.
<sup>14</sup>Look, these are but the outskirts of his ways.
How small a whisper do we hear of him.
But the thunder of his power
who can understand?"

27 Job again took up his parable, and
said,

<sup>2</sup>"As God lives, who has taken away my right, Shaddai, who has made my soul bitter.
<sup>3</sup>(For the length of my life is still
in me,
and the spirit of God is in my nostrils);
<sup>4</sup>surely my lips shall not speak
unrighteousness,
neither shall my tongue utter
deceit.
<sup>5</sup>Far be it from me that I should justify you.
Until I die I will not put away my integrity
from me.
<sup>6</sup>I hold fast to my righteousness,
and will not let it go.
My heart shall not reproach
me so long as I live.
<sup>7</sup>"Let my enemy be as the wicked.
Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.

<sup>8</sup>For what is the hope of the godless, when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?
<sup>9</sup>Will God hear his cry when trouble comes on him?
<sup>10</sup>Will he delight himself in Shaddai,
and call on God at all times?
<sup>11</sup>I will teach you about the hand
of God.
That which is with Shaddai
will I not conceal.
<sup>12</sup>Look, all of you have seen it yourselves;
why then have you become altogether vain?
<sup>13</sup>"This is the portion of a wicked
man with God,
the heritage of oppressors,
which they receive from Shaddai.
<sup>14</sup>If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword.
His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
<sup>15</sup>Those who remain of him shall be buried in death.
His widows shall make no
lamentation.
<sup>16</sup>Though he heap up silver as the
dust,
and prepare clothing as the
clay;
<sup>17</sup>he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
and the innocent shall divide
the silver.
<sup>18</sup>He builds his house as the moth,
as a booth which the watchman makes.
<sup>19</sup>He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again.
He opens his eyes, and he is not.

- <sup>20</sup>Terrors overtake him like waters.
A storm steals him away in
the night.
- <sup>21</sup>The east wind carries him away,
and he departs.
It sweeps him out of his
place.
- <sup>22</sup>For it hurls at him, and does not spare,
as he flees away from his
hand.
- <sup>23</sup>Men shall clap their hands at
him,
and shall hiss him out of his
place.

28 “Surely there is a mine for silver,
and a place for gold
which they refine.

- <sup>2</sup>Iron is taken out of the earth,
and copper is smelted out of the ore.
- <sup>3</sup>Man sets an end to darkness,
and searches out, to the furthest bound,
the stones of obscurity and
of thick darkness.
- <sup>4</sup>He breaks open a shaft away from where people live.
They are forgotten by the
foot.
They hang far from men,
they swing back and forth.
- <sup>5</sup>As for the earth, out of it comes
bread;
Underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
- <sup>6</sup>Sapphires come from its rocks.
It has dust of gold.
- <sup>7</sup>That path no bird of prey knows,
neither has the falcon’s eye
seen it.

- <sup>8</sup>The proud animals have not trodden it,
nor has the fierce lion passed
by there.
- <sup>9</sup>He puts forth his hand on the
flinty rock,
and he overturns the mountains by the roots.
- <sup>10</sup>He cuts out channels among the rocks.
His eye sees every precious
thing.
- <sup>11</sup>He binds the streams that they do not trickle.
The thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.
- <sup>12</sup>“But where shall wisdom be found?
Where is the place of
understanding?
- <sup>13</sup>Man doesn’t know its price;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.
- <sup>14</sup>The deep says, ‘It isn’t in me.’
The sea says, ‘It isn’t with
me.’
- <sup>15</sup>It can’t be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for its price.
- <sup>16</sup>It can’t be valued with the gold
of Ophir,
with the precious onyx, or
the sapphire’.
- <sup>17</sup>Gold and glass can’t equal it,
neither shall it be exchanged
for jewels of fine gold.
- <sup>18</sup>No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal.
Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.

equal it,
Neither shall it be valued
with pure gold.
<sup>20</sup>From where then comes
wisdom?
Where is the place of
understanding?
<sup>21</sup>Seeing it is hidden from the eyes
of all living,
and kept close from the birds
of the sky.
<sup>22</sup>Destruction and Death say,
‘We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.’
<sup>23</sup>“God understands its way,
and he knows its place.
<sup>24</sup>For he looks to the farthest parts
of the earth,
and sees under the whole
sky.
<sup>25</sup>He establishes the force of the wind.
Yes, he measures out the waters by measure.
<sup>26</sup>When he made a decree for the rain,
and a way for the lightning
of the thunder;
<sup>27</sup>then he saw it, and declared it.
He established it, yes, and searched it out.
<sup>28</sup>To man he said,
‘Look, the fear of the Lord,
that is wisdom.
To depart from evil is
understanding.’”

29 Job again took up
his parable, and
said,

<sup>2</sup>“Oh that I were as in the months
of old,

as in the days when God
watched over me;
<sup>3</sup>when his lamp shone on my head,
and by his light I walked through darkness,
<sup>4</sup>as I was in the ripeness of my
days,
when the friendship of God
was in my tent, <sup>5</sup>when Shaddai was yet with me,
and my children were
around me,
<sup>6</sup>when my steps were washed with butter,
and the rock poured out
streams of oil for me, <sup>7</sup>when I went forth to the city gate,
when I prepared my seat in the street.
<sup>8</sup>The young men saw me and hid themselves.
The aged rose up and stood.
<sup>9</sup>The princes refrained from talking,
and laid their hand on their
mouth.
<sup>10</sup>The voice of the nobles was hushed,
and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
<sup>11</sup>For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me;
and when the eye saw me, it
commended me:
<sup>12</sup>Because I delivered the poor
who cried,
and the fatherless also, who
had none to help him, <sup>13</sup>the blessing of him who was ready to perish came
on me,
and I caused the widow’s
heart to sing for joy.
<sup>14</sup>I put on righteousness, and it clothed me.

My justice was as a robe and a diadem.
<sup>15</sup>I was eyes to the blind,
 and feet to the lame.
<sup>16</sup>I was a father to the needy.
 The cause of him who I did not know, I searched
 out.
<sup>17</sup>I broke the jaws of the
 unrighteous,
 and plucked the prey out of
 his teeth.
<sup>18</sup>Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house,
 I shall number my days as
 the sand.
<sup>19</sup>My root is spread out to the waters.
 The dew lies all night on my branch.
<sup>20</sup>My glory is fresh in me.
 My bow is renewed in my
 hand.'
<sup>21</sup>"Men listened to me, waited,
 and kept silence for my
 counsel.
<sup>22</sup>After my words they did not speak again.
 My speech fell on them.
<sup>23</sup>They waited for me as for the rain.
 Their mouths drank as with the spring rain.
<sup>24</sup>I smiled on them when they had no confidence.
 They did not reject the light
 of my face.
<sup>25</sup>I chose out their way, and sat as chief.
 I lived as a king in the army,
 as one who comforts the mourners.

30 "But now those who are younger than I have me in derision,
 whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
<sup>2</sup>Of what use is the strength of their hands to me,
 men in whom ripe age has
 perished?
<sup>3</sup>They are gaunt from lack and famine.
 They gnaw the dry ground,
 in the gloom of waste
 and desolation.
<sup>4</sup>They pluck salt herbs by the bushes.
 The roots of the broom are
 their food.
<sup>5</sup>They are driven out from the midst of men.
 They cry after them as after
 a thief;
<sup>6</sup>So that they dwell in frightful valleys,
 and in holes of the earth and
 of the rocks.
<sup>7</sup>Among the bushes they bray;
 and under the nettles they are gathered together.
<sup>8</sup>They are children of fools, yes,
 children of base men.
 They were flogged out of the
 land.
<sup>9</sup>"Now I have become their song.
 Yes, I am a byword to them.
<sup>10</sup>They abhor me, they keep their distance from me,
 and do not hesitate to spit in
 my face.
<sup>11</sup>For he has untied his cord, and afflicted me;
 and they have thrown off
 restraint before me.
<sup>12</sup>On my right hand rise the rabble.

They thrust aside my feet,
They cast up against me
their ways of
destruction.

<sup>13</sup>They mar my path,
They set forward my calamity,
without anyone's help.

<sup>14</sup>As through a wide breach they
come,
in the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in.

<sup>15</sup>Terrors have turned on me.
They chase my honor as the wind.
My welfare has passed away
as a cloud.

<sup>16</sup>Now my soul is poured out
within me.
Days of affliction have taken hold on me.

<sup>17</sup>In the night season my bones are pierced in me,
and the pains that gnaw me
take no rest.

<sup>18</sup>By great force is my garment disfigured.
It binds me about as the collar of my coat.

<sup>19</sup>He has cast me into the mire.
I have become like dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup>I cry to you, and you do not answer me.
I stand up, and you gaze at
me.

<sup>21</sup>You have turned to be cruel to
me.
With the might of your hand
you persecute me.

<sup>22</sup>You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it.
You dissolve me in the storm.

<sup>23</sup>For I know that you will bring me to death,
To the house appointed for
all living.

<sup>24</sup>However doesn't one stretch
out a hand in his fall?
Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?

<sup>25</sup>Did I not weep for him who was in trouble?
Wasn't my soul grieved for
the needy?

<sup>26</sup>When I looked for good, then evil came;
When I waited for light,
there came darkness.

<sup>27</sup>My heart is troubled, and doesn't
rest.
Days of affliction have come
on me.

<sup>28</sup>I go mourning without the sun.
I stand up in the assembly,
and cry for help.

<sup>29</sup>I am a brother to jackals,
and a companion to ostriches.

<sup>30</sup>My skin grows black and peels
from me.
My bones are burned with heat.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore my harp has turned to mourning,
and my pipe into the voice
of those who weep.

31 "I made a covenant
with my eyes,
how then should I look lustfully at a young woman?

<sup>2</sup>For what is the portion from God
above,
and the heritage from Shaddai on high?

<sup>3</sup>Is it not calamity for the
unrighteous,
and disaster for evildoers?
<sup>4</sup>Doesn't he see my ways,
and number all my steps?

<sup>5</sup>“If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to
deceit

<sup>6</sup>(let me be weighed in an even balance,
that God may know my integrity);

<sup>7</sup>if my step has turned out of the
way,
if my heart walked after my
eyes,
if any defilement has stuck
to my hands,

<sup>8</sup>then let me sow, and let another
eat.

Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.

<sup>9</sup>“If my heart has been enticed to a woman,
and I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door,

<sup>10</sup>then let my wife grind for another,
and let others sleep with her.

<sup>11</sup>For that would be a heinous crime.

Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:

<sup>12</sup>For it is a fire that consumes to
destruction,
and would root out all my
increase.

<sup>13</sup>“If I have despised the cause of my male servant
or of my female servant,
when they contended with
me;

<sup>14</sup>What then shall I do when God
rises up?

When he visits, what shall I
answer him?

<sup>15</sup>Did not he who made me in the womb make him?

Did not the same one fashion us in the
womb?

<sup>16</sup>“If I have withheld the poor from their desire,
or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,

<sup>17</sup>or have eaten my morsel alone,
and the fatherless has not eaten of it

<sup>18</sup>(no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,

her have I guided from my mother's womb);

<sup>19</sup>if I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
or that the needy had no
covering;

<sup>20</sup>if his heart hasn't blessed me,
if he hasn't been warmed
with my sheep's
fleece;

<sup>21</sup>if I have lifted up my hand
against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate,

<sup>22</sup>then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade,
and my arm be broken from
the bone.

<sup>23</sup>For calamity from God is a terror
to me.

Because his majesty, I can do nothing.

<sup>24</sup>“If I have made gold my hope,

and have said to the fine gold, ‘You are my confidence;’
<sup>25</sup>If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much;
<sup>26</sup>if I have seen the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in splendor,
<sup>27</sup>and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth,
<sup>28</sup>this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; for I should have denied the God who is above.
<sup>29</sup>“If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him;
<sup>30</sup>(yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his life with a curse);
<sup>31</sup>if the men of my tent have not said, ‘Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?’
<sup>32</sup>(the foreigner has not lodged in the street, but I have opened my doors to the traveler);
<sup>33</sup>if like Adam I have covered my transgressions, by hiding my iniquity in my heart,

and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and did not go out of the door—<sup>35</sup>oh that I had one to hear me. (look, here is my signature, let Shaddai answer me); let the accuser write my indictment.
<sup>36</sup>Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; and I would bind it to me as a crown.
<sup>37</sup>I would declare to him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near to him.
<sup>38</sup>If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep together;
<sup>39</sup>if I have eaten its fruits without money, or have caused its owners to lose their life,

The words of Job are ended.

32 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. <sup>2</sup>Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job. His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God. <sup>3</sup>Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. <sup>4</sup>Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he.

<sup>5</sup>When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.

<sup>6</sup>Elihu the son of Barachel
the Buzite answered, “I am young, and you are very old;
Therefore I held back, and did not dare show you my opinion.

<sup>7</sup>I said, ‘Days should speak,
and multitude of years
should teach wisdom.’

<sup>8</sup>But there is a spirit in man,
and the breath of Shaddai
gives them
understanding.

<sup>9</sup>It is not the great who are wise,
nor the aged who understand
justice.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore I said, ‘Listen to me;
I also will show my opinion.’

<sup>11</sup>“Look, I waited for your words,
and I listened for your reasoning,
while you searched out what
to say.

<sup>12</sup>Yes, I gave you my full attention,
but there was no one who convinced Job,
or who answered his words,
among you.

<sup>13</sup>Beware lest you say, ‘We have found wisdom,
God may refute him, not
man;’

<sup>14</sup>for he has not directed his words
against me;
neither will I answer him
with your speeches.

<sup>15</sup>“They are amazed. They answer
no more.
They do not have a word to say.

<sup>16</sup>Shall I wait, because they do not speak,
because they stand still, and answer no more?

<sup>17</sup>I also will answer my part,
and I also will show my opinion.

<sup>18</sup>For I am full of words.
The spirit within me
constrains me.

<sup>19</sup>Look, my breast is as wine
which has no vent;
like new wineskins it is ready to burst.

<sup>20</sup>I will speak, that I may be refreshed.
I will open my lips and
answer.

<sup>21</sup>Please do not let me respect any man’s person,
neither will I give flattering
titles to any man.

<sup>22</sup>For I do not know how to give flattering titles;
or else my Maker would soon take me away.

33 “However, Job, Please hear my speech,
and listen to all my words.

<sup>2</sup>See now, I have opened my
mouth.
My tongue has spoken in my
mouth.

<sup>3</sup>My words shall utter the uprightness of my
heart.

That which my lips know
they shall speak
sincerely.
<sup>4</sup>The Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of Shaddai
gives me life.
<sup>5</sup>If you can, answer me.
Set your words in order
before me, and stand
forth.
<sup>6</sup>Look, I am toward God even as you are.
I am also formed out of the
clay.
<sup>7</sup>Look, my terror shall not make you afraid,
neither shall my pressure be heavy on you.
<sup>8</sup>“Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
I have heard the voice of your words, saying, <sup>9</sup>‘I am clean, without disobedience.
I am innocent, neither is
there iniquity in me.
<sup>10</sup>Look, he finds occasions against
me.
He counts me for his enemy.
<sup>11</sup>He puts my feet in the stocks.
He marks all my paths.’
<sup>12</sup>“Look, I will answer you. In this you are not just,
for God is greater than man.
<sup>13</sup>Why do you strive against him, because he doesn’t give account of any of his matters?
<sup>14</sup>For God speaks once,
yes twice, though man pays
no attention.
<sup>15</sup>In a dream, in a vision of the
night,

when deep sleep falls on
men,
in slumbering on the bed;
<sup>16</sup>Then he opens the ears of men,
and seals their instruction, <sup>17</sup>That he may withdraw man from his purpose,
and hide pride from man.
<sup>18</sup>He keeps back his soul from the
pit,
and his life from perishing
by the sword.
<sup>19</sup>He is chastened also with pain on his bed,
with continual strife in his
bones;
<sup>20</sup>So that his life abhors bread,
and his soul choicest food.
<sup>21</sup>His flesh is so consumed away,
that it can’t be seen.
His bones that were not seen stick out.
<sup>22</sup>Yes, his soul draws near to the
pit,
and his life to the destroyers.
<sup>23</sup>“If there is beside him an angel,
an interpreter, one among a thousand,
to show to man what is right
for him;
<sup>24</sup>then God is gracious to him, and
says, ‘Deliver him from going down to the pit,
I have found a ransom.’
<sup>25</sup>His flesh shall be fresher than a child’s.
He returns to the days of his youth.
<sup>26</sup>He prays to God, and he is favorable to him,
so that he sees his face with
joy.
He restores to man his
righteousness.

<sup>27</sup>He sings before men, and says,
 'I have sinned, and perverted
 that which was right,
 and it did not profit me.

<sup>28</sup>He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit.
 My life shall see the light.'

<sup>29</sup>“Look, God works all these things,
 twice, yes three times, with a
 man,

<sup>30</sup>to bring back his soul from the
 pit,
 that he may be enlightened
 with the light of the living.

<sup>31</sup>Mark well, Job, and listen to me.
 Hold your peace, and I will
 speak.

<sup>32</sup>If you have anything to say,
 answer me.
 Speak, for I desire to justify
 you.

<sup>33</sup>If not, listen to me.
 Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom.”

34 Moreover Elihu
 answered, <sup>2</sup>“Hear my words,
 you sages.

Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>For the ear tries words,
 as the palate tastes food.

<sup>4</sup>Let us choose for us that which is right.

Let us know among ourselves what is
 good.

<sup>5</sup>For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, God has taken away my
 right:

<sup>6</sup>Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar.

My wound is incurable,
 though I am without disobedience.’

<sup>7</sup>What man is like Job,
 who drinks scorn like water,

<sup>8</sup>Who goes in company with
 evildoers,
 and walks with wicked men?

<sup>9</sup>For he has said, ‘It profits a man
 nothing
 that he should delight
 himself with God.’

<sup>10</sup>“Therefore listen to me, you men
 of understanding:
 far be it from God, that he should do wickedness,
 from Shaddai, that he should commit iniquity.

<sup>11</sup>For the work of a man he will render to him,
 and cause every man to find
 according to his ways.

<sup>12</sup>Yes surely, God will not do
 wickedly,
 neither will Shaddai pervert
 justice.

<sup>13</sup>Who put him in charge of the
 earth?
 or who has appointed him
 over the whole world?

<sup>14</sup>If he set his heart on himself,
 If he gathered to himself his spirit and his breath,

<sup>15</sup>all flesh would perish together,
 and man would turn again to
 dust.

<sup>16</sup>“If now you have understanding,
 hear this.
 Listen to the voice of my
 words.

<sup>17</sup>Shall even one who hates justice govern?

Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty?—
 or to nobles, ‘Wicked.’?
<sup>19</sup>Who doesn’t respect the persons of princes,
 nor regards the rich more than the poor;
 for they all are the work of his hands.
<sup>20</sup>In a moment they die, even at midnight.
 The people are shaken and
 pass away.
 The mighty are taken away
 without a hand.
<sup>21</sup>“For his eyes are on the ways of a man.
 He sees all his goings.
<sup>22</sup>There is no darkness, nor thick gloom,
 where evildoers may hide
 themselves.
<sup>23</sup>For he doesn’t need to consider a man further,
 that he should go before God
 in judgment.
<sup>24</sup>He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding
 out,
 and sets others in their place.
<sup>25</sup>Therefore he takes knowledge of their works.
 He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
<sup>26</sup>He strikes them as wicked men
 in the open sight of others; <sup>27</sup>because they turned aside from following him,
 and wouldn’t pay attention
 to any of his ways, <sup>28</sup>so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him.

He heard the cry of the
 afflicted.
<sup>29</sup>When he gives quietness, who then can condemn?
 When he hides his face, who then can see him?
 Alike whether to a nation, or
 to a man, <sup>30</sup>that the godless man may not reign,
 that there be no one to ensnare the people.
<sup>31</sup>“For has any said to God,
 ‘I am guilty, but I will not offend any more.
<sup>32</sup>Teach me that which I do not
 see.
 If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more’?
<sup>33</sup>Shall his recompense be as you desire, that you refuse
 it?
 For you must choose, and not I.
 Therefore speak what you
 know.
<sup>34</sup>Men of understanding will tell
 me,
 yes, every wise man who hears me:
<sup>35</sup>Job speaks without knowledge.
 His words are without
 wisdom.’
<sup>36</sup>I wish that Job were tried to the end,
 because of his answering
 like wicked men.
<sup>37</sup>For he adds rebellion to his sin.
 He claps his hands among
 us,
 and multiplies his words
 against God.”

35 Moreover Elihu answered, <sup>2</sup>“Do you think this to be your right, or do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s,’
<sup>3</sup>That you ask, ‘What advantage will it be to you? What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?’
<sup>4</sup>I will answer you, and your companions with you.
<sup>5</sup>Look to the heavens, and see. See the skies, which are higher than you.
<sup>6</sup>If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him? If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
<sup>7</sup>If you are righteous, what do you give him? Or what does he receive from your hand?
<sup>8</sup>Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are, and your righteousness may profit a son of man.
<sup>9</sup>“By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out. They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
<sup>10</sup>But none says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
<sup>11</sup>who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’

<sup>12</sup>There they cry, but none gives answer,
 because of the pride of evil men.
<sup>13</sup>Surely God will not hear an empty cry, neither will Shaddai regard it.
<sup>14</sup>How much less when you say you do not see him. The cause is before him, and you wait for him.
<sup>15</sup>But now, because he has not visited in his anger, neither does he greatly regard arrogance.

36 Elihu also continued, and said, <sup>2</sup>“Bear with me a little, and I will show you;
 for I still have something to say on God’s behalf.
<sup>3</sup>I will get my knowledge from afar,
 and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
<sup>4</sup>For truly my words are not false. One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
<sup>5</sup>“Look, God is mighty, and doesn’t despise anyone. He is mighty in strength of understanding.
<sup>6</sup>He doesn’t preserve the life of the wicked,

but gives to the afflicted
their right.
<sup>7</sup>He doesn't withdraw his eyes
from the righteous,
but with kings on the throne,
he sets them forever, and they are exalted.
<sup>8</sup>If they are bound in fetters,
and are taken in the cords of afflictions, <sup>9</sup>then he shows them their work,
and their transgressions, that they have behaved
themselves proudly.
<sup>10</sup>He also opens their ears to instruction,
and commands that they return from iniquity.
<sup>11</sup>If they listen and serve him,
they shall spend their days in
prosperity,
and their years in pleasures.
<sup>12</sup>But if they do not listen, they shall perish by the
sword;
they shall die without
knowledge.
<sup>13</sup>“But those who are godless in heart lay up anger.
They do not cry for help
when he binds them.
<sup>14</sup>They die in youth.
Their life perishes among the unclean.
<sup>15</sup>He delivers the afflicted by their
affliction,
and opens their ear in
oppression.
<sup>16</sup>Yes, he would have allured you out of distress,
into a broad place, where there is no restriction.
That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.

<sup>17</sup>“But you are full of the judgment
of the wicked.
Judgment and justice take hold of you.
<sup>18</sup>Do not let riches entice you to
wrath,
neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside.
<sup>19</sup>Would your wealth sustain you
in distress,
or all the might of your
strength?
<sup>20</sup>Do not desire the night,
when people are cut off in their place.
<sup>21</sup>Take heed, do not regard
iniquity;
for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
<sup>22</sup>Look, God is exalted in his power.
Who is a teacher like him?
<sup>23</sup>Who has prescribed his way for
him?
Or who can say, ‘You have committed
unrighteousness?’
<sup>24</sup>“Remember that you magnify his work,
whereof men have sung.
<sup>25</sup>All men have looked thereon.
Man sees it afar off.
<sup>26</sup>Look, God is great, and we do not know him.
The number of his years is
unsearchable.
<sup>27</sup>For he draws up the drops of
water,
which distill in rain from his vapor, <sup>28</sup>Which the skies pour down
and which drop on man abundantly.

- <sup>29</sup>Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds,
and the thunderings of his
pavilion?
<sup>30</sup>Look, he spreads his light around
him.
He covers the bottom of the sea.
<sup>31</sup>For by these he judges the
people.
He gives food in abundance.
<sup>32</sup>He covers his hands with the lightning,
and commands it to strike
the mark.
<sup>33</sup>Its noise tells about him,
and the livestock also concerning the storm
that comes up.

37 “Yes, at this my heart trembles,
and is moved out of
its place.

- <sup>2</sup>Hear, oh, hear the noise of his
voice,
the sound that goes out of
his mouth.
<sup>3</sup>He sends it forth under the whole
sky,
and his lightning to the farthest parts of the
earth.
<sup>4</sup>After it a voice roars.
He thunders with the voice of his majesty.
He doesn't hold back anything when his voice is heard.
<sup>5</sup>God thunders marvelously with his voice.
He does great things, which we can't comprehend.

- <sup>6</sup>For he says to the snow, ‘Fall on
the earth;’
likewise to the shower of
rain,
and to the showers of his mighty rain.
<sup>7</sup>He seals up the hand of every
man,
that all men whom he has made may know it.
<sup>8</sup>Then the animals take cover,
and remain in their dens.
<sup>9</sup>Out of its chamber comes the
storm,
and cold out of the north.
<sup>10</sup>By the breath of God, ice is
given,
and the breadth of the waters
is frozen.
<sup>11</sup>Yes, he loads the thick cloud
with moisture.
He spreads abroad the cloud
of his lightning.
<sup>12</sup>It is turned around by his guidance,
that they may do whatever he commands them
on the surface of the habitable world,
<sup>13</sup>Whether it is for correction, or
for his land,
or for loving kindness, that he causes it to come.
<sup>14</sup>“Listen to this, Job.
Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of
God.
<sup>15</sup>Do you know how God controls
them,
and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
<sup>16</sup>Do you know the workings of the clouds,

the wondrous works of him
 who is perfect in
 knowledge?

<sup>17</sup>You whose clothing is warm,
 when the earth is still by reason of the south
 wind?

<sup>18</sup>Can you, with him, spread out
 the sky,
 which is strong as a cast
 metal mirror?

<sup>19</sup>Teach us what we shall tell him,
 for we can't make our case
 by reason of darkness.

<sup>20</sup>Shall it be told him that I would
 speak?

Or should a man wish that he were swallowed
 up?

<sup>21</sup>Now men do not see the light which is bright in the skies,

but the wind passes, and clears them.

<sup>22</sup>Out of the north comes golden splendor.

With God is awesome
 majesty.

 He is exalted in power.

In justice and great righteousness, he will not oppress.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore men revere him.
 He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."

38 Then the LORD answered Job out of
 the whirlwind,

<sup>2</sup>"Who is this who darkens counsel
 by words without
 knowledge?"

<sup>3</sup>Brace yourself like a man,

for I will question you, then you answer me.

<sup>4</sup>"Where were you when I laid the foundations of the
 earth?

Declare, if you have
 understanding.

<sup>5</sup>Who determined its measures, if you know?

Or who stretched the line on
 it?

<sup>6</sup>Whereupon were its foundations fastened?

Or who laid its cornerstone,
<sup>7</sup>when the morning stars sang
 together,

and all the sons of God
 shouted for joy?

<sup>8</sup>"Or who shut up the sea with doors,
 when it broke forth from the
 womb,

<sup>9</sup>when I made clouds its garment,
 and wrapped it in thick
 darkness,

<sup>10</sup>marked out for it my bound,
 set bars and doors,

<sup>11</sup>and said, 'Here you may come,
 but no further.

Here your proud waves shall be stayed?'

<sup>12</sup>"Have you commanded the morning in your days,
 and caused the dawn to know its place;

<sup>13</sup>that it might take hold of the farthest parts of the
 earth,
 and shake the wicked out of
 it?

<sup>14</sup>It is changed as clay under the seal,

and stands forth as a garment.
<sup>15</sup>From the wicked, their light is withheld.
 The high arm is broken.
<sup>16</sup>“Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
 Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?”
<sup>17</sup>Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
 Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
<sup>18</sup>Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth?
 Declare, if you know it all.
<sup>19</sup>“What is the way to the dwelling of light?
 As for darkness, where is its place,
<sup>20</sup>that you should take it to its bound,
 that you should discern the paths to its house?” <sup>21</sup>Surely you know, for you were born then,
 and the number of your days is great.
<sup>22</sup>Have you entered the treasuries of the snow,
 or have you seen the treasures of the hail, <sup>23</sup>which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
 against the day of battle and war?
<sup>24</sup>By what way is the lightning distributed,
 or the east wind scattered on the earth?
<sup>25</sup>Who has cut a channel for the flood water,

or the path for the thunderstorm;
<sup>26</sup>To cause it to rain on a land where no man is;
 on the wilderness, in which there is no man;
<sup>27</sup>to satisfy the waste and desolate ground,
 to cause the tender grass to spring forth?
<sup>28</sup>Does the rain have a father?
 Or who fathers the drops of dew?
<sup>29</sup>Out of whose womb came the ice?
 The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to it?
<sup>30</sup>The waters become hard like stone,
 when the surface of the deep is frozen.
<sup>31</sup>“Can you fasten the chains of Kimah, or loosen the cords of Kesil?<sup>a</sup>
<sup>32</sup>Can you lead forth the Mazzaroth in their season?
 Or can you lead Aysh with her children?<sup>b</sup>
<sup>33</sup>Do you know the laws of the heavens?
 Can you establish its dominion over the earth?
<sup>34</sup>“Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,

---

That abundance of waters
 may cover you?
<sup>35</sup>Can you send forth lightnings,
 that they may go?
 Do they report to you, 'Here
 we are?'
<sup>36</sup>Who has put wisdom in the inward parts?
 Or who has given understanding to the mind?
<sup>37</sup>Who can number the clouds by
 wisdom?
 Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky, <sup>38</sup>when the dust runs into a mass,
 and the clods of earth stick
 together?
<sup>39</sup>“Can you hunt the prey for the lioness,
 or satisfy the appetite of the young lions,
<sup>40</sup>when they crouch in their dens,
 and lie in wait in the thicket?
<sup>41</sup>Who provides for the raven his
 prey,
 when his young ones cry to
 God,
 and wander for lack of food?

39 “Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth?

Do you watch when the doe
 bears fawns?
<sup>2</sup>Can you number the months that they fulfill?
 Or do you know the time
 when they give birth?
<sup>3</sup>They bow themselves, they bring forth their young,
 they end their labor pains.
<sup>4</sup>Their young ones become strong.

They grow up in the open field.
 They go forth, and do not return again.
<sup>5</sup>“Who has set the wild donkey
 free?
 Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift
 donkey,
<sup>6</sup>Whose home I have made the wilderness,
 and the salt land his
 dwelling place?
<sup>7</sup>He scorns the tumult of the city, neither does he hear the shouting of the driver.
<sup>8</sup>The range of the mountains is his pasture,
 He searches after every
 green thing.
<sup>9</sup>“Will the wild ox be content to serve you?
 Or will he stay by your feeding trough?
<sup>10</sup>Can you hold the wild ox in the harness?

 Or will he till the valleys
 after you?
<sup>11</sup>Will you trust him, because his strength is great?
 Or will you leave to him
 your labor?
<sup>12</sup>Will you have faith in him, that he will bring in<sup>a</sup> your grain,
 and gather it to your threshing floor?

<sup>a</sup>39:12 So MT qere. MT kethib “will return,” an apparent waw-yod
 confusion

<sup>13</sup>“The wings of the ostrich wave proudly;
but are they the feathers and plumage of love?
<sup>14</sup>For she leaves her eggs on the
earth,
warms them in the dust, <sup>15</sup>and forgets that the foot may
crush them,
or that the wild animal may trample them.
<sup>16</sup>She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers.
Though her labor is in vain,
she is without fear, <sup>17</sup>because God has deprived her of
wisdom,
neither has he imparted to
her understanding.
<sup>18</sup>When she lifts up herself on high,
she scorns the horse and his rider.
<sup>19</sup>“Have you given the horse
might?
Have you clothed his neck
with a quivering
mane?
<sup>20</sup>Have you made him to leap as a locust?
The glory of his snorting is
awesome.
<sup>21</sup>He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength.
He goes out to meet the armed men.
<sup>22</sup>He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed,
neither does he turn back
from the sword.
<sup>23</sup>The quiver rattles against him,
the flashing spear and the javelin.

<sup>24</sup>He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage,
neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet.
<sup>25</sup>As often as the trumpet sounds
he snorts, ‘Aha.’
He smells the battle afar off,
the thunder of the captains,
and the shouting.
<sup>26</sup>“Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars,
and stretches her wings
toward the south?
<sup>27</sup>Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up,
and makes his nest on high?
<sup>28</sup>On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home,
on the point of the cliff, and
the stronghold.
<sup>29</sup>From there he spies out the prey.
His eyes see it afar off.
<sup>30</sup>His young ones also suck up
blood.
Where the slain are, there he is.”

40 Moreover the LORD answered Job, <sup>2</sup>“Shall he who argues contend with Shaddai?
He who argues with God, let him answer it.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Job answered the
LORD,
<sup>4</sup>“Look, I am of small account.
What shall I answer
you?
I lay my hand on my mouth.
<sup>5</sup>I have spoken once, and I will not answer;

Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further.”

<sup>6</sup>Then the LORD answered
Job out of the whirlwind,

<sup>7</sup>“Now brace yourself like a man.
I will question you, and you
will answer me.

<sup>8</sup>Will you even annul my
judgment?

Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?

<sup>9</sup>Or do you have an arm like God?
Can you thunder with a voice like him?

<sup>10</sup>“Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity.

Array yourself with honor and majesty.

<sup>11</sup>Pour out the fury of your anger.
Look at everyone who is proud, and bring him
low.

<sup>12</sup>Look at everyone who is proud,
and humble him.
Crush the wicked in their
place.

<sup>13</sup>Hide them in the dust together.
Bind their faces in the hidden place.

<sup>14</sup>Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

<sup>15</sup>“See now, behemoth, which I made as well as you.
He eats grass as an ox.

<sup>16</sup>Look now, his strength is in his thighs.
His force is in the muscles of his belly.

<sup>17</sup>He moves his tail like a cedar.
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.

<sup>18</sup>His bones are like tubes of bronze.

His limbs are like bars of iron.

<sup>19</sup>He is the chief of the ways of God.

He who made him gives him
his sword.

<sup>20</sup>Surely the mountains produce food for him,
where all the animals of the field play.

<sup>21</sup>He lies under the lotus trees,
in the covert of the reed, and the marsh.

<sup>22</sup>The lotuses cover him with their shade.

The willows of the brook
surround him.

<sup>23</sup>Look, if a river overflows, he doesn't tremble.

He is confident, though the Jordan swells even to
his mouth.

<sup>24</sup>Shall any take him when he is on the watch,
or pierce through his nose
with a snare?

41 “Can you draw out Leviathan<sup>a</sup> with a fishhook,
or press down his tongue
with a cord?

<sup>2</sup>Can you put a rope into his nose,
or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

---

<sup>a</sup>41:1 Leviathan is a name for a crocodile or similar creature

- <sup>3</sup>Will he make many petitions to you,
or will he speak soft words to you?
- <sup>4</sup>Will he make a covenant with you,
that you should take him for a servant forever?
- <sup>5</sup>Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him for your girls?
- <sup>6</sup>Will traders barter for him?
Will they part him among the merchants?
- <sup>7</sup>Can you fill his skin with barbed irons,
or his head with fish spears?
- <sup>8</sup>Lay your hand on him.
Remember the battle, and do so no more.
- <sup>9</sup>Look, the hope of him is in vain.
Won't one be cast down even at the sight of him?
- <sup>10</sup>None is so fierce that he dare stir him up.
Who then is he who can stand before me?
- <sup>11</sup>Who has first given to me, that I should repay him?
Everything under the heavens is mine.
- <sup>12</sup>“I will not keep silence concerning his limbs,
nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
- <sup>13</sup>Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who shall come within his jaws?
- <sup>14</sup>Who can open the doors of his face?
Around his teeth is terror.
- <sup>15</sup>Strong scales are his pride,
shut up together with a close seal.
- <sup>16</sup>One is so near to another,
that no air can come between them.
- <sup>17</sup>They are joined one to another.
They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart.
- <sup>18</sup>His sneezing flashes out light.
His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
- <sup>19</sup>Out of his mouth go burning torches.
Sparks of fire leap forth.
- <sup>20</sup>Out of his nostrils a smoke goes,
as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.
- <sup>21</sup>His breath kindles coals.
A flame goes forth from his mouth.
- <sup>22</sup>There is strength in his neck.
Terror dances before him.
- <sup>23</sup>The flakes of his flesh are joined together.
They are firm on him.
They can't be moved.
- <sup>24</sup>His heart is as firm as a stone,
yes, firm as the lower millstone.
- <sup>25</sup>When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid.
They retreat before his thrashing.
- <sup>26</sup>If one attacks him with the sword, it can't prevail;
nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.
- <sup>27</sup>He counts iron as straw;
and bronze as rotten wood.
- <sup>28</sup>The arrow can't make him flee.
Sling stones are like chaff to him.
- <sup>29</sup>Clubs are counted as stubble.
He laughs at the rushing of the javelin.

<sup>30</sup>His undersides are like sharp
potsherds,
leaving a trail in the mud
like a threshing sledge.

<sup>31</sup>He makes the deep to boil like a pot.

He makes the sea like a pot
of ointment.

<sup>32</sup>He makes a path shine after him.
One would think the deep
had white hair.

<sup>33</sup>On earth there is not his equal,
that is made without fear.

<sup>34</sup>He sees everything that is high.
He is king over all the sons of pride.”

42 Then Job answered
the LORD,

<sup>2</sup>“I know that you can do all things,
and that no purpose of yours
can be restrained.

<sup>3</sup>You asked, ‘Who is this who hides counsel without
knowledge?’
therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand,
things too wonderful for me,
which I did not know.

<sup>4</sup>You said, ‘Listen, now, and I will
speak;
I will question you, and you
will answer me.’

<sup>5</sup>I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore I abhor myself,
and repent in dust and
ashes.”

<sup>7</sup>It was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has. <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant

Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job
has.”

<sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar
the Naamathite went, and did what the LORD commanded them, and the LORD accepted Job.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. The LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. <sup>11</sup>Then came there to him
all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that the LORD had brought on him. And each of them gave him a kesitah
and a gold ring.

<sup>12</sup>So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. <sup>13</sup>He had also seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren Happuch. <sup>15</sup>In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. <sup>16</sup>After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations. <sup>17</sup>So Job died, being old and full of days.

and whatever he does shall prosper.
<sup>4</sup>Not so with the wicked;<sup>e</sup> instead, they are like the chaff which the wind drives away from the surface of the ground.<sup>f</sup>
<sup>6</sup>For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 1

<sup>2</sup>But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.
<sup>3</sup>And he is like a tree planted by flowing streams, that brings forth its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither,

Psalm 2

<sup>4</sup>The one who sits in the heavens laughs. The LORD<sup>h</sup> scoffs at them.

---

<sup>g</sup>2:2 Or, "Messiah." Heb Mashiah. Acts 4:26-26

<sup>h</sup>2:4 So Cairo Geniza Ms MT Mss. DSS Ms MT read "Lord"

---

<sup>5</sup>Then he will speak to them in his
anger,
and terrify them in his
wrath:

<sup>6</sup>“But I myself have installed my king on Zion, my holy mountain.”

<sup>7</sup>I will tell of the decree.<sup>a</sup>
The LORD said to me, “You are my son.

Today I have become your father.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Ask of me, and I will give the nations as your
inheritance,
and the farthest parts of the earth for your possession.

<sup>9</sup>You shall rule<sup>c</sup> them with an iron scepter.

You shall dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Now therefore, you kings, be wise;
receive correction, you
judges of the earth.

<sup>11</sup>Serve the LORD with fear,
and rejoice with trembling.

<sup>12</sup>Do homage in purity,<sup>e</sup> lest he be angry, and you perish
in the way,
for his wrath will soon be kindled.

<sup>d</sup>2:9 Revelation 2:27

The Aramaic word bar “son” may not

Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, how my adversaries have increased.

Many rise up against me.

<sup>2</sup>Many there are who say of my
soul,

“There is no salvation for him in God.”

Selah.

<sup>3</sup>But you, LORD, are a shield
around me,

my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

<sup>4</sup>I cried out to the LORD with my
voice,

and he answered me from his holy mountain.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>I lay down and slept.

I awoke, for the LORD
sustains me.

<sup>6</sup>I am not afraid of ten thousands of people

who have set themselves against me on every side.

<sup>7</sup>Arise, LORD.

Save me, my God.

For you slap all my enemies in the face.

You break the teeth of the
wicked.

<sup>8</sup>Salvation belongs to the LORD.

Your blessing is upon your
people.

Selah.

Psalm 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness.
You set me free in my distress.
Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.
- <sup>2</sup>You sons of man, how long will you shame my honor, love what is worthless, chase after a lie?
Selah.
- <sup>3</sup>But know that the LORD works wonders<sup>a</sup> for his faithful one;<sup>b</sup>
the LORD will hear when I call to him.
- <sup>4</sup>Be angry, but do not sin.<sup>c</sup>
Ponder in your heart, but<sup>d</sup> be at rest on your bed.<sup>e</sup>
Selah.
- <sup>5</sup>Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,

<sup>8</sup>In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep,
for you alone, LORD, make me live in safety.

Psalm 5

For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Listen to my words, LORD.
Consider my meditation.
- <sup>2</sup>Give attention to the voice of my cry, my King and my God;
for to you do I pray.
- <sup>3</sup>LORD, in the morning you shall hear my voice.
In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and watch.
- <sup>4</sup>For you are not a God who desires wickedness.
Evil can't live with you.
- <sup>5</sup>The arrogant shall not stand in your sight.
You hate all evildoers.

<sup>f</sup>4:7 So LXX Syr Vg. MT lacks “and oil” from haplography by homoioarcton: w_m-w_m

Psalm 6

<sup>6</sup>You will destroy those who speak lies.

The LORD despises a person of bloodshed and
deceit.

<sup>7</sup>But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will enter into your house.

I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of
you.

<sup>8</sup>Lead me, LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies.

Make your way straight
before me.

<sup>9</sup>For there is nothing reliable in their<sup>a</sup> mouth.

Their heart is destruction.
Their throat is an open tomb;
with their tongues they flatter.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Hold them guilty, God.
Let them fall by their own counsels.

Cast them out because of the multitude of their
transgressions,
for they have rebelled
against you.

<sup>11</sup>But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice.

Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them.

And let those who love your name
be joyful in you.

<sup>12</sup>For you bless the righteous,
LORD. You surround him with favor like a shield.

Psalm 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, do not rebuke me in your
anger,
neither discipline me in your
wrath.

<sup>2</sup>Be gracious to me, LORD, for I am frail.

LORD, heal me, for my bones are trembling.

<sup>3</sup>And my soul is greatly troubled.
But you, LORD, how long?

<sup>4</sup>Return, LORD. Deliver my soul.
Save me because of your
lovingkindness.

<sup>5</sup>For in death there is no memory
of you.

In Sheol, who shall give you thanks?

<sup>6</sup>I am weary with my groaning.
Every night I drench my bed;

I melt my couch with my tears.

<sup>7</sup>My eye wastes away because of grief.

It grows old because of all
my adversaries.

<sup>8</sup>Depart from me, all you workers
of iniquity,
for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

---

<sup>a</sup>5:9 So Hebrew Ms LXX (cf. Psalm 59:7; 78:30, 36) cf. Syr Tg. MT reads "his," a possible mem-waw confusion in paleo-Hebrew, or the singular is collective

<sup>b</sup>5:9 Or "deceive." Hol2584: "be smooth, slippery, false." Romans 3:13

<sup>9</sup>The LORD has heard my plea.
 The LORD has accepted my
 prayer.
<sup>10</sup>May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly terrified.
 May they turn back and<sup>a</sup> be suddenly ashamed.

Psalm 7

A meditation by David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, my God, I take refuge in
 you.
 Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver
 me,
<sup>2</sup>lest they tear apart my soul like a
 lion,
 ripping it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
<sup>3</sup>LORD, my God, if I have done
 this,
 if there is iniquity in my
 hands,
<sup>4</sup>if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace
 with me, or oppressed<sup>b</sup>
 my enemy without
 cause, <sup>5</sup>let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;
 yes, let him tread my life down to
 the earth,

---

<sup>a</sup>6:10 So Cairo Geniza Ms LXX Syr.
 MT has lost a waw (“and”) from haplography

<sup>b</sup>7:4 So Syr cf. BHS. MT reads

 lamed and chet

and lay my glory in the dust.
 Selah.
<sup>6</sup>Arise, LORD, in your anger.
 Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries.<sup>c</sup> Awake, my God,<sup>d</sup> you have appointed judgment.
<sup>7</sup>And let the congregation of the peoples surround
 you,
 and rule over them on high.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD administers judgment

 Judge me, LORD, according

 and to my integrity that is in
 me.

 wicked come to an
 end,

 righteous God.

 bow.
<sup>13</sup>He has also prepared for himself deadly weapons.
 He makes ready his flaming

 his own head.
<sup>17</sup>I will give thanks to the LORD
 according to his
 righteousness,
 and will sing praise to the name of the LORD
 Most High.<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 8

For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the
 earth.
 You have put<sup>b</sup> your glory
 upon the heavens.
<sup>2</sup>From the lips of children and infants you have established praise,<sup>c</sup>
 because of your adversaries,
 that you might silence

the enemy and the avenger.
<sup>3</sup>When I consider your heavens,
 the work of your
 fingers,
 the moon and the stars,
 which you have
 ordained;
<sup>4</sup>what is man, that you think of
 him,
 and the son of man
 that you care for him?
<sup>5</sup>For you have made him a little lower than the angels.<sup>d</sup>
 You have crowned him with glory and honor.
<sup>6</sup>You make him ruler over the works of your hands.
 You have put<sup>e</sup> all things
 under his feet.<sup>f</sup> <sup>7</sup>all sheep and cattle,
 and also the wild animals, <sup>8</sup>the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea,
 whatever passes through the paths of the seas.
<sup>9</sup>LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name
 in all the earth.

<sup>a</sup>7:17 Hebrew: “Yahweh Elyon”

<sup>b</sup>8:1 So LXX cf. BHS. MT reads “have set”

<sup>c</sup>8:2 So LXX, reading ainos = לְהַלֵּל
 “praise,” cf. 2 Chronicles 23:13 LXX.
 MT reads עָז “strength.” The next word is לַמְעַן. It is possible that לְהַלֵּל was lost in the MT textual stream from homoioarcton: לְ-ל, with secondary

Psalm 9

For the Chief Musician. Set to “The Death of the Son.” A Psalm
by David.

(ALEPH)

<sup>1</sup>I will give thanks to the LORD
with my whole heart.
I will tell of all your marvelous works.
<sup>2</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in you.
I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

(BET)

<sup>3</sup>When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish in
your presence.
<sup>4</sup>For you have maintained my just
cause.
You sit on the throne
judging righteously.

(GIMEL)

<sup>5</sup>You have rebuked the nations.
You have destroyed the
wicked.
You have blotted out their name forever and ever.

(HEY)

<sup>6</sup>The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin;
and the very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has

perished.

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD reigns forever.
He has prepared his throne
for judgment.
<sup>8</sup>And he will judge the world in
righteousness.
He will administer judgment
to the peoples in uprightness.

(WAW)

<sup>9</sup>The LORD will also be a refuge
for the oppressed,
a refuge in times of trouble.
<sup>10</sup>And those who know your name will put their trust in
you,
for you, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.

(ZAYIN)

<sup>11</sup>Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion,
and declare among the people what he has done.
<sup>12</sup>For he who avenges blood remembers them.
He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.

(HET)

<sup>13</sup>Have mercy on me, LORD.
See my affliction by those who hate me.
You lift me up from the gates of
death,

<sup>14</sup>so that I may tell all your praise
in the gates of the daughter of Zion. I will rejoice in your salvation.

(TET)

<sup>15</sup>The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made.
In the net which they hid,
their own foot is taken.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD has made himself known.
He has executed judgment.
The wicked is snared by the work of his own
hands.
Meditation. Selah.

(YOD)

<sup>17</sup>The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol,
even all the nations that forget God.

(KAPH)

<sup>18</sup>For the needy shall not always be forgotten;
the hope of the poor shall not<sup>a</sup> perish forever.

<sup>19</sup>Arise, LORD. Do not let man prevail.
Let the nations be judged in your sight.

<sup>20</sup>Put them in fear, LORD.
Let the nations know that they are only men.
Selah.

Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

<sup>2</sup>In arrogance, the wicked hunt
down the weak.
They are caught in the schemes that they devise.

<sup>3</sup>For the wicked boasts of his
heart’s cravings,
and he blesses the greedy,
scorning the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>The wicked in his proud

You consider it to take it

You help the victim and the

As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until

The nations have perished

You will prepare their heart.
You will cause your ear to the oppressed,

that man who is of the earth

For the Chief Musician. By David.

A Psalm by David.

He keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't

He who does these things shall

Psalm 18

For the Chief Musician. By David
the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,

<sup>1</sup>I love you, LORD, my strength.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD is my Rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my Rock, in whom I take refuge;
my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.
<sup>3</sup>I call on the LORD, who is worthy
to be praised;
and I am saved from my
enemies.
<sup>4</sup>The cords of death surrounded
me.
The floods of ungodliness
made me afraid.
<sup>5</sup>The cords of Sheol were around
me.
The snares of death came on
me.

<sup>6</sup>In my distress I called on the LORD,
and cried to my God.
He heard my voice out of his temple.
My cry before him came into his ears.
<sup>7</sup>Then the earth shook and trembled.
The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken,
because he was angry.
<sup>8</sup>Smoke went out of his nostrils.
Consuming fire came out of
his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.
<sup>9</sup>He bowed the heavens also, and came down.
Thick darkness was under his feet.
<sup>10</sup>He rode on a cherub, and flew.
Yes, he soared on the wings
of the wind.
<sup>11</sup>He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion
around him,
darkness of waters, thick
clouds of the skies.
<sup>12</sup>At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,
hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>13</sup>The LORD also thundered in the sky.
The Most High uttered his
voice:
hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>14</sup>He sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
and he multiplied lightnings,
and routed them.
<sup>15</sup>And the depths of the sea<sup>a</sup> appeared.

<sup>a</sup>18:16 Enclitic mem

- The foundations of the world
 were laid bare at your rebuke, LORD,
 at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
- <sup>16</sup>He sent from on high.
 He took me.
 He drew me out of many
 waters.
- <sup>17</sup>He delivered me from my strong
 enemy,
 from those who hated me;
 for they were too
 mighty for me.
- <sup>18</sup>They came on me in the day of my calamity,
 but the LORD was my
 support.
- <sup>19</sup>He brought me forth also into a large place.
 He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
- <sup>20</sup>The LORD has rewarded me
 according to my
 righteousness.
 According to the cleanness
 of my hands has he recompensed me.
- <sup>21</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
 and have not wickedly
 departed from my
 God.
- <sup>22</sup>For all his ordinances were
 before me.
 I did not put away his statutes from me.
- <sup>23</sup>I was also blameless with him.
 I kept myself from my
 iniquity.
- <sup>24</sup>Therefore the LORD has rewarded me
 according to my
 righteousness,
- according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
- <sup>25</sup>With the faithful you show
 yourself faithful.
 With the blameless man you show yourself
 blameless.
- <sup>26</sup>With the pure you show yourself
 pure.
 And with the crooked you
 show yourself
 tortuous.
- <sup>27</sup>For you will save the afflicted
 people,
 but the haughty eyes you
 will bring down.
- <sup>28</sup>For you will light my lamp,
 LORD.
 My God will light up my
 darkness.
- <sup>29</sup>For by you, I advance through a troop.
 By my God, I leap over a
 wall.
- <sup>30</sup>As for God, his way is perfect.
 The word of the LORD is
 pure.
 He is a shield to all those who take refuge in
 him.
- <sup>31</sup>For who is God, except the
 LORD?
 Who is a rock, besides our
 God,
- <sup>32</sup>the God who girds me with strength, and makes
 my way perfect?
- <sup>33</sup>He makes my feet like deer's
 feet,
 and sets me on my high
 places.
- <sup>34</sup>He teaches my hands to war,
 so that my arms bend a bow
 of bronze.

Psalm 19

<sup>35</sup>You have also given me the shield of your
salvation.
Your right hand sustains me.
Your gentleness has made me great.

<sup>36</sup>You have enlarged my steps
under me,
My feet have not slipped.

<sup>37</sup>I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them.
Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.

<sup>38</sup>I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to

They shall fall under my
feet.

<sup>39</sup>For you have girded me with strength to the battle.
You have subdued under me
those who rose up
against me.

<sup>40</sup>You have also made my enemies
turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those
who hate me.

<sup>41</sup>They cried, but there was none to save;
even to the LORD, but he did not answer them.

<sup>42</sup>Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind.
I trample them<sup>a</sup> like the mud
of the streets.

<sup>43</sup>You have delivered me from the strivings of the people.
You have made me the head
of the nations.

A people whom I have not known shall serve me.

<sup>44</sup>As soon as they hear of me
they shall obey me.
The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.

<sup>45</sup>The foreigners shall fade away,
and shall come trembling out of their close places.

<sup>46</sup>The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock.
Exalted be the God of my
salvation,
<sup>47</sup>even the God who executes vengeance<sup>b</sup> for me,
and subdues peoples under
me.

<sup>48</sup>He rescues me from my enemies.
Yes, you lift me up above
those who rise up
against me.
You deliver me from the violent man.

<sup>49</sup>Therefore I will praise you, LORD, among the
nations,
and will sing praises to your name.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>50</sup>He gives great deliverance to his king,
and shows loving kindness
to his anointed,
to David and to his descendants, until
forever.

is pure, enlightening
the eyes.

<sup>9</sup>The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever.

The LORD's ordinances are true, and righteous
altogether.

<sup>10</sup>More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much
fine gold;
sweeter also than honey and the extract of the honeycomb.

<sup>11</sup>Moreover by them is your servant warned.
In keeping them there is great reward.

<sup>12</sup>Who can discern his errors?
Forgive me from hidden errors.

<sup>13</sup>Keep back your servant also from presumptuous
sins.

Let them not have dominion
over me.

Then I will be upright.

I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.

<sup>14</sup>Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my
heart

be acceptable in your sight always,<sup>b</sup>

LORD, my rock and my
redeemer.

<sup>b</sup>19:14 So LXX. MT lacks "always" from haplography by sight confusion in square script: yk-yd

<sup>1</sup>May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble.
May the name of the God of Jacob set you up on
high.
<sup>2</sup>He will send you help from the sanctuary,
and give you support from
Zion.
<sup>3</sup>He will remember all your offerings,
and accept your burnt
sacrifice.
Selah.
<sup>4</sup>He will grant you your heart's desire,
and fulfill all your plans.
<sup>5</sup>We will triumph in your
salvation.
In the name of our God, we will set up our banners.
May the LORD grant all your requests.
<sup>6</sup>Now I know that the LORD saves
his anointed.
He will answer him from his holy heaven,
with the saving strength of his right hand.
<sup>7</sup>Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
but we trust the name of the LORD our God.

but we rise up, and stand
upright.

Let the King answer us
when we call.

Psalm 21

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>The king rejoices in your strength, LORD.
How greatly he rejoices in your salvation.
<sup>2</sup>You have given him his heart's desire,
and have not withheld the request of his lips.
Selah.
<sup>3</sup>For you meet him with the blessings of goodness.
You set a crown of fine gold
on his head.
<sup>4</sup>He asked life of you, you gave it
to him,
even length of days forever
and ever.
<sup>5</sup>His glory is great in your
salvation.
You lay honor and majesty
on him.
<sup>6</sup>For you make him most blessed
forever.
You make him glad with joy
in your presence.
<sup>7</sup>For the king trusts in the LORD.
Through the loving kindness of the Most High, he shall not be moved.
<sup>8</sup>Your hand will find out all of your enemies.
Your right hand will find all<sup>a</sup>
those who hate you.
<sup>9</sup>You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger.

 The fire shall devour them.
<sup>10</sup>You will destroy their descendants from the
 earth,
 their posterity from among
 the children of men.
<sup>11</sup>For they intended evil against
 you.
 They plotted evil against you
 which cannot succeed.
<sup>12</sup>For you will make them turn their back,
 when you aim drawn bows
 at their face.
<sup>13</sup>Be exalted, LORD, in your
 strength,
 so we will sing and praise
 your power.

 Psalm by David.

 Why are you so far from <sup>3</sup>But you are holy,

 you who inhabit the praises
 of Israel.
<sup>4</sup>Our fathers trusted in you.
 They trusted, and you
 delivered them.
<sup>5</sup>They cried to you, and escaped.
 They trusted in you, and
 were not put to shame.
<sup>6</sup>But I am a worm, and no man;
 a reproach of men, and despised by the
 people.

 They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads,<sup>d</sup> saying, <sup>8</sup>“He trusts in the LORD;
 let him deliver him.<sup>e</sup> Let him rescue him, since he delights in him.”
<sup>9</sup>But you brought me out of the
 womb.
 You made me trust at my mother’s breasts.

 mother’s womb.
 You are my God since my mother bore me.
<sup>11</sup>Do not be far from me, for power of the dog.

him.
All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him.<sup>h</sup>
Revere him, all you descendants of Israel.

of the afflicted,
nor has he hidden his face
from him;
but when he cried to him, he heard.<sup>i</sup> <sup>25</sup>Of you comes my praise in the great assembly.
I will pay my vows before

innocence,
so I will go about your altar,
LORD;

of thanksgiving to be heard,
and tell of all your wondrous
works.

<sup>8</sup>LORD, I love the habitation of
your house,

sinners,
nor my life with bloodthirsty
men;

Psalm 27

By David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is my light and my
salvation.

Whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my
life.

Of whom shall I be afraid?

<sup>3</sup>Though an army is deployed
against me,
my heart shall not fear.
Though war should rise against
me,
even then I will be confident.

<sup>4</sup>One thing I have asked of the LORD, that I will seek after,
that I may dwell in the house
of the LORD all the days of my life,
to see the LORD's beauty,
and to inquire in his temple.

<sup>5</sup>For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion.
In the covert of his tabernacle he will hide
me.

He will lift me up on a rock.
<sup>6</sup>Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies
around me.

I will offer sacrifices of joy in his
tent.
I will sing, yes, I will sing
praises to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Hear, LORD, when I cry with my
voice.
Have mercy also on me, and
answer me.

<sup>8</sup>When you said, "Seek my face,"
my heart said to you, "I will seek your face,
LORD."

<sup>9</sup>Do not hide your face from me.
Do not put your servant
away in anger.

You have been my help.
Do not abandon me,
neither forsake me, God of
my salvation.

<sup>10</sup>When my father and my mother
forsake me,
then the LORD will take me
up.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me your way, LORD.
Lead me in a straight path,
because of my
enemies.

<sup>12</sup>Do not deliver me over to the desire of my
adversaries,
for false witnesses have risen up against me,
such as breathe out violence.

<sup>13</sup>I am still confident of this:
I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>Wait for the LORD.
Be strong, and let your heart
take courage.
Yes, wait for the LORD.

Psalm 28

By David.

<sup>1</sup>To you, LORD, I call.
My rock, do not be deaf to
me;
lest, if you are silent to me,
I would become like those who go down into the pit.

<sup>2</sup>Hear the voice of my petitions,
when I cry to you,
when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.

<sup>3</sup>Do not draw me away with the
wicked,
with evildoers who speak
peace with their neighbors,
but mischief is in their hearts.
<sup>4</sup>Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings.
Give them according to the operation of their
hands.
Bring back on them what
they deserve.
<sup>5</sup>Because they do not regard the works of the LORD,
nor the operation of his
hands,
he will break them down and
not build them up.
<sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD,
because he has heard the voice of my petitions.
<sup>7</sup>The LORD is my strength and my shield.
My heart has trusted in him,
and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices.
With my song I will thank
him.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD is the strength of his people.<sup>a</sup>
He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.
<sup>9</sup>Save your people,
and bless your inheritance.

Be their shepherd also,
and bear them up forever.

<sup>4</sup>The voice of the LORD is powerful.
The voice of the LORD is calf;

Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.

Psalm 30

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

<sup>1</sup>I will extol you, LORD, for you have raised me up,
and have not made my foes
to rejoice over me.
<sup>2</sup>LORD my God, I cried to you,
and you have healed me.
<sup>3</sup>LORD, you have brought up my soul from Sheol.
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
<sup>4</sup>Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones.
Give thanks to his holy
name.
<sup>5</sup>For his anger is but for a moment.
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.

<sup>6</sup>As for me, I said in my
prosperity,
"I shall never be moved."
<sup>7</sup>You, LORD, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong;
but when you hid your face,
I was troubled.
<sup>8</sup>I cried to you, LORD.
To the Lord I made petition: <sup>9</sup>"What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust praise you?
Shall it declare your truth?"
<sup>10</sup>Hear, LORD, and have mercy on
me.
LORD, be my helper."
<sup>11</sup>You have turned my mourning
into dancing for me.
You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed
me with gladness,
<sup>12</sup>To the end that my heart
may sing praise to you, and not be silent.
LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

Psalm 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>In you, LORD, I take refuge.
Let me never be

Deliver me in your
righteousness.
<sup>2</sup>Bow down your ear to me.
Deliver me speedily.
Be to me a strong rock,
a house of defense to save
me.

<sup>3</sup>For you are my rock and my fortress,
 therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.

<sup>4</sup>Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for
 me,
 for you are my stronghold.

<sup>5</sup>Into your hands<sup>a</sup> I commit my spirit.
 You redeem me, LORD, God
 of truth.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>6</sup>I hate those who regard lying vanities,
 but I trust in the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in your
 loving kindness,
 for you have seen my
 affliction.
 You have known my soul in adversities.

<sup>8</sup>You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
 You have set my feet in a
 large place.

<sup>9</sup>Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress.
 My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.

<sup>10</sup>For my life is spent with sorrow,
 my years with sighing.
 My strength fails because of my affliction,<sup>c</sup>
 and my bones waste away.

<sup>11</sup>Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my
 neighbors,

A fear to my acquaintances.
 Those who saw me on the street fled from me.

<sup>12</sup>I am forgotten from their hearts
 like a dead man.
 I am like broken pottery.

<sup>13</sup>For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every
 side,
 while they conspire together
 against me,
 they plot to take away my
 life.

<sup>14</sup>But I trust in you, LORD.
 I said, "You are my God."

<sup>15</sup>My times are in your hand.
 Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute
 me.

<sup>16</sup>Make your face to shine on your servant.
 Save me in your loving kindness.

<sup>17</sup>Let me not be disappointed,
 LORD, for I have called on you.
 Let the wicked be disappointed.
 Let them be silent in Sheol.

<sup>18</sup>Let the lying lips be mute,
 which speak against the righteous insolently,
 with pride and
 contempt.

<sup>19</sup>Oh how great is your goodness,<sup>d</sup>
 which you have stored

 you,
 which you have worked for those who take refuge
 in you,

 you will hide them

 man.
 You will keep them secretly

<sup>21</sup>Praise be to the LORD, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a besieged
 city.
<sup>22</sup>As for me, I said in my haste, “I am cut off from before
 your eyes.”
 Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions
 when I cried to you.
<sup>23</sup>Oh love the LORD, all you his
 faithful ones.
 The LORD preserves the
 faithful,
 and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.

 all you who hope in the
 LORD.

Psalm 32

By David. A contemplative psalm.

<sup>1</sup>Happy are those whose transgressions<sup>a</sup> are forgiven,<sup>b</sup>

<sup>b</sup>32:1 So LXX, reading aphethesan =

and<sup>c</sup> whose sins<sup>d</sup> are covered.<sup>e</sup> <sup>2</sup>Happy is the one<sup>f</sup> to whom the LORD does not charge
 with sin,
 and in whose spirit there is no deceit.<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day
 long.
<sup>4</sup>For day and night your hand was heavy on me.
 My strength was sapped in the heat of summer.
 Selah.
<sup>5</sup>I acknowledged my sin to you.
 I did not hide my iniquity.
 I said, I will confess my transgressions to the
 LORD,
 and you forgave the iniquity
 of my sin.
 Selah.
<sup>6</sup>For this, let everyone who is faithful pray to you in a time when you may be found.
 Surely when the great waters
 overflow, they shall not reach to him.
<sup>7</sup>You are my hiding place.
 You will preserve me from trouble.

<sup>g</sup>32:2 Romans 4:7-8

You will surround me with songs of deliverance.
Selah.

<sup>8</sup>I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.

I will counsel you with my eye on you.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding,
who are controlled by bit
and bridle, or else they will not come near to
you.

<sup>10</sup>Many sorrows come to the
wicked,
but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, you righteous.
Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Psalm 33

<sup>1</sup>Rejoice in the LORD, you
righteous.
Praise is fitting for the
upright.

<sup>2</sup>Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre.

Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.

<sup>3</sup>Sing to him a new song.
Play skillfully with a shout
of joy.

<sup>4</sup>For the word of the LORD is right.
All his work is done in faithfulness.

<sup>5</sup>He loves righteousness and
justice.

The earth is full of the loving kindness of the
LORD.

<sup>6</sup>By the LORD's word, the heavens
were made;
all their army by the breath
of his mouth.

<sup>7</sup>He gathers the waters of the sea
together as a heap.
He lays up the deeps in storehouses.

<sup>8</sup>Let all the earth fear the LORD.
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of
him.

<sup>9</sup>For he spoke, and it was done.
He commanded, and it stood firm.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD nullifies the counsel
of the nations.
He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.

<sup>11</sup>The counsel of the LORD stands
fast forever,
the thoughts of his heart to
all generations.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people whom he has chosen for his own
inheritance.

<sup>13</sup>The LORD looks from heaven.
He sees all the sons of men.

<sup>14</sup>From the place of his habitation
he looks out on all the inhabitants of the
earth,

<sup>15</sup>he who fashions all of their hearts;
and he considers all of their
works.

<sup>16</sup>There is no king saved by the multitude of an army.

A mighty man is not delivered by great
strength.
<sup>17</sup>A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any
by his great power.
<sup>18</sup>Look, the LORD's eye is on those
who fear him,
on those who hope in his
loving kindness;
<sup>19</sup>to deliver their soul from
death,
to keep them alive in famine.
<sup>20</sup>Our soul waits for the LORD.
He is our help and our
shield.
<sup>21</sup>For our heart rejoices in him,
because we have trusted in his holy name.
<sup>22</sup>Let your loving kindness be on us, LORD,
since we have hoped in you.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, do not rebuke me in your
wrath,
neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

<sup>2</sup>For your arrows have pierced me,
your hand presses hard on
me.
<sup>3</sup>There is no soundness in my flesh
because of your indignation,
neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.
<sup>4</sup>For my iniquities have gone over
my head.
As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
<sup>5</sup>My wounds are loathsome and
corrupt,
because of my foolishness.
<sup>6</sup>I am pained and bowed down
greatly.
I go mourning all day long.
<sup>7</sup>For my waist is filled with burning.
There is no soundness in my
flesh.
<sup>8</sup>I am faint and severely bruised.
I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my
heart.
<sup>9</sup>Lord, all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden
from you.
<sup>10</sup>My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes,
it has also left me.
<sup>11</sup>My loved ones and my friends
keep their distance
because of my
affliction.
My kinsmen stand far away.
<sup>12</sup>They also who seek after my life
lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt
speak mischievous
things,
and meditate deceits all day
long.

My pain is continually
before me.

<sup>18</sup>Yes, I confess my iniquity.
I am anxious because of my
sin.

<sup>19</sup>But my enemies are vigorous and many.
Those who hate me without reason are numerous.

<sup>20</sup>They who also render evil for good are adversaries to
me,
because I follow what is
good.

<sup>21</sup>Do not forsake me, LORD.
My God, do not be far from
me.

<sup>22</sup>Hurry to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I do not sin with my tongue.

I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."

<sup>2</sup>I was mute with silence.
I held my peace, even from
good.

My sorrow was stirred.
<sup>3</sup>My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire
burned:

I spoke with my tongue:
<sup>4</sup>"LORD, show me my end,
what is the measure of my
days.

Let me know how frail I am.
<sup>5</sup>Look, you have made my days
handbreadths.

My lifetime is as nothing
before you.
Surely every man stands as a breath."

Selah.

<sup>6</sup>"Surely every man walks like a shadow.
Surely they busy themselves
in vain.

He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather.

<sup>7</sup>Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.

<sup>8</sup>Deliver me from all my
transgressions.

Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.

<sup>9</sup>I was mute.
I did not open my mouth,
because you did it.

<sup>10</sup>Remove your scourge away from
me.
I am overcome by the blow
of your hand.

<sup>11</sup>When you rebuke and correct
man for iniquity,

You consume his wealth like
a moth.
Surely every man is but a breath.”
Selah.

<sup>12</sup>“Hear my prayer, LORD, and give ear to my cry.
Do not be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger with you,
a foreigner, as all my fathers were.

<sup>13</sup>Oh spare me, that I may recover
strength,
before I go away, and exist
no more.”

Psalm 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>I waited patiently for the LORD,
and he turned to me, and heard my cry.

<sup>2</sup>He also brought me up out of a pit of tumult,
out of the miry clay;
and he set my feet on a rock,
making my steps secure.

<sup>3</sup>And he has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.

Many shall see it, and fear,
and shall trust in the
LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust,
and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

<sup>5</sup>Many, LORD, my God, are the wonderful works
which you have done,
and your thoughts which are toward us.

They can't be declared back to
you.

If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

<sup>6</sup>Sacrifice and offering you did not
desire,
but a body you prepared<sup>a</sup>
for me.

Whole burnt offering and sin offering you did not require.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, “Look, I have come.
It is written about me in the scroll of a book;

<sup>8</sup>to do your will, my God,<sup>c</sup> I desired.

And your Law is within my
heart.

<sup>a</sup>40:6 So LXX Mss, reading soma de katertiso moi = ugeviyyah konanta וְגוֹיָה “but a body” כּוֹנְנָתָ “you prepared” (cf. Daniel 10:6, and Psalm 68:9). MT reads oznayim karita אֲזַיִּים “ears” כּרִיתָ “you have dug.” In early square script gimel-aleph confusions are possible (cf. Isaiah 42:4 fn, where גִּימ was misread as אִי), and perhaps the waw was written close enough to the right of the gimel to contribute to the confusion. waw-zayin confusions in square script have been especially noted (McCarter, TC, 47; Brug, TCOT, 33), and waw-nun confusions are also possible (ג-ו). A hey-mem (ה-מ) confusion can occur if the scroll is damaged at the bottom of the hey. The second word is a misreading by graphic confusion in a damaged scroll of כּרִיתָ as כּוֹנְנָתָ.

<sup>9</sup>I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the
 great assembly.
 Look, I will not seal my lips,
 LORD, you know.

<sup>10</sup>I have not hidden your righteousness within
 my heart.
 I have declared your faithfulness and your
 salvation.
 I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.

<sup>11</sup>Do not withhold your tender mercies from me,
 LORD.
 Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.

<sup>12</sup>For innumerable evils have surrounded me.
 My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.
 They are more than the hairs of
 my head.
 My heart has failed me.

<sup>13</sup>Be pleased, LORD, to deliver me.
 Hurry to help me, LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Let them be disappointed and confounded together
 who seek after my soul
 to destroy it.
 Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.

<sup>15</sup>Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha. Aha."

<sup>16</sup>Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in
 you.

Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let the LORD be exalted."
<sup>17</sup>But I am poor and needy.
 May the Lord think about
 me.
 You are my help and my deliverer.
 Do not delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
 by David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is he who considers the poor and needy.<sup>a</sup>
 The LORD will deliver him
 in the day of evil.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD will protect him, and keep him alive.
 He shall be blessed on the
 earth,
 and he will not surrender
 him to the will of his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed,
 and restore him from his bed
 of illness.

<sup>4</sup>I said, "LORD, have mercy on me.
 Heal me, for I have sinned
 against you."

<sup>5</sup>My enemies speak evil against
 me:
 "When will he die, and his name perish?"

<sup>6</sup>If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.

---

<sup>a</sup>41:1 So LXX Tg. MT lacks "and needy" from sight confusion in Paleo-Hebrew: bywn-bywmm

His heart gathers iniquity to itself.

When he goes abroad, he tells it.

<sup>7</sup>All who hate me whisper together
against me.

They imagine the worst for
me.

<sup>8</sup>“A wicked thing is poured out on him; and he who lies down will not rise again.”

<sup>9</sup>Even my own close friend, in whom I trusted,
who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10</sup>But you, LORD, have mercy on me, and raise me up,
that I may repay them.

<sup>11</sup>By this I know that you delight
in me,
because my enemy doesn't triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup>As for me, you uphold me in my
integrity,
and set me in your presence
forever.

<sup>13</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting and to everlasting.

Amen and amen.

Psalm 42

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>As the deer pants for the water
brooks,
so my soul pants after you,
God.

<sup>2</sup>My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

When shall I come and appear before God?

<sup>3</sup>My tears have been my food day
and night,
while they continually ask
me, “Where is your
God?”

<sup>4</sup>These things I remember, and pour out my soul
within me,
how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to the house of God,
with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed
within me?

Hope in God.

For I will still praise him,
my salvation<sup>b</sup> and my God.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>b</sup>42:5 So LXX Syr

<sup>c</sup>42:5 So Hebrew Mss LXX Syr. MT is divided differently, placing “my God”
at the beginning of the next verse

<sup>6</sup>My soul is in despair within me.
 Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,
 the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.

<sup>7</sup>Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.
 All your waves and your billows have swept
 over me.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will command his loving kindness in the daytime.
 In the night his song shall be
 with me:
 a prayer to the God of my
 life.

<sup>9</sup>I will ask God, my Rock, “Why have you forgotten
 me?
 Why do I go mourning
 because of the oppression of the
 enemy?”

<sup>10</sup>As with a sword in my bones,
 my adversaries
 reproach me,
 while they continually ask
 me, “Where is your
 God?”

<sup>11</sup>Why are you in despair, my
 soul?
 Why are you disturbed
 within me?
 Hope in God. For I shall still praise him,
 my salvation and my God.

Psalm 43

<sup>1</sup>Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against a faithless nation.
 Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust
 man.

<sup>2</sup>For you, God, are my strength.<sup>a</sup>
 Why have you rejected
 me?
 Why do I go mourning
 because of the
 oppression of the
 enemy?

<sup>3</sup>Oh, send out your light and your truth.
 Let them lead me.
 Let them bring me to your
 holy mountain,
 To your tents.

<sup>4</sup>Then I will go to the altar of God,
 to God, my exceeding joy.
 I will praise you on the harp, God,
 my God.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul?
 Why are you disturbed
 within me?
 Hope in God.
 For I shall still praise him,
 my salvation and my God.

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative
 psalm.

<sup>a</sup>43:2 Cf. LXX Tg Heir and BHS: Elohim Uzzi. MT has a different word division (Elohe Mauzi)

<sup>1</sup>We have heard with our ears,
    God;
    our fathers have told us,
    what work you did in their
    days,
    in the days of old.
<sup>2</sup>You drove out the nations with
    your hand,
    but you planted them.
You afflicted the peoples,
    but you spread them abroad.
<sup>3</sup>For they did not get the land in possession by their own sword,
    neither did their own arm
    save them;
but your right hand, and your arm,
    and the light of your
    face,
    because you were favorable
    to them.
<sup>4</sup>You are my King, my God,
    who commands<sup>a</sup> victories
    for Jacob.
<sup>5</sup>Through you we will push back
    our adversaries.
    Through your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.
<sup>6</sup>For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save
    me.
<sup>7</sup>But you have saved us from our
    adversaries,
    and have shamed those who hate us.
<sup>8</sup>In God we have made our boast
    all day long,
    we will give thanks to your name forever.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup>But now you rejected us, and brought us to
    dishonor,
    and do not go out with our armies.
<sup>10</sup>You make us turn back from the adversary.
    Those who hate us take spoil
    for themselves.
<sup>11</sup>You have made us like sheep for
    food,
    and have scattered us among
    the nations.
<sup>12</sup>You sell your people for nothing,
    and have gained nothing
    from their sale.
<sup>13</sup>You make us a reproach to our
    neighbors,
    a scoffing and a derision to those who are around
    us.
<sup>14</sup>You make us a byword among
    the nations,
    a shaking of the head among
    the peoples.
<sup>15</sup>All day long my dishonor is
    before me,
    and shame covers my face, <sup>16</sup>At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
    because of the enemy and
    the avenger.
<sup>17</sup>All this has come on us,
    yet have we not forgotten
    you,
    Neither have we been false
    to your covenant.
<sup>18</sup>Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps

Why do you sleep, Lord?

For the Chief Musician. Set to
"The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.

<sup>1</sup>My heart overflows with a noble
theme.
I recite my verses for the
king.
My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.

<sup>2</sup>You are the most excellent of the sons of men.

Grace has anointed your
lips,
therefore God has blessed
you forever.

<sup>3</sup>Gird your sword on your thigh,
mighty one:
your splendor and your
majesty.

<sup>4</sup>In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and
righteousness.

Let your right hand display
awesome deeds.

<sup>5</sup>Your arrows are sharp.
The nations fall under you,
with arrows in the heart of the king's
enemies.

<sup>6</sup>Your throne, God, is forever and ever.

A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.

<sup>7</sup>You have loved righteousness,
and hated wickedness.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness
above your companions.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>All your garments smell like

You shall make them princes
in all the earth.

the LORD with the sound of

Sing praises to our King,

God sits on his holy throne.

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Great is the LORD, and greatly to in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

amazed.
They were dismayed.
They hurried away.
<sup>6</sup>Trembling took hold of them
there,
pain, as of a woman in

<sup>8</sup>As we have heard, so we have seen,

in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our
God.
God will establish it forever.

loving kindness, God,
in the midst of your temple.

Your right hand is full of

Let the daughters of Judah

Because of your judgments.

her.

Number its towers.

Consider her palaces,
that you may tell it to the

He will be our guide even to the rising of the sun to its setting.

<sup>2</sup>Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.

<sup>3</sup>Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire devours before him.
It is very stormy around him.

<sup>4</sup>He calls to the heavens above,
to the earth, that he may judge his people:

<sup>5</sup>“Gather my faithful ones together
to me,
those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.”

<sup>6</sup>The heavens shall declare his
righteousness,
for God himself is judge.
Selah.

<sup>7</sup>“Hear, my people, and I will
speak;
Israel, and I will testify
against you.
I am God, your God.

<sup>8</sup>I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.

<sup>9</sup>I have no need for a bull from your stall,
nor male goats from your pens.

<sup>10</sup>For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the livestock on a thousand hills.

Psalm 51

<sup>11</sup>I know all the birds of the mountains.
The wild animals of the field
are mine.
<sup>12</sup>If I were hungry, I would not tell
you,
for the world is mine, and all that is in it.
<sup>13</sup>Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
or drink the blood of goats?
<sup>14</sup>Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to the Most High.
<sup>15</sup>Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me.”
<sup>16</sup>But to the wicked God says, “What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips, <sup>17</sup>seeing you hate instruction,
and throw my words behind
you?
<sup>18</sup>When you saw a thief, you consented with him,
and have participated with adulterers.
<sup>19</sup>“You give your mouth to evil.
Your tongue frames deceit.
<sup>20</sup>You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own
mother’s son.
<sup>21</sup>You have done these things, and I kept silent.
You thought that I was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.

<sup>22</sup>“Now consider this, you who
forget God,
lest I tear you into pieces,
and there be none to deliver.
<sup>23</sup>Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving<sup>a</sup> glorifies
me;
and to him who orders his conduct I will show
the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

<sup>1</sup>Have mercy on me, God,
according to your
loving kindness.
According to the multitude
of your tender mercies,
blot out my
transgressions.
<sup>2</sup>Wash me thoroughly from my
iniquity.
Cleanse me from my sin.
<sup>3</sup>For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before
me.
<sup>4</sup>Against you, and you only, have I sinned,
and done that which is evil
in your sight;
that you may be proved right when
you speak,
and justified when you
judge.<sup>b</sup>

---

<sup>5</sup>Look, I was brought forth in iniquity.
 In sin my mother conceived me.
<sup>6</sup>Look, you desire truth in the inward parts.
 You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
<sup>7</sup>Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
 Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
<sup>8</sup>Let me hear joy and gladness,
 That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.
<sup>9</sup>Hide your face from my sins,
 and blot out all of my iniquities.
<sup>10</sup>Create in me a clean heart, O God.
 Renew a right spirit within me.
<sup>11</sup>Do not throw me from your presence,
 and do not take your holy Spirit from me.
<sup>12</sup>Restore to me the joy of your salvation.
 Uphold me with a willing spirit.
<sup>13</sup>Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
 Sinners shall be converted to you.
<sup>14</sup>Deliver me from bloodguiltiness,
 O God, the God of my salvation.
 My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.
<sup>15</sup>Lord, open my lips.
 My mouth shall declare your praise.
<sup>16</sup>For you do not delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.

You have no pleasure in burnt offering.
<sup>17</sup>The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
 A broken and contrite heart,
 O God, you will not despise.
<sup>18</sup>Do well in your good pleasure to Zion.
 Build the walls of Jerusalem.
<sup>19</sup>Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
 in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.
 Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Abimelech's house."

<sup>1</sup>Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?
 God's loving kindness endures continually.
<sup>3</sup>You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth.
Selah.
<sup>4</sup>You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.
<sup>5</sup>God will likewise destroy you forever.

Psalm 53

He will take you up, and pluck you out of your
tent,
and root you out of the land
of the living.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup>The righteous also will see it, and fear,

and laugh at him, saying,

<sup>7</sup>“Look, this is the man who did not make God his
strength,

but trusted in the abundance
of his riches,
and strengthened himself in his wickedness.”

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God’s
house.

I trust in God’s loving kindness forever and
ever.

<sup>9</sup>I will give you thanks forever,
because you have done
it.

I will hope in your name, for it is good,
in the presence of your
faithful ones.

<sup>2</sup>God looks down from heaven on the children of man,
to see if there are any who
are wise,
who seek after God.

<sup>3</sup>Every one of them has gone back.
They have become filthy
together.

There is no one who does
good, no, not one.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Have evildoers no knowledge,
who eat up my people as they eat bread,
and do not call on God?

<sup>5</sup>There they will be in great fear, where no fear had been,

for God will scatter the bones of the ungodly.<sup>b</sup>

They will be put to shame,<sup>c</sup>
because God has rejected
them.

<sup>6</sup>Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion.

When God brings back his people from captivity,
may Jacob rejoice,
may Israel be glad.

Psalm 53

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Mahalath.” A contemplation by David.

<sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart,
“There is no God.”

They are corrupt, and have done abominable
iniquity.

There is no one who does
good.

Psalm 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul,

---

<sup>a</sup>53:3 Romans 3:10-12

<sup>b</sup>53:5 So LXX Syr. MT reads “(those who) encamp (against) you”

<sup>c</sup>53:5 So LXX. MT reads “You will put (them) to shame”

“Isn’t David hiding himself among us?”

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God, by your name.
Vindicate me in your might.

<sup>2</sup>Hear my prayer, God.
Listen to the words of my mouth.

<sup>3</sup>For strangers have risen up against me.
Violent men have sought after my soul.
They haven’t set God before them.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup>Look, God is my helper.<sup>a</sup>
The Lord is the one who sustains my soul.

<sup>5</sup>He will repay the evil to my enemies.
Destroy them in your truth.

<sup>6</sup>With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.
I will give thanks to your name, LORD, for it is good.

<sup>7</sup>For he has delivered me out of all trouble.
My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

<sup>1</sup>Listen to my prayer, God.
Do not hide yourself from my petition.

<sup>2</sup>Attend to me, and answer me.

I am restless in my complaint, and moan,

<sup>3</sup>Because of the voice of the enemy,

Because of the oppression of the wicked.

For they bring suffering on me.
In anger they hold a grudge against me.

<sup>4</sup>My heart is severely pained within me.

The terrors of death have fallen on me.

<sup>5</sup>Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.

Horror has overwhelmed me.

<sup>6</sup>I said, “Oh that I had wings like a dove.

Then I would fly away, and be at rest.

<sup>7</sup>Look, then I would wander far off.

I would lodge in the wilderness.”

Selah.

<sup>8</sup>“I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm.”

<sup>9</sup>Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language, for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

<sup>10</sup>Day and night they prowl around on its walls.

Malice and abuse are also within her.

<sup>11</sup>Destructive forces are within her.
Threats and lies do not depart from her streets.

<sup>12</sup>For it was not an enemy who insulted me,

then I could have endured it.

---

<sup>a</sup>54:4 Elohim Ozer Li

Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up
against me,
then I would have hid myself from him.

<sup>13</sup>But it was you, a man like me,
my companion, and my familiar friend.

<sup>14</sup>We took sweet fellowship
together.
We walked in God's house
with company.

<sup>15</sup>Let death come suddenly on
them.
Let them go down alive into Sheol.
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst
of them.

<sup>16</sup>As for me, I will call on God.
The LORD will save me.

<sup>17</sup>Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.
He will hear my voice.

<sup>18</sup>He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle
that was against me,
although there are many who oppose me.

<sup>19</sup>God, who is enthroned forever,
will hear, and answer them.
Selah.

They never change,
who do not fear God.

<sup>20</sup>He has stretched out his hand against those who were at peace with
him.
He has violated his
covenant.

<sup>21</sup>His mouth was smooth as butter,
but his heart was war.
His words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup>Cast your burden on the LORD,
and he will sustain
you.
He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
<sup>23</sup>But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of
destruction.
Bloodthirsty and deceitful
men shall not live out half their days,
but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me
up.
All day long, he attacks and
oppresses me.
<sup>2</sup>My enemies want to swallow me
up all day long,
for they are many who fight
proudly against me.
<sup>3</sup>When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.
<sup>4</sup>In God, I praise his word.
In God, I put my trust.
I will not be afraid.
What can flesh do to me?
<sup>5</sup>All day long they twist my words.
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
<sup>6</sup>They conspire and lurk,
watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.
<sup>7</sup>Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, God.

<sup>8</sup>You number my wanderings.
 You put my tears into your bottle.
 Aren't they in your book?
<sup>9</sup>Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.
 I know this, that God is for
 me.
<sup>10</sup>In God, I will praise his word.
 In the LORD, I will praise his
 word.
<sup>11</sup>I have put my trust in God.
 I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
<sup>12</sup>Your vows are on me, God.
 I will give thank offerings to
 you.
<sup>13</sup>For you have delivered my soul
 from death,
 and prevented my feet from falling,
 that I may walk before God
 in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem
 by David, when he fled from Saul,
 in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me,
 for my soul takes refuge in
 you.
 Yes, in the shadow of your wings,
 I will take refuge,
 until disaster has passed.
<sup>2</sup>I cry out to God Most High,
 to God who accomplishes my requests for me.
<sup>3</sup>He will send from heaven, and
 save me,

he rebukes the one who is pursuing me.
 Selah.
 God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.
<sup>4</sup>My soul is among lions.
 I lie among those who are set on fire,
 even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
 and their tongue a sharp
 sword.
<sup>5</sup>Be exalted, God, above the
 heavens.
 Let your glory be above all
 the earth.
<sup>6</sup>They have prepared a net for my
 steps.
 My soul is bowed down.
 They dig a pit before me.
 They fall into its midst
 themselves.
 Selah.
<sup>7</sup>My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast.
 I will sing, yes, I will sing
 praises.
<sup>8</sup>Wake up, my glory. Wake up, psaltery and harp.
 I will wake up the dawn.
<sup>9</sup>I will give thanks to you, Lord,
 among the peoples.
 I will sing praises to you
 among the nations.
<sup>10</sup>For your great loving kindness
 reaches to the heavens,
 and your truth to the skies.
<sup>11</sup>Be exalted, God, above the
 heavens.
 Let your glory be over all
 the earth.

Psalm 58

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” A poem by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent
ones<sup>a</sup>?
Do you judge blamelessly,
you sons of men?
- <sup>2</sup>No, in your heart you plot injustice.
You measure out the violence of your hands
in the earth.
- <sup>3</sup>The wicked go astray from the
womb.
They are wayward as soon
as they are born,
speaking lies.
- <sup>4</sup>Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
like a deaf viper that stops
its ear,
<sup>5</sup>which doesn’t listen to the voice of charmers,
no matter how skillful the charmer may be.
- <sup>6</sup>Break their teeth, God, in their
mouth.
Break out the great teeth of the young lions,
LORD.
- <sup>7</sup>Let them vanish as water that flows away.

---

When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.

- <sup>8</sup>Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away,
like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.
- <sup>9</sup>Before your pots can feel the heat
of the thorns,
he will sweep away the green and the burning
alike.
- <sup>10</sup>The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;
- <sup>11</sup>so that men shall say, “Most certainly there is a reward for the
righteous.
Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth.”

Psalm 59

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” A poem
by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

- <sup>1</sup>Deliver me from my enemies, my
God.
Set me on high from those who rise up against
me.
- <sup>2</sup>Deliver me from evildoers.
Save me from the
bloodthirsty men.
- <sup>3</sup>For, look, they lie in wait for my
soul.
The mighty gather themselves together
against me,

not for my disobedience, nor
for my sin, LORD.
<sup>4</sup>I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.
Rise up, look, and help me.
<sup>5</sup>You, LORD God of hosts,<sup>a</sup> the God of Israel,
rouse yourself to punish the
nations.
Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. Selah.
<sup>6</sup>They return at evening, howling
like dogs,
and prowl around the city.
<sup>7</sup>Look, they spew with their
mouth.
Swords are in their lips,
“For,” they say, “who hears
us?”
<sup>8</sup>But you, LORD, laugh at them.
You scoff at all the nations.
<sup>9</sup>Oh, my Strength, I watch for you,
for God is my high tower.<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>My God of mercy<sup>c</sup> will come to meet me.
God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.
<sup>11</sup>Do not kill them, or my people
may forget.
Scatter them by your power,
and bring them down,
Lord our shield.
<sup>12</sup>For the sin of their mouth, and
the words of their lips,
let them be caught in their pride,
for the curses and lies which they utter.
<sup>13</sup>Consume them in wrath.

Consume them, and they will be no more.
Let them know that God rules in
Jacob,
to the farthest parts of the earth. Selah.
<sup>14</sup>At evening let them return.
Let them howl like a dog,
and go around the city.
<sup>15</sup>They shall wander up and down
for food,
and wait all night<sup>d</sup> if they aren't satisfied.
<sup>16</sup>But I will sing of your strength.
Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness
in the morning.
For you have been my high tower,
a refuge in the day of my distress.
<sup>17</sup>To you, my strength, I will sing
praises.
For God is my high tower,
the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “The Lily of the Covenant.” A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup>God, you have rejected us.
You have broken us down.
You have been angry.

Psalm 61

Restore us, again.
<sup>2</sup>You have made the land tremble.
You have torn it.
Mend its fractures,
for it quakes.
<sup>3</sup>You have shown your people
hard things.
You have made us drink the wine that makes us
stagger.
<sup>4</sup>You have given a banner to those who fear you,
that it may be displayed
because of the truth.
Selah.

<sup>5</sup>So that your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand
and answer me.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>God has spoken from his
sanctuary:
“I will triumph.
I will divide Shechem,
and measure out the valley
of Succoth.
<sup>7</sup>Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is
mine.
Ephraim also is the defense
of my head.
Judah is my scepter.
<sup>8</sup>Moab is my wash basin.
I will throw my shoe on Edom.
I shout<sup>b</sup> in triumph over<sup>c</sup>
Philistia.”
<sup>9</sup>Who will bring me into the strong
city?

---

<sup>a</sup>60:5 So MT qere and Versions. MT kethib reads “us”

<sup>c</sup>60:8 Revocalization based on Syr cf. Tg and BHS. MT reads “over me.” Cf. Psalm 108:9

Who will lead me to Edom?
<sup>10</sup>Haven’t you, God, rejected us?
You do not go out with our armies, God.
<sup>11</sup>Give us help against the
adversary,
for the help of man is vain.
<sup>12</sup>Through God we shall do
valiantly,
for it is he who will tread
down our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my cry, God.
Listen to my prayer.
<sup>2</sup>From the end of the earth, I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
<sup>3</sup>For you have been a refuge for
me,
a strong tower from the
enemy.
<sup>4</sup>I will dwell in your tent forever.
I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.
Selah.
<sup>5</sup>For you, God, have heard my vows.
You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.
<sup>6</sup>You will prolong the king’s life;
his years shall be for
generations.
<sup>7</sup>He shall be enthroned in God’s presence forever.

Appoint your loving kindness and truth,
that they may preserve
him.

<sup>8</sup>So I will sing praise to your name
forever,
that I may fulfill my vows
day after day.

Psalm 62

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthan. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>My soul rests in God alone,
for<sup>a</sup> my salvation is from
him.

<sup>2</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—
I will never be greatly shaken.

<sup>3</sup>How long will you assault a man,
would all of you throw him
down,
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

<sup>4</sup>They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty
place.
They delight in lies.
They bless with their mouth,
but they curse
inwardly.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>My soul, wait in silence for God alone,
for my expectation is from
him.

<sup>6</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress.
I will not be shaken.

<sup>7</sup>With God is my salvation and my honor.
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

<sup>8</sup>Trust in him at all times,
O people.
Pour out your heart before
him.
God is a refuge for us.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Surely men of low degree are just a breath,
and men of high degree are a
lie.

In the balances they will go up.
They are together lighter
than a breath.

<sup>10</sup>Do not trust in oppression.
Do not become vain in robbery.

If riches increase,
do not set your heart on
them.

<sup>11</sup>God has spoken once;
twice I have heard this,
that power belongs to God.

<sup>12</sup>Also to you, Lord, belongs
loving kindness,
for you reward every man
according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>God, you are my God.
I will earnestly seek you.
My soul thirsts for you.

My flesh longs for you,

<sup>a</sup>62:1 So Hebrew Mss LXX Syr. MT
lacks “for”

in a dry and weary land,
where there is no
water.
<sup>2</sup>So I have seen you in the
sanctuary,
watching your power and
your glory.
<sup>3</sup>Because your loving kindness is better than life,
my lips shall praise you.
<sup>4</sup>So I will bless you while I live.
I will lift up my hands in
your name.
<sup>5</sup>My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.
My mouth shall praise you
with joyful lips, <sup>6</sup>when I remember you on my bed,
and think about you in the night watches.
<sup>7</sup>For you have been my help.
I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
<sup>8</sup>My soul stays close to you.
Your right hand holds me
up.
<sup>9</sup>But those who seek my soul, to destroy it,
shall go into the lower parts
of the earth.
<sup>10</sup>They shall be given over to the power of the sword.
They shall be jackal food.
<sup>11</sup>But the king shall rejoice in God.
Everyone who swears by him will praise him,
for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my voice, God, in my
complaint.
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
<sup>2</sup>Hide me from the conspiracy of
the wicked,
from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;
<sup>3</sup>who sharpen their tongue like a
sword,
and aim their arrows, deadly
words,
<sup>4</sup>to shoot innocent men from ambushes.
They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.
<sup>5</sup>They encourage themselves in evil plans.
They talk about laying snares secretly.
They say, "Who will see
them?"
<sup>6</sup>They plot injustice; they hide<sup>a</sup> a well-conceived plan.
Surely man's mind and heart
are cunning.
<sup>7</sup>But God will shoot at them.
They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
<sup>8</sup>Their own tongues shall ruin
them.
All who see them will shake their heads.
<sup>9</sup>All mankind shall be afraid.
They shall declare the work
of God,

---

<sup>a</sup>64:7 So Hebrew Mss. MT reads "we are finished"

and shall wisely ponder what
he has done.

<sup>10</sup>The righteous shall be glad in the LORD,
and shall take refuge in him.
All the upright in heart shall
praise him.

Psalm 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David. A song.

<sup>1</sup>Praise awaits you, God, in Zion.
And to you shall vows be performed.
<sup>2</sup>You who hear prayer,
to you all men will come.
<sup>3</sup>Sins overwhelmed me,
but you atoned for our
transgressions.
<sup>4</sup>Blessed is the one you choose and bring near,
that he may dwell in your courts.
We will be filled with the goodness of your
house,
your holy temple.
<sup>5</sup>By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,
God of our salvation.
You who are the hope of every
part of the earth,
of those who are far away on
the sea;
<sup>6</sup>Who by his power forms the
mountains,
having armed yourself with
strength;
<sup>7</sup>who stills the roaring of the seas,

the roaring of their waves,<sup>a</sup>
and the turmoil of the
nations.

<sup>8</sup>They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders.
You call the morning's dawn
and the evening with songs of joy.

<sup>9</sup>You visit the earth, and water it.
You greatly enrich it.
The river of God is full of water.
You provide them grain, for so you have ordained
it.

<sup>10</sup>You drench its furrows.
You level its ridges.
You soften it with showers.
You bless it with a crop.

<sup>11</sup>You crown the year with your bounty.
Your carts overflow with abundance.

<sup>12</sup>The wilderness grasslands
overflow.
The hills are clothed with gladness.

<sup>13</sup>The pastures are covered with flocks.
The valleys also are clothed with grain.

They shout for joy.
They also sing.

Psalm 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A
Psalm.

<sup>a</sup>65:7 Matthew 8:26; Mark 4:39; Luke 8:24

Psalm 66

<sup>1</sup>Make a joyful shout to God, all
the earth.
<sup>2</sup>Sing to the glory of his
name.
Offer glory and praise.
<sup>3</sup>Tell God, “How awesome are your deeds.
Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit
themselves to you.
<sup>4</sup>All the earth will worship you,
and will sing to you;
they will sing to your name.”
Selah.
<sup>5</sup>Come, and see God’s deeds—awesome work on behalf of
the children of men.
<sup>6</sup>He turned the sea into dry land.
They went through the river
on foot.
There, we rejoiced in him.
<sup>7</sup>He rules by his might forever.
His eyes watch the nations.
Do not let the rebellious rise up against him.
Selah.
<sup>8</sup>Praise our God, you peoples.
Make the sound of his praise
heard,
<sup>9</sup>who preserves our life among the living,
and doesn’t allow our feet to be moved.
<sup>10</sup>For you, God, have tested us.
You have refined us, as silver is refined.
<sup>11</sup>You brought us into prison.
You laid a burden on our backs.
<sup>12</sup>You allowed men to ride over our heads.

We went through fire and
through water,
but you brought us out to a spacious place.<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>I will come into your temple
with burnt offerings.
I will pay my vows to you,
<sup>14</sup>which my lips promised,
and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.
<sup>15</sup>I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals,
with the offering of rams,
I will offer bulls with goats.
Selah.
<sup>16</sup>Come, and hear, all you who fear
God.
I will declare what he has done for my soul.
<sup>17</sup>I cried to him with my mouth.
He was extolled with my tongue.
<sup>18</sup>If I cherished sin in my heart,
the Lord wouldn’t have listened.
<sup>19</sup>But most certainly, God has listened.
He has heard the voice of my prayer.
<sup>20</sup>Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
nor his loving kindness from
me.

Psalm 67

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

- <sup>1</sup>May God be merciful to us, bless us,
and cause his face to shine on us.
Selah.
- <sup>2</sup>That your way may be known on earth,
and your salvation among all nations,
<sup>3</sup>let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
- <sup>4</sup>Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the world in righteousness. You will judge<sup>a</sup> the peoples with equity, and guide the nations on earth.
Selah.
- <sup>5</sup>Let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
- <sup>6</sup>The earth has yielded its increase.
God, even our own God,

Every part of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

- <sup>1</sup>Let God arise.<sup>b</sup>
Let his enemies be scattered,
and let them who hate him flee before him.
- <sup>2</sup>As smoke is driven away,
so drive them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- <sup>3</sup>But let the righteous be glad.
Let them rejoice before God.
Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
- <sup>4</sup>Sing to God. Sing praises to his name.
Extol him who rides on the clouds:<sup>c</sup>
to the LORD,<sup>d</sup> his name.
Rejoice before him.
- <sup>5</sup>A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows,

He brings out the prisoners with singing,
but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.

<sup>8</sup>The earth trembled.

The sky also poured down

at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup>You, God, sent a plentiful rain.
You confirmed your

was weary.

<sup>10</sup>Your congregation lived in it.
You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord announced the word.
The ones who proclaim it

The mountains of Bashan

<sup>16</sup>Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains,
at the mountain where God
chooses to reign?
Yes, the LORD will dwell
there forever.

<sup>17</sup>The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands.

The Lord is among them,
from Sinai, in
holiness.

<sup>18</sup>You have ascended on high.
You have led away captives.
And you gave<sup>a</sup> gifts to people;<sup>b</sup>
but the rebellious will not deliverance.

To the LORD, the Lord,

<sup>21</sup>But God will strike through the head of his enemies,
the hairy scalp of such a one

his people.
Praise be to God.

Psalm 69

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Lilies.” By David.

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God,
for the waters have come up to my neck.

<sup>2</sup>I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.

I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

God,” a possible kaph-mem confusion

Psalm 69

<sup>3</sup>I am weary with my crying.
My throat is dry.
My eyes fail, looking for my
God.

<sup>4</sup>Those who hate me without a cause<sup>a</sup> are more than the hairs of my head.
Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are
mighty.

I have to restore what I did not take away.

<sup>5</sup>God, you know my foolishness.
My sins aren't hidden from
you.

<sup>6</sup>Do not let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord GOD of
hosts.

Do not let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me,
God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Because for your sake, I have borne reproach.
Shame has covered my face.

<sup>8</sup>I have become a stranger to my brothers,
a foreigner to my mother's
children.

<sup>9</sup>For the zeal of your house consumes me.<sup>b</sup>
The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>10</sup>When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.

<sup>11</sup>When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a byword to them.

<sup>12</sup>Those who sit in the gate talk about me.

I am the song of the drunkards.

<sup>13</sup>But as for me, my prayer is to you, LORD, in an acceptable time.
God, in the abundance of
your loving kindness,
answer me in the truth
of your salvation.

<sup>14</sup>Deliver me out of the mire, and do not let me sink.

Let me be delivered from
those who hate me,
and out of the deep
waters.

<sup>15</sup>Do not let the flood waters
overwhelm me,
neither let the deep swallow
me up.

Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.

<sup>16</sup>Answer me, LORD, for your loving kindness is
good.

According to the multitude
of your tender mercies,
turn to me.

<sup>17</sup>Do not hide your face from your
servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me speedily.

<sup>18</sup>Draw near to my soul, and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my
enemies.

<sup>19</sup>You know my reproach, my shame, and my
dishonor.
My adversaries are all before
you.

<sup>20</sup>Reproach has broken my heart,
and I am full of heaviness.

Psalm 70

For the Chief Musician. By David.
A reminder.

<sup>1</sup>Hurry, God, to deliver me.
Come quickly to help me,
LORD.
<sup>2</sup>Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek
my soul.
Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.
<sup>3</sup>Let them be turned back because of their shame
who say to me,<sup>a</sup> “Aha. Aha.” <sup>4</sup>Let all those who seek you rejoice
and be glad in you.
Let those who love your salvation continually
say,
“Let God be exalted.”
<sup>5</sup>But I am poor and needy.
Come to me quickly, God.

You are my help and my deliverer.
LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

<sup>1</sup>In you, LORD, I take refuge.

Never let me be
disappointed.
<sup>2</sup>Deliver me in your righteousness,
and rescue me.
Turn your ear to me, and
save me.
<sup>3</sup>Be to me a rock of refuge<sup>b</sup> to which I may always go.

but you are my strong
refuge.

 Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me.
<sup>14</sup>But I will always hope, and will add to all of your praise.
<sup>15</sup>My mouth will tell about your righteousness, and of your salvation all day, though I do not know its full measure.
<sup>16</sup>I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord GOD.
 I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone.
<sup>17</sup>God, you have taught me from my youth.
 Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.
<sup>18</sup>Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, do not forsake me, until I have declared your strength to the next generation, your might to everyone who is to come.
<sup>19</sup>Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens; you have done great things. God, who is like you?
<sup>20</sup>You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles, you will let me live.
 You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
<sup>21</sup>Increase my honor, and comfort me again.

 I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.
<sup>23</sup>My lips shall shout for joy.
 My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you.
<sup>24</sup>My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long,
 for they are disappointed, and they are confounded, who want to harm me.

Psalm 72

By Solomon.

<sup>2</sup>He will judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.
<sup>3</sup>The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people.
 The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.
<sup>4</sup>He will judge the poor of the people.
 He will save the children of the needy, and will break the oppressor in pieces.
<sup>5</sup>They shall fear you while the sun endures; and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

<sup>6</sup>He will come down like rain on the mown grass,
as showers that water the
earth.
<sup>7</sup>In his days, the righteous shall flourish,
and abundance of peace,
until the moon is no
more.
<sup>8</sup>He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
from the River to the farthest
parts of the earth.
<sup>9</sup>Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow
before him.
His enemies shall lick the
dust.

tribute.
The kings of Sheba and Seba
shall offer gifts.

All nations shall serve him.

the poor, who has no helper.
<sup>13</sup>He will have pity on the poor
and needy.
He will save the souls of the needy.
<sup>14</sup>He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
Their blood will be precious
in his sight.
<sup>15</sup>And he shall live, and the gold of Sheba shall be given to
him.
Men shall pray for him
continually.
He shall bless him all day
long.

<sup>16</sup>There shall be abundance of grain throughout the land.
Its fruit sways like Lebanon.
Let it flourish, thriving like
the grass of the field.
<sup>17</sup>His name endures forever.
His name continues as long as the sun.
Men shall be blessed by him.
All nations will call him
blessed.
<sup>18</sup>Praise be to the LORD,<sup>a</sup> the God
of Israel,
who alone does marvelous
deeds.
<sup>19</sup>Blessed be his glorious name
forever.
Let the whole earth be filled
with his glory.
Amen and amen.
<sup>20</sup>This ends the prayers by David,
the son of Jesse.

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Surely God is good to Israel,
to those who are pure in
heart.
<sup>2</sup>But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
My steps had nearly slipped.
<sup>3</sup>For I was envious of the arrogant,

---

<sup>a</sup>72:18 So Hebrew Mss LXX Mss Syr.
MT adds "God"

when I saw the prosperity of
the wicked.
<sup>4</sup>For there are no struggles in their
death,
but their strength is firm.
<sup>5</sup>They are free from burdens of
men,
neither are they plagued like
other men.
<sup>6</sup>Therefore pride is like a chain
around their neck.
Violence covers them like a garment.
<sup>7</sup>Their sin<sup>a</sup> proceeds forth from fatness.
Their hearts overflow with imagination.
<sup>8</sup>They scoff and speak with malice.
In arrogance, they threaten oppression.
<sup>9</sup>They have set their mouth in the
heavens.
Their tongue walks through
the earth.
<sup>10</sup>Therefore my<sup>b</sup> people turn to
them,
and they drink up waters of
abundance.
<sup>11</sup>They say, "How does God
know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?"
<sup>12</sup>Look, these are the wicked.
Being always at ease, they increase in riches.
<sup>13</sup>Surely in vain I have cleansed
my heart,
and washed my hands in
innocence,

<sup>14</sup>For all day long have I been plagued,
and punished every morning.
<sup>15</sup>If I had said, "I will speak thus;"
look, I would have betrayed
the generation of your
children.
<sup>16</sup>When I tried to understand this,
it was too painful for me;
<sup>17</sup>Until I entered God's sanctuary,
and considered their latter
end.
<sup>18</sup>Surely you set them in slippery
places.
You throw them down to
destruction.
<sup>19</sup>How they are suddenly
destroyed.
They are completely swept away with terrors.
<sup>20</sup>As a dream when one wakes up,
so, Lord, when you awake,
you will despise their fantasies.
<sup>21</sup>For my soul was grieved.
I was embittered in my
heart.
<sup>22</sup>I was so senseless and ignorant.
I was a brute beast before
you.
<sup>23</sup>Nevertheless, I am continually
with you.
You have held my right
hand.
<sup>24</sup>You will guide me with your
counsel,
and afterward receive me to
glory.
<sup>25</sup>Who do I have in heaven?
There is no one on earth who
I desire besides you.
<sup>26</sup>My flesh and my heart fails,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

---

<sup>a</sup>73:7 Cf. LXX Syr and BHS. MT reads
"eye"

<sup>b</sup>73:10 Cf. LXX Syr and BHS. MT reads "their"

<sup>27</sup>For, look, those who are far from you shall perish.
You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to
you.
<sup>28</sup>But it is good for me to come close to God.
I have made the<sup>a</sup> LORD my
refuge,
that I may tell of all your works in the gates of the daughter of Zion.<sup>b</sup>

Psalm 74

A contemplation by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, why have you rejected us
forever?
Why does your anger
smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
<sup>2</sup>Remember your congregation,
which you purchased
of old,
which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your
inheritance;
Mount Zion, in which you have lived.
<sup>3</sup>Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins,
all the evil that the enemy
has done in the
sanctuary.

<sup>4</sup>Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your
assembly.
They have set up their standards as signs.
<sup>5</sup>They behaved like men wielding
axes,
cutting through a thicket of trees.
<sup>6</sup>Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.
<sup>7</sup>They have burned your sanctuary to the
ground.
They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.
<sup>8</sup>They said in their heart, “We will crush them
completely.”
They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshipped.
<sup>9</sup>We see no miraculous signs.
There is no longer any prophet,
neither is there among us
anyone who knows
how long.
<sup>10</sup>How long, God, shall the adversary reproach?
Shall the enemy blaspheme
your name forever?
<sup>11</sup>Why do you draw back your hand, even your right
hand?
Take it out of your pocket
and consume them.
<sup>12</sup>Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.
<sup>13</sup>You divided the sea by your
strength.

---

<sup>b</sup>73:28 So LXX. MT lacks “in the gates... Zion,” possibly from sight confusion in a square script: k_bs-n_ms

You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
<sup>14</sup>You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces.
 You gave him as food to people and desert
 creatures.
<sup>15</sup>You opened up spring and stream.
 You dried up mighty rivers.
<sup>16</sup>The day is yours, the night is also yours.
 You have prepared the light
 and the sun.
<sup>17</sup>You have set all the boundaries
 of the earth.
 You have made summer and winter.
<sup>18</sup>Remember this, that the enemy
 has mocked you,
 LORD.
 Foolish people have blasphemed your
 name.
<sup>19</sup>Do not deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.<sup>a</sup>
 Do not forget the life of your poor forever.
<sup>20</sup>Honor your covenant,
 for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the
 earth.
<sup>21</sup>Do not let the oppressed return ashamed.
 Let the poor and needy
 praise your name.
<sup>22</sup>Arise, God. Plead your own cause.

---

<sup>a</sup>74:19 Hebrew Ms (todekka) LXX Syr read “deliver to the wild beasts a soul that gives praise to you.” A dalet-resheh (ד-ר) confusion

Remember how the foolish man mocks you all
 day.
<sup>23</sup>Do not forget the voice of your
 adversaries.
 The tumult of those who rise
 up against you ascends
 continually.

Psalm 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “Do Not Destroy.” A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

<sup>1</sup>We give thanks to you, God.
 We give thanks, for your Name is near.
 Men tell about your
 wondrous works.
<sup>2</sup>When I choose the appointed
 time,
 I will judge blamelessly.
<sup>3</sup>The earth and all its inhabitants quake.
 I firmly hold its pillars.
 Selah.
<sup>4</sup>I said to the arrogant, “Do not boast.”
 I said to the wicked, “Do not lift up the horn.
<sup>5</sup>Do not lift up your horn on high.
 Do not speak with a stiff neck.”
<sup>6</sup>For neither from the east, nor from the west,
 nor yet from the south,
 comes exaltation.
<sup>7</sup>But God is the judge.
 He puts down one, and lifts
 up another.
<sup>8</sup>For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,

Psalm 76

full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
He pours it out.
Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.

<sup>9</sup>But I will declare this forever:
I will sing praises to the God
of Jacob.

<sup>10</sup>I will cut off all the horns of the
wicked,
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

<sup>1</sup>In Judah, God is known.
His name is great in Israel.

<sup>2</sup>And his abode is in Salem,
and his lair in Zion.

<sup>3</sup>There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword,
and the weapons of war.
Selah.

<sup>4</sup>Glorious are you, and excellent,
more than mountains of game.

<sup>5</sup>Valiant men lie plundered, they have slept their last
sleep.
None of the men of war can lift their hands.

<sup>6</sup>At your rebuke, God of Jacob,
both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.

<sup>7</sup>You, even you, are to be feared.

Who can stand in your sight
when you are angry?
<sup>8</sup>You pronounced judgment from
heaven.
The earth feared, and was
silent,
<sup>9</sup>when God arose to
judgment,
to save all the afflicted ones
of the earth.
Selah.

<sup>10</sup>Surely the wrath<sup>a</sup> of man praises
you.
The survivors of your wrath
are restrained.

<sup>11</sup>Make vows to the LORD your God, and fulfill them.
Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.

<sup>12</sup>He humbles the spirit of princes.
He is feared by the kings of
the earth.

Psalm 77

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>My cry goes to God.
Indeed, I cry to God for
help,
and for him to listen to me.

<sup>2</sup>In the day of my trouble I sought
the Lord.
My hand was stretched out in the night, and did not get tired.

---

<sup>a</sup>76:10 MT reads hmt “anger.” Syr:
“wisdom” = hkmt. A possible misreading. LXX reads enthumion “the inward thought”

My soul refused to be comforted.
<sup>3</sup>I remember God, and I groan.
 I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
 Selah.

<sup>4</sup>You hold my eyelids open.
 I am so troubled that I can't speak.

<sup>5</sup>I have considered the days of old,
 the years of ancient times.

<sup>6</sup>I remember my song in the night.
 I consider in my own heart;
 my spirit diligently inquires:

<sup>7</sup>"Will the Lord reject us forever?
 Will he be favorable no more?"

<sup>8</sup>Has his loving kindness vanished forever?
 Does his promise fail for generations?"

<sup>9</sup>Has God forgotten to be gracious?
 Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"
 Selah.

<sup>10</sup>And I thought, "This is my wounding,
 that the right hand of the Most High has changed."

<sup>11</sup>I will remember the works of the LORD;<sup>a</sup>
 for I will remember your wonders of old.

<sup>12</sup>I will also meditate on all your work,
 and consider your doings.

<sup>13</sup>Your way, God, is in the sanctuary.
 What god is great like God?

<sup>14</sup>You are the God who does wonders.
 You have made your strength known among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup>You have redeemed your people with your arm,
 the sons of Jacob and Joseph.
 Selah.

<sup>16</sup>The waters saw you, God.
 The waters saw you, and they writhed.
 The depths also convulsed.

<sup>17</sup>The clouds poured out water.
 The skies resounded with thunder.
 Your arrows also flashed around.

<sup>18</sup>The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
 The lightnings lit up the world.
 The earth trembled and shook.

<sup>19</sup>Your way was through the sea;
 your paths through the great waters.
 Your footsteps were not known.

<sup>20</sup>You led your people like a flock,
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A contemplation by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my teaching, my people.
 Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.

<sup>a</sup>77:11 Hebrew: "Yah"

<sup>2</sup>I will open my mouth in parables.<sup>a</sup>
I will utter dark sayings of old,<sup>b</sup> <sup>3</sup>which we have heard and known,
and our fathers have told us.
<sup>4</sup>We will not hide them from their
children,
telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
his strength, and his wondrous works that
he has done.
<sup>5</sup>For he established a testimony in Jacob,
and appointed a teaching in Israel,
which he commanded our
fathers,
that they should make them
known to their
children;
<sup>6</sup>that the generation to come might know it, the children
yet unborn,
and<sup>c</sup> arise and tell their
children,
<sup>7</sup>that they might set their hope in God,
and not forget the works of God,
but keep his commandments,
<sup>8</sup>and might not be as their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious
generation,
a generation that did not make their hearts
loyal,

whose spirit was not
steadfast with God.
<sup>9</sup>The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
turned back in the day of battle.
<sup>10</sup>They did not keep God's
covenant,
and refused to walk by his Law.
<sup>11</sup>They forgot his doings,
his wondrous works that he had shown them.
<sup>12</sup>He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers,
in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
<sup>13</sup>He split the sea, and caused them
to pass through.
He made the waters stand as a heap.
<sup>14</sup>In the daytime he also led them
with a cloud,
and all night with a light of fire.
<sup>15</sup>He split rocks in the wilderness,
and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
<sup>16</sup>He brought streams also out of the rock,
and caused waters to run
down like rivers.
<sup>17</sup>Yet they still went on to sin
against him,
to rebel against the Most High in the desert.
<sup>18</sup>They tempted God in their heart
by asking food according to their desire.
<sup>19</sup>Yes, they spoke against God.
They said, "Can God
prepare a table in the wilderness?"

<sup>a</sup>78:2 So LXX Syr pl. MT sg

<sup>b</sup>78:2 Matthew 13:35

<sup>c</sup>78:6 So LXX Syr. MT lacks "and"
from haplography of the preceding letter

<sup>20</sup>Look, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
 and streams overflowed.
 Can he give bread also?
 Will he provide flesh for his
 people?"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Therefore the LORD heard, and was angry.
 A fire was kindled against
 Jacob,
 anger also went up against
 Israel,
<sup>22</sup>because they did not believe in God,
 and did not trust in his
 salvation.
<sup>23</sup>Yet he commanded the clouds
 above,
 and opened the doors of
 heaven.
<sup>24</sup>He rained down manna on them
 to eat,
 and gave them bread<sup>a</sup> from heaven.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Man ate the bread of angels.<sup>c</sup>
 He sent them food to the full.

<sup>26</sup>He caused the east wind to blow
 in the sky.
 By his power he guided the south wind.

<sup>27</sup>He rained also flesh on them as
 the dust;
 winged birds as the sand of the seas.

<sup>28</sup>He let them<sup>d</sup> fall in the midst of their camp,
 around their habitations.

<sup>29</sup>So they ate, and were well filled.

He gave them their own
 desire.

<sup>30</sup>They did not turn from their cravings.
 Their food was yet in their mouths,
<sup>31</sup>when the anger of God
 went up against them,
 killed some of the fattest of
 them,
 and struck down the young men of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>For all this they still sinned,
 and did not believe in his
 wondrous works.

<sup>33</sup>Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
 and their years in terror.

<sup>34</sup>When he killed them, then they inquired after him.
 They returned and sought
 God earnestly.

<sup>35</sup>They remembered that God was their rock,
 the Most High God, their
 redeemer.

<sup>36</sup>But they flattered him with their
 mouth,
 and lied to him with their
 tongue.

<sup>37</sup>For their heart was not right with
 him,
 neither were they faithful in his covenant.

<sup>38</sup>But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and did not destroy them.
 Yes, many times he turned
 his anger away,
 and did not stir up all his
 wrath.

<sup>39</sup>He remembered that they were but flesh,
 a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.

<sup>b</sup>78:24 John 6:31

<sup>c</sup>78:25 Or, bread of the mighty

<sup>d</sup>78:28 So LXX Syr Jerome. MT lacks
 "them"

<sup>40</sup>How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness,
and grieved him in the desert.
<sup>41</sup>They turned again and tempted
God,
and gave pain to the Holy
One of Israel.
<sup>42</sup>They did not remember his hand,
nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
<sup>43</sup>how he set his signs in Egypt,
his wonders in the field of Zoan,
<sup>44</sup>he turned their rivers into blood,
and their streams, so that they could not drink.
<sup>45</sup>He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured
them;
and frogs, which destroyed
them.
<sup>46</sup>He gave also their increase to the caterpillar,
and their labor to the locust.
<sup>47</sup>He destroyed their vines with hail,
their sycamore fig trees with frost.
<sup>48</sup>He gave over their livestock also to the hail,
and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
<sup>49</sup>He threw on them the fierceness
of his anger,
wrath, indignation, and
trouble,
and a band of destroying
angels.
<sup>50</sup>He made a path for his anger.
He did not spare their soul
from death,
but gave their life over to the
pestilence,

<sup>51</sup>and struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
<sup>52</sup>But he led forth his own people
like sheep,
and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
<sup>53</sup>He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid,
but the sea overwhelmed
their enemies.
<sup>54</sup>He brought them to the border of his sanctuary,
to this mountain, which his right hand had taken.
<sup>55</sup>He also drove out the nations
before them,
allotted them for an inheritance by line,
and made the tribes of Israel
to dwell in their tents.
<sup>56</sup>Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High
God,
and did not keep his
testimonies;
<sup>57</sup>but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.
They were turned aside like
a deceitful bow.
<sup>58</sup>For they provoked him to anger
with their high places,
and moved him to jealousy
with their engraved images.
<sup>59</sup>When God heard this, he was angry,
and greatly abhorred Israel;
<sup>60</sup>So that he forsook the tabernacle
at Shiloh,
the tent where he dwelt
among men;
<sup>61</sup>and delivered his strength into captivity,

his glory into the adversary's
hand.
<sup>62</sup>He also gave his people over to
the sword,
and was angry with his
inheritance.
<sup>63</sup>Fire devoured their young men.
Their virgins had no wedding song.
<sup>64</sup>Their priests fell by the sword,
and their widows couldn't
weep.
<sup>65</sup>Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep,
like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
<sup>66</sup>He struck his adversaries
backward.
He put them to a perpetual reproach.
<sup>67</sup>Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph,
and did not choose the tribe
of Ephraim, <sup>68</sup>But chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which he loved.
<sup>69</sup>He built his sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth which he has established forever.
<sup>70</sup>He also chose David his servant,
and took him from the sheepfolds;
<sup>71</sup>from following the ewes that have their young,
he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob his servant,<sup>a</sup>
and Israel his inheritance.

<sup>72</sup>So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart,
and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, the nations have come into your inheritance.
They have defiled your holy
temple.
They have laid Jerusalem in
heaps.
<sup>2</sup>They have given the dead bodies
of your servants to be food for the birds of
the sky,
the flesh of your faithful to the animals of the
earth.
<sup>3</sup>Their blood they have shed like water around
Jerusalem.
There was no one to bury
them.
<sup>4</sup>We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
a scoffing and derision to
those who are around
us.
<sup>5</sup>How long, LORD?
Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealousy burn like
fire?
<sup>6</sup>Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you;
on the kingdoms that do not call on your name;
<sup>7</sup>For they have devoured Jacob,

<sup>a</sup>78:71 So Hebrew Mss LXX. MT reads "people" and destroyed his homeland.

<sup>8</sup>Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.
Let your tender mercies
speedily meet us,
for we are in desperate need.
<sup>9</sup>Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your
name.
Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's
sake.
<sup>10</sup>Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let it be known among the nations, before our
eyes,
that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.
<sup>11</sup>Let the sighing of the prisoner
come before you.
According to the greatness
of your power, free<sup>a</sup> those who are
sentenced to death.
<sup>12</sup>Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom
their reproach with which they have reproached
you, Lord.
<sup>13</sup>So we, your people and sheep of your pasture,
will give you thanks forever.
We will praise you forever,
to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Hear us, Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock,
you who sit above the
cherubim, shine forth.
<sup>2</sup>Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might.
Come to save us.
<sup>3</sup>Restore us, God.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.
<sup>4</sup>LORD God of hosts,
How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?
<sup>5</sup>You have fed them with the bread
of tears,
and given them tears to drink in large measure.
<sup>6</sup>You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.
Our enemies have mocked
us.
<sup>7</sup>Restore us, God of hosts.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.
<sup>8</sup>You brought a vine out of Egypt.
You drove out the nations,
and planted it.
<sup>9</sup>You cleared the ground for it.
It took deep root, and filled
the land.
<sup>10</sup>The mountains were covered with its shadow.
Its boughs were like God's cedars.

<sup>11</sup>It sent out its branches to the sea,
 Its shoots to the River.
<sup>12</sup>Why have you broken down its walls,
 so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?
<sup>13</sup>The boar out of the wood ravages it.
 The wild animals of the field
 feed on it.
<sup>14</sup>Return, we beg you, God of
 hosts.
 Look down from heaven,
 and see, and visit this
 vine,
<sup>15</sup>the stock which your right hand
 planted,
 the branch that you made strong for yourself.
<sup>16</sup>It's burned with fire.
 It's cut down.
 They perish at your rebuke.
<sup>17</sup>Let your hand be on the man of
 your right hand,
 on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
<sup>18</sup>So we will not turn away from
 you.
 Revive us, and we will call
 on your name.
<sup>19</sup>Restore us, LORD God of hosts.
 Cause your face to shine,
 and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Sing aloud to God, our strength.
 Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine,
 the pleasant lyre with the
 harp.
<sup>3</sup>Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
 at the full moon, on our feast
 day.
<sup>4</sup>For it is a statute for Israel,
 an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
<sup>5</sup>He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony,
 when he went out over the land of Egypt,
 I heard a language that I did
 not know.
<sup>6</sup>“I removed his shoulder from the burden.
 His hands were freed from the basket.
<sup>7</sup>You called in trouble, and I delivered you.
 I answered you in the secret
 place of thunder.
 I tested you at the waters of Meribah.”

Selah.

<sup>8</sup>“Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,
 Israel, if you would listen to
 me.
<sup>9</sup>There shall be no strange god in
 you,
 neither shall you worship
 any foreign god.
<sup>10</sup>I am the LORD, your God,
 who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
 Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
<sup>11</sup>But my people did not listen to my voice.
 Israel desired none of me.

Psalm 82

- <sup>12</sup>So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts,
that they might walk in their own counsels.
- <sup>13</sup>Oh that my people would listen
to me,
that Israel would walk in my
ways.
- <sup>14</sup>I would soon subdue their
enemies,
and turn my hand against
their adversaries.
- <sup>15</sup>The haters of the LORD would cringe before him,
and their punishment would
last forever.
- <sup>16</sup>And he would have fed them
with the finest wheat,
and satisfied them<sup>a</sup> with honey from the rock.”

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>God presides in the assembly of God.<sup>b</sup>
He judges among the gods.<sup>c</sup>
- <sup>2</sup>“How long will you judge
unjustly,
and show partiality to the wicked?”
- Selah.

<sup>a</sup>81:16 So Hebrew Ms LXX Syr cf. BHS. MT reads “you”
<sup>c</sup>82:1 YHWH calls carriers of the Word of God elohim “gods” or “divine beings.” Cf. verse 6; Psalm 8:5; John 10:34, 35; Hebrews 2:7. Cf. also Leviticus 26:12; 2 Co 6:16; Colossians 1:27

- <sup>3</sup>“Defend the weak, the poor, and
the fatherless.
Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.
- <sup>4</sup>Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand
of the wicked.”
- <sup>5</sup>They do not know, neither do
they understand.
They walk back and forth in
darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- <sup>6</sup>I said, “You are gods,<sup>d</sup>
all of you are sons of the Most High.
- <sup>7</sup>Nevertheless you shall die like
men,
and fall like one of the rulers.”
- <sup>8</sup>Arise, God, judge the earth,
for you inherit all of the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>God, do not keep silent.
Do not keep silent,
and do not be still, God.
- <sup>2</sup>For, look, your enemies are stirred up.
Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.
- <sup>3</sup>They conspire with cunning against your people.
They plot against your cherished ones.
- <sup>4</sup>“Come,” they say, “and let’s destroy them as a nation,

that the name of Israel may be remembered no
 more.”
<sup>5</sup>For they have conspired together with one mind.
 They form an alliance
 against you.
<sup>6</sup>The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
 Moab, and the Hagrites;
<sup>7</sup>Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants
 of Tyre;
<sup>8</sup>Assyria also is joined with them.
 They have helped the children of Lot.
 Selah.
<sup>9</sup>Do to them as you did to Midian,
 as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;
<sup>10</sup>who perished at Endor,
 who became as dung for the
 earth.
<sup>11</sup>Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb;
 yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna; <sup>12</sup>who said, “Let us take possession of God’s pasturelands.”
<sup>13</sup>My God, make them like tumbleweed;
 like chaff before the wind.
<sup>14</sup>As the fire that burns the forest,
 as the flame that sets the mountains on fire, <sup>15</sup>so pursue them with your tempest,
 and terrify them with your
 storm.
<sup>16</sup>Fill their faces with confusion,
 that they may seek your name, LORD.
<sup>17</sup>Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever.

Yes, let them be confounded
 and perish;
<sup>18</sup>that they may know that you alone, whose name is
 the LORD,
 are the Most High over all
 the earth.

Psalm 84

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>How lovely are your dwellings,
 LORD of hosts.
<sup>2</sup>My soul longs, yes, yearns for the courts of the LORD.
 My heart and my flesh cry
 out for the living God.
<sup>3</sup>Yes, the sparrow has found a home,
 and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,
 near your altars, LORD of hosts, my King, and
 my God.
<sup>4</sup>Blessed are those who dwell in
 your house.
 They are ever praising you.
 Selah.
<sup>5</sup>Blessed are those whose strength
 is in you,
 who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.
<sup>6</sup>Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs.
 Yes, the autumn rain covers
 it with blessings.
<sup>7</sup>They go from strength to strength.
 Everyone of them appears before God in Zion.

<sup>8</sup>LORD, God of hosts, hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob.
Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Look, God our shield, look at the face of your
anointed.

<sup>10</sup>For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of God,<sup>a</sup> than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD God is a sun and a shield.
The LORD will give grace
and glory.
He withholds no good thing
from those who walk
blamelessly.

<sup>12</sup>LORD of hosts, Blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, you have been favorable
to your land.
You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.
<sup>2</sup>You have forgiven the iniquity of
your people.
You have covered all their
sin.
Selah.

<sup>3</sup>You have taken away all your
wrath.
You have turned from the fierceness of your
anger.

<sup>4</sup>Turn us, God of our salvation,
and cause your indignation
toward us to cease.

<sup>5</sup>Will you be angry with us
forever?
Will you draw out your anger to all
generations?

<sup>6</sup>Won't you revive us again,
that your people may rejoice
in you?

<sup>7</sup>Show us your loving kindness,
LORD.
Grant us your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I will hear what God, the LORD,
will speak,
for he will speak peace to his people, his faithful
ones;
but let them not turn again to
folly.

<sup>9</sup>Surely his salvation is near those
who fear him,
that glory may dwell in our
land.

<sup>10</sup>Mercy and truth meet together.
Righteousness and peace
have kissed each other.

<sup>11</sup>Truth springs out of the earth.
Righteousness has looked down from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>Yes, the LORD will give that which is good.
Our land will yield its
increase.

<sup>13</sup>Righteousness goes before him,
And prepares the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A Prayer by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Hear, LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
- <sup>2</sup>Preserve my soul, for I am
faithful.
You, my God, save your servant who trusts in
you.
- <sup>3</sup>Be merciful to me, Lord,
for I call to you all day long.
- <sup>4</sup>Bring joy to the soul of your
servant,
for to you, Lord, do I lift up
my soul.
- <sup>5</sup>For you, Lord,<sup>a</sup> are good, and ready to forgive;
abundant in loving kindness
to all those who call on you.
- <sup>6</sup>Hear, LORD, my prayer.
Listen to the voice of my
petitions.
- <sup>7</sup>In the day of my trouble I will call on you,
for you will answer me.
- <sup>8</sup>There is no one like you among the gods, Lord,<sup>b</sup> nor any deeds like your
deeds.
- <sup>9</sup>All nations you have made will come and worship
before you, Lord.
They shall glorify your
name.
- <sup>10</sup>For you are great, and do wondrous things.
You are God alone.

- <sup>11</sup>Teach me your way, LORD.
I will walk in your truth.
Make my heart undivided to
fear your name.
- <sup>12</sup>I will praise you, Lord my God,
with my whole heart.
I will glorify your name
forevermore.
- <sup>13</sup>For your loving kindness is great
toward me.
You have delivered my soul
from the lowest Sheol.
- <sup>14</sup>God, the proud have risen up
against me.
A company of violent men have sought after my
soul,
and they do not hold regard
for you before them.
- <sup>15</sup>But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God,
slow to anger, and abundant
in loving kindness and
truth.
- <sup>16</sup>Turn to me, and have mercy on
me.
Give your strength to your
servant.
Save the son of your handmaid.
- <sup>17</sup>Show me a sign of your goodness,
that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because you, LORD, have helped me, and comforted me.

Song.

<sup>a</sup>86:5 So DSS MT. Hebrew Mss read
“LORD”

<sup>b</sup>86:8 Hebrew Mss read “LORD”

<sup>2</sup>The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
<sup>3</sup>Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God.
Selah.
<sup>4</sup>I will record Rahab<sup>a</sup> and Babylon among those who acknowledge me.
Look, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia:
“This one was born there.”
<sup>5</sup>Yes, of Zion it will be said, “This one and that one was born in her;”
the Most High himself will establish her.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD will count, when he writes up the peoples,
“This one was born there.”
Selah.
<sup>7</sup>Those who sing as well as those who dance say,
“All my springs are in you.”

Psalm 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of “The Suffering of Affliction.” A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, the God of my salvation,<sup>b</sup>
I have cried day and night
before you.
<sup>2</sup>Let my prayer enter into your presence.

Turn your ear to my cry.
<sup>3</sup>For my soul is full of troubles.
My life draws near to Sheol.
<sup>4</sup>I am counted among those who go down into the pit.
I am like a man who has no
help,
<sup>5</sup>set apart among the dead,
like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom you remember no
more.
They are cut off from your
hand.
<sup>6</sup>You have laid me in the lowest
pit,
in the darkest depths.
<sup>7</sup>Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You have afflicted me with all your waves.
Selah.
<sup>8</sup>You have taken my friends from
me.
You have made me an abomination to them.
I am confined, and I can't escape.
<sup>9</sup>My eyes are dim from grief.
I have called on you daily,
LORD.
I have spread out my hands
to you.
<sup>10</sup>Do you show wonders to the dead?
Do the dead rise up and praise you?
Selah.
<sup>11</sup>Is your loving kindness declared
in the grave?
Or your faithfulness in Destruction?
<sup>12</sup>Are your wonders made known in the dark?
Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
<sup>13</sup>But to you, LORD, I have cried.

---

<sup>a</sup>87:4 Rahab is a reference to Egypt

<sup>b</sup>88:1 Yahweh Elohe Yeshuathi

In the morning, my prayer comes before you.
<sup>14</sup>LORD, why do you reject my
soul?
Why do you hide your face
from me?
<sup>15</sup>I am afflicted and ready to die
from my youth up.
While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.
<sup>16</sup>Your fierce wrath has gone over
me.
Your terrors have cut me off.
<sup>17</sup>They came around me like water
all day long.
They completely engulfed
me.
<sup>18</sup>You have put lover and friend far
from me,
and my friends into
darkness.

Psalm 89

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of the loving kindness of the LORD forever.
With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all
generations.
<sup>2</sup>I indeed declare, “Love stands firm forever.
You established the heavens.
Your faithfulness is in
them.”
<sup>3</sup><sup>c</sup>I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David, my
servant,

<sup>4</sup>I will establish your offspring
forever,
and build up your throne for
all generations.”
Selah.
<sup>5</sup>The heavens will praise your wonders, LORD;
your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy
ones.
<sup>6</sup>For who in the skies can be compared to the
LORD?
Who among the sons of God
is like the LORD, <sup>7</sup>a very awesome God in the council of the holy
ones,
to be feared above all those who are around him?
<sup>8</sup>LORD, God of hosts, who is a mighty one like you,
LORD?<sup>a</sup>
Your faithfulness is around
you.
<sup>9</sup>You rule the pride of the sea.
When its waves rise up, you calm them.<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain.
You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
<sup>11</sup>The heavens are yours.
The earth also is yours;
the world and its fullness.
You have founded them.
<sup>12</sup>The north and the south, you have created them.

<sup>a</sup>89:8 Hebrew: “Yah”

<sup>b</sup>89:9 Matthew 8:26; Mark 4:39; Luke 8:24

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in
your name.
<sup>13</sup>You have a mighty arm.
Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.
<sup>14</sup>Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Loving kindness and truth
go before your face.
<sup>15</sup>Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout.
They walk in the light of your presence, LORD.
<sup>16</sup>In your name they rejoice all
day.
In your righteousness, they are exalted.
<sup>17</sup>For you are the glory of their
strength.
In your favor, our horn will be exalted.
<sup>18</sup>For our shield belongs to the LORD;
our king to the Holy One of Israel.
<sup>19</sup>Then you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones,
and said, "I have bestowed strength on the warrior.
I have exalted a young man
from the people.
<sup>20</sup>I have found David, my servant.
I have anointed him with my holy oil, <sup>21</sup>with whom my hand shall be established.
My arm will also strengthen
him.
<sup>22</sup>No enemy will tax him.
No wicked man will oppress
him.
<sup>23</sup>I will beat down his adversaries
before him,

and strike those who hate
him.
<sup>24</sup>But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.
In my name, his horn will be
exalted.
<sup>25</sup>I will set his hand also on the sea,
and his right hand on the rivers.
<sup>26</sup>He will call to me, "You are my Father,
my God, and the rock of my
salvation."
<sup>27</sup>I will also appoint him my firstborn,
the highest of the kings of
the earth.
<sup>28</sup>I will keep my loving kindness
for him forevermore.
My covenant will stand firm
with him.
<sup>29</sup>And I will establish his descendants forever,
and his throne as the days of
heaven.
<sup>30</sup>If his children forsake my Law,
and do not walk in my ordinances;
<sup>31</sup>if they break my statutes,
and do not keep my
commandments;
<sup>32</sup>then I will punish their sin with the rod,
and their iniquity with stripes.
<sup>33</sup>But I will not completely take my loving kindness
from him,
nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
<sup>34</sup>I will not break my covenant, nor alter what my lips have uttered.

<sup>35</sup>Once have I sworn by my
holiness,
I will not lie to David.
<sup>36</sup>His descendants will endure
forever,
his throne like the sun before
me.
<sup>37</sup>It will be established forever like
the moon,
the faithful witness in the sky.”

Selah.

<sup>38</sup>But you have rejected and spurned.
You have been angry with your anointed.
<sup>39</sup>You have renounced the covenant of your
servant.
You have defiled his crown
in the dust.
<sup>40</sup>You have broken down all his hedges.
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
<sup>41</sup>All who pass by the way rob
him.
He has become a reproach to his neighbors.
<sup>42</sup>You have exalted the right hand
of his adversaries.
You have made all of his enemies rejoice.
<sup>43</sup>Yes, you turn back the edge of
his sword,
and haven't supported him
in battle.
<sup>44</sup>You have ended his splendor,
and thrown his throne down
to the ground.
<sup>45</sup>You have shortened the days of his youth.
You have covered him with shame.

Selah.

<sup>46</sup>How long, LORD?
Will you hide yourself
forever?
Will your wrath burn like
fire?
<sup>47</sup>Remember how short my time is.
For what vanity have you created all the children
of men.
<sup>48</sup>What man is he who shall live
and not see death,
who shall deliver his soul
from the power of Sheol?

Selah.

<sup>49</sup>Lord, where are your former loving kindnesses,
which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
<sup>50</sup>Remember, Lord, the reproach of your servants,
how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty
peoples,
<sup>51</sup>With which your enemies have mocked, LORD,
with which they have mocked the footsteps
of your anointed one.

<sup>52</sup>Blessed be the LORD
forevermore.
Amen, and Amen.

Psalm 90

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God.

<sup>1</sup>Lord, you have been our dwelling place for all
generations.

<sup>2</sup>Before the mountains were brought forth,
before you had formed the earth and the world,
even from everlasting to everlasting, you are
God.

<sup>3</sup>You turn man to destruction,
saying,
“Return, you children of
men.”

<sup>4</sup>For a thousand years in your sight
are just like yesterday
when it is past,
like a watch in the night.

<sup>5</sup>You sweep them away as they sleep.
In the morning they sprout
like new grass.

<sup>6</sup>In the morning it sprouts and springs up.
By evening, it is withered
and dry.

<sup>7</sup>For we are consumed in your
anger.
We are troubled in your
wrath.

<sup>8</sup>You have set our iniquities before
you,
our secret sins in the light of
your presence.

<sup>9</sup>For all our days have passed away
in your wrath.

We bring our years to an end
as a sigh.

<sup>10</sup>The days of our years are seventy,
or even by reason of strength
eighty years;
yet their pride is but labor
and sorrow,
for it passes quickly, and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup>Who knows the power of your
anger,
your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?

<sup>12</sup>So teach us to number our days,
that we may gain a heart of
wisdom.

<sup>13</sup>Relent, LORD.
How long?
Have compassion on your
servants.

<sup>14</sup>Satisfy us in the morning with
your loving kindness,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup>Make us glad for as many days
as you have afflicted
us,
for as many years as we have seen evil.

<sup>16</sup>Let your work appear to your
servants;
your glory to their children.

<sup>17</sup>Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
establish the work of our hands for us;
yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

<sup>1</sup>He who dwells in the secret place
of the Most High

will rest in the shadow of Shaddai.
<sup>2</sup>I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my
fortress;
my God, in whom I trust.”
<sup>3</sup>For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler,
and from the deadly
pestilence.
<sup>4</sup>He will cover you with his feathers.
Under his wings you will take refuge.
His faithfulness is a shield
and a wall.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
nor of the arrow that flies by
day;
<sup>6</sup>nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.
<sup>7</sup>A thousand may fall at your side,
and ten thousand at your
right hand;
but it will not come near
you.
<sup>8</sup>You will only look with your
eyes,
and see the recompense of
the wicked.
<sup>9</sup>Because you have made the LORD your refuge,
and the Most High your
dwelling place,
<sup>10</sup>no evil shall overtake you;
no plague shall come near your dwelling.
<sup>11</sup>For he will put his angels in charge of you,

to guard you in all your
ways.
<sup>12</sup>In their hands they will lift you
up,
so that you will not strike
your foot against a stone.<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup>You will tread upon the lion and the viper.
You will trample the young lion and the serpent
underfoot.
<sup>14</sup>“Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him.
I will set him on high,
because he has known
my name.
<sup>15</sup>He will call on me, and I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble.
I will deliver him, and honor
him.
<sup>16</sup>I will satisfy him with long life,
and show him my
salvation.”

Psalm 92

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath
day.

<sup>1</sup>It is a good thing to give thanks to
the LORD,
to sing praises to your name,
Most High;
<sup>2</sup>to proclaim your loving kindness
in the morning,
and your faithfulness every
night,

Psalm 93

<sup>3</sup>with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp,
and with the melody of the
lyre.
<sup>4</sup>For you, LORD, have made me glad through your
work.
I will triumph in the works
of your hands.
<sup>5</sup>How great are your works, LORD.
Your thoughts are very deep.
<sup>6</sup>A senseless man doesn't know, neither does a fool
understand this:
<sup>7</sup>though the wicked spring up as the grass,
and all the evildoers
flourish,
they will be destroyed
forever.
<sup>8</sup>But you, LORD, are on high
forevermore.
<sup>9</sup>For, look, your enemies, LORD,
for, look, your enemies shall perish.
All the evildoers will be scattered.
<sup>10</sup>But you have exalted my horn
like that of the wild ox.
I am anointed with fresh oil.
<sup>11</sup>My eye has also seen my
enemies.
My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.
<sup>12</sup>The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.
He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
<sup>13</sup>They are planted in the LORD's
house.
They will flourish in our God's courts.
<sup>14</sup>They will still bring forth fruit in old age.

They will be full of sap and
green,
<sup>15</sup>to show that the LORD is
upright.
He is my Rock,
and there is no
unrighteousness in
him.

Psalm 93

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns.
He is clothed with majesty.
The LORD is armed with
strength.
The world also is established.
It can't be moved.
<sup>2</sup>Your throne is established from long ago.
You are from everlasting.
<sup>3</sup>The floods have lifted up, LORD,
the floods have lifted up
their voice.
The floods lift up their waves.
<sup>4</sup>Above the voices of many waters,
the mighty breakers of the
sea,
The LORD on high is
mighty.
<sup>5</sup>Your statutes stand firm.
Holiness adorns your house,
LORD, forevermore.

Psalm 94

<sup>1</sup>LORD, you God to whom vengeance belongs,
you God to whom vengeance belongs,
shine forth.
<sup>2</sup>Rise up, you judge of the earth.

Pay back the proud what
they deserve.
<sup>3</sup>LORD, how long will the wicked,
how long will the wicked
triumph?
<sup>4</sup>They pour out arrogant words.
All the evildoers boast.
<sup>5</sup>They break your people in pieces,
LORD,
and afflict your heritage.
<sup>6</sup>They kill the widow and the alien,
and murder the fatherless.
<sup>7</sup>They say, “The LORD<sup>a</sup> will not
see,
neither will Jacob’s God
consider.”
<sup>8</sup>Consider, you senseless among
the people;
you fools, when will you be
wise?
<sup>9</sup>He who implanted the ear, won’t he hear?
He who formed the eye,
won’t he see?
<sup>10</sup>He who disciplines the nations,
won’t he punish?
He who teaches man knows.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD knows the thoughts of man,<sup>b</sup> that they are futile.<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>Blessed is the man whom you discipline, LORD,<sup>d</sup>
and teach out of your Law; <sup>13</sup>that you may give him rest from the days of adversity,

until the pit is dug for the
wicked.
<sup>14</sup>For the LORD won’t reject his
people,
neither will he forsake his
inheritance.
<sup>15</sup>For judgment will return to
righteousness.
All the upright in heart shall
follow it.
<sup>16</sup>Who will rise up for me against
the wicked?
Who will stand up for me
against the evildoers?
<sup>17</sup>Unless the LORD had been my
help,
my soul would have soon
lived in silence.
<sup>18</sup>When I said, “My foot is slipping.”
Your loving kindness,
LORD, held me up.
<sup>19</sup>In the multitude of my thoughts
within me,
your comforts delight my
soul.
<sup>20</sup>Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with
you,
which brings about mischief
by statute?
<sup>21</sup>They gather themselves together against the soul of the
righteous,
and condemn the innocent
blood.
<sup>22</sup>But the LORD has been my high
tower,
my God, the rock of my
refuge.
<sup>23</sup>He has brought on them their own iniquity,
and will cut them off in their own wickedness.
The LORD, our God, will cut them off.

<sup>b</sup>94:11 1Co 3:20 quotes Psalm 94:11
and reads sophos “wise” rather than “man.” In DSS Isaiah script אדם

“man” and חכם “wise” are visually very similar, suggesting the possibility of a misreading here.

Psalm 95

- <sup>1</sup>Oh come, let's sing to the LORD.
Let's shout aloud to the rock
of our salvation.
- <sup>2</sup>Let's come before his presence
with thanksgiving.
Let's extol him with songs.
- <sup>3</sup>For the LORD is a great God,
a great King above all gods.
- <sup>4</sup>In his hand are the deep places of
the earth.
The heights of the mountains
are also his.
- <sup>5</sup>The sea is his, and he made it.
His hands formed the dry
land.
- <sup>6</sup>Oh come, let's worship and bow
down.
Let's kneel before the LORD,
our Maker,
- <sup>7</sup>for he is our God.
We are the people of his
pasture,
and the sheep in his care.
Today, if you would hear his
voice.
- <sup>8</sup>Do not harden your heart,
as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in
the wilderness,
- <sup>9</sup>when your fathers tempted me,
tested me, and saw my work.
- <sup>10</sup>For forty years I loathed that
generation,
and said, "It is a people who go astray in their heart,
and they do not know my
ways."
- <sup>11</sup>Therefore I swore in my wrath,

"They won't enter into my rest."<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 96

- <sup>1</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song.
Sing to the LORD, all the
earth.
- <sup>2</sup>Sing to the LORD.
Bless his name.
Proclaim his salvation from day to day.
- <sup>3</sup>Declare his glory among the
nations,
his marvelous works among
all the peoples.
- <sup>4</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly
to be praised.
He is to be feared above all
gods.
- <sup>5</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but the LORD made the
heavens.
- <sup>6</sup>Honor and majesty are before
him.
Strength and beauty are in
his sanctuary.
- <sup>7</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory
and strength.
- <sup>8</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory
due to his name.
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
- <sup>9</sup>Worship the LORD in holy array.
Tremble before him, all the
earth.
- <sup>10</sup>Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."

---

<sup>a</sup>95:11 Hebrews 4:3,5

The world is also
 established.
 It can't be moved.
 He will judge the peoples
 with equity.

<sup>11</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice.
 Let the sea roar, and its fullness.

<sup>12</sup>Let the field and all that is in it exult.
 Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for
 joy

<sup>13</sup>before the LORD; for he comes,
 for he comes to judge the
 earth.

He will judge the world with
 righteousness,
 the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 97

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns.
 Let the earth rejoice.
 Let the multitude of islands
 be glad.

<sup>2</sup>Clouds and darkness are around
 him.
 Righteousness and justice
 are the foundation of his throne.

<sup>3</sup>A fire goes before him,
 and burns up his adversaries
 on every side.

<sup>4</sup>His lightning lights up the world.
 The earth sees, and trembles.

<sup>5</sup>The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the
 LORD,
 at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup>The heavens declare his
 righteousness.
 All the peoples have seen his
 glory.

<sup>7</sup>Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
 who boast in their idols.
 Worship him, all you gods.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Zion heard and was glad.
 The daughters of Judah
 rejoiced,
 because of your judgments,
 LORD.

<sup>9</sup>For you, LORD, are most high above all the earth.
 You are exalted far above all
 gods.

<sup>10</sup>You who love the LORD, hate
 evil.
 He preserves the souls of his
 faithful ones.
 He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>Light is sown for the righteous,
 and gladness for the upright
 in heart.

<sup>12</sup>Be glad in the LORD, you righteous people.
 Give thanks to his holy
 Name.

Psalm 98

<sup>1</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song,
 for he has done marvelous
 things.

Psalm 99

His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD has made known his
salvation.
He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.
<sup>3</sup>He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.
Every part of the earth has seen the salvation of
our God.
<sup>4</sup>Make a joyful noise to the LORD,
all the earth.
Burst out and sing for joy,
yes, sing praises.
<sup>5</sup>Sing praises to the LORD with the
harp,
with the harp and the voice
of melody.
<sup>6</sup>With trumpets and sound of the
ram's horn,
make a joyful noise before
the King, the LORD.
<sup>7</sup>Let the sea roar with its fullness;
the world, and those who
dwell in it.
<sup>8</sup>Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing for joy together.
<sup>9</sup>Let them sing before the LORD,
for he comes to judge the
earth.
He will judge the world with
righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

He sits enthroned among the cherubim;
the earth shakes.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD is great in Zion.
He is high above all the
peoples.
<sup>3</sup>Let them praise your great and awesome name.
He is Holy.
<sup>4</sup>The King's strength also loves
justice.
You do establish equity.
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.
<sup>5</sup>Exalt the LORD our God.
Worship at his footstool.
He is Holy.
<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
Samuel among those who
call on his name;
they called on the LORD,
and he answered them.
<sup>7</sup>He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.
They kept his testimonies,
the statute that he gave them.
<sup>8</sup>You answered them, LORD our
God.
You are a God who forgave<sup>a</sup>
them,
although you took vengeance for their
doings.
<sup>9</sup>Exalt the LORD, our God.
Worship at his holy
mountain,
for the LORD, our God, is holy.

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

- <sup>1</sup>Shout for joy to the LORD, all you lands.
<sup>2</sup>Serve the LORD with gladness.
 Come before his presence with singing.
<sup>3</sup>Know that the LORD, he is God.
 It is he who has made us, and not we ourselves.<sup>a</sup>
 We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
<sup>4</sup>Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
 and into his courts with praise.
 Give thanks to him, and bless his name.
<sup>5</sup>For the LORD is good.
 His loving kindness endures forever,
 and his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 101

A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>I will sing of loving kindness and justice.
 To you, LORD, I will sing praises.
<sup>2</sup>I will be careful to live a blameless life.
 When will you come to<sup>b</sup> me?

---

<sup>a</sup>100:3 So Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg. Hebrew Mss “and we are his”

- I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.
<sup>3</sup>I will set no vile thing before my eyes.
 I hate the deeds of faithless men.
 They will not cling to me.
<sup>4</sup>A perverse heart will be far from me.
 I will have nothing to do with evil.
<sup>5</sup>I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
 I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.
<sup>6</sup>My eyes will be on the faithful of the land,
 that they may dwell with me.
 He who walks in a perfect way, he will serve me.
<sup>7</sup>He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house.
 He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.
<sup>8</sup>Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land;
 to cut off all evildoers from the LORD's city.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

- <sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, LORD.
 Let my cry come to you.

---

<sup>2</sup>Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress.

Turn your ear to me.
Answer me quickly in the day when I call.

<sup>3</sup>For my days consume away like smoke.

My bones are burned like a hearth.

<sup>4</sup>My heart is blighted like grass,
and withered,
for I forget to eat my bread.

<sup>5</sup>By reason of the voice of my groaning,
my bones stick to my skin.

<sup>6</sup>I am like a pelican of the wilderness.
I have become as an owl of the waste places.

<sup>7</sup>I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.

<sup>8</sup>My enemies reproach me all day.
Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.

<sup>9</sup>For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with
tears,

<sup>10</sup>Because of your indignation and your wrath,
for you have taken me up,
and thrown me away.

<sup>11</sup>My days are like a long shadow.
I have withered like grass.

<sup>12</sup>But you, LORD, will abide
forever;
your renown endures to all
generations.

<sup>13</sup>You will arise and have mercy
on Zion;
for it is time to have pity on
her.
Yes, the set time has come.

<sup>14</sup>For your servants take pleasure
in her stones,
and have pity on her dust.

<sup>15</sup>So the nations will fear the name
of the LORD;
all the kings of the earth
your glory.

<sup>16</sup>For the LORD has built up Zion.
He has appeared in his glory.

<sup>17</sup>He has responded to the prayer
of the destitute,
and has not despised their
prayer.

<sup>18</sup>This will be written for the generation to come,
that a people yet to be created may praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>19</sup>For he has looked down from the height of his
sanctuary.

From heaven, the LORD
looked at the earth;

<sup>20</sup>to hear the groans of the prisoner;
to free those who are condemned to death;

<sup>21</sup>that men may declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
and his praise in Jerusalem;

<sup>22</sup>when the peoples are gathered
together,
the kingdoms, to serve the
LORD.

<sup>23</sup>He weakened my strength along the course.

He shortened my days.

<sup>24</sup>I said, "My God, do not take me away in the midst of my days.

Your years are throughout
all generations.

---

<sup>25</sup>In the beginning, LORD,<sup>a</sup> you established the foundation of the
 earth.
 The heavens are the works<sup>b</sup>
 of your hands.
<sup>26</sup>They will perish, but you remain;
 and they will all wear out
 like a garment.
 You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.
<sup>27</sup>But you are the same.
 Your years will have no
 end.<sup>c</sup> <sup>28</sup>The children of your servants
 will continue,
 and their descendants will be established before
 you.”

Psalm 103

By David.

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, my soul,
 and all that is within me,
 praise his holy name.
<sup>2</sup>Praise the LORD, my soul,
 and do not forget all his benefits;
<sup>3</sup>who forgives all your sins;
 who heals all your diseases;
<sup>4</sup>who redeems your life from
 destruction;

who crowns you with loving kindness and tender
 mercies;
<sup>5</sup>who satisfies your desire with
 good things;
 your youth is renewed like
 the eagle's.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD executes righteous acts,
 and justice for all who are
 oppressed.
<sup>7</sup>He made known his ways to Moses,
 his deeds to the sons of
 Israel.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD is merciful and gracious,
 slow to anger, and abundant
 in loving kindness.
<sup>9</sup>He will not always accuse;
 neither will he stay angry
 forever.
<sup>10</sup>He has not dealt with us
 according to our sins,
 nor repaid us for our
 iniquities.
<sup>11</sup>For as the heavens are high above the earth,
 so great is his loving kindness toward those
 who fear him.
<sup>12</sup>As far as the east is from the west,
 so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
<sup>13</sup>Like a father has compassion on his children,
 so the LORD has compassion
 on those who fear him.
<sup>14</sup>For he knows how we are made.
 He remembers that we are
 dust.
<sup>15</sup>As for man, his days are like grass.
 As a flower of the field, so
 he flourishes.

<sup>16</sup>For the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
and its place remembers it
no more.

<sup>17</sup>But the LORD's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those
who fear him,
his righteousness to children's children;

<sup>18</sup>to those who keep his covenant,
to those who remember to obey his precepts.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD has established his throne in the heavens.
His kingdom rules over all.

<sup>20</sup>Praise the LORD, all<sup>a</sup> you angels
of his,
who are mighty in strength,
who fulfill his word,
obeying the voice of his
word.

<sup>21</sup>Praise the LORD, all you armies
of his,
you servants of his, who do
his pleasure.

<sup>22</sup>Praise the LORD, all you works
of his,
in all places of his dominion.
Praise the LORD, my soul.

Psalm 105

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD. Call on his name.
Make his deeds known
among the peoples.
<sup>2</sup>Sing to him, sing praises to him.
Tell of all his marvelous
works.
<sup>3</sup>Glorify in his holy name.
Let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
<sup>4</sup>Seek the LORD and his strength.
Seek his face forever more.
<sup>5</sup>Remember his marvelous works
that he has done;
his wonders, and the judgments of his
mouth,
<sup>6</sup>you offspring of Abraham, his
servant,
you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
<sup>7</sup>He is the LORD, our God.

His judgments are in all the
earth.
<sup>8</sup>He has remembered his covenant
forever,
the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, <sup>9</sup>the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac,
<sup>10</sup>and confirmed the same to Jacob
for a statute;
to Israel for an everlasting
covenant,
<sup>11</sup>saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan,
the lot of your inheritance;" <sup>12</sup>when they were but a few men in number,
yes, very few, and foreigners
in it.
<sup>13</sup>They went about from nation to
nation,
from one kingdom to
another people.
<sup>14</sup>He allowed no one to do them wrong.
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes, <sup>15</sup>"Do not touch my anointed ones.
Do my prophets no harm."
<sup>16</sup>He called for a famine on the land.
He destroyed the food supplies.
<sup>17</sup>He sent a man before them.
Joseph was sold for a slave.
<sup>18</sup>They bruised his feet with shackles.
His neck was locked in irons,
<sup>19</sup>until the time that his word
happened,
and the LORD's word proved
him true.
<sup>20</sup>The king sent and freed him;

---

<sup>a</sup>104:35 Hebrew: "Yah"

- even the ruler of peoples,
 and let him go free.
<sup>21</sup>He made him lord of his house,
 and ruler of all of his possessions;
<sup>22</sup>to discipline his princes at his pleasure,
 and to teach his elders
 wisdom.
<sup>23</sup>Israel also came into Egypt.
 Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
<sup>24</sup>He increased his people greatly,
 and made them stronger than
 their adversaries.
<sup>25</sup>He turned their heart to hate his
 people,
 to conspire against his
 servants.
<sup>26</sup>He sent Moses, his servant,
 and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
<sup>27</sup>They performed miracles among
 them,
 and wonders in the land of Ham.
<sup>28</sup>He sent darkness, and made it
 dark.
 They did not rebel against his words.
<sup>29</sup>He turned their waters into
 blood,
 and killed their fish.
<sup>30</sup>Their land swarmed with frogs,
 even in the chambers of their kings.
<sup>31</sup>He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
 and gnats in all their territory.
<sup>32</sup>He gave them hail for rain,
 flaming fire in their land.
<sup>33</sup>He struck their vines and also their fig trees,
 and shattered the trees of their country.
- <sup>34</sup>He spoke, and the locusts came,
 and the grasshoppers,
 without number,
<sup>35</sup>ate up every plant in their land;
 and ate up the fruit of their
 ground.
<sup>36</sup>He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
 the first fruits of all their manhood.
<sup>37</sup>And he brought them out with silver and gold,
 and there was no one among their tribes who stumbled.
<sup>38</sup>Egypt was glad when they departed,
 for the fear of them had fallen on them.
<sup>39</sup>He spread a cloud for a covering,
 fire to give light in the night.
<sup>40</sup>They asked, and he brought quails,
 and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
<sup>41</sup>He opened the rock, and waters
 gushed out.
 They ran as a river in the dry
 places.
<sup>42</sup>For he remembered his holy
 word,
 and Abraham, his servant.
<sup>43</sup>He brought forth his people with
 joy,
 his chosen with singing.
<sup>44</sup>He gave them the lands of the
 nations.
 They took the labor of the peoples in possession, <sup>45</sup>that they might keep his statutes,
 and observe his laws.

Psalm 106

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his loving kindness
endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Who can utter the mighty acts of
the LORD,
or fully declare all his
praise?

<sup>3</sup>Blessed are those who uphold
justice,
who practice righteousness
at all times.

<sup>4</sup>Remember me, LORD, with the favor that you show to
your people.
Visit me with your salvation, <sup>5</sup>that I may see the prosperity of your chosen,
that I may rejoice in the gladness of your
nation,
that I may glory with your
inheritance.

<sup>6</sup>We have sinned with our fathers.
We have committed iniquity.
We have done wickedly.

<sup>7</sup>Our fathers did not understand your wonders in Egypt.
They did not remember the multitude of your
loving kindnesses,
but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Sea of Suf.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
that he might make his mighty power known.

<sup>9</sup>He rebuked the Sea of Suf also,
and it was dried up;
so he led them through the depths, as through a desert.

<sup>10</sup>He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
and redeemed them from the
hand of the enemy.

<sup>11</sup>The waters covered their
adversaries.
There was not one of them
left.

<sup>12</sup>Then they believed his words.
They sang his praise.

<sup>13</sup>They soon forgot his works.
They did not wait for his
counsel, <sup>14</sup>but gave in to craving in the desert,
and tested God in the wasteland.

<sup>15</sup>He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their
soul.

<sup>16</sup>They envied Moses also in the camp,
and Aaron, the LORD's holy
one.

<sup>17</sup>The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,
and covered the company of Abiram.

<sup>18</sup>A fire was kindled in their
company.

<sup>b</sup>106:8 Hebrew: yam suf, which may mean "Sea of Reeds." If yam sof: "Sea of Extinction," "Sea at the End." LXX translates as "Red Sea"

- The flame burned up the wicked.
- <sup>19</sup>They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.
- <sup>20</sup>Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.
- <sup>21</sup>They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,
- <sup>22</sup>Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Sea of Suf.<sup>a</sup>
- <sup>23</sup>Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.
- <sup>24</sup>Yes, they despised the pleasant land. They did not believe his word,
- <sup>25</sup>but murmured in their tents, and did not listen to the LORD's voice.
- <sup>26</sup>Therefore he swore to them that he would overthrow them in the wilderness,
- <sup>27</sup>and that he would make their offspring fall among the nations, and scatter them in the lands.
- <sup>28</sup>They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
- <sup>29</sup>Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds. The plague broke in on them.
- <sup>30</sup>Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment, so the plague was stopped.
- <sup>31</sup>That was credited to him as righteousness, for all generations to come.
- <sup>32</sup>They angered him also at the waters of Meribah, so that Moses was troubled for their sakes;
- <sup>33</sup>because they were rebellious against his spirit, he spoke rashly with his lips.
- <sup>34</sup>They did not destroy the peoples, as the LORD commanded them,
- <sup>35</sup>but mixed themselves with the nations, and learned their works.
- <sup>36</sup>They served their idols, which became a snare to them.
- <sup>37</sup>Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
- <sup>38</sup>They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan. The land was polluted with blood.
- <sup>39</sup>Thus were they defiled with their works, and prostituted themselves in their deeds.
- <sup>40</sup>Therefore the LORD burned with anger against his people. He abhorred his inheritance.

Those who hated them ruled over them.
<sup>42</sup>Their enemies also oppressed
them.
They were brought into subjection under their
hand.
<sup>43</sup>Many times he delivered them,
but they were rebellious in their counsel,
and were brought low in their iniquity.

when he heard their cry.
<sup>45</sup>He remembered for them his
covenant,

Psalm 107

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD,
for he is good,
for his loving kindness endures
forever.
<sup>2</sup>Let the redeemed by the LORD
say so,
whom he has redeemed from the hand of the
adversary, <sup>3</sup>And gathered out of the lands,
from the east and from the
west,
from the north and from the south.
<sup>4</sup>They wandered in the wilderness
in a desert way.
They found no city to live
in.
<sup>5</sup>Hungry and thirsty,
their soul fainted in them.
<sup>6</sup>Then they cried to the LORD in
their trouble,
and he delivered them out of
their distresses,
<sup>7</sup>he led them also by a straight
way,
that they might go to a city
to live in.
<sup>8</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his
loving kindness,
for his wonderful works to
the children of men.
<sup>9</sup>For he satisfies the longing soul.
He fills the hungry soul with
good.
<sup>10</sup>Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,

being bound in affliction and
 iron,
<sup>11</sup>because they rebelled against the words of God,
 and condemned the counsel
 of the Most High.
<sup>12</sup>Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.
 They fell down, and there was none to help.
<sup>13</sup>Then they cried to the LORD in
 their trouble,
 and he saved them out of
 their distresses.
<sup>14</sup>He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of
 death,
 and broke their bonds in
 sunder.
<sup>15</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his
 loving kindness,
 for his wonderful works to
 the children of men.
<sup>16</sup>For he has broken the gates of bronze,
 and cut through bars of iron.
<sup>17</sup>Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience,
 and because of their
 iniquities.
<sup>18</sup>Their soul abhors all kinds of food.
 They draw near to the gates
 of death.
<sup>19</sup>Then they cry to the LORD in
 their trouble,
 he saves them out of their distresses.
<sup>20</sup>He sent his word and healed
 them,
 and delivered them from the
 pit.
<sup>21</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his
 loving kindness,

for his wonderful works to
 the children of men.
<sup>22</sup>Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,<sup>a</sup>
 and declare his works with singing.
<sup>23</sup>Those who go down to the sea in ships,
 who do business in great
 waters;
<sup>24</sup>These see the LORD's
 works,
 and his wonders in the deep.
<sup>25</sup>For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
 which lifts up its waves.
<sup>26</sup>They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
 Their soul melts away
 because of trouble.
<sup>27</sup>They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken
 man,
 and are at their wits' end.
<sup>28</sup>Then they cry to the LORD in
 their trouble,
 and he brings them out of their distress.
<sup>29</sup>He makes the storm a calm,
 so that its waves are still.<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>Then they are glad because it is calm,
 so he brings them to their desired haven.
<sup>31</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his
 loving kindness,
 for his wonderful works for
 the children of men.

<sup>a</sup>107:22 Or, "praise." Cf. LXX

<sup>b</sup>107:29 Matthew 8:26; Mark 4:39;
 Luke 8:24

<sup>32</sup>Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the
people,
and praise him in the seat of the elders.
<sup>33</sup>He turns rivers into a desert,
water springs into a thirsty
ground,
<sup>34</sup>and a fruitful land into a salt waste,
for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
<sup>35</sup>He turns a desert into a pool of
water,
and a dry land into water
springs.
<sup>36</sup>There he makes the hungry live,
that they may prepare a city
to live in,
<sup>37</sup>sow fields, plant vineyards,
and reap the fruits of
increase.
<sup>38</sup>He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied
greatly.
He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.
<sup>39</sup>Again, they are diminished and bowed down
through oppression, trouble,
and sorrow.
<sup>40</sup>He pours contempt on princes,
and causes them to wander
in a trackless waste.
<sup>41</sup>Yet he lifts the needy out of their
affliction,
and increases their families
like a flock.
<sup>42</sup>The upright will see it, and be glad.
All the wicked will shut
their mouths.
<sup>43</sup>Whoever is wise will pay attention to these
things.

They will consider the loving kindnesses of
the LORD.

Psalm 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is steadfast, God.
I will sing and I will make music with my soul.
<sup>2</sup>Wake up, harp and lyre.
I will wake up the dawn.
<sup>3</sup>I will give thanks to you, LORD,
among the nations.
I will sing praises to you
among the peoples.
<sup>4</sup>For your loving kindness is great
above the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to
the skies.
<sup>5</sup>Be exalted, God, above the
heavens.
Let your glory be over all
the earth.
<sup>6</sup>That your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand,
and answer us.
<sup>7</sup>God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley
of Succoth.
<sup>8</sup>Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is my helmet.
Judah is my scepter.
<sup>9</sup>Moab is my wash pot.
I will toss my sandal on Edom.
I will shout in triumph over Philistia."

<sup>10</sup>Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who has led me to Edom?
<sup>11</sup>Haven't you rejected us, God?
You do not go forth, God,
with our armies.
<sup>12</sup>Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is vain.
<sup>13</sup>Through God, we will do
valiantly.
For it is he who will trample
down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>God of my praise, do not remain
silent,
<sup>2</sup>for they have opened the mouth of the wicked
and the mouth of deceit against me.
They have spoken to me
with a lying tongue.
<sup>3</sup>They have also surrounded me
with words of hatred,
and fought against me
without a cause.
<sup>4</sup>In return for my love, they are my
adversaries;
but I am in prayer.
<sup>5</sup>They have rewarded me evil for
good,
and hatred for my love.
<sup>6</sup>Set a wicked man over him.
Let an adversary stand at his
right hand.
<sup>7</sup>When he is judged, let him come forth guilty.
Let his prayer be turned into
sin.
<sup>8</sup>Let his days be few.

Let another take his office.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>Let his children be fatherless,
and his wife a widow.
<sup>10</sup>Let his children be wandering beggars.
Let them be sought from
their ruins.
<sup>11</sup>Let the creditor seize all that he has.
Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.
<sup>12</sup>Let there be none to extend kindness to him,
neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.
<sup>13</sup>Let his posterity be cut off.
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
<sup>14</sup>Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by the
LORD.
Do not let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
<sup>15</sup>Let them be before the LORD
continually,
that he may cut off the memory of them from
the earth;
<sup>16</sup>because he did not remember to show kindness,
but persecuted the poor and needy man,
the broken in heart, to kill
them.
<sup>17</sup>Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.
He did not delight in blessing, and it was far
from him.

<sup>a</sup>109:8 Acts 1:20

Psalm 110

<sup>18</sup>He clothed himself also with cursing as with his
garment.
It came into his inward parts
like water,
like oil into his bones.
<sup>19</sup>Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers
himself,
for the belt that is always
around him.
<sup>20</sup>This is the reward of my adversaries from the LORD,
of those who speak evil
against my soul.
<sup>21</sup>But deal with me, the LORD the Lord, for your name's
sake,
because your loving kindness is good,
deliver me;
<sup>22</sup>for I am poor and needy.
My heart is wounded within
me.
<sup>23</sup>I fade away like an evening
shadow.
I am shaken off like a locust.
<sup>24</sup>My knees are weak through fasting.
My body is thin and lacks
fat.
<sup>25</sup>I have also become a reproach to
them.
When they see me, they shake their head.
<sup>26</sup>Help me, LORD, my God.
Save me according to your
loving kindness;
<sup>27</sup>that they may know that this is
your hand;
that you, LORD, have done
it.
<sup>28</sup>They may curse, but you bless.

When they arise, they will be shamed,
but your servant shall
rejoice.
<sup>29</sup>Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.
Let them cover themselves
with their own shame
as with a robe.
<sup>30</sup>I will give great thanks to the LORD with my mouth.
Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
<sup>31</sup>For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,
to save him from those who
judge his soul.

Psalm 110

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD says to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>The LORD will send forth the rod of your strength out of Zion.
Rule in the midst of your
enemies.
<sup>3</sup>Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array.<sup>b</sup>

---

<sup>a</sup>110:1 Matthew 22:44; Mark 12:36;
Luke 20:42; Acts 2:34

<sup>b</sup>110:3 Some Hebrew Mss and Jerome
read "on the holy mountains" instead of "in holy array"

Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD has sworn, and will not change his mind:
“You are a priest forever<sup>a</sup> in the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>5</sup>The Lord is at your right hand.
He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.

<sup>6</sup>He will judge among the nations.
He will heap up dead bodies.
He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.

<sup>7</sup>He will drink of the brook in the
way;
therefore he will lift up his head.

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>b</sup>

Praise, you servants of the
LORD,
praise the name of the
LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Blessed be the name of the LORD,
from this time forth and

going down of the

The LORD's name is to be praised.

<sup>a</sup>112:9 2Co 9:9

<sup>b</sup>113:1 Hebrew: "Yah"

<sup>4</sup>The LORD is high above all
nations,
his glory above the heavens.
<sup>5</sup>Who is like the LORD, our God,
who has his seat on high, <sup>6</sup>Who stoops down to see in heaven and in the
earth?
<sup>7</sup>He raises up the poor out of the
dust.
Lifts up the needy from the
ash heap;
<sup>8</sup>that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his
people.
<sup>9</sup>He settles the barren woman in her home,
as a joyful mother of
children.
Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 114

<sup>1</sup>When Israel went forth out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of foreign language;
<sup>2</sup>Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his dominion.
<sup>3</sup>The sea saw it, and fled.
The Jordan was driven back.
<sup>4</sup>The mountains skipped like rams,
the little hills like lambs.
<sup>5</sup>What was it, you sea, that you fled?
You Jordan, that you turned back?
<sup>6</sup>You mountains, that you skipped
like rams;
you little hills, like lambs?

<sup>7</sup>Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of
Jacob,
<sup>8</sup>who turned the rock into a pool of
water,
the flint into a spring of
waters.

Psalm 115

<sup>1</sup>Not to us, LORD, not to us,
but to your name give glory,
for your loving kindness,
and for your truth's
sake.
<sup>2</sup>Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God, now?"
<sup>3</sup>But our God is in the heavens.
He does whatever he pleases.
<sup>4</sup>Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
<sup>5</sup>They have mouths, but they do not speak.
They have eyes, but they do not see.
<sup>6</sup>They have ears, but they do not hear.
They have noses, but they do not smell.
<sup>7</sup>They have hands, but they do not feel.
They have feet, but they do not walk,
neither do they speak
through their throat.
<sup>8</sup>Those who make them will be
like them;
yes, everyone who trusts in
them.
<sup>9</sup>Israel, trust in the LORD.
He is their help and their
shield.

<sup>10</sup>House of Aaron, trust in the LORD.
 He is their help and their shield.
<sup>11</sup>You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD.
 He is their help and their shield.
<sup>12</sup>The LORD remembers us. He will bless us.
 He will bless the house of Israel.
 He will bless the house of Aaron.
<sup>13</sup>He will bless those who fear the LORD, both small and great.
<sup>14</sup>May the LORD increase you more and more,
 you and your children.
<sup>15</sup>Blessed are you by the LORD,
 who made heaven and earth.
<sup>16</sup>The heavens are the heavens of the LORD;
 but the earth has he given to the children of men.
<sup>17</sup>The dead do not praise the LORD,<sup>a</sup>
 neither any who go down into silence;
<sup>18</sup>But we will bless the LORD,<sup>b</sup>
 from this time forth and forevermore.
 Praise the LORD.<sup>c</sup>

Psalm 116

<sup>1</sup>I love the LORD, because he listens to my voice,

and my cries for mercy.
<sup>2</sup>Because he has turned his ear to me,
 therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
<sup>3</sup>The cords of death surrounded me,
 the pains of Sheol got a hold of me.
 I found trouble and sorrow.
<sup>4</sup>Then I called on the name of the LORD:
 “LORD, I beg you, deliver my soul.”
<sup>5</sup>The LORD is Gracious and righteous.
 Yes, our God is merciful.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD preserves the simple.
 I was brought low, and he saved me.
<sup>7</sup>Return to your rest, my soul,
 for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
<sup>8</sup>For you have delivered my soul from death,
 my eyes from tears,
 and my feet from falling.
<sup>9</sup>I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
<sup>10</sup>I believed, therefore I said,<sup>d</sup>
 “I am greatly afflicted.”
<sup>11</sup>I said in my haste,
 “All men are liars.”
<sup>12</sup>What will I give to the LORD for all his benefits toward me?
<sup>13</sup>I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the LORD.
<sup>14</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD,
 yes, in the presence of all his people.

<sup>c</sup>115:18 Hebrew: “Yah”

Psalm 117

<sup>15</sup>Precious in the sight of the LORD
is the death of his faithful ones.

<sup>16</sup>LORD, truly I am your servant.
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid.
You have freed me from my chains.

<sup>17</sup>I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving,<sup>a</sup>
and will call on the name of
the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD,
yes, in the presence of all his
people,

<sup>19</sup>in the courts of the LORD's
house,
in the midst of you,
Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD.<sup>b</sup>

Psalm 117

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, all you nations.
Praise him, all you peoples.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>2</sup>For his loving kindness is great
toward us.

The LORD's faithfulness
endures forever.

Praise the LORD.<sup>d</sup>

Psalm 118

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he
is good,

<sup>c</sup>117:1 Romans 15:11

for his loving kindness
endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Let Israel now say
that his loving kindness
endures forever.

<sup>3</sup>Let the house of Aaron now say
that his loving kindness
endures forever.

<sup>4</sup>Now let those who fear the LORD
say
that his loving kindness
endures forever.

<sup>5</sup>Out of my distress, I called on the LORD.<sup>e</sup>

The LORD<sup>f</sup> answered me
with freedom.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD is my helper;<sup>g</sup> I will not fear.

What can man do to me?<sup>h</sup>

<sup>7</sup>The LORD is my helper;<sup>i</sup>
and I will look in triumph on
those who hate me.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
than to put confidence in
man.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
than to put confidence in princes.

<sup>g</sup>118:6 So LXX Syr. MT lacks "helper" from haplography by homoioteleuton: y-y, or sight confusion in square script: ly-ry. For vocalization cf. Exodus 18:4; Psalm 121:1; BDB 6973. LXX Mss Hebrew Ms add "and" (cf. Hebrews 13:6 NA28). LXX DSS MT Syr Tg Vg lack the addition. Yahweh Li b'ezri Revocalization based on LXX Syr cf. Exodus 18:4. MT reads "is for me among my helpers"

<sup>10</sup>All the nations surrounded me,
but in the name of the LORD,
I cut them off.

<sup>11</sup>They surrounded me, yes, they
surrounded me.
In the name of the LORD I
indeed cut them off.

<sup>12</sup>They surrounded me like bees.
They are quenched like the burning thorns.
In the name of the LORD I
cut them off.

<sup>13</sup>You pushed me back hard, to make me fall,

I will enter into them and
praise the LORD.<sup>d</sup>

the righteous will enter into
it.

<sup>22</sup>The stone which the builders rejected has become

<sup>23</sup>This is the LORD’s doing.
It is marvelous in our eyes.

<sup>24</sup>This is the day that the LORD has made.
We will rejoice and be glad
in it.

LORD.
LORD, we beg you, send

you.

ALEPH

<sup>1</sup>Blessed are those whose ways are blameless,
who walk according to the law of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Blessed are those who keep his decrees,
who seek him with their
whole heart.

<sup>3</sup>Yes, they do nothing wrong.
They walk in his ways.

<sup>4</sup>You have commanded your precepts,
that we should fully obey
them.

<sup>5</sup>Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes.

<sup>6</sup>Then I wouldn't be disappointed,
when I consider all of your
commandments.

<sup>7</sup>I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart,
when I learn your righteous
judgments.

<sup>8</sup>I will observe your statutes.
Do not utterly forsake me.

BET

way pure?

By living according to your
word.

<sup>10</sup>With my whole heart, I have sought you.

Do not let me wander from your commandments.

<sup>11</sup>In my heart I have hidden your
word,
that I might not sin against
you.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed are you, LORD.
Teach me your statutes.

<sup>13</sup>With my lips,
I have declared all the ordinances of your
mouth.

<sup>14</sup>I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
as much as in all riches.

<sup>15</sup>I will meditate on your precepts,
and consider your ways.

<sup>16</sup>I will delight myself in your
statutes.
I will not forget your words.<sup>a</sup>

GIMEL

<sup>17</sup>Deal bountifully with your
servant,
that I may live and keep your words.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of your Law.

<sup>19</sup>I am a stranger on the earth.

<sup>a</sup>119:16 So Hebrew Mss LXX Syr. MT
reads "word"

<sup>b</sup>119:17 So Hebrew Mss LXX Syr. MT
reads "word"

Do not hide your commandments from
me.

<sup>20</sup>My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.

<sup>21</sup>You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
who wander from your
commandments.

<sup>22</sup>Take reproach and contempt
away from me,
for I have kept your statutes.

<sup>23</sup>Though princes sit and slander
me,
your servant will meditate
on your statutes.

<sup>24</sup>Indeed your statutes are my delight,
and my counselors.

DALET

<sup>25</sup>My soul is laid low in the dust.
Revive me according to your
word.

<sup>26</sup>I declared my ways, and you
answered me.
Teach me your statutes.

<sup>27</sup>Let me understand the teaching of your precepts.
Then I will meditate on your
wondrous works.

<sup>28</sup>My soul is weary with sorrow:
strengthen me according to your word.

<sup>29</sup>Keep me from the way of deceit.
Grant me your Law graciously.

<sup>30</sup>I have chosen the way of truth.
I have set your ordinances
before me.

<sup>31</sup>I cling to your statutes, LORD.

Do not let me be disappointed.

<sup>32</sup>I run in the path of your
commandments,
for you have set my heart
free.

<sup>33</sup>Teach me, LORD, the way of your statutes.

I will keep them to the end.

<sup>34</sup>Give me understanding, and I will keep your Law.
Yes, I will obey it with my
whole heart.

<sup>35</sup>Direct me in the path of your
commandments,
for I delight in them.

<sup>36</sup>Turn my heart toward your
statutes,
not toward selfish gain.

<sup>37</sup>Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.

Revive me in your ways.

<sup>38</sup>Fulfill your promise to your
servant,
that you may be feared.

<sup>39</sup>Take away my disgrace that I dread,
for your ordinances are
good.

<sup>40</sup>Look, I long for your precepts.
Revive me in your
righteousness.

WAW

<sup>41</sup>Let your loving kindness also come to me, LORD,
your salvation, according to
your word.

<sup>42</sup>So I will have an answer for him
who reproaches me,

for I trust in your word.
<sup>43</sup>Do not snatch the word of truth
out of my mouth,
for I put my hope in your
ordinances.
<sup>44</sup>So I will obey your Law
continually,
forever and ever.
<sup>45</sup>I will walk in liberty,
for I have sought your
precepts.
<sup>46</sup>I will also speak of your statutes
before kings,
and will not be disappointed.
<sup>47</sup>I will delight myself in your
commandments,
because I love them.
<sup>48</sup>I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.
I will meditate on your
statutes.

<sup>49</sup>Remember your word to your
servant,
because you gave me hope.
<sup>50</sup>This is my comfort in my
affliction,
for your word has revived
me.
<sup>51</sup>The arrogant mock me excessively,
but I do not swerve from your Law.
<sup>52</sup>I remember your ordinances of old, LORD,
and have comforted myself.
<sup>53</sup>Indignation has taken hold on
me,
because of the wicked who forsake your Law.

<sup>54</sup>Your statutes have been my songs,
in the house where I live.
<sup>55</sup>I have remembered your name,
LORD, in the night,
and I obey your Law.
<sup>56</sup>This is my way,
that I keep your precepts.

<sup>57</sup>The LORD is my portion.
I promised to obey your
words.
<sup>58</sup>I sought your favor with my
whole heart.
Be merciful to me according to your word.
<sup>59</sup>I considered my ways,
and turned my steps to your
statutes.
<sup>60</sup>I will hurry, and not delay,
to obey your
commandments.
<sup>61</sup>The ropes of the wicked bind
me,
but I won't forget your Law.
<sup>62</sup>At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you,
because of your righteous
ordinances.
<sup>63</sup>I am a friend of all those who fear you,
of those who observe your
precepts.
<sup>64</sup>The earth is full of your loving kindness, LORD.
Teach me your statutes.

TET

<sup>65</sup>Do good to your servant,

according to your word,
 LORD.
<sup>66</sup>Teach me good judgment and
 knowledge,
 for I believe in your
 commandments.
<sup>67</sup>Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
 but now I observe your
 word.
<sup>68</sup>You are good, and do good.
 Teach me your statutes.
<sup>69</sup>The proud have smeared a lie
 upon me.
 With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.
<sup>70</sup>Their heart is as callous as the
 fat,
 but I delight in your Law.
<sup>71</sup>It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
 that I may learn your
 statutes.
<sup>72</sup>The Law you have spoken is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YOD

<sup>73</sup>Your hands have made me and formed me.
 Give me understanding, that I may learn your
 commandments.
<sup>74</sup>Those who fear you will see me
 and be glad,
 because I have put my hope
 in your word.
<sup>75</sup>LORD, I know that your judgments are
 righteous,

that in faithfulness you have humbled<sup>a</sup> me.
<sup>76</sup>Please let your loving kindness
 be for my comfort,
 according to your word to
 your servant.
<sup>77</sup>Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
 for your Law is my delight.
<sup>78</sup>Let the proud be disappointed,
 for they have overthrown me
 wrongfully.
 I will meditate on your
 precepts.
<sup>79</sup>Let those who fear you turn to
 me.
 They will know your
 statutes.
<sup>80</sup>Let my heart be blameless
 toward your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.

KAF

<sup>81</sup>My soul faints for your salvation.
 I hope in your word.
<sup>82</sup>My eyes fail for your word.
 I say, "When will you
 comfort me?"
<sup>83</sup>For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke.
 I do not forget your statutes.
<sup>84</sup>How many are the days of your
 servant?
 When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?
<sup>85</sup>The proud have dug pits for me,
 contrary to your Law.

Psalm 119

They persecute me wrongfully.

Help me.

<sup>87</sup>They had almost wiped me from the earth,
but I did not forsake your precepts.

<sup>88</sup>Preserve my life according to your loving kindness,
so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness is to all generations.

You have established the earth, and it remains.

<sup>91</sup>Your laws remain to this day,
for all things serve you.

<sup>92</sup>Unless your Law had been my delight,

I would have perished in my affliction.

<sup>93</sup>I will never forget your precepts,
for with them, you have revived me.

<sup>94</sup>I am yours.

Save me, for I have sought your precepts.

<sup>95</sup>The wicked have waited for me,
to destroy me.

I will consider your statutes.

<sup>96</sup>I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but your commands are boundless.

MEM

<sup>97</sup>How I love your Law.

It is my meditation all day.

<sup>98</sup>Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,

for your commandments are always with me.

<sup>99</sup>I have more understanding than all my teachers,
for your testimonies are my meditation.

<sup>100</sup>I understand more than the aged,

because I have kept your precepts.

<sup>101</sup>I have kept my feet from every evil way,
that I might observe your word.

<sup>102</sup>I have not turned aside from your ordinances,
for you have taught me.

<sup>103</sup>How sweet are your promises to my taste,
more than honey to my mouth.

<sup>104</sup>Through your precepts, I get understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

<sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp to my feet,
and a light for my path.

<sup>106</sup>I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
that I will obey your righteous ordinances.

<sup>107</sup>I am afflicted very much.
Revive me, LORD, according to your word.

<sup>108</sup>Please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth,

LORD, and teach me your
ordinances.
<sup>109</sup>My soul is continually in my<sup>a</sup>
hand,
yet I won't forget your Law.
<sup>110</sup>The wicked have laid a snare for
me,
yet I haven't gone astray
from your precepts.
<sup>111</sup>I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever,
for they are the joy of my
heart.
<sup>112</sup>I have set my heart to perform
your statutes forever,
even to the end.

SAMEKH

<sup>113</sup>I hate double-minded men,
but I love your Law.
<sup>114</sup>You are my hiding place and my shield.
I hope in your word.
<sup>115</sup>Depart from me, you evildoers,
that I may keep the commandments of my
God.
<sup>116</sup>Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.
Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
<sup>117</sup>Hold me up, and I will be safe,
and will have respect for
your statutes
continually.

<sup>118</sup>You reject all those who stray
from your statutes,
for their deceit is in vain.
<sup>119</sup>You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.
Therefore I love your
testimonies.
<sup>120</sup>My flesh trembles for fear of
you.
I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

<sup>121</sup>I have done what is just and
righteous.
Do not leave me to my
oppressors.
<sup>122</sup>Ensure your servant's well-being.
Do not let the proud oppress
me.
<sup>123</sup>My eyes fail looking for your
salvation,
for your righteous word.
<sup>124</sup>Deal with your servant
according to your
loving kindness.
Teach me your statutes.
<sup>125</sup>I am your servant. Give me
understanding,
that I may know your
testimonies.
<sup>126</sup>It is time to act, LORD,
for they break your Law.
<sup>127</sup>Therefore I love your commandments more than gold,
yes, more than pure gold.
<sup>128</sup>Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.
I hate every false way.

Psalm 119

<sup>129</sup>Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps
them.

<sup>130</sup>The entrance of your words

after wickedness.

They are far from your Law.

All your commandments are
truth.

Psalm 120

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>In my distress, I cried to the LORD.
He answered me.
<sup>2</sup>Deliver my soul, LORD, from lying lips,
from a deceitful tongue.
<sup>3</sup>What will be given to you, and what will be done
more to you,
you deceitful tongue?
<sup>4</sup>Sharp arrows of the mighty,
with coals of juniper.
<sup>5</sup>Woe is me, that I live in Meshech,
that I dwell among the tents
of Kedar.
<sup>6</sup>My soul has had her dwelling too
long
with him who hates peace.
<sup>7</sup>I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are
for war.

Psalm 121

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
Where does my help come from?
<sup>2</sup>My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.
<sup>3</sup>He will not allow your foot to be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber.
<sup>4</sup>Look, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor
sleep.
<sup>5</sup>The LORD is your keeper.
The LORD is your shade on
your right hand.
<sup>6</sup>The sun will not harm you by
day,
nor the moon by night.
<sup>7</sup>The LORD will keep you from all
evil.
He will keep your soul.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD will keep your going out and your coming
in,
from this time forth, and
forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of Ascents. By David.

- <sup>1</sup>I was glad when they said to me, “Let’s go to the LORD’s
house.”
<sup>2</sup>Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem;

<sup>3</sup>Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact<sup>a</sup>
together;
<sup>4</sup>where the tribes go up, even the tribes of the LORD,<sup>b</sup>
according to an ordinance
for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of
the LORD.
<sup>5</sup>For there are set thrones for
judgment,
the thrones of David's
house.
<sup>6</sup>Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.
Those who love you will prosper.
<sup>7</sup>Peace be within your walls,
and prosperity within your
palaces.
<sup>8</sup>For my brothers' and companions' sakes,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."
<sup>9</sup>For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>To you I do lift up my eyes,
you who sit in the heavens.
<sup>2</sup>Look, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their
master,
as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;
so our eyes look to the LORD, our God,

until he has mercy on us.
<sup>3</sup>Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much
contempt.
<sup>4</sup>Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease,
with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup>If it had not been the LORD who
was on our side,
let Israel now say,
<sup>2</sup>if it had not been the LORD who
was on our side,
when men rose up against
us;
<sup>3</sup>then they would have swallowed
us up alive,
when their wrath was
kindled against us;
<sup>4</sup>then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
the stream would have gone
over our soul;
<sup>5</sup>then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
<sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD,
who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
<sup>7</sup>Our soul has escaped like a bird
out of the fowler's snare.
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
<sup>8</sup>Our help is in the name of the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

<sup>a</sup>122:3 Or, "that has a company"

<sup>b</sup>122:4 Hebrew: "Yah"

Psalm 125

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>Those who trust in the LORD are as Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but remains forever.

<sup>2</sup>As the mountains surround
Jerusalem,
so the LORD surrounds his people from this time
forth and forevermore.

<sup>3</sup>For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the
righteous;
so that the righteous won't use their hands to do
evil.

<sup>4</sup>Do good, LORD, to those who are
good,
to those who are upright in their hearts.

<sup>5</sup>But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
The LORD will lead them
away with evildoers.

Peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>When the LORD brought back those who returned to Zion,
we were like those who dream.

<sup>2</sup>Then our mouth was filled with
laughter,
and our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,

“The LORD has done great things for them.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD has done great things
for us,
and we are glad.

<sup>4</sup>Restore our fortunes again,
LORD,
like the streams in the Negev.

<sup>5</sup>Those who sow in tears will reap
in joy.

<sup>6</sup>He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will certainly come again
with joy, carrying his sheaves.

Psalm 127

A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>Unless the LORD builds the
house,
they labor in vain who build
it.

Unless the LORD watches over the
city,
the watchman guards it in vain.

<sup>2</sup>It is vain for you to rise up early,
to stay up late,
eating the bread of toil;
for he gives sleep to his loved ones.

<sup>3</sup>Look, children are a heritage of
the LORD.
The fruit of the womb is his reward.

<sup>4</sup>As arrows in the hand of a mighty
man,
so are the children of youth.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed is the man who has his quiver full of them.

They won't be disappointed
when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD,
who walks in his ways.
<sup>2</sup>For you will eat the labor of your
hands;
you will be blessed, and it will be well with you.
<sup>3</sup>Your wife will be as a fruitful
vine,
in the innermost parts of
your house;
your children like olive plants,
around your table.
<sup>4</sup>Look, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.
<sup>5</sup>May the LORD bless you out of Zion,
and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days
of your life.
<sup>6</sup>Yes, may you see your children's
children.
Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Many times they have afflicted
me from my youth up.
Let Israel now say,
<sup>2</sup>many times they have afflicted
me from my youth up,

- yet they have not prevailed
against me.
<sup>3</sup>The plowers plowed on my back.
They made their furrows
long.
<sup>4</sup>The LORD is righteous.
He has cut apart the cords of
the wicked.
<sup>5</sup>Let them be disappointed and
turned backward,
all those who hate Zion.
<sup>6</sup>Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
which withers before it
grows up;
<sup>7</sup>with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand,
nor he who binds sheaves,
his bosom.
<sup>8</sup>Neither do those who go by say,
"The blessing of the LORD
be on you.
We bless you in the name of
the LORD."

Psalm 130

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Out of the depths I have cried to
you, LORD.
<sup>2</sup>Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my
petitions.
<sup>3</sup>If you, LORD,<sup>a</sup> kept a record of
sins,
Lord, who could stand?
<sup>4</sup>But there is forgiveness with you,
therefore you are feared.
<sup>5</sup>I wait for the LORD.

<sup>a</sup>130:3 Hebrew: "Yah"

My soul waits.
I hope in his word.

<sup>6</sup>My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long
for the morning;
more than watchmen for the
morning.

<sup>7</sup>Israel, hope in the LORD,
for with the LORD there is
loving kindness.
With him is abundant redemption.

<sup>8</sup>He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, my heart isn't haughty,
nor my eyes lofty;
nor do I concern myself with great matters,
or things too wonderful for
me.

<sup>2</sup>Surely I have stilled and quieted
my soul,
like a weaned child with his
mother,
like a weaned child is my soul within me.

<sup>3</sup>Israel, hope in the LORD,
from this time forth and
forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, remember David and all his affliction,

<sup>2</sup>how he swore to the LORD,

and vowed to the Mighty
One of Jacob:

<sup>3</sup>“Surely I will not come into the structure of my house,
nor go up into my bed;

<sup>4</sup>I will not give sleep to my eyes,
or slumber to my eyelids;

<sup>5</sup>until I find out a place for the LORD,
a dwelling for the Mighty
One of Jacob.”

<sup>6</sup>Look, we heard of it in Ephrathah.

We found it in the field of Jaar:

<sup>7</sup>“We will go into his dwelling
place.

We will worship at his footstool.

<sup>8</sup>Arise, LORD, to your resting
place,
you and the ark of your
strength.

<sup>9</sup>Let your priest be clothed with
righteousness.
Let your faithful ones shout
for joy.”

<sup>10</sup>For your servant David's sake, do not turn away the face of your anointed one.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD has sworn to David in truth.

He will not turn from it:
“I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.

<sup>12</sup>If your children will keep my
covenant,
my testimony that I will teach them,
their children also will sit on your throne
forevermore.”

<sup>13</sup>For the LORD has chosen Zion;
he has desired it for his dwelling.

<sup>14</sup>“This is my resting place forever.

Here I will live, for I have desired it.

<sup>15</sup>I will abundantly bless her provision.

I will satisfy her poor with
bread.

<sup>16</sup>Her priests I will also clothe with
salvation.

Her faithful ones will shout
aloud for joy.

<sup>17</sup>There I will make the horn of David to bud.

I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.

<sup>18</sup>I will clothe his enemies with
shame,

but on himself, his crown
will be resplendent.”

Psalm 133

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup>See how good and how pleasant it
is

for brothers to live together
in unity.

<sup>2</sup>It is like the precious oil on the head,

that ran down on the beard,
even Aaron’s beard;
that came down on the edge
of his robes;

<sup>3</sup>like the dew of Hermon,
that comes down on the hills
of Zion:

for there the LORD gives the blessing,
even life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>Look. Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD,
who stand by night in the LORD’s house.

<sup>2</sup>Lift up your hands in the
sanctuary.

Praise the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>May the LORD bless you from Zion;
even he who made heaven
and earth.

Psalm 135

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

Praise the name of the
LORD.

Praise him, you servants of
the LORD,

<sup>2</sup>you who stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of our God’s
house.

<sup>3</sup>Praise the LORD,<sup>b</sup> for the LORD is
good.

Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.

<sup>4</sup>For the LORD<sup>c</sup> has chosen Jacob for himself;
Israel for his own
possession.

<sup>5</sup>For I know that the LORD is
great,

<sup>b</sup>135:3 Hebrew: “Yah”

<sup>c</sup>135:4 Hebrew: “Yah”

that our Lord is above all
gods.
<sup>6</sup>Whatever the LORD pleased, that
he has done,
in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;
<sup>7</sup>who causes the clouds to rise
from the farthest parts
of the earth;
who makes lightnings with
the rain;
who brings forth the wind
out of his treasuries;
<sup>8</sup>Who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
both of man and animal;
<sup>9</sup>Who sent signs and wonders into
the midst of you,
Egypt,
on Pharaoh, and on all his
servants;
<sup>10</sup>who struck many nations,
and killed mighty kings,
<sup>11</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan,
<sup>12</sup>and gave their land for a heritage,
a heritage to Israel, his
people.
<sup>13</sup>Your name, LORD, endures
forever;
your renown, LORD,
throughout all
generations.
<sup>14</sup>For the LORD will judge his
people,
and have compassion on his
servants.
<sup>15</sup>The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.
<sup>16</sup>They have mouths, but they can't
speak.

They have eyes, but they can't see.
<sup>17</sup>They have ears, but they can't hear;
neither is there any breath in
their mouths.
<sup>18</sup>Those who make them will be
like them;
yes, everyone who trusts in
them.
<sup>19</sup>House of Israel, praise the LORD.
House of Aaron, praise the
LORD.
<sup>20</sup>House of Levi, praise the LORD.
You who fear the LORD,
praise the LORD.
<sup>21</sup>Blessed be the LORD from Zion,
who dwells at Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 136

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he
is good;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
<sup>2</sup>Give thanks to the God of gods;
for his loving kindness
endures forever.
<sup>3</sup>Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:
<sup>4</sup>To him who alone does great wonders;
for his loving kindness
endures forever:

for his loving kindness
endures forever:

Psalm 137

- <sup>1</sup>By the rivers of Babylon, there
we sat down.
Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
- <sup>2</sup>On the willows in its midst,
we hung up our harps.
- <sup>3</sup>For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
Those who tormented us demanded songs of
joy:
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
- <sup>4</sup>How can we sing the LORD’s song in a foreign land?
- <sup>5</sup>If I forget you, Jerusalem,
let my right hand forget its skill.
- <sup>6</sup>Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you;
if I do not prefer Jerusalem
above my chief joy.
- <sup>7</sup>Remember, LORD, against the children of Edom,
the day of Jerusalem;
who said, “Raze it.
Raze it even to its foundation.”
- <sup>8</sup>Daughter of Babylon, doomed to
destruction,
he will be blessed who rewards you,
as you have served us.
- <sup>9</sup>Blessed shall he be who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

Psalm 138

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>I will give you thanks with my
whole heart.
Before the angels,<sup>a</sup> I will sing praises to you.
- <sup>2</sup>I will bow down toward your holy
temple,
and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your
truth;
for you have exalted your Name and your word
above all.
- <sup>3</sup>In the day that I called, you
answered me.
You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
- <sup>4</sup>All the kings of the earth will give you thanks,
LORD,
for they have heard the words of your mouth.
- <sup>5</sup>Yes, they will sing of the ways of
the LORD;
for great is the LORD’s
glory.
- <sup>6</sup>For though the LORD is high, yet
he looks after the lowly;
but the proud, he knows
from afar.
- <sup>7</sup>Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me.
You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath
of my enemies.

---

<sup>a</sup>138:1 MT Hebrew “elohim.” LXX:
“angels”

Your right hand will save
me.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD will fulfill that which concerns me;
your loving kindness, LORD,
endures forever.
Do not forsake the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, you have searched me,
and you know me.
<sup>2</sup>You know my sitting down and my rising up.
You perceive my thoughts
from afar.
<sup>3</sup>You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.
<sup>4</sup>For there is not a word on my tongue,
but, look, LORD, you know
it altogether.
<sup>5</sup>You encircle me behind and in front,
and you place your hand
upon me.
<sup>6</sup>This knowledge is beyond me.
It's lofty.
I can't attain it.
<sup>7</sup>Where could I go from your Spirit?
Or where could I flee from
your presence?
<sup>8</sup>If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
If I make my bed in Sheol,
look, you are there.
<sup>9</sup>If I take the wings of the dawn,

and settle in the uttermost
parts of the sea;
<sup>10</sup>Even there your hand will lead
me,
and your right hand will hold me.
<sup>11</sup>If I say, "Surely the darkness
will overwhelm me;
the light around me will be
night;"
<sup>12</sup>even the darkness doesn't hide
from you,
but the night shines as the
day.
The darkness is like light to
you.
<sup>13</sup>For you formed my inmost
being.
You knit me together in my
mother's womb.
<sup>14</sup>I will give thanks to you,
for I am awesomely and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful.
My soul knows that very well.
<sup>15</sup>My frame wasn't hidden from
you,
when I was made in secret,
woven together in the depths
of the earth.
<sup>16</sup>Your eyes saw my body.
In your book they were all
written,
the days that were ordained
for me,
when as yet there were none
of them.
<sup>17</sup>How precious to me are your thoughts, God.
How vast is the sum of
them.
<sup>18</sup>If I would count them, they are more in number than
the sand.

When I wake up, I am still
with you.
<sup>19</sup>If only you, God, would kill the
wicked.
Get away from me, you
bloodthirsty men.
<sup>20</sup>For they speak against you
wickedly.
Your enemies take your name in vain.
<sup>21</sup>LORD, do I not hate those who hate you?
Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
<sup>22</sup>I hate them with perfect hatred.
They have become my
enemies.
<sup>23</sup>Search me, God, and know my
heart.
Try me, and know my thoughts.
<sup>24</sup>See if there is any wicked way in
me,
and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm
by David.

<sup>1</sup>Deliver me, LORD, from the evil
man.
Preserve me from the violent
man;
<sup>2</sup>those who devise mischief in their hearts.
They continually gather themselves together
for war.
<sup>3</sup>They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.

Viper's poison is under their
lips.
Selah.
<sup>4</sup>LORD, keep me from the hands of
the wicked.
Preserve me from the violent
men who have determined to trip my
feet.
<sup>5</sup>The proud have hidden a snare for
me,
they have spread the cords
of a net by the path.
They have set traps for me.
Selah.
<sup>6</sup>I said to the LORD, "You are my God."
Listen to the cry of my petitions, LORD.
<sup>7</sup>LORD, the Lord, the strength of
my salvation,
you have covered my head
in the day of battle.
<sup>8</sup>LORD, do not grant the desires of
the wicked.
Do not let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.
Selah.
<sup>9</sup>As for the head of those who surround me,
let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
<sup>10</sup>Let burning coals fall on them.
Let them be thrown into the
fire,
into miry pits, from where they never rise.
<sup>11</sup>An evil speaker won't be established in the
earth.
Evil will hunt the violent
man to overthrow him.
<sup>12</sup>I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of
the afflicted,

and justice for the needy.
<sup>13</sup>Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.
 The upright will dwell in
 your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, I have called on you.
 Come to me quickly.
 Listen to my voice when I
 call to you.
<sup>2</sup>Let my prayer be set before you like incense;
 the lifting up of my hands
 like the evening
 sacrifice.
<sup>3</sup>Set a watch, LORD, before my
 mouth.
 Keep the door of my lips.
<sup>4</sup>Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
 to practice deeds of wickedness with men
 who work iniquity.
 Do not let me eat of their
 delicacies.
<sup>5</sup>Let the righteous strike me, it is
 kindness;
 let him reprove me, it is like
 oil on the head;
 do not let my head refuse it;
 Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.
<sup>6</sup>Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.
 They will hear my words,
 for they are well
 spoken.
<sup>7</sup>“As when one plows and breaks
 up the earth,

our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.”
<sup>8</sup>For my eyes are on you, LORD,
 the Lord.
 In you, I take refuge.
 Do not leave my soul
 destitute.
<sup>9</sup>Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me,
 from the traps of evildoers.
<sup>10</sup>Let the wicked fall together into their own nets,
 while I pass by.

Psalm 142

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

<sup>1</sup>I cry with my voice to the LORD.
 With my voice, I ask the LORD for mercy.
<sup>2</sup>I pour out my complaint before
 him.
 I tell him my troubles.
<sup>3</sup>When my spirit was overwhelmed
 within me,
 you knew my path.
 In the way in which I walk,
 they have hidden a snare for
 me.
<sup>4</sup>Look on my right, and see;
 for there is no one who is concerned for me.
 Refuge has fled from me.
 No one cares for my soul.
<sup>5</sup>I cried to you, LORD.
 I said, “You are my refuge,
 my portion in the land of the living.”
<sup>6</sup>Listen to my cry,
 for I am in desperate need.
 Deliver me from my persecutors,

for they are stronger than
me.

<sup>7</sup>Bring my soul out of prison,
that I may give thanks to
your name.

The righteous will surround me,
for you will be good to me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, LORD.
Listen to my petitions.
In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve
me.

<sup>2</sup>Do not enter into judgment with
your servant,
for in your sight no man
living is righteous.

<sup>3</sup>For the enemy pursues my soul.
He has struck my life down
to the ground.
He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within
me.

My heart within me is desolate.

<sup>5</sup>I remember the days of old.
I meditate on all your doings.

I contemplate the work of
your hands.

<sup>6</sup>I spread forth my hands to you.
My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land.

Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Hurry to answer me, LORD.
My spirit fails.

Do not hide your face from me,

so that I do not become like those who go down
into the pit.

<sup>8</sup>Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the
morning,
for I trust in you.

Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
for I lift up my soul to you.

<sup>9</sup>Deliver me, LORD, from my
enemies.

I flee to you to hide me.

<sup>10</sup>Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.

Your Spirit is good.
Lead me in the land of
uprightness.

<sup>11</sup>Revive me, LORD, for your name's sake.

In your righteousness, bring
my soul out of trouble.

<sup>12</sup>In your loving kindness, cut off
my enemies,
and destroy all those who afflict my soul,
For I am your servant.

Psalm 144

By David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed be the LORD, my Rock, who teaches my hands to
war,

and my fingers to battle:

<sup>2</sup>my loving kindness, my fortress,
my high tower, my deliverer,
my shield, and he in whom I
take refuge;

who subdues peoples<sup>a</sup> under me.
<sup>3</sup>LORD, what is man, that you care for him?
 Or the son of man, that you think of him?
<sup>4</sup>Man is like a breath.
 His days are like a shadow that passes away.
<sup>5</sup>Part your heavens, LORD, and come down.
 Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
<sup>6</sup>Throw out lightning, and scatter them.
 Send out your arrows, and rout them.
<sup>7</sup>Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hands of foreigners;
<sup>8</sup>whose mouths speak deceit, Whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
<sup>9</sup>I will sing a new song to you, God.
 On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to you.
<sup>10</sup>You are he who gives salvation to kings,
 who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.
<sup>11</sup>Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners, whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

<sup>12</sup>Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants,
 our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
<sup>13</sup>Our storehouses are full, filled with all kinds of provision.
 Our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
<sup>14</sup>Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
 There is no breaking in, and no going away,
 and no outcry in our streets.
<sup>15</sup>Blessed are the people who are in such a situation.
 Blessed are the people whose God is the LORD.

Psalm 146

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>
Praise the LORD, my soul.
<sup>2</sup>While I live, I will praise the
LORD.
I will sing praises to my God
as long as I exist.
<sup>3</sup>Do not put your trust in princes,
each a son of man in whom
there is no help.
<sup>4</sup>His spirit departs, and he returns
to the earth.
In that very day, his thoughts
perish.
<sup>5</sup>Blessed is the one who has the God of Jacob for his
help,
whose hope is in the LORD
his God,
<sup>6</sup>who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in
them;
who keeps truth forever;
<sup>7</sup>who executes justice for the
oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry.
The LORD frees the prisoners.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.
The LORD raises up those who are bowed down.
The LORD loves the righteous.

---

<sup>9</sup>The LORD preserves the foreigners.
He upholds the fatherless
and widow,
but the way of the wicked he turns upside down.
<sup>10</sup>The LORD will reign forever;
your God, O Zion, to all
generations.
Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 147

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD,<sup>b</sup>
for it is good to sing praises
to our God;
for it is pleasant and fitting to praise him.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
<sup>3</sup>He heals the broken in heart,
and binds up their wounds.
<sup>4</sup>He counts the number of the stars.
He calls them all by their names.
<sup>5</sup>Great is our Lord, and mighty in
power.
His understanding is infinite.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD upholds the humble.
He brings the wicked down
to the ground.
<sup>7</sup>Sing to the LORD with
thanksgiving.
Sing praises on the harp to
our God,
<sup>8</sup>who covers the sky with clouds,
who prepares rain for the
earth,

who makes grass grow on
the mountains.
<sup>9</sup>He provides food for the livestock,
and for the young ravens
when they call.
<sup>10</sup>He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear him,
in those who hope in his
loving kindness.
<sup>12</sup>Praise the LORD, Jerusalem.
Praise your God, Zion.
<sup>13</sup>For he has strengthened the bars
of your gates.
He has blessed your children
within you.
<sup>14</sup>He makes peace in your borders.
He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
<sup>15</sup>He sends out his commandment
to the earth.
His word runs very swiftly.
<sup>16</sup>He gives snow like wool,
and scatters frost like ashes.
<sup>17</sup>He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
Who can stand before his cold?
<sup>18</sup>He sends out his word, and melts
them.
He causes his wind to blow,
and the waters flow.
<sup>19</sup>He shows his word to Jacob;
his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
<sup>20</sup>He has not done this for just any
nation.
They do not know his
ordinances.

<sup>b</sup>147:1 Hebrew: "Yah"

Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 148

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>b</sup>
 Praise the LORD from the
 heavens.
 Praise him in the heights.
<sup>2</sup>Praise him, all his angels.
 Praise him, all his army.
<sup>3</sup>Praise him, sun and moon.
 Praise him, all you shining stars.
<sup>4</sup>Praise him, you heavens of
 heavens,
 You waters that are above
 the heavens.
<sup>5</sup>Let them praise the name of the
 LORD,
 For he commanded, and they were created.
<sup>6</sup>He has also established them
 forever and ever.
 He has made a decree which will not pass away.
<sup>7</sup>Praise the LORD from the earth,
 you great sea creatures, and all depths.
<sup>8</sup>Lightning and hail, snow and
 clouds;
 stormy wind, fulfilling his
 word;
<sup>9</sup>mountains and all hills;
 fruit trees and all cedars;
<sup>10</sup>wild animals and all livestock;
 small creatures and flying birds;
<sup>11</sup>kings of the earth and all
 peoples;

princes and all judges of the
 earth;
<sup>12</sup>both young men and maidens;
 old men and children:
<sup>13</sup>let them praise the name of the
 LORD,
 for his name alone is
 exalted.
 His glory is above the earth
 and the heavens.
<sup>14</sup>He has lifted up the horn of his
 people,
 the praise of all his faithful
 ones;
 even of the sons of Israel, a people near to him.
 Praise the LORD.<sup>c</sup>

Psalm 149

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>d</sup> Sing to the LORD a new
 song,
 his praise in the assembly of the faithful ones.
<sup>2</sup>Let Israel rejoice in him who made them.
 Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
<sup>3</sup>Let them praise his name in the dance.
 Let them sing praises to him
 with tambourine and
 harp.
<sup>4</sup>For the LORD takes pleasure in
 his people.
 He crowns the humble with
 salvation.
<sup>5</sup>Let the faithful ones rejoice in
 glory.

<sup>b</sup>148:1 Hebrew: "Yah"

<sup>c</sup>148:14 Hebrew: "Yah"

<sup>d</sup>149:1 Hebrew: "Yah"

Let them sing for joy on their beds.

<sup>6</sup>May the high praises of God be in
their mouths,
and a two-edged sword in
their hand;

<sup>7</sup>To execute vengeance on the
nations,
and punishments on the
peoples;

<sup>8</sup>To bind their kings with chains,
and their nobles with fetters
of iron;

<sup>9</sup>to execute on them the written
judgment.
All his faithful ones have this honor.

Praise the LORD.<sup>a</sup>

Psalm 150

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD.<sup>b</sup>
Praise God in his sanctuary.
Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power.

<sup>2</sup>Praise him for his mighty acts.
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

<sup>3</sup>Praise him with the sounding of
the trumpet.
Praise him with harp and
lyre.

<sup>4</sup>Praise him with tambourine and dancing.
Praise him with stringed instruments and flute.

<sup>5</sup>Praise him with loud cymbals.
Praise him with resounding cymbals.

<sup>6</sup>Let everything that has breath praise the LORD.<sup>c</sup>
Praise the LORD.<sup>d</sup>

Proverbs

1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel:

<sup>2</sup>To know wisdom and instruction,
to discern the words of
understanding.

<sup>3</sup>To receive instruction in wise dealing,
in righteousness, justice, and equity.

<sup>4</sup>To give shrewdness to the inexperienced,
knowledge and discretion to the young man.

<sup>5</sup>A wise man will hear and increase in learning,
and a man of understanding will attain to sound
counsel.

<sup>6</sup>To understand a proverb, and parables,
the words and riddles of the
wise.

<sup>7</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of
knowledge;
but the foolish despise
wisdom and
instruction.

<sup>8</sup>My son, listen to your father's instruction,

---

<sup>b</sup>150:1 Hebrew: "Yah"

---

and do not forsake your
 mother's teaching:
<sup>9</sup>for they will be a garland to grace
 your head,
 and a necklace around your
 neck.
<sup>10</sup>My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
<sup>11</sup>If they say, "Come with us,
 Let's lie in wait for blood;
 let's lurk secretly for the innocent without
 cause;
<sup>12</sup>let's swallow them up alive like Sheol,
 and whole, like those who
 go down into the pit.
<sup>13</sup>We'll find all valuable wealth.
 We'll fill our houses with spoil.
<sup>14</sup>Throw in your lot with us.
 We'll all have one purse."
<sup>15</sup>My son, do not walk in the way
 with them.
 Keep your foot from their
 path,
<sup>16</sup>for their feet run to evil.
 They hurry to shed blood.
<sup>17</sup>For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird:
<sup>18</sup>but these lie in wait for their own
 blood.
 They lurk secretly for their own lives.
<sup>19</sup>So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.
 It takes away the life of its owners.
<sup>20</sup>Wisdom calls aloud in the street.
 She utters her voice in the public squares.
<sup>21</sup>She calls at the head of noisy
 places.

At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her
 words:
<sup>22</sup>"How long, you simple ones,
 will you love
 simplicity?
 How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery,
 and fools hate knowledge?
<sup>23</sup>Turn at my reproof.
 Look, I will pour out my spirit on you.
 I will make known my words to you.
<sup>24</sup>Because I have called, and you have refused;
 I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;
<sup>25</sup>but you have ignored all my
 counsel,
 and wanted none of my
 reproof;
<sup>26</sup>I also will laugh at your disaster.
 I will mock when calamity
 overtakes you;
<sup>27</sup>when calamity overtakes you
 like a storm,
 when your disaster comes on
 like a whirlwind;
 when distress and anguish
 come on you.
<sup>28</sup>Then will they call on me, but I will not answer.
 They will seek me
 diligently, but they will not find me;
<sup>29</sup>because they hated knowledge,
 and did not choose the fear
 of the LORD.
<sup>30</sup>They wanted none of my
 counsel.
 They despised all my reproof.

Proverbs 2

<sup>31</sup>Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way,
and be filled with their own
schemes.

<sup>32</sup>For the backsliding of the simple will kill them.
The careless ease of fools
will destroy them.

<sup>33</sup>But whoever listens to me will dwell securely,
and will be at ease, without fear of harm.”

2 My son, if you will receive my words,
and store up my commandments within
you;

<sup>2</sup>So as to turn your ear to wisdom,
and apply your heart to
understanding;

<sup>3</sup>Yes, if you call out for discernment,
and lift up your voice for
understanding;

<sup>4</sup>If you seek her as silver,
and search for her as for
hidden treasures:

<sup>5</sup>then you will understand the fear
of the LORD,
and find the knowledge of
God.

<sup>6</sup>For the LORD gives wisdom.
Out of his mouth comes knowledge and
understanding.

<sup>7</sup>He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.

He is a shield to those who
walk in integrity;

<sup>8</sup>that he may guard the paths of
justice,

and preserve the way of his faithful ones.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Then you will understand righteousness and
justice,
equity and every good path.

<sup>10</sup>For wisdom will enter into your
heart.

Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

<sup>11</sup>Discretion will watch over you.
Understanding will keep
you,

<sup>12</sup>to deliver you from the way of
evil,

from the men who speak
perverse things;

<sup>13</sup>who forsake the paths of
uprightness,
to walk in the ways of
darkness;

<sup>14</sup>who rejoice to do evil,
and delight in the
perverseness of evil;

<sup>15</sup>who are crooked in their ways,
and wayward in their paths:

<sup>16</sup>To deliver you from the strange
woman,
even from the foreigner who flatters with her
words;

<sup>17</sup>who forsakes the friend of her
youth,
and forgets the covenant of her God:

<sup>18</sup>for her house leads down to
death,

her paths to the dead.

<sup>19</sup>None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life:

---

<sup>a</sup>2:8 So MT Qere LXX Syr. MT Kethib reads sg

<sup>20</sup>that you may walk in the way of good men,
and keep the paths of the
righteous.

<sup>21</sup>For the upright will dwell in the land.

The perfect will remain in it.

<sup>22</sup>But the wicked will be cut off from the land.

The treacherous will be rooted out of it.

3 My son, do not forget
my teaching;
but let your heart keep
my commandments:

<sup>2</sup>for length of days, and years of
life,
and peace, will they add to
you.

<sup>3</sup>Do not let kindness and truth
forsake you.

Bind them around your neck.

Write them on the tablet of
your heart.

<sup>4</sup>So you will find favor,
and good understanding in the sight of God and
man.

<sup>5</sup>Trust in the LORD with all your
heart,
and do not lean on your own
understanding.

<sup>6</sup>In all your ways acknowledge
him,
and he will make your paths
straight.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be wise in your own eyes.
Fear the LORD, and depart
from evil.

<sup>8</sup>It will be health to your body,
and nourishment to your
bones.

<sup>9</sup>Honor the LORD with your
substance,
with the first fruits of all
your increase:

<sup>10</sup>so your storehouses will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will overflow
with new wine.

<sup>11</sup>My son, do not despise the discipline of the
LORD,
nor resent his correction.

<sup>12</sup>For whom the LORD loves he disciplines,
and punishes<sup>a</sup> every<sup>b</sup> son he accepts.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Blessed is the man who finds
wisdom,
the man who gets
understanding.

<sup>14</sup>For her good profit is better than getting silver,
and her return is better than
fine gold.

<sup>15</sup>She is more precious than rubies.

<sup>a</sup>3:12 So LXX cf. BHS, reading
mastigoi de = מַסְתִּיגִים “and punishes.”

MT reads מַסְתִּיגִים “and as a father,” a scribal misreading of the consonantal
text

<sup>b</sup>3:12 So LXX, reading panta = kl. MT lacks “every” from haplography by graphic confusion: כֹּל

<sup>c</sup>3:12 Revocalization based on LXX, reading paradechetai (Thayer 3983:
“2...to accept, receive”) = yeratseh (Niph) “accepts” (Hol8041: “nif...be treated as acceptable”). MT vocalizes
the same consonantal text as yirtseh (Qal) “delights” (Hol8041: “qal...be pleased with”). LXX translates Heb yirtseh as eudokeo “delight in,
pleased,” in Job 14:16 and Psalm 147:10. Hebrews 12:5-6

None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
<sup>16</sup>Length of days is in her right
 hand.
 In her left hand are riches
 and honor.
<sup>17</sup>Her ways are ways of pleasantness.
 All her paths are peace.
<sup>18</sup>She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her,
 and those who hold on to her
 are blessed.
<sup>19</sup>By wisdom the LORD founded
 the earth.
 By understanding, he established the
 heavens.
<sup>20</sup>By his knowledge, the depths
 were broken up,
 and the skies drop down the dew.
<sup>21</sup>My son, let them not depart from
 your eyes.
 Keep sound wisdom and discretion:
<sup>22</sup>so they will be life to your soul,
 and grace for your neck.
<sup>23</sup>Then you shall walk in your way securely,
 and your foot won't stumble.
<sup>24</sup>When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
 you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
<sup>25</sup>Do not be afraid of sudden fear,
 or of the storm of the wicked
 when it comes:
<sup>26</sup>for the LORD will be your confidence,
 and will keep your foot from being taken.
<sup>27</sup>Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,

when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
<sup>28</sup>Do not say to your neighbor,
 "Go, and come again;
 tomorrow I will give it to
 you,"
 when you have it by you.
<sup>29</sup>Do not devise evil against your
 neighbor,
 seeing he dwells securely by
 you.
<sup>30</sup>Do not strive with a man without
 cause,
 if he has done you no harm.
<sup>31</sup>Do not envy the man of violence.
 Choose none of his ways.
<sup>32</sup>For the perverse is an abomination to the
 LORD,
 but his friendship is with the
 upright.
<sup>33</sup>The LORD's curse is in the house
 of the wicked,
 but he blesses the habitation
 of the righteous.
<sup>34</sup>Surely he is scornful to scoffers,<sup>a</sup>
 but he gives grace to the humble.<sup>b</sup> <sup>35</sup>The wise will inherit glory,
 but shame will be the promotion of fools.

4 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.
 Pay attention and know
 understanding;

<sup>2</sup>for I give you sound learning.

Do not forsake my law.

<sup>3</sup>For I was a son to my father,

---

<sup>b</sup>3:34 James 4:6; 1Peter 5:5

- tender and an only child in the sight of my
mother.
- <sup>4</sup>He taught me, and said to me:
“Let your heart retain my
words.
Keep my commandments,
and live.
- <sup>5</sup>Get wisdom.
Get understanding.
Do not forget, neither swerve from the words
of my mouth.
- <sup>6</sup>Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you.
Love her, and she will keep
you.
- <sup>7</sup>Wisdom is supreme.
Get wisdom.
Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get
understanding.
- <sup>8</sup>Esteem her, and she will exalt
you.
She will bring you to honor,
when you embrace
her.
- <sup>9</sup>She will give to your head a garland of grace.
She will deliver a crown of splendor to you.”
- <sup>10</sup>Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.
The years of your life will be many.
- <sup>11</sup>I have taught you in the way of wisdom.
I have led you in straight
paths.
- <sup>12</sup>When you go, your steps will not be hampered.
When you run, you will not stumble.
- <sup>13</sup>Take firm hold of instruction.
Do not let her go.
- Keep her, for she is your
life.
- <sup>14</sup>Do not enter into the path of the
wicked.
Do not walk in the way of evil men.
- <sup>15</sup>Avoid it, and do not pass by it.
Turn from it, and pass on.
- <sup>16</sup>For they do not sleep, unless they do evil.
Their sleep is taken away,
unless they make someone fall.
- <sup>17</sup>For they eat the bread of
wickedness,
and drink the wine of
violence.
- <sup>18</sup>But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light,
that shines more and more
until the perfect day.
- <sup>19</sup>The way of the wicked is like
darkness.
They do not know what they stumble over.
- <sup>20</sup>My son, attend to my words.
Turn your ear to my sayings.
- <sup>21</sup>Let them not depart from your
eyes.
Keep them in the midst of
your heart.
- <sup>22</sup>For they are life to him who finds them,
and health to all of his body.
- <sup>23</sup>Guard your heart with all diligence,
for out of it is the wellspring
of life.
- <sup>24</sup>Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
Put corrupt lips far from
you.
- <sup>25</sup>Let your eyes look straight ahead.

Fix your gaze directly before
you.

<sup>26</sup>Make the path of your feet level.<sup>a</sup>

Let all of your ways be established.

<sup>27</sup>Do not turn to the right hand nor to the left.

Remove your foot from evil.

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.

Turn your ear to my
understanding:

<sup>2</sup>that you may maintain discretion,
that your lips may preserve
knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.

Her mouth is smoother than
oil,

<sup>4</sup>But in the end she is as bitter as
wormwood,
and as sharp as a two-edged
sword.

<sup>5</sup>Her feet go down to death.
Her steps lead straight to Sheol.

<sup>6</sup>She gives no thought to the way
of life.

Her ways are crooked, and
she doesn't know it.

<sup>7</sup>Now therefore, son,<sup>b</sup> listen to me.

Do not depart from the words of my mouth.

<sup>8</sup>Remove your way far from her.
Do not come near the door
of her house,

<sup>9</sup>lest you give your honor to others,

and your years to the merciless;

<sup>10</sup>lest strangers feast on your wealth,

and your labors enrich another man's house.

<sup>11</sup>You will groan at your latter end,
when your flesh and your body are consumed,

<sup>12</sup>and say, "How I have hated
instruction,
and my heart despised
reproof;

<sup>13</sup>neither have I obeyed the voice
of my teachers,
nor turned my ear to those who instructed me.

<sup>14</sup>I have come to the brink of utter ruin,
in the midst of the gathered
assembly."

<sup>15</sup>Drink water out of your own cistern,
running water out of your own well.

<sup>16</sup>Should your springs overflow in
the streets,
streams of water in the
public squares?

<sup>17</sup>Let them be for yourself alone,
not for strangers with you.

<sup>18</sup>Let your spring be blessed.
Rejoice in the wife of your
youth.

<sup>19</sup>A loving doe and a graceful deer—
let her breasts satisfy you at all times.

Be captivated always with her love.

<sup>20</sup>For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?

Why embrace the bosom of
another?

<sup>a</sup>4:26 Hebrews 12:13

<sup>b</sup>5:7 So LXX Vg cf. BHS. MT reads
"my sons"

<sup>21</sup>For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD.

He examines all his paths.

<sup>22</sup>The evil deeds of the wicked
ensnare him.

The cords of his sin hold him firmly.

<sup>23</sup>He will die for lack of
instruction.

In the greatness of his folly,
he will go astray.

6 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
if you have struck your hand<sup>a</sup> in pledge for a stranger;

<sup>2</sup>You are trapped by the words of
your mouth.

You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.

<sup>3</sup>Do this now, my son, and deliver
yourself,
seeing you have come into the hand of your
neighbor.

Go, humble yourself.

Press your plea with your
neighbor.

<sup>4</sup>Give no sleep to your eyes,
nor slumber to your eyelids.

<sup>5</sup>Free yourself, like a gazelle from
the hand of the hunter,
like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

<sup>6</sup>Go to the ant, you sluggard.

Consider her ways, and be
wise;

<sup>7</sup>which having no chief, overseer,
or ruler,

<sup>8</sup>provides her bread in the summer,
and gathers her food in the harvest.

<sup>9</sup>How long will you sleep,
sluggard?

When will you arise out of your sleep?

<sup>10</sup>A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands
to sleep:

<sup>11</sup>so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your scarcity as an armed man.

<sup>12</sup>A worthless person, a man of
iniquity,
is he who walks with a
perverse mouth;

<sup>13</sup>who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet,
who motions with his
fingers;

<sup>14</sup>in whose heart is perverseness,
who devises evil continually,
who always sows discord.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.
He will be broken suddenly,
and that without remedy.

<sup>16</sup>There are six things which the LORD hates;
yes, seven which are an abomination to him:

<sup>17</sup>haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent
blood;

<sup>18</sup>a heart that devises wicked
schemes,
feet that are swift in running
to mischief,

<sup>a</sup>6:1 So Hebrew Mss LXX Syr Vg. MT reads "hands"

Proverbs 7

<sup>19</sup>a false witness who utters lies,
and he who sows discord
among brothers.

<sup>20</sup>My son, keep your father's commandment,
and do not forsake your
mother's teaching.

<sup>21</sup>Bind them continually on your
heart.
Tie them around your neck.

<sup>22</sup>When you walk, it will lead you.
When you sleep, it will watch over you.
When you awake, it will talk
with you.

<sup>23</sup>For the commandment is a lamp,
and the Law is light.
Reproofs of instruction are
the way of life,

<sup>24</sup>to keep you from the immoral
woman,
from the flattery of the foreign woman.

<sup>25</sup>Do not lust after her beauty in
your heart,
neither let her captivate you
with her eyelids.

<sup>26</sup>For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.
The adulteress hunts for your precious life.

<sup>27</sup>Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
and his clothes not be
burned?

<sup>28</sup>Or can one walk on hot coals,
and his feet not be scorched?

<sup>29</sup>So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.

<sup>30</sup>Men do not despise a thief,
if he steals to satisfy himself
when he is hungry:

<sup>31</sup>but if he is found, he must repay
seven times.
He shall give all the wealth
of his house.

<sup>32</sup>He who commits adultery with a woman is void of
understanding.
He who does it destroys his own soul.

<sup>33</sup>He will get wounds and
dishonor.
His reproach will not be wiped away.

<sup>34</sup>For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.
He won't spare in the day of vengeance.

<sup>35</sup>He won't regard any ransom,
neither will he rest content,
though you give many gifts.

7 My son, keep my words.
Lay up my commandments within
you.

<sup>2</sup>Keep my commandments and live.
Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.

<sup>3</sup>Bind them on your fingers.
Write them on the tablet of
your heart.

<sup>4</sup>Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."
Call understanding your relative, <sup>5</sup>that they may keep you from the strange woman,
from the foreigner who flatters with her words.

<sup>6</sup>For at the window of my house,
I looked out through my lattice.

<sup>7</sup>I saw among the simple ones.
 I discerned among the youths a young man
     void of understanding, <sup>8</sup>passing through the street near her corner,
     he went the way to her
     house,
<sup>9</sup>in the twilight, in the evening of the day,
     in the middle of the night
     and in the darkness.
<sup>10</sup>Look, there a woman met him
     with the attire of a prostitute,
     and with crafty intent.
<sup>11</sup>She is loud and defiant.
     Her feet do not stay in her
     house.
<sup>12</sup>Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
     and lurking at every corner.
<sup>13</sup>So she caught him, and kissed
     him.
     With an impudent face she
     said to him:
<sup>14</sup>“Sacrifices of peace offerings are
     with me.
     This day I have paid my
     vows.
<sup>15</sup>Therefore I came out to meet
     you,
     to diligently seek your face,
     and I have found you.
<sup>16</sup>I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry,
     with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
<sup>17</sup>I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
<sup>18</sup>Come, let’s take our fill of loving until the morning.
     Let’s solace ourselves with loving.

<sup>19</sup>For my husband isn’t at home.
     He has gone on a long journey.
<sup>20</sup>He has taken a bag of money
     with him.
     He will come home at the full moon.”
<sup>21</sup>With persuasive words, she led him astray.
     With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.
<sup>22</sup>He followed her immediately,
     as an ox goes to the slaughter,
     as a fool to the correction of the stocks.
<sup>23</sup>Until an arrow strikes through his liver,
     as a bird hurries to the snare,
     and doesn’t know that it will cost his life.
<sup>24</sup>Now therefore, son,<sup>a</sup> listen to me.
     Pay attention to the words of
     my mouth.
<sup>25</sup>Do not let your heart turn to her
     ways.
     Do not go astray in her
     paths,
<sup>26</sup>for she has thrown down many wounded.
     Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.
<sup>27</sup>Her house is the way to Sheol,
     going down to the chambers
     of death.

 out?
 Doesn’t understanding

Proverbs 8

<sup>2</sup>On the top of high places by the way,
where the paths meet, she stands.

<sup>3</sup>Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
at the entry doors, she cries aloud:

<sup>4</sup>“To you men, I call.
I send my voice to the sons of mankind.

<sup>5</sup>You simple, understand prudence.
You fools, be of an understanding heart.

<sup>6</sup>Hear, for I will speak excellent things.
The opening of my lips is for right things.

<sup>7</sup>For my mouth speaks truth.
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

<sup>8</sup>All the words of my mouth are in righteousness.
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.

<sup>9</sup>They are all plain to him who understands,
right to those who find knowledge.

<sup>10</sup>Receive my instruction rather than silver;
knowledge rather than choice gold.

<sup>11</sup>For wisdom is better than rubies.
All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.

<sup>12</sup>“I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling.
Find out knowledge and discretion.

<sup>13</sup>The fear of the LORD is to hate evil.

I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.

<sup>14</sup>Counsel and sound knowledge are mine.
I have understanding and power.

<sup>15</sup>By me kings reign,
and rulers decree justice.

<sup>16</sup>By me princes rule;
nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.

<sup>17</sup>I love those who love me.
Those who seek me diligently will find me.

<sup>18</sup>With me are riches, honor,
enduring wealth, and prosperity.

<sup>19</sup>My fruit is better than gold, yes,
than fine gold;
my yield than choice silver.

<sup>20</sup>I walk in the way of righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of justice;

<sup>21</sup>That I may give wealth to those who love me.
I fill their treasures.

<sup>22</sup>“The LORD created me in the beginning of his way,
before his works of old.

<sup>23</sup>I was set up from everlasting,
from the beginning,
before the earth existed.

<sup>24</sup>When there were no depths, I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.

<sup>25</sup>Before the mountains were settled in place,
before the hills, I was brought forth;

<sup>26</sup>while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,

nor the beginning of the dust
of the world.
<sup>27</sup>When he established the heavens, I was there;
when he set a circle on the surface of the deep, <sup>28</sup>when he established the clouds
above,
when the springs of the deep
became strong,
<sup>29</sup>when he gave to the sea its boundary,
that the waters should not violate his
commandment,
when he marked out the foundations of the
earth;
<sup>30</sup>then I was the craftsman by his
side.
I was a delight day by day,
always rejoicing before him,
<sup>31</sup>Rejoicing in his whole world.
My delight was with the
sons of men.
<sup>32</sup>“Now therefore, son,<sup>a</sup> listen to
me,
for blessed are those who
keep my ways.
<sup>33</sup>Hear instruction, and be wise.
Do not refuse it.
<sup>34</sup>Blessed is the man who hears
me,
watching daily at my gates,
waiting at my door posts.
<sup>35</sup>For whoever finds me, finds life,
and will obtain favor from
the LORD.
<sup>36</sup>But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.

All those who hate me love
death.”

9 Wisdom has built her
house.

She has set up<sup>b</sup> her seven pillars.

<sup>2</sup>She has prepared her meat.
She has mixed her wine.
She has also set her table.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent out her maidens.
She cries from the highest places of the city:

<sup>4</sup>“Whoever is simple, let him turn
in here.”

As for him who is void of understanding, she
says to him,

<sup>5</sup>“Come, eat some of my bread,
Drink some of the wine
which I have mixed.

<sup>6</sup>Leave your simple ways, and live.
Walk in the way of
understanding.”

<sup>7</sup>He who corrects a mocker invites insult.

He who reproves a wicked
man invites abuse.

<sup>8</sup>Do not reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.

Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.

<sup>9</sup>Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser.

Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.

<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom.

<sup>a</sup>8:32 So LXX Vg cf. BHS. MT reads
“my sons”

<sup>b</sup>9:1 So LXX cf. Syr Tg. MT reads
“has carved out”

The knowledge of the Holy
One is understanding.
<sup>11</sup>For by me your days will be multiplied.
The years of your life will be increased.
<sup>12</sup>If you are wise, you are wise for yourself.
If you mock, you alone will bear it.
<sup>13</sup>The foolish woman is loud, Undisciplined, and knows
nothing.
<sup>14</sup>She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the high places
of the city, <sup>15</sup>To call to those who pass by,
who go straight on their
ways, <sup>16</sup>“Whoever is simple, let him turn
in here.”
as for him who is void of
understanding, she
says to him,
<sup>17</sup>“Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret is pleasant.”
<sup>18</sup>But he doesn’t know that the dead are there,
that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

10 The proverbs of Solomon.
A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish son brings grief
to his mother.
<sup>2</sup>Treasures of wickedness profit
nothing,
but righteousness delivers
from death.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to go
hungry,
but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
<sup>4</sup>He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand,
but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.
<sup>5</sup>He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.
<sup>6</sup>Blessings are on the head of the
righteous,
but violence covers the
mouth of the wicked.
<sup>7</sup>The memory of the righteous is blessed,
but the name of the wicked
will rot.
<sup>8</sup>The wise in heart accept
commandments,
but a chattering fool will
fall.
<sup>9</sup>He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways
will be found out.
<sup>10</sup>One winking with the eye causes
sorrow,
but a chattering fool will
fall.
<sup>11</sup>The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life,
but violence covers the
mouth of the wicked.
<sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all wrongs.
<sup>13</sup>Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has
discernment,
but a rod is for the back of him who is void of
understanding.

<sup>14</sup>Wise men lay up knowledge,
but the mouth of the foolish
is near ruin.

<sup>15</sup>The rich man's wealth is his strong city.
The destruction of the poor
is their poverty.

<sup>16</sup>The labor of the righteous leads to life.
The increase of the wicked
leads to sin.

<sup>17</sup>He is in the way of life who heeds correction,
but he who forsakes reproval
leads others astray.

<sup>18</sup>He who hides hatred has lying
lips.
He who utters a slander is a fool.

<sup>19</sup>In the multitude of words there is no lack of
disobedience,
but he who restrains his lips
does wisely.

<sup>20</sup>The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver.
The heart of the wicked is of little worth.

<sup>21</sup>The lips of the righteous feed
many,
but the foolish die for lack of
understanding.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD's blessing brings
wealth,
and he adds no trouble to it.

<sup>23</sup>It is a fool's pleasure to do
wickedness,
but wisdom is a man of understanding's
pleasure.

<sup>24</sup>What the wicked fear, will
overtake them,
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.

<sup>25</sup>When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;
but the righteous stand firm<sup>a</sup>
forever.

<sup>26</sup>As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
so is the sluggard to those who send him.

<sup>27</sup>The fear of the LORD prolongs
days,
but the years of the wicked
shall be shortened.

<sup>28</sup>The prospect of the righteous is
joy,
but the hope of the wicked
will perish.

<sup>29</sup>The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the
upright,
but it is a destruction to
evildoers.

<sup>30</sup>The righteous will never be removed,
but the wicked will not dwell in the land.

<sup>31</sup>The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
but the perverse tongue will
be cut off.

<sup>32</sup>The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,
but the mouth of the wicked
is perverse.

11 A false balance is an abomination to
the LORD,
but accurate weights are his
delight.

<sup>2</sup>When pride comes, then comes
shame,

- <sup>3</sup>The integrity of the upright shall guide them,
but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
- <sup>4</sup>Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
but righteousness delivers from death.
- <sup>5</sup>The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way,
but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
- <sup>6</sup>The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them,
but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.
- <sup>7</sup>When a wicked man dies, hope perishes,
and expectation of power comes to nothing.
- <sup>8</sup>A righteous person is delivered out of trouble,
and the wicked takes his place.
- <sup>9</sup>With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor,
but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.
- <sup>10</sup>When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices.
When the wicked perish,
there is shouting.
- <sup>11</sup>By the blessing of the upright,
the city is exalted,
but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
- <sup>12</sup>One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom,
but a man of understanding holds his peace.

- <sup>13</sup>One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.
- <sup>14</sup>Where there is no wise guidance,
the nation falls,
but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.
- <sup>15</sup>He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it,
but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.
- <sup>16</sup>A gracious woman obtains honor,
but she who hates virtue makes a throne for dishonor.
The slothful become destitute,<sup>a</sup>
and ruthless men grab wealth.
- <sup>17</sup>The merciful man does good to his own soul,
but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
- <sup>18</sup>Wicked people earn deceitful wages,
but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
- <sup>19</sup>He who is truly righteous gets life.
He who pursues evil gets death.

not be unpunished,

abomination to the
LORD.
- <sup>11</sup>Even a child makes himself
known by his doings,
whether his work is pure,
and whether it is right.

rubies;
- but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.
- <sup>16</sup>Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a
stranger;
and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman.
- <sup>17</sup>Fraudulent food is sweet to a
man,
but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.
- <sup>18</sup>Plans are established by advice;
by wise guidance you wage
war.

rash dedication,
then later to consider his
vows.
- <sup>26</sup>A wise king winnows out the
wicked,

wheel over them.
<sup>27</sup>The spirit of man is the LORD's lamp,
searching all his innermost
parts.
<sup>28</sup>Love and faithfulness keep the king safe.
His throne is sustained by
love.
<sup>29</sup>The glory of young men is their
strength.
The splendor of old men is their gray hair.

evil,
and beatings purge the
innermost parts.

21 The king's heart is in the LORD's hand
like the
the watercourses.

He turns it wherever he desires.
<sup>2</sup>Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
but the LORD weighs the
hearts.
<sup>3</sup>To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
<sup>4</sup>A high look, and a proud heart,
the lamp of the wicked, is
sin.
<sup>5</sup>The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit;
and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.
<sup>6</sup>Getting treasures by a lying tongue
is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

<sup>7</sup>The violence of the wicked will drive them away,
because they refuse to do
what is right.
<sup>8</sup>The way of the guilty is devious,
but the conduct of the innocent is upright.
<sup>9</sup>It is better to dwell in the corner
of the housetop,
than to share a house with a contentious woman.
<sup>10</sup>The soul of the wicked desires
evil;
his neighbor finds no mercy
in his eyes.
<sup>11</sup>When the mocker is punished,
the simple gains
wisdom.
When the wise is instructed,
he receives
knowledge.
<sup>12</sup>The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked,
and brings the wicked to
ruin.
<sup>13</sup>Whoever stops his ears at the cry
of the poor,
he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.
<sup>14</sup>A gift in secret pacifies anger;
and a bribe in the cloak,
strong wrath.
<sup>15</sup>It is joy to the righteous to do
justice;
but it is a destruction to
evildoers.
<sup>16</sup>The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the dead.
<sup>17</sup>He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man.
He who loves wine and oil
shall not be rich.
<sup>18</sup>The wicked is a ransom for the
righteous;

- the treacherous for the upright.
- <sup>19</sup>It is better to dwell in a desert land,
than with a contentious and fretful woman.
- <sup>20</sup>There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
but a foolish man swallows it up.
- <sup>21</sup>He who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.
- <sup>22</sup>A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
and brings down the strength of its confidence.
- <sup>23</sup>Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
- <sup>24</sup>The proud and haughty man, “scoffer” is his name;
he works in the arrogance of pride.
- <sup>25</sup>The desire of the sluggard kills him,
for his hands refuse to labor.
- <sup>26</sup>There are those who covet greedily all day long;
but the righteous give and do not withhold.
- <sup>27</sup>The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination:
how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind.
- <sup>28</sup>A false witness will perish,
and a man who listens speaks to eternity.
- <sup>29</sup>A wicked man hardens his face;
but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.

- <sup>30</sup>There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.
- <sup>31</sup>The horse is prepared for the day of battle;
but victory is with the LORD.

22 A good name is more desirable than great riches,
and loving favor is better than silver and gold.

- <sup>2</sup>The rich and the poor have this in common:
The LORD is the maker of them all.
- <sup>3</sup>A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
- <sup>4</sup>The result of humility and the fear of the LORD is wealth, honor, and life.
- <sup>5</sup>Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked:
whoever guards his soul stays from them.
- <sup>6</sup>Train a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.
- <sup>7</sup>The rich rule over the poor.
The borrower is servant to the lender.
- <sup>8</sup>He who sows wickedness reaps trouble,
and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
- <sup>9</sup>He who has a generous eye will be blessed;
for he shares his food with the poor.

Proverbs 23

<sup>10</sup>Drive out the mocker, and strife
will go out;
yes, quarrels and insults will stop.

<sup>11</sup>He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully
is the king's friend.

<sup>12</sup>The eyes of the LORD watch
over knowledge;
but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.

<sup>13</sup>The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside.
I will be killed in the streets."

<sup>14</sup>The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit:
he who is under the LORD's wrath will fall into it.

<sup>15</sup>Folly is bound up in the heart of a child:
the rod of discipline drives it
far from him.

<sup>16</sup>Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich,
both come to poverty.

<sup>17</sup>Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise.
Apply your heart to my teaching.

<sup>18</sup>For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you,
if all of them are ready on
your lips.

<sup>19</sup>That your trust may be in the LORD,
I teach you today, even you.

<sup>20</sup>Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things
of counsel and knowledge,

<sup>21</sup>To teach you truth, reliable
words,

to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?

<sup>22</sup>Do not exploit the poor, because he is poor;
and do not crush the needy
in court;

<sup>23</sup>for the LORD will plead their case,
and plunder the life of those who plunder them.

<sup>24</sup>Do not befriend a hot-tempered
man,
and do not associate with one who harbors
anger:

<sup>25</sup>lest you learn his ways,
and ensnare your soul.

<sup>26</sup>Do not be one of those who strike hands,
of those who are collateral
for debts.

<sup>27</sup>If you do not have means to pay,
why should he take away
your bed from under
you?

<sup>28</sup>Do not move the ancient
boundary stone,
which your fathers have set
up.

<sup>29</sup>Do you see a man skilled in his
work?
He will serve kings.
He won't serve obscure
men.

23 When you sit to eat
with a ruler,
consider diligently
what is before you;

<sup>2</sup>put a knife to your throat,

- if you are a man given to appetite.
- <sup>3</sup>Do not be desirous of his dainties, seeing they are deceitful
food.
- <sup>4</sup>Do not weary yourself to be rich.
In your wisdom, show restraint.
- <sup>5</sup>Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?
For it certainly sprouts
wings like an eagle
and flies in the sky.
- <sup>6</sup>Do not eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,
and do not crave his
delicacies:
<sup>7</sup>for as he thinks about the cost, so he is.
“Eat and drink.” he says to
you,
but his heart is not with you.
- <sup>8</sup>The morsel which you have eaten
you shall vomit up,
and lose your good words.
- <sup>9</sup>Do not speak in the ears of a fool,
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- <sup>10</sup>Do not move the ancient
boundary stone.
Do not encroach on the fields of the fatherless:
<sup>11</sup>for their Defender is strong.
He will plead their case
against you.
- <sup>12</sup>Apply your heart to instruction,
and your ears to the words of
knowledge.
- <sup>13</sup>Do not withhold correction from
a child.
If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.
- <sup>14</sup>Punish him with the rod,
and save his soul from Sheol.
- <sup>15</sup>My son, if your heart is wise,
then my heart will be glad,
even mine:
- <sup>16</sup>yes, my heart will rejoice,
when your lips speak what is right.
- <sup>17</sup>Do not let your heart envy
sinners;
but rather fear the LORD all
the day long.
- <sup>18</sup>For if you keep these things<sup>a</sup>
there is a future,
and your hope will not be
cut off.
- <sup>19</sup>Listen, my son, and be wise,
and keep your heart on the right path.
- <sup>20</sup>Do not be among ones drinking
too much wine,
or those who gorge
themselves on meat:
<sup>21</sup>for the drunkard and the glutton
shall become poor;
and drowsiness clothes them
in rags.
- <sup>22</sup>Listen to your father who gave you life,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.
- <sup>23</sup>Buy the truth, and do not sell it.
Get wisdom, discipline, and
understanding.
- <sup>24</sup>The father of the righteous has great joy.
Whoever fathers a wise child
delights in him.
- <sup>25</sup>Let your father and your mother
be glad.

---

<sup>a</sup>23:18 So LXX cf. BHS. MT lacks “keep these things”

Let her who bore you
rejoice.
<sup>26</sup>My son, give me your heart;
and let your eyes keep in my
ways.
<sup>27</sup>For a prostitute is a deep pit;
and a wayward wife is a narrow well.
<sup>28</sup>Yes, she lies in wait like a robber,
and increases the unfaithful
among men.
<sup>29</sup>Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has strife?
Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises?
Who has bloodshot eyes?
<sup>30</sup>Those who stay long at the wine;
those who go to seek out
mixed wine.
<sup>31</sup>Do not look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down
smoothly.
<sup>32</sup>In the end, it bites like a serpent,
and poisons like a viper.
<sup>33</sup>Your eyes will see strange
things,
and your mind will imagine confusing things.
<sup>34</sup>Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of
the sea,
or as he who lies on top of the rigging:
<sup>35</sup>“They hit me, and I was not hurt.
They beat me, and I do not feel it.
When will I wake up? I can do it again.
I can find another.”

24 Do not be envious
of evil men;
neither desire to be
with them:
<sup>2</sup>for their hearts plot violence,
and their lips talk about mischief.
<sup>3</sup>Through wisdom a house is built;
by understanding it is
established;
<sup>4</sup>by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.
<sup>5</sup>A wise man has great power;
and a knowledgeable man
increases strength;
<sup>6</sup>for by wise guidance you wage
your war;
and victory is in many advisors.
<sup>7</sup>Wisdom is too high for a fool:
he doesn't open his mouth in
the gate.
<sup>8</sup>One who plots to do evil
will be called a schemer.
<sup>9</sup>The schemes of folly are sin.
The mocker is detested by
men.
<sup>10</sup>If you falter in the time of
trouble,
your strength is small.
<sup>11</sup>Rescue those who are being led away to death.
Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.
<sup>12</sup>If you say, “Look, we did not know this;”
doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, doesn't
he know it?

Shall he not render to every man according to his work?<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey, for it is good;
 the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste.
<sup>14</sup>Likewise, know that wisdom is such to your soul;
 if you have found it, then
 there will be a reward,
 and your hope will not be
 cut off.
<sup>15</sup>Do not lie in wait, wicked man,
 against the habitation
 of the righteous.
 Do not destroy his resting
 place:
<sup>16</sup>for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up
 again;
 but the wicked are overthrown by
 calamity.
<sup>17</sup>Do not rejoice when your enemy falls.
 Do not let your heart be glad when he is overthrown;
<sup>18</sup>lest the LORD see it, and it
 displease him,
 and he turn away his wrath
 from him.
<sup>19</sup>Do not fret yourself because of
 evildoers;
 neither be envious of the
 wicked:
<sup>20</sup>for there will be no reward to the evil man;
 and the lamp of the wicked
 shall be snuffed out.
<sup>21</sup>My son, fear the LORD and the king.

Do not join those who are
 rebellious:
<sup>22</sup>for their calamity will rise
 suddenly;
 the destruction from them
 both—who knows?
<sup>23</sup>These also are sayings of the wise.
 To show partiality in judgment is not good.
<sup>24</sup>He who says to the wicked,
 “You are righteous;”
 peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor
 him—<sup>25</sup>but it will go well with those who convict the guilty,
 and a rich blessing will come on them.
<sup>26</sup>An honest answer
 is like a kiss on the lips.
<sup>27</sup>Prepare your work outside,
 and get your fields ready.
 Afterwards, build your
 house.
<sup>28</sup>Do not be a witness against your neighbor without
 cause.
 Do not deceive with your
 lips.
<sup>29</sup>Do not say, “I will do to him as he has done to me;
 I will render to the man
 according to his
 work.”
<sup>30</sup>I went by the field of the
 sluggard,
 by the vineyard of the man
 void of understanding;
<sup>31</sup>Look, it was all grown over with thorns.
 Its surface was covered with nettles,

---

<sup>a</sup>24:12 Romans 2:6

and its stone wall was broken down.

<sup>32</sup>Then I saw, and considered well.

I saw, and received
instruction:

<sup>33</sup>a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands
to sleep;

<sup>34</sup>so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your want as an armed
man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

<sup>2</sup>It is the glory of God to conceal a
thing,

but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.

<sup>3</sup>As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth,
so the hearts of kings are
unsearchable.

<sup>4</sup>Take away the dross from the
silver,
and material comes out for the refiner;

<sup>5</sup>Take away the wicked from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established in
righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king,
or claim a place among great
men;

<sup>7</sup>for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here,"
than that you should be put lower in the presence
of the prince,
whom your eyes have seen.

<sup>8</sup>Do not be hasty in bringing charges to court.

What will you do in the end
when your neighbor
shames you?

<sup>9</sup>Debate your case with your
neighbor,

and do not betray the confidence of another;

<sup>10</sup>lest one who hears it put
you to shame,
and your bad reputation
never depart.

<sup>11</sup>A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

<sup>12</sup>As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.

<sup>13</sup>As the cold of snow in the time
of harvest,
so is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.

<sup>14</sup>As clouds and wind without rain,
so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.

<sup>15</sup>By patience a ruler is persuaded.
A soft tongue breaks the bone.

<sup>16</sup>Have you found honey?
Eat as much as is sufficient
for you,
lest you eat too much, and vomit it.

<sup>17</sup>Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house,
lest he be weary of you, and
hate you.

<sup>18</sup>A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.

- <sup>19</sup>Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble
is like a bad tooth, or a lame
foot.
- <sup>20</sup>As one who takes away a garment in cold weather,
or vinegar on soda,
so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- <sup>21</sup>If your enemy is hungry, give him something<sup>a</sup> to eat.<sup>b</sup>
If he is thirsty, give him
something<sup>c</sup> to drink, <sup>22</sup>for you will heap coals of fire on his head,<sup>d</sup>
and the LORD will reward
you.
- <sup>23</sup>The north wind brings forth rain:
so a backbiting tongue
brings an angry face.
- <sup>24</sup>It is better to dwell in the corner
of the housetop,
than to share a house with a
contentious woman.
- <sup>25</sup>Like cold water to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.
- <sup>26</sup>Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well,
so is a righteous man who gives way before the
wicked.

<sup>a</sup>25:21 So LXX Syr Vg. MT adds
“bread”

<sup>b</sup>25:21 Or, “hungry, feed him.” Lit.
“give him to eat”

<sup>c</sup>25:21 So LXX Syr. MT adds “water”

<sup>d</sup>25:22 To “heap coals of fire on his head” is a metaphor for an action by someone that will produce remorse in the other person. Romans 12:20

- <sup>27</sup>It is not good to eat much honey;
nor is it honorable to seek one’s own honor.
- <sup>28</sup>Like a city that is broken down
and without walls
is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

26 Like snow in summer, and as rain
in harvest,

so honor is not fitting for a
fool.

- <sup>2</sup>Like a fluttering sparrow,
like a darting swallow,
so the undeserved curse
doesn’t come to rest.
- <sup>3</sup>A whip is for the horse,
a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the back of fools.
- <sup>4</sup>Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
lest you also be like him.
- <sup>5</sup>Answer a fool according to his
folly,
lest he be wise in his own
eyes.
- <sup>6</sup>One who sends a message by the hand of a fool
is cutting off feet and drinking violence.
- <sup>7</sup>Like the legs of the lame that hang loose:
so is a parable in the mouth
of fools.
- <sup>8</sup>As one who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a
fool.
- <sup>9</sup>Like a thornbush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth
of fools.

<sup>10</sup>As an archer who wounds all,
so is he who hires a fool
or he who hires those who pass by.

<sup>11</sup>As a dog that returns to his vomit,<sup>a</sup>
so is a fool who repeats his
folly.

<sup>12</sup>Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?

There is more hope for a fool than for him.

<sup>13</sup>The sluggard says, “There is a lion in the road.

A fierce lion roams the
streets.”

<sup>14</sup>As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his
bed.

<sup>15</sup>The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.

He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

<sup>16</sup>The sluggard is wiser in his own
eyes

than seven men who answer
with discretion.

<sup>17</sup>Like one who grabs a dog’s ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel

not his own.

<sup>18</sup>Like a madman who shoots firebrands, arrows, and
death,

<sup>19</sup>is the man who deceives
his neighbor and says,
“Am I not joking?”

<sup>20</sup>Without wood a fire goes out.

Without gossip, contention ceases.

<sup>21</sup>As coals are to hot embers,
and wood to fire,

so is a contentious man to kindling strife.

<sup>22</sup>The words of a gossip are as tasty morsels,
they go down into the
innermost parts.

<sup>23</sup>Like silver dross on an earthen vessel

are the lips of a fervent one
with an evil heart.

<sup>24</sup>A malicious man disguises
himself with his lips,
but he harbors evil in his
heart.

<sup>25</sup>When his speech is charming, do not believe him;

for there are seven abominations in his
heart.

<sup>26</sup>His malice may be concealed by deception,

but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

<sup>27</sup>Whoever digs a pit shall fall into
it.

Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.

<sup>28</sup>A lying tongue hates those it hurts;

and a flattering mouth works
ruin.

27 Do not boast about tomorrow;
for you do not know what a day may bring forth.

<sup>2</sup>Let another man praise you,
and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own
lips.

<sup>3</sup>A stone is heavy,
and sand is a burden;

<sup>a</sup>26:11 2Peter 2:22

- but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.
- <sup>4</sup>Wrath is cruel,
and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand
before jealousy?
- <sup>5</sup>Better is open rebuke
than hidden love.
- <sup>6</sup>Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
- <sup>7</sup>A full soul loathes a honeycomb;
but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.
- <sup>8</sup>As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders
from his home.
- <sup>9</sup>Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart;
so does earnest counsel from
a man's friend.
- <sup>10</sup>Do not forsake your friend and your father's friend.
Do not go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster:
better is a neighbor who is near than a distant
brother.
- <sup>11</sup>Be wise, my son,
and bring joy to my heart,
then I can answer my tormentor.
- <sup>12</sup>A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
- <sup>13</sup>Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger.
Hold it for a wayward
woman.
- <sup>14</sup>He who blesses his neighbor
with a loud voice early
in the morning,
it will be taken as a curse by
him.
- <sup>15</sup>A continual dropping on a rainy
day
and a contentious wife are
alike:
- <sup>16</sup>restraining her is like restraining
the wind,
or like grasping oil in his
right hand.
- <sup>17</sup>Iron sharpens iron;
so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.
- <sup>18</sup>Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
He who looks after his master shall be honored.
- <sup>19</sup>As water reflects a face,
so a man's heart reflects the
man.
- <sup>20</sup>Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied;
and a man's eyes are never
satisfied.
- <sup>21</sup>The crucible is for silver,
and the furnace for gold;
but man is refined by his
praise.
- <sup>22</sup>Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle
along with grain,
yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.
- <sup>23</sup>Know well the state of your
flocks,
and pay attention to your herds:
- <sup>24</sup>for riches are not forever,

nor does even the crown
endure to all
generations.

<sup>25</sup>The hay is removed, and the new growth appears,
the grasses of the hills are gathered in.

<sup>26</sup>The lambs are for your clothing,
and the goats are the price of a field.

<sup>27</sup>There will be plenty of goats'
milk for your food,
for your family's food,
and for the nourishment of your servant girls.

28 The wicked flee
when no one
pursues;
but the righteous are as bold
as a lion.

<sup>2</sup>In rebellion, a land has many
rulers,
but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>A needy man who oppresses the poor
is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.

<sup>4</sup>Those who forsake the Law
praise the wicked;
but those who keep the Law
contend with them.

<sup>5</sup>Evil men do not understand
justice;
but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.

<sup>6</sup>Better is the poor who walks in his integrity,
than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.

<sup>7</sup>Whoever keeps the Law is a wise
son;

but he who is a companion
of gluttons shames his father.

<sup>8</sup>He who increases his wealth by excessive interest
gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.

<sup>9</sup>He who turns away his ear from hearing the Law,
even his prayer is an abomination.

<sup>10</sup>Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil
way,
he will fall into his own trap;
but the blameless will inherit
good.

<sup>11</sup>The rich man is wise in his own
eyes;
but the poor who has understanding sees
through him.

<sup>12</sup>When the righteous triumph,
there is great glory;
but when the wicked rise,
men hide themselves.

<sup>13</sup>He who conceals his sins doesn't
prosper,
but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

<sup>14</sup>Blessed is the man who is always reverent;
but the one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.

<sup>15</sup>As a roaring lion or a charging bear,
so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.

<sup>16</sup>A prince who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor,

- but one who hates ill-gotten gain will prolong his days.
- <sup>17</sup>A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death; no one will support him.
- <sup>18</sup>Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.
- <sup>19</sup>One who works his land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
- <sup>20</sup>A faithful man is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.
- <sup>21</sup>To show partiality is not good; yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.
- <sup>22</sup>A stingy man hurries after riches, and doesn't know that poverty waits for him.
- <sup>23</sup>One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.
- <sup>24</sup>Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong." He is a partner with a destroyer.
- <sup>25</sup>One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who trusts in the LORD will prosper.
- <sup>26</sup>One who trusts in himself is a fool; but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.

- <sup>27</sup>One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.
- <sup>28</sup>When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

29 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.

- <sup>2</sup>When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.
- <sup>3</sup>Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
- <sup>4</sup>The king by justice makes the land stable, but he who takes bribes tears it down.
- <sup>5</sup>A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
- <sup>6</sup>An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad.
- <sup>7</sup>The righteous is concerned about justice for the poor. The wicked does not understand the concern.
- <sup>8</sup>Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger.
- <sup>9</sup>If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man, the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.

- <sup>10</sup>The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity;
and they seek the life of the upright.
- <sup>11</sup>A fool vents all of his anger,
but a wise man brings himself under control.
- <sup>12</sup>If a ruler listens to lies,
all of his officials are wicked.
- <sup>13</sup>The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.
- <sup>14</sup>The king who fairly judges the poor,
his throne shall be established forever.
- <sup>15</sup>The rod of correction gives wisdom,
but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.
- <sup>16</sup>When the wicked increase, sin increases;
but the righteous will see their downfall.
- <sup>17</sup>Correct your son, and he will give you peace;
yes, he will bring delight to your soul.
- <sup>18</sup>Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;
but he who keeps the law is blessed.
- <sup>19</sup>A servant can't be corrected by words.
Though he understands, yet he will not respond.
- <sup>20</sup>Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- <sup>21</sup>He who pampers his servant from youth

will have him become a son in the end.

- <sup>22</sup>An angry man stirs up strife,
and a wrathful man abounds in sin.
- <sup>23</sup>A man's pride brings him low,
but one of lowly spirit gains honor.
- <sup>24</sup>Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul.
He takes an oath, but dares not testify.
- <sup>25</sup>The fear of man proves to be a snare,
but whoever puts his trust in the LORD will be set on high.
- <sup>26</sup>Many seek the ruler's favor,
but a man's justice comes from the LORD.
- <sup>27</sup>A dishonest man detests the righteous,
and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle:

- the man says to Ithiel,
to Ithiel and Ucal:
- <sup>2</sup>“Surely I am the most ignorant man,
and do not have a man's understanding.
- <sup>3</sup>I have not learned wisdom,
neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.
- <sup>4</sup>Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has bound the waters in his garment?
Who has established every
part of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?

<sup>5</sup>“Every word of God is flawless.
He is a shield to those who
take refuge in him.

<sup>6</sup>Do not add to his words,
lest he reprove you, and you
be found a liar.

<sup>7</sup>“Two things I have asked of you;
do not deny me before I die:

<sup>8</sup>Remove far from me falsehood
and lies.
Give me neither poverty nor riches.
Feed me with the food that is needful for me;

<sup>9</sup>lest I be full, deny you, and say,
‘Who is the LORD?’
or lest I be poor, and steal,
and so dishonor the name of
my God.

<sup>10</sup>“Do not slander a servant to his master,
lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.

<sup>11</sup>There is a generation that curses
their father,
and doesn't bless their
mother.

<sup>12</sup>There is a generation that is pure
in their own eyes,
yet are not washed from their filthiness.

<sup>13</sup>There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes.
Their eyelids are lifted up.

<sup>14</sup>There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,

and their jaws like knives,
to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy
from among men.

<sup>15</sup>“The leach has two daughters:
‘Give, give.’

“There are three things that are never satisfied;
four that do not say,
‘Enough:’

<sup>16</sup>Sheol, the barren womb;
the earth that is not satisfied
with water;
and the fire that doesn't say,
‘Enough.’

<sup>17</sup>“The eye that mocks at his father,
and scorns obedience to his
mother:
the ravens of the valley shall
pick it out,
the young eagles shall eat it.

<sup>18</sup>“There are three things which are too amazing for me,
four which I do not
understand:

<sup>19</sup>The way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a serpent on a
rock;
the way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
and the way of a man with a maiden.

<sup>20</sup>“So is the way of an adulterous
woman:
she eats and wipes her
mouth,
and says, ‘I have done nothing wrong.’

<sup>21</sup>“For three things the earth tremble,
and under four, it can’t bear
up:

<sup>22</sup>For a servant when he is
king;
a fool when he is filled with
food;

<sup>23</sup>for an unloved woman
when she is married;
and a handmaid who is heir
to her mistress.

<sup>24</sup>“There are four things which are little on the earth,
but they are exceedingly
wise:

<sup>25</sup>the ants are not a strong
people,
yet they provide their food
in the summer.

<sup>26</sup>The conies are but a feeble folk,
yet make they their houses
in the rocks.

<sup>27</sup>The locusts have no king,
yet they advance in ranks.

<sup>28</sup>You can catch a lizard with
your hands,
yet it is in kings’ palaces.

<sup>29</sup>“There are three things which are
stately in their march,
four which are stately in going:

<sup>30</sup>The lion, which is mightiest among animals,
and doesn’t turn away for any;

<sup>31</sup>the greyhound,
the male goat also;
and the king against whom
there is no rising up.

<sup>32</sup>“If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself,
or if you have thought evil,
put your hand over your mouth.

<sup>33</sup>For as the churning of milk
brings forth butter,
and the wringing of the nose
brings forth blood;
so the forcing of wrath
brings forth strife.”

31 The words of king Lemuel; the oracle
which his mother

taught him.

<sup>2</sup>“Oh, my son.
Oh, son of my womb.
Oh, son of my vows.

<sup>3</sup>Do not give your strength to women,
nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

<sup>4</sup>It is not for kings, O Lemuel;
it is not for kings to drink
wine,
or for princes to take strong
drink,

<sup>5</sup>lest they drink, and forget the decree,
and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.

<sup>6</sup>Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish;
and wine to the bitter in
soul:

<sup>7</sup>Let him drink, and forget his
poverty,
and remember his misery no
more.

in the cause of all who are left desolate.

righteously,

and serve justice to the poor
and needy.”

Ecclesiastes

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in
Jerusalem:

<sup>2</sup>“Vanity of vanities,” says
the Preacher; “Vanity of vanities,
all is vanity.” <sup>3</sup>What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? <sup>4</sup>One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. <sup>5</sup>The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises.
<sup>6</sup>The wind goes toward the south,
and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes,
and the wind returns again to its courses. <sup>7</sup>All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. <sup>8</sup>All things are full of weariness beyond uttering.
The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. <sup>9</sup>That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. <sup>10</sup>Is there a thing of which it may be said, “Look, this is new?” It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. <sup>11</sup>There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

<sup>12</sup>I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. <sup>14</sup>I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and look, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>15</sup>That which is crooked can’t be made straight; and that which is lacking can’t be counted. <sup>16</sup>I said to myself, “Look, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.” <sup>17</sup>I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. <sup>18</sup>For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;” and look, this also was vanity. <sup>2</sup>I said of laughter, “It is foolishness;” and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?”

<sup>3</sup>I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. <sup>4</sup>I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. <sup>5</sup>I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. <sup>6</sup>I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. <sup>7</sup>I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; <sup>8</sup>I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. <sup>9</sup>So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. <sup>10</sup>Whatever my eyes desired, I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. <sup>11</sup>Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and look, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

<sup>12</sup>I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly. For what can the man who comes after the king do? Just that which he<sup>a</sup> has already done. <sup>13</sup>Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. <sup>14</sup>The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. <sup>15</sup>Then said I in my heart, “As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?” Then said I in my heart that this also is vanity. <sup>16</sup>For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool.

<sup>17</sup>So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>18</sup>I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who comes after me. <sup>19</sup>Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. <sup>21</sup>For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. <sup>22</sup>For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? <sup>23</sup>For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. <sup>24</sup>There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. <sup>25</sup>For who can eat and who can have enjoyment apart from him?<sup>b</sup> <sup>26</sup>For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

3 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under

heaven:

<sup>2</sup>a time to be born,

and a time to die;

a time to plant,

and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

<sup>3</sup>a time to kill,

and a time to heal;

a time to break down,

and a time to build up;

<sup>a</sup>2:12 Hebrew Mss

<sup>4</sup>a time to weep,
 and a time to laugh;
 a time to mourn,
 and a time to dance;
<sup>5</sup>a time to cast away stones,
 and a time to gather stones
 together;
 a time to embrace,
 and a time to refrain from embracing;
<sup>6</sup>a time to seek,
 and a time to lose;
 a time to keep,
 and a time to cast away;
<sup>7</sup>a time to tear,
 and a time to sew;
 a time to keep silence,
 and a time to speak;
<sup>8</sup>a time to love,
 and a time to hate;
 a time for war,
 and a time for peace.

<sup>9</sup>What profit has he who works in that in which he labors?
<sup>10</sup>I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. <sup>11</sup>He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. <sup>12</sup>I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. <sup>13</sup>Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. <sup>14</sup>I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. <sup>15</sup>That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away.

<sup>16</sup>Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. <sup>17</sup>I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." <sup>18</sup>I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. <sup>19</sup>For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. <sup>20</sup>All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. <sup>21</sup>Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

<sup>22</sup>Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and look, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

<sup>2</sup>Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. <sup>3</sup>Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. <sup>4</sup>Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

<sup>7</sup>Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. <sup>8</sup>There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment? This also is vanity, yes, it is a miserable business.

<sup>9</sup>Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. <sup>10</sup>For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. <sup>11</sup>Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? <sup>12</sup>If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

admonition any more. <sup>14</sup>For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. <sup>15</sup>I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. <sup>16</sup>There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5 Guard your step<sup>a</sup> when you go to the house of God. To draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil. <sup>2</sup>Do not be rash with your mouth, and do not let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. <sup>3</sup>For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. <sup>4</sup>When you vow a vow to God, do not defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. <sup>5</sup>It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. <sup>6</sup>Do not allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Do not protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? <sup>7</sup>For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God.

<sup>8</sup>If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, do not marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. <sup>9</sup>Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

<sup>10</sup>He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. <sup>11</sup>When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

<sup>12</sup>The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

<sup>13</sup>There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. <sup>14</sup>Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. <sup>15</sup>As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. <sup>16</sup>This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? <sup>17</sup>All his days are in darkness and mourning,<sup>a</sup> he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

<sup>18</sup>Look, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. <sup>19</sup>Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. <sup>20</sup>For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: <sup>2</sup>a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but a foreigner eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

<sup>3</sup>If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: <sup>4</sup>for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. <sup>5</sup>Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. <sup>6</sup>Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, do not all go to one place? <sup>7</sup>All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. <sup>8</sup>For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? <sup>9</sup>Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>10</sup>Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. <sup>11</sup>For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? <sup>12</sup>For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. <sup>2</sup>It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. <sup>3</sup>Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. <sup>4</sup>The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. <sup>5</sup>It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. <sup>6</sup>For as the crackling of thorns

under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. <sup>7</sup>Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. <sup>8</sup>Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. <sup>9</sup>Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. <sup>10</sup>Do not say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. <sup>12</sup>For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

<sup>13</sup>Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? <sup>14</sup>In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

<sup>15</sup>All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. <sup>16</sup>Do not be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? <sup>17</sup>Do not be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time?

<sup>18</sup>It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that do not withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come forth from them all. <sup>19</sup>Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. <sup>20</sup>Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. <sup>21</sup>Also do not take heed to all words that<sup>a</sup> are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; <sup>22</sup>for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. <sup>23</sup>All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. <sup>24</sup>That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? <sup>25</sup>I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

<sup>26</sup>I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

<sup>27</sup>Look, this have I found, says the Preacher, one to another, to find out the scheme; <sup>28</sup>which my soul still seeks; but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. <sup>29</sup>Look, this only have I found: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes.

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. <sup>2</sup>Keep<sup>b</sup> the king's command, because of the oath to God. <sup>3</sup>Do not be hasty to go out of his presence. Do not persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, <sup>4</sup>for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" <sup>5</sup>Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. <sup>6</sup>For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. <sup>7</sup>For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? <sup>8</sup>There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

<sup>9</sup>All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. <sup>10</sup>So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holy place. They went and were praised<sup>a</sup> in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. <sup>11</sup>Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. <sup>12</sup>Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. <sup>13</sup>But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn't fear God.

<sup>14</sup>There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. <sup>15</sup>Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup>When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), <sup>17</sup>then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

9 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. <sup>2</sup>It is the same for all: one event to the righteous and to the wicked, to the good and to the evil,<sup>b</sup> and to the clean and to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who swears is as he who fears an oath. <sup>3</sup>This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. <sup>4</sup>For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup>For the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. <sup>6</sup>Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

<sup>11</sup>I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. <sup>12</sup>For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. <sup>17</sup>The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. <sup>18</sup>Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor. <sup>2</sup>A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. <sup>3</sup>Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. <sup>4</sup>If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, do not leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.

<sup>11</sup>If the serpent bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue.

<sup>12</sup>The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. <sup>13</sup>The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous
madness. <sup>14</sup>A fool also multiplies
words.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? <sup>15</sup>The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

<sup>16</sup>Woe to you, land, when your king is a child,
and your princes eat in the morning. <sup>17</sup>Blessed are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles,
and your princes eat in due season,
for strength, and not for drunkenness.

<sup>18</sup>By slothfulness the roof sinks in;
and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

<sup>19</sup>A feast is made for laughter,
and wine makes the life
glad;
and money is the answer for all things.

<sup>20</sup>Do not curse the king, no, not in your thoughts;
and do not curse the rich in
your bedchamber:
for a bird of the sky may carry your voice,
and that which has wings
may tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters;
for you shall find it
after many days.

<sup>2</sup>Give a portion to seven, yes, even
to eight;
for you do not know what evil will be on the
earth.

<sup>3</sup>If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on
the earth;
and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north,
in the place where the tree
falls, there shall it be.

<sup>4</sup>He who observes the wind won't sow;
and he who regards the clouds won't reap.

<sup>5</sup>As you do not know what is the way of the wind,
nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child;
even so you do not know the work of God who does
all.

<sup>6</sup>In the morning sow your seed,
and in the evening do not withhold your hand;
for you do not know which will prosper, whether this or that,
or whether they will both be equally good.

<sup>7</sup>Truly the light is sweet,
and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.

<sup>8</sup>Yes, if a man lives many years,
let him rejoice in them
all;
but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.

All that comes is vanity.
<sup>9</sup>Rejoice, young man, in your youth,
 and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth,
 and walk in the ways of your heart,
 and in the sight of your eyes;
 but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.
<sup>10</sup>Therefore remove sorrow from your heart,
 and put away evil from your flesh;
 for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also your Creator<sup>a</sup> in the days of your youth,
 before the evil days come,
 and the years draw near,
 when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;"
<sup>2</sup>Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened,
 and the clouds return after the rain;
<sup>3</sup>in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble,
 and the strong men shall bow themselves,
 and the grinders cease because they are few,

and those who look out of the windows are darkened, <sup>4</sup>and the doors shall be shut in the street;
 when the sound of the grinding is low,
 and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird,
 and all the daughters of music shall be brought low.

<sup>5</sup>Also, they are afraid of heights,
 and of terrors in the way;
 and the almond tree blossoms,
 and the grasshopper is burdened,
 and the caper bush fails;
 because man goes to his everlasting home,
 and the mourners go about the streets:

<sup>6</sup>before the silver cord is severed,
 or the golden bowl is broken,
 or the pitcher is broken at the spring,
 or the wheel broken at the cistern,

<sup>7</sup>and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
 and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

<sup>8</sup>Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher.
 All is vanity.

<sup>9</sup>Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. <sup>10</sup>The

Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. <sup>11</sup>The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of collections, which are given from one shepherd. <sup>12</sup>Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

<sup>13</sup>This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. <sup>14</sup>For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

Beloved

<sup>2</sup>Let him kiss me with the kisses of
his mouth;
for your love is better than
wine.
<sup>3</sup>Your oils have a pleasing
fragrance.
Your name is oil poured
forth,
therefore the virgins love
you.
<sup>4</sup>Take me away with you.
Let us hurry.
The king has brought me
into his chambers.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you.
We will praise your love
more than wine.

Beloved

They are right to love you.
<sup>5</sup>I am dark, but lovely,
you daughters of Jerusalem,
like Kedar's tents,
like Solomon's curtains.
<sup>6</sup>Do not stare at me because I am
dark,
because the sun has scorched
me.
My mother's sons were angry with
me.
They made me keeper of the
vineyards.
I haven't kept my own
vineyard.
<sup>7</sup>Tell me, you whom my soul
loves,
where you graze your flock,
where you rest them at noon;
For why should I be as one who is veiled<sup>a</sup>
beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

<sup>8</sup>If you do not know, most beautiful among
women,
follow the tracks of the sheep.
Graze your young goats
beside the shepherds'
tents.
<sup>9</sup>I have compared you, my love,

to a steed in Pharaoh's
chariots.

<sup>10</sup>Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings,
your neck with strings of jewels.

<sup>11</sup>We will make you earrings of
gold,
with studs of silver.

Beloved

<sup>12</sup>While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.

<sup>13</sup>My beloved is to me a satchet of
myrrh,
that lies between my breasts.

<sup>14</sup>My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms
from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

<sup>15</sup>Look, you are beautiful, my love.
Look, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves.

Beloved

<sup>16</sup>Look, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;
and our couch is verdant.

Lover

Our rafters are firs.

a lily of the valleys.

Lover

<sup>2</sup>As a lily among thorns,

so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved

<sup>3</sup>As the apple tree among the trees
of the wood,
so is my beloved among the sons.

I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
his fruit was sweet to my taste.

<sup>4</sup>He brought me to the banquet hall,
and his banner over me was love.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Strengthen me with raisins,
refresh me with apples;
For I am faint with love.

<sup>6</sup>His left hand is under my head.
His right hand embraces me.

<sup>7</sup>I adjure you, daughters of
Jerusalem,
by the roes, or by the hinds
of the field,
that you not stir up, nor
awaken love,
until it so desires.

Look, he comes,
leaping on the mountains,
skipping on the hills.

Look, he stands behind our
wall.

He looks in at the windows.
He glances through the lattice.

Song of Solomon 3

<sup>10</sup>My beloved spoke, and said to me, “Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and
    come away.
<sup>11</sup>For, look, the winter is past.
    The rain is over and gone.
<sup>12</sup>The flowers appear on the earth.
    The time of the singing has
    come,
    and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
<sup>13</sup>The fig tree ripens her green figs.
    The vines are in blossom.
    They give forth their
    fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away.”

Lover

<sup>14</sup>My dove in the clefts of the rock,
    In the hiding places of the mountainside,
    Let me see your face.
    Let me hear your voice;
    for your voice is sweet, and
    your face is lovely.
<sup>15</sup>Catch for us the foxes,
    the little foxes that spoil the
    vineyards;
    for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

<sup>16</sup>My beloved is mine, and I am his.
    He browses among the lilies.
<sup>17</sup>Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
    turn, my beloved,
    and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed,
    I sought him whom my soul loves.
    I sought him, but I did not find him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>I will get up now, and go about
    the city;
    in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.
    I sought him, but I did not find him.
<sup>3</sup>The watchmen who go about the
    city found me;
    “Have you seen him whom my soul loves?”
<sup>4</sup>I had scarcely passed from them,
    when I found him whom my
    soul loves.
    I held him, and would not let him
    go,
    until I had brought him into
    my mother’s house,
    into the chamber of her who conceived me.
<sup>5</sup>I adjure you, daughters of
    Jerusalem,
    by the roes, or by the hinds
    of the field,
    that you not stir up, nor
    awaken love,
    until it so desires.
<sup>6</sup>Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke,
    perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
    with all spices of the merchant?
<sup>7</sup>Look, it is Solomon’s carriage.

<sup>a</sup>3:1 LXX adds “I called him, but he gave no answer”

Sixty mighty men are around
it,
of the mighty men of Israel.
<sup>8</sup>They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh,
because of fear in the night.
<sup>9</sup>King Solomon made himself a carriage
of the wood of Lebanon.
<sup>10</sup>He made its pillars of silver,
its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
its midst being paved with
love,
from the daughters of
Jerusalem.
<sup>11</sup>Go forth, you daughters of Zion,
and see king Solomon,
with the crown with which his mother has crowned him,
in the day of his weddings,
in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Lover

4 Look, you are beautiful, my love.
Look, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is as a flock of
goats,
that descend from Mount Gilead.
<sup>2</sup>Your teeth are like a newly shorn
flock,
which have come up from
the washing,
where every one of them has
twins.

None is bereaved among
them.
<sup>3</sup>Your lips are like scarlet thread.
Your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind
your veil.
<sup>4</sup>Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory,
whereon a thousand shields
hang,
all the shields of the mighty
men.
<sup>5</sup>Your two breasts are like two fawns
that are twins of a gazelle,
which feed among the lilies.
<sup>6</sup>Until the day is cool, and the
shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of
myrrh,
to the hill of frankincense.
<sup>7</sup>You are all beautiful, my love.
There is no spot in you.
<sup>8</sup>Come with me from Lebanon, my bride,
with me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
from the top of Senir and Hermon,
from the lions' dens,
from the mountains of the leopards.
<sup>9</sup>You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.
You have ravished my heart
with one of your eyes,
with one chain of your neck.
<sup>10</sup>How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride.
How much better is your love than wine.

Song of Solomon 5

Honey and milk are under your tongue.

The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

<sup>12</sup>A locked up garden is my sister,
my bride;
a locked up spring,
a sealed fountain.

<sup>13</sup>Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits:

henna with spikenard plants, <sup>14</sup>spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense
tree;

myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices,

<sup>15</sup>a fountain of gardens,
a well of living waters,
flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

you south.

Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.

Let my beloved come into his
garden,
and taste his precious fruits.

I have eaten my honeycomb

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends.

Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

<sup>2</sup>I was asleep, but my heart was awake.

It is the voice of my beloved
who knocks:

“Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;

for my head is filled with
dew,
and my hair with the dampness of the
night.”

<sup>3</sup>I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?

I have washed my feet.
Indeed, must I soil
them?

<sup>4</sup>My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch
opening.

My heart pounded for him.

<sup>5</sup>I rose up to open for my beloved.

My hands dripped with
myrrh,
my fingers with liquid
myrrh,

on the handles of the lock.

<sup>6</sup>I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved left; and had gone away.

My heart went out when he spoke.
I looked for him, but I did not find him.

I called him, but he did not answer.

<sup>7</sup>The watchmen who go about the
city found me.
They beat me.
They bruised me.
The keepers of the walls
took my cloak away
from me.

<sup>8</sup>I adjure you, daughters of
Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,
that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends

<sup>9</sup>How is your beloved better than another beloved,
you fairest among women?
How is your beloved better than
another beloved,
that you do so adjure us?

Beloved

<sup>10</sup>My beloved is white and ruddy.
The best among ten
thousand.
<sup>11</sup>His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is bushy, black as a raven.
<sup>12</sup>His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks,
washed with milk, mounted
like jewels.
<sup>13</sup>His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.
His lips are like lilies,
dropping liquid myrrh.
<sup>14</sup>His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl.
His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
<sup>15</sup>His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine
gold.

His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

<sup>16</sup>His mouth is sweetness;
yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

6 Where has your beloved gone, you
fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

<sup>2</sup>My beloved has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,
to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
<sup>3</sup>I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies,
<sup>4</sup>You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah,
lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with
banners.
<sup>5</sup>Turn away your eyes from me,
for they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats,
that lie along the side of Gilead.
<sup>6</sup>Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
which have come up from
the washing;
of which every one has
twins;

Song of Solomon 7

none is bereaved among
them.

<sup>7</sup>Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind
your veil.

<sup>8</sup>There are sixty queens, eighty concubines,
and virgins without number.

<sup>9</sup>My dove, my perfect one, is unique.

She is her mother's only
daughter.

She is the favorite one of her
who bore her.

The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;

the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

<sup>10</sup>Who is she who looks forth as
the morning,
beautiful as the moon,
clear as the sun,
and awesome as an army
with banners?

<sup>11</sup>I went down into the nut tree grove,
to see the green plants of the valley,
to see whether the vine
budded,
and the pomegranates were
in flower.

<sup>12</sup>Without realizing it,
my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends

<sup>13</sup>Return, return, Shulammitte.
Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammitte,
as at the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's
daughter.

Your rounded thighs are like
jewels,
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

<sup>2</sup>Your body is like a round goblet,
no mixed wine is wanting.

Your waist is like a heap of wheat,
set about with lilies.

<sup>3</sup>Your two breasts are like two
fawns,
that are twins of a gazelle.

<sup>4</sup>Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools
in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

<sup>5</sup>Your head on you is like Carmel.

The hair of your head like
purple.

The king is held captive in its tresses.

<sup>6</sup>How beautiful and how pleasant
you are,
love, for delights.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>This, your stature, is like a palm
tree,
your breasts like its fruit.

<sup>8</sup>I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.

---

<sup>a</sup>7:6 Syr Aquila read "delightful
daughter"

I will take hold of its fruit.” Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
 the smell of your breath like
 apples,

Beloved

<sup>9</sup>Your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for
 my beloved,
 gliding over my lips and my teeth.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10</sup>I am my beloved’s.
 His desire is toward me.

<sup>11</sup>Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field.
 Let us lodge in the villages.

<sup>12</sup>Let’s go early up to the
 vineyards.
 Let’s see whether the vine
 has budded,
 its blossom is open,
 and the pomegranates are in flower.

There I will give you my
 love.

<sup>13</sup>The mandrakes give forth
 fragrance.
 At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old,
 which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh that you were like
 my brother,
 who sucked the breasts
 of my mother.

If I found you outside, I would kiss you;

yes, and no one would despise me.

<sup>2</sup>I would lead you, bringing you into my mother’s
 house,
 who would instruct me.
 I would have you drink spiced
 wine,
 of the juice of my pomegranate.

<sup>3</sup>His left hand would be under my head.
 His right hand would embrace me.

<sup>4</sup>I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 that you not stir up, nor
 awaken love,
 until it so desires.

Friends

<sup>5</sup>Who is this who comes up from
 the wilderness,
 leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
 There your mother
 conceived you.
 There she was in labor and bore you.

<sup>6</sup>Set me as a seal on your heart,
 as a seal on your arm;
 for love is strong as death.
 Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol.
 Its flashes are flashes of fire,
 a very flame of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>Many waters can’t quench love,
 neither can floods drown it.
 If a man would give all the wealth
 of his house for love,
 he would be utterly scorned.

Friends

<sup>8</sup>We have a little sister.

<sup>a</sup>7:9 So LXX Aquila Symmachus Syr
 Vg. MT reads “of sleepers”

She has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
in the day when she is to be spoken for?

<sup>9</sup>If she is a wall,
we will build on her a turret
of silver.

If she is a door,
we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved

<sup>10</sup>I am a wall, and my breasts like towers,
then I was in his eyes like
one who found peace.

<sup>11</sup>Solomon had a vineyard at Baal
Hamon.

He leased out the vineyard
to keepers.

Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.

<sup>12</sup>My own vineyard is before me.
The thousand are for you,
Solomon;
two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover

<sup>13</sup>You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
let me hear your voice.

Beloved

<sup>14</sup>Come away, my beloved.
Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah
and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Hear, heavens,
and listen, earth; for the LORD has spoken:

I have nourished and brought up
children,
and they have rebelled
against me.

<sup>3</sup>The ox knows his owner,
and the donkey his master's crib;
but Israel doesn't know,
my people do not understand.

<sup>4</sup>Ah sinful nation,
a people loaded with
iniquity,
offspring of evildoers,
children who deal corruptly.
They have forsaken the LORD.
They have despised the Holy
One of Israel.

They are estranged and
backward.
<sup>5</sup>Why should you be beaten more,
that you revolt more and
more?

The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart faint.

<sup>6</sup>From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no
soundness in it:
wounds, welts, and open
sores.
They haven't been closed,
neither bandaged,

neither soothed with
oil.
<sup>7</sup>Your country is desolate.
 Your cities are burned with
 fire.
 Strangers devour your land
 in your presence,
 and it is desolate,
 as overthrown by strangers.
<sup>8</sup>The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard,
 like a hut in a field of melons,
 like a besieged city.
<sup>9</sup>Unless the LORD of hosts had left us a few survivors,
 we would have been as Sodom,
 and<sup>a</sup> we would have been like Gomorrah.<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom.
 Listen to the law of our God,
 you people of Gomorrah.
<sup>11</sup>“What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?,”
 says the LORD.
 “I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams,
 and the fat of fed animals.
 I do not delight in the blood
 of bulls,
 or of lambs,
 or of male goats.
<sup>12</sup>When you come to appear before
 me,
 who has required this at your hand, to trample my
 courts?
<sup>13</sup>Bring no more vain offerings.

Incense is an abomination to
 me;
 new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations:
 I can't bear with evil
 assemblies.
<sup>14</sup>My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts.
 They are a burden to me.
 I am weary of bearing them.
<sup>15</sup>When you spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you.
 Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not
 hear.
 Your hands are full of blood.
<sup>16</sup>Wash yourselves, make yourself
 clean.
 Put away the evil of your doings from before my
 eyes.
 Cease to do evil.
<sup>17</sup>Learn to do well.
 Seek justice.
 Relieve the oppressed.
 Judge the fatherless.
 Plead for the widow.”
<sup>18</sup>“Come now, and let us reason together,” says the
 LORD:
 “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.
 Though they are red like crimson, they shall be
 as wool.
<sup>19</sup>If you are willing and obedient,
 you shall eat the good of the
 land;

<sup>a</sup>1:9 So LXX. MT lacks “and”

<sup>b</sup>1:9 Romans 9:29

<sup>20</sup>but if you refuse and rebel,
you shall be devoured
by<sup>a</sup> the sword;
for the mouth of the LORD
has spoken it.”

<sup>21</sup>How the faithful city has become a prostitute.
She was full of justice;
righteousness lodged
in her,
but now murderers.

<sup>22</sup>Your silver has become dross,
your wine mixed with water.

<sup>23</sup>Your rulers are rebellious, and companions of thieves.
Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards.
They do not judge the fatherless,
neither does the cause of the widow come to them.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore the Lord, the LORD of
hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel,
says:

“Ah, I will get relief from my
adversaries,
and avenge myself of my
enemies;

<sup>25</sup>and I will turn my hand against
you,
and I will purge away your
dross,
and I will take away all your slag.

<sup>26</sup>I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counselors as at the beginning.

Afterward you shall be called ‘The city of righteousness,
a faithful town.’

<sup>27</sup>Zion shall be redeemed with
justice,
and her converts with
righteousness.

<sup>28</sup>But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be
together,
and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

<sup>29</sup>For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired,
and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen.

<sup>30</sup>For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades,
and as a garden that has no
water.

<sup>31</sup>The strong will be like tinder,
and his work like a spark.
They will both burn together,
and no one will quench
them.”

2 This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and
Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>It shall happen in the latter days,
that the mountain of the LORD’s house
shall be established on the top of the mountains,
and shall be raised above the hills;
and all nations shall flow to
it.

<sup>3</sup>And many peoples shall come and say, “Come, let’s go up to the mountain of the LORD,

---

<sup>a</sup>1:20 So DSS Syr Tg. MT lacks “by”

and<sup>a</sup> to the house of the God
of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his
ways,
and we will walk in his
paths.”
For out of Zion the law shall go
forth,
and the word of the LORD
from Jerusalem.
<sup>4</sup>He will judge between the
nations,
and will decide concerning
many peoples;
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.<sup>b</sup> Nation shall not lift up sword
against nation,
neither shall they learn war
any more.
<sup>5</sup>House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of the
LORD.
<sup>6</sup>For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob,
because they are filled from
the east,
with those who practice
divination like the Philistines,
and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.
<sup>7</sup>Their land is full of silver and
gold,

neither is there any end of
their treasures.
Their land also is full of horses,
neither is there any end of
their chariots.
<sup>8</sup>Their land also is full of idols.
They worship the work of their own hands,
that which their own fingers
have made.
<sup>9</sup>Man is brought low,
and mankind is humbled;
therefore do not forgive
them.
<sup>10</sup>Enter into the rock,
and hide in the dust,
from before the terror of the
LORD,
and from the glory of his
majesty.
<sup>11</sup>The lofty looks of man will be brought low,
the haughtiness of men will be bowed down,
and the LORD alone will be
exalted in that day.
<sup>12</sup>For there will be a day of the LORD of hosts for all that is proud and
haughty,
and for all that is lifted up
and high;<sup>c</sup>
and it shall be brought low:
<sup>13</sup>For all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high
and lifted up,
for all the oaks of Bashan, <sup>14</sup>For all the high mountains,
for all the hills that are lifted
up,
<sup>15</sup>For every lofty tower,

<sup>a</sup>2:3 So DSS Ms LXX Syr Vg Tg Mss.
MT lacks “and.” Cf. Micah 4:2

<sup>b</sup>2:4 DSS LXX add “and”

<sup>c</sup>2:12 So LXX. MT lacks “and high,” possibly from haplography by homoioarcton: w-w

for every fortified wall, <sup>16</sup>For all the ships of Tarshish,
 and for all pleasant imagery.
<sup>17</sup>The loftiness of man shall be
 bowed down,
 and the haughtiness of men
 shall be brought low;
 and the LORD alone shall be
 exalted in that day.
<sup>18</sup>The idols shall utterly pass away.
<sup>19</sup>Men shall go into the caves of
 the rocks,
 and into the holes of the
 earth,
 from before the terror of the
 LORD,
 and from the glory of his
 majesty,
 when he arises to shake the
 earth mightily.
<sup>20</sup>In that day, men shall cast away
 their idols of silver,
 and their idols of gold,
 which have been made for themselves to worship,
 to the moles and to the bats;
<sup>21</sup>To go into the caverns of
 the rocks,
 and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
 from before the terror of the
 LORD,
 and from the glory of his
 majesty,
 when he arises to shake the
 earth mightily.
<sup>22</sup>Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils;
 for of what account is he?

3 For look, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, takes away from Jerusalem

and from Judah supply and
 support,
 the whole supply of bread,
 and the whole supply of
 water;
<sup>2</sup>the mighty man,
 the man of war,
 the judge,
 the prophet,
 the diviner,
 the elder,
<sup>3</sup>the captain of fifty,
 the honorable man,
 the counselor,
 the skilled craftsman,
 and the clever enchanter.
<sup>4</sup>And I will make youths to be their leaders,
 and capricious children shall
 rule over them.
<sup>5</sup>The people will be oppressed, everyone by another,
 and everyone by his
 neighbor.
 The child will behave himself
 proudly against the old
 man,
 and the base against the honorable.
<sup>6</sup>Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father,
 saying,
 “You have clothing, you be our ruler,
 and let this ruin be under your control.”
<sup>7</sup>In that day he will cry out, saying,
 I will not be a healer;
 for in my house is neither
 bread nor clothing.
 You shall not make me ruler
 of the people.
<sup>8</sup>For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen;

because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD,
 to provoke the eyes of his glory.
<sup>9</sup>The look of their faces testify against them.
 They parade their sin like
 Sodom.
 They do not hide it.
 Woe to their soul.
 For they have brought disaster upon
 themselves.
<sup>10</sup>Tell the righteous “Good.”
 For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
<sup>11</sup>Woe to the wicked.
 Disaster is upon them;
 for the work of his hands
 will be done to him.
<sup>12</sup>As for my people, children are their oppressors,
 and women rule over them.
 My people, those who lead
 you cause you to err,
 and destroy the way of your
 paths.
<sup>13</sup>The LORD stands up to contend, and stands to judge his
 people.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of his people,
 and their leaders:
 “It is you who have eaten up
 the vineyard.
 The spoil of the poor is in your houses.
<sup>15</sup>What do you mean that you crush my people,

and grind the face of the poor?” says the Lord,<sup>b</sup>
 the LORD of hosts.
<sup>16</sup>Moreover the LORD said, “Because the daughters of Zion are
 haughty,
 and walk with outstretched
 necks and flirting eyes,
 walking to trip as they go,
 jingling ornaments on their
 feet;
<sup>17</sup>therefore the Lord<sup>c</sup> brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion,
 and the LORD will make their scalps bald.”

<sup>18</sup>In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces, <sup>19</sup>the earrings,
 the bracelets, the veils, <sup>20</sup>the headdresses, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume bottles, the charms, <sup>21</sup>the signet rings, the nose rings, <sup>22</sup>the fine robes, the capes,
 the cloaks, the purses, <sup>23</sup>the hand
 mirrors, the fine linen garments,
 the tiaras, and the shawls.

<sup>24</sup>It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rotteness;
 instead of a belt, a rope;
 instead of well set hair,
 baldness;
 instead of a robe, a girding
 of sackcloth;
 and branding instead of beauty.

---

<sup>a</sup>3:13 So LXX Syr cf. BHS. MT reads “judge the nations”

---

<sup>b</sup>3:15 LXX Mss read “LORD”
<sup>c</sup>3:17 LXX reads “God.” DSS Ms has “LORD” written supralinearly

<sup>25</sup>Your men shall fall by the sword,
and your mighty in the war.

<sup>26</sup>Her gates shall lament and mourn;
and she shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

4 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing: only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach.”

<sup>2</sup>In that day, the LORD’s branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. <sup>3</sup>It will happen, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; <sup>4</sup>when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. <sup>6</sup>There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

5 Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My beloved had a vineyard
on a very fruitful hill.

<sup>2</sup>He dug it up,
gathered out its stones,
planted it with the choicest vine,
built a tower in its midst,
and also cut out a winepress
in it.

He looked for it to yield grapes,
but it yielded wild grapes.

<sup>3</sup>“Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
please judge between me
and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it?

Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?

<sup>5</sup>Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.

I will take away its hedge,
and it will be eaten up.
I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down.

<sup>6</sup>I will lay it a wasteland.
It won’t be pruned nor hoed,
but it will grow briars and
thorns.

The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me.

<sup>12</sup>The watchman said, “The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again.”

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? <sup>2</sup>You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. <sup>3</sup>All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. <sup>4</sup>Therefore I said, “Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Do not labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. <sup>5</sup>For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, the LORD of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains.”

<sup>6</sup>Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. <sup>7</sup>It happened that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. <sup>8</sup>He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. <sup>9</sup>You saw the breaches of the City of David, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. <sup>10</sup>You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. <sup>11</sup>You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who purposed it long ago. <sup>12</sup>In that day, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth: <sup>13</sup>and look, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>The LORD of hosts revealed himself in my ears, “Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die,” says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

<sup>15</sup>Thus says the Lord, the LORD of hosts, “Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, <sup>16</sup>‘What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?’ Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock.” <sup>17</sup>Look, the LORD will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly. <sup>18</sup>He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord’s house. <sup>19</sup>I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.

<sup>20</sup>It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim<sup>b</sup> the son of Hilkiah, <sup>21</sup>and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup>I will lay the key of the house of David on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. <sup>23</sup>I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father’s house. <sup>24</sup>They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. <sup>25</sup>“In that day,” says the LORD of hosts, “the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken it.”

23 The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish. For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. <sup>2</sup>Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. <sup>3</sup>On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. <sup>4</sup>Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, “I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins.”

whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? <sup>9</sup>The LORD of hosts has planned it, to defile all the pride of glory,<sup>a</sup> to shame all the honored of the earth. <sup>10</sup>Cultivate<sup>b</sup> your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish; there is no restraint any more. <sup>11</sup>He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. The LORD has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds. <sup>12</sup>He said, "You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest."

<sup>13</sup>Look, the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin. <sup>14</sup>Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste. <sup>15</sup>It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. <sup>16</sup>Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. <sup>17</sup>It will happen after the end of seventy years that the LORD<sup>c</sup> will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. <sup>18</sup>Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to the LORD. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

24 Look, the LORD makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. <sup>2</sup>It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. <sup>3</sup>The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for the LORD has spoken this word. <sup>4</sup>The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. <sup>5</sup>The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the law,<sup>d</sup> violated the statute,<sup>e</sup> and broken the everlasting covenant.

<sup>12</sup>The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. <sup>13</sup>For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. <sup>14</sup>These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of the LORD. They cry aloud from the sea. <sup>15</sup>Therefore glorify the LORD in the east, even the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea. <sup>16</sup>From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous. But I said, "I pine away. I pine away. Woe is me." The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously.

<sup>17</sup>Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth. <sup>18</sup>It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows of heaven<sup>a</sup> are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. <sup>19</sup>The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. <sup>20</sup>The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again. <sup>21</sup>It shall happen in that day that the LORD<sup>b</sup> will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. <sup>22</sup>And they will be gathered, a gathering<sup>c</sup> in a dungeon, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. <sup>23</sup>Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, for the LORD of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders will be glory.

25 The LORD, you are my God. I will exalt you. you. <sup>4</sup>For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. <sup>5</sup>As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low. <sup>6</sup>In this mountain, the LORD of hosts will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. <sup>7</sup>He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. <sup>8</sup>He has swallowed up death in victory.<sup>a</sup> The Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for the LORD has spoken it. <sup>9</sup>It shall be said in that day, “Look, this is our God. We have waited for him, and he will save us. This is the LORD. We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.” <sup>10</sup>For in this mountain the hand of the LORD<sup>b</sup> will rest.

“We have a strong city.

He appoints salvation for walls and ramparts.

<sup>8</sup>Yes, in the path of your judgments, O LORD, have we waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. <sup>9</sup>With my soul have I desired you in the night. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries. <sup>12</sup>The LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also worked all our works for us. <sup>13</sup>The LORD our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but by you only will we make mention of your name. <sup>14</sup>The dead shall not live, and<sup>b</sup> the departed spirits shall not rise. Therefore have you visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. <sup>15</sup>You have increased the nation, O LORD. You have increased the nation. You are glorified. You have enlarged all the borders of the land. <sup>16</sup>LORD, in trouble they sought you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them. <sup>17</sup>Like as

We gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. <sup>19</sup>Your dead shall live; my<sup>c</sup> dead bodies shall rise. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking<sup>b</sup> away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherim and the incense altars shall rise no more. <sup>10</sup>For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. <sup>7</sup>They<sup>a</sup> also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. <sup>8</sup>For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. <sup>9</sup>Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? <sup>10</sup>For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. <sup>11</sup>But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and a strange language,<sup>b</sup> <sup>12</sup>to whom he said, “This is the resting place. <sup>6</sup>“I, the LORD, have called you in
righteousness,
and will hold your hand,
and will keep you,
and make you a covenant for
the people,
as a light for the nations;
<sup>7</sup>to open the blind eyes,
to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon,
and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.

<sup>8</sup>“I am the LORD.
That is my name.
I will not give my glory to
another,
nor my praise to engraved
images.

<sup>9</sup>Look, the former things have happened,
and I declare new things.
I tell you about them before they come up.”

<sup>10</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song,
and his praise from the end
of the earth,
you who go down to the sea,
and all that is in it,
the islands and their

<sup>11</sup>Let the desert and its cities cry

Let them shout from the top

<sup>12</sup>Let them give glory to the

and declare his praise in the

<sup>13</sup>The LORD will go out like a mighty man.
He will stir up zeal like a man of war.
He will raise a war cry.
Yes, he will shout aloud.
He will triumph over his
enemies.

<sup>14</sup>“I have been silent a long time.
I have been quiet and

Now I will cry out like a will both gasp and

<sup>15</sup>I will destroy mountains and
hills,
and dry up all their herbs.
I will make the rivers

I will lead them in paths that

Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send?

Who is as blind as he who is
at peace,
and as blind as the LORD's<sup>a</sup>
servant?

<sup>20</sup>You see many things, but do not observe.

His ears are open, but he doesn't listen.

<sup>21</sup>It pleased the LORD, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law,
and make it honorable.

<sup>22</sup>But this is a robbed and plundered people.
All of them are snared in holes,
and they are hidden in prisons.

They have become a prey, and no
one delivers;
and a spoil, and no one says,
'Restore them.'

<sup>23</sup>Who is there among you who will give ear to this?
Who will listen and hear for the time to come?

<sup>24</sup>Who gave Jacob as plunder,
and Israel to the robbers?
Did not the LORD,<sup>b</sup> he against whom we have sinned?

For they would not walk in his ways,
and they disobeyed his law.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger
on him,
and the strength of battle;

and it set him on fire all around, but he did not
know;
and it burned him, but he did not take it to heart."

43 But now thus says
the LORD who created you, Jacob,
and he who formed you,
Israel:

"Do not be afraid, for I have
redeemed you.
I have called you by your
name.

You are mine.

<sup>2</sup>When you pass through the waters, I will be with
you;
and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.
When you walk through the fire,
you will not be
burned,
and the flame will not scorch
you.

<sup>3</sup>For I am the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
your Savior.

I have given Egypt as your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba in your
place.

<sup>4</sup>Since you have been precious and honored in my sight,
and I have loved you;
therefore I will give people
in your place,
and nations instead of your
life.

<sup>5</sup>Do not be afraid; for I am with
you.
I will bring your descendants
from the east,

<sup>b</sup>42:24 LXX reads "not God,"

and gather you from the west.
<sup>6</sup>I will tell the north, ‘Give them up,’
 and tell the south, ‘Do not hold them back.
 Bring my sons from far,
 and my daughters from the farthest parts of the earth—<sup>7</sup>everyone who is called by my name,
 and whom I have created for my glory,
 whom I have formed,
 yes, whom I have made.’”

<sup>8</sup>Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
 and the deaf who have ears.
<sup>9</sup>Let all the nations be gathered together,
 and let the peoples be assembled.
 Who among them can declare this,
 and show us former things?
 Let them bring their witnesses,
 that they may be justified;
 or let them hear, and say,
 “That is true.”

<sup>10</sup>“You are my witnesses,” says the LORD,
 “With my servant whom I have chosen;
 that you may know and believe me,
 and understand that I am he.
 Before me there was no God formed,
 neither will there be after me.

<sup>11</sup>I, I am the LORD;<sup>a</sup>
 and besides me there is no savior.
<sup>12</sup>I have declared, I have saved,
 and I have shown;
 and there was no strange god among you.
 Therefore you are my witnesses,”
 says the LORD, “and I am God.
<sup>13</sup>Yes, since the day was I am he;
 and there is no one who can deliver out of my hand.
 I will work, and who can hinder it?”

 “For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. <sup>15</sup>I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.”

<sup>16</sup>Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea,
 and a path in the mighty waters;
<sup>17</sup>who brings forth the chariot and horse,
 the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise;
 they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick):
<sup>18</sup>“Do not remember the former things,

and do not consider the things of old.
<sup>19</sup>Look, I will do a new thing.
 It springs forth now.
 Do you not know it?
 I will even make a way in the wilderness,
 and rivers in the desert.
<sup>20</sup>The animals of the field shall honor me,
 the jackals and the ostriches;
 because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert,
 to give drink to my people,
 my chosen,
<sup>21</sup>the people which I formed for myself,
 that they might set forth my praise.
<sup>22</sup>Yet you have not called on me,
 Jacob;
 but you have been weary of me, Israel.
<sup>23</sup>You have not brought me of your sheep for burnt offerings;
 neither have you honored me with your sacrifices.
 I have not burdened you with offerings,
 nor wearied you with frankincense.
<sup>24</sup>You have bought me no sweet cane with money,
 nor have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices;
 but you have burdened me with your sins.
 You have wearied me with your iniquities.
<sup>25</sup>I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake;

and I will not remember your sins.
<sup>26</sup>Put me in remembrance.
 Let us plead together.
 Set forth your case,
 that you may be justified.
<sup>27</sup>Your first father sinned,
 and your teachers have transgressed against me.
<sup>28</sup>Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary;
 and I will make Jacob a curse,
 and Israel a reviling.”

44 Yet listen now, Jacob my servant,
 and Israel, whom I have chosen.

<sup>2</sup>This is what the LORD who made you,
 and formed you from the womb,
 who will help you says:
 “Do not be afraid, Jacob my servant;
 and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
<sup>3</sup>For I will pour water upon the thirsty,
 and streams on the dry ground.
 I will pour my Spirit on your offspring,
 and my blessing on your descendants:
<sup>4</sup>and they will spring up among the grass,
 as willows by the watercourses.
<sup>5</sup>One will say, ‘I am the LORD’s;’
 and another will be called by the name of Jacob;

and another will write with his hand 'to the LORD,'
and honor the name of Israel."

<sup>6</sup>This is what the LORD,<sup>a</sup> the King
of Israel,
and his Redeemer, the LORD<sup>b</sup> of hosts, says:

"I am the first, and I am the last;
and besides me there is no
God.

<sup>7</sup>Who is like me?
Who will call,
and will declare it,
and set it in order for me,
since I established the ancient people?

Let them declare the things that are coming,
and that will happen.

<sup>8</sup>Do not fear,
neither be afraid.
Haven't I declared it to you long ago,
and shown it?
You are my witnesses.
Is there a God besides me?
Indeed, there is not.
I do not know any other
Rock.<sup>c</sup>

The things that they delight
in will not profit.

Their own witnesses do not <sup>10</sup>Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?

<sup>11</sup>Look, all his fellows will be

and the workmen are mere

Let them all be gathered together.
Let them stand up.
They will fear.
They will be put to shame

<sup>12</sup>The blacksmith takes an axe,
works in the coals,

He is hungry,

he drinks no water,
and is faint.

<sup>13</sup>The carpenter stretches out a

He marks it out with a

He shapes it with planes.
He marks it out with

<sup>14</sup>He cuts down cedars for himself,

<sup>15</sup>Then it will be for a man to burn;

and he takes some of it, and warms himself.
Yes, he burns it, and bakes
bread.
Yes, he makes a god, and worships
it;
he makes it an engraved image, and falls down
to it.
<sup>16</sup>He burns part of it in the fire.
With part of it, he eats meat.
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
Yes, he warms himself,
and says, "Aha. I am warm.
I have seen the fire."
<sup>17</sup>The rest of it he makes into a
god,
even his engraved image.
He bows down to it and worships,
and prays to it, and says,
"Deliver me; for you are my god."
<sup>18</sup>They do not know, neither do
they consider:
for he has shut their eyes,
that they can't see;
and their hearts, that they can't understand.
<sup>19</sup>No one thinks,
neither is there knowledge
nor understanding to
say,
"I have burned part of it in
the fire.
Yes, I have also baked bread
on its coals.
I have roasted meat and eaten it.
Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination?
Shall I bow down to a tree

A deceived heart has turned him aside;

and he can't deliver his soul,

and Israel;
for you are my servant.
I have formed you.
You are my servant.
Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.
<sup>22</sup>I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your
transgressions,
and, as a cloud, your sins.
Return to me, for I have
redeemed you.
<sup>23</sup>Sing, you heavens, for the LORD<sup>a</sup>

Shout, you lower parts of the Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest,

all of your trees,
for the LORD<sup>b</sup> has redeemed
Jacob,
and will glorify himself in
Israel.
<sup>24</sup>Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
and he who formed you

"I am the LORD, who makes all
things;
who alone stretches out the

59 Look, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it can't save; neither his ear heavy, that it can't hear: <sup>2</sup>but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear. <sup>3</sup>For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness. <sup>4</sup>None sues in righteousness, and none pleads in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. <sup>5</sup>They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he who eats of their eggs dies; and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. <sup>6</sup>Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. <sup>7</sup>Their feet run to evil, and they are swift to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; destruction and calamity are in their paths.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>The way of peace they do not know; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whoever goes in it does not know peace. <sup>9</sup>Therefore is justice far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but, look, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. <sup>10</sup>We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as those who have no eyes: we

The LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice. <sup>16</sup>He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it upheld him. <sup>17</sup>He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle. <sup>18</sup>According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense. <sup>19</sup>So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come who walk in a way that is not good, following their own thoughts; <sup>3</sup>a people who provoke me to my face continually as they<sup>g</sup> sacrifice in gardens and burn incense on bricks; <sup>4</sup>who sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; who eat pig’s flesh, and the broth of abominable things is in their vessels; <sup>5</sup>who say, Stand by yourself, do not come near to me, for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day.

<sup>6</sup>“Look, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yes, I will recompense into their bosom, <sup>7</sup>your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together,” says the LORD, “who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills; therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom.”

<sup>8</sup>Thus says the LORD, “As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, ‘Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it.’ so will I do for my servants’ sake, that I may not destroy them all. <sup>9</sup>And I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah they shall inherit<sup>h</sup> my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. <sup>10</sup>Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie

<sup>11</sup>“But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny; <sup>12</sup>I will destine you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen; but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I did not delight.”

<sup>15</sup>You shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and the Lord GOD will kill you; and he will call his servants by another name: <sup>16</sup>so that he who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from my eyes.

<sup>17</sup>“For, look, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. <sup>18</sup>But be you glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, look, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. <sup>19</sup>I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.

<sup>20</sup>“There shall be no more there an infant of days, nor an old man who has not filled his days; for the child shall die one hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed. <sup>21</sup>They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. <sup>22</sup>They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. <sup>23</sup>They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the descendants of the blessed of the LORD,<sup>b</sup> and their offspring with them. <sup>24</sup>It shall happen that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. <sup>25</sup>The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent’s food. And where then is the place of my rest? <sup>2</sup>For all these things has my hand made, and so all these things came to be,<sup>a</sup> says the LORD: “but to this man will I look, to him who is humble and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word.

<sup>3</sup>He who slaughters an ox is like<sup>b</sup> one who strikes down a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog’s neck; he who offers an offering, as he who offers pig’s blood; he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol. For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. <sup>9</sup>Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth?” says the LORD: “Shall I who cause to bring forth shut the womb?” says your God. <sup>10</sup>“Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her: rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn over her; <sup>11</sup>that you may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts; that you may drink deeply, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.”

<sup>12</sup>For thus says the LORD, “Look, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream: and you will nurse. You will be carried on her side, and will be dandled on her knees.

<sup>13</sup>As one whom his mother comforts, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

<sup>14</sup>You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies. <sup>15</sup>For, look, the LORD will come with fire, and his chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire. <sup>16</sup>For by fire

<sup>17</sup>“Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating pig’s flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together,” says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>“For I know their works and their thoughts: the time comes, that I will gather all nations and languages; and they shall come, and shall see my glory.

<sup>19</sup>“I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the islands afar off, who have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. <sup>20</sup>They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to the LORD, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to<sup>a</sup> my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, as the sons of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>And I will also take some of them for myself<sup>b</sup> as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>“For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me,” says the LORD, “so your descendants and your name shall remain. <sup>23</sup>It shall happen, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me,” says the LORD. <sup>24</sup>“They shall go forth, and look on the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they will be loathsome to all mankind.”

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: <sup>2</sup>to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. <sup>3</sup>It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. <sup>4</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>“Before I formed you in the belly, I knew you. Before you came forth out of the womb, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.” <sup>6</sup>Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD. Look, I do not know how to speak; for I am a child.”

<sup>7</sup>But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am a child;’ for to whoever I shall send you, you shall go, and whatever I shall command you, you shall speak. <sup>8</sup>Do not be afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you,” says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, “Look, I have put my words in your mouth. <sup>10</sup>Look, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.” <sup>11</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?”

I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it.”

<sup>13</sup>The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, “What do you see?”

I said, “I see a boiling caldron; and it is tipping away from the north.”

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD said to me, “Out of the north evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. <sup>15</sup>For, look, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north,” says the LORD; “and they shall come, and they shall each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah. <sup>16</sup>I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup>“You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. <sup>18</sup>For, look, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. <sup>19</sup>They will fight against you; but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you,” says the LORD, “to deliver you.”

2 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD, “I remember you, the devotion of your youth, the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. <sup>3</sup>Israel was holiness to the LORD, the first fruits of his increase. All who devour him shall be held guilty. Evil shall come on them,"<sup>3</sup> says the LORD."

<sup>4</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup>Thus says the LORD, "What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? <sup>6</sup>Neither did they say, 'Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man lived?' <sup>7</sup>I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. <sup>8</sup>The priests did not say, 'Where is the LORD?' And those who handle the law did not know me. The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

<sup>9</sup>"Therefore I will yet contend with you," says the LORD, "and I will contend with your children's children. <sup>10</sup>For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. <sup>11</sup>Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

<sup>12</sup>"Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate," says the LORD. <sup>13</sup>"For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. <sup>14</sup>Is Israel a servant? Is he a native-born slave? Why has he become a prey? <sup>15</sup>The young lions have roared at him, and yelled. They have made his land waste. His cities are burned up, without inhabitant. <sup>16</sup>The children of Memphis and Tahpanhes have also shaved<sup>d</sup> the crown of your head.

<sup>17</sup>"Haven't you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God, when he led you by the way? <sup>18</sup>Now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? Or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

<sup>19</sup>"Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backsliding shall reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter that you have forsaken the LORD your God, and that my fear is not in you," says the Lord, GOD of hosts. <sup>20</sup>"For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, 'I will not serve;' for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute. <sup>21</sup>Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me? <sup>22</sup>For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me," says the Lord GOD.

<sup>23</sup>"How can you say, 'I am not defiled. I have not gone after the Baals'? See your way in the valley. Know what you have done. You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways; <sup>24</sup>a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in her desire. When she is in heat, who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not weary themselves. In her month, they will find her.

<sup>25</sup>"Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst. But you said, 'It is in vain. No, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.' <sup>26</sup>As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their officials, and their priests, and their prophets; <sup>27</sup>who tell wood, 'You are my father;' and a stone, 'You have brought me out;' for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, 'Arise, and save us.'

<sup>28</sup>"But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble. For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah. And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem they were sacrificing to Baal.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>30</sup>"I have struck your children in vain. They received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. <sup>31</sup>Generation, consider the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, 'We have broken loose. We will come to you no more?'

<sup>32</sup>"Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number. <sup>33</sup>How well you prepare your way to seek love. Therefore you have taught even the wicked women your ways. <sup>34</sup>Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts. You did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.

“Look, I will judge you, because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’<sup>36</sup> Why do you go about so much to change your way? You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria.<sup>37</sup> From there also you shall go forth, with your hands on your head; for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you shall not prosper with them.

3 “They say, ‘If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and become another man’s, will he return to her again?’ Wouldn’t that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me,” says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup>“Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see. Where have you not been lain with? You have sat for them by the ways, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness.<sup>3</sup> Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute’s forehead, you refused to be ashamed.<sup>4</sup> Will you not from this time cry to me, ‘My Father, you are the guide of my youth?’

<sup>5</sup>“Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?” Look, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way.”

<sup>6</sup>Moreover, the LORD said to me in the days of Josiah the king, “Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the prostitute.<sup>7</sup> I said after she had done all these things, ‘She will return to me;’ but she did not return; and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.<sup>8</sup> She<sup>a</sup> saw that for all the causes for which faithless Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, did not fear; but she also went and played the prostitute.<sup>9</sup> And it came to pass, through her casual prostitution, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stone and wood.<sup>10</sup> Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense,” says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said to me, “Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.<sup>12</sup> Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, ‘Return, you backsliding Israel,’ says the LORD; ‘I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,’ says the LORD. ‘I will not keep anger forever.<sup>13</sup> Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God, and have

I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion. <sup>15</sup>I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. <sup>16</sup>It shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days,” says the LORD, “they shall say no more, ‘The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more. <sup>17</sup>At that time they shall call Jerusalem ‘The throne of the LORD;’ and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. Neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. <sup>18</sup>In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

<sup>19</sup>“But I said, ‘How I would put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful inheritance of all the nations.’ and I said, ‘You shall call me “My Father,” and shall not turn away from following me.’

husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel,” says the LORD. <sup>21</sup>A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the sons of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God. <sup>22</sup>“Return, you backsliding children, I will heal your backsliding.”

“Look, we have come to you; for you are the LORD our God. <sup>23</sup>Truly<sup>a</sup> the hills are a delusion, the tumult on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Israel is in the LORD our God. <sup>24</sup>But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. <sup>25</sup>Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.”

4 “If you will return, Israel,” says the LORD, “if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed; <sup>2</sup>and you shall swear, ‘As the LORD lives,’ in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.”

<sup>3</sup>For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, “Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow among thorns. <sup>4</sup>Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. <sup>5</sup>Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, ‘Blow the trumpet in the land.’ Cry aloud and say, ‘Assemble yourselves. Let us go into the fortified cities.’ <sup>6</sup>Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety. Do not wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.”

<sup>10</sup>Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD. Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You shall have peace;’ whereas the sword reaches to the heart.”

<sup>11</sup>At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; <sup>12</sup>a full wind from these shall come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them.”

<sup>13</sup>Look, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind; his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us. For we are ruined. <sup>14</sup>Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you? <sup>15</sup>For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: <sup>16</sup>“Tell the nations; look, publish against Jerusalem, ‘Besiegers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. <sup>17</sup>As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,’” says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>“Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart.”

<sup>19</sup>My anguish, my anguish. I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can’t hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. <sup>20</sup>Destruction on destruction is proclaimed; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. <sup>21</sup>How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

<sup>22</sup>“For my people are foolish, they do not know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.” <sup>23</sup>I saw the earth, and, look, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. <sup>24</sup>I saw the mountains, and look, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. <sup>25</sup>I saw, and look, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. <sup>26</sup>I saw, and look, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of the LORD; before his fierce anger they were destroyed.<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>For thus says the LORD, “The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. <sup>28</sup>For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not relented, neither will I turn back from it.”

<sup>29</sup>Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into caves, and they hide themselves<sup>b</sup> in the thickets, and climb up on the rocks; every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells in it. <sup>30</sup>You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you dress yourselves with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain do you make yourself beautiful; your lovers despise you, they seek your life. <sup>31</sup>For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, “Woe is me now. For my soul faints before the murderers.”

5 “Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you can find a man, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. <sup>2</sup>Though they say, ‘As the LORD lives;’ surely they swear falsely.”

<sup>3</sup>O LORD, do your eyes not look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

<sup>4</sup>Then I said, “Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they do not know the way of the LORD, nor the law of their God. <sup>5</sup>I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of the LORD, and the law of their God.” But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. <sup>6</sup>Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased.

<sup>7</sup>“How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops<sup>a</sup> at the prostitutes’ houses. <sup>8</sup>They were as fed horses roaming at large: everyone neighed after his neighbor’s wife. <sup>9</sup>Shouldn’t I punish them for these things?” says the LORD; “and shouldn’t my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?”

<sup>10</sup>“Go up on her walls, and destroy; but do not make a full end. Take away her branches; for they are not the LORD’s. <sup>11</sup>For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me,” says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>They have denied the LORD, and said, “It is not he; neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we see sword nor famine. <sup>13</sup>The prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them.”

<sup>14</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, “Because you speak this word, look, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. <sup>15</sup>Look, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel,” says the LORD. “It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, neither understand what they say. <sup>16</sup>Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. <sup>17</sup>They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds. They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.

<sup>18</sup>“But even in those days,” says the LORD, “I will not make a full end with you. <sup>19</sup>It will happen, when you say, ‘Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?’ Then you shall say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD,<sup>b</sup> Just like you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.’”

<sup>b</sup>5:19 So Syr cf. BHS. MT lacks “Thus says the LORD” from haplography: k-k

<sup>20</sup>“Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, <sup>21</sup>“Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and do not see; who have ears, and do not hear: <sup>22</sup>“Do you not fear me?” says the LORD “Won’t you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can’t pass it? And though its waves toss themselves, yet they can’t prevail; though they roar, yet they can’t pass over it.”

<sup>23</sup>“But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. <sup>24</sup>Neither do they say in their heart, ‘Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.’

<sup>25</sup>“Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. <sup>26</sup>For among my people are found wicked men. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men. <sup>27</sup>As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. <sup>28</sup>They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They do not plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they do not judge the right of the needy.

<sup>30</sup>“An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. <sup>31</sup>The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?”

6 “Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction. <sup>2</sup>The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will I cut off. <sup>3</sup>Shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her all around; they shall feed everyone in his place.”

<sup>4</sup>“Prepare war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us. For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. <sup>5</sup>Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces.” <sup>6</sup>For the LORD of hosts said, “Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem. She is the city to be punished; she is full of oppression in the midst of her. <sup>7</sup>As a well casts forth its waters, so she casts forth her wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds. <sup>8</sup>Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited.”

<sup>9</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, “They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Pass your hand again as a grape gatherer into the baskets.”

<sup>10</sup>To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? Look, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can’t listen. Look, the word of the LORD has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. <sup>11</sup>Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD. I am weary with holding in.

“Pour it out on the children in the street,
and on the assembly of
young men together;
for even the husband with the wife
shall be taken,
the aged with him who is full of days.

<sup>12</sup>Their houses shall be turned to others,
their fields and their wives
together;

for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land,” says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“For from their least even to their greatest,
everyone is given to covetousness;
and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone
deals falsely.

<sup>14</sup>They have healed also the hurt of my people
superficially,

saying, ‘Peace, peace.’ when there is no peace.

<sup>15</sup>Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush.

Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
at the time that I visit them,
they shall be cast
down,” says the
LORD.

<sup>16</sup>Thus says the LORD, “Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, ‘Where is the good way?’ and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls.”
But they said, “We will not walk
in it.” <sup>17</sup>I set watchmen over you, saying, ‘Listen to the sound of the trumpet.’” But they said, “We will not listen.” <sup>18</sup>Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation,
what will happen to them. <sup>19</sup>Hear,
earth. ‘Look, I will bring disaster on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it.
<sup>20</sup>To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices
pleasing to me.’

<sup>21</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, ‘Look, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend shall perish.’ <sup>22</sup>Thus says the LORD, ‘Look, a people comes from the north country. A great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. <sup>23</sup>They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion.’”

<sup>24</sup>“We have heard its report; our hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. <sup>25</sup>Do not go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror, are on every side.” <sup>26</sup>“Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes. Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us.”

<sup>27</sup>“I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way.” <sup>28</sup>“They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are bronze and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. <sup>29</sup>The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. <sup>30</sup>Men will call them ‘rejected silver,’ because the LORD has rejected them.”

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Stand in the gate of the LORD’s house, and proclaim there this word, and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. <sup>4</sup>Do not trust in lying words, saying, “The LORD’s temple, The LORD’s temple, The LORD’s temple, are these.” <sup>5</sup>For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; <sup>6</sup>if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: <sup>7</sup>then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forevermore. <sup>8</sup>Look, you trust in lying words, that can’t profit. <sup>9</sup>Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, <sup>10</sup>and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, “We are delivered”; that you may do all these abominations? <sup>11</sup>Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Look, I, even I, have seen it, says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. <sup>13</sup>Now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear; and I called you, but you did not answer: <sup>14</sup>therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup>I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole seed of Ephraim. <sup>16</sup>Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. <sup>17</sup>Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup>The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven,<sup>a</sup> and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. <sup>19</sup>Do they provoke me to anger?" says the LORD. "Do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?" <sup>20</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Look, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched." <sup>21</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. <sup>22</sup>For I did not speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: <sup>23</sup>but this thing I commanded them, saying, 'Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.' <sup>24</sup>But they did not listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. <sup>25</sup>Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: <sup>26</sup>yet they did not listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers." <sup>27</sup>"You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup>You shall tell them, 'This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of the LORD their God, nor received instruction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. <sup>29</sup>Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.'" <sup>30</sup>"For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight," says the LORD: "they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>31</sup>They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I did not command, nor did it come into my mind. <sup>32</sup>Therefore look, the days come," says the LORD, "that it shall no more be called Topheth,

nor The Valley of Ben Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury.<sup>33</sup>The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and none shall frighten them away.<sup>34</sup>Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.”

8 “At that time,” says the LORD, “they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his officials, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves;<sup>2</sup>and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung on the surface of the earth.<sup>3</sup>Death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them,” says the LORD of hosts.<sup>4</sup>Moreover you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return?<sup>5</sup>Why then do these people of Jerusalem turn away in perpetual backsliding? They hold fast deceit; they refuse to return.<sup>6</sup>I listened and heard, but they did not speak what is right: no man repents him of his wickedness, saying, “What have I done?” Everyone turns to his course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle.<sup>7</sup>Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times; and the turtledove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people do not know the LORD’s law.<sup>8</sup>How can you say, “We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us?” But, look, the false pen of the scribes has worked falsely.<sup>9</sup>The wise men are disappointed, they are dismayed and taken: look, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what kind of wisdom is in them?<sup>10</sup>Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall possess them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest every one deals falsely.<sup>11</sup>They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, “Peace, peace;” when there is no peace.<sup>12</sup>Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? No. They were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says the LORD.<sup>13</sup>I will utterly consume them, says the LORD: no grapes shall be on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.”<sup>14</sup>Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for the LORD our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. <sup>15</sup>We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and look, dismay. <sup>16</sup>The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those who dwell in it. <sup>17</sup>For, look, I will send serpents, adders, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you," says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>"Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow. My heart is faint within me. <sup>19</sup>Look, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: 'Isn't the LORD in Zion? Isn't her King in her?'" "Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign vanities?" <sup>20</sup>The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. <sup>21</sup>For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me. <sup>22</sup>Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

9 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people. <sup>2</sup>Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men;

that I might leave my people, and go from them. For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men." <sup>3</sup>They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me," says the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Everyone be on guard against his neighbor, and do not trust any brother; for every brother is a deceiver, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. <sup>5</sup>They will deceive everyone his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. <sup>6</sup>Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me," says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, "Look, I will melt them, and try them; for how should I deal with the wickedness<sup>a</sup> of the daughter of my people? <sup>8</sup>Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lies in wait for him. <sup>9</sup>Shall I not visit them for these things?" says the LORD; "shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?" <sup>10</sup>For the mountains I will take up weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are laid waste so that no one passes through; nor can men hear the voice of the cattle. Both the birds of the sky and the animals have fled, they are gone.”<sup>11</sup> I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.”<sup>12</sup> Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passes through?”<sup>13</sup> The LORD says, “Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked in it,<sup>14</sup> but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them;<sup>15</sup> therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, ‘Look, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.<sup>16</sup> I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them.’”<sup>17</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts, “Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skillful women, that they may come.”<sup>18</sup> and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.<sup>19</sup> For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, ‘How are we ruined. We are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.’”<sup>20</sup> Yet hear the word of the LORD,<sup>a</sup> you women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor lamentation.<sup>21</sup> For death has come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets.’<sup>22</sup> Speak, ‘Thus says the LORD, “The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and none shall gather them.”’”<sup>23</sup> Thus says the LORD, “Do not let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, do not let the rich man glory in his riches;<sup>24</sup> but let him who boasts boast in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am the LORD who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight,” says the LORD.<sup>25</sup> Look, the days come,” says the LORD, “that I will punish all those who are circumcised in uncircumcision: <sup>26</sup>Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.”

10 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, house of Israel. <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD, "Do not learn the way of the nations, and do not be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. <sup>3</sup>For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe. <sup>4</sup>They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it not move. <sup>5</sup>They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and do not speak: they must be carried, because they can't go. Do not be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good." <sup>6</sup>There is none like you, LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might. <sup>7</sup>Who should not fear you, King of the nations? For it appertains to you; because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like you. <sup>8</sup>But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols. it is but a stock. <sup>9</sup>There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men. <sup>10</sup>But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to withstand his indignation. <sup>11</sup>You shall say this to them: 'The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.' <sup>12</sup>He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: <sup>13</sup>when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the farthest parts of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries. <sup>14</sup>Every man has become brutish and without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. <sup>15</sup>They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. <sup>16</sup>The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name." <sup>17</sup>'Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. <sup>18</sup>For thus says the LORD, 'Look, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it.' <sup>19</sup>Woe is me because of my hurt. My wound is grievous: but I said, 'Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it.' <sup>20</sup>My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are no more: there is none to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. <sup>21</sup>For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of the LORD: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. <sup>22</sup>The voice of news, look, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals. <sup>23</sup>LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. <sup>24</sup>LORD, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. <sup>25</sup>Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you, and on the families that do not call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.”

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; <sup>3</sup>and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: “Cursed is the man who doesn’t hear the words of this covenant, <sup>4</sup>which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, “Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; <sup>5</sup>that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey,” as at this day.”” Then I answered, and said, “Amen, LORD.” <sup>6</sup>The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. <sup>7</sup>For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. <sup>8</sup>Yet they did not obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did not do them.” <sup>9</sup>The LORD said to me, “A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. <sup>11</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, ‘Look, I will bring disaster on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup>Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. <sup>13</sup>For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.’ <sup>14</sup>Therefore do not pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me at the time<sup>a</sup> of their trouble.” <sup>15</sup>What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has done many vile deeds? Can holy meat avert your disaster so that you can rejoice?" <sup>16</sup>The LORD called your name, "A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit." With the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal." <sup>18</sup>The LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. <sup>19</sup>But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised devices against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered." <sup>20</sup>But, the LORD of hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause." <sup>21</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek my<sup>a</sup> life, saying, "You shall not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that you not die by our hand;" <sup>22</sup>therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, "Look, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; <sup>23</sup>and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation."

12 You are righteous, LORD, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are they all at ease who deal very treacherously? <sup>2</sup>You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. <sup>3</sup>But you, LORD, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. <sup>4</sup>How long shall the land be parched, and the grass of every field wither? For the wickedness of those who dwell in it, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, "He shall not see our latter end." <sup>5</sup>If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? <sup>6</sup>For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: do not believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. <sup>7</sup>I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. <sup>8</sup>My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. <sup>9</sup>Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? Are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them to devour. <sup>10</sup>Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. <sup>11</sup>They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart. <sup>12</sup>Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of the LORD devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. <sup>13</sup>They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Thus says the LORD against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: 'look, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup>It shall happen, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. <sup>16</sup>It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, "As the LORD lives;" even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. <sup>17</sup>But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it," says the LORD.

13 Thus says the LORD to me, "Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and do not put it in water." <sup>2</sup>So I bought a belt according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my waist. <sup>3</sup>The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Perath, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock." <sup>5</sup>So I went, and hid it by the Perath, as the LORD commanded me. <sup>6</sup>It happened after many days, that the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Perath, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there." <sup>7</sup>Then I went to the Perath, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and look, the belt was marred, it was profitable for nothing. <sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Thus says the LORD, 'In this way I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. <sup>11</sup>For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so have I caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah,' says the LORD; ‘that they might be my people, for a name, for praise, and for glory. But they would not listen. <sup>12</sup>Therefore you shall speak to them this word: ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Every jar shall be filled with wine.’” And if<sup>a</sup> they shall say to you, ‘Do we not certainly know that every jar shall be filled with wine?’ <sup>13</sup>Then you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Look, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David’s throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. <sup>14</sup>I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD. I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.”’” <sup>15</sup>Hear, and give ear; do not be proud; for the LORD has spoken. <sup>16</sup>Give glory to the LORD your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because the LORD’s flock is taken captive.” <sup>18</sup>” Say to the king and to the queen mother, ‘Take a lowly seat, for your glorious crowns have come down from your heads.’” <sup>19</sup>The cities toward the Negev are shut, and there is no one to open them: Judah is carried away into exile, all of it; it is wholly carried away into exile.” <sup>20</sup>” Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? <sup>21</sup>What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? Shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? <sup>22</sup>If you say in your heart, ‘Why are these things come on me?’ for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence. <sup>23</sup>Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? Then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. <sup>24</sup>Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. <sup>25</sup>This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me,’ says the LORD; ‘because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear. <sup>27</sup>I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem. You will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?’”

Yet you, LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not leave us.” <sup>10</sup>Thus says the LORD to this people, “Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore the LORD does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.” <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to me, “Do not pray for this people for their good. <sup>12</sup>When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.” <sup>13</sup>Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD. 15 Then the LORD said to me, “Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.<sup>2</sup> It shall happen, when they tell you, ‘Where shall we go forth?’ Then you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity.”<sup>3</sup> I will appoint over them four kinds, says the LORD: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the

Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail?” <sup>19</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, “If you return, then will I bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them. <sup>20</sup>I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight

Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’<sup>11</sup>Then you shall tell them, ‘Because your fathers have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;<sup>12</sup>and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, look, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you do not listen to me:<sup>13</sup>therefore I will cast you forth out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.’<sup>14</sup>Therefore look, the days come,” says the LORD, “that it shall no more be said, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt;’<sup>15</sup>but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.’ I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.<sup>16</sup>Look, I will send for many fishermen,” says the LORD, “and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.<sup>17</sup>For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes.<sup>18</sup>First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations.”<sup>19</sup>“LORD, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the farthest parts of the earth, and shall say, ‘Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit.<sup>20</sup>Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods?’”<sup>21</sup>“Therefore look, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is the LORD.

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,<sup>2</sup> "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words."

<sup>3</sup>Then I went down to the potter's house, and look, he was making a work on the wheels.<sup>4</sup> When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.<sup>5</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,<sup>6</sup> "House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter?" says the LORD. 'Look, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel.'<sup>7</sup> At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it;<sup>8</sup> if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I thought to do to them.<sup>9</sup> At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;<sup>10</sup> if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them.<sup>11</sup> Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: Look, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return now everyone from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.'<sup>12</sup> But they say, 'It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart.'"<sup>13</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD: "Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.<sup>14</sup> Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up? <sup>15</sup>For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up; <sup>16</sup>to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. <sup>17</sup>I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.” <sup>18</sup>Then they said, “Come, and let us make plans against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.” <sup>19</sup>Give heed to me, LORD, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. <sup>20</sup>Shall evil be recompensed for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them. <sup>21</sup>Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men struck of the sword in battle. <sup>22</sup>Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. <sup>23</sup>Yet, LORD, you know all their counsel against me to kill me;

do not forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your anger.”

19 Thus said the LORD, “Go, and buy a potter’s earthen bottle, and take with you<sup>a</sup> some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; <sup>2</sup>and go forth to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; <sup>3</sup>and say, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Look, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. <sup>4</sup>Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they did not know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, <sup>5</sup>and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I did not command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind: <sup>6</sup>therefore, look, the days come,” says the LORD, “that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The Valley of Ben Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter. <sup>7</sup>I will make void the counsel of Judah

You are stronger than I am, and have prevailed. I have become a laughing-stock all day long; everyone mocks me. <sup>8</sup>For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, “Violence and destruction.” because the word of the LORD is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. <sup>9</sup>If I say, “I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name,” then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can’t contain it. <sup>10</sup>For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. “Denounce, and we will denounce him,” say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; “perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.” <sup>11</sup>But the LORD is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten. <sup>12</sup>But, the LORD of hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. <sup>13</sup>Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers. <sup>14</sup>Cursed is the day in which I was born: do not let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. <sup>15</sup>Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A boy is born to you; making him very glad. <sup>16</sup>Let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and did not repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; <sup>17</sup>because he did not kill me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. <sup>18</sup>Why came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Please inquire of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.” <sup>3</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them, “You shall tell Zedekiah: <sup>4</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, “Look, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. <sup>5</sup>I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. <sup>6</sup>I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal; they shall die of a great pestilence. <sup>7</sup>Afterward," says the LORD, "I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy." <sup>8</sup>To this people you shall say, "Thus says the LORD: 'Look, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. <sup>9</sup>He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. <sup>10</sup>For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good,' says the LORD: 'it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.' <sup>11</sup>Touching the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>12</sup>House of David, thus says the LORD, "Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. <sup>13</sup>Look, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain," says the LORD; "you that say, 'Who shall come down against us? Or who shall enter into our habitations?' <sup>14</sup>I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings," says the LORD; "and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around her."'''

22 Thus said the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, <sup>2</sup>Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. <sup>3</sup>Thus says the LORD: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. <sup>4</sup>For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. <sup>5</sup>But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation." <sup>6</sup>For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah: "You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited. <sup>7</sup>I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. <sup>8</sup>Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this great city?' <sup>9</sup>Then they shall answer, 'Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them.' <sup>10</sup>'Do not weep for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.' <sup>11</sup>For thus says the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went forth out of this place: "He shall not return there any more. <sup>12</sup>But in the place where they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more." <sup>13</sup>Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire; <sup>14</sup>who says, "I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms," and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiling with cedar, and painted with vermilion. <sup>15</sup>Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well with him. <sup>16</sup>He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me?" says the LORD. <sup>17</sup>"But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. <sup>18</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD

concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: "they shall not lament for him, saying, 'Ah my brother. or, Ah sister.' They shall not lament for him, saying, 'Ah lord.' or, 'Ah his glory.'" <sup>19</sup>He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. <sup>21</sup>I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, 'I will not hear.' This has been your way from your youth, that you did not obey my voice. <sup>22</sup>The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. <sup>23</sup>Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail. <sup>24</sup>As I live," says the LORD, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there; <sup>25</sup>and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup>I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. <sup>27</sup>But to the land whereunto their soul longs to return, there shall they not return." <sup>28</sup>Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? Is he a vessel in which none delights? Why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they do not know? <sup>29</sup>O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>30</sup>Thus says the LORD, “Write this man childless, a man who shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his seed prosper, sitting on the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.

23 “Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture.” says the LORD. <sup>2</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who feed my people: “You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; look, I will visit on you the evil of your doings,” says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>“I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. <sup>4</sup>I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking,” says the LORD. <sup>5</sup>“Look, the days come,” says the LORD, “that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>6</sup>In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name by which he shall be called: ‘The LORD our righteousness.’” <sup>7</sup>Therefore look, the days come,” says the LORD, “that they shall no more say, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt’; <sup>8</sup>but, ‘As the LORD lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where he<sup>b</sup> had driven them.’ They shall dwell in their own land.” <sup>9</sup>Concerning the prophets: My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of the LORD, and because of his holy words. <sup>10</sup>For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. “Their course is evil, and their might is not right; <sup>11</sup>for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house have I found their wickedness,” says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall in it; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation,” says the LORD. <sup>13</sup>“I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. <sup>14</sup>In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that none does return from his wickedness: they are all of them become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah.<sup>15</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets: 'Look, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land.'<sup>16</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.'<sup>17</sup> They say continually to those who despise me, "The LORD has said, 'You shall have peace'"; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, "No evil shall come on you."<sup>18</sup> For who has stood in the council of the LORD, that he should perceive and hear his word? Who has marked my word, and heard it?<sup>19</sup> Look, the storm of the LORD, his wrath, has gone forth. Yes, a whirling storm. It shall burst on the head of the wicked.<sup>20</sup> The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he has executed, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly.<sup>21</sup> I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.<sup>22</sup> But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.<sup>23</sup> Am I a God at hand,' says the LORD, 'and not a God afar off?'<sup>24</sup> Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him?' says the LORD. 'Do I not fill heaven and earth?'

says the LORD.<sup>25</sup> I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, "I have dreamed, I have dreamed."<sup>26</sup> How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart,<sup>27</sup> who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal.<sup>28</sup> The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat?' says the LORD.<sup>29</sup> Isn't my word like fire?' says the LORD; 'and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?'<sup>30</sup> Therefore look, I am against the prophets,' says the LORD, 'who steal my words everyone from his neighbor.'<sup>31</sup> Look, I am against the prophets,' says the LORD, 'who use their tongues, and say, "He says."<sup>32</sup> Look, I am against the prophets<sup>a</sup> who prophesy lying dreams,' says the LORD, 'and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I did not send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all,' says the LORD.<sup>33</sup> When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, "What is the burden of the LORD?" Then you shall tell them,

“You are the burden,<sup>a</sup> and I will cast you off,” says the LORD.<sup>34</sup> As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, “The burden of the LORD,” I will even punish that man and his house.<sup>35</sup> You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, “What has the LORD answered?” and, “What has the LORD spoken?”<sup>36</sup> You shall mention the burden of the LORD no more: for every man’s own word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.<sup>37</sup> You shall say to the prophet, “What has the LORD answered you?” and, “What has the LORD spoken?”<sup>38</sup> But if you say, “The burden of the LORD”; therefore thus says the LORD: Because you say this word, “The burden of the LORD,” and I have sent to you, saying, “You shall not say, ‘The burden of the LORD’”;<sup>39</sup> therefore, look, I will surely lift you up<sup>b</sup> and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence:<sup>40</sup> and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.”

24 The LORD showed me, and look, two baskets of figs set before the LORD’s temple, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of

Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the officials of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.<sup>2</sup> One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I said, “Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can’t be eaten, they are so bad.”<sup>4</sup> The word of the LORD came to me, saying,<sup>5</sup> Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good.<sup>6</sup> For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.<sup>7</sup> I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.’<sup>8</sup> As the bad figs, which can’t be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says the LORD, ‘So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt,<sup>9</sup> I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them.<sup>10</sup> I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.”

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), <sup>2</sup>which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: <sup>3</sup>“From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. <sup>4</sup>The LORD has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) <sup>5</sup>saying, ‘Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forevermore; <sup>6</sup>and do not go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm. <sup>7</sup>Yet you have not listened to me,’ says the LORD; ‘that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.’ <sup>8</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Because you have not heard my words, <sup>9</sup>behold, I will send and take all the families of the north,’ says the LORD, ‘and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. <sup>10</sup>Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup>This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. <sup>12</sup>It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. <sup>13</sup>I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup>For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.”

<sup>15</sup>For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. <sup>16</sup>They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.”

<sup>17</sup>Then took I the cup at the LORD’s hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom the LORD had sent me: <sup>18</sup>Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its officials, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; <sup>19</sup>Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his officials, and all his people; <sup>20</sup>and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; <sup>21</sup>Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; <sup>22</sup>and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; <sup>23</sup>Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; <sup>24</sup>and all the kings of Arabia, [and all the kings of the mixed people]<sup>a</sup> who dwell in the wilderness; <sup>25</sup>and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; <sup>26</sup>and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

<sup>27</sup>You shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.”’ <sup>28</sup>It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “You shall surely drink. <sup>29</sup>For, look, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth.”’ says the LORD of hosts. <sup>30</sup>Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and tell them, ‘The LORD will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. <sup>31</sup>A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword,’ says the LORD. <sup>32</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Look, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.’ <sup>33</sup>The slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground. <sup>34</sup>Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in dust, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a goodly vessel. <sup>35</sup>The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. <sup>36</sup>A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock. For the LORD lays waste their pasture. <sup>37</sup>The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>38</sup>He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger.”

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD’s house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not diminish a word. <sup>3</sup>It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may relent of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. <sup>4</sup>You shall tell them, ‘Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, <sup>5</sup>to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; <sup>6</sup>then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.’” <sup>7</sup>The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. <sup>8</sup>It happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, “You shall surely die. <sup>9</sup>Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant?’” All the people were gathered to Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to the house of the LORD; and they sat in the entry of the New Gate of the LORD’s house. <sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the officials and to all the people, saying, “This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, “The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. <sup>13</sup>Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will

relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. <sup>14</sup>But as for me, look, I am in your hands; do with me as is good and right in your eyes. <sup>15</sup>Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.” <sup>17</sup>Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, <sup>18</sup>“Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.”’<sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD, and seek the favor of the LORD, and the LORD relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.

<sup>20</sup>There was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. <sup>21</sup>And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt. <sup>22</sup>And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; <sup>23</sup>and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.” <sup>24</sup>But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD to me: Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck; <sup>3</sup>and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; <sup>4</sup>and give them a command to their masters, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, You shall tell your masters: <sup>5</sup>I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. <sup>6</sup>Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also have I given him to serve him. <sup>7</sup>All the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondservant. <sup>8</sup>It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. <sup>9</sup>But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon': <sup>10</sup>for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. <sup>11</sup>But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, says the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell in it.'""

words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. <sup>13</sup>Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? <sup>14</sup>Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon'; for they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>15</sup>For I have not sent them,' says the LORD, 'but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you.'"

<sup>16</sup>Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Look, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>17</sup>Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation?' <sup>18</sup>But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, do not go to Babylon. <sup>19</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, <sup>20</sup>which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; <sup>21</sup>yes, thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: <sup>22</sup>'They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them,' says the LORD; 'then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.'"

28 It happened the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, <sup>24</sup>"Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. <sup>3</sup>Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: <sup>4</sup>and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon,' says the LORD; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

<sup>5</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, <sup>6</sup>even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen: LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place. <sup>7</sup>Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: <sup>8</sup>The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. <sup>9</sup>The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD has truly sent him."

<sup>10</sup>Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. <sup>11</sup>Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations.'" The prophet Jeremiah went his way.

the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron. <sup>14</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the animals of the field also." <sup>15</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hananiah: the LORD has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, 'Look, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD.'" <sup>17</sup>So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, <sup>2</sup>(after that Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metal workers, had departed from Jerusalem), <sup>3</sup>by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, <sup>4</sup>"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>5</sup>"Build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit. <sup>6</sup>Take wives, and father sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and do not be diminished. <sup>7</sup>Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you shall have peace.' <sup>8</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Do not let your prophets who are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. <sup>9</sup>For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them,' says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>"For thus says the LORD, 'After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. <sup>11</sup>For I know the plans that I have for you,' says the LORD, 'plans for your welfare, and not for calamity, to give you hope and a future. <sup>12</sup>You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup>You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. <sup>14</sup>I will be found by you,' says the LORD, 'and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you,’ says the LORD; ‘and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.’

<sup>15</sup>“Because you have said, ‘The LORD has raised us up prophets in Babylon’; <sup>16</sup>thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven’t gone forth with you into captivity; <sup>17</sup>thus says the LORD of hosts; ‘Look, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can’t be eaten, they are so bad. <sup>18</sup>I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; <sup>19</sup>because they have not listened to my words,’ says the LORD, ‘with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear,’ says the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Hear therefore the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.’

Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: ‘Look, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes; <sup>22</sup>and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, “The LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahiab,<sup>b</sup> whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire”; <sup>23</sup>because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I did not command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness,’ says the LORD.”

<sup>24</sup>“Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, <sup>25</sup>Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, “Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, <sup>26</sup>The LORD has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. <sup>27</sup>Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, <sup>28</sup>because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, “The captivity is long: build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit?'"

<sup>29</sup>Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>30</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>31</sup>"Send to all them of the captivity, saying, 'Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: "Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie; <sup>32</sup>therefore," thus says the LORD, "Look, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people, says the LORD, because he has spoken rebellion against the LORD.'"

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

<sup>2</sup>"Thus speaks the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, 'Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a scroll. <sup>3</sup>For, look, the days come, says the LORD, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD; 'and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.'"

<sup>4</sup>These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. <sup>5</sup>For thus says the LORD: "We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. <sup>6</sup>Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? <sup>7</sup>Alas, for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. <sup>8</sup>It shall come to pass in that day," says the LORD of hosts, "that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; <sup>9</sup>but they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. <sup>10</sup>Therefore do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, look, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. <sup>11</sup>For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished." <sup>12</sup>For thus says the LORD, "Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. <sup>13</sup>There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. <sup>14</sup>All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased. <sup>15</sup>Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased,

I have done these things to you.
<sup>16</sup>Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you I will make a prey. <sup>17</sup>For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds," says the LORD; "because they have called you an outcast, saying, 'It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.'" <sup>18</sup>Thus says the LORD: "Look, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way. <sup>19</sup>Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. <sup>20</sup>Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them. <sup>21</sup>Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from their midst; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says the LORD. <sup>22</sup>You shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>23</sup>Look, the storm of the LORD, his wrath, has gone forth, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked. <sup>24</sup>The fierce anger of the LORD will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

31 "At that time," says the LORD, "will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people." <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD, "The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. <sup>3</sup>The LORD appeared of old to me, saying, 'Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn you. <sup>4</sup>Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry. <sup>5</sup>Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit. <sup>6</sup>For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, 'Arise, and let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God.'" <sup>7</sup>For thus says the LORD, "Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, 'For the LORD has saved<sup>a</sup> your people, the remnant of Israel.' <sup>8</sup>Look, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here.<sup>9</sup>They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.”<sup>10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, “He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as shepherd does his flock.”<sup>11</sup>For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.<sup>12</sup>They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.<sup>13</sup>”Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.<sup>14</sup>I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness,” says the LORD.<sup>15</sup>Thus says the LORD: “A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and weeping and great<sup>a</sup> bitterness, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.”<sup>b</sup><sup>16</sup>Thus says the LORD: “Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded,” says the LORD; “and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.<sup>17</sup>There is hope for your latter end,” says the LORD; “and your children shall come again to their own border.<sup>18</sup>I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, ‘You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are the LORD my God.<sup>19</sup>Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth.’<sup>20</sup>Is Ephraim my dear son? Is he a darling child? For as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him,” says the LORD.<sup>21</sup>”Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities.<sup>22</sup>How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man.”<sup>23</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall bring again their captivity: ‘The LORD bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.<sup>24</sup> Judah and all its cities shall dwell in it together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks.<sup>25</sup> For I have satisfied the weary soul, and I have filled every sorrowful soul.”

<sup>26</sup>On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me.<sup>27</sup> “Look, the days come,” says the LORD, “that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal.<sup>28</sup> It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant,” says the LORD.<sup>29</sup> “In those days they shall say no more, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’<sup>30</sup> But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.<sup>31</sup> Look, the days come,” says the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:<sup>32</sup> not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, and I disregarded<sup>a</sup> them,” says the

LORD.<sup>b 33</sup> “But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says the LORD: “I will put my law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:<sup>34</sup> and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD’; for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest,<sup>c</sup> for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sins I will remember no more.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; the LORD of hosts is his name:<sup>36</sup> “If these ordinances depart from before me,” says the LORD, “then the descendants of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever.”<sup>37</sup> Thus says the LORD: “If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the descendants of Israel for all that they have done,” says the LORD.

be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah. <sup>40</sup>The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever.”

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>Now at that time the king of Babylon’s army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah’s house. <sup>3</sup>For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, “Why do you prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; <sup>4</sup>and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; <sup>5</sup>and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him,” says the LORD: “though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper?””

<sup>6</sup>Jeremiah said, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>7</sup>Look, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, “Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.” <sup>8</sup>So Hanamel my uncle’s son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, “Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. <sup>9</sup>I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle’s son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. <sup>10</sup>I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. <sup>11</sup>So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; <sup>12</sup>and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle’s son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. <sup>13</sup>I commanded Baruch before them, saying, <sup>14</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days.” <sup>15</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.<sup>16</sup> Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying,<sup>17</sup> Ah, Lord GOD. Look, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you,<sup>18</sup> who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the Great, the Mighty God,<sup>a</sup> the LORD of hosts is his name;<sup>19</sup> great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:<sup>20</sup> who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made yourself a name, as in this day;<sup>21</sup> and brought forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror;<sup>22</sup> and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;<sup>23</sup> and they came in, and possessed it, but they did not obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come on them.<sup>24</sup> Look, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and look, you see it.<sup>25</sup> You have said to me, Lord GOD, “Buy the field for money, and call witnesses”; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.”<sup>26</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying,<sup>27</sup> Look, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there anything too difficult for me? <sup>28</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Look, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: <sup>29</sup>and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. <sup>30</sup>For the sons of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the sons of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. <sup>31</sup>For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, <sup>32</sup>because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they,

their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup>They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. <sup>34</sup>But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>35</sup>They built the high places of Baal, which are in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Moloch; which I did not command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.’

<sup>36</sup>Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, about which you say, ‘It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence’: <sup>37</sup>Look, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: <sup>38</sup>and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: <sup>39</sup>and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: <sup>40</sup>and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. <sup>41</sup>Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.’

<sup>42</sup>For thus says the LORD: ‘Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them. <sup>43</sup>Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, “It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.” <sup>44</sup>Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negev: for I will cause their captivity to return,’ says the LORD.”

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD who made the earth,<sup>a</sup> the LORD who forms it to establish it; the LORD is his name: <sup>3</sup>Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and hidden things, which you do not know.’ <sup>4</sup>For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword; <sup>5</sup>while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city: <sup>6</sup>Look, I will bring it health and healing, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. <sup>7</sup>I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. <sup>8</sup>I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me. <sup>9</sup>This city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Thus says the LORD: ‘Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, “It is waste, without man and without animal,” even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal, <sup>11</sup>the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, “Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his loving kindness endures forever; who bring thanksgiving into the house of the LORD.” For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first,’ says the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. <sup>13</sup>In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the Negev, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him who numbers them,’ says the LORD. <sup>14</sup>‘Look, the days come,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. <sup>15</sup>In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>16</sup>In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which she shall be called: “The LORD our righteousness.” <sup>17</sup>For thus says the LORD: “David shall never want a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; <sup>18</sup>neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.’”

says the LORD: 'If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; <sup>21</sup>then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. <sup>22</sup>As the host of heaven can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites who minister to me.'"

<sup>23</sup>The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>24</sup>"Do not consider what this people has spoken, saying, 'The two families which the LORD chose, he has cast them off?' Thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. <sup>25</sup>Thus says the LORD: 'If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; <sup>26</sup>then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.'"

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: <sup>27</sup>"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Look, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: <sup>3</sup>and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.' <sup>4</sup>Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus says the LORD concerning you, 'You shall not die by the sword; <sup>5</sup>you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, "Ah Lord." for I have spoken the word,' says the LORD.'"

<sup>6</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, <sup>7</sup>when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.

<sup>8</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; <sup>9</sup>that every man should let his male servant, and

every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. <sup>10</sup>And all the officials and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that none should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: <sup>11</sup>but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. <sup>12</sup>Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>13</sup>”Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: ‘I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, <sup>14</sup>”At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you”: but your fathers did not listen to me, neither inclined their ear. <sup>15</sup>You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: <sup>16</sup>but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for

handmaids. <sup>17</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: “You have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: look, I proclaim to you a liberty, says the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>18</sup>I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; <sup>19</sup>the officials of Judah, and the officials of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; <sup>20</sup>I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth. <sup>21</sup>And Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon’s army, who have gone away from you. <sup>22</sup>Look, I will command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.””

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of

Josiah, king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink.” <sup>3</sup>Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites. <sup>4</sup>And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hananiah son of Gedaliah,<sup>a</sup> the man of God, which was by the room of the officials, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. <sup>5</sup>I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, “Drink wine.” <sup>6</sup>But they said, “We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, ‘You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: <sup>7</sup>neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live.’ <sup>8</sup>We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; <sup>9</sup>nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: <sup>10</sup>but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab

our father commanded us. <sup>11</sup>But it happened, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, ‘Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians’; so we dwell at Jerusalem.”

<sup>12</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?”’ says the LORD. <sup>14</sup>“The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father’s commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. <sup>15</sup>I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers’: but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. <sup>16</sup>Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; <sup>17</sup>therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Look, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not listened; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.””

<sup>18</sup>Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you’; <sup>19</sup>therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me forever.’”

36 It happened in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Take a scroll, and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. <sup>3</sup>It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll. <sup>5</sup>Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, “I am shut up; I can’t go into the house of the LORD: <sup>6</sup>therefore you go, and read from the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD’s house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. <sup>7</sup>It may be they will present their petition before the LORD, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people.”

<sup>8</sup>Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD’s house. <sup>9</sup>Now it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before the LORD. <sup>10</sup>Then Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD’s house, in the ears of all the people.

<sup>11</sup>When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard from the scroll all the words of the LORD, <sup>12</sup>he went down into the king’s house, into the scribe’s room: and look, all the officials were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the officials.<sup>13</sup> Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people.<sup>14</sup> Therefore all the officials sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them.<sup>15</sup> They said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our ears." So Baruch read it in their ears.<sup>16</sup> Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words."<sup>17</sup> They asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth?"<sup>18</sup> Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll."<sup>19</sup> Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are."

was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him.<sup>23</sup> It happened, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that the king cut it with a knife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.<sup>24</sup> They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words.<sup>25</sup> Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not hear them.<sup>26</sup> The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but the LORD hid them.

<sup>27</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,<sup>28</sup> "Take again another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned.<sup>29</sup> Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have burned this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written in it, saying, "The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal?"'"<sup>30</sup> Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: "He shall have none to sit on the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. <sup>31</sup>I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they did not listen.”””

<sup>32</sup>Then Jeremiah took another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the instruction of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.

37 Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of

Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. <sup>2</sup>But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

<sup>3</sup>Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, “Pray now to the LORD our God for us.”

<sup>4</sup>Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. <sup>5</sup>Pharaoh’s army had come forth

out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>7</sup>”Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: “Look, Pharaoh’s army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. <sup>8</sup>The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire.” <sup>9</sup>Thus says the LORD, “Do not deceive yourselves, saying, ‘The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us’; for they shall not depart. <sup>10</sup>For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.”””

But he did not listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the officials. <sup>15</sup>And the officials were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

<sup>16</sup>When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; <sup>17</sup>Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?" Jeremiah said, "There is." He said also, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon." <sup>18</sup>Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup>Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? <sup>20</sup>Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my petition be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there." <sup>21</sup>Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and

Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, <sup>22</sup>Thus says the LORD, 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live.' <sup>3</sup>Thus says the LORD, 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it.' <sup>4</sup>Then the officials said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt." <sup>5</sup>Zedekiah the king said, "Look, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you." <sup>6</sup>Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire. <sup>7</sup>Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the Benjamin Gate), <sup>8</sup>Ebedmelech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, <sup>9</sup>"My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city.”<sup>10</sup> Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, “Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies.”<sup>11</sup> So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.<sup>12</sup> Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, “Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords.” Jeremiah did so.<sup>13</sup> So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

<sup>14</sup> Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said to Jeremiah, “I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me.”<sup>15</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me.”<sup>16</sup> So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, “As the LORD lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘If you will go forth to the king of Babylon’s officers, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house.’<sup>18</sup> But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon’s officers, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand.’”<sup>19</sup> Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.”<sup>20</sup> But Jeremiah said, “They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, the voice of the LORD, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live.”<sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD has shown me:<sup>22</sup> behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah’s house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon’s officers, and those women shall say, ‘Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back.’<sup>23</sup> They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.”

these words, and you shall not die. <sup>25</sup>But if the officials hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, ‘Declare to us now what you have said to the king; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you’: <sup>26</sup>then you shall tell them, ‘I presented my petition before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan’s house, to die there.’”

<sup>27</sup>Then all the officials came to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. <sup>28</sup>So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

39 It happened when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and besieged it; <sup>2</sup>in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city). <sup>3</sup>Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer the Samgar, Nebo Sarsekim the Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer the Rabmag, with all the rest of the officers of the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>It happened that, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king’s garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. <sup>5</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. <sup>6</sup>Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Moreover he put out Zedekiah’s eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. <sup>8</sup>The Chaldeans burned the king’s house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. <sup>10</sup>But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

<sup>11</sup>Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, <sup>12</sup>”Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall tell you.” <sup>13</sup>So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabсарis, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; <sup>14</sup>they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people.

<sup>15</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>16</sup>“Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Look, I will bring my words on this city for disaster, and not for prosperity; and they shall be fulfilled before you in that day. <sup>17</sup>But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. <sup>18</sup>For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life will be given to you as a reward; because you have put your trust in me,’” says the LORD.”

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, “The LORD your God pronounced this evil on this place;

<sup>3</sup>and the LORD has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. <sup>4</sup>Now, look, I release you this day from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, do not: look, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go.”

<sup>5</sup>Now while he had not yet gone back, “Go back then,” he said, “to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go.” So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. <sup>6</sup>Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

<sup>7</sup>Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; <sup>8</sup>then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and

Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.<sup>9</sup> Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.<sup>10</sup> As for me, look, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.”

<sup>11</sup>Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan;<sup>12</sup> then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

<sup>13</sup>Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,<sup>14</sup> and said to him, “Do you know that Baalis<sup>a</sup> the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.<sup>15</sup> Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, “Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?”<sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, “You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.”

41 Now it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah.<sup>2</sup> Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.<sup>3</sup> Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.<sup>4</sup> It happened the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it,<sup>5</sup> that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it happened, as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam."<sup>7</sup>It was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. <sup>8</sup>But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he stopped, and did not kill them among their brothers. <sup>9</sup>Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was who which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. <sup>10</sup>Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup>But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, <sup>12</sup>then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>Now it happened that, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. <sup>14</sup>So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup>But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.

<sup>16</sup>Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: <sup>17</sup>and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, <sup>18</sup>because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan

the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, <sup>2</sup>and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our petition be presented before you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: <sup>3</sup>that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do." <sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you; look, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you." <sup>5</sup>Then they said to Jeremiah, "The LORD be a true and faithful witness among us, if we do not do according to all the word with which the LORD your God shall send you to us. <sup>6</sup>Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

<sup>7</sup>It happened after ten days, that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, <sup>9</sup>and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before him: <sup>10</sup>If you will still live in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. <sup>11</sup>Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him, says the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. <sup>12</sup>I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.' <sup>13</sup>But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land'; so that you do not obey the voice of the LORD your God, <sup>14</sup>saying, 'No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell': <sup>15</sup>now therefore hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah: Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 'If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; <sup>16</sup>then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. <sup>17</sup>So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.' <sup>18</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more.’<sup>19</sup>The LORD has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, ‘Do not go into Egypt’: know certainly that I have testified to you this day.<sup>20</sup>For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, ‘Pray for us to the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it’:<sup>21</sup>and I have this day declared it to you; but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything for which he has sent me to you.<sup>22</sup>Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there.”

43 It happened that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,<sup>2</sup>then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, “You speak falsely. The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You shall not go into Egypt to live there’;<sup>3</sup>but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon.”<sup>4</sup>So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, did not obey the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.<sup>5</sup>But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah;<sup>6</sup>the men, and the women, and the children, and the king’s daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah;<sup>7</sup>and they came into the land of Egypt; for they did not obey the voice of the LORD: and they came to Tahpanhes.

a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go forth from there in peace. <sup>13</sup>He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh,<sup>a</sup> that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.””

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and look, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them, <sup>3</sup>because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they did not know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. <sup>4</sup>However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate.’ <sup>5</sup>But they did not listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup>Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.’ <sup>7</sup>Therefore now thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the midst of Judah, to leave yourselves none remaining; <sup>8</sup>in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? <sup>9</sup>Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup>They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.’ <sup>11</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Look, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. <sup>12</sup>I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. <sup>13</sup>For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; <sup>14</sup>so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape.”

<sup>15</sup>Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, <sup>16</sup>“As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven,<sup>a</sup> and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our leaders, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. <sup>18</sup>But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.” <sup>19</sup>And the woman said,<sup>b</sup> “When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?”

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, <sup>21</sup>“The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your leaders, and the people of the land. Did not the LORD remember them, and did not it come into his mind, <sup>22</sup>so that the LORD could no longer bear because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed? Therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. <sup>23</sup>Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is this day.”

<sup>24</sup>Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: <sup>25</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, 'You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, "We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her": establish then your vows, and perform your vows.' <sup>26</sup>Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: 'Look, I have sworn by my great name,' says the Lord, 'that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, "As the Lord GOD lives."' <sup>27</sup>Look, I watch over them for disaster, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. <sup>28</sup>Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. <sup>29</sup>This shall be the sign to you,' says the LORD, 'that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil': <sup>30</sup>Thus says the LORD, 'Look, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.'"

45 The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup>"You said, "Woe is me now. For the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.'"

<sup>4</sup>"You shall tell him, 'Thus says the LORD: "Look, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. <sup>5</sup>Do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for, look, I will bring disaster on all flesh, says the LORD; but your life will I give to you for a reward in all places where you go.'"

46 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. <sup>2</sup>Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Perath in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>"Prepare the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. <sup>4</sup>Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail. <sup>5</sup>Why have I seen it? They are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and have fled in haste, and do not look back: terror is on every side," says the LORD. <sup>6</sup>"Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Perath have they stumbled and fallen. <sup>7</sup>Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers? <sup>8</sup>Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, 'I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and its inhabitants.' <sup>9</sup>Go up, you horses; and rage, you chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put, who handle the shield; and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow. <sup>10</sup>For that day is of the Lord, the LORD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiate, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Perath. <sup>11</sup>Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you. <sup>12</sup>The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together."

<sup>13</sup>The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>"Declare in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say, 'Stand forth, and prepare; for the sword has devoured around you.' <sup>15</sup>Why are your strong ones swept away? They did not stand, because the LORD pushed them. <sup>16</sup>He made many to stumble, yes, they fell one on another: and they said, 'Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword.' <sup>17</sup>They cried there, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by.'"

<sup>18</sup>"As I live," says the King, "whose name is the LORD of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. <sup>19</sup>You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant. <sup>20</sup>Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north has come, it has come. <sup>21</sup>Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation. <sup>22</sup>The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. <sup>23</sup>They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. <sup>24</sup>The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.”

<sup>25</sup>”The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Look, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: <sup>26</sup>and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old,’ says the LORD. <sup>27</sup>”But do not be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, look, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. <sup>28</sup>Do not be afraid, O Jacob my servant,’ says the LORD; ‘for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.’”

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh struck Gaza. <sup>2</sup>”Thus says the LORD: ‘Look, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell in it; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail. <sup>3</sup>At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers do not look back to their children for feebleness of hands; <sup>4</sup>because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains: for the LORD will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Capthor. <sup>5</sup>Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley; how long will you cut yourself? <sup>6</sup>You sword of the LORD, “how long will it be before you be quiet? Put up yourself into your scabbard; rest, and be still.” <sup>7</sup>How can you be quiet, since the LORD has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has he appointed it.””

48 Of Moab. “Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Woe to Nebo. for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. <sup>2</sup>The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: “Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation.” You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. <sup>3</sup>The sound of a cry from Horonaim, “destruction and great calamity.” <sup>4</sup>Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. <sup>5</sup>For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. <sup>6</sup>"Flee, save your lives, and be like a shrub in the wilderness." <sup>7</sup>For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his priests and his officials together. <sup>8</sup>The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as the LORD has spoken. <sup>9</sup>Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell in them. <sup>10</sup>Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. <sup>11</sup>Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. <sup>12</sup>Therefore look, the days come,' says the LORD, 'that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. <sup>13</sup>Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. <sup>14</sup>How can you say, "We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war?" <sup>15</sup>Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter,' says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. <sup>16</sup>The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. <sup>17</sup>All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, "How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod." <sup>18</sup>You daughter, who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. <sup>19</sup>Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, "What has been done?" <sup>20</sup>Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste." <sup>21</sup>Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, <sup>22</sup>and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim, <sup>23</sup>and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, <sup>24</sup>and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. <sup>25</sup>The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken,' says the LORD. <sup>26</sup>'Make him drunk; for he magnified himself against the LORD: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. <sup>27</sup>For wasn't Israel a derision to you? Was he found among thieves? For as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. <sup>28</sup>You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. <sup>29</sup>We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. <sup>30</sup>I know his wrath,' says the LORD, 'that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing. <sup>31</sup>Therefore I will wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab; I will mourn for the men of Kir Heres. <sup>32</sup>With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. <sup>33</sup>Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: none shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. <sup>34</sup>From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate. <sup>35</sup>Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab,' says the LORD, 'him who offers sacrifice<sup>a</sup> in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. <sup>36</sup>Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. <sup>37</sup>For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. <sup>38</sup>On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which none delights,' says the LORD. <sup>39</sup>How it is broken down.

How they wail. How Moab has turned the back with shame. So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him.' <sup>40</sup>For thus says the LORD: 'Look, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. <sup>41</sup>Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. <sup>42</sup>Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against the LORD. <sup>43</sup>Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says the LORD. <sup>44</sup>He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation,' says the LORD. <sup>45</sup>'Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. <sup>46</sup>Woe to you, O Moab. The people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. <sup>47</sup>Yet will I bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days,' says the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab."

Of the children of Ammon. "Thus says the LORD: 'Has Israel no sons? Has he no heir? Why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities? <sup>2</sup>Therefore look, the days come,' says the LORD, 'that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who possessed him,' says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>'Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his officials together. <sup>4</sup>'Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? You who trusted in her treasures, saying,<sup>a</sup> "Who shall come to me?"' <sup>5</sup>Look, I will bring a fear on you,' says the Lord, the LORD of hosts, 'from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather together the fugitives. <sup>6</sup>But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon,' says the LORD."

<sup>7</sup>Of Edom. "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Is wisdom no more in Teman? Is counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished? <sup>8</sup>Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. <sup>9</sup>If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? If thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough?' <sup>10</sup>But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more. <sup>11</sup>Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me.' <sup>12</sup>For thus says the LORD: 'Look, they to whom it did not pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. <sup>13</sup>For I have sworn by myself,' says the LORD, 'that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes.'"

<sup>15</sup>"For, look, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. <sup>16</sup>As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there," says the LORD. <sup>17</sup>"Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues.<sup>18</sup> As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it," says the LORD, "no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live in it.<sup>19</sup> Look, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who will stand before me?<sup>20</sup> Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them.<sup>21</sup> The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Sea of Suf.<sup>a</sup> <sup>22</sup> Look, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs."

<sup>23</sup> Of Damascus. "Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet.<sup>24</sup> Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail.<sup>25</sup> How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy?<sup>26</sup> Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day," says the LORD of hosts.<sup>27</sup> "I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad."

50 The word that the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>2</sup>“Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and do not conceal: say, ‘Babylon is taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed; her images are disappointed, her idols are dismayed. <sup>3</sup>For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell in it: they are fled, they are gone, both man and animal. <sup>4</sup>In those days, and in that time,’ says the LORD, ‘the sons of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek the LORD their God. <sup>5</sup>They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, “Come, and join yourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten.” <sup>6</sup>My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. <sup>7</sup>All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, “We are not guilty, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of righteousness, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.” <sup>8</sup>Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks. <sup>9</sup>For, look, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; none shall return in vain. <sup>10</sup>Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied,’ says the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; <sup>12</sup>your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: look, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. <sup>13</sup>Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. <sup>14</sup>Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her towers are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. <sup>16</sup>Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land.”

<sup>17</sup>Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. <sup>18</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “Look, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. <sup>20</sup>In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.””

<sup>21</sup>”Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them,” says the LORD, “and do according to all that I have commanded you. <sup>22</sup>A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. <sup>23</sup>How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken. How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations. <sup>24</sup>I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren’t aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against the LORD. <sup>25</sup>The LORD has opened his armory, and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup>Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. <sup>27</sup>Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them. For their day has come, the time of their visitation.”

<sup>28</sup>The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. <sup>29</sup>”Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; camp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>30</sup>Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says the LORD. <sup>31</sup>"Look, I am against you, you proud one," says the Lord, the LORD of hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. <sup>32</sup>The proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him."

<sup>33</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "The sons of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. <sup>34</sup>Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. <sup>35</sup>A sword is on the Chaldeans," says the LORD, "and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her officials, and on her wise men. <sup>36</sup>A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. <sup>37</sup>A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. <sup>38</sup>A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they glory over idols.

<sup>39</sup>Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell in it; and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. <sup>40</sup>As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it," says the LORD, "so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live in it."

<sup>41</sup>"Look, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. <sup>42</sup>They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. <sup>43</sup>The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. <sup>44</sup>Look, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? And who will appoint me a time? And who is the shepherd who can stand before me?"

<sup>45</sup>Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: "Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. <sup>46</sup>At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.”

51 Thus says the LORD: “Look, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind. <sup>2</sup>I will send to Babylon foreigners who shall winnow her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her around. <sup>3</sup>Do not let him who bends the bow bend it; nor not let him rise up in his armor. And do not spare her young men; utterly destroy her entire army. <sup>4</sup>They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.

everyone into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.’ <sup>10</sup>“The LORD has brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.’

<sup>11</sup>Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: the LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple. <sup>12</sup>Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for the LORD has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. <sup>13</sup>You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness. <sup>14</sup>The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself, saying, “Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you.” <sup>15</sup>He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens. <sup>16</sup>When he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the farthest parts of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasures. <sup>17</sup>Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.<sup>18</sup>They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.<sup>19</sup>The portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the maker of all things; and Israel<sup>a</sup> is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.<sup>20</sup>“You are my battle axe and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms; <sup>21</sup>and with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and its rider.<sup>22</sup>And with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the virgin; <sup>23</sup>and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies.<sup>24</sup>I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight,” says the LORD.<sup>25</sup>“Look, I am against you, destroying mountain,” says the LORD, “which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain.<sup>26</sup>They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever,” says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: “The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her.<sup>34</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out.<sup>35</sup>The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon,' shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, 'My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea,' shall Jerusalem say.

<sup>36</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: "Look, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. <sup>37</sup>Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. <sup>38</sup>They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. <sup>39</sup>When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake," says the LORD. <sup>40</sup>"I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. <sup>41</sup>How is Sheshach taken. and the praise of the whole earth seized. How is Babylon become a desolation among the nations. <sup>42</sup>The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. <sup>43</sup>Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. <sup>44</sup>I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall."

fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>46</sup>Do not let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. <sup>47</sup>Therefore look, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. <sup>48</sup>Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north," says the LORD.

<sup>58</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: “The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary.”

<sup>59</sup>The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. <sup>60</sup>Jeremiah wrote in a scroll all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. <sup>61</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, <sup>62</sup>and say, ‘LORD, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell in it, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever.’ <sup>63</sup>It shall be, when you have made an end of reading this scroll, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Perath: <sup>64</sup>and you shall say, ‘Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they shall be weary.’” Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup>For through the anger of the LORD it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and camped against it; and they built forts against it round about. <sup>5</sup>So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup>In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>7</sup>Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah. <sup>8</sup>But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>9</sup>Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. <sup>10</sup>The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the officials of Judah in Riblah. <sup>11</sup>He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death. <sup>12</sup>Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: <sup>13</sup>and he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned he with fire. <sup>14</sup>All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. <sup>15</sup>Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. <sup>16</sup>But

Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers. <sup>17</sup>The Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon. <sup>18</sup>They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. <sup>19</sup>The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. <sup>20</sup>They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the sea,<sup>a</sup> and the stands which king Solomon had made for the house of the LORD. The bronze of all these vessels was without weight. <sup>21</sup>As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. <sup>22</sup>A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. <sup>23</sup>There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. <sup>24</sup>The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: <sup>25</sup>and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. <sup>26</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>27</sup>The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>28</sup>This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews; <sup>29</sup>in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; <sup>30</sup>in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

<sup>31</sup>It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; <sup>32</sup>and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>33</sup>and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: <sup>34</sup>and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

1 ALEPH

How the city sits solitary, that was full of people. She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations. She who was a princess among the provinces has become a forced laborer.

BET

<sup>2</sup>She weeps bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has none to comfort her. All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they have become her enemies.

GIMEL

Lamentations 1

<sup>3</sup>Judah has gone into exile because of affliction and harsh servitude;
she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest:
all her persecutors overtook her in the midst of her
distress.

<sup>4</sup>The roads to Zion mourn, because no one comes to the solemn assembly;
all her gates are desolate, her
priests groan:
her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

<sup>5</sup>Her adversaries have become the head, her enemies
prosper;
for the LORD has afflicted her for the multitude of her
transgressions:
her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary.

WAW

<sup>6</sup>All majesty has departed from the daughter of Zion:
her leaders have become like deer
that find no pasture,
they fled exhausted before the pursuer.

ZAYIN

<sup>7</sup>Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and wandering all her

precious things that were from the days of
old:
when her people fell into the hand
of the adversary, and no one helped her.
The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations.

HET

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem has grievously sinned;
therefore she has become as an unclean
thing;
all who honored her despise her,
because they have
seen her nakedness:
yes, she groans, and turns away.

TET

<sup>9</sup>Her filthiness was in her skirts;
she did not remember
her latter end;
therefore her fall was astonishing;
she has no comforter.
“Look, LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself.”

YOD

<sup>10</sup>The adversary has spread out his hand on all her precious things:
for she has seen that the nations
have entered into her
sanctuary,
concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

<sup>11</sup>All her people sigh, they seek
bread;
they have given their precious things for food to refresh the soul.
“Look, LORD, and see, for I am despised.”

LAMED

<sup>12</sup>Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me,
with which the LORD has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

MEM

<sup>13</sup>From on high he has sent fire
into my bones, and it overcame them.
He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back.
He has made me desolate and faint
all the day.

<sup>14</sup>My transgressions are bound into a yoke; by his hand
they are fastened together, they are set upon my neck; he has made my strength
to fail.

The LORD<sup>a</sup> has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD<sup>b</sup> has rejected all my mighty men in my
midst;
he has called a solemn assembly
against me to crush my young men.
The LORD<sup>c</sup> has trodden as in a daughter of Judah.

<sup>16</sup>For these things I weep; my because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far

from me.
My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.

in the thirtieth year, in that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. <sup>2</sup>In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin’s captivity, <sup>3</sup>the word of the LORD came<sup>c</sup> to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar;

and the hand of the LORD came upon me.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>I looked, and look, a stormy wind came out of the

it, and out of its midst as it were

This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. <sup>6</sup>And their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished bronze. <sup>8</sup>They had the hands<sup>a</sup> of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: <sup>9</sup>their wings were joined one to another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. <sup>10</sup>As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle. <sup>11</sup>Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. <sup>12</sup>Each one went straight forward: where the spirit would go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. <sup>13</sup>And in the midst<sup>b</sup> of the living creatures was an appearance<sup>c</sup> of burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. <sup>14</sup>The living creatures darted back and forth, like the appearance of a flash of lightning. <sup>15</sup>Now as I saw the living creatures, look, there was a wheel on the ground beside each living creature with it's four faces. <sup>16</sup>The appearance of the wheels

and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had the same likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. <sup>17</sup>When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. <sup>18</sup>As for their rims, they were high and awesome; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. <sup>19</sup>When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose. <sup>20</sup>They went in whichever direction<sup>d</sup> the spirit would go, and the wheels rose alongside them because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup>When those [the living creatures] moved, these [the wheels] moved; and when those [the living creatures] stood still, these [the wheels] stood still; and when those [the living creatures] rose from the ground, the wheels rose alongside them because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. <sup>22</sup>Over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of an expanse, like glittering ice, it was awesome to look upon, stretched out over their heads above. <sup>23</sup>Under the expanse their wings were straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. <sup>24</sup>When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of Shaddai, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. <sup>25</sup>There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings. <sup>26</sup>Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire<sup>a</sup> stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. <sup>27</sup>I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. <sup>28</sup>As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

2 He said to me, “Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you.” <sup>2</sup>The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, I send you to the house<sup>b</sup> of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. <sup>4</sup>The children are obstinate and hardhearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD.’ <sup>5</sup>They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. <sup>6</sup>You, son of man, do not be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: do not be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>7</sup>You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. <sup>8</sup>But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you.”

<sup>9</sup>And I looked and saw a hand was extended to me; and, look,<sup>c</sup> a written scroll was in it. <sup>10</sup>And he spread it before me, and it was written on the front and on the back. And written on it were lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

3 He said to me, “Son of man, eat that which you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.” <sup>2</sup>So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your belly with this scroll that I give you.” So I ate it,<sup>a</sup> and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. <sup>4</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. <sup>5</sup>For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; <sup>6</sup>not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. <sup>7</sup>But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate<sup>b</sup> and hard-hearted. <sup>8</sup>Look, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. <sup>9</sup>As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead. Do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>10</sup>Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. <sup>11</sup>And go to the exiles, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD’; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. <sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, “Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.” <sup>13</sup>I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. <sup>14</sup>So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the anger of my spirit; and the hand of the LORD was strong on me. <sup>15</sup>Then I came to them of the exiles at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. <sup>16</sup>It happened at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup>“Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. <sup>18</sup>When I tell the wicked, ‘You shall surely die’; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>19</sup>Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn’t turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

<sup>20</sup>Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>21</sup>Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul.”

<sup>22</sup>The hand of the LORD was there on me; and he said to me, “Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you.” <sup>23</sup>Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and look, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. <sup>24</sup>Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, “Go, shut yourself inside your house. <sup>25</sup>But you, son of man, look, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: <sup>26</sup>and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. <sup>27</sup>But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD’: He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4 “You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: <sup>2</sup>and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around. <sup>3</sup>Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. <sup>5</sup>For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you. <sup>7</sup>You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. <sup>8</sup>Look, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

<sup>9</sup>Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. <sup>10</sup>Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time

you shall eat it. <sup>11</sup>You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. <sup>12</sup>You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man.” <sup>13</sup>The LORD said, “Even thus shall the sons of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them.”

<sup>14</sup>Then I said, “Ah Lord GOD. Look, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup>Then he said to me, “Look, I have given you cow’s dung for man’s dung, and you shall prepare your bread thereon.”

<sup>16</sup>Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, look, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: <sup>17</sup>that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 “You, son of man, take a sharp sword; You shall take it as a barber’s razor to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. <sup>2</sup>A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. <sup>3</sup>You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. <sup>4</sup>Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.”

<sup>5</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘This is Jerusalem; I have placed her at the center of the nations, and countries are around her. <sup>6</sup>She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them.’

<sup>7</sup>”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you’; <sup>8</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Look, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. <sup>9</sup>I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. <sup>10</sup>Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds.’

<sup>11</sup>”Therefore as I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. <sup>12</sup>A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. <sup>13</sup>Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. <sup>14</sup>Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. <sup>15</sup>And you<sup>a</sup> shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; I, the LORD, have spoken; <sup>16</sup>when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I

6 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them, <sup>3</sup>and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: “Look, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. <sup>4</sup>Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. <sup>5</sup>I will lay the dead bodies of the sons of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup>In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. <sup>7</sup>The slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>”Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There shall be nothing of value among them. <sup>12</sup>The time has come, the day draws near: do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. <sup>13</sup>For the buyer<sup>b</sup> shall not return to the seller while they live. For the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. <sup>14</sup>They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but none goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude. <sup>15</sup>The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. <sup>16</sup>But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. <sup>17</sup>All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. <sup>18</sup>They shall also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. <sup>19</sup>They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. <sup>20</sup>As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things. Therefore I will render it an unclean thing to them. <sup>21</sup>I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. <sup>22</sup>My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it.

from the priest, and counsel from the elders. <sup>27</sup>The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

8 It happened in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there on me. <sup>2</sup>Then I saw, and look, a likeness as the appearance of a man;<sup>a</sup> from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. <sup>3</sup>He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. <sup>4</sup>Look, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. <sup>5</sup>Then he said to me, “Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north.” So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. <sup>6</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they do? Even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations.”

<sup>7</sup>He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, look, a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>Then he said to me, “Son of man, dig now in the wall”; and when I had dug in the wall, look, a door. <sup>9</sup>He said to me, “Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here.” <sup>10</sup>So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. <sup>11</sup>There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? For they say, ‘The LORD doesn’t see us. The LORD has forsaken the land.’”

<sup>13</sup>He said also to me, “You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD’s house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. <sup>15</sup>Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You shall again see yet greater abominations than these."

<sup>16</sup>He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and see, at the door of the LORD's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward the LORD's temple, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east. <sup>17</sup>Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and look, they put the branch to their nose. <sup>18</sup>Therefore I will also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them."

9 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand." <sup>2</sup>Look, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in their midst clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar. <sup>3</sup>The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. <sup>4</sup>The LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in its midst." <sup>5</sup>To the others he said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike: do not let your eye spare, neither have pity; <sup>6</sup>kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but do not come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary." Then they began at the old men that were before the house.

<sup>7</sup>He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth." They went forth, and struck in the city. <sup>8</sup>It happened, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord GOD. Will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?" <sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD doesn't see.'
<sup>10</sup>As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

10 Then I looked, and saw, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire<sup>a</sup> stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. <sup>2</sup>He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, “Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherubim,<sup>b</sup> and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city.” He went in as I watched.

<sup>3</sup>Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. <sup>4</sup>The glory of the LORD mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD’s glory. <sup>5</sup>The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of El Shaddai when he speaks.

between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim,” that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. <sup>7</sup>The cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. <sup>8</sup>There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man’s hand under their wings.

<sup>9</sup>I looked, and look, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. <sup>10</sup>As for their appearance, the four of them had the same likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>11</sup>When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn’t turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn’t turn as they went. <sup>12</sup>Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. <sup>13</sup>As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, “the whirling wheels.” <sup>14</sup>Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup>The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. <sup>16</sup>When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. <sup>17</sup>When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

<sup>18</sup>The glory of the LORD went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. <sup>19</sup>The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

<sup>20</sup>These were the living creatures that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. <sup>21</sup>Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. <sup>22</sup>As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of the LORD's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw in their midst Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, officials of the people. <sup>2</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; <sup>3</sup>who say, 'The time is not near to build houses: this is the caldron, and we are the meat.' <sup>4</sup>Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man."

<sup>5</sup>The Spirit of the LORD fell on me, and he said to me, "Speak, Thus says the LORD: 'Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. <sup>6</sup>You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.' <sup>7</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this is the caldron; but I<sup>a</sup> will bring you out of it. <sup>8</sup>You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you,' says the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup>I will bring you forth out of its midst, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. <sup>10</sup>You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>11</sup>This shall not be your caldron, neither shall you be the meat in its midst; I will judge you in the border of Israel; <sup>12</sup>and you shall know that I am the LORD: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you.”<sup>13</sup>

<sup>13</sup>It happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, “Ah Lord GOD. Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?”

<sup>14</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>15</sup>“Son of man, your brothers,<sup>a</sup> the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Go far away from the LORD. This land has been given to us for a possession.’ <sup>16</sup>Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come.””

<sup>17</sup>Therefore say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.” <sup>18</sup>They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. <sup>19</sup>I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; <sup>20</sup>that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup>But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads,’ says the Lord GOD.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. <sup>23</sup>The glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. <sup>24</sup>The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. <sup>25</sup>Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

12 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and do not see, who have ears to hear, and do not hear; for they are a rebellious house. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>4</sup>You shall bring forth your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go forth yourself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. <sup>5</sup>Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. <sup>6</sup>In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you do not see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight. <sup>8</sup>In the morning came the word of the LORD to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>”Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, ‘What are you doing?’ <sup>10</sup>Say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are.’ <sup>11</sup>Say, ‘I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.’

land with his eyes. <sup>13</sup>My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. <sup>14</sup>I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. <sup>15</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. <sup>16</sup>But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>22</sup>”Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?' <sup>23</sup>Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel'; but tell them, 'The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. <sup>24</sup>For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup>For I am the LORD; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it,' says the Lord GOD."

<sup>26</sup>Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>27</sup>"Son of man, look, they of the house of Israel say, 'The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.' <sup>28</sup>Therefore tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Lord GOD.'"

13 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear the word of the LORD: <sup>3</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD, "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing. <sup>4</sup>Israel, your prophets have been

like foxes in the waste places. <sup>5</sup>You have not gone up into the breach,<sup>a</sup> neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD."<sup>6</sup>They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, "The LORD says"; but the LORD has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. <sup>7</sup>"Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, "The LORD says"; but I have not spoken? <sup>8</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, look, I am against you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup>My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. <sup>10</sup>Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, 'Peace'; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, look, they plaster it with whitewash: <sup>11</sup>tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind break out. <sup>12</sup>Look, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, 'Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it?'

<sup>13</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. <sup>14</sup>So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in its midst: and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, 'The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; <sup>16</sup>to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace,' says the Lord GOD."

<sup>20</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Look, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. <sup>21</sup>Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>22</sup>Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: <sup>23</sup>Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

14 Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me, and sat before me. <sup>2</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? <sup>4</sup>Therefore speak to them, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him in it according to the multitude of his idols; <sup>5</sup>that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.”

<sup>6</sup>”Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Return, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. <sup>7</sup>For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: <sup>8</sup>and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>””If the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. <sup>10</sup>They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; <sup>11</sup>that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God,” says the Lord GOD.”

man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; <sup>14</sup>though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD.”

<sup>15</sup>”If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; <sup>16</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate.

<sup>17</sup>”Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land’; so that I cut off from it man and animal; <sup>18</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves.

<sup>19</sup>”Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; <sup>20</sup>though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they could not save either son nor daughter; they would save only their own souls by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup>”For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal. <sup>22</sup>Yet, look, there shall be left a remnant that shall be carried forth, both sons and daughters: look, they shall come forth to you, and you shall see their way and their doings; and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. <sup>23</sup>They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it,’ says the Lord GOD.”

15 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? <sup>3</sup>Shall wood be taken of it to make any work? Or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? <sup>4</sup>Look, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and its midst is burned: is it profitable for any work? <sup>5</sup>Look, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work.

<sup>6</sup>”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>I will set my face against them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. <sup>8</sup>I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass,’ says the Lord GOD.”

16 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; <sup>3</sup>and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your birth and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. <sup>4</sup>As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you weren’t salted at all, nor swaddled at all. <sup>5</sup>No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born.

<sup>6</sup>”And I passed by you and saw you wallowing in your blood, and I said to you in your blood: ‘Live.’<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup>”Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, look, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘and you became mine.

<sup>9</sup>”Then I washed you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup>I clothed you also with embroidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I dressed you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup>I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. <sup>12</sup>I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup>Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. <sup>14</sup>Your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you,’ says the Lord GOD.

was. <sup>16</sup>You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. <sup>17</sup>You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; <sup>18</sup>and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. <sup>19</sup>My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and thus it was,’ says the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup>”Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, <sup>21</sup>that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? <sup>22</sup>In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood.

and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. <sup>26</sup>You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. <sup>27</sup>See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. <sup>28</sup>You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. <sup>29</sup>You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.

<sup>30</sup>”How weak is your heart, says the Lord GOD, since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; <sup>31</sup>in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay.

<sup>32</sup>”A wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband. <sup>33</sup>They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. <sup>34</sup>You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different.’

<sup>35</sup>”Therefore, prostitute, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>36</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; <sup>37</sup>therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. <sup>38</sup>I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. <sup>39</sup>I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup>They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. <sup>41</sup>They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no hire any more. <sup>42</sup>So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

<sup>43</sup>”Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, look, I also will bring your way on your head,” says the Lord GOD: “and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.

<sup>44</sup>”Look, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, “As is the mother, so is her daughter.” <sup>45</sup>You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. <sup>46</sup>Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. <sup>47</sup>Yet have you not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. <sup>48</sup>As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters.

prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. <sup>50</sup>They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. <sup>51</sup>Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. <sup>52</sup>You also, bear your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

<sup>53</sup>”I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in their midst; <sup>54</sup>that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. <sup>55</sup>Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. <sup>56</sup>For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, <sup>57</sup>before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria,<sup>a</sup> and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who do despite to you all around.<sup>58</sup> You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>59</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.<sup>60</sup> Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant.<sup>61</sup> Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters; and I will give them to you as daughters, but not by your covenant.<sup>62</sup> I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am the LORD;<sup>63</sup> that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.’”

17 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; <sup>3</sup>and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: <sup>4</sup>he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.<sup>5</sup> He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree.<sup>6</sup> It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

<sup>7</sup>”There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and look, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it.<sup>8</sup> It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.”

<sup>9</sup>”Say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Shall it prosper? Shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? And not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots.<sup>10</sup> Yes, look, being planted, shall it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? It shall wither in the beds where it grew.””

of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon: <sup>13</sup>and he took of the royal family, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; <sup>14</sup>that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. <sup>15</sup>But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? Shall he escape who does such things? Shall he break the covenant, and yet escape?

<sup>16</sup>”As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. <sup>17</sup>Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. <sup>18</sup>For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and look, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape.’

<sup>19</sup>”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. <sup>20</sup>I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him

there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. <sup>21</sup>All the choice men<sup>a</sup> among all his troupes will fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it.’

<sup>22</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: <sup>23</sup>in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. <sup>24</sup>All the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it.’”

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying,

<sup>2</sup>”What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge?’

<sup>3</sup>As I live, says the Lord GOD, you shall not have occasion any more

---

<sup>a</sup>17:21 So Hebrew Mss cf. LXX Mss Syr Tg. MT reads “fugatives” from metathesis of chet and resh to use this proverb in Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Look, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins, he shall die.

<sup>5</sup>But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, <sup>6</sup>and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, <sup>7</sup>and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; <sup>8</sup>he who has not given forth on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, <sup>9</sup>has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live," says the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup>If he fathers a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does any one of these things, <sup>11</sup>and who does not any of those duties, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, <sup>12</sup>has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, <sup>13</sup>has given forth on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? He shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him.

<sup>14</sup>Now, look, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; <sup>15</sup>who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, <sup>16</sup>neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; <sup>17</sup>who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. <sup>18</sup>As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, look, he shall die in his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup>Yet you say, 'Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. <sup>20</sup>The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

<sup>21</sup>But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>22</sup>None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. <sup>23</sup>Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" says the Lord GOD; "and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? <sup>24</sup>But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die.

<sup>25</sup>Yet you say, "The way of the LORD<sup>a</sup> is not just." Hear now, house of Israel: "Is my way not just? Aren't your ways unjust?" <sup>26</sup>When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies in it; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. <sup>27</sup>Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. <sup>28</sup>Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>29</sup>Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the LORD<sup>b</sup> is not just." "House of Israel, aren't my ways just? Aren't your ways unjust?"

<sup>30</sup>Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways,' says the Lord GOD. 'Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. <sup>31</sup>Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? <sup>32</sup>For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies,' says the Lord GOD: 'therefore turn yourselves, and live.'"

19 "Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, <sup>2</sup>and say, 'What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her cubs. <sup>3</sup>She brought up one of her cubs: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. <sup>4</sup>The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. <sup>6</sup>He went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. <sup>7</sup>He devastated<sup>a</sup> their strongholds,<sup>b</sup> and destroyed their cities; and the land was desolate, and its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. <sup>8</sup>Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. <sup>9</sup>They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.

wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. <sup>14</sup>Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule.’ This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.”

20 It happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. <sup>2</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>”Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.”’” <sup>4</sup>Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; <sup>5</sup>and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, ‘I am the LORD your God’; <sup>6</sup>in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. <sup>7</sup>I said to them, ‘Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.’” <sup>8</sup>But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn’t throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>”””””So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup>I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live in them. <sup>12</sup>Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them. <sup>13</sup>But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. <sup>14</sup>But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.

<sup>15</sup>”””””Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given to them,<sup>a</sup> flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; <sup>16</sup>because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. <sup>17</sup>Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.

<sup>18</sup>”””””I said to their children in the wilderness, ‘Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. <sup>19</sup>I am the LORD your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; <sup>20</sup>and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.’ <sup>21</sup>But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup>Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. <sup>23</sup>Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; <sup>24</sup>because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. <sup>25</sup>Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; <sup>26</sup>and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD."<sup>27</sup>

<sup>27</sup>"Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. <sup>28</sup>For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup>Then I said to them, 'What does the high place where you go mean?' So its name is called Bamah to this day."<sup>30</sup>

<sup>30</sup>"Therefore tell the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? And do you play the prostitute after their abominations? <sup>31</sup>And when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? And shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you; <sup>32</sup>and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, 'We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.' <sup>33</sup>As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over you: <sup>34</sup>and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; <sup>35</sup>and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. <sup>36</sup>Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you," says the Lord GOD. <sup>37</sup>"I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; <sup>38</sup>and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I am the LORD."

<sup>39</sup>"As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: "Go, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. <sup>40</sup>For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. <sup>41</sup>As a pleasant aroma will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. <sup>42</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. <sup>43</sup>There you shall remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. <sup>44</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel," says the Lord GOD."

<sup>45</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>46</sup>"Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; <sup>47</sup>and tell the forest of the South, 'Hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, "Look, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby. <sup>48</sup>All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.'"

<sup>49</sup>Then I said, "Ah Lord GOD. They say of me, 'Isn't he a speaker of parables?'"

21 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face toward Teman, and drop your word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; <sup>3</sup>and tell the land of Israel, 'Thus says the LORD: "Look, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. <sup>4</sup>Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the Negev to the north: <sup>5</sup>and all flesh shall know that I, the LORD, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more.'"

<sup>6</sup>"Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your thighs and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. <sup>7</sup>It shall be, when they tell you, 'Why do you sigh?' that you shall say, 'Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: look, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord GOD.”

<sup>8</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the LORD: <sup>a</sup> Say, “A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; <sup>10</sup>it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? The rod of my son, it condemns every tree. <sup>11</sup>It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer.””

<sup>12</sup>Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. <sup>13</sup>For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more?” says the Lord GOD.

<sup>14</sup>“You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their rooms. <sup>15</sup>I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: Ah. It is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. <sup>16</sup>Gather yourselves together, go to the right, set yourselves in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set.’

<sup>17</sup>I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, the LORD, have spoken it.”

<sup>18</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, <sup>19</sup>“Also, you son of man, appoint two ways that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. <sup>20</sup>You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem, the fortified. <sup>21</sup>For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver. <sup>22</sup>In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. <sup>23</sup>It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

<sup>24</sup>“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand.

<sup>25</sup>”You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, <sup>26</sup>thus says the Lord GOD: “Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high.” <sup>27</sup>I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.’

<sup>28</sup>”You, son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, “A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughterer it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; <sup>29</sup>while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. <sup>30</sup>Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. <sup>31</sup>I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. <sup>32</sup>You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, the LORD, have spoken it.””

22 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. <sup>3</sup>You shall say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Woe<sup>a</sup> to the city that sheds blood in the midst of her, so that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her. <sup>4</sup>You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. <sup>5</sup>Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one and full of tumult.

<sup>6</sup>””Look, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. <sup>7</sup>In you have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widow. <sup>8</sup>You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>9</sup>Slandorous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness. <sup>10</sup>In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. <sup>11</sup>One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. <sup>12</sup>In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me,' says the Lord GOD.

<sup>13</sup>Look, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. <sup>14</sup>Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken it, and will do it. <sup>15</sup>I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. <sup>16</sup>You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>17</sup>

and bronze and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. <sup>21</sup>Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. <sup>22</sup>As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you will be melted in its midst; and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my wrath on you. <sup>23</sup>

whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD,’ when the LORD has not spoken. <sup>29</sup>The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully.

<sup>30</sup>”And I searched for a man among them who would build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none. <sup>31</sup>Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says the Lord GOD.”

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: <sup>3</sup>and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. <sup>4</sup>Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

<sup>5</sup>”Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, <sup>6</sup>who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable

young men, horsemen riding on horses. <sup>7</sup>She bestowed her prostitution on them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. <sup>8</sup>Neither has she left her prostitution since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her. <sup>9</sup>Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. <sup>10</sup>These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her.

<sup>17</sup>The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. <sup>18</sup>So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. <sup>19</sup>Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. <sup>21</sup>Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth.

jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. <sup>26</sup>They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. <sup>27</sup>Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more.

<sup>28</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: Look, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; <sup>29</sup>and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. <sup>30</sup>These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. <sup>31</sup>You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.'

<sup>32</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: 'You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. <sup>33</sup>You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria.

<sup>34</sup>You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it,' says the Lord GOD.

<sup>35</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution.'"

<sup>36</sup>The LORD said moreover to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. <sup>37</sup>For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. <sup>38</sup>Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>39</sup>For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and look, thus have they done in the midst of my house.

<sup>40</sup>Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and look, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, <sup>41</sup>and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set my incense and my oil.' <sup>42</sup>The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands twain, and beautiful crowns on their heads.

<sup>43</sup>Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, 'Now will they play the prostitute with her, and she with them.' <sup>44</sup>They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. <sup>45</sup>Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

<sup>46</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: 'I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. <sup>47</sup>The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

<sup>48</sup>Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. <sup>49</sup>They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.'"

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>25</sup>Son of man, write the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day. <sup>3</sup>Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD, “Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: <sup>4</sup>gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. <sup>5</sup>Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the caldron; make it boil well; yes, let its bones be boiled in its midst.”’

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is in it, and whose rust is not gone out of it. Take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. <sup>7</sup>For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn’t pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. <sup>8</sup>That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered.’

<sup>9</sup>“Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Woe to the bloody city. I also will make the pile great. <sup>10</sup>Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil the meat well, and empty out<sup>a</sup> the broth, and let the bones be burned. <sup>11</sup>Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its bronze may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed.

<sup>12</sup>She has wearied herself with toil; yet her great rust doesn’t go forth out of her; her rust doesn’t go forth by fire. <sup>13</sup>In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren’t cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. <sup>14</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways and according to your deeds I<sup>b</sup> will judge you,’ says the Lord GOD.”

<sup>18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. <sup>19</sup>The people said to me, “Won’t you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?”

<sup>20</sup>Then I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>“Speak to the house of Israel, “Thus says the Lord GOD: Look, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup>You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. <sup>23</sup>Your turbans shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. <sup>24</sup>Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.””

<sup>25</sup>”You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, <sup>26</sup>that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? <sup>27</sup>In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you will be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

25 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them: <sup>3</sup>and tell the children of Ammon, ‘Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, “Because you said, ‘Aha,’ against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: <sup>4</sup>therefore, look, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. <sup>5</sup>I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am the LORD.” <sup>6</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel; <sup>7</sup>therefore, look, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am the LORD.””

<sup>8</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because Moab and Seir say, “Look, the house of Judah is like all the nations”; <sup>9</sup>therefore, look, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim, <sup>10</sup>to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations.

<sup>11</sup>and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.””

<sup>12</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them’; <sup>13</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD, ‘I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. <sup>14</sup>I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD.””

<sup>15</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity; <sup>16</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Look, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. <sup>17</sup>I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.””

26 It happened in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, because Tyre has said against

Jerusalem, ‘Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste’; <sup>3</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD, ‘Look, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.’ <sup>4</sup>They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. <sup>5</sup>She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it,” says the Lord GOD; “and she shall become a spoil to the nations. <sup>6</sup>Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Look, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. <sup>8</sup>He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. <sup>9</sup>He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. <sup>10</sup>By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. <sup>11</sup>With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. <sup>12</sup>They shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters. <sup>13</sup>I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. <sup>14</sup>I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it,' says the Lord GOD.

<sup>19</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: 'When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; <sup>20</sup>then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: <sup>21</sup>I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again,' says the Lord GOD."

27 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. <sup>16</sup>Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. <sup>17</sup>Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. <sup>18</sup>Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. <sup>19</sup>Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. <sup>20</sup>Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. <sup>21</sup>Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. <sup>22</sup>The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. <sup>23</sup>Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. <sup>24</sup>These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. <sup>25</sup>The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

<sup>a</sup>27:6 So Tg, reading "cypress wood." MT has a different word division and pointing, reading "daughter of the Assyrians"

<sup>26</sup>””Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. <sup>27</sup>Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. <sup>28</sup>At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. <sup>29</sup>All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, <sup>30</sup>and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: <sup>31</sup>and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. <sup>32</sup>In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, ‘Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the midst of the sea?’ <sup>33</sup>When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. <sup>34</sup>In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell in your midst. <sup>35</sup>All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. <sup>36</sup>The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.””

28 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, ‘I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas’; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God—<sup>3</sup>behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; <sup>4</sup>by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; <sup>5</sup>by your great wisdom and by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches”—<sup>6</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, <sup>7</sup>therefore, look, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. <sup>8</sup>They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. <sup>9</sup>Will you still say before him who kills you, ‘I am a god’? But you are a man, and not a god, in the hand of him who wounds you. <sup>10</sup>You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it,” says the Lord GOD.””

<sup>11</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup>“Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. <sup>13</sup>You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper,<sup>a</sup> sapphire<sup>b</sup>, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. <sup>14</sup>You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. <sup>15</sup>You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. <sup>16</sup>By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. <sup>17</sup>Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. <sup>18</sup>By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. <sup>19</sup>All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.””

<sup>20</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>“Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, <sup>22</sup>and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you;” and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. <sup>23</sup>For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup>”There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them, that scorned them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.’

<sup>25</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup>They shall dwell securely in it; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite all around them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.”

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Speak and say, “Thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster<sup>a</sup> that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, ‘My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.’ <sup>4</sup>I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. <sup>5</sup>I’ll cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You’ll fall on the open field. You won’t be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky. <sup>6</sup>All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and caused all their hips to shake.<sup>b</sup>”

<sup>8</sup>”Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. <sup>9</sup>The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Because he has said, ‘The river is mine, and I have made it,’ <sup>10</sup>therefore, look, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Syene even to the border of Ethiopia. <sup>11</sup>No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. <sup>12</sup>I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.”

<sup>13</sup>”For thus says the Lord GOD: “At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; <sup>14</sup>and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. <sup>15</sup>It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup>It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.””

<sup>17</sup>It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>”Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. <sup>19</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Look, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. <sup>20</sup>I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me,’ says the Lord GOD. <sup>21</sup>In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in their midst; and they shall know that I am the LORD.””

30 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Wail, ‘Alas for the day.’ <sup>3</sup>For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations. <sup>4</sup>A sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. <sup>5</sup>Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, shall fall with them by the sword.””

<sup>6</sup>”Thus says the LORD: ‘They also who uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword,’ says the Lord GOD. <sup>7</sup>They shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. <sup>8</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed. <sup>9</sup>In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, look, it comes.’

<sup>10</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. <sup>11</sup>He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. <sup>12</sup>I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers: I, the LORD, have spoken it.'

<sup>13</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: 'I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. <sup>15</sup>I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. <sup>16</sup>I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime. <sup>17</sup>The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. <sup>18</sup>At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. <sup>19</sup>Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am the LORD.'

seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>'Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and look, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. <sup>22</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Look, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. <sup>23</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. <sup>24</sup>I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. <sup>25</sup>I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.'''

31 It happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>'Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: 'Whom are you like in your greatness? <sup>3</sup>Look, the

Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. <sup>4</sup>The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. <sup>5</sup>Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot them forth. <sup>6</sup>All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the animals of the field brought forth their young; and all great nations lived under its shadow. <sup>7</sup>Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. <sup>8</sup>The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. <sup>9</sup>I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.'

<sup>10</sup>Therefore thus said the Lord GOD: 'Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; <sup>11</sup>I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. <sup>12</sup>Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. <sup>13</sup>On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; <sup>14</sup>to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.'

<sup>15</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: 'In the day when he went down to Sheol<sup>a</sup> I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. <sup>16</sup>I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. <sup>17</sup>They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, that lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations. <sup>18</sup>To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,' says the Lord GOD."

32 It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, 'You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet you are as a monster in the seas; and you broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers.'

<sup>3</sup>"Thus says the Lord GOD: 'I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. <sup>4</sup>I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. <sup>5</sup>I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. <sup>6</sup>I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. <sup>7</sup>When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun

with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. <sup>8</sup>All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup>I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. <sup>10</sup>Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.'

<sup>11</sup>"For thus says the Lord GOD: 'The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. <sup>12</sup>By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. <sup>14</sup>Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil,' says the Lord GOD. <sup>15</sup>When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell in it, then shall they know that I am the LORD. <sup>16</sup>This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they

lament therewith,' says the Lord GOD.<sup>17</sup>

<sup>17</sup>It happened also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>'Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. <sup>19</sup>'Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised.'<sup>20</sup>They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. <sup>21</sup>The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Sheol<sup>a</sup> with those who help him: 'They are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

<sup>24</sup>'There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>25</sup>They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of those who are slain.

<sup>28</sup>'But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword.

<sup>29</sup>'There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>30</sup>'There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>31</sup>Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword," says the Lord GOD. <sup>32</sup>For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude," says the Lord GOD.

33 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2c</sup>Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, 'When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; <sup>3</sup>if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; <sup>4</sup>then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't take warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. <sup>5</sup>He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. <sup>6</sup>But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.'

<sup>7</sup>So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. <sup>8</sup>When I tell the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>9</sup>Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

<sup>10</sup>You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: 'Thus you speak, saying, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live?"' <sup>11</sup>Tell them, 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel?'

<sup>12</sup>You, son of man, tell the children of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins.' <sup>13</sup>When I say to the righteous "He shall surely live,"

but he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but he shall die because of the iniquity he has committed. <sup>14</sup>Again, when I say to the wicked, ‘You shall surely die’; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; <sup>15</sup>if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>16</sup>None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

saying, “The city has been struck.” <sup>22</sup>Now the hand of the LORD had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute. <sup>23</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup>”Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, ‘Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.’ <sup>25</sup>Therefore tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? <sup>26</sup>You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor’s wife: and shall you possess the land?””

<sup>27</sup>”You shall tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. <sup>28</sup>I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through. <sup>29</sup>Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.””

<sup>30</sup>As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, everyone to his brother, saying, 'Please come and hear what is the word that comes forth from the LORD.' <sup>31</sup>They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but do not do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. <sup>32</sup>Look, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do not do them. <sup>33</sup>When this comes to pass, (look, it comes), then shall they know that a prophet has been among them."

34 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and tell them, even to the shepherds, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves. Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep? <sup>3</sup>You eat the fat, and you clothe yourself with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep. <sup>4</sup>You haven't strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you have ruled over them. <sup>5</sup>They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. <sup>6</sup>My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was none who searched or sought."

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>8</sup>'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, 'surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep'; <sup>9</sup>therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>10</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: 'Look, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.'"

<sup>11</sup>"For thus says the Lord GOD: "Look, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. <sup>12</sup>As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark

day. <sup>13</sup>I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. <sup>14</sup>I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup>I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup>"I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice."

<sup>17</sup>,"As for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: "Look, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. <sup>18</sup>Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? <sup>19</sup>As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet."

<sup>20</sup>,"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: "Look, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. <sup>21</sup>Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; <sup>22</sup>therefore I will save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. <sup>23</sup>I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup>I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them;" I, the LORD, have spoken it.

<sup>25</sup>,"I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup>I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup>The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. <sup>28</sup>They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. <sup>29</sup>I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. <sup>30</sup>They shall know that I, the

LORD, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people,” says the Lord GOD.<sup>31</sup>“You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God,” says the Lord GOD.”

35 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,<sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it,<sup>3</sup>and tell it, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment.<sup>4</sup>I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>””“Because you have had a perpetual enmity, and have given over the sons of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end;<sup>6</sup>therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.<sup>7</sup>Thus will I make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns.<sup>8</sup>I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword.<sup>9</sup>I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>””“Because you have said, ‘These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it’; whereas the LORD was there:<sup>11</sup>therefore, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you.<sup>12</sup>You shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour.<sup>13</sup>You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it.”<sup>14</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: “When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.<sup>15</sup>As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.””

36 “You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.<sup>2</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because the enemy has said against you, ‘Aha.’ and, ‘The ancient high places are ours in possession’”’; <sup>3</sup>therefore prophesy, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people"; <sup>4</sup>therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: "Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around; <sup>5</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey.'"

<sup>6</sup>"Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Look, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations: <sup>7</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'I have sworn, saying, "Surely the nations that are around you, they shall bear their shame.'"

<sup>8</sup>"But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. <sup>9</sup>For, look, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; <sup>10</sup>and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; <sup>11</sup>and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>12</sup>Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children.'"

<sup>13</sup>"Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they say to you, 'You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation'; <sup>14</sup>therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more," says the Lord GOD; <sup>15</sup>"neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more," says the Lord GOD.'" defiled it with their idols; <sup>19</sup>and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. <sup>20</sup>When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.’ <sup>21</sup>But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went.

<sup>22</sup>”Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “I do not do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. <sup>23</sup>I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD,” says the Lord GOD, “when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. <sup>24</sup>For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. <sup>25</sup>I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. <sup>26</sup>And I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup>I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. <sup>28</sup>You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup>I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. <sup>30</sup>I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. <sup>31</sup>Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. <sup>32</sup>Nor for your sake do I this,” says the Lord GOD, “be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel.””

<sup>33</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. <sup>34</sup>The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. <sup>35</sup>They shall say, “This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.” <sup>36</sup>Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, the LORD, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it.””

37 The hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup>He caused me to pass by them all around: and look, there were very many in the open valley; and look, they were very dry. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I answered, “Lord GOD, you know.”

<sup>4</sup>Again he said to me, “Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, ‘You dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.’ <sup>5</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: ‘Look, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. <sup>6</sup>I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD.’”

<sup>7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and look, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. <sup>8</sup>I saw, and, look, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, “Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.’” <sup>10</sup>So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

<sup>11</sup>Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: look, they say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are completely cut off.’ <sup>12</sup>Therefore prophesy, and tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: Look, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. <sup>14</sup>I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it,’ says the LORD.”

<sup>15</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>16</sup>”You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, ‘For Judah, and for the sons of Israel his companions’: then take another stick, and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions’: <sup>17</sup>and join them for you one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. <sup>18</sup>When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, ‘Will you not show us what you mean by these?’ <sup>19</sup>tell them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand.”’ <sup>20</sup>The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes.

<sup>21</sup>”Say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I will take the sons of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: <sup>22</sup>and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; <sup>23</sup>neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>24</sup>””My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. <sup>25</sup>They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell in it, they, and their children, and their children’s children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. <sup>26</sup>Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. <sup>27</sup>My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

38 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>”Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, <sup>3</sup>and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Look, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: <sup>4</sup>and I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; <sup>5</sup>Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; <sup>6</sup>Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

<sup>7</sup>”Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. <sup>8</sup>After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. <sup>9</sup>You shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.”

<sup>10</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: “It shall happen in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device: <sup>11</sup>and you shall say, ‘I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; <sup>12</sup>to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell at the navel of the earth.’ <sup>13</sup>Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, ‘Have you come to take the spoil? Have you assembled your company to take the prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great spoil?’”

<sup>14</sup>”Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? <sup>15</sup>You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; <sup>16</sup>and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes.”

<sup>17</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: “Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them?” <sup>18</sup>It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. <sup>19</sup>For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; <sup>20</sup>so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. <sup>21</sup>I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains,' says the Lord GOD: 'every man's sword shall be against his brother. <sup>22</sup>With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. <sup>23</sup>I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.'

39 "You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Look, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: <sup>2</sup>and I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; <sup>3</sup>and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. <sup>4</sup>You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. <sup>5</sup>You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it," says the Lord GOD. <sup>6</sup>I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>"My holy name will I make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup>Look, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord GOD; this is the day about which I have spoken.

<sup>9</sup>"Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; <sup>10</sup>so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>11</sup>"It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>12</sup>Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. <sup>13</sup>Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord GOD. <sup>14</sup>They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. <sup>15</sup>Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>16</sup>Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land.'

<sup>17</sup>'You, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, 'Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup>You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. <sup>19</sup>You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. <sup>20</sup>You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war,' says the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup>'I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. <sup>22</sup>So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward. <sup>23</sup>The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. <sup>24</sup>According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them.'

<sup>25</sup>'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. <sup>26</sup>They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them afraid; <sup>27</sup>when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. <sup>28</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; <sup>29</sup>neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel,' says the Lord GOD."

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me there. <sup>2</sup>In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. <sup>3</sup>He brought me there; and, look, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. <sup>4</sup>The man said to me, "Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. <sup>11</sup>He measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; <sup>12</sup>and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. <sup>13</sup>He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of twenty-five cubits; door against door. <sup>14</sup>He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. <sup>15</sup>From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. <sup>16</sup>There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches; and windows were around inward; and on each post were palm trees.

<sup>17</sup>Then brought he me into the outer court; and look, there were rooms and a pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms were on the pavement. <sup>18</sup>The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup>Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. <sup>20</sup>The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured its length and its breadth. <sup>21</sup>The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>22</sup>The windows of it, and its arches, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. <sup>23</sup>There was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits.

<sup>24</sup>He led me toward the south; and look, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measures. <sup>25</sup>There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>26</sup>There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. <sup>27</sup>There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

<sup>28</sup>Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; <sup>29</sup>and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. <sup>30</sup>There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits broad. <sup>31</sup>The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup>He brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures; <sup>33</sup>and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. <sup>34</sup>The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup>He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; <sup>36</sup>its lodges, its posts, and its arches: and there were windows in it all around; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>37</sup>The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables.<sup>41</sup> Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices.<sup>42</sup> There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice.<sup>43</sup> The hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within all around: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

<sup>48</sup>Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side. And the breadth of the gate was fourteen cubits, and the sides of the gate<sup>a</sup> were three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.<sup>49</sup> The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tent.<sup>2</sup> The breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

<sup>3</sup>Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits.<sup>4</sup> He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

<sup>a</sup>40:48 So LXX. MT lacks "was fourteen cubits, and the sides of the gate"

<sup>5</sup>Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. <sup>6</sup>The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they may be fastened, but not fastened in the wall of the house. <sup>7</sup>The side rooms were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher around the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest room to the highest by the middle room.

<sup>8</sup>I saw also that the house had a raised base all around: the foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. <sup>9</sup>The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. <sup>10</sup>Between the rooms was a breadth of twenty cubits around the house on every side. <sup>11</sup>The doors of the side rooms were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits all around.

<sup>12</sup>The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

<sup>13</sup>So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; <sup>14</sup>also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits.

<sup>15</sup>He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; <sup>16</sup>the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), <sup>17</sup>to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. <sup>18</sup>It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; <sup>19</sup>so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. Thus was it made through all the house all around: <sup>20</sup>from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. <sup>21</sup>As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it was as the appearance of the temple. <sup>22</sup>The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. <sup>24</sup>The doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. <sup>25</sup>There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. <sup>26</sup>There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

42 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the room that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. <sup>2</sup>Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. <sup>3</sup>Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story. <sup>4</sup>Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. <sup>5</sup>Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. <sup>6</sup>For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. <sup>7</sup>The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. <sup>8</sup>For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and look, before the temple were one hundred cubits. <sup>9</sup>From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

<sup>10</sup>In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. <sup>11</sup>The way before them was like the appearance of the way of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. <sup>12</sup>According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

<sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. <sup>14</sup>When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people.”

<sup>15</sup>Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it all around. <sup>16</sup>He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred<sup>a</sup> reeds, with the measuring reed all around. <sup>17</sup>He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. <sup>18</sup>He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. <sup>19</sup>He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. <sup>20</sup>He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate

that looks toward the east. <sup>2</sup>Look, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. <sup>3</sup>It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. <sup>4</sup>The glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. <sup>5</sup>The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and look, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

<sup>6</sup>I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. <sup>7</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; <sup>8</sup>in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their doorpost beside my doorpost, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger. <sup>9</sup>Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in their midst forever.

<sup>10</sup>”You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. <sup>11</sup>If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them.

<sup>12</sup>”This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Look, this is the law of the house.

<sup>13</sup>”These are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and its border around its edge a span; and this shall be the base of the altar. <sup>14</sup>From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. <sup>15</sup>The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. <sup>16</sup>The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, square in the four sides of it. <sup>17</sup>The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides of it; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east.”

<sup>18</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. <sup>19</sup>You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the seed of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a young bull for a sin offering. <sup>20</sup>You shall take of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around: thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. <sup>21</sup>You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary.

<sup>22</sup>”On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. <sup>23</sup>When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. <sup>24</sup>You shall bring them near to the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to the LORD.

for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it.<sup>27</sup> When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD.”

44 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut.<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to me, “This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut.<sup>3</sup> As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.”

<sup>4</sup> Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and look, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell on my face.<sup>5</sup> The LORD said to me, “Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary.<sup>6</sup> You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,<sup>7</sup> in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and you<sup>a</sup> have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations.<sup>8</sup> You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves.’

<sup>9</sup>” Thus says the Lord GOD, ‘No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the sons of Israel.<sup>10</sup> But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity.<sup>11</sup> Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.<sup>12</sup> Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity.<sup>13</sup> They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. <sup>14</sup>Yet will I make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done in it.

<sup>15</sup>”But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD: <sup>16</sup>they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction.

<sup>21</sup>Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. <sup>22</sup>Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. <sup>23</sup>They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

<sup>24</sup>”In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy.

<sup>25</sup>”They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. <sup>26</sup>After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. <sup>27</sup>In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>28</sup>”They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. <sup>29</sup>They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. <sup>30</sup>The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. <sup>31</sup>The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or animal.

45 <sup>42</sup>Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to the LORD, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. It shall be holy in all its border all around. <sup>2</sup>Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square all around; and fifty cubits for its suburbs all around. <sup>3</sup>Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. <sup>4</sup>It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. <sup>5</sup>Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, it will be their possession for cities to live in.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>"You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>"Whatever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. <sup>8</sup>In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>b</sup>45:10 1 ephah is about 22 litres or about 2/3 of a bushel

<sup>c</sup>45:11 1 homer is about 220 litres or 6 bushels

twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

<sup>13</sup>”This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; <sup>14</sup>and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) <sup>15</sup>and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup>All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. <sup>17</sup>It shall be the prince’s part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.

<sup>18</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. <sup>19</sup>The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. <sup>20</sup>So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you shall make atonement for the house.

<sup>21</sup>”In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>22</sup>On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. <sup>23</sup>The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>25</sup>In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.’

46 “Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. <sup>2</sup>The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. <sup>3</sup>The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. <sup>4</sup>The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to the LORD shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; <sup>5</sup>and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>6</sup>On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: <sup>7</sup>and he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>8</sup>When the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by its way.

<sup>9</sup>”But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. <sup>10</sup>The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

<sup>13</sup>”You shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD daily: morning by morning you shall prepare it. <sup>14</sup>You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to the LORD continually by a perpetual ordinance. <sup>15</sup>Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.’

to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons.

<sup>19</sup>Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and look, there was a place on the hinder part westward. <sup>20</sup>He said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people.”

<sup>21</sup>Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and look, in every corner of the court there was a court. <sup>22</sup>In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. <sup>23</sup>There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. <sup>24</sup>Then he said to me, “These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.”

47 He brought me back to the door of the house; and look, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. <sup>2</sup>Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and look, there ran out waters on the right side.

<sup>3</sup>When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. <sup>4</sup>Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the waist. <sup>5</sup>Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. <sup>6</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen this?”

Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. <sup>7</sup>Now when I had returned, look, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. <sup>8</sup>Then he said to me, “These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. <sup>9</sup>It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the river goes, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. <sup>10</sup>It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. <sup>11</sup>But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. <sup>12</sup>By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing.”

<sup>13</sup>”Thus says the Lord GOD: “This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. <sup>14</sup>You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.

<sup>21</sup>””So you shall divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup>It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the sons of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance,” says the Lord GOD.”

48 “Now these are the names of the tribes:

From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to Lebo Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion. <sup>2</sup>By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion. <sup>3</sup>By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion. <sup>4</sup>By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion. <sup>5</sup>By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion. <sup>6</sup>By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion. <sup>7</sup>By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.

<sup>8</sup>By the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in its midst. <sup>9</sup>The offering that you shall offer to the LORD shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth. <sup>10</sup>For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in its midst. <sup>11</sup>It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the sons of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. <sup>12</sup>It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. <sup>14</sup>They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to the LORD.

two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. <sup>18</sup>The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. <sup>19</sup>Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. <sup>20</sup>All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer the holy offering foursquare, with the possession of the city.

portion. <sup>26</sup>By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion. <sup>27</sup>By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion. <sup>28</sup>By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the Wadi, to the great sea. <sup>29</sup>This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>30</sup>”These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; <sup>31</sup>and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. <sup>32</sup>At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. <sup>33</sup>At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. <sup>34</sup>At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. <sup>35</sup>It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, ‘The LORD is there.’”<sup>a</sup>

Daniel

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it. <sup>2</sup>The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. <sup>3</sup>The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the sons of Israel, even of the royal family and of the nobles; <sup>4</sup>youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king’s palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. <sup>5</sup>The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king’s royal food, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king. <sup>6</sup>Now among these were, of the children of

Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. <sup>7</sup>The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. <sup>8</sup>But Daniel determined in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king’s royal food, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. <sup>9</sup>Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. <sup>10</sup>The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, “I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? So would you endanger my head with the king.” <sup>11</sup>Then said Daniel to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: <sup>12</sup>”Test your servants for ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. <sup>13</sup>Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king’s royal food; and as you see, deal with your servants.“ <sup>14</sup>So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them ten days. <sup>15</sup>At the end of ten days their faces appeared better and fatter than all the youths who ate of the king’s royal food. <sup>16</sup>So the steward took away their royal food, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them vegetables. <sup>17</sup>Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. <sup>18</sup>At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup>The king talked with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore they entered the king's service. <sup>20</sup>In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. <sup>21</sup>Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

2 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. <sup>2</sup>Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. <sup>3</sup>The king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream." <sup>4</sup>Then spoke the Chaldeans to the king in the Aramaic language, "O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." <sup>5</sup>The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing is gone from me: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a rubbish heap. <sup>6</sup>But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation." <sup>7</sup>They answered the second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." <sup>8</sup>The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. <sup>9</sup>But if you do not make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until such time that things might change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation." <sup>10</sup>The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. <sup>11</sup>It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh." <sup>12</sup>For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>13</sup>So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be killed; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be killed. <sup>14</sup>Then Daniel returned an answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon; <sup>15</sup>he answered Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. <sup>16</sup>Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. <sup>17</sup>Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: <sup>18</sup>that they would seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. <sup>19</sup>Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup>Daniel answered, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. <sup>21</sup>He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; <sup>22</sup>he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. <sup>23</sup>I thank you, and praise you, God of my fathers, who has given me wisdom and might, and has now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter." <sup>24</sup>Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said this to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation." <sup>25</sup>Then

Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said this to him, "I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation." <sup>26</sup>The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?" <sup>27</sup>Daniel answered before the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded is such that no wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, can show to the king; <sup>28</sup>but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: <sup>29</sup>as for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen. <sup>30</sup>But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than all the living, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart. <sup>31</sup>You, O king, saw, and look, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was extraordinary, stood before you; and its appearance was awesome. <sup>32</sup>As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, <sup>33</sup>its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. <sup>34</sup>You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.<sup>35</sup> Then was the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.<sup>36</sup> This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king.<sup>37</sup> You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory;<sup>38</sup> and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold.<sup>39</sup> After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to yours; and another third kingdom of bronze, which shall bear rule over all the earth.<sup>40</sup> The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush.<sup>41</sup> Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay.<sup>42</sup> As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.<sup>43</sup> And<sup>a</sup> whereas

you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mix with one another but they shall not hold together, even as iron does not mix with clay.<sup>44</sup> In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all those kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.<sup>45</sup> Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure.<sup>46</sup> Then king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering and incense to him.<sup>47</sup> The king answered Daniel and said, "Surely your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret."<sup>48</sup> Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon.<sup>49</sup> Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its breadth six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. <sup>3</sup>Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>4</sup>Then the herald cried aloud, "To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, <sup>5</sup>that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; <sup>6</sup>and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace." <sup>7</sup>Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe,<sup>a</sup> and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. <sup>8</sup>Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. <sup>9</sup>They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, "O king, live for ever. <sup>10</sup>You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; <sup>11</sup>and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. <sup>12</sup>There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have not regarded you: they do not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up." <sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. <sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar answered them, "Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? <sup>15</sup>Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if you do not worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?" <sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. <sup>17</sup>If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. <sup>18</sup>But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.” <sup>19</sup>Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. <sup>20</sup>He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. <sup>21</sup>Then these men were bound in their cloaks, trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>22</sup>Therefore because the king’s commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>23</sup>These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>24</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up quickly. He spoke and said to his ministers, “Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?” They answered the king, “True, O king.” <sup>25</sup>He answered, “Look, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods.” <sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here.” Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came forth out of the midst of the fire. <sup>27</sup>The satraps, the prefects, and the governors, and the king’s ministers, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their trousers changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. <sup>28</sup>Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, “Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king’s word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. <sup>29</sup>Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be reduced to rubble; because there is no other god who is able to deliver in this way.” <sup>30</sup>Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

4 “Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>2</sup>It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. <sup>3</sup>How great are his signs and how mighty are his wonders. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. <sup>4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. <sup>5</sup>I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>6</sup>Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. <sup>7</sup>Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. <sup>8</sup>But finally Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, <sup>9</sup>“Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. <sup>10</sup>Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and look, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great. <sup>11</sup>The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth. <sup>12</sup>The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. <sup>13</sup>I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and look, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. <sup>14</sup>He cried aloud, and said this, “Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. <sup>15</sup>Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. <sup>16</sup>Let his mind be changed from man’s, and let an animal’s mind be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. <sup>17</sup>The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the decision is a command of the holy ones; so that<sup>a</sup> the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to anyone he wants, and sets up over it the lowliest of men. <sup>18</sup>This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.” <sup>19</sup>Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshazzar, “Do not let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you.” Belshazzar answered, “My lord, the dream concerns those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries.”<sup>20</sup>The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth;<sup>21</sup>whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation.<sup>22</sup>It is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.<sup>23</sup>Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, ‘Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him.’<sup>24</sup>This is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come on my lord the king:<sup>25</sup>that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.<sup>26</sup>Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be restored to you.

After that you shall have known that the heavens do rule.<sup>27</sup>Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your prosperity.”<sup>28</sup>All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar.<sup>29</sup>At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon.<sup>30</sup>The king spoke and said, “Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?”<sup>31</sup>While the word was in the king’s mouth, there fell a voice from the sky, saying, “O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken. The kingdom has departed from you,<sup>32</sup>and you shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he wants.”<sup>33</sup>The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair was grown like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws.<sup>34</sup>At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever. For his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation.<sup>35</sup>All the inhabitants of the earth are regarded as nothing; and he does according to his will in the host of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or tell him, "What have you done?"<sup>36</sup> At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought me out; and I was reinstated<sup>a</sup> over my kingdom, and even more greatness was added to me.<sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to humble."

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.<sup>2</sup> Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them.<sup>3</sup> Then they brought the gold and silver<sup>b</sup> vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God<sup>c</sup> which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them.<sup>4</sup> They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone.<sup>5</sup> In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.<sup>6</sup> Then the king's face was turned pale, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his thighs gave way, and his knees began knocking together.<sup>7</sup> The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."<sup>8</sup> Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation.<sup>9</sup> Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his face turned pale, and his lords were perplexed.<sup>10</sup> Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house. The queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed.<sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and king Nebuchadnezzar your father, your father the king, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners;<sup>12</sup> because an extraordinary spirit, and knowledge, and understanding to interpret<sup>a</sup> dreams, explain riddles, and solve knotty problems<sup>b</sup> were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.”<sup>13</sup> Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, “Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? <sup>14</sup>I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and extraordinary wisdom are found in you. <sup>15</sup>Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. <sup>16</sup>But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.”<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered before the king, “Keep your gifts for yourself, and give your rewards to another;. Nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. <sup>18</sup>You king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty. <sup>19</sup>And because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. <sup>20</sup>But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was removed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. <sup>21</sup>And he was driven from the sons of men, and his mind was made like the animals’, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he wants. <sup>22</sup>You his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, <sup>23</sup>but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, nor hear, nor know. And the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified. <sup>24</sup>Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. <sup>25</sup>This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. <sup>26</sup>This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; <sup>27</sup>TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. <sup>28</sup>PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.” <sup>29</sup>Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup>In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain. <sup>31</sup>Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; <sup>2</sup>and over them three administrators, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king might not suffer loss. <sup>3</sup>Then this Daniel was distinguished above the administrators and the satraps, because an extraordinary spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. <sup>4</sup>Then the administrators and the satraps sought to find a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful. Neither was there any error or fault found in him. <sup>5</sup>Then these men said, “We will not find any charge against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.” <sup>6</sup>Then these administrators and satraps assembled together to the king, and said this to him, “King Darius, live forever. <sup>7</sup>All the administrators of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup>Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed.” <sup>9</sup>Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. <sup>10</sup>When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. <sup>11</sup>Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and petition before his God. <sup>12</sup>Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king’s decree. “Haven’t you signed a decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?” The king answered,

“The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed.”<sup>13</sup> Then they answered and said before the king, “That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn’t regard you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.”<sup>14</sup> Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him.<sup>15</sup> Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, “Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.”<sup>16</sup> Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, “Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you.”<sup>17</sup> A stone was brought, and placed on the opening of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.<sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him. And his sleep fled from him.<sup>19</sup> Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.<sup>20</sup> When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, “Daniel, servant of the living God. Is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?”<sup>21</sup> Then said Daniel to the king, “O king, live forever.<sup>22</sup> My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions’ mouths, and they have not hurt me; because before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no wrong.”<sup>23</sup> Then was the king exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.<sup>24</sup> The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.<sup>25</sup> Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: “Peace be multiplied to you.<sup>26</sup> I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever. His kingdom shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be to the end.<sup>27</sup> He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.”<sup>28</sup> So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions in his mind on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the summary of it. <sup>2</sup>Daniel spoke and said, "I saw in my vision by night, and, look, the four winds of the sky broke forth on the great sea. <sup>3</sup>Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another. <sup>4</sup>The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I saw until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man's mind was given to it. <sup>5</sup>And look, another animal, a second one, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it, 'Arise, devour much flesh.' <sup>6</sup>After this I saw, and look, another one, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads; and dominion was given to it. <sup>7</sup>After this I saw in the night visions, and look, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and extremely strong. And it had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet. And it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup>I considered the horns, and look, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And look, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking arrogant things. <sup>9</sup>I saw until thrones were placed, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. <sup>10</sup>A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him. Thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court sat in judgment, and the books were opened. <sup>11</sup>I saw at that time because of the voice of the arrogant words which the horn spoke. I was watching until the animal was killed and its body destroyed and was given to be burned with fire. <sup>12</sup>As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. <sup>13</sup>I saw in the night visions, and look, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man,<sup>a</sup> and he came even to the Ancient of Days, and they brought him near before him. <sup>14</sup>There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. <sup>15</sup>As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my mind troubled me. <sup>16</sup>I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the true meaning concerning all this. So he told me, and revealed to me the interpretation of these things. <sup>17</sup>These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. <sup>18</sup>But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever. <sup>19</sup>Then I desired to know the true meaning concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its claws of bronze; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped what was left with its feet. <sup>20</sup>And concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke arrogant things, whose look was larger than the others. <sup>21</sup>I saw, and the same horn made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them, <sup>22</sup>until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given to the holy ones of the Most High, and the time came that the holy ones possessed the kingdom. <sup>23</sup>This he said, 'The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. <sup>24</sup>As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise, and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. <sup>25</sup>He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall oppress the holy ones of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given over to him until a time and times and half a time. <sup>26</sup>And the court shall sit in judgment, and they shall take away his dominion, consumed and completely destroyed forever. <sup>27</sup>The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.' <sup>28</sup>Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and my face turned pale. I kept the matter to myself."

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me previously. <sup>2</sup>And I saw in the vision, and when I looked, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. <sup>3</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. And the two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last. <sup>4</sup>I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand. But he did according to his will, and became great. <sup>5</sup>As I was considering, look, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and did not touch the ground. And the goat had a prominent horn between his eyes. <sup>6</sup>He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and rushed at him in the fury of his power. <sup>7</sup>I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he threw him down to the ground and trampled on him, and there was no one who could deliver the ram from his power. <sup>8</sup>The male goat became very strong. But when he was strong, the large horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four prominent horns toward the four winds of heaven. <sup>9</sup>Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the beautiful land. <sup>10</sup>It grew so great that it reached to the host of heaven, and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. <sup>11</sup>And it magnified itself, even against the Prince of the host; and it took away from him the daily sacrifice, and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down. <sup>12</sup>The host was given over to it together with the daily sacrifice because of transgression. And it cast down truth to the ground, and kept prospering. <sup>13</sup>Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled?" <sup>14</sup>He said to me, "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be restored to its rightful state." <sup>15</sup>It came about when I, Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it. And look, there stood before me someone who appeared to be a man. <sup>16</sup>I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, and called out and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." <sup>17</sup>So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was frightened, and fell prostrate. But he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision belongs to the time of the end." <sup>18</sup>Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and stood me upright. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Look, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of wrath, for it belongs to the appointed time of the end." <sup>20</sup>The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup>The male goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn that is between his eyes is the first king. . <sup>22</sup>As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall arise out of his<sup>a</sup> nation, but not with his power. <sup>23</sup>In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressions<sup>b</sup> have reached their full measure,<sup>c</sup> a rash and deceitful king shall arise. <sup>24</sup>His power shall be great, but not by his own strength; and he shall cause terrible destruction, and shall succeed in whatever he does. And he shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. <sup>25</sup>Through his cunning he shall cause deceit to prosper by his influence, and he shall be great in his own mind, and without warning he shall destroy many. He shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be shattered, but not by human hands. <sup>26</sup>The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision because it refers to many days from now.” <sup>27</sup>I, Daniel, was overcome, and was ill for days. Then I rose up, and carried out the king’s business. And I was astonished by the vision, but there was no one to explain it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans-- <sup>2</sup>in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood from the books the number of the years about which the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the completion of the desolation of Jerusalem, seventy years. <sup>3</sup>And I turned to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4</sup>I prayed to the LORD my God, and made this confession, “O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments. <sup>5</sup>We have sinned, and have done what is wrong and wicked, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your commandments and from your ordinances. <sup>6</sup>Neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. <sup>7</sup>Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us open shame, as at this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds that they have committed against you. <sup>8</sup>LORD, to us belongs open shame, to our kings, to our leaders, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. <sup>9</sup>To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him. <sup>10</sup>And have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. <sup>11</sup>Yes, all Israel has transgressed your law, and turned away, refusing to obey your voice. Therefore has the curse been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the Law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against you. <sup>12</sup>He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our rulers who ruled us, by bringing on us a great calamity; for under the whole heaven such has not been done as has been done on Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this calamity has come on us. Yet have we not tried to gain the favor of the LORD our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore has the LORD watched over the calamity, and brought it on us, for the LORD our God is just in all he has done, and we have not obeyed his voice. <sup>15</sup>”And now, Lord our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have made a name for yourself, even to this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. <sup>16</sup>Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. <sup>17</sup>Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord’s sake. <sup>18</sup>My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolation, and the city which is called by your name. For we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercy. <sup>19</sup>Lord, hear. Lord, forgive. Lord, listen and take action. Do not delay, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name.” <sup>20</sup>While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, <sup>21</sup>while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, came to me in my weariness about the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup>He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, “Daniel, I have now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding. <sup>23</sup>At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went forth, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. <sup>24</sup>Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to put an end to the transgression, and to make an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place. <sup>25</sup>Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem until the time of an anointed prince, there shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. It shall be built again, with open spaces and a moat, but in times of distress. <sup>26</sup>After the sixty-two weeks an anointed one shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and his end shall come with a flood, and until the end there shall be war; desolations are decreed. <sup>27</sup>He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who destroys, and even until a complete destruction, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys.”

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the word was true: a great war. And he understood the word, and had understanding of the vision. <sup>2</sup>In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three whole weeks. <sup>3</sup>I had no pleasing food, neither meat nor wine came into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. <sup>4</sup>In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is the Tigris,<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>I lifted up my eyes and looked, and look, a man clothed in linen, around his waist a belt made of pure gold from Uphaz. <sup>6</sup>His body was like beryl, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude. <sup>7</sup>I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great trembling fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. <sup>8</sup>So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my natural appearance grew deathly pale, and I retained no strength. <sup>9</sup>Yet I heard the sound of his words, and when I heard the sound of his words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. <sup>10</sup>Look, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. <sup>11</sup>He said to me, “Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have now been sent to you.” And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. <sup>12</sup>Then said he to me, “Do not be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you did set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. And I have come because of your words. <sup>13</sup>But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, look, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was left there with the kings of Persia. <sup>14</sup>Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision refers to future days.” <sup>15</sup>And when he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground, and could not speak. <sup>16</sup>And look, something like a man’s hand<sup>b</sup> touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, “My lord, it is because of the vision anguish has come upon me, and I have no strength. <sup>17</sup>For how can this servant of my lord talk with my lord? As for me, no strength remains, and I am breathless.” <sup>18</sup>Then one like the appearance of a man touched me again and strengthened me. <sup>19</sup>And he said, “Greatly loved man, do not be afraid, peace be to you; be strong, be strong, be strong.”

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, “Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.”

<sup>20</sup>Then he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go forth, look, the prince of Greece shall come. <sup>21</sup>But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the Book of Truth. And there is no one who contends with me against them except Michael, your prince.”

11 “And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and strengthen him. <sup>2</sup>And now what I show you is true. Look, there shall arise three more kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than all of them; and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3</sup>And a powerful king shall arise, who shall rule an extensive empire, and do as he pleases. <sup>4</sup>When he shall arise, his kingdom shall be broken up, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his authority with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, and will go to others besides these. <sup>5</sup>The king of the south shall grow strong, and one of his officers shall grow more powerful, and shall have a greater kingdom than his. <sup>6</sup>At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain her power; neither shall his strength endure; but she shall be surrendered, and her attendants, and he who became the father of her, and he who supported her in those times. <sup>7</sup>But out of a shoot from her roots shall arise in his place, who shall come against the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. <sup>8</sup>Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall withdraw for some years from the king of the north. <sup>9</sup>And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. <sup>10</sup>And his sons shall wage war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall advance and overflow and pass through, and they shall return and wage war, as far as his fortress. <sup>11</sup>The king of the south shall be moved with rage and shall come forth and fight against him, even with the king of the north; and he shall raise a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. <sup>12</sup>The multitude shall be taken away, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. <sup>13</sup>The king of the north shall return, and shall raise a multitude greater than the former; and he shall advance after some years with a great army and with abundant supplies. <sup>14</sup>And in those times many shall rise up against the king of the south: also the violent ones among your people shall rise up in confirmation of the vision; but they shall fail. <sup>15</sup>So the king of the north shall come, and build up a siege mound and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not prevail, neither his best troops, neither shall there be any strength to resist. <sup>16</sup>But he who comes against him shall do as he pleases, and no one shall be able to withstand him. And he shall stand in the beautiful land, and destruction will be within his power. <sup>17</sup>He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and will reach an agreement with him which he shall put into effect. And he shall give him a daughter of women to send destruction on him; but it will not last or be to his advantage. <sup>18</sup>After this shall he turn his face to the coastal regions, and shall capture many. But a commander shall bring his insolence to an end. In addition, he shall repay him for his insolence. <sup>19</sup>Then he shall turn his attention toward the fortresses of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found again. <sup>20</sup>Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an exactor of tribute to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, though not in anger nor in battle. <sup>21</sup>In his place shall arise a despicable person, to whom the honor of kingship had not been given, but he shall come in a time of prosperity, and shall obtain the kingdom through deceit. <sup>22</sup>And large armies shall be swept away and shattered before him, as well as the prince of the covenant. <sup>23</sup>And after an alliance is made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall become strong with a small force. <sup>24</sup>In a time of prosperity he shall come even on the richest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor their fathers; he shall distribute among them plunder, and spoil, and property. He shall devise plans against their strongholds, but only for a time. <sup>25</sup>And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall wage war in battle with an extremely large and powerful army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise plans against him. <sup>26</sup>Yes, those who eat of his royal food shall seek to destroy him, and his army shall be swept away; and many shall fall slain. <sup>27</sup>As for both these kings, their minds shall be fixed on evil, and they shall speak lies at the table; but it shall not succeed; for still the end shall be at the appointed time. <sup>28</sup>Then shall he return into his land with great property; and his mind shall be against the holy covenant. And he shall take action, and then return to his own land. <sup>29</sup>At the appointed time he shall return, and come into the south; but this time the outcome shall not be as it was before. <sup>30</sup>For ships from Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be intimidated, and shall turn back, and be enraged against the holy covenant, and shall take action. He shall turn back, and show regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. <sup>31</sup>Forces shall come at his order, and they shall profane the sanctuary and the fortress, and shall take away the daily burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that causes desolation.<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>And those who act wickedly toward the covenant he shall corrupt by smooth words; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action. <sup>33</sup>And those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder for some time. <sup>34</sup>Now when they shall fall, they shall receive a little help. And many shall join with them insincerely. <sup>35</sup>Some of those who are wise shall fall, to be refined, purified and cleansed until the time of the end; for the appointed time is still to come. <sup>36</sup>And the king shall do as he pleases. And he shall exalt and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak outrageous things against the God of gods. And he shall prosper until the indignation is accomplished; for that which is decreed shall be done. <sup>37</sup>Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the one desired by women, nor show regard to any other god, because he shall magnify himself above all. <sup>38</sup>But instead he shall honor the god of fortresses; a god whom his fathers did not know shall he honor with gold and silver, and with valuable stones, and costly gifts. <sup>39</sup>And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. Whoever acknowledges him he shall grant considerable honor; and he shall make them rulers over many, and shall divide the land for a price. <sup>40</sup>And at the time of the end shall the king of the south attack him. And the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall invade countries, and pass through like a flood. <sup>41</sup>He shall enter also into the beautiful land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the foremost of the sons of Ammon. <sup>42</sup>He shall reach out his hand also on other countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. <sup>43</sup>But he shall have control over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the riches of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his feet. <sup>44</sup>But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go out with tremendous rage to destroy and utterly sweep away many. <sup>45</sup>And he shall pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with no one to help him.

12 “At that time shall Michael arise, the great prince who watches over the children of your people. And there shall be a time of distress unparalleled since the beginning of the nation until that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. <sup>2</sup>Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>3</sup>And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who turn many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever. <sup>4</sup>But you, Daniel, close up these words, and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall roam here and there, and knowledge<sup>a</sup> shall increase.”

<sup>5</sup>Then I, Daniel, looked, and look, two others stood, one on this bank of the river, and one on the other bank of the river. <sup>6</sup>And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long shall it be till these wonders take place?” <sup>7</sup>I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. <sup>8</sup>And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said, “My lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?” <sup>9</sup>And he said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup>Many shall be purified, cleansed and refined; but the wicked shall act wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand. <sup>11</sup>From the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination that causes desolation<sup>b</sup> is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. <sup>12</sup>Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. <sup>13</sup>But go your way until the end. For you shall rest, and shall rise to receive your reward at the end of the days.

Hosea

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>When the LORD spoke at the first by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, “Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup>So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said to him, “Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. <sup>5</sup>It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”

Then he said to him, “Call her name Lo-Ruhamah<sup>a</sup>; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. <sup>7</sup>But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by battle, or by chariots,<sup>b</sup> or<sup>c</sup> by horses, or by horsemen.”

<sup>9</sup>He said, “Call his name Lo-Ammi<sup>d</sup>; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours. <sup>10</sup>Yet the number of the sons of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can’t be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>The children of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

for she said, 'I will go after my

 I will break the bow, the sword,

 and will make them lie down safely.
<sup>19</sup>I will betroth you to me forever.
 Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.
<sup>20</sup>I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;
 and you shall know the LORD.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>It will happen in that day, I will respond,” says the LORD, and they will say, ‘My God.’”<sup>b</sup>

3 The LORD said to me,
 “Go again, love a woman who loves<sup>c</sup> another, and is an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the sons of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins.”

<sup>2</sup>So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley. <sup>3</sup>I said to her, “You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you.”

<sup>4</sup>For the sons of Israel shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols. <sup>5</sup>Afterward the sons of Israel shall return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.

for the LORD has a charge against the inhabitants of the land:
 “Indeed there is no truth,
 nor goodness,
 nor knowledge of God in the
 land.
<sup>2</sup>There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and
 committing adultery;
 they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.
<sup>3</sup>Therefore the land mourns,
 and all those who dwell<sup>a</sup> in it will waste away,
 along with the animals of the
 field
 and the creeping things of the earth<sup>b</sup>
 and the birds of the sky,
 and even the fish of the sea
 will be taken away.
<sup>4</sup>“Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; for your people are like those who bring charges
 against a priest.
<sup>5</sup>You will stumble in the day,
 and the prophet will also stumble with you in
 the night;
 and I will destroy your
 mother.
<sup>6</sup>My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you,
 that you may be no priest to
 me.
 Because you have forgotten your God’s law,
 I will also forget your
 children.
<sup>7</sup>As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me.
 I will change their glory into
 shame.
<sup>8</sup>They feed on the sin of my
 people,
 and set their heart on their
 iniquity.
<sup>9</sup>It will be, like people, like priest;

 and will repay them for their
 deeds.

 They will play the prostitute,

 because they have

Therefore your daughters play the

<sup>14</sup>I will not punish your daughters
when they play the

Judah also will stumble with them.
<sup>6</sup>They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they won't find him. He has withdrawn himself from them.

<sup>7</sup>But they, like Adam,<sup>b</sup> have broken the covenant.
They were unfaithful to me,
there.
<sup>8</sup>Gilead is a city of evildoers;
it is stained with blood.
<sup>9</sup>As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man,
so the company of priests
murder in the way toward Shechem, committing shameful
crimes.
<sup>10</sup>In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.
There is prostitution in Ephraim.
Israel is defiled.
<sup>11</sup>“For you also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for
you,
when I restore the fortunes
of my people.

7 When I would heal
Israel,
then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,
also the wickedness of Samaria;
for they commit falsehood,
and the thief enters in,
and the gang of robbers
ravages outside.
<sup>2</sup>They do not consider in their hearts that I remember
all their wickedness.
Now their own deeds have engulfed them.
They are before my face.
<sup>3</sup>They make the king glad with their wickedness,
and the princes with their
lies.
<sup>4</sup>They are all adulterers.
They are burning like an oven that the baker
stops stirring,
from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.
<sup>5</sup>On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with
the heat of wine.
He joined his hand with
mockers.
<sup>6</sup>For they have made ready their heart like an oven,
while they lie in wait.
Their baker sleeps all the
night.
In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.
<sup>7</sup>They are all hot as an oven,
and devour their judges.
All their kings have fallen.
There is no one among them who calls to me.

<sup>8</sup>Ephraim, he mixes himself
among the nations.
Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.
<sup>9</sup>Strangers have devoured his
strength,
and he doesn't realize it.
Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him,
and he doesn't realize it.
<sup>10</sup>The pride of Israel testifies to his
face;
yet they haven't returned to the LORD their God,
nor sought him, for all this.
<sup>11</sup>"Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove,
without understanding.
They call to Egypt.
They go to Assyria.
<sup>12</sup>When they go, I will spread my net on them.
I will bring them down like
the birds of the sky.
I will chastise them, as their congregation has
heard.
<sup>13</sup>Woe to them.
For they have wandered
from me.
Destruction to them.
For they have trespassed
against me.
Though I would redeem them,
yet they have spoken lies
against me.
<sup>14</sup>They haven't cried to me with their heart,
but they howl on their beds.
They assemble themselves for grain and new wine.
They turn away from me.
<sup>15</sup>Though I have taught and strengthened their arms,

yet they plot evil against me.
<sup>16</sup>They return, but not to the Most High.
They are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.
This will be their derision in
the land of Egypt.

8 "Put the trumpet to
your lips.
Something like an eagle is over the LORD's house,
because they have broken
my covenant,
and rebelled against my law.
<sup>2</sup>They cry to me, 'My God, we Israel acknowledge
you.'
<sup>3</sup>Israel has cast off that
which is good.
The enemy will pursue him.
<sup>4</sup>They have set up kings, but not by me.
They have made princes,
and I did not approve.
Of their silver and their gold
they have made themselves idols,
that they may be cut off.
<sup>5</sup>Let Samaria throw out his calf idol.
My anger burns against
them.
How long will it be until they are capable of purity?
<sup>6</sup>For this is even from Israel.
The workman made it, and it is no God;
indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

<sup>7</sup>For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind.
 He has no standing grain.
 The stalk will yield no head.
 If it does yield, strangers
 will swallow it up.
<sup>8</sup>Israel is swallowed up.
 Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.
<sup>9</sup>For they have gone up to Assyria,
 like a wild donkey
 wandering alone.
 Ephraim has hired lovers for
 himself.
<sup>10</sup>But although they sold themselves among the
 nations,
 I will now gather them;
 and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king
 of mighty ones.
<sup>11</sup>Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning,
 they became for him altars
 for sinning.
<sup>12</sup>I wrote for him the many things
 of my law;
 but they were regarded as a strange thing.
<sup>13</sup>As for the sacrifices of my
 offerings,
 they sacrifice flesh and eat
 it;
 But the LORD doesn't accept
 them.
 Now he will remember their
 iniquity,
 and punish their sins.

They will return to Egypt,
 and will eat unclean
 things in Assyria.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built
 palaces;
 and Judah has multiplied
 fortified cities;
 but I will send a fire on his
 cities,
 and it will devour its fortresses.”

9 Do not rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the
 nations;
 for you were unfaithful to your God.
 You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.
<sup>2</sup>The threshing floor and the winepress won't feed
 them,
 and the new wine will fail
 her.
<sup>3</sup>They won't dwell in the LORD's
 land;
 but Ephraim will return to Egypt,
 and they will eat unclean
 food in Assyria.
<sup>4</sup>They won't pour out wine offerings to the LORD,
 neither will they be pleasing
 to him.
 Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of
 mourners;
 all who eat of it will be polluted;

for their bread will be for their appetite.
 It will not come into the

<sup>5</sup>What will you do in the day of
 solemn assembly,
 and in the day of the feast of
 the LORD?
<sup>6</sup>For, look, they have gone away
 from destruction.
 Egypt will gather them up.
 Memphis will bury them.
 Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver.
 Thorns will be in their tents.
<sup>7</sup>The days of visitation have come.
 The days of reckoning have
 come.
 Let Israel know.<sup>a</sup> The prophet is a
 fool,
 and the man of the spirit is mad,
 because of the abundance of
 your sins,
 and because your hostility is
 great.
<sup>8</sup>A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God.
 A fowler's snare is on all of his paths,
 and hostility in the house of
 his God.
<sup>9</sup>They have deeply corrupted
 themselves,
 as in the days of Gibeah.
 He will remember their
 iniquity.
 He will punish them for their
 sins.

 I saw your fathers as the first

 themselves to the shameful thing,
 and became abominable like
 that which they loved.
<sup>11</sup>As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird.
 There will be no birth, none

<sup>12</sup>Though they bring up their
 children,
 yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be

 Indeed, woe also to them
 when I depart from
 them.
<sup>13</sup>I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant

 Gilgal;
 for there I hated them.
 Because of the wickedness
 of their deeds I will

 I will love them no more.
 All their rulers are rebels.

According to the abundance

their sacred stones.

<sup>2</sup>Their heart is divided.
Now they will be found

He will demolish their altars.
He will destroy their sacred

- <sup>2</sup>Hear this, you elders,
And listen, all you
inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your
days,
or in the days of your
fathers?
- <sup>3</sup>Tell your children about it,
and have your children tell
their children,
and their children, another
generation.
- <sup>4</sup>What the swarming locust has left, the great locust
has eaten.
What the great locust has left, the grasshopper
has eaten.
What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.
- <sup>5</sup>Wake up, you drunkards, and
weep.
Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine;
for it is cut off from your
mouth.
- <sup>6</sup>For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and
without number.

His teeth are the teeth of a
lion,
and he has the fangs of a lioness.

- <sup>7</sup>He has laid my vine waste,
and stripped my fig tree.
He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away.

Its branches are made white.

- <sup>8</sup>Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth.
<sup>9</sup>The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the LORD's house.

The priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

- <sup>10</sup>The field is laid waste.
The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed,
The new wine has dried up,
and the oil languishes.

- <sup>11</sup>Be confounded, you farmers.
Wail, you vineyard keepers;
for the wheat and for the barley;
for the harvest of the field
has perished.

- <sup>12</sup>The vine has dried up, and the
fig tree withered;
the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree,
even all of the trees of the field are withered;
for joy has withered away
from the sons of men.

- <sup>13</sup>Put on sackcloth and mourn, you
priests.

Wail, you ministers of the altar.

- Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my
God,

for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.

<sup>14</sup>Sanctify a fast.

Call a solemn assembly.
Gather the elders,
and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of the LORD, your God,
and cry to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Alas for the day.

For the day of the LORD is at
hand,
and it will come as destruction from Shaddai.

<sup>16</sup>Isn't the food cut off before our
eyes;

joy and gladness from the house of our God?

<sup>17</sup>The seeds<sup>a</sup> shrivel<sup>b</sup> under their shovels.<sup>c</sup>

The storehouses are laid
desolate.
The granaries are broken down, for the grain has withered.

<sup>18</sup>How the animals groan.

The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture.

Even the flocks of sheep suffer.

<sup>19</sup>LORD, I cry to you,

for the fire has devoured the pastures of the
wilderness,
and the flame has burned all
the trees of the field.

<sup>20</sup>Yes, the animals of the field pant
to you,

for the water brooks have dried up,
And the fire has devoured
the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow the trumpet in Zion,
and sound an alarm on my holy mountain.

Let all the inhabitants of the land
tremble,
for the day of the LORD is coming,
for it is near.

<sup>2</sup>A day of darkness and gloominess,
a day of clouds and thick
darkness.

As blackness<sup>d</sup> spreading on the mountains
a great and powerful people;
there has never been the like,
neither will there be any more after them,
even after the years of many
generations.

<sup>a</sup>1:17 So MT, reading פרדות perudot "seeds." DSS cf. LXX Syr Vg read parot פרות "heifers" The reading of "seeds" is more likely since the subject in next two lines is grain, followed by animals

and behind them, a flame burns.
The land is as the garden of Eden
before them,
and behind them, a desolate
wilderness.
Yes, and no one has escaped them.
<sup>4</sup>The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses,
and as horsemen, so do they run.
<sup>5</sup>Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains
do they leap,
like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble,
as a mighty people drawn up
for<sup>a</sup> battle.
<sup>6</sup>At their presence the peoples are in anguish.
All faces have grown pale.
<sup>7</sup>They run like mighty men.
They climb the wall like warriors.
They each march in his line,
and they do not swerve
off course.
<sup>8</sup>Neither does one jostle another;
they march everyone in his
path,
and they burst through the defenses,
and do not break ranks.
<sup>9</sup>They rush on the city.
They run on the wall.
They climb up into the houses.
They enter in at the windows
like thieves.
<sup>10</sup>The earth quakes before them.
The heavens tremble.

The sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars withdraw their shining.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD thunders his voice
before his army;
for his forces are very great;
for he is strong who obeys
his command;
for the day of the LORD is great and very
awesome,
and who can endure it?
<sup>12</sup>“Yet even now,” says the LORD, “turn to me with all
your heart,
and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.”
<sup>13</sup>Tear your heart, and not your garments,
and turn to the LORD, your
God;
for he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abundant
in loving kindness,
and relents from sending
calamity.
<sup>14</sup>Who knows? He may turn and relent,
and leave a blessing behind
him,
even a meal offering and a drink offering to the LORD, your God.
<sup>15</sup>Blow the trumpet in Zion.
Sanctify a fast.
Call a solemn assembly.
<sup>16</sup>Gather the people.
Sanctify the assembly.
Assemble the elders.
Gather the children, and those who suck the breasts.

<sup>a</sup>2:5 So DSS LXX. MT lacks “for”

Let the bridegroom go forth from his room,
 and the bride out of her chamber.

<sup>17</sup>Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep
 between the porch and
 the altar,
 and let them say, “Spare
 your people, LORD,
 and do not give your heritage to mockery,
 a byword<sup>a</sup> among the
 nations.

Why should they say among the
 peoples,
 ‘Where is their God?’”

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD was jealous for his land,
 And had pity on his people.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD answered his people, “Look, I will send you grain,
 new wine, and oil, and you will eat<sup>b</sup>
 and you will be satisfied
 with them;
 and I will no more make you a reproach among the

 and desolate land,
 its front into the eastern sea,

 and its bad smell will rise.”

Surely he has done great things.

<sup>21</sup>Land, do not be afraid.
 Be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great
 things.

<sup>22</sup>Do not be afraid, you animals of

 for the pastures of the

 for the tree bears its fruit.
 The fig tree and the vine

<sup>23</sup>“Be glad then, you children of

Amos

1 The words of Amos,
 who was among the
 herdsmen of Tekoa,
 which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. <sup>2</sup>He
 said:

“The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from
 Jerusalem;
 and the pastures of the shepherds
 will mourn,

and the top of Carmel will wither.”

<sup>3</sup>Thus says the LORD:
 “For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four,
 I will not turn away its
 punishment;
 because they have threshed
 the pregnant women
 of<sup>a</sup> Gilead with threshing instruments
 of iron;

<sup>4</sup>but I will send a fire into the house of Hazeel,
 and it will devour the
 palaces of Ben Hadad.

<sup>5</sup>I will break the bar of Damascus,
 and cut off the inhabitant
 from the valley of Aven,
 and him who holds the scepter from Beth Eden;
 and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir,”
 says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>Thus says the LORD:
 “For three transgressions of Gaza,
 yes, for four,
 I will not turn away its
 punishment;
 because they carried away
 captive the whole community,
 to deliver them up to Edom;

<sup>7</sup>but I will send a fire on the wall

and it will devour its
palaces.

<sup>8</sup>I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod,
and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
and I will turn my hand against Ekron;
and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,”
says the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup>Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Tyre,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they delivered up
the whole community
to Edom,
and did not remember the brotherly covenant;

<sup>10</sup>but I will send a fire on the wall
of Tyre,
and it will devour its
palaces.”

<sup>11</sup>Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Edom,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because he pursued his brother with the
sword,
and cast off all pity,
and his anger raged
continually,
and he kept his wrath
forever;

<sup>12</sup>but I will send a fire on Teman,

and it will devour the
palaces of Bozrah.”

<sup>13</sup>Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of the children of Ammon,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have ripped open the pregnant
women of Gilead,
that they may enlarge their border.

<sup>14</sup>But I will kindle a fire in the wall
of Rabbah,
and it will devour its
palaces,
with shouting in the day of
battle,
with a storm in the day of
the whirlwind;
<sup>15</sup>and their king will go into
captivity,
he and his officials
together,”
says the LORD.

2 Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because he burned the bones
of the king of Edom
into lime;

<sup>2</sup>but I will send a fire on Moab,
and it will devour the
palaces of Kerioth;
and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting,

and<sup>a</sup> with the sound of
the trumpet;
<sup>3</sup>and I will cut off the judge from their midst,
and will kill all its officials
with him,”
says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Judah,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have rejected
the LORD’s law,
and have not kept his
statutes.
Their false idols<sup>b</sup> which they made,<sup>c</sup> after which their fathers walked,
have led them astray.
<sup>5</sup>But I will send a fire on Judah,
and it will devour the
palaces of Jerusalem.”

<sup>6</sup>Thus says the LORD:
“For three transgressions of Israel,
yes, for four,
I will not turn away its
punishment;
because they have sold the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of shoes;

<sup>b</sup>2:4 Heb “lies,” possibly a derogatory term for idols. Cf. Psalm 40:4. The word “vanity” is also used for idols, e.g. Deuteronomy 32:21

<sup>c</sup>2:4 So LXX, reading ha epoesan = אֲשֶׁר עָשׂוּ. MT lacks “which they made” from haplography: asher-asher

<sup>7</sup>They trample on the dust of the earth on the head
of the poor,
and deny justice to the
oppressed;
and a man and his father use
the same maiden, to profane my holy
name;
<sup>8</sup>and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken
in pledge;
and in the house of their God
they drink the wine of those who have been fined.
<sup>9</sup>Yet I destroyed the Amorite
before them,
whose height was like the height of the cedars,
and he was strong as the oaks;
yet I destroyed his fruit from
above,
and his roots from beneath.
<sup>10</sup>Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and led you forty years in
the wilderness,
to possess the land of the Amorite.
<sup>11</sup>I raised up some of your sons for prophets,
and some of your young men for Nazirites.
Isn’t this true,
you sons of Israel?” says the
LORD.
<sup>12</sup>“But you gave the Nazirite wine
to drink,
and commanded the prophets, saying, ‘Do not prophesy.’
<sup>13</sup>Look, I will crush you in your
place,

as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

<sup>14</sup>Flight will perish from the swift;
and the strong won't strengthen his force;
neither shall the mighty
deliver himself;

<sup>15</sup>neither shall he stand who handles the bow;
and he who is swift of foot
won't escape;
neither shall he who rides
the horse deliver
himself;

<sup>16</sup>and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that
day,"
says the LORD.

3 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken
against you, sons of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land
of Egypt, saying:

<sup>2</sup>"You only have I chosen of all the families of the
earth.

Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins."

<sup>3</sup>Do two walk together,
unless they have agreed?

<sup>4</sup>Will a lion roar in the thicket,
when he has no prey?
Does a young lion cry out of his den,

if he has caught nothing?

<sup>5</sup>Can a bird fall in a trap on the
earth,
where no snare is set for
him?

Does a snare spring up from the
ground,

when there is nothing to catch?

<sup>6</sup>Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city,
without the people being
afraid?

Does disaster happen to a city,
unless the LORD has done it?

<sup>7</sup>Surely the Lord GOD will do
nothing,
unless he reveals his secret
to his servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>The lion has roared.
Who will not fear?

The Lord GOD has spoken.
Who can but prophesy?

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim in the palaces at

and what oppression is
among them."

<sup>10</sup>"Indeed they do not know to do right," says the LORD,
"Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

<sup>11</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"An adversary will surround<sup>b</sup> the
land;
and he will pull down your
strongholds,
and your fortresses will be plundered."

---

<sup>a</sup>3:9 So LXX Syr. MT reads

<sup>b</sup>3:11 So Syr cf. BHS. MT reads "an

<sup>12</sup>Thus says the LORD:
 “As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion
     two legs,
 or a piece of an ear,
 so shall the sons of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner
     of a couch,
 and on the silken cushions of a bed.”

<sup>13</sup>“Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob,” says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts.

<sup>14</sup>“For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel
     on him,
 I will also visit the altars of Bethel;
 and the horns of the altar
     will be cut off,
 and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup>I will strike the winter house with the summer
     house;
 and the houses of ivory will
     perish,
 and the great houses will have an end,”
 says the LORD.

4 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor,
 who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, “Bring<sup>a</sup> us something to drink.”

<sup>2</sup>The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness that look,

“The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks,
 and the last of you with fish
 hooks.

<sup>3</sup>You will go out at the breaks in the wall,
 everyone straight before her;
 and you will cast yourselves into Harmon,” says the
 LORD.

<sup>4</sup>“Go to Bethel, and sin;
 to Gilgal, and sin more.
 Bring your sacrifices every
     morning,
 your tithes every three days, <sup>5</sup>offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened,
 and proclaim free will offerings and brag
     about them:
 for this pleases you, you sons of Israel,” says
 the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup>“I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your
 cities,
 and lack of bread in every town;
 yet you haven’t returned to
 me,” says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>“I also have withheld the rain
 from you,
 when there were yet three months to the harvest;
 and I caused it to rain on one
 city,
 and caused it not to rain on another city.

One place was rained on,
 and the piece where it did not rain withered.

<sup>8</sup>So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink
 water,

<sup>a</sup>4:1 So DSS LXX Syr Vg, reading pl.
 MT reads sg

and were not satisfied:
yet you haven't returned to
me," says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>"I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your
vineyards;
and your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust
devoured:
yet you haven't returned to
me," says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>"I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt.
I have slain your young men
with the sword,
and have carried away your
horses;
and I filled your nostrils
with the stench of your
camp,
yet you haven't returned to
me," says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>"I have overthrown some of you,
as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,
and you were like a burning stick plucked out of
the fire;
yet you haven't returned to
me," says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>"Therefore thus will I do to you,
Israel;
because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God,
Israel.

<sup>13</sup>For, look, he who forms the
mountains,
and creates the wind,
and declares to man what is
his thought;
who makes the morning
darkness,
and treads on the high places
of the earth:

The LORD, the God of hosts,
is his name."

5 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you,
O house of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>"The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She shall rise no more.
She is cast down on her land;
there is no one to raise her
up."

<sup>3</sup>For thus says the Lord
GOD:

"The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left,
and that which went forth
one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

<sup>4</sup>For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

"Seek me, and you will live;

<sup>5</sup>but do not seek Bethel,
nor enter into Gilgal,
and do not pass to Beersheba:

for Gilgal shall surely go into
captivity,
and Bethel shall come to
nothing.

<sup>6</sup>Seek the LORD, and you will live;
lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>You who turn justice to
wormwood,

<sup>a</sup>5:6 LXX reads "house of Israel"

and cast down righteousness
to the earth:
<sup>8</sup>seek him who made Kimah and Kesil,<sup>a</sup>
and turns the shadow of death into the
morning,
and makes the day dark with
night;
who calls for the waters of
the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,
the LORD is his name, <sup>9</sup>who brings sudden destruction on the strong,
so that destruction comes on the fortress.<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>They hate him who reproves in
the gate,
and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly.
<sup>11</sup>Forasmuch therefore as you trample on the poor,
and take taxes from him of wheat:
You have built houses of cut stone,
but you will not dwell in
them.
You have planted pleasant
vineyards,
but you shall not drink their
wine.
<sup>12</sup>For I know how many your offenses,
and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the just,
who take a bribe,

and who turn aside the
nearly in the courts.
<sup>13</sup>Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time,
for it is an evil time.
<sup>14</sup>Seek good, and not evil,
that you may live;
and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, as you say.
<sup>15</sup>Hate evil, love good,
and establish justice in the courts.
It may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.”
<sup>16</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of
hosts, the Lord:
“Wailing will be in all the broad
ways;
and they will say in all the streets, ‘Alas. Alas.’
and they will call the farmer
to mourning,
and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.
<sup>17</sup>In all vineyards there will be wailing;
for I will pass through the midst of you,” says the
LORD.
<sup>18</sup>“Woe to you who desire the day
of the LORD.
Why do you long for the day
of the LORD?
It is darkness,
and not light.
<sup>19</sup>As if a man fled from a lion,
and a bear met him;
Or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the
wall,
and a serpent bit him.

<sup>21</sup>I hate, I despise your feasts,
and I can't stand your solemn assemblies.

<sup>22</sup>Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings,
I will not accept them;
neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.

<sup>23</sup>Take away from me the noise of your songs.

I will not listen to the music
of your harps.

<sup>24</sup>But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

<sup>25</sup>“Did you bring to me

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion,
and to those who are

mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the

to whom the house of Israel

Are they better than these

Or is their border greater than your border?

<sup>3</sup>Those who put far away the evil

<sup>8</sup>“The Lord GOD has sworn by

LORD, the God of

and the little house into bits.

<sup>12</sup>Do horses run on the rocky craggs?

Does one plow there with oxen?

But you have turned justice into
poison,
and the fruit of righteousness
into bitterness;

<sup>13</sup>you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, ‘Haven’t we taken for

says the LORD, the God of

7 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: and look,
he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and look, it was the latter growth after the king’s harvest. <sup>2</sup>It happened that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, “Lord GOD, forgive, I beg you.
How could Jacob stand? For he is small.”

<sup>3</sup>The LORD relented concerning this. “It shall not be,”
says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Thus the Lord GOD showed me and look, the Lord GOD called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. <sup>5</sup>Then I said, “Lord GOD, stop, I beg you. How could Jacob stand? For he is small.”

<sup>6</sup>The LORD relented concerning this. “This also shall not be,” says the Lord GOD.

<sup>7</sup>Thus he showed me and look, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A plumb line.” Then the LORD<sup>a</sup> said, “Look, I have<sup>b</sup> set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. <sup>9</sup>The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. <sup>11</sup>For Amos says, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.’”

<sup>12</sup>Amaziah also said to Amos, “You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: <sup>13</sup>but do not prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king’s sanctuary, and it is a royal house.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Amos answered Amaziah, “I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet’s son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; <sup>15</sup>and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’ <sup>16</sup>Now therefore listen to the word of the LORD: ‘You say, Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not proclaim against the house of Isaac.’ <sup>17</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: ‘Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.’”

Obadiah

1 The vision of Obadiah.
This is what the Lord
GOD says about Edom.

We have heard news from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, “Arise, and let’s rise up against her in battle. <sup>2</sup>Look, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. <sup>3</sup>The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
whose habitation is high, who says
in his heart, ‘Who will bring me down to the ground?’ <sup>4</sup>Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though you make<sup>a</sup> your nest
among the stars, I will bring you down from there,” says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>“If thieves came to you, if robbers
by night—oh, what disaster awaits
you—wouldn’t they only steal

until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn’t
they leave some gleaning grapes?
<sup>6</sup>How Esau will be ransacked.
How his hidden treasures are sought out. <sup>7</sup>All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Those who eat bread with you<sup>b</sup> lay a snare under you.
There is no understanding in him.”

<sup>8</sup>“Won’t I in that day,” says
the LORD, “destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding
out of the mountain of Esau?
<sup>9</sup>Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone
may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. <sup>10</sup>For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. <sup>11</sup>In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates,<sup>c</sup>
and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. <sup>12</sup>But do not look down on your brother
in the day of his disaster, and do not rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Do not speak proudly in the day of distress. <sup>13</sup>Do not enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Do not look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. <sup>14</sup>Do not stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Do not deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. <sup>15</sup>For the day of the LORD is near all the nations. As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. <sup>16</sup>For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. <sup>17</sup>But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess those who dispossessed<sup>a</sup> them. <sup>18</sup>The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau.” Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

<sup>19</sup>Those of the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. <sup>20</sup>The captives of this army of the sons of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. <sup>21</sup>Those who have been saved<sup>b</sup> will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be the LORD’s.

Jonah

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim against it, for their wickedness has come up before me.”

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. <sup>5</sup>Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. <sup>6</sup>So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, “What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God<sup>a</sup>. Maybe your God<sup>b</sup> will notice us, so that we won’t perish.”

<sup>7</sup>They all said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is on us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then they asked him, “Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?”

<sup>9</sup>He said to them, “I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, “What is this that you have done?” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. <sup>11</sup>Then said they to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?” For the sea grew more and more stormy. <sup>12</sup>He said to them, “Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you.”

<sup>13</sup>Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. <sup>14</sup>Therefore they cried to the LORD, and said, “We beg you, LORD, we beg you, let us not perish for this man’s life, and do not lay on us innocent blood; for you, LORD, have done as it pleased you.” <sup>15</sup>So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. <sup>16</sup>Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and made vows.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD, his God, out of the fish’s belly. <sup>2</sup>He

said,

“I called because of my affliction to the LORD.

He answered me.

Out of the belly of Sheol I cried.

You heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup>For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas.

The flood was all around me.

All your waves and your billows passed over me.

<sup>4</sup>I said, ‘I have been banished from your sight;

yet I will look again toward your holy temple.’

<sup>5</sup>The waters surrounded me, threatening my life.

The deep was around me.

The weeds were wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.
The earth barred me in forever:
yet have you brought up my life from the pit, LORD my God.

<sup>7</sup>“When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD.

My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup>Those who regard worthless things forsake their faithfulness.

<sup>9</sup>But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving.

I will pay that which I have vowed.

Salvation belongs to the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup>The LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

3 The word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

<sup>2</sup>“Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I give you.”

<sup>3</sup>So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days’ journey across. <sup>4</sup>Jonah began to enter into the city a day’s journey, and he cried out, and said, “Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.”

<sup>5</sup>The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. <sup>6</sup>The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. <sup>7</sup>He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, “Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; <sup>8</sup>but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. <sup>9</sup>Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?”

<sup>10</sup>God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. <sup>2</sup>He prayed to the LORD, and said, “Please, LORD, wasn’t this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. <sup>3</sup>Therefore now, LORD, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>4</sup>The LORD said, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. <sup>6</sup>The LORD God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. <sup>7</sup>But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. <sup>8</sup>It happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah’s head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>9</sup>God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?”

He said, “I am right to be angry, even to death.”

<sup>10</sup>The LORD said, “You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. <sup>11</sup>Shouldn’t I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can’t discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?”

Micah

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Hear, you peoples, all of you.
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it:
and let the Lord GOD be witness against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.

<sup>3</sup>For, look, the LORD comes forth out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains melt under him,
and the valleys split apart,
like wax before the fire,
like waters that are poured down a steep place.

<sup>5</sup>“All this is for the disobedience of Jacob,
and for the sins of the house of Israel.

What is the disobedience of Jacob?

Isn’t it Samaria?
And what are the high places of Judah?

Micah 2

Aren't they Jerusalem?
<sup>6</sup>Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field,
like places for planting
vineyards;
and I will pour down its stones
into the valley,
and I will uncover its foundations.
<sup>7</sup>All her idols will be beaten to pieces,
and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire,
and all her images I will destroy;
for of the hire of a prostitute has
she gathered them,
and to the hire of a prostitute
shall they return.”
<sup>8</sup>For this I will lament and wail;
I will go stripped and naked;
I will howl like the jackals,
and moan like the daughters of owls.
<sup>9</sup>For her wounds are incurable;
for it has come even to Judah.
It reaches to the gate of my people,
even to Jerusalem.
<sup>10</sup>Do not tell it in Gath.
Do not weep at all.
At Beth Leaphrah I have rolled myself in the
dust.
<sup>11</sup>Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.
The inhabitant of Zaanan
won't come out.
The wailing of Beth Ezel
will take from you his protection.
<sup>12</sup>For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for
good,

because evil has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.
<sup>13</sup>Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish.
She was the beginning of sin
to the daughter of Zion;
For the transgressions of Israel were found in
you.
<sup>14</sup>Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath.
The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.
<sup>15</sup>I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.
He who is the glory of Israel
will come to Adullam.
<sup>16</sup>Shave your heads,
and cut off your hair for the children of your
delight.
Enlarge your baldness like the vulture;
for they have gone into captivity from you.

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity
and work evil on their beds.

When the morning is light, they practice it,
because it is in the power of
their hand.
<sup>2</sup>They covet fields, and seize them;
and houses, and take them
away:
and they oppress a man and
his house,
even a man and his heritage.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD:
 “Look, I am planning against these people a disaster,

 from which you will not remove your necks,
 neither will you walk
 haughtily;
 for it is an evil time.

<sup>4</sup>In that day they will take up a parable against you,
 and lament with a doleful
 lamentation, saying,
 ‘We are utterly ruined.
 My people’s possession is divided up.

Indeed he takes it from me
 and assigns our fields
 to traitors.’”

<sup>5</sup>Therefore you will have no one who divides the land
 by lot in the assembly
 of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>“Do not prophesy.”

They prophesy.

“Do not prophesy about these things.

Disgrace won’t overtake us.”

<sup>7</sup>Shall it be said, O house of Jacob:
 “Is the Spirit of the LORD
 angry?

Are these his doings?

Do not my words do good to him who walks
 blamelessly?”

<sup>8</sup>But lately my people have risen
 up as an enemy.

You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from
 battle.

<sup>9</sup>You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses;

from their young children
 you take away my blessing forever.

<sup>10</sup>Arise, and depart.

For this is not your resting
 place,
 because of uncleanness that destroys,
 even with a grievous
 destruction.

<sup>11</sup>If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies:

“I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong
 drink;”

he would be the prophet of this people.

<sup>12</sup>I will surely assemble, Jacob, all
 of you;

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;

I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah,
 as a flock in the midst of
 their pasture;
 they will swarm with people.

<sup>13</sup>The breaker goes up before
 them.

They break through the gate,
 and go out.

And their king passes on
 before them,
 with the LORD at their head.

3 I said,
 “Please listen, you
 heads of Jacob,
 and rulers of the house of
 Israel:

Isn’t it for you to know
 justice?

<sup>2</sup>You who hate the good,
 and love the evil;
 who tear off their skin,

and their flesh from off their
bones;

<sup>3</sup>who also eat the flesh of my
people,
and flay their skin from off
them,

and break their bones,
and chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
and as flesh within the caldron.

<sup>4</sup>Then they will cry to the LORD,
but he will not answer them.

Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time,
because they made their deeds evil.”

<sup>5</sup>Thus says the LORD
concerning the prophets who lead
my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, “Peace.” and whoever doesn’t provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him:

<sup>6</sup>“Therefore night is over you, with no vision,
and it is dark to you, that you may not divine;
and the sun will go down on the prophets,
and the day will be black
over them.

<sup>7</sup>The seers shall be disappointed,
and the diviners confounded.
Yes, they shall all cover their lips;
for there is no answer from
God.”

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD,
and of judgment, and of
might,
to declare to Jacob his
disobedience,

and to Israel his sin.

<sup>9</sup>Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of
Israel,
who abhor justice,
and pervert all equity.

<sup>10</sup>They build up Zion with blood,
and Jerusalem with iniquity.

<sup>11</sup>Her leaders judge for bribes,
and her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets of it tell
fortunes for money:
yet they lean on the LORD, and
say,
“Isn’t the LORD in the midst of us?”

No disaster will come on
us.”

<sup>12</sup>Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a
field,
and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble,
and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

4 But in the latter days,
it will happen that the mountain of the LORD’s temple will be established on the top of the mountains,
and it will be exalted above
the hills;
and peoples will stream to it.

<sup>2</sup>Many nations will go and say, “Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the
LORD,
and to the house of the God
of Jacob;

and he will teach us of his ways,
 and we will walk in his paths.”
 For out of Zion will go forth the law,
 and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem;
<sup>3</sup>and he will judge between many peoples,
 and will decide concerning strong nations afar off.
 They will beat their swords into plowshares,
 and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
 neither will they learn war any more.
<sup>4</sup>But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;
 and no one will make them afraid:
 For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.
<sup>5</sup>Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods;
 but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.
<sup>6</sup>“In that day,” says the LORD,
 “I will assemble that which is lame,
 and I will gather that which is driven away,
 and that which I have afflicted;
<sup>7</sup>and I will make that which was lame a remnant,
 and that which was cast far off a strong nation:
 and the LORD will reign over them on Mount

Zion from then on,
 even forever.”
<sup>8</sup>And you, tower of the flock,<sup>a</sup> hill<sup>b</sup> of the daughter of Zion,
 to you it will come,
 the former dominion will come,
 the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.
<sup>9</sup>Now why do you cry out aloud?
 Is there no king in you?
 Has your counselor perished,
 that pain has gripped you like a woman in labor?
<sup>10</sup>Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, daughter of Zion,
 like a woman in travail;
 for now you will go forth out of the city,
 and will dwell in the field,
 and will come even to Babylon.
 There you will be rescued.
 There the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
<sup>11</sup>Now many nations have assembled against you,
 that say,
 “Let her be defiled,
 and let our eye gloat over Zion.”
<sup>12</sup>But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD, neither do they understand his counsel;
 for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.

<sup>a</sup>4:8 Or, Migdal Eder

<sup>b</sup>4:8 Or, Ophel

Micah 5

<sup>13</sup>Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion;
for I will make your horn
iron,
and I will make your hoofs
bronze;
and you will beat in pieces many
peoples:
and I will devote their gain to the LORD,
and their substance to the Lord of the whole
earth.

5 Now you shall gather yourself in troops,
daughter of troops.
He has laid siege against us.

They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

<sup>2</sup>But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans
of Judah,
out of you one will come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel;
whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth.

Then the rest of his brothers
will return to the sons
of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>He shall stand, and shall shepherd
in the strength of the
LORD,
in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God:

and they will live, for then
he will be great to the farthest parts of the
earth.

<sup>5</sup>He will be our peace when Assyria invades our
land,
and when he marches
through our fortresses,
then we will raise against him seven shepherds,
and eight leaders of men.

<sup>6</sup>They will rule the land of Assyria
with the sword,
and the land of Nimrod with the drawn sword.<sup>b</sup>

He will deliver us from the Assyrian,
when he invades our land,
and when he marches within our border.

<sup>7</sup>The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many
peoples,
like dew from the LORD,
like showers on the grass,
that do not wait for man,
nor wait for the sons of men.

<sup>8</sup>The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
in the midst of many
peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep;
who, if he goes through,
treads down and tears
in pieces,
and there is no one to deliver.

<sup>a</sup>5:2 Matthew 2:6

- <sup>9</sup>Let your hand be lifted up above
your adversaries,
and let all of your enemies
be cut off.
- <sup>10</sup>“It will happen in that day,” says
the LORD,
“That I will cut off your horses out of the midst
of you,
and will destroy your
chariots.
- <sup>11</sup>I will cut off the cities of your
land,
and will tear down all your
strongholds.
- <sup>12</sup>I will destroy witchcraft from
your hand;
and you shall have no
soothsayers.
- <sup>13</sup>I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out of your
midst;
and you shall no more worship the work of
your hands.
- <sup>14</sup>I will uproot your Asherim out of your midst;
and I will destroy your
cities.
- <sup>15</sup>I will execute vengeance in
anger,
and wrath on the nations that did not listen.”

6 Listen now to what the LORD says:
“Arise, plead your case
before the mountains,
and let the hills hear what you have to say.

- <sup>2</sup>Hear, you mountains, the LORD’s controversy,

- and you enduring foundations of the
earth;
for the LORD has a controversy with his
people,
and he will contend with
Israel.
- <sup>3</sup>My people, what have I done to
you?
How have I burdened you?
Answer me.
- <sup>4</sup>For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and redeemed you out of the house of bondage.
I sent before you Moses,
Aaron, and Miriam.
- <sup>5</sup>My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised,
and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him
from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the LORD.”
- <sup>6</sup>How shall I come before the LORD,
and bow myself before the exalted God?
Shall I come before him with burnt
offerings,
with calves a year old?
<sup>7</sup>Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams?
With tens of thousands of rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my
disobedience?
The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

<sup>a</sup>6:6 Elohe Marom

<sup>8</sup>He has shown you, O man, what is good.
What does the LORD require of you, but to act
justly,
to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your
God?

<sup>9</sup>The LORD's voice calls to the
city,
and wisdom sees your name:

"Listen to the rod,
and he who appointed it.

<sup>10</sup>Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked,
and a short ephah<sup>a</sup> that is accursed?

<sup>11</sup>Shall I be pure with dishonest scales,
and with a bag of deceitful
weights?

<sup>12</sup>Her rich men are full of violence,
her inhabitants speak lies,
and their tongue is deceitful
in their speech.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound.

I have made you desolate
because of your sins.

<sup>14</sup>You shall eat, but not be satisfied.
Your humiliation will be in
your midst.
You will store up, but not
save;

and that which you save I will give up to the sword.

<sup>15</sup>You will sow, but won't reap.
You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself
with oil;
and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.

<sup>16</sup>For the statutes of Omri are kept,
and all the works of the house of Ahab.

You walk in their counsels,
that I may make you a ruin,
and her inhabitants a hissing;
And you will bear the reproach of my
people."

7 Misery is mine.
Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the
vineyard:

There is no cluster of grapes
to eat.

My soul desires to eat the early fig.

<sup>2</sup>The faithful have vanished from
the earth,
and there is no one upright
among men.

They all lie in wait for
blood;
every man hunts his brother
with a net.

<sup>3</sup>Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently.
The ruler and judge ask for a bribe;

and the powerful man
dictates the evil desire of his soul.

---

<sup>a</sup>6:10 An ephah is a measure of volume, and a short ephah is made smaller than a full ephah for the purpose of cheating customers

- Thus they conspire together.
<sup>4</sup>The best of them is like a brier.
 The most upright is worse
 than a thorn hedge.
 The day of your watchmen,
 even your visitation, has
 come;
 now is the time of their
 confusion.
- <sup>5</sup>Do not trust in a neighbor.
 Do not put confidence in a
 friend.
 With the woman lying in your embrace,
 be careful of the words of
 your mouth.
- <sup>6</sup>For the son dishonors the father,
 the daughter rises up against her mother,
 the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
 a man's enemies are the men
 of his own house.
- <sup>7</sup>But as for me, I will look to the LORD.
 I will wait for the God of my
 salvation.
 My God will hear me.
- <sup>8</sup>Do not rejoice against me, my
 enemy.
 When I fall, I will arise.
 When I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to
 me.
- <sup>9</sup>I will bear the indignation of the LORD,
 because I have sinned
 against him,
 until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for
 me.
 He will bring me forth to the
 light.
 I will see his righteousness.
- <sup>10</sup>Then my enemy will see it,
 and shame will cover her
 who said to me,
 where is the LORD your
 God?
 Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame.
 Now she will be trodden down like the mire of
 the streets.
- <sup>11</sup>A day to build your walls—
 In that day, he will extend your boundary.
- <sup>12</sup>In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt,
 and from Egypt even to the River,
 and from sea to sea,
 and mountain to mountain.
- <sup>13</sup>Yet the land will be desolate
 because of those who
 dwell in it,
 for the fruit of their doings.
- <sup>14</sup>Shepherd your people with your staff,
 the flock of your heritage,
 who dwell by themselves in a forest,
 in the midst of fertile pasture
 land, let them feed;
 in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
- <sup>15</sup>“As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt,
 I will show them marvelous
 things.”
- <sup>16</sup>The nations will see and be ashamed of all their
 might.
 They will lay their hand on
 their mouth.
 Their ears will be deaf.
- <sup>17</sup>They will lick the dust like a serpent.

Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.

They will come with fear to the LORD our God, and will be afraid because of you.

<sup>18</sup>Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage?

He doesn't retain his anger forever, because he delights in loving kindness.

<sup>19</sup>He will again have compassion on us. He will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

<sup>20</sup>You will give truth to Jacob, and mercy to Abraham, as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum

1 An oracle about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. <sup>2</sup>The LORD is a jealous God and avenges. The LORD avenges and is full of wrath. The LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. <sup>3</sup>The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. The LORD has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

<sup>4</sup>He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes. <sup>5</sup>The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. <sup>6</sup>Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him. <sup>7</sup>The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. <sup>8</sup>But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

<sup>9</sup>What do you plot against the LORD? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time. <sup>10</sup>For entangled like thorns, and drunk as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. <sup>11</sup>There is one gone forth out of you, who devises evil against the LORD, who counsels wickedness. <sup>12</sup>Thus says the LORD: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. <sup>13</sup>Now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." <sup>14</sup>The LORD has commanded concerning you: “No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile.”

<sup>15</sup>Look, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace. Keep your feasts, Judah. Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

2 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress. Watch the way. Strengthen your waist. Fortify your power mightily. <sup>2</sup>For the LORD restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. <sup>3</sup>The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. <sup>4</sup>The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the broad ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. <sup>5</sup>He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. <sup>6</sup>The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. <sup>7</sup>It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away, and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. <sup>8</sup>But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. “Stop. Stop.” they cry, but no one looks back. <sup>9</sup>Take the spoil of silver. Take the spoil of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. <sup>10</sup>She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. <sup>11</sup>Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion’s cubs, and no one made them afraid? <sup>12</sup>The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey. <sup>13</sup>“Look, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

3 Woe to the bloody city. It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn’t depart. <sup>2</sup>The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, <sup>3</sup>the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, <sup>4</sup>because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. <sup>5</sup>“Look, I am against you,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. <sup>6</sup>I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. <sup>7</sup>It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, ‘Nineveh is laid waste. Who will mourn for her?’ Where will I seek comforters for you?”

<sup>8</sup>Are you better than No-Amon,<sup>a</sup> who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? <sup>9</sup>Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. <sup>10</sup>Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for all<sup>b</sup> her honored men, and all her great men were bound in chains. <sup>11</sup>You also will be drunk. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. <sup>12</sup>All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. <sup>13</sup>Look, your troops in your midst are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars.

<sup>a</sup>3:8 Or, Thebes

<sup>b</sup>3:10 So LXX cf. BHS. MT lacks “all”

<sup>14</sup>Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. <sup>15</sup>There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. <sup>16</sup>You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. <sup>17</sup>Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. <sup>18</sup>Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. <sup>19</sup>There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn’t felt your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1 The oracle which Habakkuk the prophet saw. <sup>2</sup>LORD, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you “Violence.” and will you not save? <sup>3</sup>Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore the law is paralyzed,
 and justice never goes forth;
 for the wicked surround the righteous;
 therefore justice goes forth
 perverted.

<sup>5</sup>“Look, you scoffers,<sup>a</sup> and watch, and be utterly amazed, and perish;<sup>b</sup> for I am<sup>c</sup> working a work in your days which you will not believe, though it is told you.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>For, look, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places not his own. <sup>7</sup>He is feared and dreaded. His judgment will be from himself,
 and his authority will come from himself.<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup>His horses are also swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening
 wolves. And their horsemen press proudly on, and their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. <sup>9</sup>All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. <sup>10</sup>And he will scoff at kings and deride rulers. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. <sup>11</sup>Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is

 his god.”

<sup>12</sup>Aren't you from everlasting, LORD my God, my Holy One? We will not die. LORD, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. <sup>13</sup>You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, <sup>14</sup>and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? <sup>15</sup>He takes up all of them with the hook, and<sup>f</sup> he catches them in his net and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. <sup>16</sup>Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. <sup>17</sup>Will he therefore continually empty his net,<sup>g</sup> killing
 the nations without mercy?

<sup>2</sup>The LORD answered me, “Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. <sup>3</sup>For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won’t prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come, and<sup>a</sup> it won’t delay. <sup>4</sup>Look, if he holds back,<sup>b</sup> my soul<sup>c</sup> has no pleasure<sup>d</sup> in him, but the righteous will live by<sup>e</sup> faith.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. A haughty man who doesn’t stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol, and he is like death, and can’t be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. <sup>6</sup>Won’t all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ‘Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion. How long?’ <sup>7</sup>Won’t your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? <sup>8</sup>Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men’s blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. <sup>9</sup>Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil. <sup>10</sup>You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. <sup>11</sup>For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. <sup>12</sup>Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity. <sup>13</sup>Look, isn’t it of the LORD of hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? <sup>14</sup>For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>15</sup>“Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies. <sup>16</sup>You are filled with shame, and not glory. 3 A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.

<sup>2</sup>LORD, I have heard of your fame.
I stand in awe of your deeds,
LORD.

Renew your work in the midst of
the years.

In the midst of the years
make it known.

In wrath, you remember
mercy.

<sup>3</sup>God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah.

His glory covered the heavens,
and his praise filled the
earth.

<sup>4</sup>His splendor is like the sunrise.

Rays shine from his hand,
where his power is hidden.

<sup>5</sup>Plague went before him,
and pestilence followed his
feet.

<sup>6</sup>He stood, and shook the earth.
He looked, and made the nations tremble.

The ancient mountains were crumbled.

The age-old hills collapsed.
His ways are eternal.

<sup>7</sup>I saw the tents of Cushan in
affliction.

The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.

<sup>8</sup>Was the LORD displeased with the rivers?

Was your anger against the
rivers,

or your wrath against the
sea,

that you rode on your horses,
on your chariots of
salvation?

<sup>9</sup>You uncovered your bow.

You called for your sworn arrows.

Selah.

You split the earth with rivers.

<sup>10</sup>The mountains saw you, and were afraid.

The storm of waters passed by.

The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.

<sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stood still in
the sky,

at the light of your arrows as they went,

at the shining of your glittering spear.

<sup>12</sup>You marched through the land in
wrath.

Zephaniah 1

You threshed the nations in
anger.

<sup>13</sup>You went forth for the salvation of your people,
for the salvation of your
anointed.

You crushed the head of the land
of wickedness.

You stripped them head to foot.

Selah.

<sup>14</sup>You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears.

They came as a whirlwind to scatter me,
gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.

<sup>15</sup>You trampled the sea with your horses,
churning mighty waters.

<sup>16</sup>I heard, and my body trembled.
My lips quivered at the
voice.

Rottenness enters into my bones,
and I tremble in my
place,
because I must wait quietly
for the day of trouble,
for the coming up of the people who invade us.

<sup>17</sup>For though the fig tree doesn't

nor fruit be in the vines;
the labor of the olive fails,
the fields yield no food;
the flocks are cut off from
the fold,
and there is no herd in the stalls:

<sup>18</sup>yet I will rejoice in the LORD.
I will be joyful in the God of
my salvation.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD, the Lord, is my
strength.

He makes my feet like
deer's feet,
and enables me to go in high
places.

my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1 The word of the LORD
which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah,
in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says the LORD. <sup>3</sup>I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says the LORD. <sup>4</sup>I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, <sup>5</sup>those who worship the host of heaven on the housetops, those who worship and swear by the LORD and also swear by Malcam, <sup>6</sup>those who have turned back from following the LORD, and those who haven't sought the LORD nor inquired after him. <sup>7</sup>Be silent at the presence of the Lord GOD, for the day of the LORD is at hand. For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. <sup>8</sup>It will happen in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. <sup>9</sup>In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. <sup>10</sup>In that day, says the LORD, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. <sup>11</sup>Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone. All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. <sup>12</sup>It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil." <sup>13</sup>Their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. <sup>14</sup>The great day of the LORD is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of the LORD. The mighty man cries there bitterly. <sup>15</sup>That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, <sup>16</sup>a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. <sup>17</sup>I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. <sup>18</sup>Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, <sup>2</sup>before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD comes on you, before the day of the LORD's anger comes on you. <sup>3</sup>Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of the LORD's anger. <sup>4</sup>For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. <sup>5</sup>Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites. The word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. <sup>6</sup>The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. <sup>7</sup>The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for the LORD, their God, will visit them, and restore them. <sup>8</sup>I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. <sup>9</sup>Therefore as I live, says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. <sup>10</sup>This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. <sup>11</sup>The LORD will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. <sup>12</sup>You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword. <sup>13</sup>He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. <sup>14</sup>Herds will lie down in the midst of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. <sup>15</sup>This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in. Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted,

the oppressing city. <sup>2</sup>She did not obey the voice. She did not receive correction. She did not trust in the LORD. She did not draw near to her God. <sup>3</sup>Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. <sup>4</sup>Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. <sup>5</sup>The LORD, in the midst of her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. <sup>6</sup>I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. <sup>7</sup>I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. <sup>8</sup>"Therefore wait for me," says the LORD, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. <sup>9</sup>For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on the name of the LORD, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. <sup>10</sup>From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. <sup>11</sup>In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. <sup>12</sup>But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid.”

<sup>14</sup>Sing, daughter of Zion. Shout, Israel. Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The LORD has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in the midst of you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. <sup>16</sup>In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, “Do not be afraid, Zion. Do not let your hands be weak.” <sup>17</sup>The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. <sup>18</sup>I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. <sup>19</sup>Look, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. <sup>20</sup>At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you;

for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Haggai

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, <sup>2</sup>“This is what the LORD of hosts says: These people say, ‘The time hasn’t yet come, the time for the LORD’s house to be built.’”

<sup>3</sup>Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, <sup>4</sup>“Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? <sup>5</sup>Now therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says: Consider your ways. <sup>6</sup>You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you do not have enough. You drink, but you aren’t filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it.”

<sup>7</sup>This is what the LORD of hosts says: “Consider your ways. <sup>8</sup>Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified,” says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>“You looked for much, and, look, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?” says the LORD of hosts, “Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. <sup>10</sup>Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. <sup>11</sup>I called for a drought on the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, on the oil, and on all<sup>a</sup> what the ground produces, and on men, and on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD, their God, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as the LORD, their God, had sent him; and the people feared the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, spoke the LORD’s message to the people, saying, “I am with you,” says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup>in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn’t it in your eyes as nothing? <sup>4</sup>Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,” says the LORD. ‘Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,’ says the LORD, ‘and work, for I am with you,’ says the LORD of hosts. <sup>5</sup>This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. ‘Do not be afraid.’ <sup>6</sup>For this is what the LORD of hosts says: ‘Yet once more, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth<sup>b</sup> and the sea and the dry land; <sup>7</sup>and I will shake all nations, and they will come with the treasures of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. <sup>8</sup>The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,’ says the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup>“The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts; 'and in this place will I give peace,' says the LORD of hosts."

<sup>10</sup>In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, <sup>12</sup>"If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?"

The priests answered, "No."

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?"

The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

<sup>14</sup>Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says the LORD; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. <sup>15</sup>Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. <sup>17</sup>I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you did not turn to me,' says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it. <sup>19</sup>Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't brought forth. From this day will I bless you."

<sup>20</sup>The word of the LORD came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, <sup>21</sup>"Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. <sup>22</sup>I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. <sup>23</sup>In that day, says the LORD of hosts, will I take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

Zechariah

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, <sup>2c</sup>“The LORD was very displeased with your fathers. <sup>3</sup>Therefore tell them: Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘Return to me,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘and I will return to you,’ says the LORD of hosts. <sup>4</sup>Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;’ but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says the LORD. <sup>5</sup>Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? <sup>6</sup>But my words and my statutes, which I commanded by my Spirit<sup>a</sup> to my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said, ‘Just as the LORD of hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.’” <sup>7</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, <sup>8</sup>“I had a vision in the night, and look, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. <sup>9</sup>Then I asked, ‘My lord, what are these?’”

The angel who talked with me said to me, “I will show you what these are.”

<sup>10</sup>The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said to me,<sup>b</sup> “They are the ones the LORD has sent to go back and forth through the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>They reported to the angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, “We have walked back and forth through the earth, and look, all the earth is at rest and in peace.” <sup>12</sup>Then the angel of the LORD replied, “O LORD of hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?”

<sup>13</sup>The LORD answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. <sup>14</sup>So the angel who talked with me said to me, “Proclaim, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: “I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. <sup>15</sup>I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but only a little angry, but they added to the calamity.” <sup>16</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: “I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house will be built in it,” says the LORD of hosts, “and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem.””

<sup>a</sup>1:6 So LXX. MT lacks “by my Spirit” from homoioteleuton: y-y, or by sight confusion in a square script: חִי-יְהוָה

<sup>b</sup>1:10 So LXX, reading pros me = אֵלַי. MT lacks “to me” from homoioarcton: אֵלַי-אֵלַי

<sup>17</sup>“Proclaim further, saying, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem.’””

<sup>18</sup>I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, four horns. <sup>19</sup>I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these?”

He answered me, “These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

<sup>20</sup>The LORD showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup>Then I asked, “What are these coming to do?”

He said, “These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify<sup>a</sup> them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

2 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, a man with a measuring line in his hand. <sup>2</sup>Then I asked, “Where are you going?”

He said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length.”

<sup>3</sup>Look, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, <sup>4</sup>and said to him, “Run, speak to this young man, saying, ‘Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. <sup>5</sup>For I,’ says the LORD, ‘will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. <sup>6</sup>Come. Come. Flee from the land of the north,’ says the LORD; ‘for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,’ says the LORD. <sup>7</sup>‘Come, Zion. Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.’ <sup>8</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of my<sup>b</sup> eye. <sup>9</sup>For, look, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me. <sup>10</sup>Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, look, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,’ says the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation.”

3 He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, Satan. Yes, the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you. Isn’t this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?”

<sup>3</sup>Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. <sup>4</sup>He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, “Take the filthy garments off of him.” To him he said, “Look, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing.”

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and the angel of the LORD was standing by. <sup>6</sup>The angel of the LORD protested to Joshua, saying, <sup>7</sup>“Thus says the LORD of hosts: ‘If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. <sup>8</sup>Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, look, I will bring forth my servant, the Branch. <sup>9</sup>For, look, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: look, I will engrave its engraving,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. <sup>10</sup>In that day,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.’”

4 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. <sup>2</sup>He said to me, “What do you see?”

I said, “I have seen, and look, a lampstand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; <sup>3</sup>and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it.”

<sup>4</sup>I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, “What are these, my lord?”

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who talked with me answered me, “Do you not know what these are?”

I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>6</sup>Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,’ says the LORD of hosts. <sup>7</sup>Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of ‘Grace, grace, to it.’”

<sup>8</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>“The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. <sup>10</sup>Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the eyes of the LORD, which run back and forth through the whole earth.”

<sup>12</sup>I asked him the second time, “What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?”

<sup>13</sup>He answered me, “Do you not know what these are?”

I said, “No, my lord.”

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

5 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, a flying scroll.
<sup>2</sup>He said to me, “What do you see?”

I answered, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits.”

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. <sup>4</sup>I will cause it to go out,” says the LORD of hosts, “and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the midst of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, “Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing.”

<sup>6</sup>I said, “What is it?”

He said, “This is the ephah<sup>a</sup> basket that is appearing.” He said moreover, “This is their appearance in all the land <sup>7</sup>(and look, a talent<sup>b</sup> of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah basket.”
<sup>8</sup>He said, “This is Wickedness;” and he threw her down into the midst of the ephah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

<sup>a</sup>5:6 An ephah is a measure of volume of about 22 litres, 5.8 U. S. gallons, 4.8 imperial gallons, or a bit more than half a bushel

<sup>b</sup>5:7 A talent is a weight of about 34 kilograms or 75 pounds

<sup>9</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. <sup>10</sup>Then said I to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?"

<sup>11</sup>He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and look, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. <sup>2</sup>In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; <sup>3</sup>in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. <sup>4</sup>Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

<sup>5</sup>The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. <sup>6</sup>The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went forth toward the south country." <sup>7</sup>The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, "Go around and through the earth." So they walked back and forth through the earth.

<sup>8</sup>Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Look, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."

<sup>9</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>10</sup>"Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. <sup>11</sup>Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; <sup>12</sup>and speak to him, saying, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Look, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of the LORD; <sup>13</sup>even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. <sup>14</sup>The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."'"

7 It happened in the fourth year of king Darius that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. <sup>2</sup>The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat the LORD's favor, <sup>3</sup>and to speak to the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you do it all fast to me, really to me?' <sup>6</sup>When you eat, and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? <sup>7</sup>Aren't these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the Negev and the lowland were inhabited?"

refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. <sup>12</sup>Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. <sup>13</sup>It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said the LORD of hosts; <sup>14</sup>"but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."

8 The word of the LORD of hosts came to me. <sup>2</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath."

<sup>3</sup>Thus says the LORD: "I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, 'The Holy Mountain.'"

<sup>4</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. <sup>5</sup>The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

<sup>6</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>7</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Look, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; <sup>8</sup>and I will bring them, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

<sup>9</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. <sup>10</sup>For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. <sup>11</sup>But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup>"For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. <sup>13</sup>It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing.

Do not be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

<sup>14</sup>For thus says the LORD of hosts: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says the LORD of hosts, "and I did not repent; <sup>15</sup>so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not be afraid. <sup>16</sup>These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, <sup>17</sup>and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>The word of the LORD of hosts came to me. <sup>19</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."

<sup>20</sup>Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Many<sup>a</sup> peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; <sup>21</sup>and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts. I will go also.' <sup>22</sup>Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.”<sup>23</sup> Thus says the LORD of hosts: “In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, ‘We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

9 An oracle.
The word of the LORD
is against the land of Hadrach,
and will rest upon Damascus;
for the eye of man
and of all the tribes of Israel
is toward the LORD;
<sup>2</sup>and Hamath, also, which borders
on it;
Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.
<sup>3</sup>Tyre built herself a stronghold,
and heaped up silver like the
dust,
and fine gold like the mire of
the streets.
<sup>4</sup>Look, the Lord will dispossess
her,
and he will strike her power
in the sea;
and she will be devoured
with fire.
<sup>5</sup>Ashkelon will see it, and fear;
Gaza also, and will writhe in agony;
as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed;
and the king will perish from Gaza,
and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

<sup>6</sup>Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod,
and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup>I will take away his blood out of
his mouth,
and his abominations from
between his teeth;
and he also will be a remnant for
our God;
and he will be as a chieftain
in Judah,
and Ekron as a Jebusite.

<sup>8</sup>I will camp around my house
against the army,
that none pass through or
return;
and no oppressor will pass through them any
more:
for now I have seen with my
eyes.

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion.
Shout, daughter of Jerusalem.

Look, your king comes to you.
He is righteous, and having
salvation;
lowly, and riding on a donkey,
even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup>I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from
Jerusalem;
and the battle bow will be cut off;
and he will speak peace to
the nations:
and his dominion will be
from sea to sea,
and from the River to the farthest parts of the
earth.

<sup>11</sup>As for you also,
because of the blood of your
covenant,

I have set free your prisoners
from the pit in which is no water.
<sup>12</sup>Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare that I will restore double to
you.
<sup>13</sup>For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me.
I have filled the bow with Ephraim;
and I will stir up your sons, Zion,
against your sons, Greece,
and will make you like the sword of a mighty
man.
<sup>14</sup>The LORD will be seen over
them;
and his arrow will go forth
like lightning;
and the Lord GOD will blow
the trumpet,
and will go with whirlwinds
of the south.
<sup>15</sup>The LORD of hosts will defend
them;
and they will destroy and overcome with sling
stones;
and they will drink, and roar
as through wine;
and they will be filled like
bowls,
like the corners of the altar.
<sup>16</sup>The LORD their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people;
for they are like the jewels
of a crown,
lifted on high over his land.
<sup>17</sup>For how great is his goodness,
and how great is his beauty.
Grain will make the young men
flourish,
and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask of the LORD
rain in the spring
time,
The LORD who makes lightnings,<sup>a</sup>
and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants
in the field.
<sup>2</sup>For the teraphim have spoken
vanity,
and the diviners have seen a
lie;
and they have told false
dreams.
They comfort in vain.
Therefore they go their way
like sheep.
They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.
<sup>3</sup>My anger is kindled against the shepherds,
and I will punish the male
goats;
For the LORD of hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah,
and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle.
<sup>4</sup>From him will come forth the cornerstone,
from him the nail,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler
together.
<sup>5</sup>They shall be as mighty
men,
treading down muddy streets
in the battle;
and they shall fight, because the LORD is with
them;

---

<sup>a</sup>10:1 Or, "lightning bolts";
"thunderstorms", "bright rain clouds"

and the riders on horses will be confounded.
<sup>6</sup>I will strengthen the house of Judah,
and I will save the house of Joseph,
and I will bring them back;
for I have mercy on them;
and they will be as though I had not cast them off:
for I am the LORD their God,
and I will hear them.
<sup>7</sup>Ephraim will be like a mighty
man,
and their heart will rejoice as
through wine;
yes, their children will see it,
and rejoice.
Their heart will be glad in
the LORD.
<sup>8</sup>I will signal for them, and gather
them;
for I have redeemed them;
and they will increase as they have increased.
<sup>9</sup>I will sow them among the
peoples;
and they will remember me
in far countries;
and they will live with their children, and will return.
<sup>10</sup>I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt,
and gather them out of Assyria;
and I will bring them into the land
of Gilead and Lebanon;
and there won't be room
enough for them.
<sup>11</sup>He will pass through the sea of
affliction,
and will strike the waves in
the sea,

and all the depths of the Nile
will dry up;
and the pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will
depart.
<sup>12</sup>I will strengthen them in the LORD;
and they will walk up and down in his name,"
says the LORD.

11 Open your doors,
Lebanon,
that the fire may
devour your cedars.
<sup>2</sup>Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen,
because the stately ones are
destroyed.
Wail, you oaks of Bashan,
for the strong forest has come down.
<sup>3</sup>A voice of the wailing of the shepherds.
For their glory is destroyed:
a voice of the roaring
of young lions.
For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

<sup>4</sup>Thus says the LORD my God: "Feed the flock of slaughter.
<sup>5</sup>Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD,
for I am rich;' and their own shepherds do not pity them. <sup>6</sup>For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD; "but,
look, I will deliver the men
everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

<sup>7</sup>So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor," and the other I called "Union," and I fed the flock. <sup>8</sup>I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. <sup>9</sup>Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." <sup>10</sup>I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. <sup>11</sup>It was broken in that day; and thus the poor<sup>a</sup> of the flock that listened to me knew that it was the word of the LORD. <sup>12</sup>I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. <sup>13</sup>The LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them." I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. <sup>16</sup>For, look, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. <sup>17</sup>Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock. The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded."

12 An oracle. The word of the LORD concerning Israel.

The LORD, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: <sup>2</sup>"Look, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and on Judah also will it be in the siege against Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. <sup>4</sup>In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. <sup>5</sup>The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.' <sup>6</sup>In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. <sup>8</sup>In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them. <sup>9</sup>It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of petition; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. <sup>11</sup>In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. <sup>12</sup>The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; <sup>13</sup>the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; <sup>14</sup>all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 “In that day there will be a spring opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. <sup>2</sup>It will come to pass in that day, says the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the<sup>a</sup> prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. <sup>3</sup>It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, ‘You must die, because you speak lies in the name of the LORD;’ and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. <sup>4</sup>It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: <sup>5</sup>but he will say, ‘I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.’ <sup>6</sup>One will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your hands?’ Then he will answer, ‘Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.’

<sup>7</sup>“Awake, sword, against my shepherd,
and against the man who is close to me,” says the LORD of hosts.
“I will<sup>b</sup> strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered;

but the third will be left in it.

<sup>9</sup>I will bring the third part into the

and will refine them as silver

and will test them like gold

They will call on my name, and I will hear them.

I will say, 'It is my people;'
and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

14 Look, a day of the LORD comes, when your spoil will be divided in your midst. <sup>2</sup>For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity,
and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. <sup>3</sup>Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. <sup>4</sup>His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. <sup>5</sup>Then you shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes,
you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah.

Then the LORD my God will come, and<sup>a</sup> all the holy ones with him.<sup>b</sup> <sup>6</sup>It will happen in that day,
that there will not be light, cold, or frost. <sup>7</sup>It will be a unique day which is known to the LORD; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

<sup>8</sup>It will happen in that day,
that living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer
and in winter will it be.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD will be King over all the earth. In that day the LORD will be one, and his name
one. <sup>10</sup>All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon in the Negev. Jerusalem will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.
<sup>11</sup>Men will dwell in it, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. <sup>12</sup>This will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets,

and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. <sup>13</sup>It will happen in that day, that a great panic from the LORD will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. <sup>14</sup>Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

<sup>15</sup>So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. <sup>16</sup>It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of booths. <sup>17</sup>It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there will be no rain. <sup>18</sup>If the family of Egypt doesn't go up and enter in, on them will<sup>a</sup> be the plague with which the LORD will strike the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths. <sup>19</sup>This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to keep the feast of booths. <sup>20</sup>In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO THE LORD;" and the pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls before the altar. <sup>21</sup>Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Malachi

1 An oracle: the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

<sup>2</sup>"I have loved you," says the LORD.

Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD, "Yet I loved Jacob;<sup>3</sup> but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." <sup>4</sup>Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" thus says the LORD of hosts, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom the LORD shows wrath forever."

<sup>5</sup>Your eyes will see, and you will say, "The LORD is great—even beyond the border of Israel."

<sup>6</sup>“A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? says the LORD of hosts to you, priests, who despise my name. Yet you say, ‘How have we despised your name?’ <sup>7</sup>By offering defiled food on my altar. But you say, ‘How have we defiled you?’ In that you say, ‘The LORD’s table is despised.’<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn’t that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn’t that evil? Present it now to your governor. Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?” says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>9</sup>“Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?” says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>10</sup>“Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain. I have no pleasure in you,” says the LORD of hosts, “neither will I accept an offering at your hand. <sup>11</sup>For from the rising of the sun even to the

<sup>a</sup>1:7 LXX adds “and the food laid on it is despised.” However, the Gk word for “laid on it” is used in v. 12 to translate the rare Hebrew word for “fruit.” Thus the LXX apparently adds here “and its fruit, its food, is despised”: וַיִּבְרוּ אֶכֶל נְבוֹזָה. Possibly lost from homioarcton: w-w, or by sight confusion in a square script: wny-wky. Cf. 1:12

going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations,” says the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup>“But you profane it, in that you say, ‘The LORD’s table is defiled, and its fruit, its food, is despised.’ <sup>13</sup>You say also, ‘Look, what a weariness it is.’ and you sniff scornfully at it,” says the LORD of hosts; “and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?” says the LORD of hosts.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>14</sup>“But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord a blemished thing; for I am a great King,” says the LORD of hosts, “and my name is awesome among the nations.”

2 “Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. <sup>2</sup>If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name,” says the LORD of hosts, “then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. <sup>3</sup>Look, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. <sup>4</sup>You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi,” says the LORD of hosts. <sup>5</sup>“My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. <sup>6</sup>The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. <sup>7</sup>For the priest’s lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. <sup>8</sup>But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup>“Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. <sup>10</sup>Do we not all have one father? Hasn’t one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? <sup>11</sup>Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to the LORD of hosts. <sup>13</sup>This again you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn’t regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. <sup>14</sup>Yet you say, ‘Why?’ Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. <sup>15</sup>Did he not make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. <sup>16</sup>“For I hate divorce,” says the LORD, the God of Israel, “and him who covers his garment with violence.” says the LORD of hosts. “Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously. <sup>17</sup>You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, ‘How have we wearied him?’ In that you say, ‘Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them;’ or ‘Where is the God of justice?’

3 “Look, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, look, he comes.” says the LORD of hosts. <sup>2</sup>“But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner’s fire, and like launderer’s soap; <sup>3</sup>and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to the LORD offerings in righteousness. <sup>4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. <sup>5</sup>I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and do not fear me," says the LORD of hosts. <sup>6</sup>"For I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. <sup>7</sup>From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?' <sup>8</sup>Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me. But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. <sup>9</sup>You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. <sup>10</sup>Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says the LORD of hosts, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough for. <sup>11</sup>I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup>"All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>13</sup>"Your words have been stout against me," says the LORD. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?' <sup>14</sup>You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?' <sup>15</sup>Now we call the proud blessed; indeed, evildoers prosper. They even tempt God and escape.' <sup>16</sup>Then those who feared the LORD spoke one with another; and the LORD listened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for those who feared the LORD, and who honored his name. <sup>17</sup>They shall be mine," says the LORD of hosts, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. <sup>18</sup>Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

4 "For, look, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says the LORD of hosts, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. <sup>2</sup>But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. <sup>3</sup>You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says the LORD of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>"Remember the Law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. <sup>5</sup>Look, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes. <sup>6</sup>He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.

the father of Azzur,<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>and Azzur the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Ahiam,<sup>b</sup> and Ahiam the father of Elihud,<sup>c</sup> <sup>15</sup>and Elihud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan,<sup>d</sup> and Matthan the father of Jacob, <sup>16</sup>and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, who is called the Messiah. <sup>17</sup>So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the exile to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

<sup>18</sup>Now the birth of Jesus Christ<sup>e</sup> happened like this. His mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, and before they came together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup>And Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. <sup>20</sup>But when he thought about these things, look, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to yourself Mary, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>And she will bring forth a son, and you are to name him Jesus<sup>f</sup>, for he will save his people from their sins.”

<sup>22</sup>Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through<sup>g</sup> the prophet, saying,

<sup>23</sup>“Look, the virgin will conceive and bear a son, and they will call his name Immanuel;”
which is translated, “God with us.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself; <sup>25</sup>and had no marital relations with her until she had brought forth a son<sup>i</sup>; and he named him Jesus.

are in no way least among the rulers of Judah;
for out of you will come forth a ruler
who will shepherd my people, Israel.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. <sup>8</sup>And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, “Go and search diligently for the young child, and when you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him.”

<sup>9</sup>And they, having heard the king, went their way; and look, the star which they saw in the east went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was. <sup>10</sup>And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. <sup>11</sup>And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. <sup>12</sup>Being warned in a dream that they should not return to

Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

<sup>13</sup>Now when they had departed, look, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.”

<sup>14</sup>And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, <sup>15</sup>and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>16</sup>Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. <sup>17</sup>Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, <sup>18c</sup>“A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation and<sup>c</sup> weeping and great mourning,

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus, answering, said to him, “Allow it for now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he allowed him. <sup>16</sup>And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water; and look, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him. <sup>17</sup>And look, a voice out of the heavens said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”<sup>c</sup> heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of much more value than they?

<sup>27</sup>”And which of you, by being anxious, can add one cubit to his height? <sup>28</sup>And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not toil, neither do they spin,<sup>29</sup> yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. <sup>30</sup>But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, won't he much more clothe you, you of little faith?

<sup>31</sup>“Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What will we eat?’, ‘What will we drink?’ or, ‘With what will we be clothed?’ <sup>32</sup>For the Gentiles seek after all these things, for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. <sup>33</sup>But seek first the kingdom of God<sup>b</sup> and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. <sup>34</sup>Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

<sup>11</sup>And he said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it, and lift it out? <sup>12</sup>Of how much more value then is a person than a sheep. Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” <sup>13</sup>Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.”

And he stretched it out, and it was restored whole, just like the other. <sup>14</sup>But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. <sup>15</sup>But Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples came, and said to him, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”

<sup>12</sup>For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he has.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing, they do not hear, neither do they understand.

<sup>24</sup>He set another parable before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field, <sup>25</sup>but while everyone slept, his enemy came and sowed tares<sup>a</sup> also among the wheat, and went away. <sup>26</sup>But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the tares appeared also. <sup>27</sup>So the servants of the householder came and said to him, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where did these tares come from?’

<sup>28</sup>“And he said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’

“And the servants asked him, ‘Then do you want us to go and gather them up?’

<sup>29</sup>“But he said, ‘No, lest perhaps while you gather up the tares, you root up the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup>Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, “First, gather up the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

<sup>31</sup>He set another parable before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took,

<sup>34</sup>Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the crowds; and without a parable, he did not speak to them, <sup>35</sup>that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, “I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden since the beginning<sup>d</sup> of the world.”<sup>e</sup>”

17 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. <sup>2</sup>He was transfigured before them. <sup>29</sup>As they went out from Jericho, a large crowd followed him. <sup>30</sup>And look, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, shouted, “Have mercy on us, Lord, son of David.” <sup>31</sup>The crowd rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they shouted even more, “Lord, have mercy on us, son of David.”

<sup>32</sup>Jesus stood still, and called them, and asked, “What do you want me to do for you?”

<sup>33</sup>They told him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

21 When they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,<sup>a</sup> to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them, “Go

<sup>4</sup>This<sup>b</sup> took place that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

<sup>12</sup>Jesus entered into the temple,<sup>b</sup> and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers’ tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>13</sup>He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’<sup>c</sup> but you have made it a den of robbers.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>14</sup>The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup>But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the son of David.” they were indignant, <sup>16</sup>and said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?”

Jesus said to them, “Yes. Did you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of children and infants you have prepared praise?’”<sup>e</sup>

there. <sup>18</sup>Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. <sup>19</sup>Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, “Let there be no fruit from you forever.”

Immediately the fig tree withered away. <sup>20</sup>When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree immediately wither away?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus answered them, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith, and do not doubt<sup>f</sup>, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ it would be done. <sup>22</sup>All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

<sup>23</sup>When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered them, “I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>25</sup>The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from people?”

They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'"<sup>26</sup> But if we say, 'From people,' we fear the crowd, for all hold John as a prophet."<sup>27</sup> They answered Jesus, and said, "We do not know."

He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."<sup>28</sup> But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in the<sup>a</sup> vineyard.'<sup>29</sup> He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind, and went.<sup>30</sup> And he came to the other,<sup>b</sup> and said the same thing. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go.<sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They said<sup>c</sup>, "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into the kingdom of God before you."<sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you did not even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

Come, let us kill him, and have<sup>d</sup> his inheritance.'<sup>39</sup> So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.<sup>40</sup> When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

<sup>41</sup>They told him, "He will utterly destroy those evil men, and will lease out the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him the fruit in its season."

<sup>45</sup>When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. <sup>46</sup>When they sought to seize him, they feared the crowds, because they considered him to be a prophet.

22 Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, <sup>2</sup>c“The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, <sup>3</sup>and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. <sup>4</sup>Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, “Look, I have made ready my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast.”’ <sup>5</sup>But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, <sup>6</sup>and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. <sup>7</sup>The king<sup>d</sup> was enraged, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

<sup>8</sup>e“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren’t worthy. <sup>9</sup>Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.’ <sup>10</sup>And those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all they found, both bad and good, and the wedding was filled with those reclining.<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who did not have on wedding clothing. <sup>12</sup>and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?’ He was speechless. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot,<sup>f</sup> and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.’ <sup>14</sup>For many are called, but few chosen.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. <sup>16</sup>They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites? <sup>19</sup>Show me the tax money."

They brought to him a denarius.

<sup>20</sup>He asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>23</sup>On that day Sadducees came to him, the ones saying that there is no resurrection. And they asked him, <sup>24</sup>saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother is to marry his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.'<sup>a</sup> <sup>25</sup>Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup>In like manner the second also, and the third, to the seventh. <sup>27</sup>After them all, the woman died.<sup>b, 28</sup> In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her."

<sup>37</sup>“As the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup>For as in those days which<sup>h</sup> were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, <sup>39</sup>and they did not know until the flood came, and took them all away, so<sup>i</sup> will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>40</sup>Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left; <sup>41</sup>two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left. <sup>42</sup>Watch therefore, for you do not know on what day<sup>k</sup> your Lord comes. <sup>43</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup>Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

<sup>a</sup>27:10 A composite quotation where two or more scriptures are combined because of common vocabulary (a possible case of the Jewish exegetical technique of gezera shawa), here involving words and themes from the book of Jeremiah, as well as Zechariah, which represent a prefiguring of Judas’s actions. For the naming of the major prophet in a composite quotation see Mark 1:2 and Romans 9:27-28. Some of the common vocabulary includes: “And took”: Jeremiah 32:11 Zechariah 11:13 Matthew 27:9; “silver”: Jeremiah 32:9 Zechariah 11:12-13 Matthew 27:9; “the potter”: Jeremiah 18:2 Zechariah 11:13 Matthew 27:10. See also: “thirty pieces of silver”: Zechariah 11:12-13 Matthew 27:9; “field”: Jeremiah 32:9 Matthew 27:10; “as the Lord commanded me”: Jeremiah 13:5 Matthew 27:10. For other aspects cf. W. C. Jesus said to him, “You say so.”

<sup>14</sup>He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. <sup>15</sup>Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner, whom they desired. <sup>16</sup>They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Messiah?” <sup>18</sup>For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

<sup>19</sup>While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.” <sup>20</sup>Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup>But the governor answered them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?”

They said, “Barabbas.”

<sup>22</sup>Pilate said to them, “What then should I do with Jesus, who is called Messiah?" They all said,<sup>a</sup> "Let him be crucified."

<sup>23</sup>But he<sup>b</sup> said, "Why? What evil has he done?"

But they shouted all the louder, saying, "Let him be crucified."

<sup>24</sup>So Pilate, seeing that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, took water and he washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous<sup>c</sup> man. You see to it."

<sup>25</sup>All the people answered, "May his blood be on us, and on our children."

<sup>26</sup>Then he released to them Barabbas, but Jesus he flogged<sup>d</sup> and delivered to be crucified.<sup>e</sup>

took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him.<sup>28</sup>They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him.<sup>29</sup>They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews."<sup>f</sup> <sup>30</sup>They spat on him,<sup>g</sup> and took the reed and struck him on the head.<sup>31</sup>When they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

<sup>55</sup> Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him.<sup>56</sup> Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph,<sup>a</sup> and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.<sup>57</sup> When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus’ disciple came.<sup>58</sup> This man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded that it<sup>b</sup> be released.<sup>59</sup> Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,<sup>60</sup> and placed it in his own new tomb,<sup>c</sup> which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.<sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.<sup>62</sup> Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests

<sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, “You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can.”<sup>66</sup> So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

28 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week<sup>e</sup>, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.<sup>2</sup> And look, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone,<sup>f</sup> and sat on it.<sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.<sup>4</sup> For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men.<sup>5</sup> The angel answered the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified.<sup>6</sup> He is not here, for he has risen,<sup>g</sup> just like he said.

<sup>20</sup>And so he went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

<sup>21</sup>And when Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a large crowd was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. <sup>22a</sup>And one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, <sup>23</sup>and pleaded with him repeatedly, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live.”

<sup>24</sup>And he went with him, and a large crowd followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. <sup>25</sup>And a<sup>b</sup> woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, <sup>26</sup>and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, <sup>27</sup>having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. <sup>28</sup>For she said, “If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well.” <sup>29</sup>And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

<sup>32</sup>And he looked around to see her who had done this thing. <sup>33</sup>But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

<sup>34</sup>And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease.”

<sup>35</sup>While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler’s house saying, “Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?”

<sup>40</sup>And they ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.<sup>a</sup> <sup>41</sup>And taking the child by the hand, he said to her, “Talitha koum,” which translated means, “Little girl, I tell you, get up.” <sup>42</sup>And immediately<sup>b</sup> the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were overcome with amazement. <sup>43</sup>And he strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

6 And he went out from there and came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. <sup>2</sup>And when the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get these things?” and, “What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? <sup>3</sup>Is not this the carpenter,<sup>c</sup> the son of Mary, and brother of James, Josi, Judas, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?” They were offended at him.

<sup>4</sup>Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house.” <sup>5</sup>And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them. <sup>6</sup>And He marveled because of their unbelief.

And he went around the villages teaching. <sup>7</sup>And he called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup>And he commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no pack, no money in their belts, <sup>9</sup>but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics. <sup>10</sup>And he said to them, “Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. <sup>11</sup>And if any place will not receive you or listen to you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them.”<sup>d</sup>”

He has risen.”<sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, for he had married her.<sup>18</sup> For John said to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”<sup>19</sup> So Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she could not,<sup>20</sup> for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed,<sup>b</sup> but he heard him gladly.

danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, “Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you.”<sup>23</sup> And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom.”

<sup>24</sup> So she went out, and said to her mother, “What should I ask?”

And she said, “The head of John the baptizer.”

<sup>25</sup> And she came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, “I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter.”

<sup>26</sup> And the king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and those reclining, he did not wish to refuse her.<sup>27</sup> So immediately the king sent out a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John’s head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison,<sup>28</sup> and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.

<sup>17</sup>When he had entered into a house away from the crowd, his disciples asked him about the parable. <sup>18</sup>He said to them, “Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever goes into the person from outside cannot defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it does not go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine, cleansing all the foods?” <sup>20</sup>He said, “That which proceeds out of the person, that defiles the person. <sup>21</sup>For from within, out of a person’s heart, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, <sup>22</sup>covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. <sup>23</sup>All these evil things come from within, and defile the person.”

<sup>24</sup>From there he arose, and went away into the region<sup>i</sup> of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and did not want anyone to know it, but he could not escape notice. <sup>25</sup>But immediately<sup>j</sup> a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him came and fell at his feet. <sup>26</sup>Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup>But he<sup>k</sup> said to her, “Let the children be filled first, for it is not

<sup>29</sup>He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

<sup>31</sup>Again he departed from the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon<sup>c</sup> to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the region of Decapolis. <sup>32</sup>They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him. <sup>33</sup>He took him aside from the crowd, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup>Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha." that is, "Be opened." <sup>35</sup>And<sup>d</sup> his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly. <sup>36</sup>He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. <sup>37</sup>They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the<sup>e</sup> mute speak."

8 In those days, when there was a<sup>f</sup> large crowd, and they had nothing to eat, he<sup>g</sup> called his disciples to himself, and said to them, <sup>2</sup>"I have compassion on the crowd, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup>If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, and<sup>h</sup> some of them have come a long way."

<sup>4</sup>His disciples answered him, "From where could one satisfy these people with bread here in a deserted place?"

<sup>5</sup>He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

They said, "Seven."

and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. <sup>3</sup>His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white,<sup>a</sup> such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. <sup>4</sup>Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>6</sup>For he did not know what to answer, for they became<sup>b</sup> very afraid.

<sup>20</sup>They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup>He asked his father, “How long has it been since this has come to him?”

He said, “From childhood. <sup>22</sup>And it has often cast him both into fire and into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said to him, “If you can?<sup>a</sup> All things are possible to him who believes.”

<sup>24</sup>Immediately the father of the child cried out and said,<sup>b</sup> “I believe. Help my unbelief.”

<sup>28</sup>And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” <sup>29</sup>And he said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>30</sup>They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. <sup>11</sup>And he<sup>c</sup> entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

<sup>12</sup>The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>13</sup>Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup>Jesus told it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” and his disciples heard it.

<sup>15</sup>They came to Jerusalem, and he<sup>d</sup> entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>16</sup>He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. <sup>17</sup>He taught, saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for

<sup>35</sup>He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. <sup>36</sup>He said, “Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire.”

<sup>37</sup>He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour?” <sup>38</sup>Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

<sup>39</sup>Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. <sup>40</sup>Again he came<sup>e</sup> and found them sleeping again, for their eyes were very heavy, and they did not know what to answer him. <sup>41</sup>He came the third time, and said to them, “Sleep on now, and take your rest.

It is enough. The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.<sup>42</sup> Arise, let us be going. Look, he who betrays me is near.”

<sup>43</sup>Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a<sup>a</sup> crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.<sup>44</sup> Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely.”<sup>45</sup> When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, “Rabbi.”<sup>b</sup> And kissed him.<sup>46</sup> They laid<sup>c</sup> hands on him, and seized him.<sup>47</sup> But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup>Jesus answered them, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me?<sup>49</sup> I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.”

him,<sup>52</sup> but he left the linen cloth, and fled<sup>e</sup> naked.<sup>53</sup> They led Jesus away to the high priest. All the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes came together.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>54</sup>Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.<sup>55</sup> Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none.<sup>56</sup> For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony did not agree with each other.<sup>57</sup> Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying,<sup>58</sup> “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’”<sup>59</sup> Even so, their testimony did not agree.

<sup>60</sup>The high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, “Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?”<sup>61</sup> But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

<sup>62</sup>And Jesus said, “I am, and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky.”

<sup>63</sup>The high priest tore his clothes, and said, “What further need have we of witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?” They all condemned him to be worthy of death. <sup>65</sup>Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, “Prophesy.” And the officers took<sup>a</sup> him and beat him.

<sup>66</sup>Now as Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the servant girls of the high priest came, <sup>67</sup>and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, “You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus.”

<sup>68</sup>But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are saying.” And he went out into the forecourt, and a rooster crowed.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>69</sup>And the servant girl saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, “This is one of them.” <sup>70</sup>But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, “You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your accent<sup>c</sup> shows it.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>71</sup>But he began to curse, and to swear, “I do not know this man of whom you speak.” <sup>72</sup>And immediately<sup>e</sup> the rooster crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Jesus said to him, “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” When he thought about that, he wept.

15 Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. <sup>2</sup>Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

He answered, “You say so.”

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled.

<sup>14</sup>Pilate said to them, “Why, what evil has he done?”

<sup>42</sup>When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, <sup>3</sup>it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; <sup>4</sup>that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

<sup>5</sup>There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. <sup>7</sup>But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. <sup>8</sup>Now it happened, while he was performing the priest's office before God in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup>And the whole crowd of people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

<sup>11</sup>An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup>Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you are to name him John.<sup>b</sup> <sup>14</sup>You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup>For he will be great in the sight of the<sup>c</sup> Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup>He will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord, their God. <sup>17</sup>He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

<sup>18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

<sup>19</sup>The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup>And look, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

<sup>21</sup>The people were waiting for Zechariah, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. <sup>22</sup>When he came out, he could not

He continued making signs to them, and remained mute.<sup>23</sup> It happened, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house.<sup>24</sup> After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying,<sup>25</sup> “Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among people.”

<sup>26</sup> Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,<sup>27</sup> to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin’s name was Mary.<sup>28</sup> Having come in, the angel said to her, “Greetings, favored one. The Lord is with you.”<sup>29</sup>

<sup>29</sup> But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be.<sup>30</sup> The angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.<sup>31</sup> And look, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name ‘Jesus.’<sup>32</sup> He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David,<sup>33</sup> and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever.<sup>b</sup> There will be no end to his kingdom.”

<sup>34</sup> Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?”

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born will be called the Son of God.<sup>36</sup> And look, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.<sup>37</sup> For with God nothing will be impossible.”

<sup>38</sup> And Mary said, “See, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word.”

The angel departed from her.<sup>39</sup> Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah,<sup>40</sup> and entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.<sup>41</sup> It happened, when Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, that the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.<sup>42</sup> She called out with a loud voice, and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.<sup>43</sup> Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?<sup>44</sup> For look, when the voice of your

“My soul magnifies the Lord.

<sup>47</sup>And my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

<sup>56</sup>Mary stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house.<sup>57</sup> Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and she brought forth a son.<sup>58</sup> Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her, and they rejoiced with her.<sup>59</sup> It happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zechariah, after the name of the father.<sup>60</sup> His mother answered, “Not so; but he will be called John.”

<sup>61</sup>They said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.”<sup>62</sup> They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

<sup>63</sup>And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, “His name is John.”

And they were all amazed.<sup>64</sup> His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God.<sup>65</sup> Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea.<sup>66</sup> All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, “What then will this child be?” The hand of the Lord was with him.<sup>67</sup> His father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, and the grace of God was upon him. <sup>41</sup>His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.

<sup>42</sup>When he was twelve years old, they went up<sup>a</sup> according to the custom of the feast, <sup>43</sup>and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents<sup>b</sup> did not know it, <sup>44</sup>but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. <sup>45</sup>When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. <sup>46</sup>It happened after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. <sup>48</sup>When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Look, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

<sup>49</sup>He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be doing the works of my Father?" <sup>50</sup>They did not understand the saying which he spoke to them. <sup>51</sup>And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. <sup>52</sup>And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and people.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup>in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>He came into all the region around the<sup>c</sup> Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for remission of sins. <sup>4</sup>As it is written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Every tree therefore that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>10</sup>The crowds asked him, “What then must we do?”

<sup>11</sup>He answered them, “He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise.”

<sup>12</sup>Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what must we do?”

<sup>13</sup>He said to them, “Collect no more than that which is appointed to you.”

<sup>14</sup>Soldiers also asked him, saying, “What about us? What must we do?”

He said to them, “Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages.”

<sup>15</sup>As the people were in expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Messiah, <sup>16</sup>John answered them all, “I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, <sup>17</sup>whose winnowing fork is in his hand, to<sup>a</sup> clear his threshing floor, and to<sup>b</sup> gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>18</sup>Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people, <sup>19</sup>but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother’s<sup>c</sup> wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, <sup>20</sup>added this also to them all, that<sup>d</sup> he shut up John in prison. <sup>21</sup>Now it happened, when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying. The sky was opened, <sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form as a dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying “You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased.”

He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,<sup>a</sup> to proclaim liberty to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed, <sup>19</sup>and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>20</sup>He closed the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him.

<sup>21</sup>He began to tell them, “Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

<sup>22</sup>All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?”

Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.’” <sup>24</sup>He said, “Truly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. <sup>25</sup>But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. <sup>26</sup>Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. <sup>27</sup>There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup>They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. <sup>29</sup>They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. <sup>30</sup>But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way.

<sup>31</sup>He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, <sup>32</sup>and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority. <sup>33</sup>In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he shouted with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup>saying, “Ah, what have we to do with you, Jesus, Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God.”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him.” When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

<sup>36</sup>Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, “What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.”<sup>37</sup>News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

<sup>38</sup>He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon’s house. Simon’s mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her.<sup>39</sup>He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them.<sup>40</sup>When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.<sup>41</sup>Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, “You are the<sup>a</sup> Son of God.” But he rebuked them and did not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

<sup>42</sup>When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the crowds looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he would not go away from them.

<sup>43</sup>But he said to them, “I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent.”<sup>44</sup>And he was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Simon answered him, “Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the nets.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. <sup>7</sup>They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord.” <sup>9</sup>For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid. From now on you will be catching people.”

<sup>11</sup>When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. <sup>12</sup>It happened, while he was in one of the cities, look, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, “Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean.”

What are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call one to another, saying, ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance. We mourned,<sup>a</sup> and you did not weep.’ <sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’ <sup>34</sup>The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’ <sup>35</sup>Wisdom is justified by all her children.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to tell you.” He said, “Teacher, say on.”

<sup>41</sup>“A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup>When they could not pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?” <sup>43</sup>Simon answered, “He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most.” He said to him, “You have judged correctly.” <sup>44</sup>Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair.<sup>b</sup> <sup>45</sup>You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. <sup>47</sup>Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.” <sup>48</sup>He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>49</sup>And those who were reclining with him began to say to themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

<sup>50</sup>He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. With him were the twelve,<sup>2</sup> and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;<sup>3</sup> and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others; who provided for them from their possessions.<sup>4</sup> When a large crowd came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable.<sup>5</sup> "The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.<sup>6</sup> Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.<sup>7</sup> Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.<sup>8</sup> Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup>He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.'<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.<sup>12</sup> Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.<sup>13</sup> Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation.<sup>14</sup> That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.<sup>15</sup> That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.

<sup>16</sup>"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.<sup>17</sup> For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light.<sup>18</sup> Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever does not have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

<sup>21</sup>But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

<sup>a</sup>8:10 Isaiah 6:9

<sup>22</sup>Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” So they launched out. <sup>23</sup>But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. <sup>24</sup>So they came to him, and awoke him, saying, “Master, master, we are dying.” And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm. <sup>a</sup><sup>25</sup>He said to them, “Where is your faith?” Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, “Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?” <sup>26</sup>They arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, <sup>b</sup> which is opposite Galilee.

<sup>27</sup>When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and did not live in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup>When he saw Jesus, he shouted, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, “What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me.” <sup>29</sup>For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus asked him, “What is your name?”

He said, “Legion,” for many demons had entered into him. <sup>31</sup>They<sup>c</sup> begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss. <sup>d</sup><sup>32</sup>Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. <sup>33</sup>The demons came out from the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. <sup>34</sup>When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

<sup>35</sup>Then people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus’ feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. <sup>37</sup>All the people of the surrounding country of the Geresenes<sup>e</sup> asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid; and he entered into the boat and returned.

<sup>38</sup>But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>“Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you.” He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup>When<sup>a</sup> Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. <sup>41</sup>And look, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus’ feet, and pleaded with him to come into his house, <sup>42</sup>for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the crowds pressed against him. <sup>43</sup>A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years (who had spent all her living on physicians)<sup>b</sup> and could not be healed by any, <sup>44</sup>came behind him, and touched the fringe of his

When all denied it, Peter<sup>c</sup> said, “Master, the crowds press and jostle you.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, “Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.”

<sup>47</sup>When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. <sup>48</sup>He said to her, “Daughter,<sup>e</sup> your faith has made you well. <sup>49</sup>While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue’s house came, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher.”

They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people.” <sup>14</sup>For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.” <sup>15</sup>They did so, and made them all sit down. <sup>16</sup>He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. <sup>17</sup>They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>18</sup>It happened, as he was praying alone, that the disciples were with him, and he asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

<sup>19</sup>They answered, “‘John the Baptist,’ but others say, ‘Elijah,’ and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again.”

<sup>20</sup>He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered, “The Messiah of God.”

<sup>21</sup>But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup>saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.”

<sup>23</sup>He said to all, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily<sup>a</sup>, and follow me. <sup>24</sup>For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. <sup>25</sup>For what does it profit a person if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? <sup>26</sup>For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the kingdom of God.”

<sup>28</sup>It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. <sup>30</sup>And look, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup>who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure,<sup>b</sup> which he

<sup>32</sup>Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. <sup>33</sup>It happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah,” not knowing what he said.

<sup>34</sup>While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup>A voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen One.<sup>a</sup> Listen to him.” <sup>36</sup>When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a large crowd met him. <sup>38</sup>And look, a man from the crowd called out, saying, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. <sup>39</sup>And look, a spirit seizes him, and all at once he cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. <sup>40</sup>I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they could not.”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus answered, “Faithless and perverse generation, how long must I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

<sup>42</sup>While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup>They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup>“Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men.” <sup>45</sup>But they did not understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>In the same way a Levite also, when he came<sup>a</sup> to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, <sup>34</sup>came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>On the next day,<sup>b</sup> he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, ‘Take care of him. <sup>41</sup>But the Lord<sup>e</sup> answered and said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, <sup>42</sup>but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her.”

<sup>4</sup>“Which one of you, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? <sup>5</sup>When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>6</sup>When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.’ <sup>7</sup>I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. <sup>8</sup>Or what woman, if she had ten drachma<sup>a</sup> coins, if she lost one drachma coin, would not light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? <sup>9</sup>When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.’ <sup>10</sup>Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting.”

them said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of your property.’ He divided his livelihood between them. <sup>13</sup>Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. <sup>14</sup>When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup>He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup>And he wanted to fill himself<sup>b</sup> with the carob pods that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. <sup>17</sup>But when he came to himself he said, ‘How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough to spare, and I’m dying here<sup>c</sup> with hunger. <sup>18</sup>I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. <sup>19</sup>I am no longer worthy to be called your son. <sup>20</sup>“He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. <sup>37</sup>They, answering, asked him, “Where, Lord?”

He said to them, “Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together.”

18 He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, <sup>2</sup>saying, “There was a judge in a certain city who did not fear God, and did not respect people. <sup>3</sup>A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’ <sup>4</sup>He would not for a while, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God, nor respect people, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow bothers me, I will give her justice, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.’”

<sup>6</sup>The Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. <sup>7</sup>Won’t God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? <sup>8</sup>I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”

<sup>9</sup>He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. <sup>10</sup>“Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you, that I am not like other people, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.’ <sup>13</sup>But the tax collector, standing far away, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner.’ <sup>14</sup>I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>15</sup>Now they were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>16</sup>Jesus summoned them, saying, “Allow the little children to come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>17</sup>Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it.”

<sup>18</sup>A certain ruler asked him, saying, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus asked him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—God. <sup>20</sup>You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not give false testimony,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother.’”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>21</sup>And he said, “I have kept all these things from my youth up.”

<sup>22</sup>When Jesus heard it,<sup>b</sup> he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in<sup>c</sup> heaven; and come, follow me.”

<sup>23</sup>But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup>And Jesus, seeing that he became very sad,<sup>d</sup> said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>25</sup>For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle’s eye, than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup>Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>27</sup>But he said, “The things which are impossible with humans are possible with God.”

<sup>29</sup>He said to them, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God’s sake,<sup>30</sup> who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, everlasting life.”

<sup>31</sup>He took the twelve aside, and said to them, “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. <sup>32</sup>For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. <sup>33</sup>They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again.”

<sup>34</sup>They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were said. <sup>35</sup>It happened, as he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. <sup>36</sup>Hearing a crowd going by, he asked what this meant. <sup>37</sup>They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

<sup>40</sup>Standing still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, <sup>41</sup>“What do you want me to do?”

He said, “Lord, that I may see again.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you.”

<sup>43</sup>And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

19 He entered and was passing through Jericho. <sup>2</sup>And look, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup>He was trying to see who Jesus was, and could not because of the crowd, because he was short. <sup>4</sup>He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. <sup>5</sup>When Jesus came to the place, he looked up,<sup>a</sup>

and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.” <sup>6</sup>He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. <sup>7</sup>And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, “He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner.”

<sup>8</sup>And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much.”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, “Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost.”

<sup>11</sup>As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the kingdom of God would be revealed immediately. <sup>12</sup>He said therefore, “A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. <sup>13</sup>He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins,<sup>b</sup> and told them, ‘Conduct business until I come.’ <sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to reign over us.’

<sup>17</sup>“And he said to him, ‘Well done, good servant. Because you were faithful with very little, you will have authority over ten cities.’

<sup>18</sup>“The second came, saying, ‘Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.’

we say, ‘From people,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”<sup>7</sup> They answered that they did not know where it was from.

<sup>8</sup>Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

<sup>9</sup>He began to tell the people this parable. “A man<sup>a</sup> planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went on a journey for a long time. <sup>10</sup>At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>11</sup>He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. <sup>12</sup>He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out. <sup>13</sup>The lord of the vineyard said, ‘What am I to do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that<sup>b</sup> they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup>“But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This<sup>c</sup> is the heir. <sup>d</sup>Let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’ <sup>15</sup>They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them?

<sup>16</sup>He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.”

When they heard it, they said, “May it never be.”

<sup>17</sup>But he looked at them, and said, “Then what is this that is written,

‘The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone?’<sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will crush him.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>19</sup>The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they feared the people<sup>g</sup>—for they knew he had spoken this parable against them. <sup>20</sup>They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup>They asked him, “Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and are not partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. <sup>24</sup>They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. <sup>25</sup>There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; <sup>26</sup>people fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup>Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup>But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near.”

<sup>29</sup>He told them a parable. “See the fig tree, and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. <sup>31</sup>Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

<sup>34</sup>“So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. <sup>35</sup>For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. <sup>36</sup>Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be able<sup>a</sup> to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup>Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. <sup>38</sup>All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

<sup>9</sup>They said to him, “Where do you want us to prepare?”

<sup>10</sup>He said to them, “Look, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. <sup>11</sup>Tell the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’ <sup>12</sup>He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there.”

<sup>13</sup>They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. <sup>14</sup>When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve. <sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>He said to them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, <sup>16</sup>for I say to you, I will not eat of it again<sup>b</sup> until it is fulfilled in the

<sup>19</sup>He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, “This is my body which is given for you. <sup>23</sup>They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. <sup>24</sup>There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. <sup>25</sup>He said to them, “The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ <sup>26</sup>But not so with you. who was also waiting for the kingdom of God: <sup>52</sup>this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup>He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been placed. <sup>54</sup>It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. <sup>55</sup>The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was placed. <sup>56</sup>They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24 But on the first day of the week<sup>a</sup>, at early dawn, they<sup>b</sup> came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. <sup>2</sup>They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. <sup>3</sup>They entered in, and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, look, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. <sup>5</sup>Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth.

They said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup>He is not here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup>saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?”

<sup>8</sup>They remembered his words, <sup>9</sup>returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup>Now they were Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup>These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they did not believe them. <sup>12</sup>But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen<sup>c</sup> by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

<sup>13</sup>And look, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia<sup>d</sup> from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. <sup>15</sup>It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Jesus himself came near, and went with them. <sup>16</sup>But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. <sup>17</sup>And he said to them, “What are these words that you are exchanging with each other as you walk?” And they stood still, looking sad.<sup>e</sup>

the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things which have happened there in these days?"

<sup>19</sup>He said to them, "What things?"

They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; <sup>20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. <sup>21</sup>But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. <sup>22</sup>Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; <sup>23</sup>and when they did not find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. <sup>24</sup>Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they did not see him."

<sup>25</sup>Then he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken. <sup>26</sup>Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?" <sup>27</sup>Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. <sup>28</sup>They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

<sup>29</sup>They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over."

He went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>It happened, that when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. <sup>31</sup>Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. <sup>32</sup>They said one to another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" <sup>33</sup>They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, <sup>34</sup>saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon." <sup>35</sup>They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

<sup>36</sup>As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>37</sup>But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

<sup>38</sup>He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup>See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see that I have." <sup>40</sup>When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup>While they still did not believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, “Do you have anything here to eat?”

<sup>42</sup>And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish.<sup>a</sup> <sup>43</sup>And he took it and ate in front of them. <sup>44</sup>And he said to them, “This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled.”

<sup>45</sup>Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup>He said to them, “Thus it is written,<sup>b</sup> for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, <sup>47</sup>and that repentance leading to<sup>c</sup> forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup>And look, I send forth the promise of my Father on you. <sup>4</sup>Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>6</sup>That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup>Do not marvel that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’ <sup>8</sup>The wind<sup>a</sup> blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. <sup>15</sup>that whoever believes in him<sup>a</sup> may have everlasting life. <sup>16</sup>For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that whoever believes in him will not perish, but have everlasting life. <sup>17</sup>For God did not send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him. <sup>18</sup>He who believes in him is not judged. He who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. <sup>19</sup>And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. <sup>20</sup>For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God.”

<sup>22</sup>After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized. <sup>23</sup>Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. <sup>24</sup>For John was not yet thrown into prison. <sup>25</sup>Now a dispute arose between John’s disciples with a Jew<sup>b</sup> about purification. <sup>26</sup>And they came to John, and said to him, “Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, look, he is baptizing, and everyone is coming to him.”

<sup>27</sup>John answered, “No one can receive anything, unless it has been given to him from heaven. <sup>28</sup>You yourselves bear me witness<sup>c</sup> that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah,’ but, ‘I have been sent before him.’ <sup>29</sup>He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. So this joy of mine is now complete. <sup>30</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>31</sup>He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. <sup>32</sup>What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. <sup>33</sup>He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. <sup>34</sup>For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for he<sup>d</sup> does not give the Spirit by measure. <sup>35</sup>The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. <sup>36</sup>Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life, but whoever refuses to believe in the Son won’t see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.”

4 Therefore when the Lord<sup>a</sup> knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John<sup>2</sup> (although Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples),<sup>3</sup> he left Judea, and departed again<sup>b</sup> into Galilee. <sup>4</sup>He needed to pass through Samaria. <sup>5</sup>So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour<sup>c</sup>. <sup>7</sup>A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."<sup>8</sup> For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

<sup>9</sup>The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How can you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where do you get that living water? <sup>12</sup>Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to everlasting life."

<sup>15</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I do not get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

Jesus said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' <sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

<sup>19</sup>The woman said to him, “Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship.”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. <sup>22</sup>You worship that which you do not know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>23</sup>But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers. <sup>24</sup>God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

<sup>25</sup>The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah comes,” (he who is called Christ). “When he has come, he will declare to us all things.”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who speaks to you.” <sup>27</sup>At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, “What are you looking for?” or, “Why do you speak with her?” <sup>28</sup>So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, <sup>29</sup>“Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Messiah?”

<sup>30</sup>They went out of the city, and were coming to him. <sup>31</sup>In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.”

<sup>32</sup>But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”

<sup>33</sup>The disciples therefore said one to another, “Has anyone brought him something to eat?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. <sup>35</sup>Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months until the harvest?’ Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, that they are white for harvest already. <sup>36</sup>He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to everlasting life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup>For in this the saying is true, ‘One sows, and another reaps.’ <sup>38</sup>I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

<sup>39</sup>From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, “He told me everything that I did.” <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>Many more believed because of his word. <sup>42</sup>They said to the woman, “Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the<sup>a</sup> Savior of the world.”

<sup>43</sup>After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. <sup>44</sup>For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. <sup>45</sup>So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. <sup>46</sup>Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup>When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>48</sup>Jesus therefore said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe.”

<sup>49</sup>The nobleman said to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.” <sup>50</sup>Jesus said to him, “Go your way. Your son lives.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. <sup>51</sup>As he was now going down, his servants met him,<sup>b</sup> saying that his son was alive.<sup>c</sup> <sup>52</sup>So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour,<sup>d</sup> the fever left him.”

<sup>53</sup>So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, “Your son lives.” He believed, as did his whole house. <sup>54</sup>This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

After these things, there was a Jewish festival,<sup>e</sup> and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>11</sup>Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to<sup>c</sup> those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. <sup>12</sup>When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." <sup>13</sup>So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. <sup>14</sup>When therefore the people saw the sign which he did, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who comes into the world." <sup>15</sup>Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again<sup>d</sup> to the mountain by himself.

If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I will give for the life of the world<sup>f</sup> is my flesh.”

<sup>52</sup>The Jews therefore argued with one another, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

<sup>53</sup>Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. <sup>54</sup>He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has everlasting life, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>55</sup>For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood

He who eats this bread will live forever.” <sup>59</sup>He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup>Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, “This is a hard saying. Who can listen to it?”

<sup>61</sup>But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, “Does this cause you to stumble? <sup>62</sup>Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? <sup>63</sup>It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him. <sup>65</sup>He said, “For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by the<sup>b</sup> Father.”

<sup>66</sup>At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. <sup>67</sup>Jesus said therefore to the twelve, “You do not also want to go away, do you?”

<sup>68</sup>Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of everlasting life. <sup>69</sup>We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.”<sup>c</sup>”

<sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them, “Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?” <sup>71</sup>Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jewish leaders sought to kill him. <sup>2</sup>Now the Jewish festival, the Feast of Tabernacles, was near. <sup>3</sup>So his brothers said to him, “Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works that you are doing. <sup>4</sup>For no one does anything in secret when he himself seeks to be known openly. I am not yet<sup>b</sup> going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled.”

<sup>9</sup>Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee. <sup>10</sup>But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. <sup>11</sup>The Jewish leaders therefore sought him at the feast, and said, “Where is he?” <sup>12</sup>There was much murmuring among the crowds concerning him. Some said, “He is a good man.” Others said, “Not so, but he leads the crowd astray.” <sup>13</sup>Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jewish leaders. <sup>14</sup>But when it was now the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. <sup>15</sup>The Jewish leaders therefore marveled, saying, “How does this man know letters, having never been educated?”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus therefore answered them, “My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. <sup>17</sup>If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. <sup>18</sup>He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. <sup>19</sup>Did not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you keeps the Law? <sup>20</sup>The crowd answered, “You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?”

He said, “He is a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup>The Jewish leaders therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, <sup>19</sup>and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

<sup>20</sup>His parents answered them, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>21</sup>but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. <sup>34</sup>They answered him, “You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?” They threw him out.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man<sup>a?</sup>”

<sup>36</sup>He answered, “Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?”

<sup>37</sup>Jesus said to him, “You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you.”

<sup>38</sup>He said, “Lord, I believe.” and he worshiped him.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment, that those who do not see may see; and that those who see may become blind.”

<sup>40</sup>Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, “Are we also blind?”

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin; but since you say, ‘We see,’ your<sup>b</sup> sin remains.

10 “Truly, truly, I tell you, one who does not enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they do not know the voice of strangers.” <sup>6</sup>Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus therefore said to them again, “Truly, truly, I tell you, I am the sheep’s door. <sup>8</sup>All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. <sup>9</sup>I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. <sup>10</sup>The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. <sup>11</sup>I am the good shepherd.<sup>c</sup> The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away; and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. <sup>13</sup>And the hired hand flees<sup>d</sup> because he is a hired hand and the sheep means nothing to him. <sup>14</sup>I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and my own know me<sup>a</sup>; <sup>15</sup>even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>I have other sheep, which are not of this fold.<sup>b</sup> I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. <sup>17</sup>Therefore the<sup>c</sup> Father loves me, because I lay down my life,<sup>d</sup> that I may take it again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father.”

<sup>19</sup>A<sup>e</sup> division arose again among the Jewish people because of these words. <sup>20</sup>Many of them said, “He has a demon, and is insane. Why do you listen to him?” <sup>21</sup>Others said, “These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It is not possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>22</sup>It was then the Feast of the Dedication<sup>g</sup> at Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon’s porch. <sup>24</sup>The Jewish leaders therefore came around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name, these testify about me. <sup>26</sup>But you do not believe, because you are not of my sheep<sup>h</sup>. <sup>27</sup>My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup>I give everlasting life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. <sup>29</sup>That which my Father has given me is more important than anything. No one is able to snatch them out of the<sup>i</sup> Father’s hand. <sup>30</sup>I and the Father are one.”

<sup>31</sup>Therefore the Jewish leaders took up stones again to stone him. <sup>32</sup>Jesus answered them, “I have shown you many good works from the<sup>a</sup> Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

<sup>33</sup>The Jewish leaders answered him, "We do not stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, you are gods?'<sup>b</sup> <sup>35</sup>If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), <sup>36</sup>do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God?' <sup>37</sup>If I do not do the works of my Father, do not believe me. <sup>38</sup>But if I do them, though you do not believe me, believe the works; that you may know and understand<sup>c</sup> that the Father is in me, and I in the Father."

<sup>39</sup>Now<sup>d</sup> they sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. <sup>40</sup>He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and there he stayed. <sup>41</sup>Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true."<sup>42</sup>And many believed in him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. <sup>2</sup>It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick. <sup>3</sup>The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, look, the one you love is sick." <sup>4</sup>But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it." <sup>5</sup>Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup>When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. <sup>7</sup>Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go into Judea again."

<sup>8</sup>The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Jewish leaders were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." <sup>11</sup>He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."

<sup>12</sup>Then the disciples said to him<sup>a</sup>, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

<sup>13</sup>Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup>So Jesus said to them plainly then, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let us go to him.”

<sup>16</sup>Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us go also, that we may die with him.”

<sup>24</sup>Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. <sup>26</sup>And whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

<sup>27</sup>She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, he who comes into the world.”

<sup>28</sup>And when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, “The Teacher is here, and is calling you.”

<sup>29</sup>When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. <sup>30</sup>Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still<sup>d</sup> in the place where Martha met him. <sup>31</sup>Then the Judeans who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.<sup>e</sup> <sup>32</sup>Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother would not have died.”

<sup>33</sup>When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Judeans weeping who came with her, he was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled, <sup>34</sup>and said, “Where have you put him?”

They told him, “Lord, come and see.”

<sup>36</sup>The Judeans therefore said, “See how he loved him.” <sup>37</sup>But some of them said, “Could not this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?”

<sup>38</sup>So Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see God’s glory?”

<sup>41</sup>So they took away the stone.<sup>a</sup> And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, “Father, I thank you that you listened to me. <sup>42</sup>I know that you always listen to me, but because of the crowd that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me.”

<sup>43</sup>When he had said this, he shouted with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out.”

<sup>44</sup>The man who had died came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Jesus said to them, “Free him, and let him go.”

<sup>45</sup>Therefore many of the Judeans, who came to Mary and had seen the things which he did, believed in him. <sup>46</sup>But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup>The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, “What are we doing? For this man does many signs. <sup>48</sup>If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup>But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all, <sup>50</sup>nor do you consider that it is advantageous for you<sup>b</sup> that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.” <sup>51</sup>Now he did not say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, <sup>52</sup>and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. <sup>53</sup>So from that day on they plotted to kill him. <sup>54</sup>Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Judeans, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim; and stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup>Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, “What do you think—that he is not coming to the feast at all?” <sup>57</sup>Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might arrest him.

12 Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was,<sup>a</sup> whom Jesus<sup>b</sup> raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>So they prepared a dinner for him there; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with him. <sup>3</sup>Mary, therefore, took a pound<sup>c</sup> of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

<sup>9</sup>A large crowd therefore of the Judeans learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus’ sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests plotted to kill Lazarus also, <sup>11</sup>because on account of him many of the Jewish people went away and believed in Jesus.

Look, your King comes, sitting on a donkey’s colt.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>16</sup>His disciples did not understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. <sup>17</sup>The crowd therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. <sup>18</sup>For this cause also the crowd went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. <sup>19</sup>The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, “See how you accomplish nothing. Look, the whole<sup>c</sup> world has gone after him.”

<sup>20</sup>Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast. <sup>21</sup>These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, “Sir, we want to see Jesus.” <sup>22</sup>Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus answered them,

“The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup>He who loves his life loses<sup>d</sup> it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it to everlasting life. <sup>26</sup>If anyone serves me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. of the law that the Messiah remains forever.<sup>a</sup> Then how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up?’ Who is this Son of Man?”

<sup>35</sup>Jesus therefore said to them, “Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness does not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. <sup>36</sup>While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light.” Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. <sup>37</sup>But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in him, <sup>38</sup>that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, “Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>39</sup>For this cause they could not believe, for Isaiah said again, <sup>40</sup>He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn,<sup>c</sup> and I would heal them.<sup>d</sup>

knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup>And during<sup>a</sup> the evening meal, the devil had already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him. <sup>3</sup>Because he<sup>b</sup> knew that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God, <sup>4</sup>arose from the meal, and removed his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist. <sup>5</sup>Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. <sup>6</sup>Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered him, "You do not know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

<sup>8</sup>Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet."

Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with me."

<sup>25</sup>He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus’ chest, asked him, “Lord, who is it?”

<sup>26</sup>Jesus therefore answered, “It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it.” So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup>After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.

Then Jesus said to him, “What you do, do quickly.”

<sup>28</sup>Now none of those reclining knew why he said this to him. <sup>29</sup>For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, “Buy what things we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup>Therefore, having received the piece of bread, he went out immediately; and it was night.

If it weren't so, I would have told you; for I go<sup>a</sup> to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also. <sup>4</sup>And you know the way<sup>b</sup> where I am going."

<sup>5</sup>Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup>Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. <sup>7</sup>If you have known me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him."

<sup>8</sup>Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, and still you do not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?' <sup>10</sup>Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his<sup>c</sup> works. <sup>11</sup>Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me; or else believe<sup>d</sup> because of the works themselves. <sup>12</sup>Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to the<sup>e</sup> Father. <sup>13</sup>And whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask me<sup>f</sup> anything in my name, I will do it. <sup>15</sup>If you love me, you will<sup>g</sup> keep my commandments. <sup>16</sup>I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Helper,<sup>h</sup> that he may be with you forever,—<sup>17</sup>the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive; because it neither sees him nor knows him; but you know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. <sup>18</sup>I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. <sup>19</sup>Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. <sup>20</sup>In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup>The one who has my commandments and keeps them is the one who loves me. <sup>22</sup>Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling place with him. <sup>24</sup>He who does not love me does not keep my words. The word which you hear is not mine, but the Father’s who sent me. <sup>25</sup>All this I have spoken to you while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup>But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. <sup>27</sup>Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. <sup>28</sup>You heard how I told you, ‘I am going away, and I will come to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that<sup>a</sup> I am going to the<sup>b</sup> Father; for the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup>Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. <sup>30</sup>I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has no hold on me. <sup>31</sup>But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, so I do. <sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? <sup>32</sup>Look, the time is coming, and has<sup>b</sup> come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. 18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. <sup>2</sup>Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. <sup>3</sup>Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. <sup>4</sup>Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

Jesus said to them, "I AM."

Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. <sup>6</sup>When therefore he said to them, "I AM," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "Jesus the Nazorean."

<sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, “I told you that I AM. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way,” <sup>9</sup>that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, “Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant’s name was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>Jesus therefore said to Peter, “Put the sword into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup which the<sup>b</sup> Father has given me?”

<sup>12</sup>So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jewish leaders, seized Jesus and bound him, <sup>13</sup>and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jewish leaders that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. <sup>15</sup>Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; <sup>16</sup>but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>17</sup>Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, “Are you also one of this man’s disciples?”

He said, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup>Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. <sup>19</sup>The high priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him, “I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jewish people come together<sup>c</sup>. I said nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup>Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them; surely they know what I said.”

<sup>22</sup>When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, “Do you answer the high priest like that?”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?”

<sup>24</sup>Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. <sup>25</sup>Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, “You are not also one of his disciples, are you?”

He denied it, and said, "I am not."

<sup>26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

<sup>27</sup>Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

<sup>28</sup>They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. <sup>29</sup>Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

<sup>30</sup>They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we would not have delivered him up to you."

<sup>31</sup>Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Jewish leaders said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," <sup>32</sup>that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

<sup>33</sup>Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

<sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

<sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I would not be delivered to the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is not from here."

<sup>37</sup>Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

<sup>38</sup>Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Jewish leaders, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. <sup>39</sup>But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>40</sup>Then they<sup>a</sup> shouted again, saying, “Not this man, but Barabbas.” Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 So Pilate then took Jesus, and flogged him. <sup>2</sup>The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. <sup>3</sup>And they kept coming up to him and<sup>b</sup> saying, “Hail, King of the Jews.” and they struck him with their hands.

<sup>4</sup>Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, “Look, I am bringing him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him.”

<sup>5</sup>Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, “Look, here is the man.”

Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him.”

<sup>7</sup>The Jewish leaders answered him, “We have a law, and by that<sup>c</sup> law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.”

<sup>8</sup>When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. <sup>9</sup>He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup>Pilate therefore said to him, “Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?”

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, “You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin.”

<sup>12</sup>At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, saying, “If you release this man, you are not Caesar’s friend. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar.”

Pilate said to them, “Should I crucify your King?”

The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.”

<sup>16</sup>So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus.<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>And he went out, carrying the cross himself, to the place called “The Place of a Skull,<sup>d</sup>” which is called in Hebrew, “Golgotha,”<sup>18</sup> where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup>Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, “JESUS THE

NAZOREAN, THE KING OF THE JEWS.” <sup>20</sup>Therefore many Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. <sup>21</sup>The chief priests of the Jewish people therefore said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘he said, I am King of the Jews.’”

<sup>23</sup>Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his clothes and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top throughout. <sup>24</sup>Then they said to one another, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be,” that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, “They divided my clothes among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.”<sup>e</sup>

Therefore the soldiers did these things. <sup>25</sup>But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, “Woman, look, your son.” <sup>27</sup>Then he said to the disciple, “Look, your mother.” From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

<sup>28</sup>After this, Jesus, knowing<sup>a</sup> that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, “I am thirsty.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>29</sup>Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. <sup>30</sup>When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, “It is finished.” He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore the Jewish leaders, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. <sup>32</sup>Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; <sup>33</sup>but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup>However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup>He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. <sup>36</sup>For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “A bone of him will not be broken.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>37</sup>Again another Scripture says, “They will look on him whom they pierced.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>38</sup>After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jewish leaders, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body.<sup>e</sup> <sup>39</sup>Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.<sup>f</sup> <sup>40</sup>So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, according to Jewish burial practice. <sup>41</sup>Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no one had ever yet been placed. <sup>42</sup>Then because of the Jewish Preparation Day (for the tomb was nearby) they put Jesus there.

Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have put him.”

<sup>3</sup>Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. <sup>4</sup>They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he did not enter in. <sup>6</sup>Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, <sup>7</sup>and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup>So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup>For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead.<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

<sup>11</sup>But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, <sup>12</sup>and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup>They told her, “Woman, why are you weeping?”

She said to them, “Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have put him.” <sup>14</sup>When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?”

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him away.”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned and said to him in Hebrew,<sup>b</sup> “Rabboni.” which is to say, “Teacher.”

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said to her, “Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to the<sup>c</sup> Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,”<sup>d</sup> and that he had said these things to her. <sup>19</sup>When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week<sup>e</sup>, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were,<sup>a</sup> for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, “Peace be to you.”

<sup>20</sup>When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus therefore said to them again, “Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.” <sup>22</sup>When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>Whoever’s sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever’s sins you retain, they have been retained.”

<sup>24</sup>But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>The other disciples therefore said to him, “We have seen the Lord.”

But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

<sup>26</sup>After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, “Peace be to you.” <sup>27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and observe my hands. Reach out your hand, and put it into my side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing.”

<sup>28</sup>Thomas answered and said to him, “My Lord and my God.”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus said to him, “Because you have seen me,<sup>b</sup> you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed.”

<sup>30</sup>Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; <sup>31</sup>but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

21 After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup>Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. <sup>3</sup>Simon Peter said to them, “I’m going fishing.”

They told him, “We are also coming with you.” They<sup>c</sup> went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. <sup>4</sup>But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Jesus therefore said to them, “Children, have you anything to eat?” They answered him, “No.”

<sup>6</sup>And he said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.”

They cast it therefore, and now they weren’t able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. <sup>7</sup>That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord.”

So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup>But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits<sup>a</sup> away), dragging the net full of fish. <sup>9</sup>So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish placed on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup>Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

<sup>11</sup>Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

<sup>12</sup>Jesus said to them, “Come and eat breakfast.”

None of the disciples dared inquire of him, “Who are you?” knowing that it was the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. <sup>14</sup>This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. <sup>15</sup>So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John,<sup>b</sup> do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.”

<sup>16</sup>He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.”

<sup>17</sup>He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you have affection for me?”

Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, “Do you have affection for me?” He said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you.”

Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup>Truly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you do not want to go.”

<sup>19</sup>Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

<sup>20</sup>Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus' chest at the evening meal and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray You?" <sup>21</sup>Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?"

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." <sup>23</sup>This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?" <sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. <sup>25</sup>There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself would not have room for the books that would be written.

concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, <sup>2</sup>until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. <sup>3</sup>To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's kingdom. <sup>4</sup>Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Do not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. <sup>5</sup>For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup>He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be my witnesses<sup>b</sup> in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the farthest part of the earth."

<sup>9</sup>When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup>While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, look, two men stood by them in white clothing,<sup>11</sup> who also said, “You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day’s journey away.<sup>13</sup> When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.<sup>14</sup> All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer,<sup>a</sup> along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

<sup>15</sup>In these days, Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers<sup>b</sup> (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said,<sup>16</sup> “Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus.<sup>17</sup> For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry.<sup>18</sup> Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out.<sup>19</sup> It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called ‘Hakel-Dema,’ that is, ‘The field of blood.’<sup>20</sup> For it is written in the scroll of Psalms,

‘Let his habitation be made desolate,

And let no one dwell in it;’<sup>c</sup>

and,

‘Let another take his office.’<sup>d</sup>

<sup>21</sup>“Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,<sup>22</sup> beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection.”

<sup>23</sup>They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.<sup>24</sup> They prayed, and said, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all people, show which one of these two you have chosen<sup>25</sup> to take part in this ministry and office of apostle from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.”<sup>26</sup> They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

4 As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them, <sup>2</sup>being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. <sup>3</sup>They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. <sup>4</sup>But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

<sup>5</sup>It happened in the morning, that their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. <sup>7</sup>When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

<sup>21</sup>When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. <sup>22</sup>For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

<sup>23</sup>Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup>When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, “Lord, you are the God who<sup>b</sup>

<sup>31</sup>When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. <sup>32</sup>And the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed<sup>a</sup> was his own, but they had all things in common.

<sup>33</sup>With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all. <sup>34</sup>For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, <sup>35</sup>and put them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need.

5 But a certain man named Ananias<sup>c</sup>, with Sappirah, his wife, sold a possession, <sup>2</sup>and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and put it at the apostles' feet. <sup>3</sup>But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart<sup>d</sup> to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? <sup>4</sup>While you kept it, did not it remain your own? After it was sold, was not it in your power?

How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to people, but to God."

<sup>5</sup>Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard it.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>6</sup>The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. <sup>7</sup>About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. <sup>8</sup>Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much."

She said, "Yes, for so much."

<sup>9</sup>But Peter asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

<sup>10</sup>She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. <sup>11</sup>Great fear came on the whole church, and on all who heard these things. <sup>12</sup>By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. <sup>13</sup>None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. <sup>14</sup>More believers were added to the Lord, crowds of both men and women. <sup>15</sup>They even carried out the sick into the streets, and put them on cots and mats, so that as Peter came by at the least his shadow would fall on some of them.<sup>16</sup> Crowds also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

<sup>17</sup>But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy,<sup>18</sup> and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody.<sup>19</sup> But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said,<sup>20</sup> “Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.”

<sup>21</sup>When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.<sup>22</sup> But the officers who came did not find them in the prison. They returned and reported,<sup>23</sup> “We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

<sup>24</sup>Now when the<sup>a</sup> captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this.<sup>25</sup> One came and told them, “Look, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people.”<sup>26</sup> Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

<sup>27</sup>When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them,<sup>28</sup> saying, “Did not we strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man’s blood on us.”

<sup>29</sup>But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than people.<sup>30</sup> The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree.<sup>31</sup> God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins.<sup>32</sup> We are<sup>b</sup> witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

<sup>33</sup>But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and wanted<sup>c</sup> to kill them.<sup>34</sup> But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the men<sup>a</sup> out for a little while. <sup>35</sup>He said to them, “You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. <sup>36</sup>For before these days Todah rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup>After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. <sup>38</sup>Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of man, it will be overthrown. <sup>39</sup>But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them<sup>b</sup>, and you would be found even to be fighting against God.”

<sup>40</sup>They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. <sup>41</sup>They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the Name<sup>c</sup>.

<sup>42</sup>Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming that Jesus is the Messiah.

6 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. <sup>2</sup>So the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, “It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. <sup>3</sup>Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the<sup>d</sup> Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. <sup>4</sup>But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word.”

<sup>8</sup>Stephen, full of grace<sup>a</sup> and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup>But some of those who were of the synagogue called “The Libertines,” and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>They weren’t able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. <sup>11</sup>Then they secretly induced men to say, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.” <sup>12</sup>They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, <sup>13</sup>and set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the Law. <sup>14</sup>For we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazorean will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us.” <sup>15</sup>All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

7 The high priest said, “Are these things so?”

<sup>2</sup>He said, “Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, <sup>3</sup>and said to him, ‘Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.’<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran. From there, after his father died, he moved him into this land, where you are now living. <sup>5</sup>He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him, when he still had no child. <sup>6</sup>God spoke in this way, that his ‘descendants would live as foreigners in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years. <sup>7</sup>But I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,’ said God, ‘and after that will they come out,<sup>c</sup> and serve me in this place.’<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>9</sup>“The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt; and God was with him, <sup>10</sup>and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house. <sup>11</sup>Now a famine came over all the

<sup>17</sup>“But as the time of the promise came close which God had made<sup>e</sup> to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>18</sup>until ‘there arose a different king over Egypt,<sup>f</sup> who did not know

Joseph.”<sup>g</sup> <sup>19</sup>The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they would not stay alive. <sup>20</sup>At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father's house. <sup>21</sup>When he was thrown out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. <sup>22</sup>Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his<sup>h</sup> words and works. <sup>23</sup>But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel. <sup>24</sup>Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup>He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they did not understand.

<sup>26</sup>“The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?’ <sup>27</sup>But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? <sup>28</sup>Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’<sup>i</sup> <sup>29</sup>Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. <sup>2</sup>Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. <sup>3</sup>But Saul ravaged the church, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. <sup>4</sup>Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around proclaiming the word. <sup>5</sup>And Philip<sup>a</sup> went down to the<sup>b</sup> city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>The crowds listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. <sup>7</sup>For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup>There was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup>But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, <sup>10</sup>to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is that power of God which is called Great.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.

<sup>5</sup>He said, “Who are you, Lord?”

The Lord said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. <sup>6</sup>But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

<sup>7</sup>The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup>Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” And he said, “Look, it’s me, Lord.”

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to him, “Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For look, he is praying, <sup>12</sup>and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.”

<sup>13</sup>But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name.”

<sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to him, “Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the sons of Israel. <sup>16</sup>For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

<sup>17</sup>Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>18</sup>Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized. <sup>19</sup>He took food and was strengthened. He<sup>a</sup> stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus. <sup>20</sup>Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus,<sup>b</sup> that he is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup>All who heard him were amazed, and said, “Is not this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests.”

<sup>22</sup>But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Messiah. <sup>23</sup>When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, <sup>24</sup>but their plot became known to

Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, <sup>25</sup>but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. <sup>26</sup>When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup>He was with them coming in and going out<sup>c</sup> in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, but they were seeking to kill him. <sup>30</sup>When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. <sup>31</sup>So the church<sup>e</sup> throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>32</sup>It happened, as Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. <sup>33</sup>There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. <sup>34</sup>Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed.” Immediately he arose.

<sup>35</sup>All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha (which when translated, means Dorcas).<sup>a</sup> This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. <sup>37</sup>It happened in those days that she fell sick, and died. When they had washed her, they placed her in an upper chamber. <sup>38</sup>As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men<sup>b</sup> to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to us.<sup>c</sup> <sup>39</sup>Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. <sup>40</sup>Peter put them all out, and kneeled down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, “Tabitha, get up.” She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup>He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup>And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup>It happened, that he stayed many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

10 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, <sup>2</sup>a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. <sup>3</sup>At about the ninth hour of the day<sup>d</sup>, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius.”

<sup>4</sup>He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, “What is it, Lord?”

He said to him, “Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. <sup>5</sup>Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is surnamed Peter. <sup>6</sup>He lodges with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>7</sup>When the angel who spoke to him<sup>f</sup> had departed, he called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. <sup>8</sup>Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. <sup>9</sup>Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. <sup>10</sup>He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. <sup>11</sup>He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down<sup>a</sup> by four corners on the earth, <sup>12</sup>in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth,<sup>b</sup> crawling creatures and birds of the sky. <sup>13</sup>A voice came to him, “Rise, Peter, kill and eat.”

<sup>14</sup>But Peter said, “Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean.”

<sup>15</sup>A voice came to him again the second time, “What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean.” <sup>16</sup>This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. <sup>17</sup>Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, look, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon’s house, stood before the gate, <sup>18</sup>and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodging there. <sup>19</sup>While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Look, three<sup>c</sup> men seek you. <sup>20</sup>But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them.”

<sup>21</sup>Peter went down to the men,<sup>d</sup> and said, “Look, I am the one whom you seek. Why have you come?”

<sup>22</sup>They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say.” <sup>23</sup>So he called them in and lodged them. On the next day he<sup>e</sup> arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>24</sup>On the next day he<sup>f</sup> entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. <sup>25</sup>When it happened that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>26</sup>But Peter raised him up, saying, “Stand up. I myself am also a man.” <sup>27</sup>And as he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. <sup>28</sup>He said to them, “You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I should not call any man unholy or unclean. <sup>29</sup>Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?”

<sup>30</sup>Cornelius said, “Four days ago<sup>a</sup> until this hour, the ninth hour<sup>b</sup>, I was praying in my house, and look, a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>31</sup>and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. <sup>32</sup>Send therefore to Joppa and summon Simon, who is surnamed Peter. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by the Lord.<sup>e</sup>”

<sup>34</sup>And Peter opened his mouth and said, “Truly I perceive that God does not show favoritism;<sup>35</sup> but in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup>The word which<sup>f</sup> he sent to the sons of Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all—<sup>37</sup>that spoken word you yourselves know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;<sup>38</sup> even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>39</sup>We are witnesses of everything he did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they also<sup>g</sup> killed by hanging on a tree. <sup>40</sup>God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed, <sup>41</sup>not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins.”

to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.<sup>a</sup> Then they asked him to stay some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.<sup>2</sup> When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him,<sup>3</sup> saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them.”

<sup>4</sup>But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying,<sup>5c</sup> “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me.<sup>6</sup> When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, crawling creatures, and birds of the sky.<sup>7</sup> I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise, Peter, kill and eat.’<sup>8</sup> But I said, ‘Not so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.’<sup>9</sup> But a voice answered<sup>b</sup> the second time out of heaven, ‘What God has cleansed, do not call unclean.’<sup>10</sup> This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven.<sup>11</sup> And look, immediately three men stood to the Greeks,<sup>a</sup> proclaiming the good news of the Lord Jesus.<sup>21</sup>The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.<sup>22</sup>The report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch,<sup>23</sup>who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain true to the Lord.<sup>24</sup>For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul.<sup>26</sup>When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. It happened, that for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians<sup>b</sup> in Antioch.

<sup>27</sup>Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.<sup>28</sup>One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius.<sup>c</sup><sup>29</sup>As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea;<sup>30</sup>which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time, Herod the king stretched out his hands to oppress some of the church.<sup>2</sup>He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword.<sup>3</sup>When he saw that it pleased the Jewish people, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread.<sup>4</sup>When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.<sup>5</sup>Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the church to God for him.<sup>6</sup>The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

<sup>7</sup>And look, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly." His chains fell off from his hands.<sup>8</sup>The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me."<sup>9</sup>And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision.<sup>10</sup>When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

<sup>11</sup>When Peter had come to himself, he said, “Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting.” <sup>12</sup>Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. <sup>13</sup>And when Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>14</sup>When she recognized Peter’s voice, she did not open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

<sup>15</sup>They said to her, “You are crazy.” But she insisted that it was so. They said, “It is his angel.” <sup>16</sup>But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. <sup>17</sup>But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, “Tell these things to James, and to the brothers.” Then he departed, and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup>Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup>When Herod had sought for him, and did not find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. <sup>20</sup>Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king’s personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king’s country for food. <sup>21</sup>On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, and<sup>a</sup> sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. <sup>22</sup>But the crowd shouted, “The voice of a god, and not of a man.” <sup>23</sup>Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

13 Now in the church that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>2</sup>As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, “Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them.”

<sup>3</sup>Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. <sup>4</sup>So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also John as their attendant. <sup>6</sup>When they had gone through the whole<sup>a</sup> island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus,<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God.

<sup>8</sup>But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. <sup>9</sup>But Saul, who is also called Paul,<sup>c</sup> filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, <sup>10</sup>and said, “Full of all deceit and all fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>Now, look, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, unable to see the sun for a time.”

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia, and John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. <sup>15</sup>After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak.”

<sup>16</sup>Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. <sup>17</sup>The God of this people Israel<sup>d</sup> chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as foreigners in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. <sup>18</sup>For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance. <sup>20</sup>And after these things, about four hundred and fifty years,<sup>e</sup> he gave them judges,

<sup>46</sup>Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, “It was necessary that God’s word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, look, we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup>For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, ‘I have set you as a light to the nations, that you may bring salvation to the farthest part of the earth.’”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>48</sup>As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to everlasting life believed. <sup>49</sup>The Lord’s word was spread abroad throughout all the region. <sup>50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. <sup>51</sup>But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. <sup>52</sup>The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.

14 It happened in Iconium that they entered together

into the Jewish synagogue, and so spoke that a great number of both of Jews and of Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup>But the unbelieving<sup>g</sup> Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. <sup>3</sup>Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>4</sup>But the population of the city was divided. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles. <sup>5</sup>When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them,<sup>6</sup>they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. <sup>7</sup>There they preached the Good News.

<sup>8</sup>At Lystra a certain man sat, without strength in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. <sup>9</sup>He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, <sup>10</sup>said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." He leaped up and walked. <sup>11</sup>When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in human form." <sup>12</sup>They called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paul "Mercury," because he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup>The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the crowds. <sup>14</sup>But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the crowd, crying out, <sup>15</sup>"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>16</sup>who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>17</sup>Yet he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling your<sup>a</sup> hearts with food and gladness."

<sup>18</sup>Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the crowds from making a sacrifice to them. <sup>19</sup>But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

<sup>20</sup>But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup>When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, <sup>22</sup>confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>23</sup>When they had appointed elders for them in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

<sup>24</sup>They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup>When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>26</sup>From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. <sup>27</sup>When they had arrived, and had gathered the church together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. <sup>28</sup>They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

15 Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” <sup>2</sup>Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>3</sup>They, being sent on their way by the church, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers. <sup>4</sup>When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.

<sup>5</sup>But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.”

<sup>6</sup>The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. <sup>7</sup>When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that a good while ago

God made a choice among you,<sup>a</sup> that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. <sup>8</sup>God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. <sup>9</sup>He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>11</sup>But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are.”

<sup>12</sup>And all the people kept quiet, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them.

<sup>13</sup>After they were silent, James answered, “Brothers, listen to me.

<sup>14</sup>Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name.

<sup>15</sup>This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written,

19<sup>c</sup>“Therefore my judgment is that we do not trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God,<sup>20</sup> but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood.<sup>21</sup> For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

22<sup>d</sup>Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers.<sup>23</sup> They wrote these things by their hand:

“The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings.<sup>24</sup> Because we have heard that some who went out<sup>e</sup> from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls,<sup>d</sup> to whom we gave no commandment;<sup>25</sup> it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,<sup>26</sup> who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>27</sup> We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth.<sup>28</sup> For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things:<sup>29</sup> that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell.”

30<sup>f</sup>So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch, and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter.<sup>31</sup> When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement.<sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them.<sup>33</sup> After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to those that had disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek.<sup>2</sup>The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him.<sup>3</sup>Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek.<sup>4</sup>As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.<sup>5</sup>So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

<sup>6</sup>When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.<sup>7</sup>When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus<sup>d</sup> did not allow them.<sup>8</sup>Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.<sup>9</sup>A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us."<sup>10</sup>When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to proclaim the Good News to them.<sup>11</sup>So, setting sail from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis;

<sup>12</sup>and from there to Philippi, which is a principle city of that district<sup>a</sup> of Macedonia, a colony. We were staying some days in this<sup>b</sup> city.

<sup>13</sup>On the Sabbath day we went forth outside of the gate<sup>c</sup> by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer,<sup>d</sup> and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together.

<sup>14</sup>A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul.

<sup>15</sup>When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay.” So she persuaded us.

<sup>16</sup>It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain girl having a spirit of Python<sup>e</sup> met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. <sup>17</sup>She followed Paul and us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you<sup>f</sup> the way of salvation.” <sup>18</sup>She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And it came out at once.

<sup>19</sup>But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. <sup>20</sup>When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, <sup>21</sup>and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans.”

<sup>25</sup>But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone’s bonds were loosened.

<sup>27</sup>The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

<sup>29</sup>He called for lights and sprang in, and, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, <sup>30</sup>and brought them out and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

<sup>31</sup>They said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.”
<sup>32</sup>They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.

<sup>33</sup>He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household.
<sup>34</sup>He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, “Let those men go.”

<sup>36</sup>The jailer reported these<sup>a</sup> words to Paul, saying, “The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace.”

<sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison. Do they now release us secretly? No indeed. Let them come themselves and bring us out.”

<sup>38</sup>The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans,<sup>39</sup> and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city.
<sup>40</sup>They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia’s house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.<sup>2</sup> Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures,<sup>3</sup> explaining and demonstrating that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Messiah.”

<sup>4</sup>Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas, as did a large number of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the prominent women. <sup>5</sup>But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, <sup>a</sup> took along some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. <sup>6</sup>When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers<sup>b</sup> of the city, crying, “These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, <sup>7</sup>whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus.” <sup>8</sup>The crowd and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. <sup>9</sup>When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. <sup>10</sup>The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.

<sup>11</sup>Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. <sup>12</sup>Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Berea also, they came there likewise, agitating the crowds. <sup>14</sup>Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as<sup>c</sup> to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. <sup>15</sup>But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. <sup>17</sup>So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. <sup>18</sup>Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, “What does this babbling want to say?”

Others said, “He seems to be advocating foreign deities,” because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>19</sup>They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you? <sup>20</sup>For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean.” <sup>21</sup>Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

<sup>22</sup>Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, “You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. <sup>23</sup>For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. <sup>24</sup>The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, <sup>25</sup>neither is he served by human<sup>a</sup> hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. <sup>26</sup>He made from one blood<sup>b</sup> every nation of the human race to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings, <sup>27</sup>that they should seek God,<sup>c</sup> if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. <sup>28</sup>For in him we live, and move, and have our being.<sup>d</sup> As some of your own poets have said, ‘For we are also his offspring.’<sup>e</sup> <sup>29</sup>Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by human art and design. <sup>30</sup>The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, <sup>31</sup>because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to everyone by raising him from the dead.”

<sup>32</sup>Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, “We want to hear you again concerning this.”

greatly helped those who had believed through grace;<sup>28</sup> for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

19 It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples.<sup>2</sup> He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

They said to him, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup>He said, “Into what then were you baptized?”

They said, “Into John’s baptism.”

<sup>4</sup>Paul said, “John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus.”

<sup>5</sup>When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.<sup>6</sup> When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other tongues and prophesied.<sup>7</sup> They were about twelve men in all.<sup>8</sup> He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the kingdom of God.

<sup>9</sup>But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the crowd, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>11</sup>God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup>so that even handkerchiefs<sup>a</sup> or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out. <sup>13</sup>But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, “I<sup>b</sup> adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.” <sup>14</sup>There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

<sup>15</sup>The evil spirit answered, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?” <sup>16</sup>The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them all, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>18</sup>Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. <sup>19</sup>Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup>So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

<sup>21</sup>Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

<sup>35</sup>When the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he said, “You men of Ephesus, is there anyone who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great<sup>b</sup> Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? <sup>36</sup>Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. <sup>37</sup>For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples

nor blasphemers of our<sup>c</sup> goddess. <sup>38</sup>If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. <sup>39</sup>But if you seek anything further, it will be settled in the regular assembly. <sup>40</sup>For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day’s riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we would not be able to give an account of this commotion.” <sup>41</sup>When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples and, after encouraging them,<sup>d</sup> took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. <sup>3</sup>When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>He was accompanied<sup>e</sup> by Sopater son of Pyrrhus<sup>f</sup> of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. <sup>5</sup>But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>7</sup>On the first day of the week, when we<sup>a</sup> were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight. <sup>8</sup>There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered together. <sup>9</sup>A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup>Paul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

<sup>11</sup>When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. <sup>12</sup>They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

<sup>13</sup>But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. <sup>14</sup>When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we landed at Samos,<sup>b</sup> and the day after we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup>From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup>When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, <sup>19</sup>servicing the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup>how I did not hold back from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup>testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus. <sup>22</sup>And now, look, I am going bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; <sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. <sup>24</sup>But I make my life<sup>c</sup> an account of nothing<sup>d</sup> precious to myself, so that I may finish my race,<sup>a</sup> and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup>“And now, look, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom,<sup>b</sup> will see my face no more. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I testify to you today that I am innocent of everyone’s blood, <sup>27</sup>for I did not hold back from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. <sup>28</sup>Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of<sup>c</sup> God<sup>d</sup> which he purchased with his own blood. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup>Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I did not cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. <sup>32</sup>Now<sup>e</sup> I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. <sup>33</sup>I coveted no one’s silver, or gold, or clothing. <sup>34</sup>You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. <sup>35</sup>In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

<sup>36</sup>When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul’s neck and kissed him, <sup>38</sup>sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.<sup>f</sup> <sup>2</sup>Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. <sup>3</sup>When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. <sup>4</sup>Having found the<sup>g</sup> disciples, we stayed there seven days. accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. <sup>6</sup>After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

<sup>7</sup>When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. <sup>8</sup>On the next day,<sup>a</sup> we departed and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. <sup>9</sup>Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. <sup>10</sup>As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup>Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews in Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

<sup>12</sup>When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>14</sup>When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."

<sup>15</sup>After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

<sup>17</sup>When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. <sup>18</sup>The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup>When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup>They, when they heard it, glorified God.<sup>b</sup> They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Law. <sup>21</sup>They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. <sup>22</sup>What then? They will hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup>Therefore do what we tell you. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the Law. <sup>25</sup>But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should<sup>a</sup> keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. <sup>27</sup>When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the crowd and laid hands on him, <sup>28</sup>crying out, “Men of Israel, help. This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place.” <sup>29</sup>For they had previously<sup>b</sup> seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

<sup>30</sup>All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup>As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup>Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he could not find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

<sup>35</sup>When he came to the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; <sup>36</sup>for the crowd of the people followed after, crying out, “Away with him.” <sup>37</sup>As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, “May I speak something<sup>c</sup> to you?”

He said, “Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup>Are you not then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?”

<sup>2</sup>When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me. <sup>7</sup>I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’ <sup>8</sup>I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the Nazorean, whom you persecute.’

23 Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said, “Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day.”

<sup>2</sup>The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall. Do you sit to judge me according to the Law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?”

<sup>4</sup>Those who stood by said, “Do you malign God’s high priest?”

<sup>5</sup>Paul said, “I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, ‘You must not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted in the council, “Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged.”

<sup>7</sup>When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. <sup>8</sup>For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. <sup>9</sup>A great clamor arose, and some of<sup>b</sup> the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, “We find no evil in this man. What if a spirit spoke to him, or an angel?”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>18</sup>So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, “Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup>The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup>And he said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they intended to inquire somewhat more thoroughly concerning him. <sup>21</sup>Therefore do not yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. <sup>34</sup>When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. 24 After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain<sup>a</sup> elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup>When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that by your foresight reforms<sup>b</sup> are coming to this nation, <sup>3</sup>we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup>But, that I do not delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. <sup>5</sup>For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup>He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. <sup>7c</sup> <sup>8</sup>By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.”

<sup>9</sup>The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. <sup>10</sup>When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, “Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, <sup>11</sup>seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>In the temple they did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. <sup>13</sup>Nor can they prove to you<sup>d</sup> the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>14</sup>But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the Law, and which are written in the Prophets; <sup>15</sup>having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection<sup>e</sup>, both of the just and unjust. <sup>16</sup>This being so, I also do my best to always have a clear conscience toward God and people. <sup>17</sup>Now after some

<sup>22</sup>But Felix,<sup>a</sup> having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, “When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case.”<sup>23</sup>He ordered the centurion that he<sup>b</sup> should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him.<sup>24</sup>But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.<sup>25</sup>As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, “Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you.”<sup>26</sup>Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul<sup>c</sup>. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him.<sup>27</sup>But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.<sup>2</sup>Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they urged him,<sup>3</sup>asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way.<sup>4</sup>However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly.<sup>5</sup>“Let them therefore,” said he, “that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong<sup>d</sup> in the man, let them accuse him.”

<sup>6</sup>When he had stayed among them more than eight or<sup>e</sup> ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.<sup>7</sup>When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove,<sup>8</sup>while he said in his defense, “Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all.”

<sup>9</sup>But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?”

<sup>10</sup>But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well. <sup>11</sup>For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar.”

<sup>12</sup>Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go.”

against him. <sup>16</sup>To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up anyone to destruction<sup>b</sup> before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense against the charge. <sup>17</sup>When therefore they had come together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. <sup>18</sup>Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed; <sup>19</sup>but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>20</sup>Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. <sup>21</sup>But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar.”

“Tomorrow,” he said, “you will hear him.”

<sup>23</sup>So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. <sup>24</sup>And Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all people who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup>But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. <sup>26</sup>Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup>For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him.”

26 Agrippa said to Paul, “You may speak for yourself.”

Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. <sup>28</sup>“I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews, <sup>29</sup>especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

<sup>4</sup>“Indeed, all Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup>having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup>Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, <sup>7</sup>which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O King<sup>a</sup>. <sup>8</sup>Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

<sup>9</sup>“In fact, I thought to myself that I ought to do many things against the name of Jesus the Nazorean. <sup>10</sup>This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. <sup>11</sup>Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

<sup>12</sup>“Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests, <sup>13</sup>at noon, O King, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. <sup>14</sup>When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’

<sup>15</sup>“I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

<sup>19</sup>“Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, <sup>20</sup>but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. <sup>21</sup>For this reason Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me.

<sup>25</sup>But he said, “I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. <sup>26</sup>For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.”

27 When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. <sup>2</sup>Embarking in a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>3</sup>The next day, we landed at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. <sup>4</sup>Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup>When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. <sup>7</sup>When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. <sup>8</sup>With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, <sup>10</sup>and said to them, “Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.” <sup>11</sup>But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup>Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

<sup>13</sup>When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. <sup>14</sup>But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euraquilo.<sup>b</sup> <sup>15</sup>When the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. <sup>16</sup>Running under the lee of a small island called Cauda<sup>c</sup>, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. <sup>17</sup>After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along.<sup>18</sup> As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard.<sup>19</sup> On the third day, they<sup>a</sup> threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands.<sup>20</sup> When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

<sup>21</sup>When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss.<sup>22</sup> Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.<sup>23</sup> For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve,<sup>24</sup> saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. And look, God has granted you all those who sail with you.'<sup>25</sup> Therefore, sirs, cheer up. For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me.<sup>26</sup> But we must run aground on a certain island."

<sup>27</sup>But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land.<sup>28</sup> They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms.<sup>b</sup> After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.<sup>c</sup><sup>29</sup> Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight.<sup>30</sup> As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow,<sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."<sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

<sup>33</sup>While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing.<sup>34</sup> Therefore I urge you to take some food, for this is for your preservation; for not a hair will perish<sup>d</sup> from any of your heads."<sup>35</sup> When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat.<sup>36</sup> Then they all cheered up, and they also took food.<sup>37</sup> In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship.<sup>38</sup> When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.<sup>39</sup> When it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it.<sup>40</sup> Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach.<sup>41</sup> But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

<sup>42</sup>The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape.<sup>43</sup> But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land;<sup>44</sup> and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.

28 When we had escaped, then we<sup>a</sup> learned that the island was called Malta.<sup>2</sup> The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.<sup>3</sup> But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and placed them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.<sup>4</sup> When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live."<sup>5</sup> However he shook off the creature into the fire, and was not harmed.<sup>6</sup> But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief official of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days.<sup>8</sup> It happened that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him.<sup>9</sup> Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured.<sup>10</sup> They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

there three days. <sup>13</sup>From there we cast off<sup>a</sup> and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, <sup>14</sup>where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. <sup>15</sup>From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. <sup>16</sup>When we entered into Rome,<sup>b</sup> Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

<sup>17</sup>It happened that after three days Paul called together those who were the Jewish leaders. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup>who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. <sup>19</sup>But when the Jews spoke against it, I was forced to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup>For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

<sup>21</sup>They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. <sup>22</sup>But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

<sup>23</sup>When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup>Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. <sup>25</sup>When they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to your<sup>c</sup> fathers, <sup>26</sup>saying, 'Go to this people, and say, in hearing, you will hear, but will in no way understand. who are in Rome. <sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the Good News,<sup>a</sup> for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. <sup>17</sup>For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous will live by faith."<sup>b</sup> <sup>18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people, who suppress the truth by unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup>because what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. <sup>20</sup>For since the creation of the world his invisible attributes, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made. So they are without excuse. <sup>21</sup>Because, although they knew God, they did not glorify him as God or give him thanks, but their thinking became nonsense, and their foolish heart was darkened.

<sup>22</sup>Professing to be wise, they became fools, <sup>23</sup>and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for images resembling corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and crawling creatures. <sup>24</sup>Therefore God also abandoned them in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the degrading of their bodies among themselves, <sup>25</sup>who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>26</sup>For this reason, God abandoned them to their degrading passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for that which is contrary to nature. <sup>27</sup>Likewise also the men, giving up natural relations with women, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. <sup>28</sup>Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God abandoned them to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not right; <sup>29</sup>being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality,<sup>c</sup> wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, <sup>30</sup>slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup>foolish, promise-breakers, heartless, unforgiving,<sup>d</sup> unmerciful; <sup>32</sup>who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

2 Therefore you are without excuse, everyone of you who passes judgment. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. <sup>2</sup>Now we know that the judgment of God is in accordance with truth against those who practice such things. <sup>3</sup>And do you think this, you who judge those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>5</sup>But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are storing up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; <sup>6</sup>who “will pay back to everyone according to their works.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>to those who by perseverance in good works seek glory and honor and immortality -- everlasting life. <sup>8</sup>But to those who are self-seeking, and do not obey the truth, but obey wickedness -- wrath and anger, <sup>9</sup>affliction and distress, on every human being who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

<sup>10</sup>But glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup>For there is no partiality with God. <sup>12</sup>For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup>For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified. <sup>14</sup>For when Gentiles who do not have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, <sup>15</sup>since they show the work of the law written on their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, and their thoughts either accusing or defending them, <sup>16</sup>in the day when God will judge the secrets of people, according to my Good News, by Christ Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>But if you call yourself a Jew, and rely on the law, and boast in God, <sup>18</sup>and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, <sup>19</sup>and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, <sup>20</sup>a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of children, having in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth. <sup>21</sup>You therefore who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? <sup>22</sup>You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob temples?<sup>23</sup> You who boast in the law, do you, by disobeying the law, dishonor God?<sup>24</sup> For “because of you the name of God is blasphemed among the nations,”<sup>a</sup> just as it is written. <sup>25</sup>For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup>If therefore the uncircumcised keep the requirements of the law, won’t his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? <sup>27</sup>Won’t the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? <sup>28</sup>For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; <sup>29</sup>but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, by the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from people, but from God.

3 Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Much in every way. Because first of all, they were entrusted with the oracles of God. <sup>3</sup>For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? <sup>4</sup>May it never be. Let God be found true, but every human being a liar. As it is written,

<sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? (I am speaking in human terms). <sup>6</sup>May it never be. For then how will God judge the world? <sup>7</sup>For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup>And why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), “Let us do evil, that good may come?” Their condemnation is just. <sup>9</sup>What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin.

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. <sup>20</sup>Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. <sup>21</sup>But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the Law and the Prophets; <sup>22</sup>even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and upon all<sup>f</sup>

For there is no distinction, <sup>23</sup>for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; <sup>24</sup>being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup>whom God displayed publicly as a mercy seat,<sup>g</sup> through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness, because in God’s forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; <sup>26</sup>to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time, so that he would be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

Yes, of Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup>since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. <sup>31</sup>Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be. No, we establish the law.

4 What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather,<sup>a</sup> has found according to the flesh? <sup>2</sup>For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. <sup>3</sup>For what does the Scripture say? “And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>Now to the one who works, the pay is not counted as a gift, but as an obligation. <sup>5</sup>But to him who does not work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. <sup>6</sup>Even as David also pronounces blessing on the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works, <sup>7</sup>“Happy are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. <sup>8</sup>Happy is the one whom the Lord will not charge with sin.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness. <sup>10</sup>How then was it credited? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>11</sup>He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that<sup>d</sup> righteousness might also be credited to them. <sup>12</sup>The father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. <sup>13</sup>For the promise to Abraham and to his descendants that he should be heir of the world was not through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. <sup>15</sup>For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. <sup>16</sup>For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the descendants, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. <sup>17</sup>As it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations.”<sup>e</sup> This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. <sup>18</sup>Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, “So will your descendants be.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>Without being weakened in faith, he considered<sup>b</sup> his own body, which was as good as<sup>c</sup> dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah’s womb. <sup>20</sup>Yet, looking to the promise of God, he did not waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, <sup>21</sup>and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. <sup>22</sup>Therefore it also was “credited to him as righteousness.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>Now it was not written that it was credited to him for his sake alone, <sup>24</sup>but for our sake also, to whom it will be credited, who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup>who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>2</sup>through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance; <sup>4</sup>and perseverance, proven character;

and proven character, hope: <sup>5</sup>and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. <sup>6</sup>For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup>For rarely does one die for the righteous<sup>e</sup>. Yet perhaps for a good person someone might dare to die. <sup>8</sup>But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>9</sup>Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God’s wrath through him. <sup>10</sup>For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

<sup>11</sup>Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all people, because all sinned. <sup>13</sup>For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren’t like Adam’s disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. <sup>15</sup>But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. <sup>16</sup>The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. <sup>17</sup>For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>So then as through one trespass, all people were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all people were justified to life. <sup>19</sup>For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. <sup>20</sup>The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly; <sup>21</sup>that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What should we say then? Should we continue in sin, that grace may abound? <sup>2</sup>May it never be. We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? <sup>3</sup>Or do you not know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? <sup>4</sup>We were buried therefore with him through baptism to death, that just like Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. <sup>5</sup>For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; <sup>6</sup>knowing this, that our old self was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. <sup>7</sup>For he who has died has been freed from sin. <sup>8</sup>But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him; <sup>9</sup>knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him. <sup>10</sup>For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. <sup>11</sup>In the same way, consider yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus<sup>a</sup>.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. <sup>13</sup>Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. <sup>14</sup>For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. <sup>15</sup>What then? Should we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be. <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that when you present yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, whether of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leadsto righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were servants of sin, you became obedient from the<sup>a</sup> heart to that form of teaching to which you were entrusted. <sup>18</sup>Being made free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

<sup>19</sup>I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. <sup>20</sup>For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. <sup>21</sup>What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup>But now, being made free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of everlasting life. <sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is everlasting life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or do you not know, brothers (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a person for as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. <sup>3</sup>So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit to God. <sup>5</sup>For when we were in the flesh,<sup>b</sup> the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit for death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in newness of the Spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>7</sup>What should we say then? Is<sup>c</sup> the law sin? May it never be. However, I would not have known sin, except through the law. For I would not have known coveting, unless the law had said, "Do not covet."<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. <sup>9</sup>I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin became alive, and I died. <sup>10</sup>The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; <sup>11</sup>for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. <sup>12</sup>Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

<sup>13</sup>Did that which is good, then, become death to me? May it never be. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. <sup>14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. <sup>15</sup>For I do not know what I am doing. For I do not practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. <sup>16</sup>But if what I do not desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. <sup>17</sup>So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. <sup>18</sup>For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh,<sup>a</sup> dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but to do that which is good is not. <sup>19</sup>For the good which I desire, I do not do; but the evil which I do not desire, that I practice. <sup>20</sup>But if what I<sup>b</sup> do not desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. <sup>21</sup>I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. <sup>22</sup>For I delight in God's law in my inner being,<sup>23</sup> but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. <sup>24</sup>What a wretched man I am. Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? <sup>25</sup>Thanks be to<sup>c</sup> God through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made you<sup>e</sup> free from the law of sin and of death. <sup>3</sup>For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; <sup>4</sup>that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. <sup>5</sup>For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace; <sup>7</sup>because the mind set on the flesh is hostile towards

God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be.<sup>8</sup> Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.<sup>9</sup> But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him.<sup>10</sup> If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness.<sup>11</sup> But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.<sup>12</sup> So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.<sup>13</sup> For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.<sup>14</sup> For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God.<sup>15</sup> For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba<sup>a</sup>. Father."

<sup>16</sup>The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God;<sup>17</sup> and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.<sup>18</sup> For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed to us.<sup>19</sup> For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed.<sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope<sup>21</sup> that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.<sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now.<sup>23</sup> Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body.<sup>24</sup> For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees?<sup>25</sup> But if we hope for that which we do not see, we wait for it with patience.<sup>26</sup> In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we do not know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.<sup>27</sup> He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.

<sup>28</sup>We know that all things work together for good<sup>b</sup> for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose.

<sup>31</sup>What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup>He who did not spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup>Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup>Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

<sup>35</sup>Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>36</sup>Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were regarded as sheep for the slaughter."<sup>a</sup> <sup>37</sup>No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>38</sup>For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup>that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup>who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; <sup>5</sup>of whom are the patriarchs, and from whom is the Christ, as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, <sup>12</sup>it was said to her, “The elder will serve the younger.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>13</sup>Even as it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>14</sup>What should we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be. <sup>15</sup>For he said to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. <sup>17</sup>For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.”<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. <sup>19</sup>You will say then to me, “Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?” <sup>20</sup>But who indeed are you, a human being, to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, “Why did you make me like this?”<sup>e</sup> <sup>21</sup>Or hasn’t the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? <sup>22</sup>What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction, <sup>23</sup>and that he might

10 Brothers, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God is for them<sup>h</sup>, that they may be saved.
<sup>2</sup>For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness,
 they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For Christ is the end<sup>i</sup> of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. <sup>5</sup>For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, “The one who does them will live by them.”<sup>j</sup> <sup>6</sup>But the righteousness which is of faith says this, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’<sup>k</sup> (that is, to bring Christ down); <sup>7</sup>or, ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’<sup>l</sup> (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)” <sup>8</sup>But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;”<sup>m</sup> that is, the word of faith, which we proclaim: <sup>9</sup>that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him
 from the dead, you will be saved.
<sup>10</sup>For with the heart one believes,
 resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made, resulting in salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>12</sup>For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord of all is rich to all who call on him. <sup>13</sup>For, “Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>14</sup>How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without someone preaching? <sup>15</sup>And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of peace, who bring good news<sup>c</sup> of good things.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>16</sup>But they did not all listen to the Good News. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our report?”<sup>e</sup> <sup>17</sup>So faith comes by hearing, and hearing<sup>f</sup> by the word of Christ.<sup>g</sup> <sup>18</sup>But I say, did they not hear? Yes, truly, “Their voice has gone out to all the earth,

“I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is not a people.

11 I ask then, has God rejected his people?<sup>a</sup> May it never be. For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God did not reject his people, which he foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel: <sup>3</sup>“Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>But how does God answer him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup>And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he did not obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. <sup>8</sup>According as it is written, “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>9</sup>David says,

“Let their table be made a snare,

that they can’t see,
and their backs be bent

<sup>11</sup>I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be. But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness? <sup>13</sup>For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; <sup>14</sup>if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. <sup>15</sup>For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup>If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. <sup>19</sup>You will say then, “Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.” <sup>20</sup>True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear; <sup>21</sup>for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. <sup>22</sup>See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup>They also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup>For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? <sup>25</sup>For I do not desire you to be ignorant, brothers, of this mystery, so that you won’t be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, <sup>26</sup>and so all Israel will be saved. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, <sup>4</sup>for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. <sup>5</sup>Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. <sup>6</sup>For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. <sup>7</sup>Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor. <sup>8</sup>Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>14</sup>I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge,<sup>b</sup> able also to admonish others. <sup>15</sup>But I write the more boldly to you<sup>c</sup> in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God, <sup>16</sup>that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest the Good News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>I have therefore my<sup>d</sup> boasting in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God. <sup>18</sup>For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Christ worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup>in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of Christ; <sup>20</sup>yes, making it my aim to proclaim the Good News, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation.

<sup>21</sup>But, as it is written,
“Those who were not told about him, they will see,
and those who have not heard, they will understand.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you, <sup>23</sup>but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I journey to Spain.<sup>f</sup> For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while. <sup>25</sup>But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints. <sup>26</sup>For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. <sup>28</sup>When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by

1 Corinthians

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus<sup>c</sup> by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, <sup>2</sup>to the church of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; <sup>5</sup>that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; <sup>6</sup>even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: <sup>7</sup>so that you are not lacking in any gift, as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>8</sup>who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. <sup>10</sup>Now I appeal to you, brothers, through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>11</sup>For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you.<sup>12</sup> Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ."<sup>13</sup> Is<sup>a</sup> Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul?<sup>14</sup> I thank God<sup>b</sup> that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius,<sup>15</sup> so that no one should say that you had been baptized<sup>c</sup> into my own name.<sup>16</sup> (Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any other.)<sup>17</sup> For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to proclaim the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of the Christ would not be made void.<sup>18</sup> For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.<sup>19</sup> For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will nullify."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this<sup>e</sup> world?<sup>21</sup> For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe.<sup>22</sup> For Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom,<sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles<sup>f</sup>,<sup>24</sup> but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.<sup>25</sup> Because the foolishness of God is wiser than man's, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's.<sup>26</sup> For consider your calling, brothers, that not many were wise from a human perspective, not many powerful, not many of noble birth.<sup>27</sup> But God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise. And God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong.<sup>28</sup> And God chose the lowly of the world, and the despised, what is considered to be nothing, to bring to nothing what is considered to be something,<sup>29</sup> that no flesh might boast before God.<sup>30</sup> And because of him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,<sup>31</sup> so that, as it is written, "Let him who boasts, boast in the Lord."<sup>a</sup>

2 When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with superiority of speech or wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery<sup>b</sup> of God.<sup>2</sup> For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.<sup>3</sup> When I was with you, I was weak and afraid and I shook.<sup>4</sup> My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words<sup>c</sup> of<sup>d</sup> wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,<sup>5</sup> that your faith would not rest on human wisdom, but on the power of God.<sup>6</sup> We speak wisdom, however, among those who are mature, but a wisdom not of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are passing away.<sup>7</sup> But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the ages for our glory,<sup>8</sup> which none of the rulers of this age has understood. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.<sup>9</sup> But as it is written, No eye has seen, and no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined the things which God has prepared for those who love him.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>10</sup>But to us God revealed it through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.<sup>11</sup> For what person knows the things of a person except the spirit of the person that is in him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.<sup>12</sup> But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God.<sup>13</sup> And we speak of these things, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the<sup>f</sup> Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.<sup>14</sup> Now the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.<sup>15</sup> But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one.<sup>16</sup> For, "Who has known the mind of the Lord? Who will instruct him?"<sup>g</sup> But we have the mind of Christ.

And even now you are still not ready, <sup>3</sup>for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy and strife<sup>a</sup> among you, are you not fleshly, and living by human standards? <sup>4</sup>For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not merely human?<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, and each as the Lord gave to him. <sup>6</sup>I planted. Apollos watered. <sup>7</sup>So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who makes it grow. <sup>8</sup>Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. <sup>9</sup>For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. <sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one be careful how he builds on it. <sup>11</sup>For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>But if anyone builds on this<sup>c</sup> foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw; <sup>13</sup>each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. <sup>14</sup>If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours,<sup>23</sup> and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

4 So a person should consider us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries.<sup>2</sup> Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful.<sup>3</sup> But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I do not judge my own self.<sup>4</sup> For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord.<sup>5</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one will get his praise from God.

<sup>6</sup> Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to go<sup>a</sup> beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another.<sup>7</sup> For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?<sup>8</sup> You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.<sup>9</sup> For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and people.<sup>10</sup> We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor.<sup>11</sup> Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place.<sup>12</sup> We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure.<sup>13</sup> Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.<sup>14</sup> I do not write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.<sup>15</sup> For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News.<sup>16</sup> I appeal to you therefore, be imitators of me.<sup>17</sup> Because of this I<sup>b</sup> have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church.<sup>18</sup> Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.<sup>19</sup> But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. are puffed up, but the power. <sup>20</sup>For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. <sup>21</sup>What do you want? Should I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even<sup>a</sup> among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife. <sup>2</sup>You are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. <sup>3</sup>For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. <sup>4</sup>In the name of our Lord Jesus,<sup>b</sup> you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus,<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh,<sup>d</sup> that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? <sup>7</sup>Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed for us.<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. <sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; <sup>10</sup>yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. <sup>11</sup>But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Do not even eat with such a person. <sup>12</sup>For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Do you not judge those who are within? <sup>13</sup>But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked person from among yourselves."<sup>g</sup>

But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup>Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. <sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? <sup>6</sup>But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. <sup>7</sup>Yet I wish that all people were like me. However each one has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. <sup>8</sup>But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. <sup>9</sup>But if they do not have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup>But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband <sup>11</sup>(but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

<sup>12</sup>But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. <sup>13</sup>The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband<sup>d</sup>. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the brother<sup>e</sup>. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called you<sup>f</sup> to peace. <sup>16</sup>For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? <sup>17</sup>Only, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God<sup>g</sup> has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the churches.

<sup>18</sup>Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup>Let each person stay in that calling in which he was called. <sup>21</sup>Were you called being a slave? Do not let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. <sup>22</sup>For he who was called in the Lord being a slave is the Lord's free person. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's slave. <sup>23</sup>You were bought with a price. Do not become slaves of people. <sup>24</sup>Brothers, let each one, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

<sup>25</sup>Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. <sup>26</sup>I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a person to remain as he is. <sup>27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup>But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have trouble in this life,<sup>a</sup> and I want to spare you. <sup>29</sup>But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, those who have wives should be as though they had none; <sup>30</sup>and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess; <sup>31</sup>and those who use the<sup>b</sup> world, as not using it to the fullest. For the form of this world is passing away. <sup>32</sup>But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; <sup>33</sup>but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, <sup>34</sup>and is divided. And the woman that is unmarried, or a virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the one that is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup>This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you<sup>c</sup> may attend to the Lord without distraction. <sup>36</sup>But if anyone thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He does not sin. Let them marry. <sup>37</sup>But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. <sup>38</sup>So then both he who gives his own virgin<sup>d</sup> in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage does better. <sup>39</sup>A wife is bound<sup>e</sup> to her husband as long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord.<sup>40</sup> But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

8 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.<sup>2</sup> But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he does not yet know<sup>a</sup> as he ought to know.<sup>3</sup> But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him.<sup>4</sup> Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no<sup>b</sup> God but one.<sup>5</sup> For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords;"<sup>6</sup> yet to us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him.<sup>7</sup> However, not all have this knowledge. But some, being so accustomed<sup>c</sup> to idols until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.<sup>8</sup> But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we do not eat, are we

the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.<sup>9</sup> But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak.<sup>10</sup> For if someone sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols?<sup>11</sup> And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whom the Christ died.<sup>12</sup> Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.<sup>13</sup> Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus<sup>d</sup> our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my office of apostle in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>My defense to those who examine me is this. <sup>4</sup>Have we no right to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup>Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? <sup>6</sup>Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? <sup>7</sup>What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and does not drink from the flock's milk? <sup>8</sup>Do I say these things according to human authority? Or does not the Law also say the same thing? <sup>9</sup>For it is written in the Law of Moses, “Do not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.”<sup>a</sup> Is it for the oxen that God cares, <sup>10</sup>or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in the hope of having a share<sup>b</sup>. <sup>11</sup>If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? <sup>12</sup>If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Do you not know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? <sup>14</sup>Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. <sup>15</sup>But I have used none of these things, and I do not write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. <sup>16</sup>For if I proclaim the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I do not proclaim the Good News. <sup>17</sup>For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. <sup>18</sup>What then is my reward? That, when I proclaim the Good News, I may present the Good News<sup>c</sup> without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. <sup>19</sup>For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. <sup>20</sup>To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law,<sup>d</sup> that I might gain those who are under the law; <sup>21</sup>to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law. <sup>22</sup>To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I may by all means save some. <sup>23</sup>Now I do all things<sup>e</sup> for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it. <sup>24</sup>Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. <sup>25</sup>Now everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. <sup>26</sup>I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, <sup>27</sup>but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any

10 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; <sup>2</sup>and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; <sup>3</sup>and all ate the same spiritual food; <sup>4</sup>and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup>However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. <sup>6</sup>Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. <sup>7</sup>Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. <sup>9</sup>Neither let us test the Christ,<sup>b</sup> as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. <sup>10</sup>Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. <sup>11</sup>Now<sup>c</sup> these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. <sup>12</sup>Therefore

<sup>13</sup>No temptation has taken you except what is common to humanity. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup>I speak as to wise people. Judge what I say. <sup>16</sup>The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. <sup>18</sup>Consider Israel according to the flesh. Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

<sup>19</sup>What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup>But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I do not desire that you would have fellowship with demons. <sup>21</sup>You cannot both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons. <sup>22</sup>Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? <sup>23</sup>“All things are lawful<sup>d</sup>,” but not all things are profitable. “All things are lawful<sup>a</sup>,” but not all things build up. <sup>24</sup>Let no one seek his own, but<sup>b</sup> his neighbor’s good. <sup>25</sup>Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, <sup>26</sup>for “the earth is the Lord’s, and its fullness.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup>But if one of those who do not believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. <sup>28</sup>But if anyone says to you, “This was offered to idols,” do not eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience.<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other’s conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? <sup>30</sup>If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? <sup>31</sup>Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup>Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God; <sup>33</sup>even as I also please all people in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. <sup>2</sup>Now I praise you,<sup>e</sup> that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup>Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. <sup>6</sup>For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. <sup>7</sup>For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>8</sup>For man is not from woman, but woman from man; <sup>9</sup>for neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man. <sup>10</sup>For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the messengers.

<sup>11</sup>Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. <sup>13</sup>Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? <sup>14</sup>Doesn’t even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? <sup>15</sup>But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her<sup>a</sup> for a covering. <sup>16</sup>But if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's churches.

<sup>17</sup>But in giving you this command, I do not praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>For first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. <sup>19</sup>For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. <sup>20</sup>When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. <sup>21</sup>For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunk. <sup>22</sup>What, do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's church, and put them to shame who do not have? What should I tell you? Should I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

<sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. <sup>24</sup>When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “<sup>b</sup>This is my body, which is<sup>c</sup> for you. Do this in memory of me.” <sup>25</sup>In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the New Covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me.” <sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. <sup>27</sup>Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in a manner unworthy<sup>d</sup> will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a person examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. <sup>29</sup>For he who eats and drinks<sup>e</sup> eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he does not discern the<sup>f</sup> body. <sup>30</sup>For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. <sup>31</sup>For if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged. <sup>32</sup>But when we are judged, we are punished by the<sup>g</sup> Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for another. <sup>34</sup>But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. <sup>2</sup>You know that when you were heathen<sup>h</sup>, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup>Now there are various kinds of gifts<sup>a</sup>, but the same Spirit.

<sup>5</sup>There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. <sup>7</sup>But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. <sup>8</sup>For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup>to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the one<sup>b</sup> Spirit; <sup>10</sup>and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; to another different kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup>But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

<sup>12</sup>For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the<sup>c</sup> body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. <sup>13</sup>For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink of<sup>d</sup> one Spirit. <sup>14</sup>For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>15</sup>If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. <sup>16</sup>If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? <sup>18</sup>But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. <sup>19</sup>If they were all one member, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup>But now they are many members, but one body. <sup>21</sup>The eye cannot tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." <sup>22</sup>No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>23</sup>Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unrepresentable parts have more abundant propriety; <sup>24</sup>whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, <sup>25</sup>that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup>When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

<sup>27</sup>Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. <sup>28</sup>God has set some in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup>Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? <sup>30</sup>Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? <sup>31</sup>But earnestly desire the greater<sup>a</sup> gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

13 If I speak with the tongues of humans and of angels, but do not have love, I have become sounding bronze, or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup>If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup>If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body so that I may boast,<sup>b</sup> but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

<sup>4</sup>Love is patient and is kind; love does not envy. Love does not brag, is not proud, <sup>5</sup>does not behave itself inappropriately, does not seek its own way, is not irritable, does not keep a record of wrongs; <sup>6</sup>does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; <sup>7</sup>bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. <sup>8</sup>Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are tongues, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. <sup>9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; <sup>10</sup>but when that which is complete has come,<sup>c</sup> that which is partial will be done away with. <sup>11</sup>When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become an adult, I have put away childish things. <sup>12</sup>For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. <sup>13</sup>But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

14 Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual things, and especially that you may prophesy. <sup>2</sup>For the one who speaks in another language speaks not to people, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. <sup>3</sup>But he who prophesies speaks to people for their encouragement, strengthening, and comfort. <sup>4</sup>He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. <sup>5</sup>Now I would like you all to speak in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy, and<sup>a</sup> he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other tongues, unless he interprets, that the church may be built up.

<sup>6</sup>But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? <sup>7</sup>Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they did not give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>8</sup>For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? <sup>9</sup>So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup>There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none<sup>b</sup> is without meaning. <sup>11</sup>If then I do not know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup>So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the church. <sup>13</sup>Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup>For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. <sup>16</sup>Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the “Amen” at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not know what you say? <sup>17</sup>For you truly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. <sup>18</sup>I thank<sup>c</sup> God I speak in tongues more than you all. <sup>19</sup>However in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

<sup>20</sup>Brothers, do not be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. <sup>21</sup>In the law it is written, “By people of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people; but even then they will not listen to me,” says the Lord.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. <sup>23</sup>If therefore the whole church is assembled together and all speak in tongues, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy?<sup>24</sup> But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all.<sup>25</sup> And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

<sup>26</sup>What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one<sup>a</sup> has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up.<sup>27</sup> If anyone speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret.<sup>28</sup> But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the church, and let him speak to himself, and to God.<sup>29</sup> Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern.<sup>30</sup> But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent.<sup>31</sup> For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged.<sup>32</sup> The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets,<sup>33</sup> for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints,<sup>34</sup> let the women<sup>b</sup> keep silent in the churches, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the Law also says.<sup>35</sup> If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the church.<sup>36</sup> What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone?<sup>37</sup> If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord.<sup>38</sup> But if someone does not recognize this<sup>c</sup>, he is not recognized.<sup>39</sup> Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.<sup>40</sup> Let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand,<sup>2</sup> by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.<sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received:

that Christ died for our sins

that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup>and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.
<sup>6</sup>After that he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep.
<sup>7</sup>After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, <sup>8</sup>and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also.

<sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was bestowed on me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
<sup>11</sup>Whether then it is I or they, so we proclaim, and so you believed.

<sup>12</sup>Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>14</sup>If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. <sup>15</sup>Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he did not raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup>For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised. <sup>17</sup>If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup>Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup>If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all people most to be pitied.

<sup>20</sup>But now Christ has been raised from the dead,<sup>a</sup> the first fruits of those who are asleep. <sup>21</sup>For since death came by a man, the resurrection of the dead also came by a man. <sup>22</sup>For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup>But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming. <sup>24</sup>Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy that will be abolished is death. <sup>27</sup>For, "He put<sup>b</sup> all things under his feet."<sup>c</sup> But when he says, "all things" are put, it is evident that he is excepted who put all things to him. <sup>28</sup>When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all<sup>d</sup> in all. <sup>29</sup>Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead?

If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?<sup>a</sup> <sup>30</sup>Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? <sup>31</sup>I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. <sup>32</sup>If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then “let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>33</sup>Do not be deceived. “Evil companionships corrupt good morals.” <sup>34</sup>Wake up righteously, and do not sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. <sup>35</sup>But someone will say, “How are the dead raised?” and, “With what kind of body do they come?” <sup>36</sup>You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. <sup>37</sup>That which you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. <sup>38</sup>But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. <sup>39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of humans, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. <sup>40</sup>There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. <sup>41</sup>There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. <sup>42</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. <sup>43</sup>It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup>It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>45</sup>So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.”<sup>c</sup> The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup>However that which is spiritual is not first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is<sup>d</sup> from heaven. <sup>48</sup>As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. <sup>49</sup>As we have borne the image of those made of dust, we will<sup>e</sup> also bear the image of the heavenly. <sup>50</sup>Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

<sup>51</sup>Look, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>52</sup>in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup>For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

Death<sup>b</sup>, where is your sting?"<sup>c</sup>

<sup>56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

<sup>57</sup>But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the churches of Galatia, you do likewise. <sup>2</sup>On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. <sup>3</sup>When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. <sup>5</sup>But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup>But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. <sup>7</sup>For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>8</sup>But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost,<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. <sup>10</sup>Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>11</sup>Therefore let no one despise him. <sup>12</sup>Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

2Corinthians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; <sup>4</sup>who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ. <sup>6</sup>But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. <sup>7</sup>Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. <sup>8</sup>For we do not desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened<sup>f</sup> in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, <sup>10</sup>who delivered us out of so great a death, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will also deliver us again; <sup>11</sup>you also helping together on our behalf by your petition; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our<sup>g</sup> behalf. <sup>12</sup>For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that with pure motives<sup>h</sup> and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. <sup>13</sup>For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will fully acknowledge; <sup>14</sup>as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. <sup>15</sup>In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; <sup>16</sup>and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. <sup>17</sup>When I therefore was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the “Yes, yes” and the “No, no?” <sup>18</sup>But as God is faithful, our word toward you is<sup>a</sup> not “Yes and no.” <sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not “Yes and no,” but in him is “Yes.” <sup>20</sup>For however many are the promises of God, in him<sup>b</sup> they are “Yes.” Therefore also through him they are “Amen,” to the glory of God through us.

<sup>21</sup>Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; <sup>22</sup>who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>23</sup>But I call God as a witness to my soul, that to spare you I did not come again to Corinth. <sup>24</sup>Not that we rule over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2 For<sup>c</sup> I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. <sup>2</sup>For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? <sup>3</sup>And I wrote this very thing<sup>d</sup>, so that, when I came, I would not have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. <sup>4</sup>For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. <sup>5</sup>But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. <sup>6</sup>Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many; <sup>7</sup>so that on the contrary you should rather<sup>e</sup> forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup>Therefore I urge you to confirm your love toward him. <sup>9</sup>For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup>Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, <sup>11</sup>that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>12</sup>Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup>I had no relief for my spirit, because I did not find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. <sup>14</sup>Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. <sup>15</sup>For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; <sup>16</sup>to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup>For we are not, like so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? We do not need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or<sup>a</sup> from you, do we? <sup>2</sup>You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by everyone; <sup>3</sup>being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. <sup>4</sup>Such confidence we have through Christ toward God; <sup>5</sup>not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; <sup>6</sup>who also made us sufficient as servants of a New Covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. <sup>7</sup>But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: <sup>8</sup>won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? <sup>9</sup>For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. <sup>10</sup>For truly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. <sup>11</sup>For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

<sup>12</sup>Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, <sup>13</sup>and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel would not look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. <sup>14</sup>But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away. <sup>15</sup>But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. <sup>16</sup>But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. <sup>17</sup>Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. <sup>18</sup>But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we do not faint. <sup>2</sup>But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup>Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing; <sup>4</sup>in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, to prevent the light shining from the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. <sup>5</sup>For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your slaves because of Jesus. <sup>6</sup>For it is

God, who spoke for light to shine out of darkness,<sup>a</sup> who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. <sup>8</sup>We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; <sup>9</sup>pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; <sup>10</sup>always carrying in the body the death of<sup>c</sup> Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. <sup>11</sup>For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh. <sup>12</sup>So then death works in us, but life in you. <sup>13</sup>But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."<sup>d</sup> We also believe, and therefore also we speak; <sup>14</sup>knowing that he who raised the Lord<sup>e</sup> Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with

you. <sup>15</sup>For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. <sup>16</sup>Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer nature is wearing away, yet our inner nature is being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup>For this momentary light affliction is working for us a far more exceeding and everlasting weight of glory; <sup>18</sup>while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are everlasting.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, everlasting, in the heavens. <sup>2</sup>For truly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, <sup>3</sup>since, after we have put it on, we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup>For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup>Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; <sup>7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup>We are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. <sup>10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. <sup>11</sup>Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade people, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. <sup>12</sup>For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. <sup>13</sup>For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sound mind, it is for you. <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. <sup>15</sup>He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. <sup>16</sup>Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. <sup>17</sup>Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Look, new things have come. <sup>18</sup>But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup>namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup>We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup>For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain, <sup>2</sup>for he says, “At an acceptable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you.”<sup>a</sup>

Look, now is the “acceptable time.” Look, now is the “day of salvation.” <sup>3</sup>We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, <sup>4</sup>but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, <sup>5</sup>in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; <sup>6</sup>in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, <sup>7</sup>in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, <sup>8</sup>by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; <sup>9</sup>as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and look, we live; as punished, and not killed; <sup>10</sup>as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup>Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. <sup>12</sup>You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. <sup>13</sup>Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. <sup>14</sup>Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? <sup>15</sup>What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For we<sup>b</sup> are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, “I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>Therefore, “Go out from their midst, and be separate,” says the Lord, “and touch no unclean thing,” and I will receive you.<sup>d</sup>

7 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>2</sup>Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. <sup>3</sup>I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. <sup>4</sup>Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. <sup>5</sup>For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. <sup>6</sup>Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; <sup>7</sup>and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

<sup>8</sup>For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For

I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. <sup>9</sup>I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. <sup>10</sup>For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death. <sup>11</sup>For look at this very thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way. What diligence it produced in you, what clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what vindication. In everything you proved yourselves to be innocent in the matter. <sup>12</sup>So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. <sup>13</sup>Therefore we have been comforted. In our<sup>c</sup> comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup>For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. <sup>15</sup>His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. <sup>16</sup>I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the churches of Macedonia; <sup>2</sup>how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. <sup>3</sup>For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, <sup>4</sup>begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. <sup>5</sup>This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. <sup>6</sup>So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. <sup>7</sup>But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love from us that is in you,<sup>a</sup> see that you also abound in this grace. <sup>8</sup>I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. <sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. <sup>10</sup>I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. <sup>11</sup>But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. <sup>12</sup>For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you do not have. <sup>13</sup>For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, <sup>14</sup>but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. <sup>15</sup>As it is written, “He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>16</sup>But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup>For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. <sup>18</sup>We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the churches. <sup>19</sup>Not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. <sup>20</sup>We are avoiding this, that no one should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. <sup>21</sup>Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of others.<sup>c</sup> <sup>22</sup>We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. <sup>23</sup>As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the churches, the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the churches, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9 It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, <sup>2</sup>for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. <sup>3</sup>But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, <sup>4</sup>so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confidence<sup>a</sup>. <sup>5</sup>I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. <sup>6</sup>Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. <sup>7</sup>Each person should give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. <sup>9</sup>As it is written, "He has scattered, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Now<sup>c</sup> he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; <sup>11</sup>you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God. <sup>12</sup>For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many thanksgivings to God; <sup>13</sup>seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; <sup>14</sup>while they themselves also, with petition on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. <sup>15</sup>Thanks<sup>d</sup> be to God for his inexpressible gift.

10 Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you. <sup>2</sup>But I implore you that when I am present I may not have to be bold with the confidence with which I intend on showing against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. <sup>3</sup>For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh; <sup>4</sup>for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty in God for the tearing down of strongholds, <sup>5</sup>throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; <sup>6</sup>and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. <sup>7</sup>Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. <sup>8</sup>For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, <sup>9</sup>that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. <sup>10</sup>For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." <sup>11</sup>Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. <sup>12</sup>For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. <sup>13</sup>But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. <sup>14</sup>For we do not stretch ourselves too much, as though we did not reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, <sup>15</sup>not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, <sup>16</sup>so as to proclaim the Good News even to the regions beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. <sup>17</sup>But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>For it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

11 I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve<sup>a</sup> in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the sincerity and purity<sup>b</sup> that is in Christ. <sup>4</sup>For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different “good news”, which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. <sup>5</sup>For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. <sup>6</sup>Even though I am unskilled in speech, I am not unskilled in knowledge. But in every way we have made this known<sup>c</sup> to you in all things. <sup>7</sup>Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God’s Good News free of charge? <sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches, taking wages from them that I might serve you. <sup>9</sup>When I was present with you and was in need, I was not a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. <sup>10</sup>As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. <sup>12</sup>But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. <sup>13</sup>For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ’s apostles. <sup>14</sup>And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>16</sup>I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. <sup>17</sup>That which I speak, I do not speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. <sup>18</sup>Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. <sup>19</sup>For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. <sup>20</sup>For you put up with it if someone makes slaves of you, if someone exploits you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone exalts himself, if someone strikes you on the face. <sup>21</sup>I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup>Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. <sup>24</sup>Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. <sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods. I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. <sup>26</sup>I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; <sup>27</sup>in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

<sup>28</sup>Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the churches. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? <sup>30</sup>If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Jesus,<sup>a</sup> he who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. <sup>32</sup>In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes<sup>b</sup> to arrest me. <sup>33</sup>Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 It is necessary to boast<sup>c</sup>, though it is not profitable. But I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago

(whether in the body, I do not know, or whether out of the body, I do not know; God knows), such a one was caught up into the third heaven. <sup>3</sup>I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart<sup>d</sup> from the body, I do not know; God knows), <sup>4</sup>how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a human to utter. <sup>5</sup>On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup>For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no one may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. <sup>7</sup>And because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, therefore, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to pound away at me, to keep me from exalting myself. <sup>8</sup>Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me. <sup>9</sup>He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for<sup>e</sup> power is made perfect in weakness.” Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong.

<sup>11</sup>I have become foolish<sup>a</sup>. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup>Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. <sup>13</sup>For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the churches, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

<sup>14</sup>Look, for the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not what is yours, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup>I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? <sup>16</sup>But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. <sup>17</sup>Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? <sup>18</sup>I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Did not we walk in the same spirit? Did not we walk in the same steps? <sup>19</sup>Have you been thinking all this time<sup>b</sup> that we have been defending ourselves before you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ; and all things, beloved, are for your edifying. <sup>20</sup>For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you do not desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; <sup>21</sup>that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses will every word be established."<sup>c</sup> <sup>2</sup>I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent,<sup>d</sup> to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; <sup>3</sup>seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. <sup>4</sup>For indeed<sup>e</sup> he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. <sup>5</sup>Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. <sup>7</sup>Now we<sup>b</sup> pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. <sup>8</sup>For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>9</sup>For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. <sup>10</sup>For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup>Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>12</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. <sup>13</sup>All the saints greet you. <sup>14</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.<sup>c</sup>

Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle (not from humans, nor through humans, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead), <sup>2</sup>and all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia: <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the<sup>d</sup> Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup>who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father—<sup>5</sup>to whom be the glory forever and ever. I striving to please people? For if I were still pleasing people, I would not be a servant of Christ. <sup>11</sup>But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not of human origin. <sup>12</sup>For neither did I receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup>For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism,<sup>a</sup> how I severely persecuted the church of God, and tried to destroy it. <sup>14</sup>I advanced in Judaism<sup>b</sup> beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup>But when God,<sup>c</sup> who had set me apart from my mother's womb and called me through his grace, was pleased <sup>16</sup>to reveal his Son to me, that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup>nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. <sup>18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas<sup>d</sup>, and stayed with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>But of the other apostles I saw no one, except James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup>Now about the things which I write to you, look, before God, I'm not lying. <sup>21</sup>Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup>I was still unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ, <sup>23</sup>but they only heard: "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy." <sup>24</sup>And they glorified God because of me.

2 Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. <sup>2</sup>I went up by revelation, and I explained to them the Good News which I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. <sup>3</sup>But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; <sup>5</sup>to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. <sup>6</sup>But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God shows no favoritism between people)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, <sup>7</sup>but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision <sup>8</sup>(for he who appointed Peter to be an apostle of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles); <sup>9</sup>and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. <sup>10</sup>They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

<sup>11</sup>But when Cephas<sup>a</sup> came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. <sup>12</sup>For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of the Jewish believers joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. <sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they did not walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Cephas<sup>b</sup> before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, how can you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?”

<sup>15</sup>“We, being Jews by birth, and not Gentile sinners, <sup>16</sup>yet knowing that no one is justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. <sup>17</sup>But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not. <sup>18</sup>For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. <sup>19</sup>For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God. <sup>20</sup>I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. <sup>21</sup>I do not make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing.”

3 Foolish Galatians, who has cunningly deceived<sup>c</sup> you,<sup>d</sup> before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth<sup>e</sup> as crucified? <sup>2</sup>I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? <sup>4</sup>Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? <sup>5</sup>He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup>Even as

Abraham “believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”<sup>7</sup> Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham.<sup>8</sup> The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, “In you all the nations will be blessed.”<sup>9a</sup> So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.<sup>10</sup> For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>11</sup>Now it is evident that no one is justified by the law before God, for, “The righteous will live by faith.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>12</sup>The law is not of faith, but, “The one who does them will live by them.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,”<sup>e</sup> <sup>14</sup>that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.<sup>15</sup> Brothers, I am speaking in human terms. Though it is only a human covenant, once it has been ratified, no one annuls it or adds to it.<sup>16</sup> Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring.<sup>f</sup> He does not say, “And to offsprings,” as of many, but as of one, “And to your offspring,”<sup>g</sup> which is Christ.<sup>17</sup> Now I say this: the law which came four hundred thirty years later, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God,<sup>h</sup> so as to cancel the promise.<sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

<sup>19</sup>What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.<sup>20</sup> Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one.<sup>21</sup> Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not. For if there had been a law given which could give life, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law.<sup>22</sup> But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.<sup>23</sup> But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed.<sup>24</sup> So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.<sup>25</sup> But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.<sup>26</sup> For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. <sup>28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring and heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, though he is lord of all; <sup>2</sup>but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. <sup>3</sup>So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world. <sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law, <sup>5</sup>that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children. <sup>6</sup>And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into our<sup>a</sup> hearts, crying, "Abba, Father." <sup>7</sup>So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God<sup>b</sup>. <sup>8</sup>However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. <sup>9</sup>But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage

all over again? <sup>10</sup>You observe days, months, seasons, and years. <sup>11</sup>I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. <sup>12</sup>I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, <sup>13</sup>but you know that in physical weakness I preached the Good News to you the first time; <sup>14</sup>and though my condition was a trial to you, you did not despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Where was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. <sup>16</sup>So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? <sup>17</sup>They zealously seek you, but for no good purpose; they desire to alienate you, that you may be zealous for them. <sup>18</sup>But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>19</sup>My<sup>c</sup> children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you—<sup>20</sup>but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. <sup>21</sup>Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law? <sup>22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free woman. <sup>23</sup>However, the son by the handmaid was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise.

<sup>26</sup>But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.<sup>a</sup> <sup>27</sup>For it is written,

“Rejoice, you barren who do not bear.

Break forth and shout, you that do not travail.

For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>29</sup>But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now.

<sup>30</sup>However what does the Scripture say? “Throw out the handmaid and her son, for the son of the handmaid will not inherit with the son” of the free woman.<sup>d</sup> <sup>31</sup>So then, brothers, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the free woman.

5 Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which

Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. <sup>2</sup>Listen, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. <sup>4</sup>You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law.

You have fallen away from grace. <sup>5</sup>For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. <sup>7</sup>You were running well. Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion is not from him who calls you. <sup>9</sup>A little yeast grows through the whole lump. <sup>10</sup>I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

<sup>11</sup>But I, brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. <sup>12</sup>I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. <sup>13</sup>For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only do not use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. <sup>14</sup>For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: “You are to love your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you do not consume one another. <sup>16</sup>But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. <sup>18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are:<sup>b</sup> sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, <sup>21</sup>envyings, murders,<sup>c</sup> drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup>Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. <sup>25</sup>If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. <sup>26</sup>Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

6 Brothers, even if someone is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also are not tempted. <sup>2</sup>Bear one another’s burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup>For if anyone thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>4</sup>But let each one test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor. <sup>5</sup>For every person will bear his own load. <sup>6</sup>But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. <sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a person sows, that he will also reap. <sup>8</sup>For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap everlasting life. <sup>9</sup>Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we do not give up. <sup>10</sup>So then, as we have opportunity, let us do what is good toward all people, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

<sup>12</sup>As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>For even they who receive circumcision do not keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup>But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup>For neither<sup>a</sup> is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. <sup>16</sup>As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel. <sup>17</sup>From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of<sup>b</sup> Jesus branded on my body.

<sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints in Ephesus<sup>c</sup> who are faithful in Christ Jesus: <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ; <sup>4</sup>even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before him in love; <sup>5</sup>having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of his grace,<sup>d</sup> which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved One, <sup>7</sup>in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>8</sup>which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, <sup>9</sup>making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him <sup>10</sup>to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; <sup>11</sup>in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him<sup>e</sup> who works all things after the counsel of his will; <sup>12</sup>to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: <sup>13</sup>in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup>who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. <sup>15</sup>For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, <sup>16</sup>do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,<sup>17</sup> that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him;<sup>18</sup> having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,<sup>19</sup> and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might<sup>20</sup> which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places,<sup>21</sup> far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come.<sup>22</sup> He put<sup>a</sup> all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the church,<sup>23</sup> which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

2 You were made alive when you were dead in your<sup>b</sup> transgressions and sins,<sup>2</sup> in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience;<sup>3</sup> among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest.<sup>4</sup> But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us,<sup>5</sup> even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ<sup>c</sup> (by grace you have been saved),<sup>6</sup> and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,<sup>7</sup> that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus;<sup>8</sup> for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God,<sup>9</sup> not of works, that no one would boast.<sup>10</sup> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “uncircumcision” by that which is called “circumcision,” (in the flesh, made by hands);<sup>12</sup> that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world.<sup>13</sup> But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.<sup>14</sup> For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of

3 For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, <sup>2</sup>if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; <sup>3</sup>how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, <sup>4</sup>by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; <sup>5</sup>which in other generations

was not made known to people,<sup>c</sup> as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the<sup>d</sup> promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News, <sup>7</sup>of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. <sup>8</sup>To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to proclaim to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup>and to bring to light for all what is the administration<sup>e</sup> of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things<sup>f</sup>; <sup>10</sup>to the intent that now through the church the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places, <sup>11</sup>according to the purpose of the ages which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him. <sup>13</sup>Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

Amen.

4 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, <sup>2</sup>with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; <sup>3</sup>being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; <sup>5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in<sup>a</sup> all. <sup>7</sup>But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and<sup>b</sup> gave gifts to people."<sup>c</sup> <sup>9</sup>Now this, "He ascended," what is it but that he also<sup>d</sup> descended into the lower parts of the earth? <sup>10</sup>He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

<sup>11</sup>He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; <sup>12</sup>for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ; <sup>13</sup>until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature person, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; <sup>14</sup>that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of people, by cleverness in deceitful schemes; <sup>15</sup>but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ; <sup>16</sup>from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

<sup>17</sup>This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, <sup>18</sup>being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; <sup>19</sup>who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. <sup>20</sup>But you did not learn Christ that way; <sup>21</sup>if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: <sup>22</sup>that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old self, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; <sup>23</sup>and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, <sup>24</sup>and put on the new self, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. <sup>26</sup>“Be angry, but do not sin.”<sup>a</sup> Do not let the sun go down on your anger, <sup>27</sup>neither give place to the devil. <sup>28</sup>Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. <sup>29</sup>Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. <sup>30</sup>Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup>Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry,<sup>b</sup> and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. <sup>32</sup>And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you<sup>c</sup>.

5 Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. <sup>2</sup>And walk in love, even as Christ also loved us,<sup>d</sup> and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. <sup>3</sup>But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; <sup>4</sup>nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

<sup>5</sup>Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral or impure or greedy person, that is, an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

<sup>6</sup>Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Therefore do not be partakers with them. <sup>8</sup>For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, <sup>9</sup>for the fruit of the light<sup>a</sup> is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, <sup>10</sup>proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. <sup>12</sup>For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. <sup>13</sup>But all things, when they are reprov'd, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

<sup>22</sup>Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>For the husband is the head of the wife, and Christ also is the head of the church, being himself the savior of the body. <sup>24</sup>But as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; <sup>26</sup>that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, <sup>27</sup>that he might present the church to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. <sup>28</sup>Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>For no one ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ<sup>c</sup> also does the church; <sup>30</sup>because we are members of his body, of his flesh and of his bones.<sup>d</sup> <sup>31</sup><sup>e</sup>"For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."<sup>e</sup>

Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus,<sup>b</sup> To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons: <sup>2</sup>Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>3</sup>I thank my God whenever I remember you, <sup>4</sup>always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, <sup>5</sup>for your partnership<sup>c</sup> in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; <sup>6</sup>being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup>It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. <sup>8</sup>For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; <sup>10</sup>so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ; <sup>11</sup>being filled with the fruit<sup>d</sup> of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup>Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; <sup>13</sup>so that it became evident to the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ; <sup>14</sup>and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word<sup>a</sup> without fear. <sup>15</sup>Some indeed proclaim Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. <sup>17</sup>The former insincerely proclaim Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains.

<sup>18</sup>What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether out of false motives or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. <sup>19</sup>For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your petition and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. <sup>21</sup>For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup>But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I do not make known what I will choose. <sup>23</sup>But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. <sup>24</sup>Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. <sup>25</sup>Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup>that your rejoicing may abound in Christ

Jesus in me through my presence with you again.

<sup>27</sup>Only let your manner of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; <sup>28</sup>and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. <sup>29</sup>Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, <sup>30</sup>having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, <sup>2</sup>make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; <sup>3</sup>doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; <sup>4</sup>each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

<sup>5</sup>Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, <sup>7</sup>but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. <sup>8</sup>And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross. <sup>9</sup>Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name; <sup>10</sup>that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, <sup>11</sup>and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord<sup>a</sup>, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup>So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup>For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. <sup>14</sup>Do all things without murmurings and disputes, <sup>15</sup>that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, <sup>16</sup>holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. <sup>17</sup>Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup>In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

<sup>19</sup>But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. <sup>20</sup>For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. <sup>21</sup>For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. <sup>23</sup>Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. <sup>24</sup>But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. <sup>25</sup>But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need; <sup>26</sup>since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup>For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup>I have sent him all the more eagerly, therefore, so that when you see him again you may rejoice, and that I may be less anxious. <sup>29</sup>Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, <sup>30</sup>because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking<sup>b</sup> his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe.

<sup>2</sup>Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. <sup>3</sup>For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; <sup>4</sup>though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: <sup>5</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup>concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

<sup>7</sup>However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. <sup>8</sup>More than that, I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; <sup>10</sup>that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; <sup>11</sup>if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. <sup>12</sup>Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Brothers, I do not regard myself as having taken hold of it, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and reaching forward to the things which are ahead, <sup>14</sup>I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. <sup>16</sup>Nevertheless, to what we have attained, let us walk by the same rule, being of the same mind.<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. <sup>18</sup>For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ, <sup>19</sup>whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. <sup>20</sup>For our citizenship is in heaven, from

I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. <sup>19</sup>My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. ## Colossians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup>to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>3</sup>We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>4</sup>having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints, <sup>5</sup>because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, <sup>6</sup>which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; <sup>7</sup>even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our<sup>d</sup> behalf, <sup>8</sup>who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. <sup>9</sup>For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, do not cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, <sup>10</sup>that you may walk worthily of the Lord,<sup>e</sup> to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; <sup>11</sup>strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; <sup>12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, who made you<sup>f</sup> fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light; <sup>13</sup>who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of his love; <sup>14</sup>in whom we have our redemption,<sup>g</sup> the forgiveness of our sins; <sup>15</sup>who is the image of the invisible God, preminent<sup>h</sup> over all creation. <sup>16</sup>For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers;

all things have been created by him and for<sup>a</sup> him. <sup>17</sup>He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. <sup>18</sup>He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,<sup>b</sup> that in all things he might have the preeminence. <sup>19</sup>For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him, <sup>20</sup>and through him to reconcile all things to himself, making peace through the blood of his cross through him,<sup>c</sup> whether things on the earth or things in heaven.

<sup>21</sup>You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, <sup>22</sup>yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him, <sup>23</sup>if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed<sup>d</sup> in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

<sup>24</sup>Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church; <sup>25</sup>of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, <sup>26</sup>the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. <sup>4</sup>Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. <sup>5</sup>For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. <sup>6</sup>As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him, <sup>7</sup>rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it<sup>a</sup> with thanksgiving. <sup>8</sup>Be careful not to allow anyone to captivate you through an empty and deceptive philosophy, according to human tradition, according to the elementary principles of the world, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, <sup>10</sup>and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; <sup>11</sup>in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of<sup>b</sup> the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; <sup>12</sup>having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. <sup>13</sup>You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, <sup>14</sup>wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; <sup>15</sup>having disarmed the rulers and authorities, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore do not let anyone judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, <sup>17</sup>which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. <sup>18</sup>Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has<sup>c</sup> seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>19</sup>and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. <sup>20</sup>If you died with Christ from the elementary principles of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to regulations, <sup>21</sup>"Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch"<sup>22</sup>(all of which perish with use), according to human commandments and teachings? <sup>23</sup>Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then you were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God. <sup>2</sup>Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth. <sup>3</sup>For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>When Christ, your<sup>a</sup> life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory. <sup>5</sup>Put to death, therefore, whatever is worldly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. <sup>6</sup>Because of these, the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>You also once walked in those, when you lived in them; <sup>8</sup>but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. <sup>9</sup>Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self with its practices, <sup>10</sup>and have put on the new self, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his Creator, <sup>11</sup>where there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all.

1 Thessalonians

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace<sup>c</sup>.

<sup>2</sup>We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup>remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father. <sup>4</sup>We know, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen, <sup>5</sup>and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of persons we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup>You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup>so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. <sup>8</sup>For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we do not need to say anything. <sup>9</sup>For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, <sup>10</sup>and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you was not in vain, <sup>2</sup>but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. <sup>3</sup>For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. <sup>4</sup>But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing people, but God, who tests our hearts. <sup>5</sup>For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), <sup>6</sup>nor seeking glory from people (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. <sup>7</sup>But we were like little children<sup>a</sup> among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

<sup>8</sup>Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. <sup>9</sup>For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. <sup>10</sup>You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. <sup>11</sup>As you know, as a father with his own children, <sup>12</sup>we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you to lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. <sup>13</sup>For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as a human word, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. <sup>14</sup>For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews; <sup>15</sup>who killed both the Lord Jesus and the<sup>b</sup> prophets, and drove us out, and did not please God, and are hostile to all people; <sup>16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

<sup>17</sup>But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, <sup>18</sup>because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup>For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you, before our Lord Jesus<sup>c</sup> at his coming? <sup>20</sup>For you are our glory and our joy.

3 Therefore, when we could not stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, <sup>2</sup>and sent Timothy, our brother and God's fellow worker<sup>d</sup> in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; <sup>3</sup>that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. <sup>4</sup>For truly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. <sup>5</sup>For this cause I also, when

I could not stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. <sup>6</sup>But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; <sup>7</sup>for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. <sup>8</sup>For now we live, since you stand firm<sup>a</sup> in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; <sup>10</sup>night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? <sup>11</sup>Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus,<sup>b</sup> direct our way to you; <sup>12</sup>and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love for one another and for all, even as we also do toward you, <sup>13</sup>to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4 Finally then, brothers, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to live and to please God, even as you are living<sup>c</sup>, that you excel more and more. <sup>2</sup>For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup>For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, <sup>4</sup>that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor, <sup>5</sup>not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who do not know God; <sup>6</sup>that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. <sup>7</sup>For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>8</sup>Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>9</sup>But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, <sup>10</sup>for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; <sup>11</sup>and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; <sup>12</sup>that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

<sup>13</sup>But we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you do not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. <sup>15</sup>For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. <sup>16</sup>For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first, <sup>17</sup>then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together<sup>a</sup> with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. <sup>18</sup>Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. <sup>4</sup>But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. <sup>5</sup>You are all children of light, and children of the day. We do not belong to the night, nor to darkness, <sup>6</sup>so then let us not sleep, as the rest do, but let us watch and be sober. <sup>7</sup>For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. <sup>8</sup>But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup>For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. <sup>11</sup>Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. <sup>12</sup>But we ask you, brothers, to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, <sup>13</sup>and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace among yourselves. <sup>14</sup>We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. <sup>15</sup>See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; <sup>4</sup>so that we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. <sup>5</sup>This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer. <sup>6</sup>Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, <sup>7</sup>and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, <sup>8</sup>giving vengeance to those who do not know God, and to those who do not obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus, <sup>9</sup>who will pay the penalty: everlasting destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, <sup>10</sup>when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.

<sup>11</sup>To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; <sup>12</sup>that the name of our Lord Jesus<sup>a</sup> may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to him, we ask you <sup>2</sup>not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of the Lord<sup>b</sup> had come. <sup>3</sup>Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the man of lawlessness<sup>c</sup> is revealed, the son of destruction, <sup>4</sup>he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits<sup>d</sup> in the temple of God, setting himself up as God. <sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? <sup>6</sup>Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. <sup>7</sup>For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup>Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus<sup>e</sup> will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; <sup>9</sup>even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup>and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup>And because of this, God sends them a strong delusion,<sup>f</sup> that they should believe the lie, <sup>12</sup>in order that all might be judged who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. <sup>13</sup>But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning<sup>g</sup> for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; <sup>14</sup>to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

<sup>16</sup>Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us everlasting comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup>comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; <sup>2</sup>and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil people; for not all have faith. <sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. <sup>4</sup>We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. <sup>5</sup>May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we did not behave ourselves rebelliously among you, <sup>8</sup>neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; <sup>9</sup>not because we do not have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. <sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let him eat." <sup>11</sup>For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who do not work at all, but are busybodies. <sup>12</sup>Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the<sup>a</sup> Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

<sup>13</sup>But you, brothers, do not be weary in doing well. <sup>14</sup>If anyone does not obey our word in this letter, note that person, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. <sup>15</sup>Do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

our hope; <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the<sup>a</sup> Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain people not to teach a different doctrine, <sup>4</sup>neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause speculation,<sup>b</sup> rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith—<sup>5</sup>but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith; <sup>6</sup>from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; <sup>7</sup>desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. <sup>8</sup>But we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, <sup>9</sup>as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their father or mother, for murderers, <sup>10</sup>for the sexually immoral, for men who have sexual relations with men,<sup>c</sup> for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; <sup>11</sup>according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. <sup>12</sup>And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; <sup>13</sup>although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. <sup>14</sup>The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. <sup>16</sup>However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for everlasting life. <sup>17</sup>Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God<sup>d</sup>, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>This instruction I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; <sup>19</sup>holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; <sup>20</sup>of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings, be made for all people: <sup>2</sup>for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. <sup>3</sup>For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; <sup>4</sup>who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup>For there is one God, and one mediator between God and humanity, a human, Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; <sup>7</sup>to which I was appointed a proclaimer and an apostle (I am telling the truth<sup>a</sup>, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup>I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. <sup>9</sup>In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; <sup>10</sup>but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. <sup>11</sup>Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. <sup>12</sup>But I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. <sup>13</sup>For Adam was first formed, then Eve<sup>b</sup>. <sup>14</sup>Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; <sup>15</sup>but she will be delivered<sup>c</sup> through the childbirth, if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with good judgment.

3 This is a faithful saying: If someone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a good work. <sup>2</sup>The overseer, therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; <sup>3</sup>not a drunkard, not violent,<sup>d</sup> but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money; <sup>4</sup>one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; <sup>5</sup>(but if someone does not know how to manage his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?) <sup>6</sup>not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. <sup>7</sup>Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

<sup>8</sup>Deacons, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not devoted to a lot of wine, not greedy for money; <sup>9</sup>holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. <sup>10</sup>Let them also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, if they are blameless. <sup>11</sup>Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. <sup>12</sup>Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. <sup>13</sup>For those who have served well as deacons gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; <sup>15</sup>but if I wait long, that you may know how people ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>16</sup>Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:

He<sup>a</sup> was revealed in the flesh,
justified by the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
and received up in glory.

4 But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, <sup>2</sup>through the hypocrisy of liars, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; <sup>3</sup>forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>4</sup>For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup>For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. <sup>6</sup>If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. <sup>7</sup>But refuse profane and old wives' tales. Exercise yourself toward godliness. <sup>8</sup>For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. <sup>9</sup>This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. <sup>10</sup>For to this end we both labor and strive,<sup>b</sup> because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. <sup>11</sup>Command and teach these things.

<sup>12</sup>Let no one despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love,<sup>c</sup> in faith, and in purity. <sup>13</sup>Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. <sup>14</sup>Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. <sup>15</sup>Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. <sup>16</sup>Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; <sup>2</sup>the older women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. <sup>3</sup>Honor widows who are widows indeed. <sup>4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is<sup>a</sup> acceptable in the sight of God. <sup>5</sup>Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. <sup>7</sup>Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. <sup>8</sup>But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. <sup>9</sup>Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, <sup>10</sup>being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

Christ, they desire to marry; <sup>12</sup>having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. <sup>13</sup>Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. <sup>14</sup>I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for reviling. <sup>15</sup>For already some have turned aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup>If any believing man or<sup>b</sup> believing woman has widows, let them assist them, and do not let the church be burdened; that it might help those widows who are truly in need.

<sup>17</sup>Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. <sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain."<sup>c</sup> And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Do not receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>Those who sin,

reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. <sup>21</sup>I command you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. <sup>22</sup>Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. <sup>23</sup>Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

<sup>24</sup>Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. <sup>25</sup>In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

6 Let as many as are slaves under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. <sup>2</sup>Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and does not consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>For we brought nothing into the world, so<sup>b</sup> neither can we carry anything out. <sup>8</sup>But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. <sup>9</sup>But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as plunge people into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

<sup>11</sup>But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith. ## 2 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus<sup>e</sup> through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. <sup>6</sup>For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power and love and of a sound mind. <sup>8</sup>Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, <sup>9</sup>who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began, <sup>10</sup>but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. <sup>11</sup>For this, I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher<sup>a</sup>. <sup>12</sup>For this cause I also suffer these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

<sup>13</sup>Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>15</sup>This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup>May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, <sup>17</sup>but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me <sup>18</sup>(the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful people, who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup>You therefore must share in hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup>No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. <sup>5</sup>Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he has competed by the rules. <sup>6</sup>The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. <sup>7</sup>Consider what I say, for the Lord will give<sup>b</sup> you understanding in all things.

<sup>8</sup>Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, a descendant of David, according to my Good News, <sup>9</sup>in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word is not chained. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with everlasting glory. <sup>11</sup>This saying is faithful:

“For if we died with him,
we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup>If we endure,

<sup>b</sup>2:7 M TR read “and may the Lord give” instead of “for the Lord will give”

we will also reign with him.
If we deny him,
he also will deny us.
<sup>13</sup>If we are faithless,
he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.”

<sup>14</sup>Remind them of these things, charging them in the presence of God,<sup>a</sup> not to wrangle about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

<sup>15</sup>Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the word of truth. <sup>16</sup>But shun empty chatter, for they will proceed further in ungodliness, <sup>17</sup>and their word will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; <sup>18</sup>who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. <sup>19</sup>However God’s firm foundation stands, having this seal, “The Lord knows those who are his,”<sup>b</sup> and, “Let every one who names the name of the Lord<sup>c</sup> depart from unrighteousness.” <sup>20</sup>Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. <sup>21</sup>If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master’s use, prepared for every good work.

<sup>22</sup>Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. <sup>23</sup>But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. <sup>24</sup>The Lord’s servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, <sup>25</sup>in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, <sup>26</sup>and they may recover themselves out of the devil’s snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

3 But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. <sup>2</sup>For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3</sup>unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, hateful of good, <sup>4</sup>traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; <sup>5</sup>holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof. Turn away from these, also. <sup>6</sup>For among them are those who creep into households and take captive weak-willed women weighed down with sins, led away by various passions and pleasures,<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>8</sup>Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; people corrupted in mind, disapproved concerning the faith. <sup>9</sup>But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all, as theirs also was. <sup>10</sup>But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, <sup>11</sup>persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. Out of them all the Lord delivered me. <sup>12</sup>Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. <sup>13</sup>But evil people and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. <sup>14</sup>But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. <sup>15</sup>From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup>that the person of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; <sup>8</sup>but given to hospitality, as a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; <sup>9</sup>holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. <sup>10</sup>For there are also many rebellious people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>11</sup>whose mouths must be silenced; who are upsetting whole families, teaching things which they should not, for the sake of dishonest gain. <sup>12</sup>One of them, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons.” <sup>13</sup>This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of people who reject the truth. <sup>15</sup>To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. <sup>16</sup>They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2 But say the things which fit sound doctrine, <sup>2</sup>that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience: <sup>3</sup>and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; <sup>4</sup>that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>5</sup>to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God’s word may not be blasphemed. <sup>6</sup>Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded; <sup>7</sup>in all things showing yourself an example of good works. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness, <sup>a</sup><sup>8</sup>and a sound message that cannot be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us<sup>b</sup>. <sup>9</sup>Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; <sup>10</sup>not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. <sup>11</sup>For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people, <sup>12</sup>instructing us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly desires, and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present age; <sup>13</sup>looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; <sup>14</sup>who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. <sup>15</sup>Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

3 Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing courtesy to all people. <sup>3</sup>For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. <sup>4</sup>But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, <sup>5</sup>not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of rebirth and renewing by the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; <sup>7</sup>that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of everlasting life. <sup>8</sup>This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable for people; <sup>9</sup>but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>10</sup>Reject a divisive person after a first and second warning; <sup>11</sup>knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

serve for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, so that we will not drift away. <sup>2</sup>For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; <sup>3</sup>how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; <sup>4</sup>God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will? <sup>5</sup>For he did not subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. <sup>6</sup>But one has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you think of him?

For in that he put all things under him, he left nothing that is not under him.<sup>d</sup> But now we do not yet see that all things are under him. <sup>9</sup>But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. <sup>10</sup>For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. <sup>11</sup>For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, <sup>12</sup>saying, “I will declare your name to my brothers.

Abraham. <sup>17</sup>Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement<sup>a</sup> for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup>For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus; <sup>2</sup>who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in all<sup>b</sup> his house. <sup>3</sup>For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who built the house has more honor than the house. <sup>4</sup>For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. <sup>5</sup>Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, <sup>6</sup>but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope.<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, “Today if you will hear his voice,

like as in the day of the trial<sup>e</sup>
in the wilderness,

<sup>11</sup>as I swore in my wrath,

<sup>12</sup>Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; <sup>13</sup>but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called “today;” lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup>For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: <sup>15</sup>while it is said, “Today if you will hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts, as

<sup>h</sup>3:15 Psalm 95:7-8

<sup>17</sup>With whom was he displeased forty years? Was not it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup>To whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? <sup>19</sup>We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. <sup>2</sup>For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard did not profit them, because they<sup>a</sup> were not united by faith with those who heard. <sup>3</sup>For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, “As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;”<sup>b</sup> although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup>For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, “God rested on the seventh day from all his works;”<sup>c</sup> <sup>5</sup>and in this place again, “They will not enter into my rest.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, <sup>7</sup>he again appoints a certain day, “Today,”

saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said),

“Today if you will hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>8</sup>For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day.

<sup>9</sup>There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

<sup>10</sup>For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his.

<sup>11</sup>Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. <sup>12</sup>For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

<sup>13</sup>There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. <sup>14</sup>Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted<sup>f</sup> like we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for people in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup>The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. <sup>3</sup>Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. <sup>4</sup>Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was. <sup>5</sup>So also Christ did not glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>As he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever,
after the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>7</sup>In the days of his flesh, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. <sup>8</sup>Although he was a Son, he learned obedience by the things which he suffered. <sup>9</sup>Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of everlasting salvation, <sup>10</sup>named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. <sup>11</sup>About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. <sup>12</sup>For when by reason of the time you ought to be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. <sup>13</sup>For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. <sup>14</sup>But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, <sup>2</sup>of the teaching of washings, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of everlasting judgment. <sup>3</sup>And this we will do if God permits. <sup>4</sup>For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup>and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, <sup>6</sup>and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. <sup>7</sup>For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; <sup>8</sup>but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

<sup>9</sup>But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. <sup>10</sup>For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the<sup>a</sup> love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them. <sup>11</sup>We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, <sup>12</sup>that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. <sup>13</sup>For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself, <sup>14</sup>saying, "Surely in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply you."<sup>b</sup> <sup>15</sup>Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup>For people<sup>c</sup> swear oaths by something greater, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. <sup>17</sup>In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; <sup>18</sup>that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. <sup>19</sup>This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; <sup>20</sup>where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup>to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace; <sup>3</sup>without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. <sup>4</sup>Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best spoils. <sup>5</sup>They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, <sup>6</sup>but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. <sup>7</sup>But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup>Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. <sup>9</sup>We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, <sup>10</sup>for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. <sup>11</sup>Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. <sup>13</sup>For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. <sup>14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, <sup>16</sup>who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: <sup>17</sup>for it is testified,<sup>b</sup>

according to the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>18</sup>For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness <sup>19</sup>(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. <sup>20</sup>Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath, <sup>21</sup>for they indeed have been made priests without an oath, but he with an oath by him that says of him,

“The Lord swore and will not change his mind,
‘You are a priest forever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.’<sup>d,e</sup>”

<sup>22</sup>Accordingly Jesus has become the guarantor of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup>Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. <sup>24</sup>But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. <sup>25</sup>Therefore he is also able to save completely those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup>For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

<sup>27</sup>who does not need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. <sup>28</sup>For the Law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the Law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

8 Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this.

We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup>a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord set up, and not man. <sup>3</sup>For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. <sup>4</sup>Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the Law; <sup>5</sup>who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, “See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as Law. <sup>7</sup>For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. <sup>8</sup>For finding fault with them, he said,

“Look, the days are coming,” says the Lord,
 “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

<sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; for they did not continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them,” says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>“For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. After those days,” says the Lord;

“I will put my laws into their mind,
 I will also write them on their heart.
 I will be their God,
 and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup>They will not teach each one his fellow citizen,<sup>b</sup>
 and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’

 and I will remember their sins<sup>a</sup> no more.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>13</sup>In that he says, “new,” he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

9 Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. <sup>2</sup>For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lampstand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place. <sup>3</sup>After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, <sup>4</sup>having a golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a gold jar containing the manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; <sup>5</sup>and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we cannot speak now in detail. <sup>6</sup>Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, performing their duties. <sup>7</sup>But into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance. <sup>8</sup>The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place was not yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; <sup>9</sup>which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect, <sup>10</sup>but deal only with foods and drinks and various washings; they are regulations for the flesh imposed until the time of setting things right.

<sup>11</sup>But Christ having come as a high priest of the good things that have come, <sup>c</sup>through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, <sup>12</sup>nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained everlasting redemption. <sup>13</sup>For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: <sup>14</sup>how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse our <sup>d</sup>conscience from dead works to serve the living God? <sup>15</sup>For this reason he is the mediator of a New Covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance. <sup>16</sup>For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. <sup>17</sup>For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. <sup>18</sup>Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. <sup>19</sup>For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats,<sup>a</sup> with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, “This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in like manner with the blood. <sup>22</sup>According to the Law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. <sup>23</sup>It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. <sup>24</sup>For Christ hasn’t entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; <sup>25</sup>nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, <sup>26</sup>or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. <sup>27</sup>Inasmuch as it is appointed for people to die once, and after this, judgment, <sup>28</sup>so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many,<sup>c</sup> will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

10 For the Law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, <sup>d</sup>can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. <sup>2</sup>Or else would not they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed<sup>e</sup>, would have had no more consciousness of sins? <sup>3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is yearly reminder of sins. <sup>4</sup>For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. <sup>5</sup>Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, “Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,

<sup>8</sup>Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin-offerings you did not desire, nor took pleasure in" (which are offered according to the Law), <sup>9</sup>then he said, "Look, I have come to do your will."<sup>b</sup> He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, <sup>10</sup>by which will we have been sanctified<sup>c</sup> through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. <sup>11</sup>Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, <sup>12</sup>but this one<sup>d</sup>, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; <sup>13</sup>from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. <sup>14</sup>For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. <sup>15</sup>The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, <sup>16</sup>"This is the covenant that I will make with them:

'After those days,' says the Lord,

'I will put my laws on their hearts, I will also write them on their minds.'"<sup>e</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. <sup>19</sup>Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; <sup>21</sup>and having a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, <sup>23</sup>let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

11 Now faith is being confident of what we hope for, convinced about things we do not see. <sup>2</sup>For by this, the people of old were attested. <sup>3</sup>By faith, we understand that the ages<sup>a</sup> were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. <sup>4</sup>By faith, Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain,<sup>b</sup> through which he was attested as righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and though he died he still speaks through it. <sup>5</sup>By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he would not see death, “and he was not found, because God took him away.”<sup>c</sup> For before he was taken he was attested as having pleased God. <sup>6</sup>Now without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. <sup>7</sup>By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, in reverence prepared a ship for the salvation of his household,<sup>d</sup> through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. <sup>8</sup>By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to a<sup>e</sup> place which he was to receive for an inheritance.<sup>f</sup> He went out, not knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup>By faith, he sojourned in a land of promise, as a foreigner, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup>For he looked for the city which has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. <sup>11</sup>By faith, even barren<sup>g</sup> Sarah herself received power to conceive when she was past age, and gave birth, since she considered him faithful who had promised. <sup>12</sup>Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. <sup>13</sup>These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them<sup>h</sup> and embraced them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and temporary residents on the earth. <sup>14</sup>For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. <sup>15</sup>If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. <sup>16</sup>But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed

Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. <sup>20</sup>By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones.<sup>e</sup> <sup>23</sup>By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king’s commandment.<sup>f</sup> <sup>24</sup>By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter,<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>choosing rather to share ill treatment with God’s people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time;<sup>26</sup> considering the reproach of the Messiah<sup>h</sup> greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. <sup>27</sup>By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the anger of the king; for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.<sup>i</sup> <sup>28</sup>By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them.<sup>j</sup> <sup>29</sup>By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up.<sup>k</sup> <sup>30</sup>By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days.<sup>l</sup> <sup>31</sup>By faith, Rahab the prostitute, did not perish with those who were disobedient,<sup>m</sup> having received the spies in peace.<sup>n</sup> <sup>32</sup>And what more should I say? 12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup>looking to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup>For consider him who has endured such hostility from sinners against himself, so that you do not grow weary in your souls and lose heart. <sup>4</sup>You have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood in your struggle against sin; <sup>5</sup>and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children, "My son, do not take lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor lose heart when you are corrected by him. <sup>6</sup>For whom the Lord loves he disciplines, and punishes every son he corrects."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>7</sup>If you are enduring discipline, God is dealing with you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? <sup>8</sup>But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then you are illegitimate, and not sons. <sup>9</sup>Furthermore, we had earthly fathers who disciplined us, and we paid them respect. Should we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? <sup>10</sup>For they indeed, for a few days, disciplined us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness.

<sup>11</sup>All discipline seems for the moment painful, not joyful; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,<sup>a</sup>

<sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet,<sup>b</sup> so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. <sup>14</sup>Pursue peace with everyone, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord,

<sup>15</sup>looking carefully lest there be anyone who falls short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by it many become defiled;

<sup>16</sup>that there be no sexually immoral or profane person like Esau, who sold his own<sup>c</sup> birthright for one meal. <sup>17</sup>For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears. <sup>18</sup>For you have not come to something<sup>d</sup> that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and darkness, gloom, and storm,

<sup>19</sup>the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them,<sup>20</sup>for they could not stand that which was commanded, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned<sup>e</sup>,”<sup>f</sup> <sup>21</sup>and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.”

<sup>22</sup>But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels,<sup>23</sup> to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of righteous people made perfect,<sup>24</sup> to Jesus, the mediator of a New Covenant,<sup>g</sup> and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.

<sup>25</sup>See that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven,<sup>26</sup> whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake<sup>h</sup> not only the earth, but also the heavens.”<sup>i</sup> <sup>27</sup>This phrase, “Yet once more,” signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things

13 Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup>Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup>Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. <sup>4</sup>Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: for<sup>c</sup> God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

<sup>5</sup>Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you."<sup>d</sup>

James

1 James,<sup>f</sup> a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Diaspora: Greetings. <sup>2</sup>Count it all joy, my brothers, when you encounter various trials, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. <sup>4</sup>Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. <sup>5</sup>But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to him. <sup>6</sup>But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. <sup>7</sup>For let that person not think that he will receive anything from the Lord. <sup>8</sup>He is a double-minded person, unstable in all his ways.

<sup>9</sup>But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; <sup>10</sup>and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. <sup>11</sup>For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will

<sup>f</sup>1:1 Or “Jacob”. Gk “Iakobos”

the rich person fade away in his pursuits.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he<sup>a</sup> promised to those who love him.

<sup>13</sup>Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.

<sup>14</sup>But each one is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. <sup>15</sup>Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death. <sup>16</sup>Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. <sup>17</sup>All generous giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. <sup>18</sup>Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

<sup>19</sup>This you know<sup>b</sup>, my beloved brothers. But let every person be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; <sup>20</sup>for human anger does not accomplish<sup>c</sup> the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls<sup>d</sup>. <sup>22</sup>But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. <sup>23</sup>For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like someone looking at his natural face in a mirror; <sup>24</sup>for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of person he was. <sup>25</sup>But he who looks into the perfect Law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this person will be blessed in what he does.

<sup>26</sup>If anyone<sup>e</sup> thinks himself to be religious while he does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. <sup>27</sup>Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2 My brothers, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with partiality. <sup>2</sup>For if someone with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor person in filthy clothing also comes in; <sup>3</sup>and you pay special attention to the one who wears the fine clothing, and say<sup>f</sup>, "Sit here in a good place;" but you tell the poor person, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool;”<sup>4</sup> haven’t you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?<sup>5</sup> Listen, my beloved brothers. Did not God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to those who love him? <sup>6</sup>But you have dishonored the poor person. Do not the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? <sup>7</sup>Do not they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? <sup>8</sup>However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, “You are to love your neighbor as yourself,”<sup>a</sup> you do well. <sup>9</sup>But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup>For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. <sup>11</sup>For he who said, “Do not commit adultery,”<sup>b</sup> also said, “Do not commit murder.”<sup>c</sup> Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup>So speak, and so do, as those who are to be judged by a law of freedom. <sup>13</sup>For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

<sup>14</sup>What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? <sup>15</sup>And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, <sup>16</sup>and one of you tells them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled;” and yet you did not give them the things the body needs, what good is it? <sup>17</sup>Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. <sup>18</sup>But someone will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

<sup>19</sup>You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. <sup>20</sup>But do you want to know, foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless?<sup>d</sup> <sup>21</sup>Wasn’t Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>22</sup>You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; <sup>23</sup>and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness;”<sup>e</sup> and he was called the friend of God.<sup>f</sup> <sup>24</sup>You see<sup>g</sup> that a person is justified<sup>h</sup> by works and not by faith alone. <sup>25</sup>In like manner was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? <sup>26</sup>For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3 Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. <sup>2</sup>For in many things we all stumble. If anyone does not stumble in word, this one is a perfect person, able to bridle the whole body also. <sup>3</sup>Now if<sup>a</sup> we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, we guide their whole body. <sup>4</sup>And look at the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. <sup>5</sup>So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest. <sup>6</sup>And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by hell.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>For all kinds of animals, and birds, of reptiles and sea creatures, are being tamed and have been tamed by humankind. <sup>8</sup>But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless<sup>c</sup> evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>With it we bless our Lord<sup>d</sup> and Father, and with it we curse people, who are made in the image of God. <sup>10</sup>Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. <sup>11</sup>Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? <sup>12</sup>Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Nor is salt water able to produce sweet<sup>e</sup>.

<sup>13</sup>Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. <sup>14</sup>But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and do not lie against the truth. <sup>15</sup>This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. <sup>16</sup>For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. <sup>17</sup>But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality,<sup>f</sup> without hypocrisy. <sup>18</sup>Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4 Where do conflicts and quarrels among you come from? Do they not come from your passions that war in your members? <sup>2</sup>You lust, and do not have. You kill, covet, and cannot obtain. You fight and make war. You do not have, because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup>You ask, and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. <sup>4</sup>You adulterers and adulteresses,<sup>a</sup> do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, “The Spirit which he made to dwell<sup>b</sup> in us yearns jealously?” <sup>6</sup>But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. <sup>9</sup>Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. <sup>10</sup>Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of hosts<sup>a</sup>. <sup>5</sup>You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts<sup>b</sup> in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He does not resist you.

<sup>7</sup>Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Look, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. <sup>8</sup>You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near.

not swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no," so that you do not fall under judgment.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. <sup>14</sup>Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, <sup>15</sup>and the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. <sup>16</sup>Therefore<sup>g</sup> confess your sins<sup>h</sup> to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous person is powerfully effective. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a human being with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. <sup>18</sup>He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

<sup>19</sup>My<sup>i</sup> brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup>let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his<sup>j</sup> soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

1Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. <sup>3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy became our father again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup>to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that does not fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, <sup>5</sup>who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup>Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, <sup>7</sup>that the genuineness of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ—<sup>8</sup>whom not having seen<sup>a</sup> you love; in whom, though now you do not see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy inexpressible and full of glory—<sup>9</sup>receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. <sup>10</sup>Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, <sup>11</sup>searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them. <sup>12</sup>To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, prepare your minds for action,<sup>b</sup> be sober and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup>As obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires as in your ignorance, <sup>15</sup>but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; <sup>16</sup>because it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.”<sup>c</sup> <sup>17</sup>If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man’s work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: <sup>18</sup>knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers,<sup>19</sup> but with precious blood, as of a faultless and pure lamb, namely Christ;<sup>20</sup> who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake,<sup>21</sup> who through Him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed.<sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:<sup>10</sup> who once were not a people, but now are God’s people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.<sup>11</sup> Beloved, I urge you as foreigners and temporary residents, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;<sup>12</sup> having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation.<sup>13b</sup> Subject yourselves to every human institution for the Lord’s sake: whether to the king, as supreme;<sup>14</sup> or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well.<sup>15</sup> For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people:<sup>16</sup> as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as slaves of God.

to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked.<sup>19</sup> For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God.<sup>20</sup> For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God.<sup>21</sup> For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you<sup>c</sup>, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps,<sup>22</sup> who committed no sin, nor was deceit found in his mouth.<sup>d</sup><sup>23</sup> Who, when he was cursed, did not curse back. of their wives without a word;
<sup>3</sup>Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; <sup>4</sup>but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious. <sup>5</sup>For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: <sup>6</sup>as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

<sup>7</sup>You husbands, in like manner, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble<sup>a</sup>, <sup>9</sup>not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but instead blessing; because<sup>b</sup> to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing.
<sup>10</sup>For,

the righteous,
and his ears open to their
prayer;
but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Now who is he who will harm you, if you become zealous<sup>d</sup> of that which is good? <sup>14</sup>But even if you should suffer for righteousness’ sake, you are blessed. “And do not fear what they fear,<sup>e</sup> nor be troubled.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>15</sup>But sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord<sup>g</sup>; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet<sup>h</sup> with humility and fear; <sup>16</sup>having a good conscience; so that when they speak evil against you, they may be put to shame who slander your good manner of life in Christ.

In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved by means of water. <sup>21</sup>This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the body, but an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ suffered<sup>a</sup> in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; <sup>2</sup>that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for human desires, but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup>For enough time in the past has been spent<sup>b</sup> doing the will of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. <sup>4</sup>They think it is strange that you do not run with them into the same flood of debauchery, blaspheming: <sup>5</sup>who

who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,<sup>3</sup> seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own<sup>g</sup> glory and virtue;<sup>4</sup> by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust.<sup>5</sup> Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge;<sup>6</sup> and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness;<sup>7</sup> and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love.<sup>8</sup> For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>9</sup> For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.<sup>10</sup> Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble.<sup>11</sup> For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore I will be ready always<sup>a</sup> to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup>I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; <sup>14</sup>knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. <sup>15</sup>Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. <sup>16</sup>For we did not follow cunningly devised tales, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. <sup>17</sup>For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”<sup>b</sup> <sup>18</sup>We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup>We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: <sup>20</sup>knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For no prophecy ever came by human will, but people spoke from<sup>c</sup> God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. <sup>2</sup>Many will follow their immoral<sup>d</sup> ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. <sup>3</sup>In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old does not linger, and their destruction is not asleep<sup>e</sup>. <sup>4</sup>For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to the lower parts of hell,<sup>f</sup> and committed them to chains<sup>g</sup> of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; <sup>5</sup>and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a proclaimer of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; <sup>6</sup>and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; <sup>7</sup>and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked <sup>8</sup>(for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds); <sup>9</sup>the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; <sup>10</sup>but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; <sup>11</sup>whereas angels, though greater in might and power, do not bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord. <sup>12</sup>But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, <sup>13</sup>suffering the penalty as the wages of evil; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; <sup>14</sup>having eyes full of adultery, and who cannot cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; <sup>15</sup>forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing; <sup>16</sup>but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. <sup>17</sup>These are wells without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved<sup>a</sup>. <sup>18</sup>For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who actually<sup>b</sup> escape from those who live in error; <sup>19</sup>promising them liberty, while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for a person is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

<sup>20</sup>For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of our<sup>c</sup> Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. <sup>21</sup>For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. <sup>22</sup>It<sup>d</sup> has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again,"<sup>e</sup> and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles: <sup>3</sup>knowing this first, that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking<sup>a</sup> and walking after their own lusts, <sup>4</sup>and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.” <sup>5</sup>For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God; <sup>6</sup>by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. <sup>7</sup>But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same<sup>b</sup> word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly people. <sup>8</sup>But do not forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. <sup>9</sup>The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient toward<sup>c</sup> you<sup>d</sup>, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. <sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as a thief<sup>e</sup>; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be disclosed.<sup>f</sup> <sup>11</sup>Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, <sup>12</sup>looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? <sup>13</sup>But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without blemish and blameless in his sight. <sup>15</sup>Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; <sup>16</sup>as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. <sup>17</sup>You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>18</sup>But grow in the

1John

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life <sup>2</sup>(and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); <sup>3</sup>that which we have seen and heard we declare to you also<sup>b</sup>, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>And we write these things<sup>c</sup>, that our joy may be fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup>This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not tell the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus<sup>d</sup>, his Son, cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have an advocate<sup>e</sup> with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous. <sup>2</sup>And he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. <sup>3</sup>This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. <sup>4</sup>One who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. <sup>5</sup>But whoever keeps his word, God's love has truly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: <sup>6</sup>he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

you heard<sup>a</sup>. <sup>8</sup>Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. <sup>9</sup>He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. <sup>10</sup>He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. <sup>11</sup>But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup>I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

<sup>13</sup>I am writing<sup>b</sup> to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I write to you, young people, because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.

<sup>14</sup>I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young people, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

<sup>15</sup>Do not love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love is not in him. <sup>16</sup>For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not the Father's, but is the world's. <sup>17</sup>The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.

<sup>18</sup>Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. <sup>19</sup>They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. <sup>20</sup>You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup>Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup>Whoever denies the Son, the same does not have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>24a</sup>As for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. <sup>25</sup>This is the promise which he promised us, the everlasting life. <sup>26</sup>These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. <sup>27</sup>As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his<sup>b</sup> anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you<sup>c</sup> remain in him. <sup>28</sup>Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. <sup>29</sup>If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone also<sup>d</sup> who practices righteousness is born of him.

3 See what kind of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God; and we are.<sup>e</sup> For this reason the world does not know us<sup>f</sup>, because it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. <sup>3</sup>We know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. <sup>3</sup>Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. <sup>4</sup>Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup>You know that he was revealed to take away<sup>h</sup> sins, and in him is no sin. <sup>6</sup>Whoever remains in him does not sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him, neither knows him.

<sup>7</sup>Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. <sup>8</sup>He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, to destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup>Whoever is born of God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. <sup>10</sup>In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever does not do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who does not love his brother. <sup>11</sup>For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; <sup>12</sup>unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. <sup>13</sup>Do not be surprised,<sup>i</sup> brothers, if the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who does not love<sup>a</sup> remains in death. <sup>15</sup>Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has everlasting life remaining in him<sup>b</sup>.

<sup>16</sup>By this we know love,<sup>c</sup> because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. <sup>17</sup>But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of God remain in him? <sup>18d</sup>Little children, let us not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. <sup>19</sup>And by this we will<sup>e</sup> know that we are of the truth, and persuade our heart<sup>f</sup> before him, <sup>20</sup>because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. <sup>21</sup>Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; <sup>22</sup>and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. <sup>23</sup>This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded us<sup>g</sup>. <sup>24</sup>He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, <sup>3</sup>and every spirit who does not confess<sup>h</sup> Jesus is not of God; and this is that of the antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. <sup>4</sup>You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. <sup>5</sup>They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. <sup>6</sup>We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God. <sup>8</sup>He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. <sup>9</sup>By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we have loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup>No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

<sup>13</sup>By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. <sup>14</sup>We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup>Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God. <sup>16</sup>We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. <sup>17</sup>In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. <sup>18</sup>There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. <sup>19</sup>We love<sup>a</sup>, because he first loved us. <sup>20</sup>If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. <sup>21</sup>This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. <sup>2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments. <sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous. <sup>4</sup>For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: our<sup>b</sup> faith. <sup>5</sup>Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>6</sup>This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. <sup>7</sup>For there are three who testify<sup>c</sup>: <sup>8</sup>the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. <sup>9</sup>If we accept human testimony, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony that he has testified concerning his Son. <sup>10</sup>He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. <sup>11</sup>The testimony is this, that God gave to us everlasting life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>He who has the Son has the life. He who does not have God's Son does not have the life.

<sup>13</sup>These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have everlasting life<sup>a</sup>.

<sup>14</sup>This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

<sup>16</sup>If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he should ask, and he will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I do not say that he should make a request concerning this. <sup>17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. <sup>18</sup>We know that whoever is born of God does not sin, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. <sup>19</sup>We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. <sup>20</sup>We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. <sup>6</sup>They have testified about your love before the church. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God,<sup>7</sup>because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the pagans<sup>e</sup>. <sup>8</sup>We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote something to the church, but Diotrophes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept what we say. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the church. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, do not imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God. <sup>12</sup>Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

Jude

1 Jude,<sup>b</sup> a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, loved<sup>c</sup> by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.

<sup>3</sup>Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our<sup>d</sup> common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. <sup>4</sup>For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into sensuality, and denying our only Master<sup>e</sup> and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord,<sup>f</sup> having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. <sup>6</sup>Angels who did not keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. <sup>7</sup>Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of everlasting fire.

<sup>8</sup>Yet in like manner these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. <sup>9</sup>But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you." <sup>10</sup>But these speak evil of whatever things they do not know. What they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, they are destroyed in these things. <sup>11</sup>Woe to them. For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished in Korah's rebellion.

<sup>12</sup>These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; <sup>13</sup>wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. <sup>14</sup>About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Look, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his saints, <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

<sup>17</sup>But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts."<sup>19</sup>These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>But you, beloved, keep building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to everlasting life. <sup>22</sup>On some have compassion, who are in doubt,<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>and some save,<sup>b</sup> snatching them out of the fire, and on some have mercy with fear<sup>c</sup>; hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup>Now to him who is able to keep you<sup>d</sup> from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, <sup>25</sup>to the only<sup>e</sup> God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord,<sup>f</sup> be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

He called out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying, “Do not harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads.” <sup>4</sup>I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand,

mountain burning with fire<sup>a</sup> was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, <sup>9</sup>and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. <sup>11</sup>The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

<sup>12</sup>The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day would not shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. <sup>13</sup>I saw, and I heard an eagle,<sup>b</sup> flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe. <sup>13</sup>The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the four<sup>d</sup> horns of the golden altar which is before God, <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had one trumpet, “Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>15</sup>The four angels were freed who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of humanity. <sup>16</sup>The number of the armies of the horsemen<sup>f</sup> was two<sup>g</sup> hundred million<sup>h</sup>. 12 A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. <sup>2</sup>She was with child. She screamed out in pain, laboring to give birth. <sup>3</sup>Another sign was seen in heaven. Look, a great fiery red serpent,<sup>a</sup> having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. <sup>4</sup>His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The serpent stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. <sup>5</sup>She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with an iron scepter. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. <sup>6</sup>The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

The serpent gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. <sup>3</sup>One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. <sup>4</sup>They worshiped the serpent, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" <sup>5</sup>A mouth was given to him speaking proud words and blasphemies. There was given to him authority to act<sup>d</sup> for forty-two months. <sup>6</sup>He opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. <sup>7</sup>It was given to him to make war with the saints,<sup>e</sup> and to overcome them. <sup>5</sup>After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. <sup>6</sup>The seven angels came out of the temple<sup>c</sup> who had the seven plagues, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their chests.

<sup>7</sup>One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>8</sup>The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

16 I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven<sup>d</sup> bowls of the wrath of God on the earth.”

<sup>2</sup>The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

<sup>3</sup>The second one poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a corpse. And every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. <sup>5</sup>I heard the angel of the waters saying, “You are righteous,<sup>e</sup> who is and who was, the Holy One,<sup>f</sup> because you have judged these things. <sup>6</sup>For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this.” <sup>7</sup>I heard the altar saying, “Yes,

<sup>8</sup>The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch people with fire. <sup>9</sup>People were scorched with great heat, and they<sup>b</sup> blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They did not repent and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup>The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, <sup>11</sup>and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They did not repent of their works.

<sup>12</sup>The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates.<sup>c</sup> Its water was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrise. <sup>13</sup>I saw coming out of the mouth of the serpent, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; <sup>14</sup>for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.

blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality.” <sup>3</sup>He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. <sup>5</sup>And on her forehead a name was written, “MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” <sup>6</sup>I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. <sup>7</sup>The angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw was, and is not;

and is about to come up out of the abyss and is going<sup>a</sup> to destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, but is to come. <sup>9</sup>Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. <sup>10</sup>They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. <sup>11</sup>The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. <sup>12</sup>The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. <sup>13</sup>These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup>These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings. They also will overcome who are with him, called and chosen and faithful.” <sup>15</sup>He said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. <sup>16</sup>The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and<sup>b</sup> naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. <sup>17</sup>For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. <sup>18</sup>The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.”

18 After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. <sup>2</sup>He shouted with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean bird, and a prison of every unclean and detestable beast.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury.”

<sup>4</sup>I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you do not receive of her plagues, <sup>5</sup>for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. <sup>6</sup>Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. <sup>7</sup>However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, ‘I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.’ <sup>8</sup>Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. <sup>9</sup>The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup>standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city. For your judgment has come in one hour.’ <sup>11</sup>The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more; <sup>12</sup>merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of bronze, and iron, and marble; <sup>13</sup>and cinnamon, spice, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, chariots, slaves and human lives. <sup>14</sup>The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were luxury and splendor have perished from you, and you will never ever find them again. <sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; <sup>16</sup>saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls. <sup>17</sup>For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.’ Every shipmaster, and everyone who<sup>a</sup> sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, <sup>18</sup>and exclaimed as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What is like the great city?’ <sup>19</sup>They cast dust on their heads, and shouting, weeping and mourning, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth.’ For in one hour is she made desolate.

<sup>20</sup>“Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her.” <sup>21</sup>A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, “Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. <sup>22</sup>The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. <sup>23</sup>The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. <sup>24</sup>In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth.”

19 After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah. Salvation, glory, and power belong to <sup>b</sup>our God: <sup>2</sup>for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.”

<sup>3</sup>A second said, “Hallelujah. Her smoke goes up forever and ever.” <sup>4</sup>The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen. Hallelujah.”

<sup>5</sup>A voice came forth from the throne, saying, “Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great.”

<sup>6</sup>I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, “Hallelujah. For the Lord

<sup>9</sup>He said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’” He said to me, “These are true words of God.”

<sup>10</sup>I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, “Look. Do not do it. I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy.”

<sup>11</sup>And I saw heaven opened, and suddenly there was a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. <sup>12</sup>His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He had<sup>b</sup> a name written which no one knows but he himself. <sup>13</sup>He is clothed in a garment dipped<sup>c</sup> in blood. His name is called “The Word of God.” <sup>14</sup>The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. <sup>15</sup>Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp<sup>d</sup> sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron scepter.<sup>e</sup> He treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. <sup>16</sup>He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, “King of kings, and Lord of lords.”

<sup>17</sup>I saw an angel standing in the sun. He shouted with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, “Come. Be gathered together to the great supper of God,<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty people, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, both free and slave, and small and great.” <sup>19</sup>I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. <sup>20</sup>The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. <sup>21</sup>The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

After this, he must be freed for a short time. <sup>4</sup>I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as did not worship the beast nor his image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. <sup>22</sup>I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God of hosts<sup>d</sup> and the Lamb are its temple. <sup>23</sup>The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. <sup>24</sup>The nations will walk<sup>e</sup> in its light. ## PROPHECY

Psalm 22

For the Chief Musician. Set to “The Doe of the Morning.” A Psalm by David.

<sup>22:1</sup>My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, and from my anguished cries?

<sup>22:2</sup>My God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; and by night, and have no rest.

<sup>22:3</sup>But you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

<sup>22:4</sup>Our fathers trusted in you. They trusted, and you delivered them.

<sup>22:5</sup>They cried to you, and escaped. They trusted in you, and were not put to shame.

<sup>22:6</sup>But I am a worm, not a man; scorned by men, and despised by the people.

<sup>22:7</sup>All those who see me mock me. They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads, saying,

<sup>22:8</sup>“He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him. Let him rescue him, since he delights in him.”

<sup>22:9</sup>You brought me out of the womb. You made me trust at my mother’s breasts.

<sup>22:10</sup>I was cast upon you from my mother’s womb. You are my God since my mother bore me.

<sup>22:11</sup>Do not be far from me, for trouble is near. For there is none to help.

<sup>22:12</sup>Many bulls have surrounded me. Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.

<sup>22:14</sup>I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted within me.

<sup>22:15</sup>My strength is dried up like a potsherd. My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have brought me into the dust of death.

<sup>22:16</sup>For dogs have surrounded me. A company of evildoers have enclosed me. They have pierced<sup>a</sup> my hands and my feet.

<sup>22:17</sup>I can count all of my bones. They look and stare at me.

<sup>22:18</sup>They divide my clothes among them.

They cast lots for my clothing.

<sup>22:19</sup>But do not be far off, LORD. You are my help: hurry to help me.

<sup>22:20</sup>Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog.

<sup>a</sup> DSS

<sup>22:21</sup>Save me from the lion's mouth. Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, you have answered me.

<sup>22:22</sup>I will declare your name to my brothers. In the midst of the assembly I will praise you.

<sup>22:23</sup>You who fear the LORD, praise him. All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him. Revere him, all you descendants of Israel.

<sup>22:24</sup>For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither has he hidden his face from him; but when he cried to him, he heard.

<sup>22:25</sup>Of you comes my praise in the great assembly. I will pay my vows before those who fear him.

<sup>22:26</sup>The humble shall eat and be satisfied. They shall praise the LORD who seek after him. Let your hearts live forever.

<sup>22:27</sup>Every part of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you.

<sup>22:28</sup>For the kingdom is the LORD's, and he is the ruler over the nations.

<sup>22:29</sup>All the prosperous of the earth shall eat and worship. All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him, even he who can't keep his soul alive.

<sup>22:30</sup>Posterity shall serve him. Future generations shall be told about the Lord.

<sup>22:31</sup>They shall come and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, for he has done it.

Isaiah 52:13-53:12

<sup>52:13</sup>Look, my servant shall prosper, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.

<sup>52:14</sup>Just as many were astonished at you (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men),

<sup>52:15</sup>so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.

<sup>53:1</sup>LORD who has believed our message? And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

<sup>53:2</sup>For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no form nor comeliness. When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

<sup>53:3</sup>He was despised, and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and familiar with illness; and as one from whom men hide their face. He was despised, and we did not value him.

<sup>53:4</sup>Surely he has borne our sicknesses, and carried our pains; yet we considered him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.

<sup>53:5</sup>But he was pierced for our transgressions, and he was crushed for our iniquities. The punishment that brought our peace was on him; and by his stripes we are healed.

<sup>53:6</sup>All we like sheep have gone astray. Everyone has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>53:7</sup>He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he didn't open his mouth.

<sup>53:8</sup>He was taken away by oppression and judgment; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, led to death for the transgression of my people?

<sup>53:9</sup>And they assigned his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death; although he had done no wrong, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

<sup>53:10</sup>Yet the LORD was pleased to crush him and make him ill. When you make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

<sup>53:11</sup>After the suffering of his soul he will see light and be satisfied. My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself; and he will bear their iniquities. <sup>53:12</sup>Therefore I will divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul to death, and he was numbered with transgressors; yet he bore the sins of many, and made intercession for their transgressions.

<sup>10</sup>I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of petition; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn.

Jeremiah 31

<sup>31</sup>Look, the days come, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

<sup>32</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, and I disregarded them, says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

<sup>34</sup>and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD; for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more.

SALVATION

God created us and wants to have a personal relationship with us. Our sins separate us and we stand condemned. Because he loves us he has provided a way to bring reconciliation with him. The way he has provided is through faith in his atonement, in the finished work of his Son, the promised Messiah. He gave up his life willingly, taking the punishment for our sins, past, present, & future, so that we can have fellowship with a Holy God for eternity.

Here is how to invite Messiah Jesus (Hebrew: Yeshua) into your heart and life as an act of faith to receive His blood of atonement. Pray this and mean it to the best of your ability:

“Dear Heavenly Father, I realize that I am a sinner in need of a Savior. I believe that Messiah Jesus died on the cross to pay the penalty for my sins. I ask you, Jesus, to cleanse me of sin with your blood of atonement and come into my heart and life. Thank you, Jesus.”

Grow in the knowledge of the Lord, and in your walk with him. Be transformed from a self-centered life to a God-centered life. As you surrender your own plans and will for your life, the Holy Spirit will guide you in every aspect of your life to fulfill the specific plan that God has for you. Put the word and your faith into action. The Messiah is our supreme example. Read the bible daily, and locate a congregation that believes that the bible in its entirety is the inspired word of God. Encourage one another, even more as you see the day approaching.
